DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES:

The description in this Pricing Supplement of the particular terms of the Medium-Term Senior Notes offered hereby supplements, and to the extent inconsistent therewith replaces, the description of the general terms and provisions of the Notes set forth in the accompanying Prospectus dated May 13, 2015 (the "Prospectus") and Prospectus Supplement dated May 13, 2015 (the "Prospectus Supplement") to which reference is hereby made.

Standard Chartered Bank will not effect any offers or sales of any notes in the United States unless it is through one or more U.S. registered broker-dealers as permitted by the regulations of FINRA.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Selling Restrictions

Canada

The notes may be sold only to purchasers purchasing, or deemed to be purchasing, as principal that are accredited investors, as defined in National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions or subsection 73.3(1) of the Securities Act (Ontario), and are permitted clients, as defined in National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations. Any resale of the notes must be made in accordance with an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws.

Securities legislation in certain provinces or territories of Canada may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if the Prospectus, the Prospectus Supplement or this Pricing Supplement (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

Pursuant to section 3A.3 of National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts (NI 33-105), the dealers are not required to comply with the disclosure requirements of NI 33-105 regarding underwriter conflicts of interest in connection with this offering.

DISCLOSURE RELATED TO FATCA

Disclosure under the “Taxation — Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences — Foreign Accounts” section of the Prospectus, dated May 13, 2015, shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

- “A United States law enacted in 2010 and commonly referred to as FATCA potentially imposes a withholding tax of 30% on payments of (i) interest on a debt obligation of a United States issuer and (ii) after December 31, 2018, gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of such a debt obligation, in each case made to (a) a foreign financial institution (as a beneficial owner or as an intermediary), unless such institution enters into an agreement with the United States government to collect and report (or is required by applicable local law) to collect and provide to the United States or other relevant tax authorities certain information regarding United States account holders of such institution or (b) a non-United States entity (as a beneficial owner) that is not a financial institution unless such entity provides the withholding agent with a certification that it does not have any substantial United States owners or that identifies its substantial United States owners, which generally includes any specified United States person that directly or indirectly owns more than a specified percentage of such entity. FATCA applies to the debt securities. United States Holders that will hold the debt securities through a non-United States intermediary and Non-United States Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding foreign account tax compliance.”
