

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM dated 28 September 2018

The European Stability Mechanism

Debt Issuance Programme

This document (the "Information Memorandum") describes the debt issuance programme established on 3 December 2012 (the "Programme") by the European Stability Mechanism (the "ESM"), an international financial institution established by the Treaty Establishing the European Stability Mechanism between the Kingdom of Belgium, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Republic of Estonia, Ireland, the Hellenic Republic, the Kingdom of Spain, the French Republic, the Italian Republic, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, Malta, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Republic of Austria, the Portuguese Republic, the Republic of Slovenia, the Slovak Republic and the Republic of Finland signed in Brussels on 2 February 2012, as amended (the "ESM Treaty"), whose seat and principal office is at 6a Circuit de la Foire Internationale, L-1347 Luxembourg (the "Issuer"). Under the Programme, the Issuer may from time to time issue notes (the "Notes") on the terms and conditions set out in this Information Memorandum as modified or supplemented by the final terms (the "Final Terms") published at the time of issue.

Application may be made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Programme also permits Notes to be issued on an unlisted basis or to be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by such other further listing authorities, stock exchanges, regulated markets and/or trading facilities or quotation systems as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealers, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Notes will be issued in bearer form or registered form (unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms).

IMPORTANT NOTICES

This Information Memorandum, together with any Final Terms, contains all the information that the Issuer has authorised to be published concerning the Programme. This Information Memorandum was last revised on the date appearing on the cover and speaks as of that date only. Any information concerning the Programme not contained herein must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer.

Neither this Information Memorandum nor any Final Terms constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer that any recipient of this Information Memorandum or any Final Terms should subscribe for or purchase any Notes.

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and, subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S")) and Notes that are in bearer form for U.S. federal income tax purposes are not being offered to U.S. Holders. The Notes may be offered and sold (i) within the United States to qualified institutional buyers, as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A") in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A and (ii) in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S. Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that sellers of the Rule 144A Notes may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A. For a description of these and certain further restrictions, see "Subscription and Sale" and "Transfer Restrictions".

Neither the Programme nor the Notes have been approved or disapproved by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, any state securities commission in the United States or any other U.S. regulatory authority, nor has any of the foregoing authorities passed upon or endorsed the merits of any offering of notes or the accuracy or adequacy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

In this Information Memorandum, unless otherwise specified, references to an "ESM Member" are references to a contracting party to the ESM Treaty, references to "€", "EUR" or "euro" are to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union, and as defined in Article 2 of Council Regulation (EC) No 974/98 of 3 May 1998 on the introduction of the euro, as amended, and references to "U.S.$" "USD", "U.S. dollars" are to United States dollars.

STABILISATION

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilising Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation action may not occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of the Stabilising Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

MIFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET

The Final Terms in respect of any Notes issued other than by the auction process will include a legend entitled "MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes, taking into account the five (5) categories referred to in item 18 of the Guidelines published by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") on 5 February 2018 and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration such determination; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

The Issuer is exempt from MiFID II and does not constitute a manufacturer or a distributor under the product governance rules set out in EU Delegated Directive 2017/593. The Issuer is therefore not subject to the responsibilities conferred on manufacturers or distributors therein.

BENCHMARKS REGULATION

Amounts payable under the Floating Rate Notes may be calculated by reference to EURIBOR or LIBOR, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, which are respectively provided by the European Money Markets Institute ("EMMI") and the ICE Benchmark Administration Limited ("ICE"). As at the date of this Prospectus, the EMMI does not appear and the ICE does appear on the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by ESMA pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmarks Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011) (the "Benchmarks Regulation"). As far as the Issuer is aware, the transitional provisions in Article 51 of the Benchmarks Regulation apply, such that EMMI is not currently required to obtain authorisation or registration (or, if located outside the European Union, recognition, endorsement or equivalence). The relevant Final Terms in respect of an issue of Floating Rate Notes will, where applicable specify the relevant benchmark, the relevant administrator and whether such administrator appears on the ESMA register referred to above.

ROUNDING

Certain figures (including data expressed in thousands or millions) and percentages contained in this Information Memorandum, including financial information, have been subject to rounding adjustments. Accordingly, in certain instances, the sum of numbers may not conform exactly to the total figure given or implied as the result of that sum, or the sum of certain numbers presented as a percentage may not conform to the total percentage given.

RISK FACTORS

The purchase of Notes may involve substantial risks and is suitable only for sophisticated investors who have the knowledge and experience in financial matters necessary to enable them to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Notes and have sufficient financial resources to bear the risks of an investment in the Notes. Before making an investment decision, prospective purchasers of Notes should consider carefully, in the light of their own financial circumstances and investment objectives, all of the information in this Information Memorandum. If any, or a combination of, these risks occurs, the Issuer's activities, reputation, financial condition and/or results of operations could be adversely affected. If this occurs, the market value of the Notes may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment.

The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only risks and uncertainties related to the Issuer and the Notes. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known, or currently believed to be immaterial, could also cause the Issuer to be unable to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Note. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Information Memorandum and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision. Further, any prospective investor should take its own legal, financial, accounting, regulatory, tax and other relevant advice as to the structure and viability of its investment.

Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

Investors in Notes are exposed to the creditworthiness of the ESM.

The ESM is an international financial institution created by the ESM Members and its purpose is to mobilise funding and provide stability support for the benefit of ESM Members experiencing, or threatened by, severe financing problems, if indispensable to safeguard the financial stability of the euro area as a whole and of the ESM Members. ESM is exposed to the risk of non-payment by ESM Members that have received financial assistance.

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has paid-in capital of €80.5 billion and subscribed (but not paid-in) capital of €624.3 billion that the ESM Members have undertaken to pay in the circumstances set out in the ESM Treaty. Investors in the Notes are exposed to the creditworthiness of ESM and have no recourse to any ESM Members.

Differences in accounting methodology may be material to an understanding of the financial information contained in this Information Memorandum.

The Issuer prepares financial statements in accordance with the general principles of the Directive 86/635/EEC of the Council of the European Communities of 8 December 1986 on the annual accounts and consolidated accounts of banks and other financial institutions, as amended by Directive 2001/65/EC of 27 September 2001, by Directive 2003/51/EC of 18 June 2003 and by Directive 2006/46/EC of 14 June 2006, as amended ("EU GAAP"). The preparation of financial statements in conformity with EU GAAP requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. Certain differences exist between EU GAAP and both the International Financial Reporting Standards, as adopted by the European Union ("IFRS") and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"), and these differences may be material to an understanding of the financial information contained in this Information Memorandum. This Information Memorandum does not discuss any significant differences between EU GAAP and both IFRS and U.S. GAAP, notably in relation to presentation, valuation and disclosure, as they apply to the Issuer. The Issuer's financial statements in this Information Memorandum have not been reconciled to IFRS or U.S. GAAP, and the Issuer does not intend to reconcile future financial statements to IFRS or U.S. GAAP. Prospective investors should consult their own financial or accounting advisors for an understanding of the differences between EU GAAP, IFRS and U.S. GAAP and how these differences might affect the financial information contained herein. The Issuer's financial statements as of and for the years ended 31 December 2015, 2016 and 2017, including its accounting policies, are incorporated by reference in this information memorandum and are also published on its website.

The importance of creditworthiness and liquidity in ESM investment and treasury operations may lead to a negative return on the investment of ESM's paid-in capital, reserves, and/or liquidity buffer.

The paid-in capital, reserve fund, and the liquidity awaiting disbursement by the ESM pursuant to lending programmes or to meet other financial obligations of the ESM (the "liquidity buffer") are invested in accordance with guidelines defined by the ESM Members through the Board of Directors. Those guidelines prioritise the creditworthiness and liquidity of target assets over the return on investments. In a low or negative yield environment, fulfilling the creditworthiness and liquidity objectives may require the ESM to accept a negative return on the investment of any one or all of its paid-in capital, its reserve fund, or its liquidity buffer. The ESM has actively diversified its investments and continues to look for additional measures to mitigate the impact of the negative yield environment, in line with its guidelines and its mandate. Nonetheless, a large part of the ESM assets are held in cash at euro area central banks with negative interest rate remuneration. The persistence of this environment has significantly negatively affected the ESM's results in 2017 and is expected to continue to significantly negatively affect the ESM's results.

Risk Factors relating to the Notes

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors.

Each potential investor should determine the suitability of investing in the Notes in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to meaningfully evaluate the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained in this Information Memorandum;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the relevant Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the currency in which such potential investor's financial activities are principally denominated;
- (iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Some Notes are complex financial instruments. A potential investor should not invest in Notes that are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with the assistance of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of such Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

The trading market for debt securities may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

The trading market for debt securities is influenced by financial market conditions and, to varying degrees, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries.

The trading market for debt securities is also influenced by changes in political conditions and changes in central bank policies, in Europe and elsewhere. For example, changes in asset-purchasing programmes or other quantitative easing by central banks, including the ECB's policy of secondary market purchases of securities issued by eligible international organisations and multilateral developments such as the ESM, could affect the trading market for the Notes.

There is a risk that financial market conditions, political conditions and changes in central bank policy in Europe or elsewhere may cause market volatility, lack of liquidity or decreases in the market value of the Notes.

The Notes contain no events of default.

The Notes do not include any events of default that would entitle a Noteholder to give notice that such Note is immediately due and repayable.

An active trading market for the Notes may not develop and there may be limited liquidity for the Notes.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Notes will develop, or, if one does develop, that it will be maintained or that it will provide the holder of Notes with sufficient liquidity. If an active trading market for the Notes does not develop or is not maintained, the market price and liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected.

The Issuer is entitled to buy the Notes in the secondary market, as described in Condition 8, and the Issuer may issue further Notes of a Series, as described in Condition 16. Such transactions may favourably or adversely affect the market value and liquidity of the Notes. Additional and competing products introduced in the markets might adversely affect the value and liquidity of the Notes. Accordingly, the purchase of the Notes is suitable only for investors who can bear the risks associated with a lack of liquidity in the Notes and the financial and other risks associated with an investment in the Notes.

Any early redemption at the option of the Issuer, if provided for in any Final Terms for a particular issue of Notes, could cause the yield received by Noteholders to be considerably less than anticipated.

The Final Terms for a particular Series of Notes may provide for early redemption at the option of the Issuer. As a consequence, the yields received upon redemption may be lower than expected, and the redeemed face amount of the Notes may be lower than the purchase price for the Notes paid by the Noteholder. As a consequence, part of the capital invested by the Noteholder may be lost, so that the Noteholder in such case would not receive the total amount of the capital invested. In addition, investors that choose to reinvest monies they receive through an early redemption may be able to do so only in securities with a lower yield than the redeemed Notes. A partial redemption of the Notes of a particular Series may also adversely affect liquidity for the remaining outstanding Notes of such Series.

The Notes may be subject to exchange rate risks.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (for example, due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls which could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. The Issuer does not have any control over the factors that generally affect these risks, such as economic, financial and political events and the supply and demand for applicable currencies. In recent years, exchange rates between certain currencies have been volatile and could continue to be volatile in the future. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (ii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (iii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Notes.

The Notes are subject to interest rate risks.

Investment in the Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the market value of the Notes.

The Issuer shall not pay any additional amounts in case of withholding.

In the event of any withholding or deduction for reason of taxes required by applicable law on any payments made by the Issuer under the Notes, the Notes do not include any provision requiring the Issuer to pay any additional amounts in respect of any such withholding or deduction nor any provision entitling or obliging the Issuer to redeem any such Notes.

The ESM is established as an international financial institution with certain immunities under the ESM Treaty and, except to the extent it has waived such immunities, it may be difficult to obtain or enforce judgments against it regardless of any waiver of immunity.

The ESM is established as an international financial institution under the ESM Treaty. The ESM Treaty grants the ESM wide-ranging immunities.

Condition 19(b) of the Notes requires that any dispute arising out of or in connection with the terms of the Notes must be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Luxembourg City (Grand Duchy of Luxembourg). The ESM has agreed in relation to the Notes (to the extent permitted by law and the ESM Treaty) solely in respect of the proceedings described in Condition 19(b) to waive irrevocably its immunity from suit. This waiver does not extend to (i) any dispute or controversy relating to non-contractual obligations, (ii) any measure of execution, or (iii) any other proceedings (including actions under the securities laws of Luxembourg, the United States or any other jurisdictions) and does not imply a waiver of any other privileges and immunities from which the Issuer may benefit under the ESM Treaty or the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Therefore, making a claim against the ESM arising out of or in connection with the terms of the Notes in jurisdictions outside Luxembourg, and enforcing any judgement which is obtained, whether in Luxembourg or elsewhere, may be difficult or impossible.

The decision of the majority of Noteholders may bind all holders of the Notes.

The terms and conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally, including a modification to the terms and conditions of the Notes. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority, as well as Noteholders across different series of Notes in the case of Cross-Series Modification. The general meeting may deliberate on any proposal relating to the modification of the terms and conditions of the Notes including any proposal, whether for arbitration or settlement, relating to rights in dispute or which were the subject of judicial decisions as more fully described in Condition 15.

The credit ratings assigned to the Notes and/or to the Issuer may not reflect all factors that could affect the value of the Notes.

The ESM has solicited ratings from Moody's and Fitch. One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Notes and/or to the Issuer. The Notes and/or Issuer may receive unsolicited ratings. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed in this Information Memorandum, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes, and the ratings are subject to change. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities, does not address the likelihood or timing of repayment and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

Investors will not be able to calculate in advance their rate of return on Floating Rate Notes.

A key difference between Floating Rate Notes and Fixed Rate Notes is that interest income on Floating Rate Notes cannot be anticipated. Due to varying interest income, investors are not able to determine a definite yield of Floating Rate Notes at the time they purchase them, so that their return on investment cannot be compared with that of investments having fixed interest periods. If the terms and conditions of the Notes provide for frequent interest payment dates, investors are exposed to the reinvestment risk if market interest rates decline.

The regulation and reform of "benchmarks" may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to such "benchmarks".

The London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"), the Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") and other indices, which are deemed to be "benchmarks", are the subject of recent national, international and other regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes linked to or referencing such a "benchmark".

Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the "Benchmarks Regulation") was published in the Official Journal of the EU on 29 June 2016 and entered into force on 1 January 2018. The Benchmarks Regulation applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the EU. It will, among other things, (i) require benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevent certain uses by EU supervised entities of "benchmarks" of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The Benchmarks Regulation could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a rate or index deemed to be a "benchmark", in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the "benchmark" are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the Benchmarks Regulation. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the "benchmark".

More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of "benchmarks", could increase the costs and risks of issuing Notes linked to a "benchmark" and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have the following effects on certain "benchmarks" (including LIBOR and EURIBOR): (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to such "benchmark"; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the "benchmarks" or (iii) lead to the disappearance of the "benchmark". Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international, national or other proposals for reform or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to or referencing a "benchmark".

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the Benchmarks Regulation reforms, investigations and licensing issues in making any investment decision with respect to the Notes linked to or referencing a "benchmark".

Uncertainty about the future of LIBOR may adversely affect the return on Floating Rate Notes and the price at which Floating Rate Notes can be sold.

On 27 July 2017, the Chief Executive of the UK Financial Conduct Authority, which regulates LIBOR, announced that it intends to stop persuading or compelling banks to submit rates for the calculation of LIBOR to the administrator of LIBOR after 2021 (the "FCA Announcement"). The FCA Announcement indicates that the continuation of LIBOR on the current basis cannot and will not be guaranteed after 2021. The potential elimination of LIBOR or any other "benchmark", or changes in the manner of administration of any "benchmark", could require an adjustment to the terms and conditions of outstanding Notes of any Series, which may require a General Meeting of the Noteholders of such Series, or result in other consequences, in respect of any Notes linked to or referencing such "benchmark" (including but not limited to Floating Rate Notes whose interest rates are linked to LIBOR). Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes.

Investors should be aware that, if LIBOR were discontinued or otherwise unavailable, the rate of interest on Floating Rate Notes which reference LIBOR will be determined for the relevant period by the fallback provisions applicable to such Notes. Depending on the manner in which LIBOR is to be determined under the Terms and Conditions, this may in certain circumstances (i) be reliant upon the provision by reference banks of offered quotations for LIBOR which, depending on market circumstances, may not be available at the relevant time or (ii) result in the effective application of a fixed rate based on the rate which applied in the previous period when LIBOR was available. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and return on, any Floating Rate Notes which reference LIBOR.

Zero Coupon Notes are subject to higher price fluctuations than interest-bearing notes.

Changes in market interest rates have a substantially stronger impact on the prices of Zero Coupon Notes than on the prices of interest-bearing Notes because the discounted issue prices are substantially below par. If market interest rates increase, Zero Coupon Notes can suffer higher price losses than interest-bearing Notes having the same maturity and credit rating. Due to this leverage effect, Zero Coupon Notes are a type of investment associated with a particularly high price risk.

The Notes may be affected by changes in law.

The Notes will be governed by English, Luxembourg, German or other laws in effect as at the date of this Information Memorandum. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decisions or change to English (or any other relevant) law after the date of this Information Memorandum, nor can any assurance be given as to whether any such change could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to make payments under the Notes.

A Noteholder's effective yield on the Notes may be diminished due to the tax impact on that Noteholder of its investment in the Notes.

Payments of interest on the Notes, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Notes, may be subject to taxation in the Noteholder's home jurisdiction or in other jurisdictions in which it is required to pay taxes. The general tax impact on Noteholders in the United States is described under "Taxation" below; however, the tax impact on an individual Noteholder may differ from the situation described for Noteholders generally. The Issuer advises all investors to contact their own tax advisors for advice on the tax impact of an investment in the Notes.

A Noteholder's actual yield on the Notes may be reduced from the stated yield due to transaction costs.

When Notes are purchased or sold, several types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) are incurred in addition to the current price of the security. These incidental costs may significantly reduce the return on the Notes for an investor. For instance, financial institutions generally charge their clients either a fixed minimum or a pro-rata commission, depending on the order value. Noteholders should take into account that, to the extent that additional parties are involved in executing an order, including, but not limited to, dealers or brokers, they may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third party costs).

In addition to such costs directly related to the purchase of securities (direct costs), Noteholders must also take into account any ongoing follow-up costs (such as custody fees). Investors should inform themselves about any additional costs incurred in connection with the purchase, custody or sale of the Notes before investing in the Notes.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions which, as supplemented, amended and/or replaced by the relevant Final Terms, will be endorsed on each Note in definitive or individual certificate form issued under the Programme. 5. Calculation of Interest

- (a) Accrual of interest: The Notes bear interest from the Interest Commencement Date at the Rate of Interest payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 9 (Payments- Bearer Notes) and Condition 10 (Payments- Registered Notes). Notes will cease to bear interest from the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case they will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 5 (Calculation of Interest) (as well after as before judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of the Notes held by the relevant Holder up to that day are received by or on behalf of such Holder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Issuing and Paying Agent has notified the Holders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

- (b) Calculation of Interest Amount: The Interest Amount shall be determined by applying the Rate of Interest (as determined, where applicable, pursuant to Condition 6 (Floating Rate Note and Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions)) to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards). In relation to Floating Rate Notes and Index-Linked Interest Notes the Interest Amount shall be calculated and published by the Calculation Agent in accordance with Condition 6 (Floating Rate Note and Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions).
- (c) Payment to Holder: The amount of interest payable to each Holder, for any Interest Period, in respect of the Notes held by it shall, subject to Condition 9 (Payments- Bearer Notes) and Condition 10 (Payments- Registered Notes), be an amount calculated by dividing the principal amount of the Notes held by such Holder, on the relevant Interest Payment Date, by the Calculation Amount, multiplying the resulting figure by the Interest Amount and rounding such amount to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards).
- (d) For the purposes of this Condition 5 (Calculation of Interest), a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

6. Floating Rate Note and Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 6 (Floating Rate Note and Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions) is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Screen Rate Determination: If Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the following basis:
 - (i) if the Reference Rate is a composite quotation or customarily supplied by one entity, the Calculation Agent will determine the Reference Rate which appears on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
 - (ii) in any other case, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the Reference Rates which appear on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
 - (iii) if, in the case of (i) above, such rate does not appear on that page or, in the case of (ii) above, fewer than two such rates appear on that page or if, in either case, the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, the Calculation Agent will:
 - (A) request the Principal Financial Centre office of each of the Reference Banks to provide a quotation of the Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date to prime banks in the interbank market of the Principal Financial Centre in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time; and
 - (B) determine the arithmetic mean of such quotations; and
 - (iv) if fewer than two such quotations are provided as requested, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the rates (being the nearest to the Reference Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent) quoted by major banks in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency, selected by the Calculation Agent, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (local time in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency) on the first day of the relevant Interest Period for loans in the Specified Currency to leading

European banks for a period equal to the relevant Interest Period and in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time, and the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean so determined; provided, however, that if the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate or (as the case may be) an arithmetic mean in accordance with the above provisions in relation to any Interest Period, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes during such Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of a preceding Interest Period.

- (c) ISDA Determination: If ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where "ISDA Rate" in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:
- (i) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the relevant Final Terms;
 - (ii) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a period specified in the relevant Final Terms; and
 - (iii) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is either (A) if the relevant Floating Rate Option is based on the London inter-bank offered rate (LIBOR) for a currency, the first day of that Interest Period or (B) in any other case, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (d) Index-Linked Interest: If the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Rate(s) of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (e) Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest: If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Rate of Interest shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (f) Calculation of other amounts: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that any other amount is to be calculated by the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time or times at which any such amount is to be determined, calculate the relevant amount. The relevant amount will be calculated by the Calculation Agent in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (g) Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Rate of Interest and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, and any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) to be notified to the Issuing and Paying Agent and each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination but (in the case of each Rate of Interest, Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date) in any event not later than the first day of the relevant Interest Period. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Holders. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period.
- (h) Notifications, etc.: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition 5 (Calculation of Interest) by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Agents, the Holders and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such Person will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.

7. Zero Coupon Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 7 (Zero Coupon Note Provisions) is applicable to the Notes only if the Zero Coupon Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes: If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Holder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Issuing and Paying Agent has notified the Holders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

8. Redemption and Purchase

- (a) Scheduled redemption: Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed at their Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date, subject as provided in Condition 9 (Payments- Bearer Notes) and Condition 10 (Payments- Registered Notes).
- (b) Redemption at the option of the Issuer: If the Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, all, but not some only, of the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer on any Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Call) or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, by delivery by the Issuer to the Holders of New ESG Notes on the Issuer's giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) plus accrued interest (if any) to such date or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, by delivery of New ESG Notes).
- (c) No other redemption: The Issuer shall not be entitled to redeem Notes otherwise than as provided in paragraph (a) above or as expressly provided in the Final Terms of the relevant issue of Notes.
- (d) Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes: Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Note at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which the Note becomes due and payable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, the calculation in respect of the period of less than a full year shall be made on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms for the purposes of this Condition 8(d) or, if none is so specified, a Day Count Fraction of 30E/360.

- (e) Notice of redemption: All Notes in respect of which any notice of redemption is given under this Condition shall be redeemed on the date specified in accordance with this Condition.

- (b) Interest: Payments of interest shall, subject to paragraph (h) below, be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the appropriate coupons at the Specified Office of the Issuing and Paying Agent outside the United States in the manner described in paragraph (a) above.
- (c) Payments in New York City: Payments of principal or interest may be made at the Specified Office of the Issuing and Paying Agent in New York City if (i) the Issuer has appointed the Issuing and Paying Agent outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that the Issuing and Paying Agent will be able to make payment of the full amount of the interest on the Notes in the currency in which the payment is due when due, (ii) payment of the full amount of such interest at the offices of all the Issuing and Paying Agent is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions and (iii) payment is permitted by applicable United States law.
- (d) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Bearer Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 11 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Holders in respect of such payments.
- (e) Deductions for unmatured coupons: If the relevant Final Terms specify that the Fixed Rate Note Provisions are applicable and a Bearer Note is presented without all unmatured coupons relating thereto:
 - (i) if the aggregate amount of the missing coupons is less than or equal to the amount of principal due for payment, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the missing coupons will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of such missing coupons which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment;
 - (ii) if the aggregate amount of the missing coupons is greater than the amount of principal due for payment:
 - (A) so many of such missing coupons shall become void (in inverse order of maturity) as will result in the aggregate amount of the remainder of such missing coupons (the "Relevant Coupons") being equal to the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that where this sub-paragraph would otherwise require a fraction of a missing coupon to become void, such missing coupon shall become void in its entirety; and
 - (B) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, if less, the amount of principal due for payment) will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that, if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, as the case may be, the amount of principal due for payment) which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment.

Each sum of principal so deducted shall be paid in the manner provided in paragraph (a) above against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the relevant missing coupons.

- (f) Unmatured coupons void: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that this Condition 9(f) is applicable or that the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are applicable, on the due date for final redemption of any Bearer Note, all unmatured coupons relating thereto (whether or not still attached) shall become void and no payment will be made in respect thereof.
- (g) Payments on Business Days: If the due date for payment of any amount in respect of any Bearer Note or coupon is not a Business Day in the place of presentation, the Holder shall not be entitled to payment in such place of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day in such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of any such delay.
- (h) Payments other than in respect of matured coupons: Payments of interest other than in respect of matured coupons shall be made only against presentation of the relevant Notes at the Specified Office of the Issuing and Paying Agent outside the United States (or in New York City if permitted by paragraph (c) above).
- (i) Partial payments: If the Issuing and Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Bearer Note or coupon presented to it for payment, the Issuing and Paying Agent will endorse thereon a statement indicating the amount and date of such payment.
- (j) Exchange of talons: On or after the maturity date of the final coupon which is (or was at the time of issue) part of a coupon sheet relating to the Bearer Notes, the talon forming part of such coupon sheet may be exchanged at the Specified Office of the Issuing and Paying Agent for a further coupon sheet (including, if appropriate, a further talon but excluding any coupons in respect of which claims have already become void pursuant to Condition 12 (Prescription)). Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, any unexchanged talon relating to such Bearer Note shall become void and no coupon will be delivered in respect of such talon.

10. Payments - Registered Notes

This Condition 10 (Payments - Registered Notes) is only applicable to Registered Notes.

- (a) Principal: Payments of principal shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due, or, upon application by a Holder of a Registered Note to the specified office of the Registrar not later than the fifteenth day before the due date for any such payment, by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a branch of a bank in the City of London) and (in the case of redemption) upon surrender (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsement) of the relevant Note Certificates at the Specified Office of the Registrar.

- (c) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Registered Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 11 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Holders in respect of such payments.
- (d) Payments on Business Days: Where payment is to be made by transfer to an account, payment instructions (for value the due date, or, if the due date is not a Business Day, for value the next succeeding Business Day) will be initiated and, where payment is to be made by cheque, the cheque will be mailed (i) (in the case of payments of principal and interest payable on redemption) on the later of the due date for payment and the day on which the relevant Note Certificate is surrendered (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsed) at the specified office of the Registrar and (ii) (in the case of payments of interest payable other than on redemption) on the due date for payment. A Holder of a Registered Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other payment in respect of any delay in payment resulting from (A) the due date for a payment not being a Business Day or (B) a cheque mailed in accordance with this Condition 10 (Payments - Registered Notes) arriving after the due date for payment or being lost in the mail.

- (e) Partial payments: If the Registrar makes a partial payment in respect of any Registered Note, the Issuer shall procure that the amount and date of such payment are noted on the Register and, in the case of partial payment upon presentation of a Note Certificate, that a statement indicating the amount and the date of such payment is endorsed on the relevant Note Certificate.
- (f) Record date: Each payment in respect of a Registered Note will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the opening of business in the place of the Registrar's specified office on the fifteenth day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date"). In that event, the Issuer shall not be under any obligation to pay any additional amounts in respect of such withholding or deduction whatsoever.

12. Prescription

Claims for principal in respect of Bearer Notes shall become void unless the relevant Bearer Notes are presented for payment within ten years of the appropriate Relevant Date. Claims for interest in respect of Bearer Notes shall become void unless the relevant coupons are presented for payment within five years of the appropriate Relevant Date. Claims for principal and interest on redemption in respect of Registered Notes shall become void unless the relevant Note Certificates are surrendered for payment within ten years of the appropriate Relevant Date.

13. Replacement of Notes and Coupons

If any Note or coupon is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the Specified Office of the Issuing and Paying Agent, in the case of Bearer Notes, or the Registrar in the case of Registered Notes (and, if the Notes are then admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of the Issuing and Paying Agent or Transfer Agent in any particular place, the Issuing and Paying Agent or the Transfer Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system), subject to all applicable laws and competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system requirements, upon payment by the claimant of the expenses incurred in connection with such replacement and on such terms as to evidence, security, indemnity and otherwise as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes or coupons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

14. Agents

The Agents shall act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders.

The initial Agents and their initial Specified Offices are listed below. The initial Calculation Agent (if any) is specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Agent and to appoint a successor issuing and paying agent or Calculation Agent and additional or successor paying agents; provided, however, that:

- (i) the Issuer shall at all times maintain an issuing and paying agent; and
- (ii) if a Calculation Agent is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Issuer shall at all times maintain a Calculation Agent; and
- (iii) if and for so long as the Notes are admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a paying agent and/or a transfer agent in any particular place, the Issuer shall maintain a paying agent and/or a transfer agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notice of any change in any of the Agents or in their Specified Offices shall promptly be given to the Holders.

- (a) Meetings of Holders: The Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening Meetings of Holders to consider matters relating to the Notes, including the Modification of any provision of these Conditions. Certain provisions of this Condition 15 (Meetings of Holders, Modifications and Waivers) are summaries of the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement and are subject to their detailed provisions. Holders are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement.
- (b) Convening of Meeting: A Meeting may be convened by the Issuer at any time.
- (c) Quorum and Voting: The quorum at any Meeting at which Holders will vote on a proposed Modification of: (a) a Reserved Matter will be one or more voters present and holding not less than 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding; and (b) a Non-Reserved Matter will be one or more voters present and holding not less than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

These Conditions and any agreement governing the issuance or administration of the Notes may be modified in relation to a Reserved Matter with the consent of the Issuer and: (a) the affirmative vote of Holders of not less than 75% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes represented at a duly called Meeting; or (b) a written resolution signed by or on behalf of Holders of not less than 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

In the case of a Cross-Series Modification, these Conditions and the terms and conditions of Debt Securities of any other Debt Securities Series, and any agreement governing the issuance or administration of the Notes or the Debt Securities of such other Debt Securities Series, may be modified in relation to a Reserved Matter with the consent of the Issuer and: (a) (i) the affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities represented at separate duly called Meetings of the holders of the Debt Securities of all the Debt Securities Series (taken in the aggregate) that would be affected by the proposed Modification; or (ii) a written resolution signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of all the Debt Securities Series (taken in the aggregate) that would be affected by the proposed Modification; and (b) (i) the affirmative vote of more than 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities represented at separate duly called Meetings of the holders of each Debt Securities Series (taken individually) that would be affected by the proposed Modification; or (ii) a written resolution signed by or on behalf of the holders of more than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Debt Securities of each Debt Securities Series (taken individually) that would be affected by the proposed Modification. Any such resolution duly passed at a Meeting convened and held in accordance with these Conditions and the provisions of the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement, and a written resolution duly signed by the requisite majority of Holders, will be binding on all Holders, whether or not the Holder was present at the Meeting, voted for or against the resolution or signed the written resolution.

- (d) Modification: The Notes and these Conditions may be amended without the consent of the Holders to correct a manifest error.

16. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Holders, create and issue further notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest and the issue price) so as to form a single series with the Notes, provided that further notes that are not fungible with the Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall have a separate ISIN or other identifying number from the Notes if the Notes were issued in accordance with Rule 144A. The Issuer may from time to time create and issue other series of notes.

- (a) Bearer Notes: Notices to the Holders of Bearer Notes shall be valid if published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) and, if the Bearer Notes are admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) or in either case, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of first publication (or if required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the first date on which publication shall have been made in all the required newspapers). Holders of coupons shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to the Holders of Bearer Notes.
- (b) Registered Notes: Notices to the Holders of Registered Notes shall be sent to them by first class mail (or its equivalent) or (if posted to an overseas address) by airmail at their respective addresses on the Register and, if the Registered Notes are admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, notices to Holders will be published on the date of such mailing in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) or in either case, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the fourth day after the date of mailing.

18. Rounding

currency other than euro, to the nearest integer of the lowest unit of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency with half such unit being rounded upwards.

19. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- (a) Governing law: The Notes and all non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes shall, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, be governed by Luxembourg law, English law or such other law designated in the relevant Final Terms, except as to matters relating to the authorisation and execution of the Notes by the Issuer which shall be governed by the ESM Treaty.
- (b) Jurisdiction: The courts of Luxembourg-City (Grand Duchy of Luxembourg) shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the terms of the Notes (a "Dispute").
- (c) Appropriate forum: The Issuer agrees that the courts referred to in Condition 19(b) are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any Dispute and, accordingly, it shall not argue to the contrary.
- (d) Waiver of immunity: The Issuer hereby agrees (to the extent permitted by law and the ESM Treaty) but solely in respect of the proceedings described in Condition 19(b) to waive irrevocably its immunity from suit. This waiver shall not extend to (i) any dispute or controversy relating to non-contractual obligations, (ii) any measure of execution, or (iii) any other proceedings (including actions under the securities laws of Luxembourg, the United States or any other jurisdictions), and does not imply a waiver of any other privileges and immunities from which the Issuer may benefit under the ESM Treaty or the laws of the relevant jurisdiction.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUER

Overview

The ESM is an international financial institution established by the Treaty Establishing the European Stability Mechanism (the "ESM Treaty"). It is the successor to the European Financial Stability Facility (the "EFSF") which was initially set up to address the European sovereign debt crisis in 2010.

The ESM Treaty was signed by the member states of the European Union ("EU") that adopted the euro as their currency (the "Euro Area Member States" or "ESM Members"¹) on 2 February 2012. After ratification by all Euro Area Member States, the ESM Treaty became effective on 27 September 2012. The ESM commenced operations on 8 October 2012 and has its seat and principal office in Luxembourg.

The purpose of the ESM is to mobilise funding and provide stability support for the benefit of ESM Members which are experiencing or are threatened by severe financing problems, if indispensable to safeguard the financial stability of the euro area as a whole and of each of the ESM Members. The provision of stability support by the ESM is financed by borrowing in the European and international capital markets and money markets. In order to finance the operation of the ESM itself, a small margin is then charged to the ESM Members receiving stability support.

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has a total capital of €704.8 billion subscribed by all ESM Members, of which €80.5 billion is paid-in. As of 31 August 2018, ESM has disbursed €41.3 billion to Spain (€26.7 billion outstanding), €61.9 billion to Greece (€59.9 billion outstanding) and €6.3 billion to Cyprus (€6.3 billion outstanding), for a total of €109.5 billion (€92.9 billion outstanding). As of 31 December 2017, ESM has issued €89.0 billion in bills and bonds outstanding.

Capital Structure

Contribution Key and Paid-in Capital

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has a total subscribed capital of €704.8 billion, which has been subscribed by all ESM Members and of which €80.5 billion is paid-in, as set forth in the following table (the "Contribution Key"):

The paid-in capital was originally targeted to amount to €80 billion. As of 31 August 2018, and following the accession of Latvia and Lithuania to the ESM, the paid-in capital stands at €80.5 billion, and the total subscribed capital at €704.8 billion.⁴ €624.3 billion remains as authorised capital that can be called in from the ESM Members in proportion to their respective subscription to the authorised capital stock, as provided in the Contribution Key.

Paid-in capital is not used for lending activity and is invested according to the investment guidelines described below under "Investment and Dividend Policies".

Authorised capital stock may not be encumbered or pledged in any manner whatsoever and cannot be transferred with the exception of transfers for purposes of implementing certain technical adjustments to the Contribution Key.

Capital Calls

Capital other than paid-in capital comprises €624.3 billion of callable capital as of 31 August 2018, which the ESM Members must pay if requested to do so in one of the three scenarios described below. The ESM Members have irrevocably and unconditionally undertaken in the ESM Treaty to pay any capital call, up to an amount equal to the difference between their capital subscription and the capital paid in by them at the time that a call is made under the ESM Treaty. The liability of each ESM Member is limited to its portion of the authorised capital stock at its issue price and no ESM Member is liable, by reason of its membership, for obligations of the ESM. There are three scenarios in which a capital call up to the amounts described above can be made:

- The Board of Governors may make a capital call at any time by a decision taken by mutual agreement.
- The Board of Directors may make a capital call by a simple majority decision in order to restore the level of paid-in capital if, due to the absorption of losses, the paid-in capital amount is reduced below €80.5484 billion or below such other threshold set by the Board of Governors.
- The Managing Director shall make an emergency capital call in a timely manner to avoid default on any scheduled or other payment obligations due to the ESM's creditors. ESM Members have irrevocably undertaken in the ESM Treaty to pay on demand such a capital call and to make payment within 7 days of receipt of such a demand.

If any ESM Member fails to meet a capital call, the other ESM Members will be required to pay the ensuing shortfall through a revised increased capital call. Payment of such revised increased capital call shall be on a pro-rata basis according to the Contribution Key. In such event, the Board of Governors will need to decide an appropriate course of action to ensure that the ESM Member that failed to meet the capital call settles its debt to the ESM within a reasonable period. The Board of Governors will also need to adopt rules for the return of the excess capital to the other ESM Members upon repayment by the ESM Member who originally failed to meet the capital call. In any event, no ESM Member is obligated to pay an amount in excess of its subscribed capital. The obligations of ESM Members to contribute to authorised capital stock in accordance with the ESM Treaty are not affected or reduced if any ESM Member becomes eligible for, or is receiving, financial assistance from the ESM.

² This amount does not include subscribed capital called but not paid amounting to €65.4 million corresponding to remaining amounts to be paid by Lithuania. Lithuania, which joined the ESM in February 2015, is providing its share of paid-in capital in five annual instalments of €65.4 million each, in line with the ESM Treaty.

⁴ See footnotes to the table above for a discussion of schedule of payments of paid-in capital by Lithuania and Latvia.

The Board of Governors reviews the adequacy of the capital stock of ESM regularly and at least every five years. The last review was completed in 2017 and following that review the Board of Governors concluded that the capital stock was adequate.

The ESM has adopted risk management policies (see "Risk Management") in order to limit the risk of capital calls. As part of the risk management policies, the Board of Directors specifies the risk appetite of the ESM and provides a risk governance structure that includes an independent risk management function and an internal risk committee.

The terms and conditions of capital calls for ESM adopted on 9 October 2012 further specify the procedures for general capital calls, capital calls to replenish paid-in capital and emergency capital calls.

Financial Assistance

Overview

The ESM may grant stability support in the form of:

- (i) loans to an ESM Member: to assist ESM Members in significant need of financing, and which have lost access to the markets, either because they cannot find lenders or because lenders will provide financing only at excessive prices that would adversely impact the sustainability of public finances;
- (ii) financial assistance to an ESM Member for the recapitalisation of financial institutions of that ESM Member: to assist an ESM Member by addressing those cases where the roots of a crisis situation are primarily located in the financial sector;
- (iii) precautionary financial assistance to an ESM Member in the form of a precautionary conditioned credit line or an enhanced condition credit line: to support sound policies and prevent crisis situations by allowing ESM Members to secure the possibility to access ESM assistance before they face major difficulties raising funds in the capital markets. Precautionary financial assistance aims at helping ESM Members whose economic conditions are still sound to maintain continuous access to market financing by reinforcing the credibility of their macroeconomic performance while ensuring an adequate safety-net;
- (iv) a primary market support facility which includes the purchase of bonds of an ESM Member on the primary market: to support an ESM Member's bond issuances, the ESM may buy debt securities at market prices in the primary market, in other words directly from the issuing ESM Members;
- (v) a secondary market support facility which includes operations on the secondary market in relation to the bonds of an ESM Member: to support the sound functioning of the government debt market in exceptional circumstances when a lack of liquidity threatens the financial stability of an ESM Member, with a risk of pushing sovereign interest rates towards unsustainable levels and creating refinancing problems for the banking system of the ESM Member concerned. This instrument can be used within or outside a macroeconomic adjustment programme; or
- (vi) direct recapitalisation of financial institutions of an ESM Member: to help remove a severe risk of contagion from the financial sector to the sovereign, through the direct recapitalisation by the ESM of eligible financial institutions. The total amount available for this instrument is limited to €60 billion.

The Board of Governors of the ESM may review this list of financial assistance instruments and decide to make changes to it by mutual agreement.

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has granted the following financial assistance to ESM Members: (a) loan facilities (including components dedicated to recapitalisation of financial institutions) to Greece in the aggregate principal amount of up to €86 billion (with €61.9 billion disbursed and €59.9 billion in nominal loan obligations to ESM outstanding) and to Cyprus in the aggregate principal amount of up to €8.968 billion (with €6.3 billion disbursed and €6.3 billion in nominal loan obligations to ESM outstanding) and (b) a financial institution recapitalisation facility to Spain in the aggregate principal amount of up to €100 billion (with €41.3 billion disbursed and €26.7 billion in nominal loan obligations to ESM outstanding). As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has not provided any forms of financial assistance other than those described above (that is, as of 31 August 2018, the ESM has not provided precautionary financial assistance in the form of conditioned credit lines or enhanced condition credit lines, primary market support facilities, secondary market support facilities or direct recapitalisation of financial institutions of ESM Members).

Stability support from the ESM to an ESM Member is subject to strict conditionality appropriate to the chosen financial assistance instrument. This conditionality may range from a macro-economic adjustment programme to ongoing compliance with pre-established eligibility conditions.

Before any assistance may be granted by the ESM, an ESM Member is required to make a request for financial support to the Chairperson of the Board of Governors of the ESM and indicate the financial assistance sought. The Chairperson of the Board of Governors then entrusts the European Commission, in liaison with the European Central Bank (the "ECB"), to assess (a) the existence of a risk to the financial stability of the euro area as a whole or of the Euro Area Member States, (b) whether the public debt of the assistance-seeking ESM Member is sustainable – wherever appropriate and possible, such an assessment is expected to be conducted together with the International Monetary Fund (the "IMF") and (c) the actual or potential financing needs of the ESM Member. On the basis of the request and of such assessment, the Board of Governors may, acting by mutual agreement⁵, decide to grant, in principle, stability support to the ESM Member concerned. Following such a decision, the Board of Governors entrusts the European Commission – in liaison with the ECB and, where advisable, together with the IMF, with the task of negotiating with such ESM Member a Memorandum of Understanding, which details the conditionality attached to the financial assistance facility.

Pursuant to the ESM Treaty and to the decision of the ESM Board of Governors of 8 October 2012, the maximum lending volume of the ESM is €500 billion. This lending volume ceiling may be modified based on a decision of the Board of Governors acting by mutual agreement. The Board of Governors reviews the maximum lending volume of the ESM and the adequacy of the authorised capital stock of the ESM regularly and at least every five years. Any change in the maximum lending volume takes effect only after the ESM Members have notified the depositary of the ESM Treaty, the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union, that all applicable national procedures of each ESM Member are completed.

Memorandum of Understanding between the ESM and the European Commission

On 27 April 2018, the ESM and the European Commission entered into a Memorandum of Understanding on the cooperation between the two parties in respect of, inter alia, the ESM Treaty and Regulation 472/2013 of the European Parliament and the Council. The Memorandum of Understanding did not change the rules and the legal framework under which the ESM and the European Commission operate but rather formalised the existing practices between the two institutions, which include, among others, working and operational arrangements under ESM financial assistance programmes and post-programme surveillance. The existing competences and responsibilities of both institutions, as enshrined in EU law and the ESM Treaty, remain intact.

The Memorandum of Understanding was also without prejudice to any future changes to the legal framework governing the Commission and the ESM, respectively.

Future mandates

On 29 June 2018, the meeting of the heads of state or government of the member states of the euro area (the "Euro Summit") agreed that the ESM will be strengthened, working on the basis of all elements of an

ESM reform as set out in the letter of the President of the Eurogroup sent to the President of the Euro Summit on 25 June 2018. As per the Euro Summit statement, by December 2018 the Eurogroup will agree on a term sheet for the further development of the ESM.

The Euro Summit also agreed that the ESM will provide the common backstop to the Single Resolution Fund (SRF). It did not agree on further characteristics of the common backstop, but stated that the Eurogroup will prepare the terms of reference of the common backstop by December 2018.

It is anticipated that the Euro Summit will further consider these issues in December 2018.

Relationship with the EFSF

Upon the entry into force of the ESM Treaty, ESM became the successor to the EFSF, which as described above was initially set up to address the European sovereign debt crisis in 2010 and has granted stability support to Ireland, Portugal and Greece. EFSF continues to service its existing financial assistance facility agreements but is not entitled to enter into any new financial assistance facility agreements. The EFSF will be liquidated when there is no longer financial assistance outstanding to a Euro Area Member State and all EFSF-issued debt instruments and any reimbursement amounts due to the EFSF have been repaid in full. The EFSF and ESM are separate legal entities even though EFSF operations are also carried out by ESM staff, using ESM infrastructure. For services provided to EFSF by ESM during the year ending 31 December 2017, the ESM charged the EFSF €30.9 million, which is reflected in the "other operating income" line item in ESM's profit and loss account. The EFSF has ceased to establish new financial assistance from 1 July 2013 and made its final disbursement under an existing facility on 14 August 2014. As of 31 August 2018, the outstanding nominal amount of loans from EFSF and ESM was €269.5 billion, of which €176.6 billion was from the EFSF and €92.9 billion was from the ESM.

Loans to ESM Members

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has disbursed €68.2 billion in financial assistance in the form of loans to Greece and Cyprus. As of 31 August 2018, the outstanding nominal amount of loans from ESM to Greece and Cyprus was €66.2 billion. The ESM's objective through this form of financial assistance is to support ESM Members that have significant financing needs but have to a large extent lost access to market financing, whether because they cannot find lenders or because lenders are only willing to provide financing at excessive prices that would adversely impact the sustainability of the ESM Member's public finances. Any financial assistance to a country in need is linked to policy conditions that are set out in a macro-economic adjustment programme detailed in the Memorandum of Understanding between the country in need and the European Commission on behalf of the ESM. The precise financial terms and conditions of each loan are specified in a financial assistance facility agreement.

The European Commission, in liaison with the ECB, and wherever possible, the IMF, are entrusted with monitoring compliance with the policy conditionality attached to the loan. The Board of Directors decides, acting by mutual agreement, on a proposal from the Managing Director, and after having received a monitoring report from the European Commission, the disbursement of the tranches of the loan subsequent to the first tranche. The beneficiary ESM Member is also required to provide to these institutions all the information that is deemed necessary for the monitoring of the policy conditionality of the programme as agreed in the Memorandum of Understanding. The beneficiary ESM Member will also provide the ESM all information necessary to conduct its financial due diligence. If the beneficiary ESM Member deviates significantly from the agreed programme detailed in the relevant Memorandum of Understanding, disbursements may be withheld.

Financial assistance for the recapitalisation of financial institutions

As of 31 August 2018, the other form of financial assistance that has been provided by the ESM is financial assistance to an ESM Member for the recapitalisation of financial institutions of that ESM Member, with up to €100 billion having been made available to Spain through this form of financial assistance, of which €41.3 billion in financial assistance was disbursed to Spain prior to the expiry in December 2013 of the availability period under the agreement originally entered into between the EFSF and Spain in July 2012, as transferred to the ESM in November 2012.

In order to receive such financial assistance, the beneficiary ESM Member should demonstrate the existence of a lack of alternatives for recapitalising the financial institutions concerned. This should first reveal an inability to meet capital shortfalls via private sector solutions (e.g. tapping new market investors or existing shareholders) and, second, an inability of the beneficiary ESM Member to recapitalise the institution(s) without incurring very adverse effects on its own financial stability and fiscal sustainability.

In addition, under the ESM guidelines, the financial institutions concerned should be of systemic relevance or pose a serious threat to the financial stability of the euro area as a whole or to ESM Members. Their systemic dimension will be assessed taking into account, primarily, their size, interconnectedness, complexity and substitutability. Finally, the beneficiary ESM Member should also demonstrate its ability to reimburse the loan granted, even in cases in which it would not be able to recover the capital injected in the beneficiary institution(s) according to the timing agreed in relevant state-aid decisions. The beneficiary shall also demonstrate the existence of a sound fiscal and macroeconomic policy record.

Unlike stability support within a macro-economic adjustment program in the context of a loan by ESM for an ESM Member, the conditionality for financial assistance for financial institutions focuses only on the financial sector of the country in question and applies to financial supervision, corporate governance and domestic law relating to restructuring or resolution. The policy conditions are specified in a Memorandum of Understanding negotiated by the European Commission on behalf of the ESM in liaison with the ECB and relevant European supervisory authority. The European Commission monitors compliance with EU state aid rules and policy conditions in conjunction with the ECB and relevant supervisory authorities.

Financial Assistance Programs

As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has granted financial assistance to Spain, Greece and Cyprus, as described below.

1. Financial assistance to Greece and Cyprus

Financial Assistance to Greece

On 19 August 2015, a loan agreement between ESM and Greece (the Financial Assistance Facility Agreement) was approved by the ESM Board of Governors. Under the agreement, the ESM was committed to providing Greece with up to €86 billion in financial assistance over three years. The Greek government is committed to use these funds for debt service, banking sector recapitalisation (up to €25 billion), arrears clearance, and budget financing. In addition, in order to return its economy to a growth trajectory and make its debt burden sustainable, the Greek government has committed to a series of economic reforms. On 5 December 2016, the finance ministers of the euro area (commonly known as the 'Eurogroup') endorsed a series of short-term measures aimed at reducing interest-rate risk for Greece. These measures, the impacts of which are to be passed on to Greece, and which were approved by the Board of Governors on 20 January 2017 and by the Board of Directors on 23 January 2017, consist of: (i) a floating to fixed rate bond exchange, (ii) ESM entering into hedging arrangements in relation to its cost of funding and (iii) ESM financing future disbursements to Greece through long-term fixed rate bonds. The ESM created a portfolio containing the proceeds of all the operations required to fund the short-term measures, known as the 'Greek Compartment', which in turn isolates the costs and passes them on directly to Greece, so that other beneficiary countries do not bear any extra cost.

On 13 July 2018, the Board of Directors endorsed the final tranche of financial assistance under the financial assistance programme to Greece, in the amount of €15 billion. On 6 August 2018, this tranche was disbursed. The ESM financial assistance programme for Greece ended on 20 August 2018, although the financial assistance agreements will continue to be in force until no loan obligations to the ESM are outstanding.

As of 31 August 2018, ESM has disbursed €61.9 billion in financial assistance to Greece (of which €5.4 billion was in the form of cashless disbursements for bank recapitalisation).

As of 31 August 2018, Greece had €59.9 billion in nominal loan obligations to ESM outstanding with a weighted average maturity (as from the date of disbursement) of 32.35 years.

Financial Assistance to Cyprus

The euro area countries agreed to a package of financial assistance of up to €10.0 billion for Cyprus in 2013, with the ESM providing up to €9.0 billion and the IMF around €1 billion. Thanks to a better-than-expected economic recovery, private investors' participation in bank recapitalisation and a return to market financing, however, the full amount was not needed. The ESM financial assistance programme for Cyprus ended on 31 March 2016. As of 31 August 2018, the ESM had disbursed €6.3 billion under the programme (of which €1.5 billion was in the form of cashless disbursements for bank recapitalisation), with a weighted average maturity (as from the date of disbursement and excluding cashless disbursements for bank recapitalisation) of 14.9 years and the IMF had disbursed €1 billion.

In order to receive the loans, Cyprus implemented a number of key reforms, including:

- restoring the soundness of the Cypriot banking sector by thoroughly restructuring and downsizing financial institutions;
- cutting the excessive government deficit, in particular by reducing current primary expenditure and increasing the efficiency of public spending; and
- implementing structural reforms to support competitiveness and sustainable and balanced growth.

As of 31 August 2018, Cyprus has €6.3 billion in loan obligations to ESM outstanding.

2. Spanish Bank Recapitalisation

In July 2012 the Eurogroup approved financial assistance for Spain of up to €100 billion. It was designed to cover a capital shortfall identified in a number of Spanish banks, with an additional safety margin. However, the Spanish government did not request the full amount. The ESM disbursed €39.5 billion in December 2012 and a further €1.9 billion in February 2013 (all of which was in the form of cashless disbursements). The loans were provided to Spain, which lent them further to the Fondo de Reestructuración Ordenada Bancaria, the bank recapitalisation fund of the Spanish government, which then channelled them to the financial institutions concerned.

On 31 December 2013, the ESM financial assistance programme for Spain expired, with the ESM having disbursed a total of €41.3 billion to the Spanish government for the recapitalisation of the country's banking sector, with a weighted average maturity (as from the date of disbursement and including cashless disbursements) of 12.49 years.

ESM financial assistance for Spain was accompanied by policy conditionality focused on the banking sector. The conditionality consisted of bank-specific measures, including in-depth bank restructuring plans in line with EU state aid rules. Reforms concerning the governance, supervision and regulation of the financial sector have also been implemented.

As of 31 August 2018, Spain has €26.7 billion in loan obligations to ESM outstanding. On 20 September 2018, the ESM Board of Directors approved a further voluntary repayment of €3 billion, which Spain is expected to pay in October 2018.

Borrowing

Borrowing Strategy

The ESM generally funds its lending operations through both short- and long-term funding operations, with maturities of up to 45 years. Short-term funding operations include a regular bill program and unsecured money market transactions (e.g., issuances of commercial paper, money market promissory notes, repo transactions), while long-term funding activities include benchmark bonds. Both short- and long-term funding operations are subject to various restrictions on maximum amounts and maturities.

The ESM is empowered to borrow on the capital markets from banks, financial institutions or other persons or institutions for the performance of its purpose. Borrowing may be made via syndications, auctions, private placements and credit lines. The ESM bonds outstanding as of 31 December 2017 have generally been liquid in the secondary market and have been included and recognised as Level 1 assets at the international level (Basel) and EU level (the Capital Requirements Directive), as well as eligible collateral in other jurisdictions (UK and Switzerland) and on certain clearing platforms (Euroclear and Eurex).

In order to effectively perform its purpose of providing stability support to euro area countries and to establish itself as a reliable issuer in a difficult market environment, the ESM pursues the following objectives with respect to funding: (i) the ESM should be able to react quickly to unexpected market developments by, among other things, building up liquidity buffers to ensure market access even in difficult market conditions; (ii) the ESM should be capable of raising predictable amounts over an extended period of time covering various disbursement schedules, as well as unexpected amounts on relatively short notice; and (iii) the ESM should engage in efficient funding in order to offer financing at reasonable conditions to beneficiary ESM Members, with a priority given to, first, mitigation of liquidity risk and, second, an appropriate balance between costs and interest rate risk.

The ESM has a diversified funding strategy, which entails the use of a variety of instruments and maturities to ensure the efficiency of funding and continuous market access. One feature of the diversified funding strategy is that funds raised through various instruments under this strategy are generally not attributed to a particular country. The funds are pooled and then disbursed to ESM Members that have open financial assistance programmes with the ESM. Issuances under the diversified funding strategy are subject to a threshold for short-term borrowing (i.e., borrowing with a tenor of less than three years), and a threshold for long-term borrowing (i.e., with a tenor of three or more years), both approved by the Board of Directors.

The ESM may also borrow outside of the diversified funding strategy, subject to a "funding silo" being specifically approved by the Board of Directors. Funding silos, the proceeds of which are dedicated to specific programs/countries, are subject to specific amount and maturity limits defined by the Board of Directors, as well as to the overall borrowing and maturity limits set out by the Board of Directors, which also affect borrowing under the diversified funding strategy. From time to time, the Board of Directors defines an overall borrowing limit for the ESM, which applies to the aggregate ESM borrowing (i.e., the sum of all borrowing under the diversified funding strategy and the funding silos). This limit remains in force until a new one is approved.

The ESM issues capital market and money market instruments. The ESM may hold its own bonds so that additional funding can be raised by selling the bonds on the secondary market or so that they can be used as collateral in the secured money market. The ESM may also hold its own bonds temporarily as a step in the implementation of a lending or a lending-related transaction, prior to their disbursement to a beneficiary Member State. As a supplement to the bond programme, the ESM may issue promissory/registered notes. The ESM issues bills through regular auctions and may also engage in unsecured money market transactions. Transactions may be conducted overnight, on a rolling basis or for tenors up to one year. The ESM may also issue commercial paper, money market promissory notes and engage in repo transactions. In addition, the ESM has established uncommitted liquidity lines with the debt management offices of ESM members and a network of uncommitted credit lines with private banks.

The following table sets out the historical ESM Lending/Funding Program for the three years ended 31 December 2015 through 2017:

ESM Lending/Funding Program (in € billion)	2017	2016	2015
Lending disbursements.....	8.5	10.3	22.0
Lending repayments	5.0	1.0	4.0
Debt issuances (nominal)	51.7	59.6	70.7
Debt redemptions (nominal).....	48.1	46.3	47.8
Nominal outstanding debt (as of 31 December).....	89.0	85.4	72.1

Long-term funding

The ESM launched funding in the long-term markets in October 2013 with an inaugural five-year bond. The ESM's long-term funding target for 2018 is €18 billion, up from €11.5 billion in 2017. This targeted volume is subject to change due to several factors, including new lending programmes or other lending-related measures, or unscheduled repayments of previously granted financial assistance. The ESM successfully achieved its 2017 target through the issuance and taps of bonds in different maturities. The ESM launched seven bond issuances in 2017 (including five new bonds and two taps of existing bonds) totalling €17.0 billion. The rest of the 2017 funding target was met by issuing N-bonds in the total amount of €0.4 billion. The ESM has launched in 2018 six bond issuances as of 31 August 2018, totalling €12.5 billion. As of 31 August 2018, ESM has €89.6 billion in bonds outstanding, with a weighted average maturity of 9.2 years.

Short-term funding

The first ESM debt auction to investors for short-term bills was held on 8 January 2013. Since then the ESM conducts regular debt auctions for short-term bills and notes with three-month and six-month maturities. The ESM's short-term funding program in 2017 raised €34.3 billion in bills and in 2018 raised €31.7 billion as of 31 August 2018. As of 31 August 2018, ESM has €17.8 billion in short-term bills outstanding.

Macroeconomic Conditions in the Euro Area

In addition to the establishment of the ESM and the EFSF, the Euro area economies have instituted numerous reforms since the global financial crisis of 2008-2009, including the reduction of fiscal deficits and improvements in competitiveness. In addition, the EU has also introduced several structural and supervisory reforms, including new banking supervisory bodies and significant increases in bank regulatory capital, and the ECB has pursued an accommodative monetary policy, including through its bond purchase programs. The Euro Area Member States actively seek to make the Euro more robust through greater cooperation and integration. For example, the formation of a capital markets union is currently under discussion.

After several years of macroeconomic instability following the crisis, the euro area has returned to stable real GDP growth since 2014 (2.4% in 2017), a trend which is expected to continue through the medium-term (Source: EC European Economic Forecast). Likewise, employment rates have surpassed pre-crisis levels in 2017, after a steady increase in the employment rate since 2014 (Source: EC European Economic Forecast).

In addition, average profitability across banks in the Euro area has improved after significant decreases following the crisis. While operating return on equity for banks in the Euro area increased over the period from 2012 to 2015, they recorded a slight decrease in 2016. However, Euro area banks' operating return on equity began improving again in 2017 and continued in the first half of 2018 (Source: SNL Financial, public filings, ESM calculations). In addition, the ratio of equity to assets for banks in the Euro area has consistently improved and, while the stock of non-performing loans (NPLs) remains almost twice as high compared to pre-crisis levels, it has decreased in each of the last five years (Source: SNL Financial, public filings, ESM calculations).

Financial Review

Financial Year 2017

The ESM's profits for the financial year depend primarily on the interest receivable and similar income received by the ESM net of the interest payable and similar charges, plus net profit on financial operations.

In 2017, the ESM's interest receivable and similar income equalled €1,165.9 million, compared to €841.8 million in 2016, an increase of €324.1 million, primarily due to additional loan disbursements in the second half of 2017 to euro area Member States. The increase in interest receivable and similar income is also driven by the interest result on derivatives contracts and more precisely the effect of the implementation of interest rate swaps on funding as part of short-term debt relief measures for Greece. As stipulated by the ESM pricing policy, the ESM's cost of funding is passed on to the beneficiary Member States.

The ESM's interest payable and similar charges equalled €1,119.8 million in 2017, compared to €532.8 million in 2016, an increase of €587.0 million, primarily as a result of interest payable and similar charges on cash and cash equivalents amounting to €273.7 million (2016: € nil), which represents negative interest paid for the balances with central banks, as well as a result of interest payments on interest rate swaps entered into as part of short-term debt relief measures for Greece (such swaps represented €36.5 billion of off-balance sheet commitments as at 31 December 2017). The ESM is being charged a negative interest rate ((0.40)% per annum, equal to the ECB deposit facility rate) on the cash held at national central banks starting from February 2017.

In 2017, net profit on financial operations equalled €27.2 million, compared to €287.1 million in 2016, a decrease of €259.9 million. This decrease in profit results from lower net realised result from the sales of debt securities in 2017 in light of the negative interest rate environment.

In 2017, the ESM's profits for the financial year equalled €68.6 million, compared to €568.8 million in 2016, a decrease of €500.2 million, primarily as a result of the increase in interest payable and similar charges on cash and cash equivalents representing negative interest paid for the balances with central banks, as well as the lower net realised result from the sales of debt securities. The ESM has actively diversified its investments and continues to look for additional measures to mitigate the impact of the negative yield environment, in line with its guidelines and its mandate. Nonetheless, a large part of the ESM assets are held in cash at euro area central banks with negative interest rate remuneration. As a result, the persistence of this environment significantly negatively affected the ESM's results in 2017.

In order to limit the negative implications of negative interest rates on ESM's paid-in capital, Member States whose central banks have charged negative interest rates to ESM expressed their willingness to compensate the ESM for the negative interest charged by their national central bank, under certain conditions, and up to the amount charged by their national central banks. As of 31 August 2018, the ESM has received transfers in 2018 totalling €215.6 million from such Member States. These transfers were made following a political commitment to compensate the ESM for the negative interest paid on deposits held at the central banks of the relevant Member States. Such compensation will be subject to yearly review by each Member State whose central bank has charged ESM a negative interest rate.

Financial Year 2016

In 2016, the ESM's interest receivable and similar income equalled €841.8 million, compared to €650.9 million in 2015, an increase of €190.9 million, primarily due to the additional interest charged on new loans to Greece which were disbursed at the end of 2015 and in the first half of 2016. As stipulated by the ESM pricing policy, the ESM's cost of funding is passed on to the beneficiary Member States. The ESM's interest payable and similar charges equalled €532.8 million in 2016, compared to €334.9 million in 2015, an increase of €197.8 million, primarily as a result of an increase in the total funding volume.

In 2016, net profit on financial operations equalled €287.1 million, compared to €438.8 million in 2015, a decrease of €151.7 million. This profit results solely from the realised result from the sales of bonds held in the ESM investment portfolio. Since the beginning of 2015, and following a decision taken by the ESM Investment Management Committee, certain securities returning negative yields have been sold.

In 2016, the ESM's profits for the financial year equalled €568.8 million, compared to €729.4 million in 2015, a decrease of €160.6 million, primarily as a result of the lower net realised result from the sales of debt securities. In addition, net interest on the paid-in capital portfolio decreased by €64.1 million due to lower yields. This decrease was partially offset by interest income on debts issues by the ESM, which increased by €50.2 million to €76.2 million in 2016. This income is explained by the negative interest rates, mainly on ESM's short-term funding instruments. The ESM has actively diversified its investments and continues to look for additional measures to mitigate the impact of the negative yield environment, in line with its guidelines and its mandate.

Investment and Dividend Policies

The net income generated by operations of the ESM and certain other proceeds from ESM Members are put aside in a reserve fund. This reserve fund and the paid-in capital (the "Investment Portfolios") are invested in accordance with investment guidelines adopted by the Board of Directors. The main objectives of the Investment Portfolios are to ensure that the maximum lending volume is readily available, and to maintain the creditworthiness of the ESM. Specifically, the ESM's investment guidelines outline that all transactions related to the investment of the paid-in capital and reserve fund shall be conducted in a prudent manner in order to ensure the ESM's creditworthiness as well as to limit any effect on market prices, even in situations of market stress. Additionally, derivatives may only be used for risk management purposes, and the currency risk arising from the obligation under the ESM's investment guidelines to diversify part of the investment to supranational institutions or issuers outside the euro area is required to be hedged against the euro. Assets eligible for the Investment Portfolios are debt securities and money market instruments meeting certain credit and issuer requirements.

Both the Investment Portfolios and the liquidity buffer are invested with a priority on creditworthiness and liquidity rather than return. This means that in a low or negative-yield environment, as is currently the case, the ESM may experience diminishing or negative return on the investment of either the Investment Portfolios, its liquidity, or both. The ESM establishes a continuous dialogue with ESM Members (through the Board of Directors) to adapt the universe of assets eligible for investment under the investment guidelines to the prevailing market circumstances.

The Board of Directors may decide, by simple majority, to distribute a dividend to the ESM Members where the amount of paid-in capital and the reserve fund exceed the level required for the ESM to maintain its lending capacity and where proceeds from the investment are not required to avoid a payment shortfall to creditors. As of 31 December 2017, ESM has never distributed any dividends to ESM members.

Risk Management

The ESM has adopted high-level principles for risk management (the "High Level Principles") and a risk policy (the "Risk Policy") that, together with other internal policies on specific risks and activities, define the ESM's risk management framework. The High Level Principles define the financial and non-financial risks arising from ESM activities as well as the principles and high-level governance arrangements for the management of those risks. The Risk Policy details the risk management and governance, including the process of risk identification, assessment, management, and monitoring. The Risk Policy also sets out the guiding principles for the ESM's risk appetite and limit framework.

The ESM's approach to risk management is to:

- adopt a prudent approach to risk-taking to limit potential losses, ensure continuity in fulfilling the ESM's mandate and meeting its commitments, and avoid unexpected capital calls;
- maintain minimum capital requirements to ensure the highest creditworthiness; and
- preserve the ESM's funding and, hence, lending, capacity.

The ESM is subject to a number of financial and non-financial risks, as further described in note 3 to ESM's annual audited financial statements for the year ending 31 December 2017. These risks are a function of the ESM's mandate and operational activities. The major financial risks that the ESM faces are:

- Credit risk: the risk of loss arising from the inability of a counterparty to fulfil its contractual obligations. The ESM is exposed to credit risk from three main sources: stability support activities, investments in highly rated securities and counterparty risk related to its investment, funding, and risk hedging operations.
- Beneficiary Member States' credit stress: an inherent, non-discretionary risk for the ESM is repayment risk on the loans it provides to beneficiary Member States. The ESM passes on the benefits of favourable interest rates to beneficiary Member States through low interest rates on loans. An increase in global interest rates and/or political uncertainty could place credit stresses on beneficiary Member States and increase loan repayment risk. To mitigate the risks related to an increase in global interest rates, the ESM employs a diversified funding strategy to optimise its access to low funding costs. It seeks to ease the repayment burden for its programme countries by passing on its low funding costs and by setting loan repayments out further than other international institutions.
- Market risk: the risk of loss arising from changes in the values of financial assets and liabilities (including off-balance sheet items) due to market fluctuations.
- Interest rate risk: the risk of loss arising from adverse movements in interest rates. The main sources of interest rate risk include asset or liability re-pricing following market movements, yield curve shifts, and changes in interest rate credit spread.
 - Structural interest rate risk: risk of a mismatch between the interest rate on loans granted to beneficiary Member States and funding raised through bills and bond issuances. The exposure to interest rate risk arises from differences in pricing and maturity characteristics of the different asset, liability, and hedging instruments. This risk is generally not borne by the ESM as funding costs are passed onto beneficiary Member States.

- Non-structural interest rate risk: the risk of loss due to an adverse change in the overall level of interest rates affecting the value of the investment portfolio. Non-structural interest rate risk is monitored and controlled on a daily basis through risk indicators and stress tests. Duration bands, cumulated and partial sensitivities, 1 day Value at Risk with a 99% level of confidence are part of the daily measures that frame the interest rate risk potential exposure. To complement these measures, a series of stress tests with flattening, steepening and parallel shifts of all or a selected number of interest rate curves is daily processed as part of the risk report.
- Risk of investment losses: in 2017, low and negative interest rates meant that the high-quality liquid assets in which the ESM invests yielded a low and, in most cases, negative return. Furthermore, should interest rates rise, investments would likely incur mark-to-market losses. However, over the medium- to long-term, higher interest rates tend to increase investment returns and are expected to strengthen the ESM's capital position. To mitigate risks of investment losses, ESM continues to apply prudent investment and risk management policies.
- Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from changes in exchange rates, which arises whenever there is a currency mismatch between assets and liabilities. ESM has no appetite for currency risk and therefore has minimal net currency exposure. In 2017, the potential sources of currency risk were the non-euro investments made in the investment portfolios and the issuance of Notes denominated in USD and related liquidity management. These exposures are hedged back to euro.
- Liquidity risk: the ESM faces two main types of liquidity risk: funding liquidity risk and market liquidity risk. Funding liquidity risk relates to the potential inability to secure, or excessive costs in securing, necessary funding on a timely basis. Market liquidity risk is defined as the potential for loss arising from a position that cannot easily be liquidated without significantly and negatively influencing its market price. As the ESM passes its cost of funding to the countries benefitting from stability support activities, management of funding liquidity risk is mainly aimed at containing the costs of ESM stability support. Potential liquidity shortfalls for the ESM are monitored closely and these can ultimately be avoided by tapping into emergency liquidity arrangements, the ESM reserve fund, the ESM paid-in capital or the ESM callable capital, in this order. In the context of ESM investment activities, market liquidity risk is minimised by investing in high credit quality liquid assets, ensuring the ESM does not hold a significant proportion of a single security issuance and adopting adequate measurements that allow the timely detection of liquidity deteriorations.

The main non-financial risks the ESM faces are:

- Operational risk: the risk of loss and/or damage, such as the inability of the ESM to fulfil its mandate, resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people, and systems, or from external events. The ESM operational risk management policy stipulates no tolerance for material operational risks.
- Information and systems security: the ESM pursues advanced cybersecurity measures, as the confidentiality of data and operational integrity of systems is core to the successful execution of the ESM's mandate. It has established information security, information and communications security technology policies, and conducts regular penetration testing of ESM's systems, phishing exercises and mandatory staff training.
- Reputational and fraud risk: the risk of loss and/or damage resulting from a deterioration in the ESM's reputation, reducing its market access, inability to attract staff, and other similar consequences. The ESM manages this risk by undertaking its mandate with the highest professional standards and by having centralised coordination of external communication. An important element of reputational risk is the management of fraud risk. As the risk of fraud is of prime concern to the ESM, it undertakes regular fraud risk assessments and maintains a fraud risk management programme. It has established a robust internal control framework, a Code of Conduct, an information barrier policy and reputational risk guidelines.
- Legal risk: the risk of loss and/or damage resulting from inadequate or inefficient documentation, litigation against the ESM or its assets, non-compliance with the ESM Treaty, or any other applicable laws and contractual obligations. Legal risk is managed by obtaining review and advice from internal and external legal counsel.

- Compliance risk: the risk of loss and/or damage associated with non-compliance with internal policies, procedures, guidelines and any external regulations. The ESM Code of Conduct defines the fundamental ethical principles to which ESM staff must adhere, such as the requirements regarding the employee's integrity, handling conflicts of interest, and information protection.

Governance

Overview

The ESM is administered and managed by a Board of Governors, a Board of Directors and a Managing Director (assisted and advised by a Management Board). The voting right of each ESM Member, as exercised by its appointees on the Board of Governors and Board of Directors, is equal to the number of shares allocated to such ESM Member under the ESM Treaty (see "Capital Structure").

Board of Governors

The Board of Governors is the supreme governing body of the ESM.

The Board of Governors consists of the ministers with responsibility for finance of the ESM Members. The Board of Governors can either be chaired by the President of the Eurogroup, which is a regular meeting of the finance ministers of the member states of the euro area (which are also the ESM Members), or a chairman or a vice-chairman, both of them selected by the Board of Governors from among its members for a term of two years. The European Commissioner for Economic and Monetary Affairs, the President of the ECB and the President of the Eurogroup (if not the Chairperson or a member of the Board of Governors) may participate as observers. A current members list of the below governance bodies may be found on the ESM website at www.esm.europa.eu/esm-governance.

Under the ESM Treaty, the Board of Governors must vote by mutual agreement on various issues, including, but not limited to: (i) providing stability support to an ESM Member; (ii) issuing new shares on terms other than at par; (iii) making capital calls of authorised unpaid capital within the authority granted to the Board of Governors by the ESM Treaty; (iv) changing the authorised capital stock and adapting the maximum lending volume of the ESM; (v) updating the Contribution Key of capital; (vi) changing the list of financial assistance instruments; and (vii) approving the application of new members.

However, a qualified majority (i.e., 80% of the votes cast, with voting rights equal to the number of shares allocated to each ESM Member) may be sufficient for actions, including, but not limited to (i) setting out the by-laws of the ESM; (ii) appointing or ending the term of office of the Managing Director; (iii) approving the annual accounts of the ESM; and (iv) deciding on a dispute arising among an ESM Member and the ESM or between ESM Members concerning the interpretation and application of the ESM Treaty.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for various tasks allocated to it by the ESM Treaty or delegated to it by the Board of Governors. The Board of Directors makes decisions by qualified majority unless specifically stated otherwise in the ESM Treaty.

The Board of Directors comprises 19 directors and 19 alternate directors, appointed by the Board of Governors. There may be up to two non-voting observers, each appointed by the European Commissioner for Economic and Monetary Affairs and the President of the ECB.

Managing Director

The Managing Director is the legal representative of the ESM. The Board of Governors appoints the Managing Director from among candidates with the nationality of an ESM Member, relevant international experience and a high level of competence in economic and financial matters. The current Managing Director is Klaus Regling, who was first appointed on 8 October 2012 and re-appointed on 20 February 2017, with his second and final five-year term of office having begun on 8 October 2017.

The Managing Director has a term of office of five years and may be re-appointed once. He/she may not be concurrently a member or an alternate member of either the Board of Governors or the Board of Directors. The Board of Governors has the power to remove the Managing Director as it considers appropriate.

The Managing Director is charged with the management of the current business of the ESM based on the direction of the Board of Directors. He/she also chairs the meetings of the Board of Directors and participates in the meetings of the Board of Governors. The Managing Director also organises, appoints and dismisses the staff in accordance with staff rules adopted by the Board of Directors.

The Management Board consists of the Managing Director and other staff designated by the Managing Director. The Management Board assists the Managing Director in carrying out the day-to-day management of the ESM.

Board of Auditors

The Board of Auditors is an independent supervisory body of the ESM's activities. It inspects the ESM accounts and verifies that the operational accounts and balance sheet are in order. Accordingly, it is granted full access to all documents of the ESM which it deems necessary for the implementation of its duties. The Board of Auditors may inform the Board of Directors at any time of its findings and is required to submit an annual report to the Board of Governors, which is to be made accessible to the national parliaments and supreme audit institutions of the ESM Members and to the European Court of Auditors.

The Board of Auditors is composed of five members. The Board of Governors appoints the members of the Board of Auditors on nomination by the Chairperson of the Board of Governors (2 members), the European Court of Auditors (1 member), and the supreme audit institutions of the ESM Members according to a rotation scheme (2 members). The members of the Board of Auditors are independent. They are prohibited from seeking or taking instructions from the ESM governing bodies, the ESM Members or any other public or private body.

Additionally, the ESM also employs external independent auditors to audit its accounts. ESM external independent auditors have the power to examine all books and obtain full information about the ESM's transactions.

Legal Status and Immunity

The ESM is established as an international financial institution by the ESM Treaty. The ESM has full legal personality and full legal capacity to (a) acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property, (b) contract, (c) be a party to legal proceedings, and (d) enter into a headquarter agreement and/or protocols as necessary for ensuring that its legal status and its privileges and immunities are recognised and enforced. Additionally, the ESM is specifically empowered to borrow on the capital markets from banks, financial institutions or other persons or institutions for the performance of its purpose.

The ESM Treaty also grants the ESM wide-ranging immunities and provides that ESM's operations be exempt from a number of regulations implemented by ESM Members, certain taxation and other legislative actions to which corporate entities are otherwise subject.

Preferred Creditor Status

Recital (13) to the ESM Treaty explains that the heads of state or government have stated that loans by the ESM to ESM Members will enjoy preferred creditor status ("PCS") in a similar fashion to those of the IMF, while accepting the PCS of the IMF over the ESM. This PCS does not apply to the financial assistance provided to Spain by the ESM because the Spanish financial assistance was initially granted by the EFSF and then transferred to the ESM from the EFSF. The EFSF does not enjoy PCS and the agreement with Spain provided that the Spanish loan would continue to preserve the seniority of the EFSF (rather than benefit from the ESM PCS).

FORMS OF THE NOTES

Arrangements are in place for Notes to be deposited with Clearstream, Frankfurt, Clearstream, Luxembourg, Euroclear and/or DTC.

1. Notes deposited with Clearstream, Frankfurt

The following is only applicable for Notes deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt ("Clearstream, Frankfurt").

(a) Form of Notes

Each Tranche of Notes will be sold solely in reliance on Regulation S and will be represented by a Global Note deposited with Clearstream, Frankfurt (a "Global Bearer Note"). The relevant Final Terms for such Notes which have a maturity of more than 365 days will specify that United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the "TEFRA C Rules") are applicable in relation to the Notes.

All interests in the Global Bearer Notes will be subject to the operations and procedures of Clearstream, Frankfurt. The Notes will be transferable, subject to the limitations and procedures described below, by appropriate entries in securities accounts in accordance with applicable rules of Clearstream, Frankfurt. The Notes will not be eligible for clearance through the facilities of The Depository Trust Company.

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Global Bearer Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes", the Notes will initially be in the form of a Global Bearer Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Notes only if Clearstream, Frankfurt or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business.

Whenever the Global Bearer Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Bearer Note to the bearer of the Global Bearer Note against the surrender of the Global Bearer Note to or to the order of Clearstream, Frankfurt within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Notes scheduled to the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

In relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Bearer Note which is held by Clearstream, Frankfurt, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to "Noteholder" are references to the holders of co-ownership interests (Miteigentum nach Bruchteilen) in the Notes represented by the Global Bearer Notes.

On or after the issue date for any Series, transfers of Notes of such Series between accountholders in Clearstream, Frankfurt will generally have a settlement date two business days after the trade date (T+2). The customary arrangements for delivery versus payment will apply to such transfers.

The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Note which, according to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, require presentation and/or surrender of a Note or coupon will be made against presentation and

(in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Note, as applicable, to or to the order of the relevant Clearing System and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of the Issuer in respect of the Notes. On each occasion on which a payment of principal or interest is made in respect of the Global Note, the Issuer shall procure that the payment is entered pro rata in the records of the relevant Clearing System or any other relevant clearing system.

Relationship of accountholders with Clearing Systems: Each of the persons shown in the records of the Clearing Systems as the holder of a Note in global form must look solely to such Clearing System for its share of each payment made by the Issuer in respect of such Note, and in relation to all other rights arising under such Note, subject to and in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Clearing Systems. Such persons shall have no claim against the Issuer in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are in global form. The Issuer's obligations will be discharged by payment to the holder of the Global Note.

Payment Business Day: in the case of a Global Note, the Payment Business Day shall be, if the currency of payment is euro, any day which is a TARGET Settlement Day and a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in each (if any) additional financial centre; or, if the currency of payment is not euro, any day which is a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in the Principal Financial Centre of the currency of payment and in each (if any) additional financial centre.

Payment Record Date: each payment in respect of a Global Note Certificate will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the books and records of the relevant clearing system at the close of business on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date") where "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which each clearing system for which the Global Note Certificate is being held is open for business.

Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 17 (Notices), while all the Notes are represented by a Global Note and the Global Note is deposited with a Clearing System, notices to Noteholders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to the Clearing System and, in any case, such notices shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) on the date of delivery to the relevant Clearing System, except that, for so long as such Notes are admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, such notices shall be published in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Deed of Covenant: Bearer Notes in global form which are governed by English law will have the benefit of a deed of covenant as described in the Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes, entered into by the Issuer. Registered Notes which are governed by English law are constituted by the deed of covenant. Under the deed of covenant, persons shown in the records of the relevant Clearing System as being entitled to an interest in a Global Note which becomes void will acquire directly against the Issuer all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Global Note became void, they had been the holders of definitive notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Notes they were shown as holding in the records of the relevant Clearing System.

Legend: Each Global Note shall contain the following legend: "THIS NOTE IS NOT AN OBLIGATION OF ANY ESM MEMBER".

Transfers

Transfers of interests in Global Notes within a Clearing System will be in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures. None of the Issuer, the Dealers or the Agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records of any Clearing System or any of their respective participants relating to payments made on account of ownership interests in a Global Note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the records of any Clearing System or the records of their respective participants relating to such ownership interests.

BOOK-ENTRY CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT

The Issuer has obtained the information in this section from third party sources including the Clearing Systems. Such information has been accurately reproduced and, as far as the Issuer is aware and is able to ascertain from information published by the Clearing Systems, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading. However, the Issuer takes no responsibility for the accuracy of this information. Neither the Issuer nor the Fiscal Agent will have any responsibility for the performance by the Clearing Systems or their respective participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

DTC

DTC is a limited purpose trust company organised under the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "banking organisation" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC holds securities that its participants ("Direct DTC Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the settlement among Direct DTC Participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerised book-entry changes in Direct DTC Participants' accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct DTC Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organisations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct DTC Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect DTC Participants" and, together with Direct DTC Participants, "DTC Participants").

Under the rules, regulations and procedures creating and affecting DTC and its operations (the "DTC Rules"), DTC makes book-entry transfers of Notes among Direct DTC Participants on whose behalf it acts with respect to Notes accepted into DTC's book-entry settlement system ("DTC Notes") as described below and receives and transmits distributions of redemption amounts and interest amounts on DTC Notes. The DTC Rules are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Direct DTC Participants and Indirect DTC Participants with which beneficial owners of DTC Notes ("Beneficial Owners") have accounts with respect to the DTC Notes similarly are required to make book-entry transfers and receive and transmit such payments on behalf of their respective Owners. Accordingly, although Owners who hold DTC Notes through Direct DTC Participants or Indirect DTC Participants will not possess Notes, the DTC Rules, by virtue of the requirements described above, provide a mechanism by which Direct DTC Participants will receive payments and will be able to transfer their interest in respect of the DTC Notes.

Purchases of DTC Notes under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct DTC Participants, which will receive a credit for the DTC Notes on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each DTC Note ("Beneficial Owner") is in turn to be recorded on the Direct DTC Participant's and Indirect DTC Participant's records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase, but Beneficial Owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct DTC Participant or Indirect DTC Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the DTC Notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of DTC Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in DTC Notes, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the DTC Notes is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all DTC Notes deposited by DTC Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorised representative of DTC. The deposit of DTC Notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee effect no change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the DTC Notes; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct DTC Participants to whose accounts such DTC Notes are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The DTC Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct DTC Participants, by Direct DTC Participants to Indirect DTC Participants and by Direct DTC Participants and Indirect DTC Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC.

Redemption amounts and interest amounts on the DTC Notes will be made to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorised representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct DTC Participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detail information from the Issuer or the relevant agent (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorised representative of DTC), on the relevant payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown in DTC's records. Payments by DTC Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name", and will be the responsibility of such DTC Participant and not of DTC or the Issuer, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of redemption amounts and interest amounts to DTC is the responsibility of the Issuer, disbursement of such payments to Direct DTC Participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners is the responsibility of Direct DTC Participants and Indirect DTC Participants.

A Beneficial Owner shall give notice to elect to have its DTC Notes purchased or tendered, through its DTC Participant, to the relevant agent, and shall effect delivery of such DTC Notes by causing the Direct DTC Participant to transfer the DTC Participant's interest in the DTC Notes, on DTC's records, to the relevant agent. The requirement for physical delivery of DTC Notes in connection with an optional tender or a mandatory purchase will be deemed satisfied when the ownership rights in the DTC Notes are transferred by Direct DTC Participants on DTC's records and followed by a book-entry credit of tendered DTC Notes to the relevant agent's DTC account.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as depository with respect to the DTC Notes at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Issuer or the relevant agent. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not obtained, DTC Notes are required to be printed and delivered.

The Issuer may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry-only transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, DTC Notes will be printed and delivered to DTC.

Since DTC may only act on behalf of Direct DTC Participants, who in turn act on behalf of Indirect DTC Participants, any Beneficial Owner desiring to pledge DTC Notes to persons or entities that do not participate in DTC, or otherwise take actions with respect to such DTC Notes, will be required to withdraw its Notes from DTC as described below.

Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg

Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg each holds securities for its customers and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions by electronic book-entry transfer between their respective accountholders. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg provide various services, including safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg also deal with domestic securities markets in several countries through established depository and custodial relationships. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have established an electronic bridge between their two systems across which their respective participants may settle trades with each other.

Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg customers are world-wide financial institutions, including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations. Indirect access to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg is available to other institutions that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with an accountholder of either system.

Settlement of Pre-issue Trades

It is expected that delivery of Notes will be made against payment therefor on the relevant Issue Date, which will be more than two business days following the date of pricing. Under Rule 15c6-1 under the Exchange Act trades in the U.S. secondary market generally are required to settle within two business days (T+2), unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise.

Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade Notes in the United States on the date of pricing or the next succeeding business days until the relevant Issue Date will be required, by virtue of the fact the Notes initially will settle beyond T+2, to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Settlement procedures in other countries will vary.

Purchasers of Notes may be affected by such local settlement practices and purchasers of Notes between the relevant date of pricing and the relevant Issue Date should consult their own advisers.

TAXATION

U.S. Federal Income Taxation

The following is a general discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes by U.S. Holders (as defined below) that purchased Notes at their initial issuance at their issue price (determined as set forth below) and hold such Notes as capital assets (generally property held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to U.S. Holders in light of their particular circumstances or to U.S. Holders subject to special rules under U.S. federal income tax laws, such as banks, insurance companies, retirement plans, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, dealers in securities, brokers, tax-exempt entities, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, U.S. Holders that hold the Notes as part of a "straddle", "hedging", "conversion" or other integrated transaction, U.S. Holders that mark their securities to market for U.S. federal income tax purposes or U.S. Holders that have a functional currency that is not the U.S. dollar. In addition, this discussion does not address the effect of any state, local or non-U.S. tax considerations or any U.S. estate, gift or alternative minimum tax considerations or the Medicare tax on net investment income.

This discussion is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and administrative and judicial pronouncements; all as in effect on the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, or subject to differing interpretation. This discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the purchase, ownership or disposition of (i) Bearer Notes; (ii) credit linked Notes; (iii) index linked interest Notes; (iv) Notes with a maturity later than 30 years from the date of issuance; (v) Notes that do not unconditionally require payments at least equal in the aggregate to their issue price (as determined below); (vi) Notes that are treated as "contingent payment debt instruments" (under applicable Treasury Regulations); or (vii) certain variable rate debt instruments (as described under applicable Treasury Regulations). A general discussion of any materially different U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to any such Series of Notes described in the immediately preceding sentence may be included in the applicable Final Terms or other supplemental disclosure if such Series Notes are offered to U.S. Holders. No rulings have been requested from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") and there can be no guarantee that the IRS would not challenge, possibly successfully, the treatment described below.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of a Note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation created or organised in or under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust with respect to which a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all of its substantial decisions.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes invests in a Note, the U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to such investment generally will depend in part upon the status and activities of such entity and its partners. Such an entity or arrangement should consult its own tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to it and its partners relating to the purchase, ownership and disposition of such Note.

The determination of whether a particular Series of Notes should be classified as indebtedness or equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes depends on the terms of the Notes of such Series. The Issuer generally intends to treat Notes issued under the Programme as debt, unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Final Terms. Certain Notes, however, such as certain Index Linked Notes or Notes with extremely long maturities, may be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The tax treatment of Notes to which a treatment other than as debt may apply may be discussed in the applicable Final Terms. The Issuer's treatment will be binding on all U.S. Holders, except a U.S. Holder that discloses its differing treatment on its U.S. federal income tax return. However, the Issuer's treatment is not binding on the IRS, and it is possible that the IRS could attempt to treat a particular Series of the Notes as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If a particular Series of the Notes were so treated as equity, the U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes of such Series could differ from those described below with respect to timing and character. The remainder of this discussion assumes that all of the Notes will be treated as indebtedness for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE ADVISED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISERS AS TO THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME AND OTHER TAX CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE NOTES IN LIGHT OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, AS WELL AS THE EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS.

Special Rules Applicable to Certain Accrual Method Taxpayers

Pursuant to recent legislation, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017 (or, in the case of Notes issued with original issue discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes, taxable years beginning after December 31, 2018), an accrual method taxpayer that reports revenues on an "applicable financial statement" generally must recognize income for U.S. federal income tax purposes no later than the taxable year in which such income is taken into account as revenue in the applicable financial statements. This rule could potentially require such a taxpayer to recognize income for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to the Notes prior to the time such income otherwise would be recognized pursuant to the rules described below. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential applicability of these rules to their investment in the Notes.

Interest and Original Issue Discount

Each U.S. Holder of a Note must include in income payments of "qualified stated interest" (as described below) in respect of such Note in accordance with such U.S. Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes as ordinary interest income. In general, if the issue price (the "issue price") of a Note, determined by the first price at which a substantial amount of the Notes of a particular issue is sold to investors (ignoring sales to bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers), excluding pre-issuance accrued interest (as discussed below under "—Pre-Issuance Accrued Interest"), is less than the "stated redemption price at maturity" (as described below) of such Note by an amount that is equal to or more than a de minimis amount, a U.S. Holder will be considered to have purchased such Note with original issue discount ("OID"). In general, the de minimis amount is equal to one quarter (¼) of one percent of the stated redemption price at maturity of a Note multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity (or, in the case of a Note providing for the payment of any amount other than qualified stated interest (as defined below) prior to maturity, multiplied by the weighted average maturity of the Note). If a U.S. Holder acquires a Note with OID, then regardless of such U.S. Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, such U.S. Holder will be required to accrue its pro rata share of OID on such Note on a constant-yield basis and include such accruals in gross income, whether or not such U.S. Holder will have received any cash payment on the Note. Any amount not treated as OID because it is de minimis generally must be included in income (generally as gain from the sale of Notes) as principal payments are received in the proportion that each such payment bears to the original principal amount of the Note. Special rules apply to Notes with a fixed maturity of one year or less. See below under "—Short-Term Notes".

"Stated redemption price at maturity" generally means the sum of all payments to be made on a Note other than payments of "qualified stated interest". "Qualified stated interest" generally means stated interest that is unconditionally payable at least annually at a single fixed rate, or in the case of a variable rate debt instrument (as defined below), at a single qualified floating rate or single objective rate (as such terms are defined below). If a Note is a variable rate debt instrument but interest is payable at a rate other than a single qualified floating rate or a single objective rate, the special rules that apply will be described in the applicable Final Terms.

In the case of a Note that is a variable rate debt instrument, the amount of qualified stated interest and the amount of OID, if any, that accrues during an accrual period is generally determined by assuming that the variable rate is a fixed rate equal to: (i) in the case of a qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate (each as defined below), the value, as of the issue date, of the qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate; or (ii) in the case of an objective rate (as defined below, and other than a qualified inverse floating rate), a fixed rate that reflects the yield that is reasonably expected for the debt instrument, and the qualified stated interest (or, if there is no qualified stated interest, OID) allocable to an accrual period is increased (or decreased) if the interest actually paid during an accrual period exceeds (or is less than) the interest assumed to be paid during the accrual period pursuant to clause (i) or (ii), as applicable. Special rules that apply to a variable rate debt instrument that provides for stated interest at a fixed rate under certain circumstances will be described in the applicable Final Terms.

A "variable rate debt instrument" is a debt instrument that; (i) has an issue price that does not exceed the total non-contingent principal payments by more than an amount equal to the lesser of (a) 0.015 multiplied by the product of such total non-contingent principal payments and the number of complete years to maturity of the instrument (or, in the case of a Note providing for the payment of any amount other than qualified stated interest prior to maturity, multiplied by the weighted average maturity of the Note) or (b) 15 percent of the total non-contingent principal payments; (ii) provides for stated interest (compounded or paid at least annually) at the current value of (A) one or more qualified floating rates; (B) a single fixed rate and one or more qualified floating rates; (C) a single objective rate or (D) a single fixed rate and a single objective rate that is a qualified inverse floating rate; and (iii) does not provide for any principal payments that are contingent. The current value of a rate is the value of the rate on any day that is no earlier than three months prior to the first day on which that value is in effect and no later than one year following that first day.

A "qualified floating rate" is generally a floating rate under which variations in the rate can reasonably be expected to measure contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds in the currency in which a debt instrument is denominated. A multiple of a qualified floating rate is not a qualified floating rate unless the relevant multiplier is (i) fixed at a number that is greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35 or (ii) fixed at a number that is greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35, increased or decreased by a fixed rate. A variable rate is not considered a qualified floating rate if the variable rate is subject to a cap, floor, governor (i.e., a restriction on the amount of increase or decrease in the stated interest rate) or similar restriction that is reasonably expected as of the issue date to cause the yield on the Note to be significantly more or less than the expected yield determined without the restriction (other than a cap, floor, governor or similar restriction that is fixed throughout the term of the Note).

An "objective rate" is a rate (other than a qualified floating rate) that is determined using a single fixed formula and that is based on objective financial or economic information. However, an objective rate does not include a rate based on information that is within the control of the Issuer (or certain related parties of the Issuer) or that is unique to the circumstances of the Issuer (or certain related parties of the Issuer), such as dividends, profits or the value of the Issuer's stock. A "qualified inverse floating rate" is an objective rate (i) that is equal to a fixed rate minus a qualified floating rate and (ii) the variations in which can reasonably be expected to inversely reflect contemporaneous variations in the qualified floating rate (disregarding any caps, floors, governors or similar restrictions that would not, as described above, cause a rate to fail to be a qualified floating rate). Notwithstanding the first sentence of this paragraph, a rate is not an objective rate if it is reasonably expected that the average value of the rate during the first half of the Note's term will be either significantly less than or significantly greater than the average value of the rate during the final half of the Note's term. The IRS may designate rates other than those specified above that will be treated as objective rates. As of the date of this Information Memorandum, no other rates have been designated.

If (i) interest on a Note is stated at a fixed rate for an initial period of one year or less followed by a variable rate that is either a qualified floating rate or an objective rate for a subsequent period and (ii) the value of the variable rate on the issue date is intended to approximate the fixed rate, the fixed rate and the variable rate together constitute a single qualified floating rate or objective rate. A fixed rate and a variable rate will be conclusively presumed to meet the requirements of the preceding sentence if the value of the variable rate on the issue date does not differ from the value of the fixed rate by more than 0.25 percentage points (25 basis points).

If a floating rate Note does not qualify as a variable rate debt instrument or otherwise provides for contingent payments, or if a fixed rate Note provides for contingent payments, such Note may constitute a "contingent payment debt instrument". Interest payable on a contingent payment debt instrument is not treated as qualified stated interest. Special rules applicable to contingent payment debt instruments offered to U.S. Holders will be described in the applicable Final Terms.

In general, the following rules apply if (i) a Note provides for one or more alternative payment schedules applicable upon the occurrence of a contingency or contingencies and the timing and amounts of the payments that comprise each payment schedule are known as of the issue date and (ii) either a single payment schedule is significantly more likely than not to occur or the Note provides the Issuer or a U.S. Holder with an unconditional option or options exercisable on one or more dates during the term of the Note. If based on all the facts and circumstances as of the issue date a single payment schedule for a debt instrument, including the stated payment schedule, is significantly more likely than not to occur, then, in general, the yield and maturity of the Note are computed based on this payment schedule. If the Issuer or a U.S. Holder has an unconditional option or options that, if exercised, would require payments to be made on the Note under an alternative payment schedule or schedules, then (i) in the case of an option or options exercisable by the Issuer, the Issuer will be deemed to exercise or not exercise an option or combination of options in a manner that minimises the yield on the Note and (ii) in the case of an option or options of the U.S. Holder, the U.S. Holder will be deemed to exercise or not exercise an option or combination of options in a manner that maximises the yield on the Note. Notes subject to the above rules will not be treated as contingent payment debt instruments as a result of the contingencies described above. If a contingency (including the exercise of an option) actually occurs or does not occur contrary to an assumption made according to the above rules (a "Change in Circumstances"), then, except to the extent that a portion of the Note is repaid as a result of a Change in Circumstances and solely for purposes of the accrual of OID, the Note is treated as retired and then reissued on the date of the Change in Circumstances for an amount equal to the Note's adjusted issue price on that date.

A U.S. Holder may elect to treat all interest on any Note as OID and calculate the amount includible in gross income under the constant yield method. For purposes of this election, interest includes stated interest, acquisition discount, OID, de minimis OID, market discount, de minimis market discount, and unstated interest, as adjusted by any amortisable bond premium or acquisition premium. The election must be made for the taxable year in which a U.S. Holder acquires a Note, and may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS.

Pre-Issuance Accrued Interest.

If (i) a portion of the initial purchase price of a Note is attributable to pre-issuance accrued interest, (ii) the first stated interest payment on the Note is to be made within one year of the Note's issue date, and (iii) the payment will equal or exceed the amount of pre-issuance accrued interest, then an election may be made to decrease the issue price of the Note by the amount of pre-issuance accrued interest. If this election is made, a portion of the first stated interest payment will be deemed to be a non-taxable return of pre-issuance accrued interest and, accordingly, will not be taxable as interest on the Notes. If this election is not made, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of any pre-issuance accrued interest is not entirely clear. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers concerning the U.S. federal income tax treatment of pre-issuance accrued interest.

Premium

If the amount paid by a U.S. Holder for a Note exceeds the stated redemption price at maturity of such Note, such U.S. Holder generally will be considered to have purchased such Note at a premium equal in amount to such excess. In this event, such U.S. Holder generally may elect to amortise such premium, based generally on a constant-yield basis, as an offset to interest income over the remaining term of such Note. In the case of a Note that may be redeemed prior to maturity, the premium amortisation and redemption date are calculated assuming that the Issuer and the U.S. Holder will exercise or not exercise redemption rights in a manner that maximises the U.S. Holder's yield. It is unclear how premium amortisation is calculated when the redemption date or the amount of any redemption premium is uncertain. A U.S. Holder that elects to amortise bond premium must reduce its tax basis in a Note by the amount of the aggregate deductions allowable for the amortised bond premium. The amount amortised in any year will be treated as a reduction of interest income from such Note. Bond premium on a Note held by a U.S. Holder that does not make such an election will decrease the gain or increase the loss otherwise recognised on the sale, exchange or redemption of such Note. The election to amortise bond premium, once made, will apply to all debt obligations held or subsequently acquired by the electing U.S. Holder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies, and may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS.

If a U.S. Holder makes a constant yield election (as described under "Interest and Original Issue Discount") for a Note with amortisable bond premium, such election will result in a deemed election to amortise bond premium for all of the U.S. Holder's debt instruments with amortisable bond premium.

Market Discount

If a U.S. Holder purchases a Note (other than a Short-Term Note (as defined below)) for an amount that is less than its stated redemption price at maturity or, in the case of an original issue discount Note, its adjusted issue price, the amount of the difference will be treated as market discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes, unless this difference is less than a specified de minimis amount.

A U.S. Holder will be required to treat any principal payment (or, in the case of an original issue discount Note, any payment that does not constitute qualified stated interest) on, or any gain on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Note, including disposition in certain non-recognition transactions, as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount accrued on the Note at the time of the payment or disposition unless this market discount has been previously included in income by the U.S. Holder pursuant to an election by the Noteholder to include market discount in income as it accrues. An election to include market discount in income as it accrues applies to all debt instruments with market discount acquired by the electing U.S. Holder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which such election applies and may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS. In addition, a U.S. Holder that does not elect to include market discount in income currently may be required to defer, until the maturity of the Note or its earlier disposition (including certain non-taxable transactions), the deduction of all or a portion of the interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or maintained to purchase or carry such Note.

Market discount will accrue on a straight line basis unless a U.S. Holder makes an election with respect to a particular note to accrue on a constant yield basis (as described under "Interest and Original Issue Discount"). Such election will result in a deemed election for all market discount bonds acquired by the Noteholder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which such election applies.

Acquisition Premium

A U.S. Holder that purchases a Note for an amount less than or equal to the sum of all amounts payable on the Note after the purchase date, other than payments of qualified stated interest, but in excess of its adjusted issue price (any such excess being "acquisition premium") and that does not make the election described above under the caption "Interest and Original Issue Discount" to treat all interest on any Note as OID and calculate the amount includible in gross income under the constant yield method, is permitted to reduce the daily portions of OID by a fraction, the numerator of which is the excess of the U.S. Holder's adjusted basis in the Note immediately after its purchase over the Note's adjusted issue price, and the denominator of which is the excess of the sum of all amounts payable on the Note after the purchase date, other than payments of qualified stated interest, over Note's adjusted issue price. A Note's "adjusted issue price" is its issue price (as determined above) increased by the amount of previously includable OID and decreased by the amount of any payments on the note that do not constitute qualified stated interest.

Short-Term Notes

Notes that have a fixed maturity of one year or less ("Short-Term Notes") will be treated as issued with OID. In general, an individual or other U.S. Holder that uses the cash method of accounting is not required to accrue such OID unless such U.S. Holder elects to do so. If such an election is not made, any gain recognized by such U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Short-Term Note will be ordinary income to the extent of the OID accrued on a straight line basis, or upon such U.S. Holder's election under the constant yield method (based on daily compounding), through the date of sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition, and a portion of the deduction otherwise allowable to such U.S. Holder for interest on borrowings allocable to the Short-Term Note will be deferred until a corresponding amount of income on such Short-Term Note is realized. U.S. Holders that report income for U.S. federal income tax purposes under the accrual method of accounting and certain other holders are required to accrue OID related to a Short-Term Note as ordinary income on a straight-line basis unless an election is made to accrue the OID under a constant yield method (based on daily compounding).

For purposes of determining the amount of OID subject to these rules, all interest payments on a Short-Term Note are included in the Short-Term Note's stated redemption price at maturity.

Sale, Exchange, Retirement or Other Disposition of Notes

In general, a U.S. Holder of a Note will have a tax basis in such Note equal to the cost of such Note to such U.S. Holder, increased by any amount includible in income by such U.S. Holder as OID and reduced by any amortised premium and any payments received with respect to the Note other than payments of qualified stated interest. Upon a sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Note, a U.S. Holder will generally recognise gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realised on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition (less any amount that is attributable to pre issuance accrued interest, which will be treated as described above and accrued but unpaid qualified stated interest, which will constitute ordinary interest income if not previously included in income) and such U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Note. Subject to the rules described below under "Foreign Currency Notes", such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if such U.S. Holder will have held such Note for more than one year at the time of disposition. Certain non-corporate U.S. Holders are entitled to preferential treatment for net long-term capital gains. The ability of a U.S. Holder to offset capital losses against ordinary income is subject to substantial limitations.

Foreign Currency Notes

The following discussion generally describes special rules that apply, in addition to the rules described above, to Notes that are denominated in, or provide for payments determined by reference to, a currency other than the U.S. dollar ("Foreign Currency Notes"). The amount of qualified stated interest paid with respect to a Foreign Currency Note that is includible in income by a U.S. Holder that uses the cash method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes is the U.S. dollar value of the amount paid, as determined on the date of actual or constructive receipt by such U.S. Holder, using the spot rate of exchange on such date. In the case of qualified stated interest on a Foreign Currency Note held by a U.S. Holder that uses the accrual method of accounting, and in the case of OID (other than OID on a Short-Term Note that is not required to be accrued) for every U.S. Holder, such U.S. Holder is required to include the U.S. dollar value of the amount of such interest income or OID (which is determined in the foreign currency) that accrued during the accrual period. The U.S. dollar value of such accrued interest income or OID generally is determined by translating such income at the average rate of exchange for the accrual period (or, with respect to an accrual period that spans two taxable years, at the average spot rate of exchange for the partial period within the taxable year). Alternatively, such U.S. Holder may elect to translate such income at the spot rate of exchange on the last day of the accrual period (or, with respect to an accrual period that spans two taxable years, at the spot rate of exchange in effect on the last day of the taxable year for the partial period). If the last day of the accrual period is within five business days of the date of receipt of the accrued interest, a U.S. Holder that has made such election may translate accrued interest using the spot rate of exchange in effect on the date of receipt. The above election will apply to all debt obligations held by such U.S. Holder and may not be changed without the consent of the IRS. The U.S. Holder will recognise, as ordinary income or loss, foreign currency exchange gain or loss with respect to such accrued interest income or OID on the date the interest or OID is actually or constructively received, reflecting fluctuations in currency exchange rates between the spot rate of exchange used to determine the accrued interest income or OID for the relevant accrual period and the spot rate of exchange on the date such interest or OID is actually or constructively received.

A U.S. Holder will calculate the amortisation of any bond premium for a Foreign Currency Note in the applicable foreign currency. Amortisation deductions attributable to a period will reduce interest payments in respect of that period, and therefore are translated into U.S. dollars at the spot rate of exchange used for those interest payments. Foreign currency exchange gain or loss will be realised with respect to amortised premium on a Foreign Currency Note based on the difference between the spot rate of the exchange at which the amortisation deductions were translated into U.S. dollars and the spot rate of exchange on the date such U.S. Holder acquired the Foreign Currency Note. Where a U.S. Holder elects to include market discount in income currently, the amount of market discount will be determined for any accrual period in the relevant foreign currency and then translated into U.S. dollars on the basis of the average rate in effect during the accrual period. Exchange gain or loss realised with respect to such accrued market discount shall be determined in accordance with the rules relating to accrued interest described above. Accrued market discount (other than market discount currently included in income) taken into account upon the receipt of any partial principal payment or upon the sale, retirement or other disposition of a Note is generally translated into U.S. dollars at the spot rate on such payment or disposition date.

The amount realised with respect to a sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Foreign Currency Note generally will be the U.S. dollar value of the payment received, determined on the date of disposition of such Foreign Currency Note (using the spot rate of exchange on such date). However, with respect to Foreign Currency Notes that are treated as traded on an established securities market, such amount realised will be determined using the spot rate of exchange on the settlement date in the case of (i) a U.S. Holder that is a cash method taxpayer or (ii) a U.S. Holder that is an accrual method taxpayer that elects such treatment. This election may not be changed without the consent of the IRS. Gain or loss that is recognised generally will be ordinary income or loss to the extent it is attributable to fluctuations in currency exchange rates between the date of purchase and the date of sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition. Such foreign currency exchange gain (or loss), together with any foreign currency exchange gain (or loss) realised on such disposition in respect of accrued interest or OID, generally will be recognised only to the extent of the total gain (or loss) realised by such U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of the Foreign Currency Note. Any such total gain (or loss) realised by a U.S. Holder not treated as foreign currency exchange gain (or loss) generally will be capital gain (or loss) (subject to the discussion above regarding Short-Term Notes).

A U.S. Holder that determines its amount realised in connection with the sale, exchange or other disposition of a Foreign Currency Note by reference to the spot rate of exchange on the date of such sale, exchange or other disposition (rather than on the settlement date) may recognise additional foreign currency exchange gain or loss upon receipt of non-U.S. currency from such sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition.

A U.S. Holder will recognise an amount of foreign currency exchange gain or loss on a sale or other disposition of any non-U.S. currency equal to the difference between (i) the amount of U.S. dollars, or the fair market value in U.S. dollars of any other property, received in such sale or other disposition and (ii) the tax basis of such non-U.S. currency. A U.S. Holder generally will have a tax basis in non-U.S. currency received from a sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Foreign Currency Note equal to the U.S. dollar value of such non-U.S. currency on the date of receipt.

A Note that provides for payments in more than one currency generally will be treated as a "contingent payment debt instrument", and the special rules applicable to such instruments may be described in the applicable Final Terms or other supplemental disclosure if the Notes are offered to U.S. Holders.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Information returns may be filed with the IRS in connection with payments on the Notes and the proceeds from a sale or other disposition of the Notes. A U.S. Holder may be subject to U.S. backup withholding on these payments if it fails to provide its tax identification number to the paying agent and comply with certain certification procedures. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

In addition, U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers about any additional reporting obligations that may apply as a result of the acquisition, holding or disposition of the Notes. Failure to comply with certain reporting obligations could result in the imposition of substantial penalties.

UNITED STATES EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN CONSIDERATIONS

The U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), imposes certain requirements on "employee benefit plans" (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA, including entities such as collective investment funds and separate accounts whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (collectively, "ERISA Plans") and on those persons who are fiduciaries with respect to ERISA Plans. Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA's general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan's investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the ERISA Plan.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to ERISA but which are subject to Section 4975 of the Code, such as individual retirement accounts, and entities whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans and/or the assets of ERISA Plans (together with ERISA Plans, "Plans")) and certain persons (referred to as "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons") having certain relationships to such Plans, unless a statutory or administrative exemption is applicable to the transaction. To the extent a purchase of Notes (or an interest in a Note) by a Plan is permitted, prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if the Notes are acquired by a Plan with respect to which any of the Issuer, the Issuing and Paying Agent, the Registrar and Transfer Agent or any of their respective affiliates are a party in interest or a disqualified person. A party in interest or disqualified person who engages in a prohibited transaction may be subject to excise taxes and other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code may be applicable, however, depending in part on the type of Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire Notes and the circumstances under which such decision is made. Included among these exemptions are Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code (relating to transactions between a person that is a party in interest or disqualified person (other than a fiduciary or an affiliate that has or exercises discretionary authority or control or renders investment advice with respect to assets involved in the transaction) solely by reason of providing services to the plan, provided that there is adequate consideration for the transaction), Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 91-38 (relating to investments by bank collective investment funds), PTCE 84-14 (relating to transactions effected by a qualified professional asset manager), PTCE 95-60 (relating to transactions involving insurance company general accounts), PTCE 90-1 (relating to investments by insurance company pooled separate accounts) and PTCE 96-23 (relating to transactions determined by in-house asset managers). Prospective investors should consult with their advisors regarding the prohibited transaction rules and these exemptions. There can be no assurance that any exemption will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Notes, or that, if an exemption is available, it will cover all aspects of any particular transaction.

None of the Issuer, the Dealer, the Stabilising Manager, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent, the Registrar, the DTC Custodian, nor any of their respective affiliates (collectively, the "Transaction Parties") is undertaking to provide impartial investment advice, or to give advice in a fiduciary capacity, in connection with the acquisition of any of the Notes by any Plan.

Unless otherwise permitted pursuant to the Final Terms, a Plan may not purchase, hold or hold any interest in the Notes. Each purchaser and transferee of a Note (or any interest therein), unless stated in the Final Terms, will be deemed to have represented and agreed that it is not and for so long as it holds a Note (or any interest therein) will not be a Plan. If a purchaser or transferee of a Note is not a Plan but is subject to any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code ("Similar Law") then such purchaser or transferee will be deemed to represent and agree that such acquisition is not in violation of any Similar Law.

Governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA), certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) and non-U.S. plans (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA), while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject to Similar Law. Fiduciaries of any such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing any Notes.

The foregoing discussion is general in nature and not intended to be all-inclusive. Any Plan fiduciary who proposes to cause a Plan to purchase Notes to the extent permitted in the Final Terms should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA. If, in the Final Terms, Plans are permitted to purchase Notes, each purchaser and subsequent transferee of a Note (or any interest therein) will be deemed to have represented and agreed that either (i) it is not and for so long as it holds a Note (or any interest therein) will not be, a Plan or a governmental, church or non-U.S. plan subject to Similar Law or (b) its acquisition, holding and disposition of such Note (or any interest therein) will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (or, in the case of a governmental, church or non-U.S. plan subject to Similar Law, a violation of any Similar Law).

In addition, if in the Final Terms Plans are permitted to purchase Notes, any Plan or a fiduciary purchasing the Notes on behalf of a Plan (a "Plan Fiduciary"), should consider the impact of the new Department of Labor regulations promulgated at 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-21 on April 8, 2016 (81 Fed. Reg. 20,997) (the "Fiduciary Rule").

In addition, if in the Final Terms Plans are permitted to purchase Notes, each Plan Fiduciary will be deemed to have represented by its purchase of the Notes that:

- (1) none of the Transaction Parties has provided or will provide advice with respect to the acquisition of the Notes by the Plan, and the Plan Fiduciary either:
 - (a) is a bank as defined in Section 202 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Advisers Act"), or similar institution that is regulated and supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or Federal agency;
 - (b) is an insurance carrier which is qualified under the laws of more than one state to perform the services of managing, acquiring or disposing of assets of a Plan;
 - (c) is an investment adviser registered under the Advisers Act, or, if not registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act by reason of paragraph (1) of Section 203A of the Advisers Act, is registered as an investment adviser under the laws of the state in which it maintains its principal office and place of business;
 - (d) is a broker-dealer registered under the Exchange Act; or
 - (e) has, and at all times that the Plan is invested in the Notes will have, total assets of at least U.S. $50,000,000 under its management or control (provided that this clause (e) shall not be satisfied if the Plan Fiduciary is either (i) the owner or a relative of the owner of an investing individual retirement account or (ii) a participant or beneficiary of the Plan investing in the Notes in such capacity);
- (2) the Plan Fiduciary is capable of evaluating investment risks independently, both in general and with respect to particular transactions and investment strategies, including without limitation the acquisition by the Plan of the Notes;
- (3) the Plan Fiduciary is a "fiduciary" with respect to the Plan within the meaning of Section 3(21) of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code, or both, and is independent of the Transaction Parties for purposes of the Fiduciary Rule and responsible for exercising independent judgment in evaluating the Plan's acquisition of the Notes;
- (4) none of the Transaction Parties has exercised any authority to cause the Plan to invest in the Notes or to negotiate the terms of the Plan's investment in the Notes; and
- (5) the Plan Fiduciary has been informed by the Transaction Parties:
 - (a) that none of the Transaction Parties has undertaken or will undertake to provide impartial investment advice or has given or will give advice in a fiduciary capacity in connection with the Plan's acquisition of the Notes; and
 - (b) of the existence and nature of the Transaction Parties' fees, compensation arrangements and/or financial interests in the Plan's acquisition of the Notes.

The above representations in this paragraph are intended to comply with the Fiduciary Rule. If the Fiduciary Rule is revoked, repealed or no longer effective, these representations shall be deemed to not be in effect.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Notes may be sold from time to time by the Issuer to any one or more dealers appointed from time to time in relation to each Tranche of Notes (the "Dealers"). The arrangements under which Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by the Issuer to, and purchased by, Dealers are set out in a Master Dealer Agreement dated 28 September 2018 (the "Master Dealer Agreement"). Any such agreement will, inter alia, make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the price at which such Notes will be purchased by the Dealers and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by the Issuer in respect of such purchase. The Master Dealer Agreement makes provision for the resignation or termination of appointment of existing Dealers and for the appointment of additional or other Dealers either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular Tranche of Notes. The Notes may also be sold from time to time by the Issuer by way of a private placement.

Dealers and their respective affiliates are full-service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, investment research, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The several Dealers and their respective affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Issuer, and the Dealers have not provided any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any offering contemplated hereby and the Issuer has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate. Where any of the Dealers or their affiliates has a lending relationship with the Issuer, certain of those Dealers or their affiliates routinely hedge, and certain other of those Dealers may hedge, their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, these Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities, including potentially the Notes. Any such credit default swaps or short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the Notes.

Certain of the Dealers and their respective affiliates have, directly or indirectly, performed investment and commercial banking or financial advisory services for the Issuer and/or its affiliates for which they may have received customary fees and commissions, and they expect to provide these services to the Issuer and/or its affiliates in the future, for which they will receive customary fees and commissions. In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Dealers and their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers, and such investment and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer. The Dealers and their respective affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or instruments and may at any time hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Selling Restrictions

General

Each Dealer will represent, warrant and agree that it has complied and will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or possesses, distributes or publishes this Information Memorandum or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at its own expense. Other persons into whose hands this Information Memorandum or any Final Terms comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Notes or possess, distribute or publish this Information Memorandum or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

The Master Dealer Agreement provides that the Dealers shall not be bound by any of the restrictions relating to any specific jurisdiction (set out above) to the extent that such restrictions shall, as a result of change(s) or change(s) in official interpretation, after the date hereof, of applicable laws and regulations, no longer be applicable but without prejudice to the obligations of the Dealers described in the paragraph headed "General" above.

Selling restrictions may be supplemented or modified with the agreement of the Issuer. Any such supplement or modification may be set out in the relevant Final Terms (in the case of a supplement or modification relevant only to a particular Tranche of Notes) or in a supplement to this Information Memorandum.

Unless otherwise provided in the Final Terms, no action is being taken by the Issuer, its agents or dealers to permit an offer, subscription sale or resale of any Notes, or the distribution of any document, in or from any jurisdiction where action by the Issuer would be required for such purpose. Accordingly, the Notes may not be directly or indirectly offered or sold, and no information memorandum or other informational or offering material may be distributed or published, in or from any such jurisdiction or to any persons subject thereto, except in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. In particular, no representation is made that the Notes may be lawfully sold in compliance with any applicable registration requirements, and neither the Issuer, nor its agents or dealers, assumes any responsibility for facilitating such sales.

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, the securities laws of any State or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Each Dealer has agreed that, except as permitted by the Master Dealer Agreement, it will not offer or sell the Notes of any Series (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after completion of the distribution of the Notes of such Series within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and it will have sent to each dealer to which it sells Notes of any Series (other than a sale pursuant to Rule 144A) during the distribution compliance period with respect to that Series a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes of that Series within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of the Notes of a Series, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A.

Notes offered and sold outside the United States to non-U.S. persons may be sold in reliance on Regulation S. The Master Dealer Agreement provides that the Dealer(s) may directly or through their respective U.S. broker dealer affiliates arrange for the offer and resale of Notes within the United States only to persons whom they reasonably believe are QIBs who can represent that (a) they are QIBs within the meaning of Rule 144A, (b) they are not broker dealers who own and invest on a discretionary basis less than USD 25 million in securities of unaffiliated issuers, (c) they are not a participant directed employee plan, such as a 401(k) plan, (d) they are acting for their own account, or the account of one or more QIBs, (e) they are not formed for the purpose of investing in the Issuer or the Notes, (f) they understand that the Issuer may receive a list of participants holding positions in its securities from one or more book-entry depositories and (g) they will provide notice of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Information Memorandum to any subsequent transferees.

The Issuer and the Dealers reserve the right to reject any offer to purchase the Notes, in whole or in part, for any reason. This Information Memorandum does not constitute an offer to any person in the United States or to any U.S. person other than any QIB to whom an offer has been made directly by one of the Dealers or its U.S. broker dealer affiliate. Distribution of this Information Memorandum by any non U.S. person outside the United States or by any QIB within the United States to any U.S. person or to any other person within the United States, other than any QIB and those persons, if any, retained to advise such non U.S. person or QIB with respect thereto, is unauthorised and any disclosure without the prior written consent of the Issuer of any of its contents to any such U.S. person or other person within the United States, other than any QIB and those persons, if any, retained to advise such non U.S. person or QIB, is prohibited.

Further restrictions may be specified in applicable Final Terms for Notes whose interest or redemption amounts are linked to an index or other formula.

The Notes in bearer form (being Notes which are represented on issue by a Global Bearer Note) are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and regulations thereunder.

In respect of such Notes in bearer form having a maturity of more than 365 days where TEFRA C is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Dealer will be required to represent and agree that:

- (a) it understands that under U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the "TEFRA C Rules"), such Notes must be issued and delivered outside the United States and its possessions in connection with their original issuance;
- (b) it has not offered, sold or delivered, and will not offer, sell or deliver, directly or indirectly, any Notes within the United States or its possessions in connection with the original issuance of such Notes; and
- (c) in connection with the original issuance of such Notes it has not communicated, and will not communicate, directly or indirectly, with a prospective purchaser if such prospective purchaser or such Dealer is within the United States or its possessions and will not otherwise involve the United States office of such Dealer in the offer and sale of such Notes.

In respect of such Notes in bearer form having a maturity of more than 365 days where TEFRA D is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Dealer will be required to represent and agree that:

- (a) except to the extent permitted under United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the "TEFRA D Rules"):
 - (i) it has not offered or sold, and during the restricted period will not offer or sell, any Notes to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person; and
 - (ii) it has not delivered and will not deliver in definitive form within the United States or its possessions any Notes sold during the restricted period;
- (b) it has, and throughout the restricted period will have, in effect procedures reasonably designed to ensure that its employees or agents who are directly engaged in selling Notes are aware that the Notes may not be offered or sold during the restricted period to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except as permitted by the TEFRA D Rules; and
- (c) if it is a United States person, it is acquiring the Notes for the purposes of resale in connection with their original issuance and, if it retains Notes for its own account, it will only do so in accordance with the requirements of United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(6) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010).

Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and regulations thereunder, including the TEFRA C Rules and the TEFRA D Rules.

AUCTION PROCESS

Auction process

In case of issuances which are not syndicated, the terms and the allocation of the issuance will be determined in an auction process.

The auction process for the offering of Notes is conducted in the name and for the account of the Issuer through the electronic ESM Bidding System of the Deutsche Bundesbank ("EBS"). It is subject to German law. Each auction of Notes is ruled by the Auction Rules for the Issue of Bonds of the ESM, the Special Terms and Conditions of the Deutsche Bundesbank for Auctions of Bonds of the ESM using the EBS, the General Terms and Conditions for the Bundesbank ExtraNet, and the General Terms and Conditions of the Deutsche Bundesbank (each as published at https://www.bundesbank.de/Navigation/EN/Service/Services_for_banks_and_companies/EBS/Terms_and_conditions/terms_and_conditions.html) and any amendments to the aforementioned rules.

Only members of the ESM Market Group ("Members") are participants in the EBS and may therefore participate in auctions. In general, Members have to be financial institutions authorised in the European Economic Area ("EEA") or EEA branches of financial institutions which are authorised outside the EEA.

Terms and Conditions of each individual issue of Notes are announced by Deutsche Bundesbank together with an invitation to bid via press releases, financial information services and the EBS. In addition the auction result will be published by Deutsche Bundesbank via press release, financial information services and the EBS.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Because of the following restrictions, you are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale or other transfer offered hereby.

Regulation S Notes

Each purchaser of an interest in Notes (other than Restricted Notes) and each subsequent purchaser of Notes (A) in the case of (1) and (2) below, prior to the expiration of the distribution compliance period (as such term is defined in Regulation S), and (B) in the case of (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) below, throughout the period that it holds such Notes, by accepting delivery of this Information Memorandum and the Notes, will be deemed to have represented, agreed and acknowledged that:

- (1) It is not a U.S. person and it is located outside the United States (within the meaning of Regulation S) and it is not an affiliate of the Issuer or a person acting on behalf of the Issuer or such an affiliate.
- (2) It understands that prior to the expiration of the applicable distribution compliance period (as such term is defined in Regulation S) for such Notes, it will not offer, sell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Notes except (a) in accordance with Rule 144A to a person that it and any person acting on its behalf reasonably believes is a QIB purchasing for its own account or for the account of a QIB or (b) in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S, in each case in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any State of the United States.
- (3) It understands that the Unrestricted Notes of a Series will be evidenced by an Unrestricted Global Note. Before any interest in an Unrestricted Global Note may be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Restricted Global Note, it will be required to provide a Transfer Agent with a written certification as to compliance with applicable securities laws.
- (4) It is, or at the time the Notes are purchased it will be, the owner of such Notes.
