LISTING APPLICATION

These Final Terms comprise the final terms required for the admission to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market of the Notes described herein issued pursuant to the Global Debt Issuance Facility of International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROSPECTUS INFORMATION

The Prospectus is hereby supplemented with the following information, which shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and to form part of, the Prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

To be read in conjunction with the "Risk Factors" Section starting on page 14 of the 2008 GDIF Prospectus.

The CNY is not freely convertible; there are significant restrictions on remittance of CNY into and outside the PRC

The CNY is not freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between the CNY and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar, despite the significant reduction over the years by the PRC government of control over routine foreign exchange transactions under current accounts.

There can be no assurance that the PRC government will continue to gradually liberalise its control over cross-border CNY remittances in the future or that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of CNY into or outside the PRC. In the event that the Issuer is not able to repatriate funds outside the PRC in CNY, the Issuer will need to source CNY offshore to finance its obligations under the Notes, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of CNY outside the PRC.

There is only limited availability of CNY outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Notes

As a result of the restrictions by the PRC government on cross-border CNY fund flows, the availability of CNY outside of the PRC is limited.

Although it is widely expected that the offshore CNY market will continue to grow in depth and size, its growth is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of CNY offshore. The limited availability of CNY outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Notes. To the extent the Issuer is required to source CNY in the offshore market to service the Notes, there is no assurance that the Issuer will be able to source such CNY on satisfactory terms, if at all.

In limited circumstances set out in Condition 7(i), relating to the unavailability of CNY offshore, the Issuer is entitled to make payments in respect of the Notes in US Dollars.

ANNEX A – MODIFICATIONS TO THE CONDITIONS

The Terms and Conditions shall be further modified as set forth below for the purposes of the Notes that are subject to these Final Terms:

Condition 7 (Payment):

Condition 7(i) shall be replaced with the following:

“Currency of Payment: If the Specified Currency is no longer used by the government of the PRC for the payment of public and private debts or used for settlement of transactions by public institutions in the PRC or, in the reasonable opinion of the Calculation Agent, is not expected to be available, when any payment on this Note is due as a result of circumstances beyond the control of IBRD, IBRD shall be entitled to satisfy its obligations in respect of such payment by making such payment in U.S. dollars on the basis of the Spot Rate on the second Business Day prior to such payment (the “Determination Date”) or, if such rate is not available on the Determination Date, on the basis of the Spot Rate most recently available prior to such Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent. Any payment made under such circumstances in U.S. dollars will constitute valid payment and will not constitute a default in respect of this Note. For these purposes “Business Day” means a day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange) in Hong Kong, New York City and London.

“Spot Rate” means the spot CNY/U.S. dollar exchange rate for the purchase of U.S. dollars with CNY in the over-the-counter CNY exchange market in Hong Kong for settlement in two business days, as determined by the Calculation Agent at or around 11 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date, on a deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADCNY3, or if no such rate is available, on a non-deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADNDF. If neither rate is available, the Calculation Agent will determine the Spot Rate at or around 11 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date as the most recently available CNY/U.S. dollar official fixing rate for settlement in two business days reported by The State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC, which is reported on the Reuters Screen Page CNY=SAEC. Reference to a page on the Reuters Screen means the display page so designated on the Reuter Monitor Money Rates Service (or any successor service) or such other page as may replace that page for the purpose of displaying a comparable currency exchange rate.”
