Pricing Supplement to the Prospectus dated April 6, 2009 and the Prospectus Supplement dated April 6, 2009 — No. 486

$44,120,000

The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.

5.25% Notes due 2024
Medium-Term Notes, Series D

We will pay you interest on your notes on a monthly basis at a rate of 5.25% per annum on the 15th of each month. The first interest payment will be made on September 15, 2010.

If requested, we will redeem the notes prior to their stated maturity date upon the death of a beneficial owner who has owned the notes for at least 36 months. We call this feature the survivor's option. The survivor's option is subject to a limit of $250,000 on the permitted principal amount of the deceased beneficial owner in any calendar year and to a limit of two percent of the principal amount of all outstanding notes of the same series in any calendar year. We may waive those limits in our discretion. Any notes accepted for repayment through the exercise of the survivor's option normally will be repaid on the earlier of the June 15th or December 15th interest payment date that occurs 60 or more calendar days after the date of death.

A valid redemption request requires the representative of the deceased beneficial owner to provide the information described in Appendix A, together with a properly completed redemption request in the form of Appendix A to this pricing supplement. See "Additional Information—Survivor's Option to Request Repayment" on page PS-3 for more information.

Table of Contents

SPECIFIC TERMS OF THE NOTES

Please note that in this section entitled "Specific Terms of the Notes", references to "The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc." mean only The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. and do not include its consolidated subsidiaries. Also, in this section, references to "The Depository Trust Company (DTC) or its nominee and not indirect owners who own beneficial interests in notes" mean The Depository Trust Company (DTC) or its nominee and not indirect owners who own beneficial interests in notes. Please review the special considerations that apply to indirect owners in the accompanying prospectus, under "Legal Entry Issuance".

This pricing supplement no. 486 dated August 16, 2010 (pricing supplement) and the accompanying prospectus dated August 16, 2010 (prospectus), relating to the notes, should be read together. Because the notes are part of a series of our debt securities called "Notes" (pricing supplement and the accompanying prospectus should also be read with the accompanying prospectus supplement, dated August 16, 2010 (prospectus supplement)). Terms used but not defined in this pricing supplement have the meanings given them in the accompanying prospectus supplement, unless the context requires otherwise.

The notes are a separate series of our debt securities under our Medium-Term Notes, Series D program governed by our Medium-Term Notes Indenture, dated July 16, 2008 (2008 Indenture), between us and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee (Trustee). This pricing supplement supplements the terms of the notes described here and applies to your notes. The terms of the notes described here supplement those described in the accompanying prospectus supplement and, if the terms described here are inconsistent with those described there, the terms described here are controlling.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE NOTES

Book-Entry System

We will issue the notes as a master global note registered in the name of DTC, or its nominee. The sale of the notes will be made through DTC. You will not be permitted to withdraw the notes from DTC except in the limited situations described in the accompanying prospectus under “Legal Ownership and Book-Entry Issuance — What Is a Global Security? — Holder’s Option to Obtain a Non-Global Security; Security Will Be Terminated”. Investors may hold interests in a master global note through organizations that participate, directly or indirectly, in the DTC system.

Survivor’s Option to Request Repayment

Following the death of the beneficial owner of a note, so long as that note was owned by that beneficial owner or the estate of that beneficial owner, at least six months prior to the request, if requested by the authorized representative of the beneficial owner of that note (subject to the limitations described below), we agree to redeem any notes prior to the stated maturity unless the notes:

- have been previously redeemed or otherwise repaid, or
- have been declared due and payable before their stated maturity by reason of an event of default under the 2008 Supplemental Indenture in the accompanying prospectus under “Description of Debt Securities We May Offer — Default, Remedies and Waivers”.

Upon the valid exercise of the option to request repayment described in the preceding paragraph (Survivor’s Option) and the request for repayment (subject to the limitations described below), we will redeem that note, in whole or in part (but in amounts of not less than 100% of the principal amount of the note plus any unpaid interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of repayment).

Incapital LLC has advised that it intends to make a market in the notes. Depending on market conditions, including changes in the creditworthiness, the value of the notes may be greater than their principal amount plus any unpaid interest accrued. Accordingly, investors should contact Incapital LLC to determine the market price of the notes and should otherwise carefully consider whether to purchase the notes from Incapital LLC or another market participant rather than redeeming the notes at the principal amount plus accrued interest pursuant to the Survivor’s Option.

To be valid, the Survivor’s Option must be exercised by or on behalf of the person who has:

- authority to act on behalf of the deceased beneficial owner of the note, including, without limitation, the personal representative of the deceased beneficial owner or the surviving joint owner with the deceased beneficial owner, under the laws of the state of New York;
- the right to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of an interest in a note and the right to receive the proceeds from the sale, transfer or disposition of the interest payable to the holder of the note.

The following will be deemed the death of a beneficial owner of a note, and the entire principal amount of the note so held by the beneficial owner will be payable to us upon request (with the limitations described below):

- death of a person holding a beneficial ownership interest in a note as a joint tenant or tenant by the entirety with another person, or as a tenant in common with the deceased holder’s spouse or a tenant in common with a person other than such deceased person’s spouse;

Table of Contents

- death of a person who at the time of his or her death was a beneficiary of a revocable or irrevocable trust that holds a note may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be deemed the death of a beneficial owner of that note, if such beneficiary is satisfied to the satisfaction of us and the Trustee; and
- death of a person who, at the time of his or her death, was entitled to substantially all of the beneficial ownership interest in a note, whether that beneficial owner was the registered holder of that note, if entitlement to those interests can be established to the satisfaction of the Trustee.

In addition, a beneficial ownership interest will be deemed to exist:

- in typical cases of nominee ownership, ownership under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, or other joint ownership arrangements between a husband and wife; and
- in custodial and trust arrangements where one person has all of the beneficial ownership interests in the applicable note at the time of death.

We have the discretionary right to limit the aggregate principal amount of notes as to which exercises of the Survivor's Option are made by our authorized representatives:

- of all deceased beneficial owners in any calendar year to an amount equal to 2% of the principal amount of all outstanding notes at the pricing supplement as of the end of the most recent calendar year (two percent aggregate limitation); and
- of any individual deceased beneficial owner of notes to $250,000 in any calendar year ($250,000 limitation).

In addition, we will not permit the exercise of the Survivor's Option except in principal amounts of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof.

We may, at our option, redeem interests of any deceased beneficial owner in the notes in any calendar year in excess of the two percent aggregate limitation for optional redemption by us of this kind, to the extent it exceeds the $250,000 limitation for any deceased beneficial owner, will not be subject to the two percent aggregate limitation for redemption of the notes for that or any other calendar year.

We may also, at our option, redeem interests of deceased beneficial owners in the notes in any calendar year in an aggregate amount in excess of the two percent aggregate limitation. Any optional redemption by us of this kind, to the extent it exceeds the two percent aggregate limitation, will not be considered in calculating the two percent aggregate limitation for any other calendar year.

Furthermore, any optional redemption by us with respect to a deceased beneficial owner's interest in the notes is inapplicable to the deceased beneficial owner's interest in the notes. In other words, we may waive any applicable limitations with respect to a deceased beneficial owner's interest in the notes. We may also make the same or similar waivers with respect to other deceased beneficial owners.

Each election to exercise the Survivor's Option will be accepted in the order that elections are received by the Trustee, except to the extent that any such election would contravene either the two percent aggregate limitation or the $250,000 limitation. Upon any determination by us that a note is subject to the $250,000 limitation or the two percent aggregate limitation, notes will be redeemed in the order of receipt of redemption requests. If a note is not accepted in any calendar year due to the application of either the two percent aggregate limitation or the $250,000 limitation, we will tender the note in the following calendar year in the order in which all such notes were originally tendered.

Pricing Supplement No. 486 dated August 16, 2010

PS-4

Table of Contents

Notes accepted for repayment through the exercise of the Survivor's Option normally will be redeemed on the earlier of the next interest payment date that occurs 60 or more calendar days after the date of the acceptance. For example, if the acceptance date of a valid exercise of the Survivor's Option is May 1, 2011, and interest on that note is paid monthly on the 15th of every month, we will redeem that note on the interest payment date occurring on December 15, 2011, because the June 15, 2011 interest payment date would be the first date of acceptance. Any redemption request may be withdrawn by the person(s) presenting the request upon delivery of a written request to the participant on behalf of the person(s) to the Trustee not less than 30 days before the redemption date. If a note tendered through the Survivor's Option is not accepted, the Trustee will deliver a notice by first-class mail to the participant through whom the note was tendered that that note has not been accepted for redemption.

With respect to notes represented by a master global note (such as these notes), DTC or its nominee is the depository of the notes and the institution that has an account with the depository of the notes is referred to as the "participant".

To obtain redemption pursuant to exercise of the Survivor's Option for a note, the deceased beneficial owner's authorized representative must deliver the following items to the participant in DTC through which the beneficial interest in the note is held by the deceased beneficial owner:

- a written request for redemption signed by the authorized representative of the deceased beneficial owner with the participant, a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the Financial Institution Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FIRCA), a trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States and a written instruction to notify the Trustee of the desire to obtain redemption pursuant to exercise of the Survivor's Option;
- appropriate evidence satisfactory to us and the Trustee:
  - (a) that the deceased was the beneficial owner of the note at the time of death and his or her interest in the note was held by the beneficial owner or his or her estate for at least six months prior to the request for redemption,
  - (b) that the death of the beneficial owner has occurred,
  - (c) the date of death of the beneficial owner, and
  - (d) that the representative has authority to act on behalf of the beneficial owner;
- if applicable, a properly executed assignment or endorsement;
- tax waivers and any other instruments or documents that we or the Trustee reasonably require in order to establish the ownership of the note and the claimant's entitlement to payment;
- any additional information we or the Trustee reasonably require to evidence satisfaction of any conditions to the election to document beneficial ownership or authority to make the election and to cause the redemption of the note; and
- if the interest in the note is held by a nominee of the deceased beneficial owner, a certificate satisfactory to us and the Trustee attesting to the deceased's beneficial ownership of such note.

After the representative provides the information to the participant, the participant will then deliver each of these items to us, Sachs & Co. in its capacity as administrator of the Survivor's Option on our behalf, together with evidence satisfactory to us and the Trustee stating that it represents the deceased beneficial owner. The participant will then need to deliver to the Trustee a request for redemption as Appendix A to this pricing supplement.

All questions regarding the eligibility or validity of any exercise of the Survivor's Option will be determined by us, in our sole discretion, and our decision will be final and binding on all parties.

Subject to arrangements with the depository, payment for interests in the notes to be redeemed will be made to the depository in the amount specified in the redemption requests submitted to the Trustee by the depository that are to be fulfilled in connection with the redemption of the notes to the Trustee for redemption.

Additional redemption request forms for the exercise of the Survivor's Option may be obtained from the Trustee at The Bank of America, 100 Main Street, 9th Floor, Dallas, TX 75201, Attention: Survivor Options Processing, telephone: (800) 254-2826, fax: (214) 468-6000.

During any time in which the notes are not represented by a master global note and are issued in definitive form:

- all references in this section of the pricing supplement to participants and the depository, including the depository's procedures, will be deemed inapplicable;
- all determinations that the participants are required to make as described in this section will be made by us, including whether the applicable decedent is in fact the beneficial owner of the interest in the notes to be redeemed or is in fact a representative is duly authorized to request redemption on behalf of the applicable beneficial owner; and
- all redemption requests, to be effective, must:
  - be delivered by the representative to the Trustee, with a copy to us;
  - if required by the Trustee and us, be in the form of the attached redemption request with appropriate changes to the Trustee and us to reflect the fact that the redemption request is being executed by a representative, including appropriate guarantees; and
  - be accompanied by the note that is the subject of the redemption request or, if applicable, a properly executed copy of the note in addition to all documents that are otherwise required to accompany a redemption request. If the record reflects that the deceased beneficial owner, a certificate or letter from the nominee attesting to the deceased's ownership of the note must also be delivered.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters set forth under "United States Taxation" in the accompanying prospectus. The following discussion supplements the section "United States Taxation" in the accompanying prospectus and is subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth therein.

Medicare Tax. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012, a U.S. holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust or class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (1) the U.S. holder's "net investment income" and (2) the excess of the U.S. holder's modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of an individual is $125,000 and $250,000, depending on the individual's circumstances). A holder's net investment income will generally include its net gains from the disposition of notes, unless such interest payments or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). If you are a U.S. holder that is an individual, consult your tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to your income and gains in respect of your investment.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Please see the discussion under “United States Taxation — Taxation of Withholding and Information Reporting” in the accompanying prospectus for a description of the applicability of the backup withholding rules to payments made on your notes. In addition, pursuant to recently enacted legislation, certain payments in respect of the holders after December 31, 2011 may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding.

SUPPLEMENTAL PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. and the underwriters for this offering named below have entered into a terms agreement with respect to the notes. Subject to certain conditions, each underwriter named below has severally agreed to purchase the principal amount of the notes set forth in the following table.

Underwriters

Goldman, Sachs & Co.
Incapital LLC
Total

Notes sold by the underwriters to the public will initially be offered at the original issue price set forth on the cover of this prospectus. The underwriters intend to purchase the notes from The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. at a purchase price equal to the original issue price of the principal amount of the notes. Any notes sold by the underwriters to securities dealers may be sold at a discount from the original issue price of the principal amount of the notes. Any such securities dealers may resell any notes purchased from the underwriters to certain investors at a discount from the original issue price of up to 0.200% of the principal amount of the notes. If all of the offered notes are not sold, the underwriters may change the offering price and the other selling terms.

Please note that the information about the original issue price and net proceeds to The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. on the cover of this prospectus is based on the initial sale of the notes. If you have purchased a note in a market-making transaction by Goldman, Sachs & Co. or any other member of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. after the initial sale, information about the price and date of sale to you will be provided in a separate confirmation of sale.

Each underwriter has represented and agreed that it will not offer or sell the notes in the United States or to United States residents unless sales are made by or through FINRA member broker-dealers registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. estimates that its share of the total offering expenses, excluding underwriting discounts and commissions payable to Goldman, Sachs & Co. or any other underwriter, will be approximately $1,090,000.

The provision regarding the market-making activities of Goldman, Sachs & Co. described under "Plan of Distribution — Market-Making" on page 142 of the accompanying prospectus does not apply to the notes. Goldman, Sachs & Co. does not intend to make a market in the notes. In the future, Goldman, Sachs & Co. or other affiliates of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. may decide to repurchase and resell the notes in certain transactions, with resales being made at prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of resale or at negotiated prices. For more information about the plan of distribution and possible market-making activities, see "Plan of Distribution" in the accompanying prospectus and "Supplemental Plan of Distribution" in this accompanying prospectus supplement.

The notes are a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. has been a market-maker in the notes. Incapital LLC is not obligated to do so and may discontinue market-making at any time without notice. There can be no assurance as to the liquidity of the trading market for the notes.
