4.125% Senior Notes due 2021

The 4.125% Senior Notes due 2021 will be issued in the aggregate principal amount of €225,000,000 (the "Notes") by Hertz Holdings Netherlands B.V., a private company with limited liability incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands and with its corporate seat in Amsterdam, The Netherlands (the "Issuer"). The Notes will be guaranteed (each a "Guarantee" and together the "Guarantees") by The Hertz Corporation (the "Parent Guarantor"), certain United States ("U.S.") subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor (collectively, the "U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors") and certain non-U.S. subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor (collectively, the "Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors" and, together with the U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors, the "Subsidiary Guarantors," and the Subsidiary Guarantors together with the Parent Guarantor, the "Guarantors").

The Notes will mature on October 15, 2021. The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes semi-annually in arrears on April 15 and October 15 of each year, commencing on April 15, 2017. The Notes will be redeemable at our option in whole or in part at any time (i) prior to October 15, 2018, at a redemption price equal to 100% of their principal amount plus the applicable "make-whole" premium set forth in this offering memorandum and (ii) on or after October 15, 2018, at the redemption prices set forth in this offering memorandum, and in each case plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts (as defined herein), if any, to the date of redemption. In addition, on or before October 15, 2018 the Issuer may, on one or more occasions, apply funds equal to the proceeds from one or more equity offerings to redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price equal to 104.125%, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of redemption, so long as at least 50% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued under the indenture governing the Notes (as amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified, the "Indenture") remains outstanding immediately after such redemption. Additionally, the Issuer may redeem in whole, but not in part, the Notes upon the occurrence of certain changes in applicable tax law. Upon the occurrence of certain specified change of control events, the Issuer will be required to offer to repurchase the Notes at 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any.

The Notes will be the Issuer's senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of the Issuer's existing and future indebtedness that is not subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and will be senior in right of payment to all existing and future indebtedness of the Issuer that is subordinated in right of payment to the Notes. The Guarantees will be each Guarantor's senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of such Guarantor's existing and future indebtedness that is not subordinated in right of payment to such Guarantee and will be senior in right of payment to any and all of the existing and future indebtedness of such Guarantor that is subordinated in right of payment to such Guarantee. The Notes and the Guarantees will be effectively subordinated to all of the Issuer's and each Guarantor's existing and future secured debt, including under our Senior Facilities and our Revolving Credit Facility, as applicable, to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness, and to all existing and future debt of the Parent Guarantor's subsidiaries (other than the Issuer) that do not guarantee the Notes. A Guarantee of a Subsidiary Guarantor may be automatically released in certain circumstances as described under "Description of Notes—Guarantees and Release of Guarantors."

Currently, there is no public market for the Notes. The Issuer has applied to list the Notes on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's Euro MTF Market. The Euro MTF Market is not a regulated market pursuant to the provisions of Directive 2004/39/EC on markets in financial instruments.

Investing in the Notes involves a high degree of risk. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23.

The Notes will be issued in the form of one or more global notes in registered form. On or about September 22, 2016 (the "Issue Date"), the global notes will be delivered, deposited and registered in the name of a nominee of a common depository for Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme ("Clearstream").

Price: 100%

The Notes will be issued in registered form in minimum denominations of €100,000 and integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof.

This offering memorandum constitutes a prospectus for purposes of Luxembourg Law on prospectus securities dated July 10, 2005, as amended..

The Notes and Guarantees have not been registered under the federal securities laws of the U.S. or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction.

Accordingly, the initial purchasers named below (the "Initial Purchasers") are offering and selling the Notes only to qualified institutional buyers ("QIBs") in reliance on Rule 144A ("Rule 144A") under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and to non-U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S")) outside the U.S. in offshore transactions in compliance with Regulation S. Prospective purchasers that are QIBs are hereby notified that the sellers of the Notes and Guarantees may be relying on the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A. See "Plan of Distribution" and "Transfer Restrictions" for additional information about eligible offerees and transfer restrictions with respect to the Notes.

We expect that delivery of the Notes will be made against payment therefor on or about the 7th business day following the date of confirmation of orders with respect to the Notes (this settlement cycle being referred to as "T+7"). Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in three business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Notes before the Notes are delivered will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle in T+7, to specify an alternative settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the Notes who wish to trade the Notes before their delivery should consult their own advisor.

Our business, financial condition and results of operations may have changed after such dates or may change (together with any other information included in this offering memorandum) after the date of this offering memorandum. You should consult your own legal, tax and business advisors regarding an investment in the Notes. Information in this offering memorandum is not legal, tax or business advice.

You should base your decision to invest in the Notes solely on information contained or incorporated by reference in this offering memorandum. Neither we nor the Initial Purchasers have authorized anyone to provide you with any different information.

If you purchase the Notes, you will be deemed to have made certain acknowledgments, representations and warranties as detailed under “Transfer Restrictions.” You may be required to bear the financial risk of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period. Neither we nor the Initial Purchasers are making an offer to sell the Notes in any jurisdiction where the offer and sale of the Notes is prohibited. We do not make any representation to you that the Notes are a legal investment for you.

The Issuer has applied to list the Notes on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for trading on the Euro MTF Market, and has submitted this offering memorandum in connection with the listing application. In the course of any review by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, the Issuer may be requested to make changes to the financial and other information included in this offering memorandum. Each prospective purchaser of the Notes must comply with all applicable laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers or sells the Notes and must obtain any consent, approval or permission required by it for the purchase, offer or sale by it of the Notes under the laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers or sales, and neither we nor the Initial Purchasers shall have any responsibility therefor.

You also acknowledge that you have not relied on the Initial Purchasers in connection with your investigation of the accuracy of this information or your decision whether to invest in the Notes.

No person is authorized in connection with any offering made by this offering memorandum to give any information or to make any representation not contained in this offering memorandum and, if given or made, any other information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Issuer, the Guarantors or the Initial Purchasers. The information contained in this offering memorandum is accurate as of the date hereof. Neither the delivery of this offering memorandum at any time nor any subsequent commitment to purchase the Notes shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the information set forth in this offering memorandum or in the business of the Issuer or the Guarantors since the date of this offering memorandum.

The information set out in those sections of this offering memorandum describing clearing and settlement is subject to any change or reinterpretation of the rules, regulations and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream currently in effect. Investors wishing to use these clearing systems are advised to confirm the continued applicability of their rules, regulations and procedures. None of the Issuer or the Guarantors will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to, or payments made on account of, book-entry interests held through the facilities of any clearing system or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such book entry interests.

NEITHER THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION (THE “SEC”) NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THE NOTES OR DETERMINED IF THIS

OFFERING MEMORANDUM IS TRUTHFUL OR COMPLETE. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

We have prepared this offering memorandum solely for use in connection with the offer of the Notes to QIBs under Rule 144A and to non-U.S. persons outside the U.S. under Regulation S. The Issuer reserves the right to withdraw this offering at any time. The Issuer is making this offering subject to the terms described in this offering memorandum and the purchase agreement relating to the Notes among the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor and Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, as the representative of the Initial Purchasers. We and the Initial Purchasers may reject any offer to purchase the Notes in whole or in part, sell less than the entire principal amount of the Notes offered hereby or allocate to any purchaser less than all of the Notes for which it has subscribed.

The distribution of this offering memorandum and the offer and sale of the Notes are restricted by law in some jurisdictions. This offering memorandum does not constitute an offer to sell or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any of the Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer or invitation is not authorized or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or invitation. Each prospective offeree or purchaser of the Notes must comply with all applicable laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers or sells the Notes or possesses or distributes this offering memorandum, and must obtain any consent, approval or permission required under any regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers or sales, and neither we nor the Initial Purchasers shall have any responsibility therefor.

THE NOTES ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERABILITY AND RESALE AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED OR RESOLD EXCEPT AS PERMITTED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS PURSUANT TO REGISTRATION OR EXEMPTION THEREFROM. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD BE AWARE THAT THEY MAY BE REQUIRED TO BEAR THE FINANCIAL RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD OF TIME.

STABILIZATION

In connection with the offering of the Notes, the Initial Purchasers (or persons acting on behalf of the Initial Purchasers) may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, there is no assurance that the Initial Purchasers (or persons acting on behalf of the Initial Purchasers) will undertake stabilization action. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offering of the Notes is made and, if begun, may be ended at any time, but it must end no later than 30 days after the date on which the Issuer received the proceeds of the issue, or no later than 60 days after the date of the allotment of the Notes, whichever is the earlier.

NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS

This offering is being made in the U.S. in reliance upon an exemption from registration under the Securities Act for an offer and sale of the Notes which does not involve a public offering. In making your purchase, you will be deemed to have made certain acknowledgments, representations and agreements.

This offering memorandum is being provided (1) to U.S. investors that we reasonably believe to be qualified institutional buyers, or “QIBs” under Rule 144A for informational use solely in connection with their consideration of the purchase of the Notes and (2) to investors outside the U.S. who are not U.S. persons in connection with offshore transactions complying with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S. The Notes described in this offering memorandum have not been registered with, recommended by or approved by the SEC, any state securities commission in the U.S. or any other securities commission or regulatory authority in any jurisdiction, nor has the SEC, any state securities commission in the U.S. or any such other securities commission or authority in any jurisdiction passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this offering memorandum. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

See also “Plan of Distribution” for additional notices and selling restrictions for investors in various additional countries.

ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

The Issuer is a private company with limited liability (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands. Certain persons named or referred to in this offering memorandum reside outside the U.S. and all or a significant portion of the assets of the directors and officers and certain other persons named or referred to in this offering memorandum are located outside the U.S. As a result, it may not be possible for you to effect service of process within the U.S. upon such persons or to enforce against them judgments obtained in U.S. courts, including judgments predicated upon civil liability under U.S. securities laws, in the courts of a foreign jurisdiction.

The agreements entered into with respect to the issuance of the Notes are governed by the laws of the State of New York. The U.S. and The Netherlands currently do not have a treaty providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments (other than arbitration awards) in civil and commercial matters. Consequently, a final and conclusive judgment for the payment of money rendered by any federal or state court in the U.S. which is enforceable in the U.S., whether or not predicated solely upon U.S. federal securities laws, would not automatically be recognized or enforceable in The Netherlands. In order to obtain a judgment which is enforceable in The Netherlands, the party in whose favor a final and conclusive judgment of the U.S. court has been rendered will be required to file its claim with a court of competent jurisdiction in The Netherlands. Such party may submit to the Dutch court the final judgment rendered by the U.S. court. The Dutch court will have discretion to attach such weight to this final judgment as it deems appropriate. The Dutch court can be expected to give binding effect to such judgment, in respect of its contractual obligations thereunder, to the extent (i) the Dutch court has accepted jurisdiction on the basis of an internationally recognized ground to accept jurisdiction, (ii) the proceedings before such court have complied with the principles of proper procedure (behoorlijke rechtspleging), (iii) such judgment is not contrary to the public policy of The Netherlands and (iv) that the foreign judgment is not irreconcilable with a judgment of a Dutch court given between the same parties, or with an earlier judgment of a foreign court given between the same parties in a dispute involving the same cause of action and subject matter, provided that such earlier judgment fulfils the conditions necessary for it to be given binding effect in the Netherlands. The enforcement in a Dutch court of judgments rendered by a court in the U.S. is subject to Dutch rules of civil procedure.

Subject to the foregoing and service of process in accordance with applicable treaties, investors may be able to enforce in The Netherlands judgments in civil and commercial matters obtained from U.S. federal or state courts. However, no assurance can be given that those judgments will be enforceable. In addition, it is doubtful whether a Dutch court would accept jurisdiction and impose civil liability in an original action commenced in The Netherlands and predicated solely upon U.S. federal securities laws.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained or incorporated by reference in this offering memorandum include "forward-looking statements." Forward-looking statements include information concerning our liquidity and our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of our business strategies. These statements often include words such as "believe," "expect," "project," "potential," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate," "seek," "will," "may," "would," "should," "could," "forecasts" or similar expressions. These statements are based on certain assumptions that we have made in light of our experience in the industry as well as our perceptions of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors we believe are appropriate in these circumstances. We believe these judgments are reasonable, but you should understand that these statements are not guarantees of performance or results, and our actual results could differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, both positive and negative, that may be revised or supplemented in subsequent reports on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K.

Important factors that could affect our actual results and cause them to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements include, among others, those that may be disclosed from time to time in subsequent reports filed with the SEC, those described under "Risk Factors" in this offering memorandum, and the following:

- any claims, investigations or proceedings arising as a result of the restatement of our previously issued financial results;
- our ability to remediate the material weaknesses in our internal controls over financial reporting described in Item 9A of the 2015 10-K, which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum;
- levels of travel demand, particularly with respect to airline passenger traffic in the U.S. and in global markets;
- the effect of our separation of our vehicle and equipment rental businesses, any failure by Herc Holdings Inc. to comply with the agreements entered into in connection with the separation and our ability to obtain the expected benefits of the separation;
- significant changes in the competitive environment, including as a result of industry consolidation, and the effect of competition in our markets on rental volume and pricing, including on our pricing policies or use of incentives;

- increased vehicle costs due to declines in the value of our non-program vehicles;
- occurrences that disrupt rental activity during our peak periods;
- our ability to purchase adequate supplies of competitively priced vehicles and risks relating to increases in the cost of the vehicles we purchase;
- our ability to accurately estimate future levels of rental activity and adjust the number and mix of vehicles used in our rental operations accordingly;
- our ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and the availability to us of additional or continued sources of financing for our revenue earning vehicles and to refinance our existing indebtedness;
- our ability to adequately respond to changes in technology and customer demands;

Our Company

We operate our vehicle rental business globally through the Hertz, Dollar and Thrifty brands from approximately 10,000 corporate and franchisee locations in North America, Europe, Latin America, Africa, Asia, Australia, the Middle East and New Zealand. We are one of the largest worldwide airport general use vehicle rental companies and our Hertz brand name is one of the most recognized in the world, signifying leadership in quality rental services and products. We have an extensive network of rental locations in the U.S. and in all major European markets. We believe that we maintain one of the leading airport vehicle rental brand market shares, by overall reported revenues, in the U.S. and at approximately 125 major airports in Europe where data regarding vehicle rental concessionaire activity is available. In addition to our vehicle rental business, we are a leading provider of comprehensive, integrated vehicle leasing and fleet management solutions through our Donlen subsidiary. For the year ended December 31, 2015 and the six months ended June 30, 2016, we had total revenues of approximately $9.0 billion and $4.3 billion, respectively, income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes of $132 million and $(112) million, respectively, and Adjusted Corporate EBITDA of $858 million and $212 million, respectively. For a reconciliation of income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes to Adjusted Corporate EBITDA, see “Summary Consolidated Financial Information.”

On June 30, 2016, Hertz Holdings completed the separation of its vehicle rental and equipment rental businesses into two independent, publicly traded companies. As a result, Hertz Holdings (which was formerly known as Hertz Rental Car Holding Company, Inc.) will continue to operate the vehicle rental business through Hertz, and Herc Holdings Inc. (“Herc Holdings”) (a stand-alone company that was formerly known as Hertz Global Holdings, Inc.) will operate the equipment rental business through HERC, as independent companies. For additional information on the Spin-Off (as defined below), see “Recent Developments—Separation of Vehicle and Equipment Rental Businesses” and for information on the pro forma effect of the Spin-Off on our revenues and income (loss) before income taxes, see “Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information.”

Our Business Segments

We have identified three reportable segments, which are organized based on the products and services provided by our operating segments and the geographic areas in which its operating segments conduct business, as follows:

- U.S. Rental Car—Rental of vehicles (cars, crossovers and light trucks), as well as ancillary products and services, in the U.S. and consists of the Company’s U.S. operating segment. We maintain a substantial network of company-operated vehicle rental locations in the U.S., enabling us to provide consistent quality and service. We also have franchisees and associates that operate rental locations under our brands throughout the U.S.
- International Rental Car—Rental and leasing of vehicles (cars, vans, crossovers and light trucks), as well as ancillary products and services, internationally and consists of the Company’s Europe and Other International operating segments, which are aggregated into a reportable segment based primarily upon similar economic characteristics, products and services, customers, delivery methods and general regulatory environments. We maintain a substantial network of company-operated vehicle rental locations internationally, a majority of which are in Europe. Our franchisees and associates also operate rental locations in approximately 150 countries and jurisdictions, including many of the countries in which we also have company-operated rental locations.

- All Other Operations—Includes the Company’s Donlen operating segment which provides vehicle leasing and fleet management services and is not considered a separate reportable segment in accordance with applicable accounting standards, together with other business activities. Donlen is a leading provider of vehicle leasing and fleet management services for corporate fleets. Donlen’s fleet management programs provide outsourcing solutions to reduce fleet operating costs and improve driver productivity. These programs include administration of preventive maintenance, advisory services, and fuel and accident management along with other complementary services. Additionally, Donlen provides a specialized consulting and technology expertise that allows us to model, measure and manage fleet performance more effectively and efficiently.

For further information on our business segments, including financial information for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, see Note 16 to our unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements included in Hertz’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016 and Note 19 to our audited annual consolidated financial statements included in Hertz’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (as amended by the Form 10-K/A filed March 4, 2016), respectively, which are incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

Recent Developments

Separation of Vehicle and Equipment Rental Businesses

On June 30, 2016, Hertz Holdings completed the separation of its vehicle rental and equipment rental businesses into two independent, publicly traded companies. The separation was in the form of a distribution (the “Spin-Off”) by Herc Holdings (which was formerly known as Hertz Global Holdings, Inc.) of all of the common stock of Hertz Holdings (which was formerly known as Hertz Rental Car Holding Company, Inc.) to Herc Holdings stockholders, in a manner that is expected to be tax-free to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Hertz Holdings, the ultimate parent of the issuer of the Notes offered hereby, continues to operate the Hertz, Dollar, Thrifty and Firefly vehicle rental businesses as well as Donlen through Hertz, Hertz Holdings’ primary operating subsidiary, and Herc Holdings operates the HERC equipment rental business. For further information on the Spin-Off, including costs associated with the Spin-Off, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and Note 3 to our unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements, each included in Hertz’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum, and for information on the pro forma effect of the Spin-Off on Hertz’s operating results see “Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information.” Please see “Risk Factors—Risks Related to Our Business—The agreements we entered into in connection with the Spin-Off may distract our management and expose us to claims and liabilities.”

Redemption of 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018

In July 2016, Hertz completed the redemption of all its outstanding 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018 (the “7.50% Senior Notes”) using proceeds received from the issuance of the Senior Term Loan and available cash to fund the redemption. Consequently, Hertz terminated, cancelled and discharged all of its obligations under the 7.50% Senior Notes and under the Indenture dated as of September 30, 2010 (as supplemented). In addition to the payment of $700 million in principal amount of the 7.50% Senior Notes, Hertz paid an additional $25 million, comprised of $13 million for an early redemption premium of 1.875% of the principal amount outstanding and $12 million for accrued and unpaid interest through the date of redemption.

Hertz Note Offering

On September 8, 2016, Hertz entered into an agreement to sell $800 million aggregate principal amount of 5.50% Senior Notes due 2024 (the “2024 Senior Notes”) in a private offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The offering is expected to close on or about September 22, 2016, subject to customary closing conditions. The 2024 Senior Notes will pay interest semi-annually in arrears. The 2024 Senior Notes will be guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the U.S. subsidiaries of Hertz that guarantee its Senior Facilities from time to time. Hertz intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance of the 2024 Senior Notes, together with available cash, to redeem $800 million aggregate principal amount of its 6.75% Senior Notes due 2019.

The Issuer and the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors

The Issuer is a holding company for a majority of the Parent Guarantor's non-franchised international operations, including certain of the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors. It is also party to a number of intercompany funding arrangements.

The Issuer operates a significant amount of our international vehicle rental businesses through its subsidiaries in the United Kingdom, France, The Netherlands, Germany, Italy, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Belgium, Luxembourg, Australia and Canada. In addition, the Issuer owns Hertz Europe Service Centre Limited, which facilitates corporate operations across the Parent Guarantor's international structure, including back office operations for the European vehicle rental business, as well as certain support for franchisees and Probus Insurance Company Europe Ltd., which provides property and liability insurance for our European vehicle rental operations.

The Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors are subsidiaries of the Issuer. The Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors are included within the Parent Guarantor's Europe Vehicle Rental business unit, whose top-level management team is based in the Parent Guarantor's international headquarters located in Uxbridge, England. While the country-level business units benefit from the vehicle purchasing power and other operational synergies that derive from the Parent Guarantor's global operations, the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors generally operate as independent country-level business units for each respective country, except for Belgium and Luxembourg, which share country-level management and retain primary responsibility for their own operational decisions with respect to vehicle purchases, pricing, site selection and staffing.

The vehicle rental business in Europe, like in the U.S., is split into two primary markets by location: on- and off-airport. The European vehicle rental business is further subdivided into five primary markets by vehicle and/or customer type: Commercial, Leisure, Van, Replacement and Medium Term rentals. The European fleet, like that in the U.S., contains a mix of program and non-program vehicles from a diverse group of manufacturer partners. As is the case with the vehicle rental business globally, fleet size peaks with demand during the summer travel season (in some jurisdictions more than others) such that the number of vehicles owned and operated by our business units grows markedly through the spring and early summer months, with a period of defleeting occurring through the fall as demand moderates.

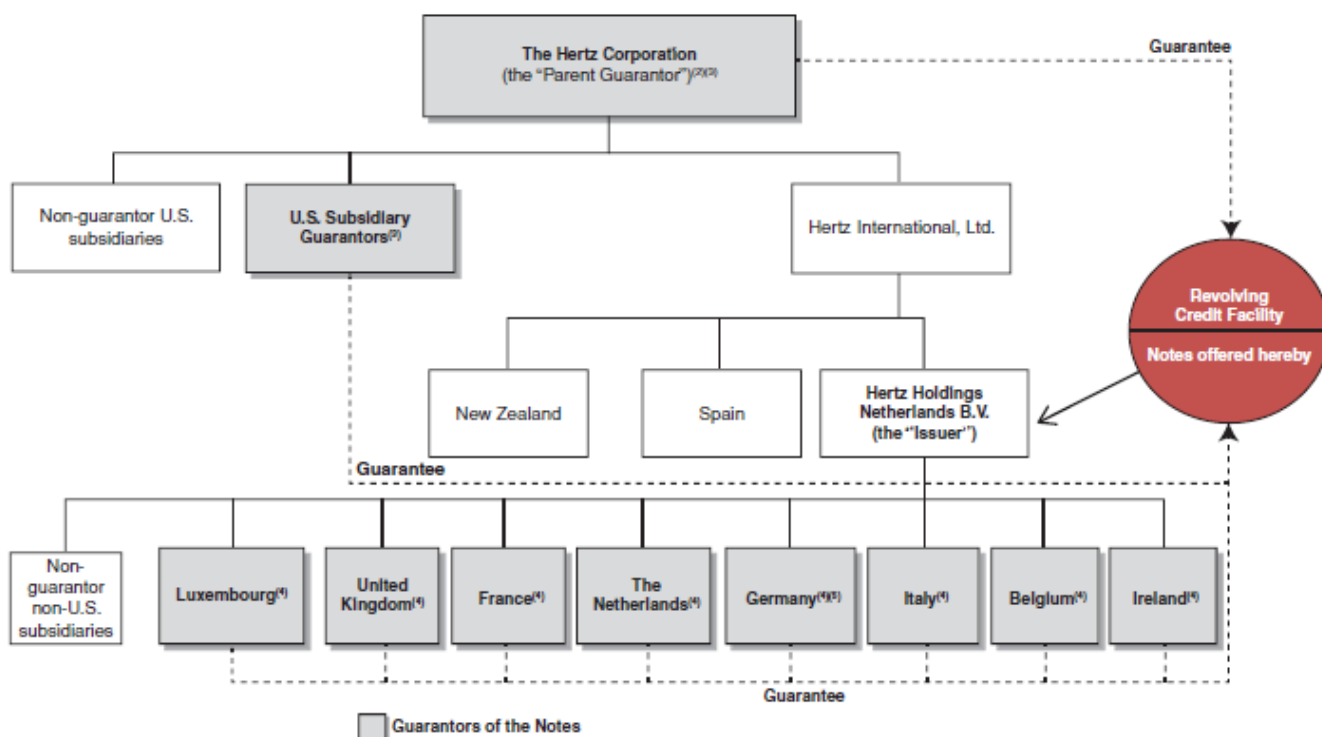

Our key strategies for our vehicle rental business in Europe are to improve profitability, continue to grow in new markets and products, to develop our brand penetration in all segments of the market, to leverage cost efficiencies and economies of scale throughout the groups, continue to focus on customer service as a priority and to attract and train the highest quality management and employees.

We intend to improve profitability in our European business through pricing optimization, fleet cost reductions, brand development, targeting growth in the leisure and low cost market and the introduction of a new franchise model offering a more comprehensive portfolio of services to franchisees. The growth strategy will focus on holding the Hertz brand as a commercial premium brand with a focus on superior service, penetrating the value brand market with the Thrifty and Firefly brands, expansion into new product offerings and having a presence in key long-haul source markets.

Customer focus has been a key development and strategy across all markets as we look to improve and expand the customer experience through various new product offerings and new, improved locations. Customer service and quality are a priority for the Hertz brand worldwide. For example, in Europe performance targets are used to gauge customer satisfaction and our Hertz Gold Plus Rewards service is being expanded to encourage customer loyalty.

Improved cost efficiency is being pursued through significant investments in technological and process improvements and through leveraging synergies across the rental network.

- (b) Net vehicle debt is calculated as vehicle debt as reported on our balance sheet, excluding the impact of unamortized debt issue costs associated with vehicle debt, less restricted cash associated with vehicles. Restricted cash associated with vehicle debt is restricted for the purchase of revenue earning vehicles and other specified uses under the Company's vehicle debt facilities and its vehicle rental like-kind exchange program. This measure is important to management, investors and ratings agencies as it helps measure our leverage with respect to our vehicle debt.

Net non-vehicle debt is calculated as non-vehicle debt as reported on our balance sheet, excluding the impact of unamortized debt issue costs associated with non-vehicle debt, less cash and equivalents. Net non-vehicle debt is important to management and investors as it helps measure the Company's leverage. Net non-vehicle debt also assists in the evaluation of the Company's ability to service its non-vehicle debt without reference to the expense associated with the vehicle debt, which is collateralized by assets not available to lenders under the non-vehicle debt facilities.

Total net debt is calculated as net vehicle debt plus net non-vehicle debt and represents total debt as reported on our balance sheet, excluding the impact of unamortized debt issue costs, less total cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash associated with vehicle debt. This measure is important to management, investors and ratings agencies as it helps measure our gross leverage.

The following table reconciles vehicle debt to net vehicle debt, non-vehicle debt to net non-vehicle debt and total debt to total net debt for the periods presented.

- (c) Gross EBITDA is defined as net income (loss) from continuing operations before net interest expense, income taxes and depreciation (which includes lease charges on revenue earning vehicles) and amortization. Corporate EBITDA, as presented herein, represents Gross EBITDA as adjusted for vehicle debt interest, vehicle depreciation and vehicle debt-related charges. Adjusted Corporate EBITDA, as presented herein, represents Corporate EBITDA as adjusted for certain other items, as described in more detail in the tables below.

Management uses Gross EBITDA, Corporate EBITDA and Adjusted Corporate EBITDA as operating performance metrics for internal monitoring and planning purposes, including the preparation of our annual operating budget and monthly operating reviews, as well as to facilitate analysis of investment decisions, profitability and performance trends. Further, Gross EBITDA enables management and investors to isolate the effects on profitability of operating metrics such as revenue, direct vehicle and operating expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses, which enables management and investors to evaluate our business segments that are financed differently and have different depreciation characteristics and compare our performance against companies with different capital structures and depreciation policies. We also present Adjusted Corporate EBITDA as a supplemental measure because such information is utilized in the determination of certain executive compensation.

Gross EBITDA, Corporate EBITDA and Adjusted Corporate EBITDA are not recognized measurements under U.S. GAAP. When evaluating our operating performance, investors should not consider Gross EBITDA, Corporate EBITDA and Adjusted Corporate EBITDA in isolation of, or as a substitute for, measures of our financial performance as determined in accordance with GAAP, such as net income (loss) from continuing operations or income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes.

The following table reconciles income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes to Gross EBITDA, Corporate EBITDA and Adjusted Corporate EBITDA for the periods presented.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On June 30, 2016, we completed the separation of our vehicle rental and equipment rental businesses into two independent, publicly-traded companies. The separation was in the form of a distribution by Herc Holdings of all of the common stock of Hertz Holdings to Herc Holdings stockholders, in a manner that is expected to be tax-free to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. To effect the separation, Herc Holdings first undertook an internal reorganization pursuant to which all of the shares of Hertz common stock were indirectly held by Hertz Holdings, which was at that time a wholly owned subsidiary of Herc Holdings, and all of the shares of HERC common stock were indirectly held by Hertz Investors, Inc., which was at that time wholly owned by Herc Holdings. Following the internal reorganization, Herc Holdings distributed all of the shares of common stock of Hertz Holdings to the stockholders of Herc Holdings on a pro rata basis. Hertz Holdings, the ultimate parent of the issuer of the Notes offered hereby, will continue to operate the Hertz, Dollar and Thrifty vehicle rental businesses, as well as Donlen, through Hertz, and Herc Holdings will operate the equipment rental business through HERC, in each case as independent companies.

For accounting purposes, due to the relative significance of Hertz to HERC, Hertz is considered the spinnor or divesting entity and HERC is considered the spinnee or divested entity. As a result, HERC is accounted for as a discontinued operation of Hertz following the Spin-Off. See Note 1 to our unaudited consolidated financial statements included in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016. The following pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are presented to show the effects of the Spin-Off and financing transactions on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 are presented on a pro forma basis to give effect to (i) the Spin-Off as if it had occurred on January 1, 2013 (the first day of fiscal year 2013) and (ii) the financing transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2015 (the first day of fiscal year 2015) (collectively, the "Pro Forma Transactions"). The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2016 are presented on a pro forma basis to give effect to the financing transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2015. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted in the following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements (the "Pro Forma Financial Statements") to give effect to pro forma events that are (i) directly attributable to the applicable Pro Forma Transactions, (ii) factually supportable and (iii) with respect to the statements of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the consolidated results.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements and the accompanying notes should be read together with the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016 and the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (as amended by the Form 10-K/A filed March 4, 2016).

The Pro Forma Financial Statements do not purport to represent what the Company's results of operations would have been had the Pro Forma Transactions occurred on the dates indicated or to project financial performance for any future period or as of a future date.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements do not reflect non-recurring income statement items arising directly as a result of the Spin-Off, any cost savings or other synergies that the Company may achieve as a result of the completed Spin-Off. The effects of the foregoing items could, individually or in the aggregate, materially impact the Pro Forma Financial Statements.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statement

1. Description of Pro Forma Transactions

The Spin-Off of Herc Holdings

On June 30, 2016, Hertz Holdings completed the separation of its vehicle rental business and equipment rental business (the “Spin-Off”) into two independent, publicly traded companies:

- Hertz Global Holdings, Inc., formerly known as Hertz Rental Car Holding Company, Inc., which indirectly holds the entities associated with former Hertz Holdings’ global vehicle rental business, including The Hertz Corporation; and
- Herc Holdings Inc., which indirectly holds the entities associated with former Hertz Holdings’ global equipment rental business, including Herc Rentals Inc., formerly known as Hertz Equipment Rental Corporation.

Senior Secured Revolving Credit Facility

In June 2016, in connection with the Spin-Off, Hertz, as parent borrower, entered into a $1.7 billion senior secured revolving credit facility (the “Senior RCF”). The interest rates applicable to the loans under the Senior RCF are based on a floating rate that varies depending on Hertz’s consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio and corporate ratings.

Term Loan

Also in connection with the Spin-Off, Hertz entered into a senior secured term facility (the “Senior Term Loan”) of $700 million. The interest rate applicable to the Senior Term Loan is based on a floating rate (subject to a LIBOR floor of 0.75%) that varies depending on Hertz’s consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio. The proceeds from the issuance of the Senior Term Loan were used to redeem all of the outstanding 7.50% Senior Notes in July 2016.

U.S. Vehicle Revolving Credit Facility

Hertz also executed a U.S. Vehicle Revolving Credit Facility of $200 million (the “U.S. Vehicle RCF”) on June 30, 2016. The interest rate applicable to the U.S. Vehicle RCF is based on a floating rate that varies with LIBOR. Proceeds from the U.S. Vehicle RCF were used to repay an asset based revolving credit facility (the “U.S. Vehicle Financing Facility”).

2. Basis of Presentation

The Pro Forma Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with the FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 205 (“ASC 205”), Presentation of Financial Statements. For accounting purposes, due to the relative significance of Hertz to HERC, Hertz is considered the spinnor or divesting entity and HERC is considered the spinnee or divested entity. As a result, HERC is accounted for as a discontinued operation of Hertz following the Spin-Off.

3. Pro Forma Adjustments (in millions)

- (a) Represents deconsolidation adjustments to eliminate the historical results of operations of HERC, including the related tax impact.
- (b) Represents general interest expense that was allocated to HERC, but not specifically identifiable to HERC.
- (c) Represents a net decrease in the allocation of return on plan assets and periodic pension costs to HERC. Prior to the Spin-Off, eligible HERC employees participated in the pension, postretirement and postemployment benefit plans offered by Hertz.

- (g) Represents an adjustment to (increase) decrease direct operating expenses for public liability and property damage and workers compensation related costs directly attributable to HERC of $0, ($5) and $3 for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, and 2013, respectively.
- (h) Represents an allocation of restructuring costs directly attributable to HERC of $0, ($1) and ($2) for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, and 2013, respectively.
- (i) Represents adjustments for the applicable income tax effects of the pro forma adjustments as well as adjustments required in accordance with the intra-period allocations rules of Financial Accounting Standards Board Codification Topic 740-20, Income Taxes. Hertz has assumed an approximate tax rate of 39% when estimating the tax impacts of the Pro Forma Transactions, representing the applicable blended statutory tax rate for Hertz. The 39% statutory tax rate is adjusted for the applicable tax adjustments associated with the intra-period allocations. The effective tax rate after the Spin-Off could materially change as we finalize the discontinued operations accounting.

4. Financing Pro Forma Adjustments (in millions)

- (a) Represents adjustments to reduce interest expense by approximately $48 and $102 for the six months ended June 30, 2016, and the year ended December 31, 2015, respectively, due to the repayment of the Senior Term Facility and the replacement of the 7.50% Senior Notes and U.S. Vehicle Financing Facility with the Term Loan and U.S. Vehicle RCF.
- (b) Represents adjustments for the applicable income tax effects of the pro forma adjustments. Hertz has assumed an approximate tax rate of 39% when estimating the tax impacts of the Pro Forma Transactions, representing the applicable blended statutory tax rate for Hertz.

RISK FACTORS

Our business is subject to a number of important risks and uncertainties, some of which are described below. The risks and uncertainties described below, however, are not the only risks and uncertainties that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial may also significantly impact us. Any of these risks and uncertainties may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows. In such a case, you may lose all or part of your investment in the Notes. In addition to the other information and risks described in Part I, Item 1A in Hertz's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, and the other information included or incorporated by reference in this offering memorandum, you should carefully consider each of the following risks and uncertainties. Any of the following risks and uncertainties could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, operating results or cash flow and we believe that the following information identifies the material risks and uncertainties affecting our company; however, the following risks and uncertainties are not the only risks and uncertainties facing us and it is possible that other risks and uncertainties might significantly impact us.

Risks Related to Our Business

Our vehicle rental business is particularly sensitive to reductions in the levels of airline passenger travel, and reductions in air travel could materially adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows.

Our results of operations are affected by many economic factors, including the level of economic activity in the markets in which we operate. At times in the past, the U.S. and international markets have experienced declines in economic activity that have affected the vehicle rental market, including a tightening of the credit markets, reduced business and leisure travel, reduced government and consumer spending and volatile fuel prices. The vehicle rental industry is particularly affected by reductions in business and leisure travel, especially with respect to levels of airline passenger traffic. Reductions in levels of air travel, whether caused by general economic conditions, airfare increases (such as due to capacity reductions or increases in fuel costs borne by commercial airlines) or other events (such as work stoppages, military conflicts, terrorist incidents, natural disasters, epidemic diseases, or the response of governments to any of these events) could materially adversely affect us. In particular, we derive a substantial proportion of our revenues from key leisure destinations, including Florida, Hawaii, California, New York and Texas in the U.S. and Europe internationally and the level of travel to these destinations is dependent upon the ability and willingness of consumers to travel on vacation and the effect of economic cycles on consumers' discretionary travel. To the extent travel to these destinations is adversely affected, our results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

We face intense competition that may lead to downward pricing or an inability to increase prices.

The markets in which we operate are highly competitive. We believe that price is one of the primary competitive factors in the vehicle rental market and that the internet has enabled cost-conscious customers, including business travelers, to more easily compare rates available from rental companies. If we try to increase our pricing, our competitors, some of whom may have greater resources and better access to capital than us, may seek to compete aggressively on the basis of pricing. In addition, our competitors may reduce prices in order to attempt to gain a competitive advantage, capture market share, or to compensate for declines in rental activity. To the extent we do not match or remain within a reasonable competitive margin of our competitors' pricing, our revenues and results of operations could be materially adversely affected. If competitive pressures lead us to match any of our competitors' downward pricing and we are not able to reduce our operating costs, then our margins, results of operations and cash flows could be materially adversely impacted. See Item 1, "Business—U.S. and International Car Rental Operations—Competition" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, which is incorporated into this offering memorandum by reference.

Our business is highly seasonal and any occurrence that disrupts rental activity during our peak periods could materially adversely affect our liquidity, cash flows and results of operations.

Certain significant components of our expenses are fixed in the short-term, including minimum concession fees, real estate taxes, rent, insurance, utilities, maintenance and other facility-related expenses, the costs of operating our information technology systems and minimum staffing costs. Seasonal changes in our revenues do not alter those fixed expenses, typically resulting in higher profitability in periods when our revenues are higher. The second and third quarters of the year have historically been the strongest quarters for our vehicle rental business due to increased levels of leisure travel. Any occurrence that disrupts rental activity during these periods could have a disproportionately material adverse effect on our liquidity, cash flows and results of operations.

If our management is unable to accurately estimate future levels of rental activity and adjust the number and mix of vehicles used in our rental operations accordingly, our results of operations could suffer.

Because vehicle costs typically represent our single largest expense and vehicle purchases are typically made weeks or months in advance of the expected use of the vehicle, our business is dependent upon the ability of our management to accurately estimate future levels of rental activity and consumer preferences with respect to the mix of vehicles used in our rental operations. To the extent we do not purchase sufficient numbers of vehicles, or the right types of vehicles, to meet consumer demand, we may lose revenue to our competitors. If we purchase too many vehicles, our vehicle utilization could be adversely affected and we may not be able to dispose of excess vehicles in a timely and cost effective manner. While purchasing program vehicles is useful in managing our seasonal peak demand for vehicles, program vehicles typically cost more than non-program vehicles. As a result, if our management is unable to accurately estimate future levels of rental activity and determine the appropriate mix of vehicles used in our rental operations, including because of changes in the competitive environment or economic factors outside of our control, our results of operations could suffer.

Increased vehicle cost due to declines in the value of the non-program vehicles in our operations could materially adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows.

For the six months ended June 30, 2016 and the year ended December 31, 2015, 19% and 35%, respectively, of the vehicles purchased for our U.S. rental operations were program vehicles and 63% and 59%, respectively, of the vehicles purchased for our international rental operations were program vehicles. Manufacturers agree to repurchase program vehicles at a specified price or guarantee the depreciation rate on the vehicles during a specified time period. To the extent the vehicles in our rental operations are non-program vehicles, we have an increased risk that the market value of a vehicle at the time of its disposition will be less than its estimated residual value at such time. Any decrease in residual values with respect to our non-program vehicles could also materially adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows.

The use of program vehicles enables us to determine our depreciation expense in advance and this is useful to us because depreciation is a significant cost factor in our operations. Using program vehicles is also useful in managing our seasonal peak demand for vehicles, because in certain cases we can sell certain program vehicles shortly after having acquired them at a higher value than what we could for a similar non-program vehicle at that time. If there were fewer program vehicles in our rental operations, these benefits would diminish and we would bear increased risk related to residual value. In addition, the related depreciation on our vehicles and our flexibility to reduce the number of vehicles used in our rental operations by returning vehicles sooner than originally expected without the risk of loss in the event of an economic downturn or to respond to changes in rental demand would be reduced.

We may fail to respond adequately to changes in technology and customer demands.

In recent years our industry has been characterized by rapid changes in technology and customer demands. For example, in recent years, industry participants have taken advantage of new technologies to improve vehicle utilization, decrease customer wait times and improve customer satisfaction. Our industry has also seen the entry of new competitors whose businesses are based on emerging mobile platforms and efforts continue to introduce various types of self-driving vehicles. Our ability to continually improve our current processes and products in response to changes in technology is essential in maintaining our competitive position and maintaining current levels of customer satisfaction. We may experience technical or other difficulties that could delay or prevent the development, introduction or marketing of new products or enhanced product offerings.

If we are unable to purchase adequate supplies of competitively priced vehicles and the cost of the vehicles we purchase increases, our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows may be materially adversely affected.

The price and other terms at which we can acquire vehicles vary based on market and other conditions. For example, certain vehicle manufacturers have in the past, and may in the future, utilize strategies to de-emphasize sales to the vehicle rental industry, which can negatively impact our ability to obtain vehicles on competitive terms and conditions. Consequently, there is no guarantee that we can purchase a sufficient number of vehicles at competitive prices and on competitive terms and conditions. If we are unable to obtain an adequate supply of vehicles, or if we obtain less favorable pricing and other terms when we acquire vehicles and are unable to pass on any increased costs to our customers, then our financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows may be materially adversely affected.

A material downsizing in the number of revenue earning vehicles we own or a change in U.S. tax laws could require us to make additional cash payments for tax liabilities, which could be material.

We have maintained like-kind exchange programs for our U.S. Rental Car business and Donlen for a number of years. Our like-kind exchange programs allow tax gains on the disposition of our revenue earning vehicles to be deferred and have resulted in deferrals of federal and state income taxes for prior years. If a qualified replacement vehicle is not purchased within a specific time period after vehicle disposal, then taxable gain is recognized. A material reduction in the combined net book value of our revenue earning vehicles, a material and extended reduction in vehicle purchases and/or a material downsizing in the number of revenue earnings vehicles, for any reason, could result in reduced tax deferrals in the future, which in turn could require us to make material cash payments for U.S. federal and state income tax liabilities.

In addition, in his fiscal year 2017 budget, President Obama has proposed to modify the like-kind exchange rules for all real and personal property in a manner that would limit capital gains eligible for §1031 exchanges to $1,000,000 per taxpayer per year and exclude certain personal property from eligibility for §1031 exchanges. We do not expect these proposed changes to have an impact on our ability to defer tax gains on the disposition of our revenue earning vehicles. However, if IRS rules are implemented that limit our ability to defer tax gains on the disposition of our revenue earning vehicles, we could be required to make material cash payments for U.S. federal and state income tax liabilities.

The failure of a manufacturer of our program vehicles to fulfill its obligations under a repurchase or guaranteed depreciation program could expose us to loss on those program vehicles and materially adversely affect certain of our financing arrangements, which could in turn materially adversely affect our liquidity, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

If any manufacturer of our program vehicles does not fulfill its obligations under its repurchase or guaranteed depreciation agreement with us, whether due to default, reorganization, bankruptcy or otherwise, then we would have to dispose of those program vehicles without receiving the benefits of the associated programs and we would also be exposed to residual risk with respect to these vehicles. In addition, we could be left with a substantial unpaid claim against the manufacturer with respect to program vehicles that were sold and returned to the manufacturer but not paid for, or that were sold for less than their agreed repurchase price or guaranteed value.

The failure by a manufacturer to pay such amounts could cause a credit enhancement deficiency with respect to our asset-backed and asset-based financing arrangements, requiring us to either reduce the outstanding principal amount of debt or provide more collateral (in the form of cash, vehicles and/or certain other contractual rights) to the creditors under any such affected arrangement.

If one or more manufacturers were to adversely modify or eliminate repurchase or guaranteed depreciation programs in the future, our access to and the terms of asset-backed and asset-based debt financing could be adversely affected, which could in turn have a material adverse effect on our liquidity, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

We rely on third-party distribution channels for a significant amount of our revenues.

Third-party distribution channels accounted for a significant amount of our vehicle rental reservations for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and the year ended December 31, 2015. These third-party distribution channels include traditional and online travel agencies, third-party internet sites, airlines and hotel companies, marketing partners such as credit card companies and membership organizations and global distribution systems that allow travel agents, travel service providers and customers to connect directly to our reservations systems. Loss of access to any of these channels, changes in pricing or commission structures or a reduction in transaction volume could have an adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations, particularly if our customers are unable to access our reservation systems through alternate channels.

We may not be successful in implementing our strategy of further reducing operating costs and our cost reduction initiatives may have adverse consequences.

We are continuing to implement initiatives to reduce our operating expenses. These initiatives may include headcount reductions, business process outsourcing, business process re-engineering, internal reorganization and other expense controls. We cannot assure you that our cost reduction initiatives will achieve any further success. Whether or not successful, our cost reduction initiatives involve significant expenses and we expect to incur further expenses associated with these initiatives, some of which may be material in the period in which they are incurred.

Even if we achieve further success with our cost reduction initiatives, we face risks associated with our initiatives, including declines in employee morale or the level of customer service we provide, the efficiency of our operations or the effectiveness of our internal controls. Any of these risks could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flows.

If our new initiatives to reduce costs, increase efficiencies and increase customer loyalty are not successful, our margins may suffer.

We have moved aggressively to pursue opportunities to deliver cost savings, increase our efficiency and regain customer loyalty. If we are unsuccessful in taking advantage of these opportunities, we may be unable to align our cost structure to lower levels of demand, which could depress our margins and negatively impact our ability to effectively compete. In addition, some internet travel intermediaries use generic indicators of the type of vehicle (such as “standard” or “compact”) at the expense of brand identification and some intermediaries have launched their own loyalty programs to develop loyalties to their reservation system rather than to our brands. If the volume of sales made through internet travel intermediaries increases significantly and consumers develop stronger loyalties to these intermediaries rather than to our brands, our business and revenues could be harmed. If our market share suffers due to lower levels of customer loyalty, our financial results could suffer.

An impairment of our goodwill or our indefinite-lived intangible assets could have a material non-cash adverse impact on our results of operations.

We review our goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of these assets may not be recoverable and at least annually. If economic deterioration occurs, then we may be required to record charges for goodwill or indefinite lived intangible asset impairments in the future, which could have a material adverse non-cash impact on our results of operations.

Our foreign operations expose us to risks that may materially adversely affect our results of operations, liquidity and cash flows.

A significant portion of our annual revenues are generated outside the U.S., and we intend to pursue additional international growth opportunities. Operating in many different countries exposes us to varying risks, which include: (i) multiple, and sometimes conflicting, foreign regulatory requirements and laws that are subject to change and are often much different than the domestic laws in the U.S., including laws relating to taxes, automobile-related liability, insurance rates, insurance products, consumer privacy, data security, employment matters, cost and fee recovery, and the protection of our trademarks and other intellectual property; (ii) the effect of foreign currency translation risk, as well as limitations on our ability to repatriate income; (iii) varying tax regimes, including consequences from changes in applicable tax laws; (iv) local ownership or investment requirements, as well as difficulties in obtaining financing in foreign countries for local operations; and (v) political and economic instability, natural calamities, war, and terrorism. The effects of these risks may, individually or in the aggregate, materially adversely affect our results of operations, liquidity, cash flows and ability to diversify internationally.

Our international operations are based in Uxbridge, England and we have significant vehicle rental operations in the United Kingdom and the Eurozone. The United Kingdom held a referendum on June 23, 2016 in which a majority voted for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union (“Brexit”). In order to give effect Brexit, a process of negotiation will determine the future terms of the United Kingdom’s relationship with the European Union. Depending on the terms of Brexit, if any, the United Kingdom could lose access to the single European Union market and to the global trade deals negotiated by the European Union on behalf of its members. The effects of the Brexit vote and the perceptions as to the impact of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union may adversely affect business activity and economic and market conditions in the United Kingdom, the Eurozone and globally, could make it more difficult for us to manage our international operations out of the United Kingdom and could contribute to instability in global financial and foreign exchange markets. In addition, Brexit could lead to additional political, legal and economic instability in the European Union and within the United Kingdom. Public figures in other European Union member states have called for referenda in their respective countries on exiting the European Union, raising concerns of a contagion effect stemming from Brexit. Leaders in Scotland have also announced that they may seek EU membership in the event of the United Kingdom leaving the European Union and a raising the possibility of a second referendum on Scottish independence from the United Kingdom. The withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union, or indeed any other member state from the European Union or of Scotland from the United Kingdom, could pose significant issues for the Company in relation to the legal and regulatory frameworks within the affected countries and across Europe. A significant proportion of the regulatory regime applicable to the Company in Europe is derived from European Union directives and regulations, and the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union could therefore materially change the regulatory framework applicable to the Company's operations in Europe, particularly in the United Kingdom. For example, Brexit could result in significant restrictions concerning the free movement of goods, persons, capital and services between the United Kingdom and the European Union that could in turn affect the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations in Europe.

Additionally, operating in many different countries also increases the risk of a violation, or alleged violation, of the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the U.K. Bribery Act, other applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations, the economic sanction programs administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control and the anti-boycott regulations administered by the U.S. Department of Commerce's Office of Anti-boycott Compliance. Any failure to comply with these laws, even if inadvertent, could result in significant penalties or otherwise harm the Company's reputation and business. There can be no assurance that all of our employees, contractors and agents will comply with the Company's policies that mandate compliance with these laws. Violations of these laws could be costly and disrupt the Company's business, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Manufacturer safety recalls could create risks to our business

Our vehicles may be subject to safety recalls by their manufacturers. The Raechel and Jacqueline Houck Safe Rental Car Act of 2015 prohibits us from renting vehicles with open federal safety recalls and to repair or address these recalls prior to renting or selling the vehicle. Any federal safety recall with respect to our vehicles would require us to decline to rent recalled vehicles until we can arrange for the steps described in the recall to be taken. If a large number of vehicles are the subject of a recall or if needed replacement parts are not in adequate supply, we may not be able to rent recalled vehicles for a significant period of time. Those types of disruptions could jeopardize our ability to fulfill existing contractual commitments or satisfy demand for our vehicles, and could also result in the loss of business to our competitors. Depending on the severity of any recall, it could materially adversely affect our revenues, create customer service problems, reduce the residual value of the recalled vehicles and harm our general reputation.

Our business is heavily reliant upon communications networks and centralized information technology systems and the concentration of our systems creates risks for us.

We rely heavily on communication networks and information technology systems to accept reservations, process rental and sales transactions, manage our pricing, manage our revenue earning vehicles, manage our financing arrangements, account for our activities and otherwise conduct our business. Our reliance on these networks and systems exposes us to various risks that could cause a loss of reservations, interfere with our ability to manage our vehicles, slow rental and sales processes, adversely affect our ability to comply with our financing arrangements and otherwise materially adversely affect our ability to manage our business effectively. Our major information technology systems, reservations and accounting functions are centralized in a few locations worldwide. Any disruption, termination or substandard provision of these services, whether as the result of localized conditions (such as a fire, explosion or hacking), failure of our systems to function as designed, or as the result of events or circumstances of broader geographic impact (such as an earthquake, storm, flood, epidemic, strike, act of war, civil unrest or terrorist act), could materially adversely affect our business by disrupting normal reservations, customer service, accounting and information technology functions or by eliminating access to financing arrangements. Any disruption or poor performance of our systems could lead to lower revenues, increased costs or other material adverse effects on our results of operations.

Failure to maintain, upgrade and consolidate our information technology networks could adversely affect us.

We are continuously upgrading and consolidating our systems, including making changes to legacy systems, replacing legacy systems with successor systems with new functionality and acquiring new systems with new functionality. In particular, we currently have material weaknesses in our internal controls and in certain instances enhancements to our accounting systems may assist in the remediation of these material weaknesses. In addition, we have decided to outsource a significant portion of our information technology services. These types of activities subject us to additional costs and inherent risks associated with outsourcing, replacing and changing these systems, including impairment of our ability to manage our business, potential disruption of our internal control structure, substantial capital expenditures, additional administration and operating expenses, retention of sufficiently skilled personnel to implement and operate the new systems, demands on management time, and other risks and costs of delays or difficulties in transitioning to outsourcing alternatives, new systems or of integrating new systems into our current systems. Our outsourcing initiatives and system implementations may not result in productivity improvements at a level that outweighs the costs of implementation, or at all. In addition, the implementation of our outsourcing initiatives and new technology systems may cause disruptions in our business operations and have an adverse effect on our business and operations, if not anticipated and appropriately mitigated and our competitive position may be adversely affected if we are unable to maintain systems that allow us to manage our business in a competitive manner.

The misuse or theft of information we possess, including as a result of cyber security breaches, could harm our brand, reputation or competitive position and give rise to material liabilities.

We regularly possess, store and handle non-public information about millions of individuals and businesses, including both credit and debit card information and other sensitive and confidential personal information. In addition, our customers regularly transmit confidential information to us via the internet and through other electronic means. Despite the security measures we currently have in place, our facilities and systems and those of our third-party service providers may contain defects in design or manufacture or other problems that could unexpectedly compromise information security. Unauthorized parties may also attempt to gain access to our systems or facilities, or those of third parties with whom we do business, through fraud, trickery, or other forms of deception of our employees or contractors. Many of the techniques used to obtain unauthorized access, including viruses, worms and other malicious software programs, are difficult to anticipate until launched against a target and we may be unable to implement adequate preventative measures. Our failure to maintain the security of that data, whether as the result of our own error or the malfeasance or errors of others, could harm our reputation, interrupt our operations, result in governmental investigations and give rise to a host of civil or criminal liabilities. Any such failure could lead to lower revenues, increased remediation, prevention and other costs and other material adverse effects on our results of operations.

Our leases and vehicle rental concessions expose us to risks.

We maintain a substantial network of vehicle rental locations at a number of airports in the U.S. and internationally. Many of these locations are leased and, in the case of airport vehicle rental locations, the subject of vehicle rental concessions where vehicle rental companies are frequently required to bid periodically for the available locations. If we are unable to continue operating these facilities at their current locations due to the termination of leases or vehicle rental concessions, particularly at airports, which comprise a majority of our revenues, our operating results could be adversely affected.

Maintaining favorable brand recognition is essential to our success, and failure to do so could materially adversely affect our results of operations.

Our business is heavily dependent upon the favorable brand recognition that our “Hertz”, “Dollar” and “Thrifty” brand names have in the markets in which they participate. Factors affecting brand recognition are often outside our control, and our efforts to maintain or enhance favorable brand recognition, such as marketing and advertising campaigns, may not have their desired effects. In addition, although our licensing partners are subject to contractual requirements to protect our brands, it may be difficult to monitor or enforce such requirements, particularly in foreign jurisdictions. Any decline in perceived favorable recognition of our brands could materially adversely affect our results of operations.

Our business operations are dependent upon our new senior management team and the ability of our other new employees to learn their new roles.

Within the past three years, we have substantially changed our senior management team and have replaced many of the other employees performing key functions at our corporate headquarters. We have a new Chief Executive Officer who started on November 20, 2014, a new Chief Financial Officer who started on December 9, 2013 and many other new members of our senior management team. In addition, in connection with the transition of our corporate headquarters from Park Ridge, New Jersey to Estero, Florida, we have replaced many other employees in other key functions. As new employees gain experience in their roles, we could experience inefficiencies or a lack of business continuity due to loss of historical knowledge and a lack of familiarity of new employees with business processes, operating requirements, policies and procedures, some of which are new, and key information technologies and related infrastructure used in our day-to-day operations and financial reporting and we may experience additional costs as new employees learn their roles and gain necessary experience. It is important to our success that these key employees quickly adapt to and excel in their new roles. If they are unable to do so, our business and financial results could be materially adversely affected. In addition, if we were to lose the services of any one or more key employees, whether due to death, disability or termination of employment, our ability to successfully implement our business strategy, financial plans, marketing and other objectives, could be significantly impaired.

We may face issues with our union employees.

Labor contracts covering the terms of employment of approximately 5,900 employees in the U.S. (including those in the U.S. territories) are presently in effect under approximately 110 active contracts with local unions, affiliated primarily with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the International Association of Machinists. These contracts are renegotiated periodically. Failure to negotiate a new labor agreement when required could result in a work stoppage.

Although we believe that our labor relations have generally been good, it is possible that we could become subject to additional work rules imposed by agreements with labor unions, or that work stoppages or other labor disturbances could occur in the future. In addition, our non-union workforce has been subject to unionization efforts in the past, and we could be subject to future unionization, which could lead to increases in our operating costs and/or constraints on our operating flexibility.

The restatement of our previously issued financial statements has been time-consuming and expensive and could expose us to additional risks that could materially adversely affect our financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

We have incurred significant expenses, including audit, legal, consulting and other professional fees and lender and noteholder consent fees, in connection with the restatement of our previously issued financial statements and the ongoing remediation of weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting. We have taken a number of steps, including adding significant internal resources and implemented a number of additional procedures, in order to strengthen our accounting function and attempt to reduce the risk of additional misstatements in our financial statements. To the extent these steps are not successful, we could be forced to incur additional time and expense. Our management's attention has also been diverted from the operation of our business in connection with the restatements and ongoing remediation of material weaknesses in our internal controls.

We are also subject to a number of claims, investigations and proceedings arising out of the misstatements in our financial statements, including an investigation by the New York Regional Office of the SEC. In addition, in December 2014 a state securities regulator requested information and starting in June 2016 the Company has had communications with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey regarding the same or similar events. See below under "The restatement of our previously issued financial results has resulted in government investigations and could result in government enforcement actions and private litigation that could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flows."

We have identified material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting which could, if not remediated, adversely affect our ability to report our financial condition and results of operations in a timely and accurate manner, which may adversely affect investor confidence in our company and, as a result, the value of our common stock.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over our financial reporting, as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act. As further described in Item 9A in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (as amended by the Form 10-K/A filed March 4, 2016), management has identified material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting. As a result of the material weaknesses, our management concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of December 31, 2015. The assessment was based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission in 2013. We are actively engaged in remediation activities designed to address the material weaknesses, but our remediation efforts are not complete and are ongoing. If our remedial measures are insufficient to address the material weaknesses, or if additional material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in our internal control are discovered or occur in the future, it may materially adversely affect our ability to report our financial condition and results of operations in a timely and accurate manner. If we are unable to report our results in a timely and accurate manner, we may not be able to comply with the applicable covenants in our financing arrangements, and may be required to seek additional waivers or repay amounts under these financing arrangements earlier than anticipated, which could adversely impact our liquidity and financial condition. Although we continually review and evaluate internal control systems to allow management to report on the sufficiency of our internal controls, we cannot assure you that we will not discover additional weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting. The next time we evaluate our internal control over financial reporting, if we identify one or more new material weaknesses or are unable to timely remediate our existing weaknesses, we may be unable to assert that our internal controls are effective. If we are unable to assert that our internal control over financial reporting is effective, or if our independent registered public accounting firm is unable to express an opinion on the effectiveness of our internal controls, we could lose investor confidence in the accuracy and completeness of our financial reports, which would have a material adverse effect on the price of our common stock and possibly impact our ability to obtain future financing on acceptable terms. We may also lose assets if we do not maintain adequate internal controls.

The restatement of our previously issued financial results has resulted in government investigations and could result in government enforcement actions and private litigation that could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flows.

We are subject to securities class action litigation relating to our previous public disclosures. In addition, the New York Regional Office of the SEC is currently investigating the events disclosed in certain of our filings with the SEC. A state securities regulator has also requested information and starting in June 2016 we have had communications with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey regarding the same or similar events. For additional discussion of these matters, see Note 16, "Contingencies and Off-Balance Sheet Commitments," to our audited annual consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and Note 15, "Contingencies and Off-Balance Sheet Commitments" to the interim unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, each of which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum. We could also become subject to private litigation or investigations, or one or more government enforcement actions, arising out of the misstatements in our previously issued financial statements. Our management may be required to devote significant time and attention to these matters, and these and any additional matters that arise could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flows. While we cannot estimate our potential exposure in these matters at this time, we have already expended significant amounts investigating the claims underlying and defending this litigation and expect to continue to need to expend significant amounts to defend this litigation.

We may pursue strategic transactions which could be difficult to implement, disrupt our business or change our business profile significantly.

Any future strategic acquisition or disposition of assets or a business could involve numerous risks, including: (i) potential disruption of our ongoing business and distraction of management; (ii) difficulty integrating the acquired business or segregating assets and operations to be disposed of; (iii) exposure to unknown, contingent or other liabilities, including litigation arising in connection with the acquisition or disposition or against any business we may acquire; (iv) changing our business profile in ways that could have unintended negative consequences; and (v) the failure to achieve anticipated synergies.

If we enter into significant strategic transactions, the related accounting charges may affect our financial condition and results of operations, particularly in the case of an acquisition. The financing of any significant acquisition may result in changes in our capital structure, including the incurrence of additional indebtedness. A material disposition could require the amendment or refinancing of our outstanding indebtedness or a portion thereof.

The agreements we entered into in connection with the Spin-Off may distract our management and expose us to claims and liabilities.

Hertz Holdings and Herc Holdings entered into a separation and distribution agreement and various other agreements to govern the separation of Hertz Holdings from Herc Holdings and the relationship between the two companies going forward. Certain of these agreements provide for the performance of services by Hertz Holdings and its subsidiaries, including Hertz, for the benefit of Herc Holdings and its subsidiaries for up to three years following the date of the Spin-Off, including with respect to the preparation of financial reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain of these agreements also impose certain obligations, including indemnification obligations, on Herc Holdings for the benefit of Hertz Holdings. If Herc Holdings is unable to satisfy its obligations under these agreements, Hertz Holdings could incur losses. These arrangements could also distract management of Hertz Holdings and lead to disputes between Hertz Holdings and Herc Holdings over the allocation of assets and liabilities between Hertz Holdings and Herc Holdings.

If there is a determination that any of the Spin-Off or the internal spin-off transactions completed in connection with the Spin-Off (collectively with the Spin-Off, the "Spin-Offs") is taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes because the facts, assumptions, representations or undertakings underlying the IRS private letter ruling or tax opinions are incorrect or for any other reason, then Herc Holdings and its stockholders could incur significant U.S. federal income tax liabilities and Hertz Holdings could incur significant liabilities.

Herc Holdings received a private letter ruling from the IRS to the effect that, subject to the accuracy of and compliance with certain representations, assumptions and covenants, (i) the Spin-Off will qualify as a tax-free transaction under Sections 355 and 368(a)(1)(D) of the Code, and (ii) the internal spin-off transactions will qualify as tax free under Section 355 of the Code. A private letter ruling from the IRS generally is binding on the IRS. However, the IRS ruling did not rule that the Spin-Offs satisfied every requirement for a tax-free spin-off, and Herc Holdings relied solely on opinions of KPMG LLP and Debevoise & Plimpton LLP to determine that such additional requirements were satisfied. The ruling and the opinions relied on certain facts, assumptions, representations and undertakings from Herc Holdings and Hertz Holdings regarding the past and future conduct of the companies' respective businesses and other matters. If any of these facts, assumptions, representations or undertakings were incorrect or not otherwise satisfied, Herc Holdings, its affiliates and its stockholders may not be able to rely on the ruling or the opinions of tax advisors and could be subject to significant tax liabilities. Notwithstanding the private letter ruling and opinions of tax advisors, the IRS could determine on audit that the Spin-Offs and related transactions are taxable if it determines that any of these facts, assumptions, representations or undertakings are not correct or have been violated or if it disagrees with the conclusions in the opinions that are not covered by the private letter ruling, or for any other reason, including as a result of certain significant changes in the stock ownership of Herc Holdings or Hertz Holdings after the Spin-Off. If the Spin-Offs or related transactions are determined to be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes, Herc Holdings and, in certain cases, its stockholders could incur significant U.S. federal income tax liabilities, including taxation on the value of the Hertz Holdings stock distributed in the Spin-Off and the value of other companies distributed in the internal Spin-Off transactions, and Hertz Holdings could incur significant liabilities, either directly to the tax authorities or under a Tax Matters Agreement entered into with Herc Holdings.

Some or all of our deferred tax assets could expire if we experience an "ownership change" as defined in Section 382 of the Code.

An "ownership change" could limit our ability to utilize tax attributes, including net operating losses, capital loss carryovers, excess foreign tax carry forwards, and credit carryforwards, to offset future taxable income. As of December 31, 2015, we had U.S. federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $3.9 billion (which begin to expire in 2029). Our ability to use such tax attributes to offset future taxable income and tax liabilities may be significantly limited if we experience an "ownership change" as defined in Section 382(g) of the Code. In general, an ownership change will occur when the percentage of Hertz Holdings' ownership (by value) of one or more "5-percent shareholders" (as defined in the Code) has increased by more than 50 percentage points over the lowest percentage of stock owned by such shareholders at any time during the prior three years (calculated on a rolling basis). An entity that experiences an ownership change generally should be subject to an annual limitation on its pre-ownership change tax loss carryforward equal to the equity value of the corporation immediately before the ownership change, multiplied by the long-term, tax-exempt rate posted monthly by the IRS (subject to certain adjustments). The annual limitation accumulates each year to the extent that there is any unused limitation from a prior year. The limitation on our ability to utilize tax losses and credit carryforwards arising from an ownership change under Section 382 depends on the value of our equity at the time of any ownership change. If we were to experience an "ownership change", it is possible that a significant portion of our tax loss carryforwards could expire before we would be able to use them to offset future taxable income. Many states adopt the federal section 382 rules and therefore have similar limitations with respect to state tax attributes.

We face risks related to liabilities and insurance.

Our businesses expose us to claims for personal injury, death and property damage resulting from the use of the vehicles rented or sold by us, and for employment-related injury claims by our employees. The Company is currently a defendant in numerous actions and has received numerous claims on which actions have not yet been commenced for public liability and property damage arising from the operation of motor vehicles rented from the Company. Currently, we generally self-insure up to $10 million per occurrence in the U.S. and up to $5 million in Europe for vehicle and general liability exposures, $5 million for employment-related injury claims, and we also maintain insurance with unaffiliated carriers in excess of such levels up to $200 million per occurrence for the current policy year, or in the case of international operations outside of Europe, in such lower amounts as we deem adequate given the risks. We cannot assure you that we will not be exposed to uninsured liability at levels in excess of our historical levels resulting from multiple payouts or otherwise, that liabilities in respect of existing or future claims will not exceed the level of our insurance, that we will have sufficient capital available to pay any uninsured claims or that insurance with unaffiliated carriers will continue to be available to us on economically reasonable terms or at all. See Item 1, "Business—Insurance and Risk Management" and Note 16, "Contingencies and Off-Balance Sheet Commitments," to our audited annual consolidated financial statements, in each case included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (as amended by the Form 10-K/A filed March 4, 2016), which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

We could face a significant withdrawal liability if we withdraw from participation in multiemployer pension plans or in the event other employers in such plans become insolvent and certain multiemployer plans in which we participate are reported to have underfunded liabilities, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

We could face a significant withdrawal liability if we withdraw from participation in one or more multiemployer pension plans in which we participate or in the event other employers in such plans become insolvent, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

We participate in various “multiemployer” pension plans. In the event that we withdraw from participation in one of these plans, then applicable law could require us to make an additional lump-sum contribution to the plan, and we would have to reflect that as an expense in our consolidated statement of operations and as a liability on our consolidated balance sheet. Our withdrawal liability for any multiemployer plan would depend on the extent of the plan’s funding of vested benefits. Our multiemployer plans could have significant underfunded liabilities. Such underfunding may increase in the event other employers become insolvent or withdraw from the applicable plan or upon the inability or failure of withdrawing employers to pay their withdrawal liability. In addition, such underfunding may increase as a result of lower than expected returns on pension fund assets or other funding deficiencies. The occurrence of any of these events could have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows. See Note 7 to our audited annual consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

Environmental laws and regulations and the costs of complying with them, or any liability or obligation imposed under them, could materially adversely affect our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

We are subject to federal, state, local and foreign environmental laws and regulations in connection with our operations, including with respect to the ownership and operation of tanks for the storage of petroleum products, such as gasoline, diesel fuel and motor and waste oils. We cannot assure you that our tanks will at all times remain free from leaks or that the use of these tanks will not result in significant spills or leakage. If leakage or a spill occurs, it is possible that the resulting costs of cleanup, investigation and remediation, as well as any resulting fines, could be significant. We cannot assure you that compliance with existing or future environmental laws and regulations will not require material expenditures by us or otherwise have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows. See Item 1, “Business—Governmental Regulation and Environmental Matters” included in Hertz’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

The U.S. Congress and other legislative and regulatory authorities in the U.S. and internationally have considered, and will likely continue to consider, numerous measures related to climate change and greenhouse gas emissions. Should rules establishing limitations on greenhouse gas emissions or rules imposing fees on entities deemed to be responsible for greenhouse gas emissions become effective, demand for our services could be affected, our fleet and/or other costs could increase, and our business could be adversely affected.

Changes in the U.S. legal and regulatory environments that affect our operations, including laws and regulations relating to taxes, automobile-related liability, insurance rates, insurance products, consumer privacy, data security, employment matters, licensing and franchising, automotive retail sales, cost and fee recovery and the banking and financing industry could disrupt our business, increase our expenses or otherwise have a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

We are subject to a wide variety of U.S. laws and regulations and changes in the level of government regulation of our business have the potential to materially alter our business practices and materially adversely affect our financial position and results of operations, including our profitability. Those changes may come about through new laws and regulations or changes in the interpretation of existing laws and regulations.

Any new, or change in existing, U.S. law and regulation with respect to optional insurance products or policies could increase our costs of compliance or make it uneconomical to offer such products, which would lead to a reduction in revenue and profitability. For further discussion regarding how changes in the regulation of insurance intermediaries may affect us, see Item 1, “Business—Risk Management” included in Hertz’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum. If customers decline to purchase supplemental liability insurance products from us as a result of any changes in these laws or otherwise, our results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

Changes in the U.S. and E.U. legal and regulatory environments in the areas of customer and employee privacy, data security and cross-border data flows could have a material adverse effect on our business, primarily through the impairment of our marketing and transaction processing activities, and the resulting costs of complying with such legal and regulatory requirements. It is also possible that we could face significant liability for failing to comply with any such requirements.

We derive revenue through rental activities of the Hertz, Dollar and Thrifty brands under franchise and license arrangements. These arrangements are subject to a number of federal and state laws and regulations that impose limitations on our interactions with counter-parties. In addition, the automotive retail industry, including our network of company-operated vehicle sales locations, is subject to a wide range of federal, state and local laws and regulations, such as those relating to motor vehicle sales, retail installment sales and related finance and insurance matters, advertising, licensing, consumer protection and consumer privacy. Changes in these laws and regulations that impact our franchising and licensing arrangements or our automotive retail sales could adversely impact our results.

In most places where we operate, we pass through various expenses, including the recovery of vehicle licensing costs and airport concession fees, to our rental customers as separate charges. We believe that our expense pass throughs, where imposed, are properly disclosed and are lawful. However, in the event of incorrect calculations or disclosures with respect to expense pass throughs, or a successful challenge to the methodology we have used for determining our expense pass through treatment, we could be subject to fines or other liabilities. In addition, we may in the future be subject to potential legislative, regulatory or administrative changes or actions which could limit, restrict or prohibit our ability to separately state, charge and recover vehicle licensing costs and airport concession fees, which could result in a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

Certain new or proposed laws and regulations with respect to the banking and finance industries, including the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and amendments to Regulation AB, could restrict our access to certain financing arrangements and increase our financing costs, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations, liquidity and cash flows.

Risks Related to Our Substantial Indebtedness

Our substantial level of indebtedness could materially adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows, liquidity and ability to compete in our industry.

As of June 30, 2016, we had debt outstanding of $15.5 billion, exclusive of unamortized debt issuance costs, discounts and premiums. Our substantial indebtedness could materially adversely affect us. For example, it could: (i) make it more difficult for us to satisfy our obligations to the holders of our outstanding debt securities and to the lenders under our various credit facilities, resulting in possible defaults on, and acceleration or early amortization of, such indebtedness; (ii) be difficult to refinance or borrow additional funds in the future; (iii) require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flows from operations and investing activities to make payments on our debt, which would reduce our ability to fund working capital, capital expenditures or other general corporate purposes; (iv) increase our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions (such as credit-related disruptions), including interest rate fluctuations, because a portion of our borrowings are at floating rates of interest and are not hedged against rising interest rates, and the risk that one or more of the financial institutions providing commitments under our revolving credit facilities fails to fund an extension of credit under any such facility, due to insolvency or otherwise, leaving us with less liquidity than expected; (v) place us at a competitive disadvantage to our competitors that have proportionately less debt or comparable debt at more favorable interest rates or on better terms; and (vi) limit our ability to react to competitive pressures, or make it difficult for us to carry out capital spending that is necessary or important to our growth strategy and our efforts to improve operating margins. While the terms of the agreements and instruments governing our outstanding indebtedness contain certain restrictions upon our ability to incur additional indebtedness, they do not fully prohibit us from incurring substantial additional indebtedness and do not prevent us from incurring obligations that do not constitute indebtedness. In addition, the indenture governing the Notes offered hereby will not contain any restriction on our ability to incur unsecured indebtedness. If new debt or other obligations are added to our current liability levels without a corresponding refinancing or redemption of our existing indebtedness and obligations, these risks would increase. For a description of the amounts we have available under certain of our debt facilities, see “Description of Certain Indebtedness”.

Our ability to manage these risks depends on financial market conditions as well as our financial and operating performance, which, in turn, is subject to a wide range of risks, including those described under “Risks Related to Our Business.”

If our capital resources (including borrowings under our revolving credit facilities and access to other refinancing indebtedness) and operating cash flows are not sufficient to pay our obligations as they mature or to fund our liquidity needs, we may be forced to do, among other things, one or more of the following: (i) sell certain of our assets; (ii) reduce the number of our revenue earning vehicles; (iii) reduce or delay capital expenditures; (iv) obtain additional equity capital; (v) forgo business opportunities, including acquisitions and joint ventures; or (vi) restructure or refinance all or a portion of our debt on or before maturity. We cannot assure you that we would be able to accomplish any of these alternatives on a timely basis or on satisfactory terms, if at all. Furthermore, we cannot assure you that we will maintain financing activities and cash flows sufficient to permit us to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on our indebtedness. If we cannot refinance or otherwise pay our obligations as they mature and fund our liquidity needs, our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, liquidity, ability to obtain financing and ability to compete in our industry could be materially adversely affected.

Our reliance on asset-backed and asset-based financing arrangements to purchase vehicles subjects us to a number of risks, many of which are beyond our control.

We rely significantly on asset-backed and asset-based financing to purchase vehicles. If we are unable to refinance or replace our existing asset-backed and asset-based financing or continue to finance new vehicle acquisitions through asset-backed or asset-based financing on favorable terms, on a timely basis, or at all, then our costs of financing could increase significantly and have a material adverse effect on our liquidity, interest costs, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Our asset-backed and asset-based financing capacity could be decreased, our financing costs and interest rates could be increased, or our future access to the financial markets could be limited, as a result of risks and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control, including: (i) the acceptance by credit markets of the structures and structural risks associated with our asset-backed and asset-based financing arrangements; (ii) the credit ratings provided by credit rating agencies for our asset-backed indebtedness; (iii) third parties requiring changes in the terms and structure of our asset-backed or asset-based financing arrangements, including increased credit enhancement or required cash collateral and/or other liquid reserves; (iv) the insolvency or deterioration of the financial condition of one or more of our principal vehicle manufacturers; or (v) changes in laws or regulations, including judicial review of issues of first impression, that negatively impact any of our asset-backed or asset-based financing arrangements.

Any reduction in the value of certain revenue earning vehicles could effectively increase our vehicle costs, adversely impact our profitability and potentially lead to decreased borrowing base availability in our asset-backed and certain asset-based vehicle financing facilities due to the credit enhancement requirements for such facilities, which could increase if market values for vehicles decrease below net book values for those vehicles. In addition, if disposal of vehicles in the used vehicle marketplace were to become severely limited at a time when required collateral levels were rising and as a result we failed to meet the minimum required collateral levels, the principal under our asset-backed and certain asset-based financing arrangements may be required to be repaid sooner than anticipated with vehicle disposition proceeds and lease payments we make to our special purpose financing subsidiaries. If that were to occur, the holders of our asset-backed and certain asset-based debt may have the ability to exercise their right to direct the trustee or other secured party to foreclose on and sell vehicles to generate proceeds sufficient to repay such debt.

The occurrence of certain events, including those described in the paragraph above, could result in the occurrence of an amortization event pursuant to which the proceeds of sales of vehicles that collateralize the affected asset-backed financing arrangement would be required to be applied to the payment of principal and interest on the affected facility or series, rather than being reinvested in our revenue earning vehicles. In the case of our asset-backed financing arrangements, certain other events, including defaults by us and our affiliates in the performance of covenants set forth in the agreements governing certain vehicle debt, could result in the occurrence of a liquidation event with the passing of time or immediately pursuant to which the trustee or holders of the affected asset-backed financing arrangement would be permitted to require the sale of the assets collateralizing that series. Any of these consequences could affect our liquidity and our ability to maintain sufficient levels of revenue earning vehicles to meet customer demands and could trigger cross-defaults under certain of our other financing arrangements.

Substantially all of our consolidated assets secure certain of our outstanding indebtedness, which could materially adversely affect our debt and equity holders and our business.

Substantially all of our consolidated assets, including our revenue earning vehicles and Donlen's lease portfolio, are subject to security interests or are otherwise encumbered for the lenders under our Senior Facilities, asset-backed and asset-based financing arrangements. As a result, the lenders under those facilities would have a prior claim on such assets in the event of our bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or reorganization, and we may not have sufficient funds to pay in full, or at all, all of our creditors or make any amount available to holders of our equity. The same is true with respect to structurally senior obligations: in general, all liabilities and other obligations of a subsidiary must be satisfied before the assets of such subsidiary can be made available to the creditors (or equity holders) of the parent entity.

Because substantially all of our assets are encumbered under financing arrangements, our ability to incur additional secured indebtedness or to sell or dispose of assets to raise capital may be impaired, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial flexibility and force us to attempt to incur additional unsecured indebtedness, which may not be available to us.

Restrictive covenants in certain of the agreements and instruments governing our indebtedness may materially adversely affect our financial flexibility or may have other material adverse effects on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Certain of our credit facilities and other asset-based and asset-backed financing arrangements contain covenants that, among other things, restrict Hertz and its subsidiaries' ability to: (i) dispose of assets; (ii) incur additional indebtedness; (iii) incur guarantee obligations; (iv) prepay other indebtedness or amend other financing arrangements; (v) pay dividends; (vi) create liens on assets; (vii) sell assets; (viii) make investments, loans, advances or capital expenditures; (ix) make acquisitions; (x) engage in mergers or consolidations; (xi) change the business conducted by us; and (xii) engage in certain transactions with affiliates.

Commencing with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2016, our new Senior RCF (as defined in "Description of Certain Indebtedness" below) subjects us to a financial maintenance covenant. Our ability to comply with this covenant will depend on our ongoing financial and operating performance, which in turn are subject to, among other things, the risks identified in "Risks Related to Our Business."

The agreements governing our financing arrangements contain numerous covenants. The breach of any of these covenants or restrictions could result in a default under the relevant agreement, which could, in turn, cause cross-defaults under our other financing arrangements. In such event, we may be unable to borrow under the Senior RCF and certain of our other financing arrangements and may not be able to repay the amounts due under such arrangements, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

An increase in interest rates or in our borrowing margin would increase the cost of servicing our debt and could reduce our profitability.

A significant portion of our outstanding debt bears interest at floating rates. As a result, to the extent we have not hedged against rising interest rates, an increase in the applicable benchmark interest rates would increase our cost of servicing our debt and could materially adversely affect our liquidity and results of operations.

In addition, we regularly refinance our indebtedness. If interest rates or our borrowing margins increase between the time an existing financing arrangement was consummated and the time such financing arrangement is refinanced, the cost of servicing our debt would increase and our liquidity and results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

Risks Related to the Notes

The Notes will be unsecured and structurally subordinated to some of our obligations, and only certain of our subsidiaries will guarantee the Notes.

The Indenture governing the Notes will permit us to incur certain secured indebtedness, including indebtedness under the Senior Facilities, the Revolving Credit Facility and other asset-based and asset-backed financing arrangements. Substantially all of our assets, including our vehicle rental fleet, are subject to security interests or are otherwise encumbered for the lenders under our Senior Facilities, the Revolving Credit Facility and other asset-backed and asset-based financing arrangements. The Notes will be unsecured and therefore will not have the benefit of such collateral. Accordingly, if an event of default occurs under the Senior Facilities, the Revolving Credit Facility or other asset-backed or asset-based financing arrangements, the respective secured lenders will have a prior right to the subject assets, to the exclusion of the holders of the Notes, even if we are in default under the Notes. In that event, our assets would first be used to repay in full all indebtedness and other obligations secured by them, resulting in all or a portion of our assets being unavailable to satisfy the claims of the holders of the Notes and other unsecured indebtedness. Further, if secured lenders foreclose and sell the pledged equity interests in any Guarantor under the Notes, then that guarantor will be released from its guarantee of the Notes automatically and immediately upon the sale.

The Notes will not be guaranteed by any of our non wholly owned subsidiaries or certain other U.S. and non-U.S. subsidiaries, including the U.S. and foreign financing subsidiaries under our asset-backed financing arrangements (collectively, the “non-guarantor subsidiaries”). Payments on the Notes are only required to be made by the Issuer and the Guarantors. Accordingly, claims of holders of the Notes will be structurally subordinated to the claims of creditors of our non-Guarantor subsidiaries, including trade creditors. All obligations of our non-guarantor subsidiaries will have to be satisfied before any of the assets of such subsidiaries would be available for distribution, upon liquidation or otherwise, to the Issuer or a Guarantor of the Notes. Furthermore, many of the non-guarantor subsidiaries that hold our U.S. and international vehicle rental fleets in connection with asset-backed financing arrangements are intended to be bankruptcy remote and the assets held by them will not be available to our general creditors in a bankruptcy unless and until they are transferred to a non-bankruptcy remote entity. Our unrestricted, non-Guarantors will be permitted to incur additional debt in the future under the Indenture. The Subsidiary Guarantors accounted for 221% of our net assets for the twelve months ended and as of June 30, 2016.

As of June 30, 2016, we had consolidated indebtedness of $15.4 billion. See “Description of Certain Indebtedness.” The Guarantors will guarantee the Issuer’s obligations under the Notes. The U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors currently guarantee Hertz’s obligations under the Senior Facilities and the Senior Notes and the Issuer’s obligations under the Revolving Credit Facility and the European Vehicle Notes, and the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors currently guarantee the Issuer’s obligations under the Revolving Credit Facility and the European Fleet Notes. See “Description of Certain Indebtedness” and, for financial information regarding our U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors and our subsidiaries (including the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors) that do not guarantee Hertz’s Senior Facilities and Senior Notes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 and for the six months ended June 30, 2016, see Note 18 to the audited annual consolidated financial statements of Hertz included in Hertz’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and Note 17 to the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Hertz included in Hertz’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, respectively, each of which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

We may be unable to finance any change of control repurchase offers required by the Indenture. Our inability to do so would result in an event of default under the Indenture.

If we experience a “change of control” (as defined in the Indenture), we will be required to make an offer to purchase all of the outstanding Notes (unless otherwise redeemed) at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest and additional amounts, if any, to the date of purchase. The indentures governing our Senior Notes and European Vehicle Notes require, and our future indebtedness may also require, such indebtedness to be similarly repurchased upon a change of control. Moreover, the occurrence of the specified events that would constitute a change of control would constitute a default under certain of our existing financing arrangements and may cause the acceleration of other indebtedness, which may rank equally with, or superior to, the Notes. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient funds to finance our repurchase obligations following such a change of control.

Currently, we expect that we would require third-party financing to make a change of control offer. If we cannot fund a change of control offer in relation to the Notes, we could attempt to arrange debt or equity financing to fund our repurchase obligations. However, we may not be able to do so on favorable terms, or at all. Any failure by us to repurchase the Notes following a change of control will constitute an event of default with respect to the Notes and may cause the acceleration of the Notes or other debt. See “Description of Notes—Change of Control” and “—Certain Covenants.”

The definition of “change of control” contained in the Indenture includes a disposition of all or substantially all of our assets. Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase “all or substantially all,” there is no precise established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, in certain circumstances there may be a degree of uncertainty as to whether a particular transaction would involve a disposition of “all or substantially all” of our assets. As a result, it may be unclear as to whether a change of control has occurred and whether we are required to make an offer to repurchase the Notes.

The Notes and the Guarantees of the Notes, along with any future Guarantees of the Notes, may be subject to certain limitations on enforcement and may be limited by applicable law or subject to certain defenses that may limit their validity and enforceability, including fraudulent transfer and conveyance statutes.

The Issuer’s obligations under the Notes will be guaranteed by the Guarantors. The Notes and certain of the Guarantees may be limited or subordinated in favor of the Issuer’s or the Guarantors’ existing and future creditors under the laws of The Netherlands, France, Germany, Ireland, Belgium, Italy, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom, the U.S. or a state thereof or any other applicable jurisdiction.

Enforcement of each Guarantee will, where applicable, be limited to the extent of the amount which can be guaranteed or secured by a particular Guarantor without rendering the Guarantee, as it relates to that Guarantor or otherwise ineffective under applicable law. The enforcement of any of the Guarantees against any Guarantor will be subject to certain defenses generally available to Guarantors. These laws and defenses include those that relate to fraudulent conveyance or transfer, insolvency, voidable preference, financial assistance, corporate purpose or benefit, preservation of share capital, thin capitalization and defenses affecting the rights of creditors generally.

For example, if, under relevant federal, state, or other fraudulent transfer and conveyance statutes, in a bankruptcy or reorganization case or a lawsuit by or on behalf of unpaid creditors of an issuer, a court were to find that, at the time the Issuer or any of the Guarantors, as applicable, issued the Notes or incurred the respective Guarantee:

- the Issuer or Guarantor did so with the intent of hindering, delaying or defrauding current or future creditors, or received less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration for issuing the Notes or incurring the Guarantee, as applicable;
- the Issuer or Guarantor:
  - was insolvent, or was rendered insolvent, by reason of the incurrence of the indebtedness constituting the Notes or the Guarantee, as applicable,
  - was engaged, or about to engage, in a business or transaction for which its assets constituted unreasonably small capital,
  - intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as such debts matured,
  - was a defendant in an action for money damages, or had a judgment for money damages docketed against it if, in either case, after final judgment the judgment was unsatisfied; or
  - the relevant guarantees were held to exceed the corporate objects of the Guarantor or not to be in the best interests or for the corporate benefit of the Guarantor, the court could avoid (cancel) or subordinate the Notes or the applicable Guarantee to presently existing and future indebtedness of the Issuer or the subject Guarantor, and take other action detrimental to the holders of the Notes including, under certain circumstances, invalidating the Notes or the applicable Guarantee.

The measure of insolvency for purposes of the foregoing considerations will vary depending upon the law of the jurisdiction that is being applied in the relevant legal proceeding. Generally, however, the Issuer or Guarantor would be considered insolvent if, at the time it incurs the indebtedness constituting the Notes or its Guarantee, as applicable,

- the sum of its debts, including contingent liabilities, is greater than its assets, at a fair valuation,
- the present fair saleable value of its assets is less than the amount required to pay the probable liability on its total existing debts and liabilities, including contingent liabilities, as they become absolute and matured, or
- it cannot pay its debts as they become due.

We cannot give you any assurance as to what standards a court would use to determine whether the Issuer or a Guarantor was solvent at the relevant time, or whether, whatever standard was used, the Notes or the applicable Guarantee would not be avoided on another of the grounds described above.

We believe that at the time the Notes are initially issued by the Issuer and the Guarantees are incurred by the Guarantors, the Issuer and each Guarantor will: (i) be neither insolvent nor rendered insolvent thereby; (ii) be in possession of sufficient capital to run their respective businesses; (iii) be incurring debts within their respective abilities to pay as the same mature or become due; and (iv) have sufficient assets to satisfy any probable money judgment against them in any pending action. In reaching these conclusions with respect to Hertz and each Subsidiary Guarantor, we have relied upon our analysis of internal cash flow projections, which, among other things, make assumptions regarding pricing and utilization levels, business mix and estimated values of assets and liabilities. We cannot assure you, however, that a court passing on such questions would reach the same conclusions. See “Limitations on Validity and Enforceability of the Guarantees and Certain Insolvency Law Considerations” for more information on certain limitations on the validity and enforceability of the Guarantees for the Notes in certain jurisdictions.

The Notes are subject to restrictions on transfer within the U.S. or to U.S. persons and may be subject to transfer restrictions under the laws of other jurisdictions.

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any U.S. state securities laws. You may not offer the Notes in the U.S. except pursuant to an exemption from, or a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, or pursuant to an effective registration statement. We have not undertaken to register the Notes or to effect any exchange offer for the Notes in the future. Furthermore, we have not registered the Notes under any other country's securities laws. It is your obligation to ensure that your offers and sales of the Notes within the U.S. and other countries comply with applicable securities laws. See "Notice to Prospective Investors."

The Issuer's ability to pay principal and interest on the Notes may be affected by our organizational structure. The Issuer is dependent upon payments from other members of our corporate group to fund payments to you on the Notes, and such other members might not be able to make such payments in some circumstances.

The Issuer does not itself conduct any business operations and does not have any assets or sources of income of its own, other than certain intercompany loans. As a result, the Issuer's ability to make payments on the Notes is dependent directly upon interest or other payments it receives from other members of our corporate group. The ability of other members of our corporate group to make payments to the Issuer will depend upon their cash flows and earnings which, in turn, will be affected by all of the factors discussed in these "Risk Factors."

Furthermore, our Senior Facilities, the Senior Notes and the Issuer's Revolving Credit Facility and European Vehicle Notes contain certain restrictions on the borrowers thereunder from making certain distributions or payments of capital or income to their members. As a result, the amounts that the Issuer expects to receive from other members of our corporate group may not be forthcoming or sufficient to enable the Issuer to service its obligations on the Notes.

Enforcing your rights as a Noteholder or under the Guarantees across multiple jurisdictions may prove difficult and the insolvency laws of The Netherlands and other local insolvency laws may not be as favorable to you as U.S. bankruptcy laws or those of another jurisdiction with which you are familiar.

The Notes will be issued by the Issuer, a private company with limited liability which is incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, and will be Guaranteed by the Guarantors, including the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors. In the event of a bankruptcy, insolvency or similar event, proceedings could be initiated in Belgium, England and Wales, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands or the U.S. Such multi-jurisdictional proceedings are likely to be complex and costly for creditors and otherwise may result in greater uncertainty and delay regarding the enforcement of your rights. Your rights under the Notes and the Guarantees will be subject to the insolvency and administrative laws of several jurisdictions and there can be no assurance that you will be able to effectively enforce your rights in such complex, multiple bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings.

In addition, the bankruptcy, insolvency, administrative and other laws of the Issuer's and the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors' jurisdictions of organization may be materially different from, or in conflict with, each other and those of the U.S., including in the areas of rights of creditors, priority of governmental and other creditors and the duration of the proceeding. The application of these laws, or any conflict among them, could call into question whether any particular jurisdiction's law should apply, adversely affect your ability to enforce your rights under the Notes and the Guarantees in these jurisdictions or limit any amounts that you may receive. See "Limitations on Validity and Enforceability of Guarantees and Certain Insolvency Law Considerations."

Moreover, the laws of certain of the jurisdictions in which the Guarantors are organized limit the ability of these subsidiaries to guarantee debt of other companies. See "Limitations on Validity and Enforceability of Guarantees and Certain Insolvency Law Considerations."

Your rights as a Noteholder will be limited so long as the Notes are issued in book-entry interests.

Owners of the book-entry interests will not be considered owners or Noteholders unless and until definitive notes are issued in exchange for book-entry interests. Instead, Euroclear and Clearstream, or their respective nominees will be the sole holders of the Notes.

Payments of principal, interest and other amounts owing on or in respect of the Notes in global form will be made to Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, the paying agent, which will make payments to Euroclear and Clearstream. Thereafter, such payments will be credited to Euroclear and Clearstream participants' accounts that hold book-entry interests in the Notes in global form and credited by such participants to indirect participants. After payment to Euroclear and Clearstream, none of the Issuer, the Guarantors, the Trustee or the paying agent will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments of interest, principal or other amounts to Euroclear and Clearstream, or to owners of book-entry interests.

Owners of book-entry interests will not have the direct right to act upon our solicitations for consents or requests for waivers or other actions from Noteholders. Instead, if you own a book-entry interest, you will be reliant on the common depository (as registered holder of the Notes) to act on your instructions and/or will be permitted to act directly only to the extent you have received appropriate proxies to do so from Euroclear and Clearstream or, if applicable, from a participant. We cannot assure you that procedures implemented for the granting of such proxies will be sufficient to enable you to vote on any requested actions or to take any other action on a timely basis.

An active trading market may not develop for the Notes, in which case your ability to sell the Notes will be more limited.

The Notes will be new securities for which there currently is no existing market. We cannot assure you as to the liquidity of any market that may develop for the Notes, the ability of holders of the Notes to sell the Notes or the prices at which the Notes may be sold. The liquidity of any market for the Notes will depend on a number of factors, including the number of holders of the Notes, prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions, recommendations of securities analysts and our own financial condition, performance and prospects. The Initial Purchasers have informed us that they intend to make a market in the Notes. However, they are not obligated to do so and may discontinue such market-making at any time without notice.

Historically, the market for non-investment grade debt has been subject to disruptions that have caused substantial volatility in the prices of securities similar to the Notes. The liquidity of, and trading market for, the Notes may be subject to such disruptions that cause volatility in prices and may be adversely affected by a general decline in the market for similar securities. Any such disruption may have a negative effect on you, as a holder of the Notes, regardless of our prospects and financial performance.

In addition, the Indenture allows us to issue additional notes under the Indenture in the future, which could adversely impact the liquidity of the Notes.

As a result of the foregoing, we cannot assure you that an active trading market for the Notes will develop or, if one does develop, that it will be maintained. If no active trading market develops, you may not be able to resell your Notes at a fair value, if at all.

U.S. investors may have difficulty enforcing civil liabilities against us, the members of our board, senior management and experts named in this offering memorandum.

The Issuer is incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, and the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors are incorporated under the laws of France, Germany, Ireland, Belgium, Italy, Luxembourg and the United Kingdom. Some executive officers of the Issuer and the Guarantors are residents of jurisdictions outside the U.S., and most of the assets of the Issuer and the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors are located outside the U.S. As a result, it may not be possible for you to effect service of process within the U.S. upon these persons or to enforce judgments obtained in U.S. courts based on the civil liability provisions of the U.S. securities laws against such persons. Litigation in non-U.S. jurisdictions is also subject to rules of procedure that differ from the U.S. rules, including with respect to the taking and admissibility of evidence, the conduct of the proceedings and the allocation of costs. Proceedings in non-U.S. jurisdictions may also have to be conducted in a foreign language, and documents submitted to the court may have to be translated into that language.

If the Notes are rated investment grade by both Standard & Poor's and Moody's, certain covenants contained in the Indenture governing the Notes will be terminated.

The Indenture governing the Notes contains certain covenants that will be terminated in the event the Notes are rated Investment Grade by both Standard & Poor's Rating Services ("S&P") and Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") regardless of any subsequent changes in the ratings of the Notes. These covenants include:

- Limitation on Restricted Payments;
- Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Restricted Subsidiaries;
- Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock;
- Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates;
- Future Subsidiary Guarantors; and
- Clause (iii) of the first paragraph of “—Merger and Consolidation” under the “Description of Notes.”

As a result, under these circumstances we would be able to incur additional indebtedness and consummate transactions that may impair our ability to satisfy our obligations with respect to the Notes. In addition, we would not have to make certain offers to repurchase the Notes.

Changes in respect of the public debt ratings of the Notes may materially and adversely affect the availability, the cost and the terms and conditions of our debt.

The Notes will be, and any of our future debt instruments may be, publicly rated by Moody’s and S&P’s, independent rating agencies. These public debt ratings affect our ability to raise debt. Any future downgrading of the Notes or any other debt instruments we may have at such time by Moody’s or S&P’s may affect the cost and terms and conditions of our financings and could adversely affect the value and trading of the Notes.

You may face foreign exchange risks or adverse tax consequences by investing in the Notes.

The Notes will be denominated and payable in euros. If you measure your investment returns by reference to a currency other than euro, an investment in the Notes will entail foreign exchange related risks due to, among other factors, possible significant changes in the value of the euro relative to the currency by reference to which you measure the return on your investments, because of economic, political and other factors over which we have no control. Depreciation of the euro against the currency by reference to which you measure the return on your investments could cause a decrease in the effective yield of the Notes below their stated coupon rates and could result in a loss to you when the return on the Notes is translated into the currency by reference to which you measure the return on your investments. Investment in the Notes may also have important tax consequences as a result of any foreign currency exchange gains or losses. See “Tax Considerations.”

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS, LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL EXPENDITURES FOR THE ISSUER

Overview

The recent terror attacks in Europe in 2016 are having a negative impact on the travel sector and particularly international inbound travel into Europe. Specifically, we had negative revenue growth in our Europe operations of 5% in our inbound leisure business in the second quarter 2016 as compared to the second quarter of 2015, while we grew at 10% year over year in the first quarter of 2016 and 13% in the full year 2015. We expect the impact to continue in the third quarter 2016, our strongest quarter of the year, and negatively impact our full year 2016 operating results for Europe by approximately $10 million to $15 million, on a constant currency basis. Additionally, while it is too early to determine what, if any, impact, the United Kingdom’s vote in June 2016 to leave the European Union will have on our business, we will continue to monitor the situation.

We expect further revenue drivers to come from developing our European position in the leisure value market, in particular with the Firefly brand, and the full introduction of the Thrifty brand in The Netherlands, Belgium, Spain and France. We also continue to develop ancillary products to satisfy the rental needs of our customers, with our Hertz<sup>24/7</sup> vehicle sharing program being a key focus going forward. We intend to use our advanced in-vehicle technology to bring the vehicle rental experience closer to the customer. Our strategy to continue profitability improvement includes measures for further fleet cost reductions and pricing optimization as well as selected increases in franchise operations in low performing areas of individual European countries. We have targeted specific areas of business improvement with the assistance of external professionals and will continue to focus on rolling out these cost improvements and revenue generation projects.

The international car rental operations that generated the highest volumes of business from our company operated locations for the year ended December 31, 2015 were, in descending order of revenues, those conducted in France, the United Kingdom, Italy, Germany, Australia, Spain, New Zealand and The Netherlands. We also have company operated rental locations in Belgium, Luxembourg, the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

Revenue from our Europe Operations

Total revenue for the Issuer increased from $2,405 million to $2,444 million from the year ended December 31, 2013 to the year ended December 31, 2014, and decreased to $2,069 million in the year ended December 31, 2015. The increase from 2013 to 2014 was a result of higher volume while pricing environment stayed competitive. The decrease from 2014 to 2015 was a result of ongoing macro-economic challenges and subsequent reduction in the value of the euro versus the US dollar.

Total revenue for the Issuer decreased to $887 million from $983 million, a decrease of 10%, for the six months ended June 30, 2016 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2015, mainly due to the impact in exchange rates from Brexit, and reduction in volume as a result of the terrorist attacks particularly effecting our Long Haul and Commercial segments.

Liquidity and Capital Expenditures

Liquidity is managed on a company-wide basis. See “Item 2—Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources” contained in Hertz’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, which is incorporated by reference in this offering memorandum.

For the year ended December 31, 2015, the European business units (consisting of Hertz’s operations in the United Kingdom, France, The Netherlands, Germany, Italy, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Belgium and Luxembourg) had gross fleet capital expenditures of approximately $2.3 billion with the average net book value of the fleet being $1.7 billion for vehicles in Europe. For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the European business units had gross fleet capital expenditures of approximately $1.8 billion with the average net book value of the fleet being $1.7 billion for vehicles in Europe. Non-vehicle capital expenditures for the European business units were approximately $20 million in 2013, $16 million in 2014, $25 million in 2015, and $2.5 million in the first six months of 2016.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We expect to receive total gross proceeds of approximately €225 million ($249 million equivalent as of June 30, 2016) from the issuance of the Notes. Hertz intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance of the Notes, together with available cash, to repay amounts outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility and to finance European fleet operations.

Affiliates of certain of the Initial Purchasers are lenders under the Revolving Credit Facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the proceeds from this offering in the form of repayment thereof.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table shows, and the respective footnotes thereto further describe, Hertz's cash and cash equivalents and total capitalization as of June 30, 2016 on an actual basis and as adjusted to reflect (i) the redemption of our 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018 as described in footnote 2 to the table below, (ii) the issuance of the 5.50% Senior Notes due 2024 as described in footnote 3 to the table below and (iii) the issuance of the Notes offered hereby and the use of the gross proceeds therefrom as described in footnote 4 to the table below. This information should be read in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and the related notes appearing in Hertz's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (as amended by the Form 10-K/A filed March 4, 2016), and Hertz's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, which are incorporated by reference in this offering memorandum. - (2) Maturity reference is to the “expected final maturity date” as opposed to the subsequent “legal maturity date.” The expected final maturity date is the date by which Hertz and investors in the relevant indebtedness expect the relevant indebtedness to be repaid, which in the case of the HFLF Medium Term Notes was based upon various assumptions made at the time of the pricing of such notes. The legal final maturity date is the date on which the relevant indebtedness is legally due and payable.

The Company is highly leveraged and a substantial portion of its liquidity needs arise from debt service on its indebtedness and from the funding of its costs of operations, acquisitions and capital expenditures. The Company's practice is to maintain sufficient liquidity through cash from operations, credit facilities and other financing arrangements, to mitigate any adverse impact on its operations resulting from adverse financial market conditions.

In June 2016, the Company paid off its Senior Term Facility and refinanced certain vehicle debt, as further disclosed below, and wrote off $20 million in deferred financing costs.

Non-Vehicle Debt

Senior Facilities

In June 2016, in connection with the Spin-Off of the equipment rental business, the Senior Term Facility and the Senior ABL Facility were terminated.

Senior Facilities

In June 2016, in connection with the Spin-Off of the equipment rental business, Hertz, as parent borrower, entered into a credit agreement with respect to a new senior secured term facility (the "Senior Term Loan") and a new senior secured revolving credit facility (the "Senior RCF") and, together with the Senior Term Loan, (the "Senior Facilities"). At Hertz's option and subject to certain conditions, certain of Hertz's domestic subsidiaries may also become party to the Senior Facilities from time to time, as subsidiary borrowers. The Senior Facilities are comprised of a Senior Term Loan, with a $700 million initial principal balance, and a Senior RCF consisting of a $1.7 billion revolving credit facility, with a portion of the Senior RCF available for the issuance of letters of credit and the issuance of swing line loans. The proceeds from the issuance of the Senior Term Loan were subsequently used to redeem all of the outstanding 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018. Subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions and limitations, the Senior Facilities allow for the addition of incremental term and/or revolving loan commitments and incremental term and/or revolving loans.

The interest rate applicable to the loans under the Senior Term Loan is based on a floating rate (subject to a LIBOR floor of 0.75%) that varies depending on Hertz's consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio. The interest rates applicable to the loans under the Senior RCF are based on a floating rate that varies depending on Hertz's consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio and corporate ratings.

Senior Notes

In September 2010, Hertz issued $700 million aggregate principal amount of the 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018, in December 2010, Hertz issued $500 million aggregate principal amount of the 7.375% Senior Notes due 2021, in February 2011, Hertz issued $1,000 million aggregate principal amount of the 6.75% Senior Notes due 2019, and in March 2012, Hertz issued an additional $250 million aggregate principal amount of the 6.75% Senior Notes due 2019.

In October 2012, HDTFS, Inc., a newly-formed, wholly owned subsidiary of Hertz issued and sold $700 million aggregate principal amount of 5.875% Senior Notes due 2020 and $500 million aggregate principal amount of 6.250% Senior Notes due 2022 in a private offering. The gross proceeds of the offering were held in an escrow account until the date of the completion of the acquisition of Dollar Thrifty, at which time the gross proceeds of the offering were released from escrow and HDTFS, Inc. was merged into Hertz.

In March 2013, Hertz issued $250 million in aggregate principal amount of 4.25% Senior Notes due 2018. The proceeds of this March 2013 offering were used by Hertz to replenish a portion of its liquidity, after having dividended $467 million in available liquidity to Hertz Holdings, which was used to repurchase 23 million shares of Hertz Holdings common stock.

Hertz's obligations under the indentures for the Senior Notes are guaranteed by each of its direct and indirect U.S. subsidiaries that are guarantors under the Senior Term Facility. The guarantees of all of the Subsidiary Guarantors may be released to the extent such subsidiaries no longer guarantee the Company's Senior Facilities in the U.S.

In February 2013 and March 2013, the Company added Dollar Thrifty and certain of its subsidiaries as guarantors under certain of its debt instruments and credit facilities including the Senior Notes and in February 2014 and December 2015, the Company added Firefly Rent A Car LLC and Rental Car Group Company, LLC as guarantors under certain of its debt instruments and credit facilities, including the Senior Notes. On June 30, 2016, HERC, Cinelease Holdings, Inc., Cinelease, Inc., Cinelease, LLC and Hertz Entertainment Services Corporation were released from their guarantees of the outstanding Senior Notes in connection with the Spin-Off.

In July 2016, Hertz redeemed all of its outstanding 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018. The redemption price was equal to 101.875% of the principal amount of the 7.50% Senior Notes due 2018, plus accrued but unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption.

On September 8, 2016, Hertz entered into an agreement to sell $800 million aggregate principal amount of 5.50% 2024 Senior Notes in a private offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The offering is expected to close on or about September 22, 2016, subject to customary closing conditions. The 2024 Senior Notes will pay interest semi-annually in arrears. The 2024 Senior Notes will be guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the U.S. subsidiaries of Hertz that guarantee its senior credit facilities from time to time. Hertz intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance of the 2024 Senior Notes, together with available cash, to redeem $800 million in aggregate principal amount of its 6.75% Senior Notes due 2019.

The indentures for the Senior Notes contain covenants that, among other things, limit or restrict the ability of the Hertz credit group (as defined below) to incur additional indebtedness, incur guarantee obligations, prepay certain indebtedness, make certain restricted payments (including paying dividends, redeeming stock or making other distributions to parent entities of Hertz and other persons outside of the Hertz credit group), make investments, create liens, transfer or sell assets, merge or consolidate, and enter into certain transactions with Hertz's affiliates that are not members of the Hertz credit group. These covenants also restrict Hertz Holdings and certain of its subsidiaries from redeeming stock or making loans, advances, dividends, distributions or other restricted payments to any entity that is not a member of the Hertz credit group, subject to certain exceptions.

Promissory Notes

References to the Company's "Promissory Notes" relate to its promissory notes issued under three separate indentures prior to the acquisition of all of Hertz's common stock on December 21, 2005, by investment funds associated with or designated by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc., which was succeeded by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, LLC, The Carlyle Group and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc.

Vehicle Debt

For discussion of our vehicle debt (other than our Revolving Credit Facility and European Vehicle Notes, as described herein), see Note 6, "Debt," to our audited annual consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and Note 6, "Debt" to the interim unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2016, each of which is incorporated by reference into this offering memorandum.

Revolving Credit Facility and European Vehicle Notes

In June 2010, the Issuer entered into a credit agreement that provided for initial aggregate maximum borrowings of €220 million (subject to borrowing base availability) on a revolving basis under an asset-based revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility") and issued the 8.50% Senior Secured Notes due March 2015 (the "Former European Vehicle Notes") in an aggregate original principal amount of €400 million. References to the "European Vehicle Debt" include the Issuer's Revolving Credit Facility and the European Vehicle Notes, collectively.

In November 2013, the Issuer issued the 4.375% Senior Notes due January 2019 (the “European Vehicle Notes”) in an aggregate original principal amount of €425 million. Proceeds of the issuance of the European Vehicle Notes were used to redeem all of the then-outstanding Former European Vehicle Notes. Also, the Issuer amended and restated its Revolving Credit Facility. The amendments to the Revolving Credit Facility reflect, among other things, the redemption of the Former European Vehicle Notes and certain other updates that conform to the provisions of the Senior Facilities.

In July 2014, the Issuer amended the Revolving Credit Facility to provide for aggregate maximum borrowings of up to the equivalent of an additional €120 million, subject to borrowing base availability, for a seasonal commitment period through December 2014.

In October 2014, the Issuer entered into an amendment agreement pursuant to which certain terms of the Revolving Credit Facility were amended to provide for, among other things, (i) an extension of the maturity of the Revolving Credit Facility from June 2015 to October 2017 and (ii) an increase in aggregate maximum borrowings available under the Revolving Credit Facility from €220 million to €250 million (subject to borrowing base availability).

In May 2015, the Issuer amended the Revolving Credit Facility to provide for aggregate maximum borrowings of up to €340 million during the peak season, subject to borrowing base availability, for a seasonal commitment period through December 2015.

The European Vehicle Debt is the primary fleet financing for the Company’s vehicle rental operations in Germany, Italy, Spain, Belgium, New Zealand and Luxembourg and finances a portion of its assets in the United Kingdom, France and The Netherlands, and may be expanded to provide fleet financing in Australia, Canada, France, The Netherlands and Switzerland.

The agreements governing the Revolving Credit Facility and the indenture governing the European Vehicle Notes contain covenants that apply to the Hertz credit group similar to those for the Senior Notes. The terms of the European Vehicle Debt permit the Issuer to incur additional indebtedness that would be pari passu with either the Revolving Credit Facility or the European Vehicle Notes.

In June 2016, HHN BV amended the Revolving Credit Facility to provide for aggregate maximum borrowings (subject to borrowing base availability) of up to €340 million during the peak season, for a seasonal commitment period through December 2016. Following the expiration of the seasonal commitment period, aggregate maximum borrowings available under the Revolving Credit Facility will revert to up to €250 million (subject to borrowing base availability).

Cash Restrictions

Certain amounts of cash and cash equivalents are restricted for the purchase of revenue earning vehicles and other specified uses under the Vehicle Debt facilities and the Like-Kind Exchange Program (“LKE Program”). As of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the portion of total restricted cash and cash equivalents that was associated with the Vehicle Debt facilities was $272 million and $289 million, respectively. Restricted cash balances fluctuate based on the timing of purchases and sales of revenue earning vehicles and could also be impacted by the occurrence of an amortization event (an event that results in the amortization of indebtedness prior to its expected maturity).

Borrowing Capacity and Availability

Borrowing capacity and availability comes from the Company’s “revolving credit facilities,” which are a combination of variable funding asset-backed securitization facilities, cash-flow-based revolving credit facilities and asset-based revolving credit facilities. Creditors under each such asset-backed securitization facility and asset-based revolving credit facility have a claim on a specific pool of assets as collateral. The Company’s ability to borrow under each such asset-backed securitization facility and asset-based revolving credit facility is a function of, among other things, the value of the assets in the relevant collateral pool. With respect to each such asset-backed securitization facility and asset-based revolving credit facility, the Company refers to the amount of debt it can borrow given a certain pool of assets as the borrowing base.

The Company refers to “Remaining Capacity” as the maximum principal amount of debt permitted to be outstanding under the respective facility (i.e., with respect to a variable funding asset-backed securitization facility or asset-based revolving credit facility, the amount of debt we could borrow assuming we possessed sufficient assets as collateral) less the principal amount of debt then-outstanding under such facility. With respect to a variable funding asset-backed securitization facility or asset-based revolving credit facility, the Company refers to “Availability Under Borrowing Base Limitation” as the lower of Remaining Capacity or the borrowing base less the principal amount of debt then-outstanding under such facility (i.e., the amount of debt that can be borrowed given the collateral possessed at such time). With respect to the Senior RCF, “Availability Under Borrowing Base Limitation” is the same as “Remaining Capacity” since borrowings under the Senior RCF are not subject to a borrowing base.

As of June 30, 2016, the following facilities were available to the Company:

(In millions)	Remaining Capacity	Availability Under Borrowing Base Limitation
Non-Vehicle Debt

Letters of Credit

As of June 30, 2016, there were outstanding standby letters of credit totaling $618 million. Such letters of credit have been issued primarily to support the Company’s vehicle rental concessions and leaseholds and its insurance programs as well as to provide credit enhancement for its asset-backed securitization facilities. Of this amount $606 million was issued under the Senior RCF, which has a $1 billion letter of credit sublimit, resulting in $394 million of availability under such sublimit. As of June 30, 2016, none of the letters of credit have been drawn upon.

Special Purpose Entities

Substantially all of the revenue earning vehicles and certain related assets are owned by special purpose entities, or are encumbered in favor of the lenders under the various credit facilities, other secured financings and asset-backed securities programs. None of such assets (including the assets owned by Hertz Vehicle Financing II LP, Hertz Vehicle Financing LLC, Rental Car Finance LLC, DNRS II LLC, HFLF, Donlen Trust and various international subsidiaries that facilitate the Company’s international securitizations) are available to satisfy the claims of general creditors.

Some of these special purpose entities are consolidated variable interest entities, of which the Company is the primary beneficiary, whose sole purpose is to provide commitments to lend in various currencies subject to borrowing bases comprised of revenue earning vehicles and related assets of certain of Hertz International, Ltd.’s subsidiaries. As of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the Company’s International Fleet Financing No. 1 B.V., International Fleet Financing No. 2 B.V. and HA Funding Pty, Ltd. variable interest entities had total assets of $619 million and $418 million, respectively, primarily comprised of loans receivable and revenue earning vehicles, and total liabilities of $619 million and $418 million, respectively, primarily comprised of debt.

Financial Covenant Compliance

The Company refers to Hertz and its subsidiaries as the Hertz credit group. The indentures for the Senior Notes contain covenants that, among other things, limit or restrict the ability of the Hertz credit group to incur additional indebtedness, incur guarantee obligations, prepay certain indebtedness, make certain restricted payments (including paying dividends, redeeming stock or making other distributions to parent entities of Hertz and other persons outside of the Hertz credit group), make investments, create liens, transfer or sell assets, merge or consolidate, and enter into certain transactions with Hertz’s affiliates that are not members of the Hertz credit group.

Certain other debt instruments and credit facilities (including the Senior Facilities) contain a number of covenants that, among other things, limit or restrict the ability of the borrowers and the guarantors to dispose of assets, incur additional indebtedness, incur guarantee obligations, prepay certain indebtedness, make certain restricted payments (including paying dividends, share repurchases or making other distributions), create liens, make investments, make acquisitions, engage in mergers, fundamentally change the nature of their business or engage in certain transactions with certain affiliates.

The Senior RCF contains a financial maintenance covenant, which is a maximum consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio, as defined in the Senior RCF, and is only applicable to the Senior RCF. Hertz’s consolidated total net corporate leverage ratio as of the last day of any fiscal quarter, commencing with September 30, 2016, may not exceed the ratios indicated below:

Fiscal Quarter(s) Ending	Maximum Ratio

See “Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Notes—The Guarantees of the Notes, along with any future Guarantees of the Notes, will be subject to certain limitations on enforcement and may be limited by applicable law or subject to certain defenses that may limit their validity and enforceability, including fraudulent transfer and conveyance statutes.” and “Limitations on Validity and Enforceability of the Guarantees and Certain Insolvency Law Considerations.”

The Notes offered hereby will be issued initially in an aggregate principal amount of €225 million. Additional securities may be issued under the Indenture in one or more series from time to time (as more particularly defined in the Indenture, “Additional Notes”), which will vote as a single class with the Notes (except as otherwise provided herein) and otherwise be treated as Notes for purposes of the Indenture. The Indenture will permit the Issuer to designate the maturity date, interest rate and optional redemption provisions applicable to each series of Additional Notes, which may differ from the maturity date, interest rate and optional redemption provisions applicable to the initial Notes issued on the Issue Date. The Issuer similarly will be entitled to vary the application of certain other provisions to any series of Additional Notes.

Other Terms

Principal of, and premium, if any, and interest and Additional Amounts (as defined under “—Additional Amounts” below), if any, on the Notes will be payable, and the Notes may be exchanged or transferred, at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purposes (which initially shall be the designated office of the Paying Agent for payments of principal, premium, if any, interest and Additional Amounts, if any, and the Registrar for transfers and exchanges), except that, at the option of the Issuer, payment of interest may be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated to the Issuer by the Noteholder entitled thereto or by check sent to the address of the registered Holders of the Notes as such address appears in the applicable note register required to be kept pursuant to the Indenture (the “Note Register”).

The Notes offered hereby will be issued in the form of global notes that will be deposited upon issuance with the Trustee as custodian for The Depository Trust Company, and purchasers of Notes will not receive or be entitled to receive physical certificated Notes (except in the very limited circumstances described herein). The Notes will be issued only in fully registered form, without coupons. The Notes will be issued only in minimum denominations of €100,000 (the “Minimum Denomination”) and any integral multiple of €1,000 in excess thereof.

We may at any time and from time to time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise.

The Issuer has applied to list the Notes on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and admit the Notes to trading on the Euro MTF of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (the “Euro MTF”).

Paying Agent and Registrar for the Notes

The Issuer will maintain one or more paying agents (each, a “Paying Agent”) for the Notes in (i) London, United Kingdom and (ii) Luxembourg, for so long as the Notes are listed on the Euro MTF, but only if the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange so require (which, as of the date of this offering memorandum, they do not). The initial sole Paying Agent will be Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch in London.

The Issuer will also maintain one or more registrars (each, a “Registrar”) with offices in Luxembourg for so long as the Notes are listed on the Euro MTF. The Issuer will also maintain a transfer agent in Luxembourg. The initial Registrar will be Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. The initial transfer agent will be Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. The current address of Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. is 2, boulevard Konrad Adenauer, L 1115 Luxembourg. The Registrar, transfer agent and Paying Agent, as applicable, will maintain a register reflecting ownership of Physical Notes outstanding from time to time and will make payments on and facilitate transfers of Physical Notes on behalf of the Issuer.

The Issuer may change the Paying Agent, the Registrar or the transfer agent without prior notice to the Holders. For so long as the Notes are listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and admitted for trading on the Euro MTF and the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange so require, the Issuer will publish a notice of any change of Paying Agent, Registrar or transfer agent in a newspaper having a general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or, to the extent and in the manner permitted by such rules, post such notice on the official website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Optional Redemption

The Notes offered hereby will be redeemable, at the Issuer’s option, at any time prior to maturity at varying redemption prices in accordance with the applicable provisions set forth below.

The Notes will be redeemable, at the Issuer’s option, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time on and after October 15, 2018, and prior to maturity thereof at the applicable redemption price set forth below. The Notes will be so redeemable at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount), plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the relevant Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date), if redeemed during the 12-month period commencing on October 15, 2018 of the years set forth below:

Redemption Period	Price
2018.....	102.063%
2019.....	101.031%
2020 and thereafter.....	100.00%

In addition, the Indenture will provide that at any time and from time to time on or prior to October 15, 2018, the Issuer at its option may redeem the Notes offered hereby in an aggregate principal amount equal to up to 40.0% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Notes (including the principal amount of any Additional Notes of the same series), with funds in an aggregate amount (the “Redemption Amount”) not exceeding the aggregate proceeds of one or more Equity Offerings (as defined below), at a redemption price (expressed as a percentage of principal amount thereof) of 104.125%, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date); provided, however, that if the Notes are redeemed pursuant to this paragraph, an aggregate principal amount of the Notes equal to at least 50.0% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Notes (including the principal amount of any Additional Notes of the same series) must remain outstanding immediately after each such redemption of the Notes. Any amount payable in any such redemption may be funded from any source (including amounts in excess of the Redemption Amount). Any notice of any such redemption may be given prior to the completion of the related Equity Offering, but in no event may be given more than 180 days after the completion of the related Equity Offering. “Equity Offering” means a sale of Capital Stock (x) that is a sale of Capital Stock of the Parent Guarantor (other than Disqualified Stock), or (y) proceeds of which, in an amount equal to or exceeding the Redemption Amount, are contributed to the equity capital of the Parent Guarantor and/or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries.

In addition, the Issuer (or any other Person), at the Issuer’s option, may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part at any time prior to October 15, 2018, at a redemption price (the “Redemption Price”) equal to 100.0% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus the Applicable Premium (as defined below) as of, and accrued but unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date).

“Applicable Premium” means, with respect to a Note at any Redemption Date, the greater of (i) 1.0% of the principal amount of such Note and (ii) the excess of (A) the present value at such Redemption Date, calculated as of the date of the applicable redemption notice, of (1) the redemption price of such Note on October 15, 2018 (such redemption price being that described in the second paragraph of this “Optional Redemption” section) plus (2) all required remaining scheduled interest payments due on such Note through such date (excluding accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date), computed using a discount rate equal to the Bund Rate plus 50 basis points, over (B) the principal amount of such Note on such Redemption Date, as calculated by the Issuer or on behalf of the Issuer by such Person as the Issuer shall designate; provided that such calculation shall not be a duty or obligation of the Trustee or Paying Agent.

“Bund Rate” means, with respect to a Redemption Date, the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity as of such date of the Comparable German Bund Issue, assuming a price for the Comparable German Bund Issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Comparable German Bund Price for such Redemption Date, where:

(1) “Comparable German Bund Issue” means the German Bundesanleihe security selected by any Reference German Bund Dealer as having a fixed maturity most nearly equal to the period from such Redemption Date to October 15, 2018 and that (in the good faith judgment of the Issuer, which shall be conclusive) would be utilized at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of euro-denominated corporate debt securities in a principal amount approximately equal to the then outstanding principal amount of the Notes and of a maturity most nearly equal to October 15, 2018; provided, however, that, if the period from such Redemption Date to October 15, 2018 is not equal to the fixed maturity of the German Bundesanleihe security selected by such Reference German Bund Dealer, the Bund Rate shall be determined by linear interpolation (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth of a year) from the yields of German Bundesanleihe securities for which such yields are given, except that if the period from such Redemption Date to October 15, 2018 is less than one year, a fixed maturity of one year shall be used;

(2) “Comparable German Bund Price” means, with respect to any Redemption Date, the average of all Reference German Bund Dealer Quotations for such date (which, in any event, must include at least two such quotations), after excluding the highest and lowest such Reference German Bund Dealer Quotations, or if the Issuer obtains fewer than four such Reference German Bund Dealer Quotations, the average of all such quotations;

(3) “Reference German Bund Dealer” means any dealer of German Bundesanleihe securities appointed by the Issuer in good faith; and

(4) “Reference German Bund Dealer Quotations” means, with respect to each Reference German Bund Dealer and any Redemption Date, the average as determined by the Issuer in good faith of the bid and offered prices for the Comparable German Bund Issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the Issuer by such Reference German Bund Dealer at 3.30 p.m. Frankfurt am Main, Germany, time on a day no earlier than the third Business Day preceding the date of the delivery of the redemption notice in respect of such Redemption Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with any tender for any series of Notes, if Holders of not less than 90.0% in the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes of such series validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in such tender offer and the Issuer, or any other Person making such tender offer, purchases all of the Notes of such series validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuer will have the right, upon notice given not more than 30 days following such purchase pursuant to such tender offer, to redeem all of the Notes of such series that remain outstanding following such purchase at a price in cash equal to the price offered to each Holder in such tender offer, plus, to the extent not included in the tender offer payment, accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date).

Any redemption of Notes may be made upon notice sent electronically or, at the Issuer’s option, mailed by first class mail to each Holder’s registered address, not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date, except that a redemption notice (other than pursuant to the preceding paragraph) may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if such notice is issued in connection with legal or covenant defeasance of the Issuer’s obligations or a satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture, or if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided for in the following paragraph. The Issuer may provide in any redemption notice that the payment of the redemption price and the performance of the Issuer’s obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Any redemption of Notes (including in connection with an Equity Offering) or notice thereof may, at the Issuer’s discretion, be subject to the satisfaction (or, waiver by the Issuer in its sole discretion) of one or more conditions precedent, which may include consummation of any related Equity Offering or the occurrence of a Change of Control or a Change of Control Triggering Event. If such redemption or notice is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice may state that, in the Issuer’s discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been (or, in the Issuer’s sole determination, may not be) satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion) by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed.

Redemption for Changes in Taxes

The Issuer may redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at its discretion at any time upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days’ prior notice to the Holders (which notice will be irrevocable and given in accordance with the procedures described in “—Selection and Notice”), at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date fixed by the Issuer for redemption (a “Tax Redemption Date”) (subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Tax Redemption Date in respect thereof), if the Issuer determines that the relevant Payor (defined below) is, or on the next interest payment date with respect to the Notes, would be, required to pay Additional Amounts (but if the relevant Payor is a Guarantor, then only if the payment giving rise to such requirement cannot be made by the Issuer or another Guarantor without the obligation to pay Additional Amounts), and the relevant Payor cannot avoid any such payment obligation by taking reasonable measures available to it (including making payment through a Paying Agent located in another jurisdiction), as a result of:

(a) any change in, or amendment to, the laws or treaties (or any regulations, or rulings promulgated thereunder) of a Tax Jurisdiction (as defined below) affecting taxation; or

(b) any change in, or amendment to, the existing official position regarding the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, treaties, regulations or rulings (including a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction or a change in published practice) (each of the foregoing in clauses (a) and (b), a “Change in Tax Law”).

The Change in Tax Law must become effective on or after the date of the Indenture (or, if the Tax Jurisdiction has become a Tax Jurisdiction after the date of the Indenture, the date on which the Tax Jurisdiction became a Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture). The Issuer will not give any such notice of redemption earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the relevant Payor would be obligated to make such payment of Additional Amounts. Prior to the publication or, where relevant, sending of any notice of redemption of the Notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an opinion of independent counsel of recognized standing reasonably acceptable to the Trustee and the Paying Agent to the effect that there has been such change or amendment which would entitle the Issuer to redeem the Notes hereunder. The Trustee and the Paying Agent shall accept and be entitled to rely on such Officer's Certificate and opinion of counsel as sufficient evidence of satisfaction of the conditions precedent described above in which event it will be conclusive and binding on all Holders.

Selection and Notice

In the case of any partial redemption, selection of the Notes for redemption will be made in compliance with the procedures and requirements of the depositories and in compliance with the requirements of the relevant securities exchange, if any, or if the Notes are not so listed or the principal securities exchange prescribes no method of selection and the Notes are not held through a depository or the depositories prescribes no method of selection, then selection of the Notes for redemption will be made by the Trustee on a pro rata basis, by lot or by such other method as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer, in integral multiples of €1,000, although no Note less than the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount will be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption relating to such Note shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. A new Note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Note. The Trustee shall not be liable for selections made in accordance with this paragraph (or if the Note is a global note, an adjustment shall be made to the schedule attached thereto).

For Notes which are represented by global certificates held on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, notices may be given by delivery of the relevant notices to Euroclear or Clearstream for communication to entitled account holders in substitution for the aforesaid mailing. So long as any Notes are listed on the Euro MTF and the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange so require, any such notice to the Holders of the relevant Notes shall also be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or, to the extent and in the manner permitted by such rules, post such notice on the official website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu), and, in connection with any redemption, the Issuer will notify the Luxembourg Stock Exchange of any change in the principal amount of Notes outstanding.

Guarantees and Release of Guarantors

The Notes will be guaranteed by each of the Guarantors. In addition, the Parent Guarantor will cause, subject to certain limitations, each Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor that becomes a guarantor of the Senior Credit Facility or the Revolving Credit Facility to execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which such Restricted Subsidiary will guarantee payment of the Notes, whereupon such Restricted Subsidiary will become a Subsidiary Guarantor for all purposes under the Indenture. In addition, the Parent Guarantor may, at its option, cause any Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor to so guarantee payment of the Notes and become a Subsidiary Guarantor.

Each Guarantor, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, will jointly and severally, irrevocably and fully and unconditionally Guarantee, on an unsecured senior basis, the punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by such Guarantors being herein called the "Guaranteed Obligations"). Such Guarantor will agree to pay, in addition to the amount stated above, any and all reasonable out of pocket expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee or the Holders in enforcing any rights under its Guarantee.

The obligations of each Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Guarantor (including any Guarantee by it of any Credit Facility Indebtedness), and after giving effect to any collections from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under its Guarantee or pursuant to its contribution obligations under the Indenture, result in the obligations of such Guarantor under the Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law, a breach of applicable capital preservation rule, or being void or unenforceable under any law relating to insolvency of debtors. See "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Notes—The Guarantees of the Notes, along with any future Guarantees of the Notes, will be subject to certain limitations on enforcement and may be limited by applicable law or subject to certain defenses that may limit their validity and enforceability, including fraudulent transfer and conveyance statutes" and "Limitations on Validity and Enforceability of the Guarantees and Certain Insolvency Law Considerations."

Each such Guarantee shall be a continuing Guarantee and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until payment in full of the principal amount of all outstanding Notes (whether by payment at maturity, purchase, redemption, defeasance, retirement or other acquisition) and all other Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing unless earlier terminated as described below, (ii) be binding upon such Guarantor and (iii) inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Trustee, the Holders and their permitted successors, transferees and assigns.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, any Subsidiary Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released from all obligations under its Guarantee, and such Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect, (i) concurrently with any direct or indirect sale or disposition (by merger or otherwise) of any such Subsidiary Guarantor or any interest therein, or any other transaction, in accordance with the terms of the Indenture (including the covenants described under “—Certain Covenants—Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock” and “—Merger and Consolidation”) following which such Subsidiary Guarantor is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor, (ii) at any time that any such Subsidiary Guarantor is (or, substantially concurrently with the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor or if as a result of the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor, will be) released from all of its obligations under its Guarantee of payment by the Parent Guarantor of any Indebtedness under the Senior Credit Facility and by the Issuer of any Indebtedness under the Revolving Credit Facility, and any applicable Refinancing Credit Facility (it being understood that a release subject to contingent reinstatement is still a release, and that if any such Guarantee is so reinstated, such Subsidiary Guarantee shall also be reinstated to the extent that such Subsidiary Guarantor would then be required to provide a Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to the covenant described under “—Certain Covenants—Future Subsidiary Guarantors”), (iii) upon the merger or consolidation of any such Subsidiary Guarantor with and into the Issuer or another Guarantor that is the surviving Person in such merger or consolidation, or upon the liquidation of such Subsidiary Guarantor following the transfer of all of its assets to the Issuer or another Guarantor, (iv) concurrently with any such Subsidiary Guarantor becoming an Unrestricted Subsidiary, (v) at any time after the Termination Date (as defined below under “—Certain Covenants—Termination of Certain Covenants”), upon the merger or consolidation of any Subsidiary Guarantor with and into another Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor that is not the Issuer or a Guarantor with such other Subsidiary being the surviving Person in such merger or consolidation, or upon liquidation of such Subsidiary Guarantor following the transfer of all of its assets to a Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor, (vi) upon legal or covenant defeasance of the Issuer’s obligations, or satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture, or (vii) subject to customary contingent reinstatement provisions, upon payment in full of the aggregate principal amount of all Notes then outstanding and all other Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing. In addition, the Issuer will have the right, upon 10 days’ written notice to the Trustee (or such shorter period as agreed to by the Trustee in its sole discretion), to cause any Subsidiary Guarantor that has not guaranteed payment by the Parent Guarantor of any Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor under the Senior Credit Facility or payment by the Issuer of any Indebtedness of the Issuer under the Revolving Credit Facility to be unconditionally released from all obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect. Upon any such occurrence specified in this paragraph, the Trustee shall execute any documents reasonably requested by the Issuer or the Parent Guarantor in order to evidence such release, discharge and termination in respect of such Subsidiary Guarantee.

Neither the Issuer nor any such Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any such Guarantee or any such release, termination or discharge.

Ranking

The indebtedness evidenced by the Notes (a) will be unsecured Senior Indebtedness of the Issuer, (b) will rank pari passu in right of payment with all existing and future Senior Indebtedness of the Issuer, and (c) will be senior in right of payment to all existing and future Subordinated Obligations of the Issuer. The Notes will also be effectively subordinated to all secured Indebtedness and other secured obligations of the Issuer to the extent of the value of the assets securing such secured Indebtedness or other secured obligations, and to all Indebtedness and other obligations (including Trade Payables) of the Issuer’s Subsidiaries (other than any Subsidiaries that are or become Subsidiary Guarantors pursuant to the provisions described above under “—Guarantees and Release of Guarantors”).

Each Guarantee in respect of Notes (a) will be unsecured Senior Indebtedness of the applicable Guarantor, (b) will rank pari passu in right of payment with all existing and future Senior Indebtedness of such Guarantor and (c) will be senior in right of payment to all existing and future Subordinated Obligations of the Parent Guarantor and Guarantor Subordinated Obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor. Such Guarantee will also be effectively subordinated to all secured Indebtedness and other secured obligations of such Guarantor to the extent of the value of the assets securing such secured Indebtedness or other secured obligations, and to all Indebtedness and other obligations (including Trade Payables) of the Subsidiaries of such Guarantor (other than the Issuer and Subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor that are or become Subsidiary Guarantors pursuant to the provisions described above under “—Guarantees and Release of Guarantors”).

A substantial part of the operations of the Parent Guarantor is conducted through its Subsidiaries. Claims of creditors of such Subsidiaries, including trade creditors, and claims of preferred shareholders (if any) of such Subsidiaries will have priority with respect to the assets and earnings of such Subsidiaries over the claims of creditors of the Parent Guarantor, including Holders of the Notes, unless such Subsidiary is the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor. The Notes, therefore, will be effectively subordinated to creditors (including trade creditors) and preferred shareholders (if any) of other Subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor (other than the Issuer and Subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor that are or become Subsidiary Guarantors). Certain of the operations of a Guarantor may be conducted through Subsidiaries thereof that are not also Guarantors. Claims of creditors of such Subsidiaries, including trade creditors, and claims of preferred shareholders (if any) of such Subsidiaries will have priority with respect to the assets and earnings of such Subsidiaries over the claims of creditors of such Guarantor, including claims under its Guarantee. Such Guarantee, if any, therefore, will be effectively subordinated to creditors (including trade creditors) and preferred shareholders (if any) of such Subsidiaries. Although the Indenture will limit the incurrence of secured Indebtedness (including preferred stock) by certain of the Parent Guarantor's Subsidiaries, such limitation is subject to a number of significant qualifications.

Change of Control Triggering Event

Upon the occurrence after the Issue Date of a Change of Control Triggering Event (as defined below), each Holder of Notes will have the right to require the Issuer to repurchase all or any part of such Notes at a purchase price in cash equal to 101.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of repurchase (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the repurchase date); provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be obligated to repurchase Notes pursuant to this covenant in the event that it has exercised its right to redeem all of the Notes as described under “—Optional Redemption.”

The term “Change of Control Triggering Event” means the occurrence of both a Change of Control and a Rating Event.

The term “Change of Control” means:

(i) any “person” (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than one or more Permitted Holders or a Parent, becomes the “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rules 13d 3 and 13d 5 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the Parent Guarantor, provided that so long as the Parent Guarantor is a Subsidiary of any Parent, no “person” shall be deemed to be or become a “beneficial owner” of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the Parent Guarantor unless such “person” shall be or become a “beneficial owner” of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of such Parent (other than a Parent that is a Subsidiary of another Parent);

(ii) the Parent Guarantor sells or transfers (in one or a series of related transactions) all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries to another Person (other than one or more Permitted Holders) and any “person” (as defined in clause (i) above), other than one or more Permitted Holders or any Parent, is or becomes the “beneficial owner” (as so defined), directly or indirectly, of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the transferee Person in such sale or transfer of assets, as the case may be; provided that so long as such transferee Person is a Subsidiary of a parent Person, no “person” shall be deemed to be or become a “beneficial owner” of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of such surviving or transferee Person unless such “person” shall be or become a “beneficial owner” of more than 50.0% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of such parent Person (other than a parent Person that is a Subsidiary of another parent Person); or

(iii) if at any time the Parent Guarantor shall fail to directly or indirectly own 100% of the issued and outstanding Capital Stock of the Issuer or otherwise cease to control the Issuer other than pursuant to a transaction under the covenant described under “—Merger and Consolidation” where the Parent Guarantor directly or indirectly owns 100% of the issued and outstanding Capital Stock of the Successor Issuer (as defined under the second paragraph of “—Merger and Consolidation” below) and otherwise controls the Successor Issuer.

For the purpose of this definition, the Reorganization Assets (whether individually or in the aggregate) shall not be deemed at any time to constitute all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries, and any sale or transfer of all or any part of the Reorganization Assets (whether directly or indirectly, whether by sale or transfer of any such assets, or of any Capital Stock or other interest in any Person holding such assets, or of any combination thereof, and whether in one or more transactions, or otherwise) shall not be deemed at any time to constitute a sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

The term “Rating Event” means a decrease of one or more gradations (including gradations within rating categories as well as between rating categories and excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, changes in ratings outlook) in the rating of the applicable series of Notes by both Rating Agencies or a withdrawal of the rating of the Notes of such series by both Rating Agencies on, or within 30 days following, the earlier of (x) the occurrence of a Change of Control or (y) the date of public announcement of the occurrence of a Change of Control or of the intention by the Parent Guarantor to effect a Change of Control, which period shall be extended for a period not longer than 30 days so long as the rating of the applicable series of Notes relating to the Change of Control is under publicly announced consideration for downgrade by the applicable Rating Agency; provided, however, that a downgrade of the applicable series of Notes by the applicable Rating Agency shall not be deemed to have occurred in respect of a particular Change of Control (and thus shall not be deemed a downgrade for purposes of this definition of Change of Control Triggering Event) if such Rating Agency making the downgrade in rating does not publicly announce or confirm or inform the Parent Guarantor or the Trustee in writing at the request of the Parent Guarantor that the downgrade is a result of the transactions constituting or occurring simultaneously with the applicable Change of Control (whether or not the applicable Change of Control has occurred at the time of such downgrade).

In the event that, at the time of such Change of Control Triggering Event, the terms of any Credit Facility Indebtedness constituting Designated Senior Indebtedness restrict or prohibit the repurchase of the Notes pursuant to this covenant, then prior to the sending of the notice to Holders provided for in the immediately following paragraph but in any event not later than 30 days following the date the Issuer or the Parent Guarantor obtains actual knowledge of any Change of Control Triggering Event having occurred (unless the Issuer has exercised its right to redeem all the Notes as described under “—Optional Redemption”), the Parent Guarantor shall, or shall cause one or more of its Subsidiaries to, (i) repay in full all such Credit Facility Indebtedness subject to such terms or offer to repay in full all such Credit Facility Indebtedness and repay the Credit Facility Indebtedness of each lender who has accepted such offer or (ii) obtain the requisite consent under the agreements governing such Credit Facility Indebtedness to permit the repurchase of the Notes as provided for in the immediately following paragraph. The Parent Guarantor shall first comply with the provisions of the immediately preceding sentence before the Issuer shall be required to repurchase Notes pursuant to the provisions described below. The Parent Guarantor’s or the Issuer’s failure to comply with such provisions or the provisions of the immediately following paragraph, as applicable, shall constitute an Event of Default described in clause (iv) and not in clause (ii) under “—Defaults” below.

Unless the Issuer has exercised its right to redeem all the Notes as described under “—Optional Redemption,” the Issuer shall, not later than 30 days following the date the Issuer or the Parent Guarantor obtains actual knowledge of any Change of Control Triggering Event having occurred, send a notice (a “Change of Control Offer”) to each Holder with a copy to the Trustee and the Paying Agent stating: (1) that a Change of Control Triggering Event has occurred or may occur and that such Holder has, or upon such occurrence will have, the right to require the Issuer to repurchase such Holder’s Notes at a purchase price in cash equal to 101.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of repurchase (subject to the right of Holders of record on a record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the repurchase date); (2) the repurchase date (which shall be no earlier than 10 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is sent, except that such notice may be sent more than 60 days prior to the repurchase date if the repurchase date is delayed as provided in clause (4) of this paragraph); (3) the instructions determined by the Issuer, consistent with this covenant, that a Holder must follow in order to have its Notes repurchased; and (4) if such notice is sent prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, that such offer is conditioned on the occurrence of such Change of Control Triggering Event and that the repurchase date may, in the Issuer’s discretion, be delayed until such time as the Change of Control Triggering Event has occurred. No Note will be repurchased in part if less than the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount of such Note would be left outstanding.

The Issuer will not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control Triggering Event if a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture applicable to a Change of Control Offer made by the Issuer and purchases all Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn under such Change of Control Offer.

A Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control Triggering Event, conditional upon such Change of Control Triggering Event. If we, or any third party making a Change of Control Offer in lieu of a Change of Control Offer made by us, purchase on or after the date of consummation of the Change of Control all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn under such tender, we will have satisfied our obligations to make a Change of Control Offer regardless as to whether or not a Change of Control Triggering Event subsequently occurs.

If Holders of not less than 90.0% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes of any series validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in a Change of Control Offer, and the Issuer, or any third party making a Change of Control Offer in lieu of the Issuer as described in the immediately preceding paragraph, purchases all of the Notes of such series, validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuer or such third party will have the right, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 30 days following such purchase pursuant to such Change of Control Offer, to redeem all Notes of such series that remain outstanding following such purchase at a purchase price in cash equal to 101.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to but excluding the date of such redemption (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date).

The Issuer will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this covenant. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this covenant, the Issuer will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will be deemed not to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue thereof.

The Change of Control Triggering Event purchase feature is a result of negotiations between the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor and the initial purchasers of the Notes. The Parent Guarantor has no present plans to engage in a transaction involving a Change of Control, although it is possible that the Parent Guarantor could decide to do so in the future. Subject to the limitations discussed below, the Parent Guarantor could, in the future, enter into certain transactions, including acquisitions, refinancings or recapitalizations, that would not constitute a Change of Control under the Indenture, but that could increase the amount of Indebtedness outstanding at such time or otherwise affect the Parent Guarantor's capital structure or credit ratings. Restrictions on the ability of the Parent Guarantor to Incur additional secured Indebtedness are contained in the covenant described under "—Certain Covenants—Limitation on Liens." Any such restriction can be waived with only the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding. Except for the limitations contained in such covenant, however, the Indenture will not contain any covenants or provisions that may afford Holders protection in the event of a highly leveraged transaction.

The occurrence of a Change of Control would constitute a default under the Senior Credit Agreement and under the Revolving Credit Facility. Agreements governing other Indebtedness of the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor or Restricted Subsidiaries may contain prohibitions of certain events that would constitute a Change of Control or require such Indebtedness to be repurchased or repaid upon a Change of Control. The agreements governing other Indebtedness of the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor or Restricted Subsidiaries, including the Senior Credit Agreement and the Revolving Credit Facility, may prohibit the Issuer from repurchasing the Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event unless the Indebtedness governed by such agreements has been repurchased or repaid (or an offer made to effect such repurchase or repayment has been made and the Indebtedness of those creditors accepting such offer has been repurchased or repaid) and/or other specified requirements have been met. Moreover, the exercise by the Holders of their right to require the Issuer to repurchase the Notes could cause a default under such agreements, even if the Change of Control itself does not, due to the financial effect of such repurchase on the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor or their Subsidiaries. Finally, the Parent Guarantor's ability to pay cash to the Holders upon a repurchase may be limited by the Parent Guarantor's then existing financial resources. There can be no assurance that sufficient funds will be available when necessary to make any required repurchases. The provisions under the Indenture relating to the Issuer's obligation to make an offer to purchase the Notes as a result of a Change of Control Triggering Event may be waived or modified with the written consent of the Holders of only a majority in principal amount of the Notes. As described above under "—Optional Redemption," the Issuer also has the right to redeem the Notes at specified prices, in whole or in part, upon a Change of Control Triggering Event or otherwise.

The definition of Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the sale or other transfer of "all or substantially all" of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries. Although there is a developing body of case law interpreting the phrase "substantially all," there is no precise definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, in certain circumstances, there may be a degree of uncertainty in ascertaining whether a particular transaction would involve a disposition of "all or substantially all" of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries and therefore it may be unclear as to whether a Change of Control has occurred and whether the Holders of the Notes have the right to require the Issuer to repurchase such Notes.

If and for so long as the Notes are listed on the Euro MTF and the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange so require, the Issuer will publish notices relating to the Change of Control Offer in a leading newspaper of general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or, to the extent and in the manner permitted by such rules, post such notice on the official website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Additional Amounts

All payments made by the Issuer under or with respect to the Notes (whether or not in the form of Physical Notes) or any of the Guarantors (each, a “Payor”) on its Guarantee will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the Issuer or any Guarantor (including any successor entity) is then incorporated, organized, engaged in business, or resident for tax purposes or any political subdivision thereof or therein or any jurisdiction by or through which payment is made by the Issuer or any Guarantor (including any successor entity) (including the jurisdiction of any Paying Agent) or any political subdivision thereof or therein (each, a “Tax Jurisdiction”), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by the Issuer under or with respect to the Notes or any of the Guarantors with respect to any Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor, as applicable, will pay such additional amounts (the “Additional Amounts”) as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments by each Holder (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding or deduction will equal the respective amounts which would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

- (a) any Taxes which would not have been imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between the relevant Holder or the beneficial owner of the Notes and the relevant Tax Jurisdiction in which such Taxes are imposed (other than the mere acquisition, ownership or holding of such Notes or enforcement of rights thereunder or the receipt of payments in respect thereof);
- (b) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the Holder or the beneficial owner of the Notes, to the extent it is legally entitled and eligible to do so, to comply with any reasonable written request made to that Holder or beneficial owner in writing at least 30 days before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by the Issuer or any of the Guarantors to provide timely and accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such Holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid and timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification, information or other reporting requirement, which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from all or part of such Taxes;
- (c) any Taxes to the extent such Taxes were imposed as a result of the presentation of any Note for payment (where Notes are in the form of Physical Notes and presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the Holder (except to the extent that the Holder would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Note been presented on the last day of such 30 day period);
- (d) any Taxes that are payable otherwise than by deduction or withholding from a payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes;
- (e) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, transfer, personal property or similar tax or assessment;
- (f) any Taxes imposed on or with respect to a payment made to a Holder of Notes who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Note to another Paying Agent in a member state of the European Union;
- (g) all United States backup withholding taxes;
- (h) any Taxes that are imposed, withheld or deducted pursuant to sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended) (the “Code”), as of the date of this Indenture (or any amended or successor version that is substantively comparable), any current or future regulations or official interpretations thereof, any agreements entered into pursuant to section 1471(b)(1) of the Code, any intergovernmental agreement entered into in connection with any of the foregoing and any fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices adopted pursuant to any such intergovernmental agreement; or
- (i) any combination of items (a) through (h) above.

Such Additional Amounts will also not be payable where, had the beneficial owner of the Note been the Holder of the Note, it would not have been entitled to payment of Additional Amounts by reason of any of clauses (a) through (i) inclusive. In addition to the foregoing, the Issuer and the Guarantors will also pay and indemnify each Holder and beneficial owner for any present or future stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes, or any other excise or property taxes, or similar charges, levies or Taxes (including penalties and interest) which arise in any jurisdiction from the execution, delivery, enforcement or registration of any of the Notes, the Indenture, any Guarantee, or any other document or instrument referred to therein, or the receipt of any payments with respect to the Notes or the Guarantees (other than transfers of the Notes following the initial resale of the Notes by initial purchasers of the Notes), excluding any such Taxes, charges or levies imposed by any jurisdiction that is not a Taxing Jurisdiction, other than those resulting from, or required to be paid in connection with, the enforcement of the Notes, the Indenture, the Guarantees or any other such document or instrument following the occurrence of any Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

If the Issuer or any Guarantor, as the case may be, becomes aware that it will be obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to any payment under or with respect to the Notes or any Guarantee, the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor, as the case may be, will deliver to the Trustee, with a copy to the Paying Agent, on a date which is at least 30 days prior to the date of that payment (unless the obligation to pay Additional Amounts arises after the 30th day prior to that payment date, in which case the Issuer or the relevant Guarantor shall notify the Trustee promptly thereafter) an Officer's Certificate stating the fact that Additional Amounts will be payable and the amount estimated to be so payable. The Officer's Certificate must also set forth any other information reasonably necessary to enable the Paying Agent to pay Additional Amounts to Holders on the relevant payment date. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely absolutely on such Officer's Certificate as conclusive proof that such payments are necessary. The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will provide the Trustee with documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee evidencing the payment of Additional Amounts.

The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will make all withholdings and deductions required by law and will remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Tax authority in accordance with applicable law. The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will use its reasonable efforts to obtain Tax receipts from each Tax authority evidencing the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld. The Issuer or the relevant Guarantor will furnish to the Holders certified copies of Tax receipts evidencing payment by the Issuer or a Guarantor, as the case may be, or if, notwithstanding such entity's efforts to obtain receipts, receipts are not obtained, other evidence of payments by such entity.

Whenever in the Indenture or in this "Description of Notes" there is mentioned, in any context, the payment of amounts based upon the principal amount of the Notes or of principal, interest or of any other amount payable under, or with respect to, any of the Notes, such mention shall be deemed to include mention of the payment of Additional Amounts to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

The foregoing obligations will survive any termination, defeasance or discharge of the Indenture or any transfer by a Holder or beneficial owner of its Notes.

Certain Covenants

Termination of Certain Covenants.

The Indenture will contain covenants including, among others, the covenants as described below. If on any day following the Issue Date (a) the Notes have Investment Grade Ratings from both Rating Agencies, and (b) no Default has occurred and is continuing under the Indenture, then, beginning on that day (the "Termination Date") and continuing at all times thereafter, regardless of any subsequent changes in the rating of the Notes, the covenants specifically listed under the following captions in this "Description of Notes" section of this offering memorandum will cease to be effective and will not be applicable to the Issuer, the Parent Guarantor and the Restricted Subsidiaries:

- (i) "—Limitation on Restricted Payments";
- (ii) "—Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Restricted Subsidiaries";
- (iii) "—Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock"; and
- (iv) "—Future Subsidiary Guarantors."

Following the Termination Date, the Board of Directors may not designate any of its Subsidiaries as Unrestricted Subsidiaries unless such designation would have complied with the covenant described under "—Limitation on Restricted Payments" as if such covenant would have been in effect during such period.

There can be no assurance that the Notes will ever achieve or maintain Investment Grade Ratings.

Limitation on Restricted Payments. The Indenture will provide as follows:

(a) The Parent Guarantor shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary, directly or indirectly, to (i) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock (including any such payment in connection with any merger or consolidation to which the Parent Guarantor is a party) except (x) dividends or distributions payable solely in its Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) and (y) dividends or distributions payable to the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary (and, in the case of any such Restricted Subsidiary making such dividend or distribution, to other holders of its Capital Stock on no more than a pro rata basis, measured by value), (ii) purchase, redeem, retire or otherwise acquire for value any Capital Stock of the Parent Guarantor held by Persons other than the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary (other than any acquisition of Capital Stock deemed to occur upon the exercise of options if such Capital Stock represents a portion of the exercise price thereof), (iii) voluntarily purchase, repurchase, redeem, defease or otherwise voluntarily acquire or retire for value, prior to scheduled maturity, scheduled repayment or scheduled sinking fund payment, any Subordinated Obligations (other than Subordinated Obligations owed to the Parent Guarantor or to a Restricted Subsidiary and other than a purchase, repurchase, redemption, defeasance or other acquisition or retirement for value in anticipation of satisfying a sinking fund obligation, principal installment or final maturity, in each case due within one year of the date of such purchase, repurchase, redemption, defeasance or other acquisition or retirement) or (iv) make any Restricted Investment (any such dividend, distribution, purchase, repurchase, redemption, defeasance, other acquisition or retirement or Restricted Investment being herein referred to as a “Restricted Payment”).

(b) The provisions of the foregoing paragraph (a) do not prohibit any of the following (each, a “Permitted Payment”):

(i) (x) any purchase, redemption, repurchase, defeasance or other acquisition or retirement of Capital Stock of the Parent Guarantor (“Treasury Capital Stock”) or Subordinated Obligations made by exchange (including any such exchange pursuant to the exercise of a conversion right or privilege in connection with which cash is paid in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares) for, or out of the proceeds of the issuance or sale of, Capital Stock of the Parent Guarantor (other than Disqualified Stock and other than Capital Stock issued or sold to a Subsidiary) (“Refunding Capital Stock”) or a capital contribution to the Parent Guarantor, in each case other than Excluded Contributions and (y) if immediately prior to such acquisition or retirement of such Treasury Capital Stock, dividends thereon were permitted pursuant to clause (xi) of this paragraph (b), dividends on such Refunding Capital Stock in an aggregate amount per annum not exceeding the aggregate amount per annum of dividends so permitted on such Treasury Capital Stock;

(ii) any purchase, redemption, repurchase, defeasance or other acquisition or retirement of Subordinated Obligations (w) made by exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the Incurrence of, Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary, (x) from Net Available Cash or an equivalent amount to the extent permitted by the covenant described under “—Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock,” (y) following the occurrence of a Change of Control (or other similar event described therein as a “change of control”), but only if the Issuer shall have complied with the covenant described under “—Change of Control Triggering Event” and, if required, purchased all Notes tendered pursuant to the offer to repurchase all the Notes required thereby, prior to purchasing or repaying such Subordinated Obligations or (z) constituting Acquired Indebtedness;

(iii) any dividend paid or redemption made within 60 days after the date of declaration thereof or of the giving of notice thereof, as applicable, if at such date of declaration or notice, such dividend or redemption would have complied with this covenant;

(iv) Restricted Payments in an aggregate amount outstanding at any time not to exceed the amount of Excluded Contributions;

(v) loans, advances, dividends or distributions by the Parent Guarantor to any Parent to permit any Parent to repurchase or otherwise acquire its Capital Stock (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof), or payments by the Parent Guarantor to repurchase or otherwise acquire Capital Stock of any Parent or the Parent Guarantor (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof), in each case from current or former Management Investors (including any repurchase or acquisition by reason of the Parent Guarantor or any Parent retaining any Capital Stock, option, warrant or other right in respect of tax withholding obligations, and any related payment in respect of any such obligation), such payments, loans, advances, dividends or distributions not to exceed an amount (net of repayments of any such loans or advances) equal to (x) (1) $50.0 million, plus (2) $5.0 million multiplied by the number of calendar years that have commenced since July 1, 2016, plus (y) the Net Cash Proceeds received by the Parent Guarantor since July 1, 2016 from, or as a capital contribution from, the issuance or sale to Management Investors of Capital Stock (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof), plus (z) the cash proceeds of key man life insurance policies received by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary (or by any Parent and contributed to the Parent Guarantor) since the Issue Date; provided that any cancellation of Indebtedness owing to the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary by any current or former Management Investor in connection with any repurchase or other acquisition of Capital Stock (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof) from any current or former Management Investor shall not constitute a Restricted Payment for purposes of this covenant or any provision of the Indenture;

(vi) Restricted Payments (including loans or advances) in an aggregate amount outstanding at any time not to exceed an amount (net of repayments of any such loans or advances) equal to the sum of (x) $500.0 million plus (y) 50.0% of Consolidated Net Income accrued during the period (treated as one accounting period) beginning on July 1, 2016, to the end of the most recent fiscal quarter ending prior to the date of such Restricted Payment for which consolidated financial statements of the Parent Guarantor are available (or, in case such Consolidated Net Income shall be a negative number, 100.0% of such negative number);

(vii) loans, advances, dividends or distributions to any Parent or other payments by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary (A) pursuant to a Tax Sharing Agreement or (B) to pay or permit any Parent to pay any Parent Expenses or any Related Taxes;

(viii) payments by the Parent Guarantor, or loans, advances, dividends or distributions by the Parent Guarantor to any Parent to make payments, to holders of Capital Stock of the Parent Guarantor or any Parent in lieu of issuance of fractional shares of such Capital Stock;

(ix) dividends or other distributions of, or other Restricted Payments paid for or made with, Capital Stock, Indebtedness or other securities of Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

(xi) any Restricted Payment pursuant to or in connection with the Transactions or the Spin-Off Transactions or otherwise pursuant to or in connection with any Spin-Off Transaction Agreement;

(xi) the declaration and payment of dividends to holders of any class or series of Disqualified Stock, or of any Preferred Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary;

(xii) (A) dividends on any Designated Preferred Stock of the Parent Guarantor issued after the Issue Date; provided that at the time of such issuance and after giving effect thereto on a pro forma basis, the Consolidated Coverage Ratio would be equal to or greater than 2.00:1.00, (B) loans, advances, dividends or distributions to any Parent to permit dividends on any Designated Preferred Stock of any Parent issued after the Issue Date if the net proceeds of the issuance of such Designated Preferred Stock have been contributed to the Parent Guarantor or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; provided that the aggregate amount of all loans, advances, dividends or distributions paid pursuant to this subclause (B) shall not exceed the net proceeds of such issuance of Designated Preferred Stock received by or contributed to the Parent Guarantor or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or (C) any dividend on Refunding Capital Stock that is Preferred Stock; provided that at the time of the declaration of such dividend and after giving effect thereto on a pro forma basis, the Consolidated Coverage Ratio would be equal to or greater than 2.00:1.00;

(xiii) Restricted Payments in an aggregate amount outstanding at any time not to exceed an amount equal to Declined Excess Proceeds; and

(xiv) any Restricted Payment; provided, that on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such Restricted Payment, the Consolidated Total Corporate Leverage Ratio would be equal to or less than 4.00:1.00;

provided, that (A) in the case of clause (iii), the net amount of any such Permitted Payment shall be included in subsequent calculations of the amount of Restricted Payments, (B) in all cases other than pursuant to clause (A) immediately above, the net amount of any such Permitted Payment shall be excluded in subsequent calculations of the amount of Restricted Payments and (C) solely with respect to clauses (vi) and (xiv), no payment or bankruptcy Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of any such Permitted Payment after giving effect thereto. The Parent Guarantor, in its sole discretion, may classify any Restricted Payment as being made in part under one of the clauses or subclauses of this covenant and in part under one or more other such clauses or subclauses.

Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Restricted Subsidiaries. The Indenture will provide that the Parent Guarantor will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, create or otherwise cause to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to (i) pay dividends or make any other distributions on its Capital Stock or pay any Indebtedness or other obligations owed to the Parent Guarantor, (ii) make any loans or advances to the Parent Guarantor or (iii) transfer any of its property or assets to the Parent Guarantor (provided that dividend or liquidation priority between classes of Capital Stock, or subordination of any obligation (including the application of any remedy bars thereto) to any other obligation, will be deemed not to constitute such an encumbrance or restriction), except any encumbrance or restriction:

(1) pursuant to an agreement or instrument in effect at or entered into on the Issue Date, any Credit Facility, the Indenture or the Notes;

(2) pursuant to any agreement or instrument of a Person, or relating to Indebtedness or Capital Stock of a Person, which Person is acquired by or merged or consolidated with or into the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary, or which agreement or instrument is assumed by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary in connection with an acquisition of assets from or other transaction with such Person, or any other transaction entered into in connection with any such acquisition, merger or consolidation, as in effect at the time of such acquisition, merger, consolidation or transaction (except to the extent that such Indebtedness was incurred to finance, or otherwise in connection with, such acquisition, merger, consolidation or transaction); provided that for purposes of this clause (2), if a Person other than the Parent Guarantor is the Successor Parent Guarantor with respect thereto, any Subsidiary thereof or agreement or instrument of such Person or any such Subsidiary shall be deemed acquired or assumed, as the case may be, by the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, when such Person becomes such Successor Parent Guarantor;

(3) pursuant to an agreement or instrument (a “Refinancing Agreement”) effecting a refinancing of Indebtedness Incurred or outstanding pursuant or relating to, or that otherwise extends, renews, refunds, refinances or replaces, any agreement or instrument referred to in clause (1) or (2) of this covenant or this clause (3) (an “Initial Agreement”) or that is, or is contained in, any amendment, supplement or other modification to any Initial Agreement or Refinancing Agreement (an “Amendment”); provided, however, that the encumbrances and restrictions contained in any such Refinancing Agreement or Amendment taken as a whole are not materially less favorable to the Holders of the Notes than the encumbrances and restrictions contained in the Initial Agreement or Initial Agreements to which such Refinancing Agreement or Amendment relates (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive);

(4) (A) pursuant to any agreement or instrument that restricts in a customary manner (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive) the assignment or transfer thereof, or the subletting, assignment or transfer of any property or asset subject thereto, (B) by virtue of any transfer of, agreement to transfer, option or right with respect to, or Lien on, any property or assets of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary not otherwise prohibited by the Indenture, (C) contained in mortgages, pledges or other security agreements securing Indebtedness or other obligations of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary to the extent restricting the transfer of the property or assets subject thereto, (D) pursuant to customary provisions (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive) restricting dispositions of real property interests set forth in any reciprocal easement agreements of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary, (E) pursuant to Purchase Money Obligations that impose encumbrances or restrictions with respect to the property or assets so acquired, (F) on cash or other deposits, net worth or inventory imposed by customers or suppliers under agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business, (G) pursuant to customary provisions (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive) contained in agreements and instruments entered into in the ordinary course of business (including to leases and licenses) or in joint venture and other similar agreements or in shareholder, partnership, limited liability company and other similar agreements in respect of non-wholly owned Restricted Subsidiaries, (H) that arises or is agreed to in the ordinary course of business and does not detract from the value of property or assets of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary in any manner material to the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary, (I) pursuant to Hedging Obligations, (J) in connection with or relating to any Vehicle Rental Concession Right or (K) pursuant to Bank Products Obligations;

(5) with respect to any agreement for the direct or indirect disposition of Capital Stock or property or assets of any Person, imposed with respect to such Person, Capital Stock, property or assets pending the closing of such disposition;

(6) by reason of any applicable law, rule, regulation or order, or required by any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Parent Guarantor or any Subsidiary or any of their businesses, including any such law, rule, regulation, order or requirement applicable in connection with such Subsidiary’s status (or the status of any Subsidiary of such Subsidiary) as a Captive Insurance Subsidiary; or

(7) pursuant to an agreement or instrument (A) relating to any Indebtedness Incurred subsequent to the Issue Date (i) if the encumbrances and restrictions contained in any such agreement or instrument taken as a whole are not materially less favorable to the Holders of the Notes than the encumbrances and restrictions contained in the Initial Agreements (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive), or (ii) if such encumbrance or restriction is not materially more disadvantageous to the Holders of the Notes than is customary in comparable financings (as determined in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive) and either (x) the Parent Guarantor determines in good faith (which determination shall be conclusive) that such encumbrance or restriction will not materially affect the Parent Guarantor's ability to make principal or interest payments on the Notes or (y) such encumbrance or restriction applies only if a default occurs in respect of a payment or financial covenant relating to such Indebtedness, (B) relating to any sale of receivables by or Indebtedness of a Foreign Subsidiary, (C) relating to Indebtedness of or a Franchise Financing Disposition by or to or in favor of any Franchisee or Franchise Special Purpose Entity or to any Franchise Lease Obligation or (D) relating to Indebtedness of or a Financing Disposition by or to or in favor of any Special Purpose Entity.

Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock. The Indenture will provide as follows:

(a) The Parent Guarantor will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, make any Asset Disposition unless:

(i) the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary receives consideration (including by way of relief from, or by any other Person assuming responsibility for, any liabilities, contingent or otherwise) at the time of such Asset Disposition at least equal to the fair market value (as of the date on which a legally binding commitment for such Asset Disposition was entered into) of the shares and assets subject to such Asset Disposition, as such fair market value shall be determined (including as to the value of all noncash consideration) in good faith by the Parent Guarantor, which determination shall be conclusive,

(ii) in the case of any Asset Disposition (or series of related Asset Dispositions) having a Fair Market Value (as of the date on which a legally binding commitment for such Asset Disposition was entered into) of $50.0 million or more, at least 75.0% of the consideration therefor (excluding, in the case of an Asset Disposition (or series of related Asset Dispositions), any consideration by way of relief from, or by any other Person assuming responsibility for, any liabilities, contingent or otherwise, that are not Indebtedness) for such Asset Disposition, together with all other Asset Dispositions since the Issue Date (on a cumulative basis), received by the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary is in the form of cash, and

(iii) an amount equal to 100.0% of the Net Available Cash from such Asset Disposition is applied by the Parent Guarantor (or any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be) as follows:

(A) first, either (x) to the extent the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary elects (or is required by the terms of any Credit Facility Indebtedness, any Senior Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any Indebtedness of a Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor), to prepay, repay or purchase any such Indebtedness or Obligations in respect thereof or (in the case of letters of credit, bankers' acceptances or other similar instruments) cash collateralize any such Indebtedness or Obligations in respect thereof (in each case other than Indebtedness owed to the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary) within 365 days after the later of the date of such Asset Disposition and the date of receipt of such Net Available Cash or (y) to the extent the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary elects, to invest in Additional Assets (including by means of an investment in Additional Assets by a Restricted Subsidiary with an amount equal to Net Available Cash received by the Parent Guarantor or another Restricted Subsidiary) within 365 days from the later of the date of such Asset Disposition and the date of receipt of such Net Available Cash, or, if such investment in Additional Assets is a project authorized by the Board of Directors that will take longer than such 365 days to complete, the period of time necessary to complete such project;

(B) second, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clause (A) above (such balance, the "Excess Proceeds"), to make an offer to purchase Notes and (to the extent the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary elects, or is required by the terms thereof) to purchase, redeem or repay any other Senior Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary, pursuant and subject to the conditions of the Indenture and the agreements governing such other Indebtedness; and

(C) third, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clauses (A) and (B) above (the amount of such balance, “Declined Excess Proceeds”), to fund (to the extent consistent with any other applicable provision of the Indenture) any general corporate purpose (including the repurchase, repayment or other acquisition or retirement of any Subordinated Obligations or the making of other Restricted Payments); provided, however, that (1) in connection with any prepayment, repayment or purchase of Indebtedness pursuant to clause (iii)(A)(x) or (iii)(B) above, the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary will retire such Indebtedness and will cause the related loan commitment (if any) to be permanently reduced in an amount equal to the principal amount so prepaid, repaid or purchased; (2) clause (ii) above shall not apply to any sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of Capital Stock, Indebtedness or other securities of, or any other Investments in, or the business or assets of, any Person that is not organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (3) the foregoing percentage in clause (iii) shall be reduced to 0.0% if the Consolidated Total Corporate Leverage Ratio would be equal to or less than 4.50:1.00 after giving pro forma effect to any application of such Net Available Cash as set forth herein (any Net Available Cash in respect of Asset Dispositions not required to be applied in accordance with clause (iii) as a result of the application of this clause (3) of this proviso shall collectively constitute “Total Leverage Excess Proceeds”) and (4) the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary may elect to invest in Additional Assets prior to receiving the Net Available Cash attributable to any given Asset Disposition (provided that such investment shall be made no earlier than the earliest of notice to the Trustee of the relevant Asset Disposition, execution of a definitive agreement for the relevant Asset Disposition, and consummation of the relevant Asset Disposition) and deem the amount so invested to be applied pursuant to and in accordance with clause (iii)(A)(y) above with respect to such Asset Disposition.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this covenant, the Parent Guarantor and the Restricted Subsidiaries shall not be required to apply any Net Available Cash or equivalent amount in accordance with this covenant except to the extent that the aggregate Net Available Cash from all Asset Dispositions or equivalent amount that is not applied in accordance with this covenant (excluding all Total Leverage Excess Proceeds) exceeds $100.0 million. If the aggregate principal amount of Notes and/or other Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary validly tendered and not withdrawn (or otherwise subject to purchase, redemption or repayment) in connection with an offer pursuant to clause (B) above exceeds the Excess Proceeds, the Excess Proceeds will be apportioned between such Notes and such other Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary, with the portion of the Excess Proceeds payable in respect of such Notes to equal the lesser of (x) the Excess Proceeds amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the outstanding principal amount of such Notes and the denominator of which is the sum of the outstanding principal amount of the Notes and the outstanding principal amount of the relevant other Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary, and (y) the aggregate principal amount of Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this covenant, to the extent that repatriating or transferring to the Parent Guarantor or to any Restricted Subsidiary any or all of the Net Available Cash from any Asset Disposition by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary (w) could result in material adverse tax consequences to the Parent Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries, (x) is prohibited or delayed by applicable local law, (y) could reasonably be expected to give rise to or result in (A) any violation of applicable law, (B) any liability (criminal, civil, administrative or other) for any of the officers, directors or shareholders of the Parent Guarantor, any Restricted Subsidiary or any Parent, (C) any violation of the provisions of any joint venture or other material agreement governing or binding upon the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary or (D) any material risk of any such violation of liability referred to in clauses (A), (B) and (C) or (z) could reasonably be expected to give rise to or result in any cost, expense, liability or obligation (including any Tax) other than routine and immaterial out-of-pocket expenses (in the case of the foregoing clauses (w), (x), (y) and (z), as determined by the Parent Guarantor in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive), the portion of such Net Available Cash so affected will not be required to be applied in compliance with the foregoing provisions of this covenant, and such amounts may be retained by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary or invested in, distributed to or otherwise transferred to any other Subsidiary; provided that, in the case of the foregoing clause (y), the Parent Guarantor shall take commercially reasonable efforts to and to cause the applicable Restricted Subsidiary to, take all actions reasonably required by the applicable local law, applicable organizational impediments or other impediment to permit such repatriation or transfer, and if such repatriation or transfer of any of such affected Net Available Cash can be achieved, such repatriation or transfer will be promptly effected and such repatriated Net Available Cash will be applied (whether or not repatriation or transfer actually occurs) in compliance with the foregoing provisions of this covenant. The time periods set forth in this covenant shall not start until such time as the Net Available Cash may be repatriated or transferred whether or not such repatriation or transfer actually occurs.

For the purposes of clause (ii) of paragraph (a) above, the following are deemed to be cash: (1) Temporary Cash Investments, Investment Grade Securities and Cash Equivalents, (2) the assumption of Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor (other than Disqualified Stock of the Parent Guarantor) or any Restricted Subsidiary and the release of the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary from all liability on payment of the principal amount of such Indebtedness in connection with such Asset Disposition, (3) Indebtedness of any Restricted Subsidiary that is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such Asset Disposition, to the extent that the Parent Guarantor and each other Restricted Subsidiary are released from any Guarantee of payment of the principal amount of such Indebtedness in connection with such Asset Disposition, (4) securities received by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary from the transferee that are converted by the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash within 180 days, (5) consideration consisting of Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary, (6) Additional Assets and (7) any Designated Noncash Consideration received by the Parent Guarantor or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in an Asset Disposition having an aggregate Fair Market Value, taken together with all other Designated Noncash Consideration received pursuant to this clause, not to exceed an aggregate amount at any time outstanding equal to the greater of $350.0 million and 1.75% of Consolidated Tangible Assets (with the Fair Market Value of each item of Designated Noncash Consideration being measured as of the date on which a legally binding commitment for such disposition (or, if later, for the payment of such item) was entered into and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value).

(b) In the event of an Asset Disposition that requires the purchase of Notes pursuant to clause (iii)(B) of paragraph (a) above, the Issuer will be required to purchase Notes tendered pursuant to an offer by the Issuer for the Notes (the “Offer”) at a purchase price of 100% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts to the date of purchase in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth in the Indenture. If the aggregate purchase price of the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer is less than the Net Available Cash allotted to the purchase of Notes, the remaining Net Available Cash will be available to the Issuer or the Parent Guarantor and the Restricted Subsidiaries for use in accordance with clause (iii)(B) of paragraph (a) above (to repay other Indebtedness of the Parent Guarantor or a Restricted Subsidiary) or clause (iii)(C) of paragraph (a) above. The Issuer shall not be required to make an Offer for Notes pursuant to this covenant if the Net Available Cash (excluding all Total Leverage Excess Proceeds) available therefor (after application of the proceeds as provided in clause (iii)(A) of paragraph (a) above) is less than (i) $100.0 million for any particular Asset Disposition or (ii) $200.0 million in the aggregate in any fiscal year. No Note will be repurchased in part if less than the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount of such Note would be left outstanding.

(c) The Issuer and the Parent Guarantor will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this covenant. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this covenant, the Issuer and the Parent Guarantor will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will be deemed not to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue thereof.

Limitation on Liens. The Indenture will provide that the Parent Guarantor shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create or permit to exist any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) on any of its property or assets (including Capital Stock of any other Person), whether owned on the date of the Indenture or thereafter acquired, securing any Indebtedness (the “Initial Lien”), unless contemporaneously therewith effective provision is made to secure the Indebtedness due under the Indenture and the Notes or, in respect of Liens on any Restricted Subsidiary’s property or assets, any Subsidiary Guarantee of such Restricted Subsidiary, equally and ratably with (or on a senior basis to, in the case of Subordinated Obligations or Guarantor Subordinated Obligations) such obligation for so long as such obligation is so secured by such Initial Lien. Any such Lien thereby created in favor of the Notes or any such Subsidiary Guarantee will be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged upon (i) the release and discharge of the Initial Lien to which it relates, (ii) in the case of any such Lien in favor of any such Subsidiary Guarantee, upon the termination and discharge of such Subsidiary Guarantee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture or (iii) any sale, exchange or transfer (other than a transfer constituting a transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor that is governed by the provisions of the covenant described under “—Merger and Consolidation” below) to any Person not an Affiliate of the Parent Guarantor of the property or assets secured by such Initial Lien, or of all of the Capital Stock held by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary in, or all or substantially all the assets of, any Restricted Subsidiary creating such Initial Lien.

Future Subsidiary Guarantors. As set forth more particularly under “—Guarantees and Release of Guarantors,” the Indenture will provide that the Parent Guarantor will cause, subject to certain limitations, each Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor that becomes a guarantor of the Senior Credit Facility or the Revolving Credit Facility to execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which such Restricted Subsidiary will guarantee payment of the Notes, whereupon such Restricted Subsidiary will become a Subsidiary Guarantor for all purposes under the Indenture. The Parent Guarantor will also have the right to cause any other Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor to so guarantee payment of the Notes and become a Subsidiary Guarantor. Subsidiary Guarantees will be subject to release and discharge under certain circumstances prior to payment in full of the Notes. See “—Guarantees and Release of Guarantors.”

The Parent Guarantor will not be obligated to cause any Restricted Subsidiary to guarantee the Notes to the extent such Guarantee could reasonably be expected to give rise to or result in (i) any conflict with or violation of applicable law; (ii) material risk of personal liability for the officers, directors, shareholders or partners of such Restricted Subsidiary; or (iii) any cost, expense, liability or obligation (including with respect to any Taxes but excluding any reasonable guarantee or similar fee payable to the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary) other than reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and other than reasonable governmental expenses incurred in connection with any governmental or regulatory filings required as a result of, or any measures undertaken in connection with, such Guarantee, in each case, which cannot be prevented or otherwise avoided through measures reasonably available to the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries (including, to the extent necessary to allow for the issuance of such Guarantee, limiting such Guarantee as necessary to recognize certain defenses generally available to guarantors); provided that the Parent Guarantor will procure that the relevant Restricted Subsidiary becomes a Guarantor at such time as all of the items described in clauses (i) through (iii) above no longer apply to it or no longer would prohibit such Restricted Subsidiary from becoming a Guarantor (or prevent the Parent Guarantor from causing such Restricted Subsidiary to become a Guarantor).

SEC Reports. The Indenture will provide as follows:

Notwithstanding that the Parent Guarantor may not be required to be or remain subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the Parent Guarantor will file with the SEC (unless such filing is not permitted under the Exchange Act or by the SEC), so long as the Notes are outstanding, the annual reports, information, documents and other reports that the Parent Guarantor is required to file with the SEC pursuant to such Section 13(a) or 15(d) or would be so required to file if the Parent Guarantor were so subject to SEC reporting requirements as a non-accelerated filer.

The Parent Guarantor will be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of this covenant if any Parent files reports, documents and information of the types otherwise so required, in each case within the applicable time periods. If such Parent has material operations separate and apart from its ownership of the Parent Guarantor, then the Parent Guarantor or such Parent will provide consolidating information, which need not be audited, that explains in reasonable detail the differences between the information relating to such Parent and its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the information relating to the Parent Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a standalone basis, on the other hand.

If the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange so require, and so long as the Notes are listed on the Euro MTF market, all reports referred to in this section will be available at the offices of the Paying Agent.

If any audited or reviewed financial statements or information required to be included in any such filing are not reasonably available on a timely basis as a result of the Parent Guarantor's or any such Parent's accountants not being "independent" (as defined pursuant to the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder), the Parent Guarantor or such Parent may, in lieu of making such filing, elect to make a filing on an alternative form or transmit or make available unaudited or unreviewed financial statements or information substantially similar to such required audited or reviewed financial statements or information, provided that (a) the Parent Guarantor or such Parent shall in any event be required to make such filing no later than the first anniversary of the date on which the same was otherwise required pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph (such initial date, the "Reporting Date") and (b) if the Parent Guarantor or such Parent makes such an election and such filing has not been made, within 90 days after such Reporting Date, liquidated damages will accrue on the Notes at a rate of 0.50% per annum from the date that is 90 days after such Reporting Date to the earlier of (x) the date on which such filing has been made, and (y) the first anniversary of such Reporting Date (provided that not more than 0.50% per annum in liquidated damages shall be payable for any period regardless of the number of such elections by the Parent Guarantor).

Delivery of any information documents and reports to the Trustee pursuant to this "Reports" covenant is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of such information, documents and reports, shall not constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein, including the Issuer's compliance with any covenants under the Indenture.

Listing. The Indenture will provide as follows:

The Issuer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the listing of the Notes on the Euro MTF market for so long as such Notes are outstanding; provided that if at any time the Issuer determines that it will not maintain such listing, it will use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain a listing of such Notes on another internationally recognized stock exchange.

Merger and Consolidation

The Indenture will provide that the Parent Guarantor will not consolidate with or merge with or into, or convey, transfer or lease all or substantially all its assets to, any Person, unless:

(i) the resulting, surviving or transferee Person (the “Successor Parent Guarantor”) will be a Person organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia and the Successor Parent Guarantor (if not the Parent Guarantor) will expressly assume all the obligations of the Parent Guarantor under the Notes and the Indenture by executing and delivering to the Trustee a supplemental indenture or one or more other documents or instruments;

(ii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and treating any Indebtedness that becomes an obligation of the Successor Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by the Successor Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary at the time of such transaction), no Default will have occurred and be continuing;

(iii) the Issuer and each Subsidiary Guarantor (other than (x) any Subsidiary Guarantor that will be released from its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee in connection with such transaction and (y) any party to any such consolidation or merger) shall have delivered a supplemental indenture or other document or instrument, confirming, with regard to the Issuer, its obligations under the Notes, and with regard to a Subsidiary Guarantor, its Subsidiary Guarantee (other than any Subsidiary Guarantee that will be discharged or terminated in connection with such transaction); and

(iv) the Parent Guarantor will have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each to the effect that such consolidation, merger or transfer complies with the provisions described in this paragraph; provided that (x) in giving such opinion such counsel may rely on an Officer’s Certificate as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (ii) and (iii) and as to any matters of fact, and (y) no Opinion of Counsel will be required for a consolidation, merger or transfer described in the penultimate paragraph of this covenant.

The Indenture will also provide that the Issuer will not consolidate with or merge with or into any Person, unless:

(i) the resulting or surviving Person (the “Successor Issuer”) will be a Person organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia or a member state of the European Union and the Successor Issuer (if not the Issuer) will expressly assume all the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and the Indenture by executing and delivering to the Trustee a supplemental indenture or one or more other documents or instruments;

(ii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and treating any Indebtedness that becomes an obligation of the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by the Parent Guarantor or such Restricted Subsidiary at the time of such transaction), no Default will have occurred and be continuing;

(iii) each applicable Guarantor (other than (x) any Guarantor that will be released from its obligations under its Guarantee in connection with such transaction and (y) any party to any such consolidation or merger) shall have delivered a supplemental indenture or other document or instrument, confirming its Guarantee (other than any Guarantee that will be discharged or terminated in connection with such transaction); and

(iv) the Parent Guarantor will have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each to the effect that such consolidation, merger or transfer complies with the provisions described in this paragraph, provided that (x) in giving such opinion such counsel may rely on an Officer’s Certificate as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) and as to any matters of fact, and (y) no Opinion of Counsel will be required for a consolidation, merger or transfer described in the penultimate paragraph of this covenant.

The Successor Issuer or the Successor Parent Guarantor, as applicable, will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer or the Parent Guarantor, as applicable, under the Indenture, and thereafter the predecessor Issuer or the predecessor Parent Guarantor, as applicable, shall be relieved of all obligations and covenants under the Indenture, except that the predecessor Issuer or the predecessor Parent Guarantor, as applicable, in the case of a lease of all or substantially all its assets will not be released from the obligation to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes.

Clause (ii) of the first paragraph and clause (ii) of the second paragraph of this “Merger and Consolidation” covenant will not apply to any transaction in which the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer, as applicable, consolidates or merges with or into or transfers all or substantially all its properties and assets to (x) an Affiliate incorporated or organized for the purpose of reincorporating or reorganizing the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer, as applicable, in another jurisdiction or changing its legal structure to a corporation or other entity or (y) a Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor so long as all assets of the Parent Guarantor and the Restricted Subsidiaries immediately prior to such transaction (other than Capital Stock of such Restricted Subsidiary) are owned by such Restricted Subsidiary and its Restricted Subsidiaries immediately after the consummation thereof. The first paragraph of this “Merger and Consolidation” covenant will not apply to any transaction in which any Restricted Subsidiary consolidates with, merges into or transfers all or part of its assets to the Parent Guarantor. The second paragraph of this “Merger and Consolidation” covenant will not apply to any transaction in which any Restricted Subsidiary consolidates with, merges into or transfers all or part of its assets to the Issuer.

For the purpose of this covenant, the Reorganization Assets (whether individually or in the aggregate) shall not be deemed at any time to constitute all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries and any sale or transfer of all or any part of the Reorganization Assets (whether directly or indirectly, whether by sale or transfer of any such assets, or of any Capital Stock or other interest in any Person holding such assets, or of any combination thereof, and whether in one or more transactions, or otherwise) shall not be deemed at any time to constitute a sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

Financial Calculations for Limited Condition Acquisitions

The Indenture will provide that, in connection with any Limited Condition Acquisition and any related transactions (including any financing thereof), at the Parent Guarantor’s election, (a) compliance with any requirement relating to the absence of a Default, Event of Default or specified Event of Default, as applicable, may be determined as of the date a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Acquisition is entered into or irrevocable notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is given (the “effective date”) and not as of any later date as would otherwise be required under the Indenture, and (b) any calculation of the Consolidated Coverage Ratio, the Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio, the Consolidated Total Corporate Leverage Ratio, or any amount based on Consolidated Tangible Assets, or any other determination under any basket or ratio under the Indenture, or any other determination as to whether any such Limited Condition Acquisition and any related transactions (including any financing thereof) complies with the covenants or agreements contained in the Indenture, may be made as of such effective date and, to the extent so made, will not be required to be made at any later date as would otherwise be required under the Indenture, giving pro forma effect to such Limited Condition Acquisition and any related transactions (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and the use of proceeds of any such Incurrence); provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, if any such basket, ratio or amount is exceeded as a result of fluctuations in such basket, ratio or amount (including due to fluctuations in Consolidated EBITDA, Consolidated Tangible Assets or any applicable currency exchange rate) subsequent to such date of calculation or determination and at or prior to the consummation of the relevant Limited Condition Acquisition, such basket, ratio or amount will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations for purposes of determining whether the Limited Condition Acquisition is permitted under the Indenture. The Indenture will also provide that, if the Parent Guarantor makes such an election, any subsequent calculation of any such ratio and/or percentage (unless the definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Acquisition expires or is terminated without its consummation) shall be calculated on an equivalent pro forma basis. As used herein, the term “Limited Condition Acquisition” means (x) any acquisition, including by way of merger, amalgamation, consolidation or other business combination or the acquisition of Capital Stock or otherwise, by one or more of the Parent Guarantor and its Restricted Subsidiaries of any assets, business or Person or any other Investment permitted by the Indenture whose consummation is not conditioned on the availability of, or on obtaining, third party financing or (y) any redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock requiring irrevocable notice in advance of such redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or prepayment.

Defaults

An Event of Default will be defined in the Indenture as:

- (i) a default in any payment of interest on any Note when due, continued for 30 days;
- (ii) a default in the payment of principal of any Note when due, whether at its Stated Maturity, upon optional redemption, upon required repurchase, upon declaration of acceleration or otherwise;

(iii) the failure by the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer, as the case may be, to comply with its obligations under the first or second paragraph, as applicable, of the covenant described under “—Merger and Consolidation” above;

(iv) the failure by the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer, as the case may be, to comply for 30 days after notice with any of its obligations under the covenant described under “—Change of Control Triggering Event” above (other than a failure to purchase Notes);

(v) the failure by the Issuer to comply for (x) 180 days after notice with any of its obligations under the covenant described under “—Certain Covenants—SEC Reports” or (y) 60 days after notice with its other agreements contained in the Notes or the Indenture;

(vi) the failure by any Guarantor to comply for 60 days after notice with its obligations under its Guarantee;

(vii) the failure by the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary to pay any Indebtedness for borrowed money (other than Indebtedness owed to the Parent Guarantor or any Restricted Subsidiary) within any applicable grace period after final maturity or the acceleration of any such Indebtedness by the holders thereof because of a default, if the total amount of such Indebtedness so unpaid or accelerated exceeds $100.0 million or its foreign currency equivalent; provided, that no Default or Event of Default will be deemed to occur with respect to any such Indebtedness that is paid or otherwise acquired or retired (or for which such failure to pay or acceleration is waived or rescinded) within 20 Business Days after such failure to pay or such acceleration (the “cross acceleration provision”);

(viii) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Parent Guarantor, the Issuer or a Significant Subsidiary (the “bankruptcy provisions”);

(ix) the rendering of any judgment or decree for the payment of money in an amount (net of any insurance or indemnity payments actually received in respect thereof prior to or within 90 days from the entry thereof, or to be received in respect thereof in the event any appeal thereof shall be unsuccessful) in excess of $100.0 million or its foreign currency equivalent against the Parent Guarantor or a Significant Subsidiary (including the Issuer), that is not discharged, supported by a letter of credit or bonded or insured by a third Person, if such judgment or decree remains outstanding for a period of 90 days following such judgment or decree and is not discharged, waived or stayed (the “judgment default provision”); or

(x) the failure of any Guarantee by the Parent Guarantor or a Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary to be in full force and effect (except as contemplated by the terms thereof or of the Indenture) or the denial or disaffirmation in writing by the Parent Guarantor or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary of its obligations under the Indenture or any Guarantee (other than by reason of the termination of the Indenture or such Guarantee or the release of such Guarantee in accordance with such Guarantee or the Indenture), if such Default continues for 10 days.

The foregoing will constitute Events of Default whatever the reason for any such Event of Default and whether it is voluntary or involuntary or is effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body.

However, a Default under clause (iv), (v) or (vi) will not constitute an Event of Default until the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30.0% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes notify the Issuer in writing of the Default and the Issuer does not cure such Default within the time specified in such clause after receipt of such notice. Such notice must specify the Default, demand that it be remedied and state that such notice is a “Notice of Default.” When a Default or an Event of Default is cured, it ceases.

If an Event of Default (other than a Default relating to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer) occurs and is continuing under the Indenture, the Trustee by written notice to the Issuer and the Parent Guarantor, or the Holders of at least 30.0% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes by written notice to the Issuer and the Parent Guarantor and the Trustee, in either case specifying in such notice the respective Event of Default and that such notice is a “notice of acceleration” may declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest on all the Notes to be due and payable. Upon the effectiveness of such a declaration, such principal and interest will be due and payable immediately.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Event of Default relating to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer occurs and is continuing, the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest on all the outstanding Notes will ipso facto become immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Holder. Under certain circumstances, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes may rescind any such acceleration with respect to the Notes and its consequences.

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee, in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under the Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity and/or security reasonably satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Except to institute suit for the enforcement of payment of principal of and interest on any Note of such Holder on or after the respective Stated Maturity for such principal or interest payment dates for such interest expressed in such Note, no Holder may pursue any remedy with respect to the Indenture or the Notes unless (i) such Holder has previously given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing, (ii) Holders of at least 30.0% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes have requested the Trustee in writing to pursue the remedy, (iii) such Holders have offered the Trustee security and/or indemnity satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense, (iv) the Trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after the receipt of the request and the offer of security and/or indemnity and (v) the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes have not given the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request within such 60 day period. Subject to certain restrictions, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes are given the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee. The Trustee, however, may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or the Indenture or that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of any other Holder or that would involve the Trustee in personal liability. Prior to taking any action under the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to indemnification and/or security satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against all losses and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

The Indenture will provide that if a Default occurs and is continuing and is known to the Trustee, the Trustee must send to each Holder notice of the Default within 90 days after it occurs. Except in the case of a Default in the payment of principal of, or premium (if any) or interest on, any Note, the Trustee may withhold notice if and so long as the Trustee in good faith determines that withholding such notice is in the interests of the Noteholders. In addition, the Parent Guarantor and the Issuer are required to deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, a certificate indicating whether the signers thereof know of any Default occurring during the previous year. The Parent Guarantor and the Issuer are also required to deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the occurrence thereof, written notice of any event that would constitute certain Defaults, their status and what action the Parent Guarantor and the Issuer are taking or propose to take in respect thereof.

Amendments and Waivers

Subject to certain exceptions, the Indenture and the Notes may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes (including Additional Notes, if any) then outstanding voting as a single class and any past default or compliance with any provisions may be waived with the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Notes (including Additional Notes, if any) then outstanding voting as a single class (including in each case, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for Notes); provided that (x) if any such amendment or waiver will only affect one series of Notes (or less than all series of Notes) then outstanding under the Indenture, then only the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes of such series then outstanding (including, in each case, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for Notes) shall be required and (y) if any such amendment or waiver by its terms will affect a series of Notes in a manner different and materially adverse relative to the manner such amendment or waiver affects other series of Notes, then the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Notes of such series then outstanding (including, in each case, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for Notes) shall be required.

However, without the consent of Holders of at least 90.0% of the principal amount of the Notes affected, no amendment or waiver may (i) reduce the principal amount of Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment or waiver, (ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Note or make any change in the provisions of the Indenture and the Notes relating to the payment of Additional Amounts that adversely affect the rights of any Holder in any material respect, (iii) reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Note, (iv) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note, or change the date on which any Note may be redeemed as described under “—Optional Redemption” above, (v) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in such Note, (vi) impair the right of any Holder of any Note to receive payment of principal of and interest on such Holder’s Note on or after the respective Stated Maturity for such principal or interest payment dates for such interest expressed in such Note, or to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective Stated Maturity or interest payment date, or (vii) make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions described in this sentence. Any amendment, supplement or waiver consented to by Holders of at least 90.0% of the principal amount of the Notes affected will be binding on any non-consenting Holder of the Notes affected.

Without the consent of (or notice to) the Holders, the Issuer, the Trustee and (as applicable) any Guarantor may amend or supplement the Indenture or any Note: to cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect or inconsistency; to provide for the assumption by a successor of the obligations of the Issuer or a Guarantor under the Indenture or any Note; to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; to add Guarantees with respect to the Notes, to secure the Notes, to evidence a successor Trustee, to confirm and evidence the release, termination or discharge of any Guarantee or Lien with respect to or securing the Notes when such release, termination or discharge is provided for under the Indenture or the Notes; to add to the covenants of the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer; to provide for or confirm the issuance of the initial Notes or Additional Notes; to conform the text of the Indenture (including any supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which Additional Notes are issued), the Notes (including any Additional Notes) or any Guarantee to any provision of this “Description of Notes” or, with respect to any Additional Notes and any supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which such Additional Notes are issued, to the “Description of Notes” relating to the issuance of such Additional Notes solely to the extent that such “Description of Notes” provides for terms of such Additional Notes that differ from the terms of the Notes offered hereby; to increase or decrease the Minimum Denomination of the Notes (including for the purposes of redemption or repurchase of any Note in part); to make any change that does not materially adversely affect the rights of any Holder; or to comply with any requirement of the SEC.

In formulating its opinion on such matters, the Trustee will be entitled to request, and rely absolutely on, such evidence as it deems appropriate, including Opinions of Counsel and Officer’s Certificates.

The consent of the Noteholders is not necessary under the Indenture to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, supplement or waiver. It is sufficient if such consent approves the substance of the proposed amendment, supplement or waiver. Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Noteholder is a continuing consent by such Noteholder and every subsequent Holder of all or part of the related Note. Any such Noteholder or subsequent Holder may revoke such consent as to its Note by written notice to the Trustee or the Issuer, received thereby before the date on which the Issuer certifies to the Trustee that the Holders of the requisite principal amount of Notes have consented to such amendment, supplement or waiver. After an amendment, supplement or waiver that requires consent of Noteholders under the Indenture becomes effective, the Issuer is required to send to Noteholders a notice briefly describing such amendment, supplement or waiver. However, the failure to give such notice to all Noteholders, or any defect therein, will not impair or affect the validity of the amendment, supplement or waiver.

Defeasance

The Issuer at any time may terminate all of the respective obligations of the Parent Guarantor and the Issuer under the Notes and the Indenture (“legal defeasance”), except for certain obligations of the Issuer, including those relating to the defeasance trust and obligations to register the transfer or exchange of the Notes, to replace mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and to maintain a Registrar and Paying Agent in respect of the Notes. The Issuer at any time may terminate the respective obligations of the Parent Guarantor and the Issuer under certain covenants under the Indenture, including the covenants described under “—Certain Covenants” (other than the covenant described under “—Listing”) and “—Change of Control Triggering Event,” the operation of the default provisions relating to such covenants described under “—Defaults” above, the operation of the cross acceleration provision, the bankruptcy provisions with respect to Subsidiaries and the judgment default provision described under “—Defaults” above, and the limitations contained in clauses (iii) and (iv) of the first paragraph and clauses (iii) and (iv) of the second paragraph under “—Merger and Consolidation” above (“covenant defeasance”). If the Issuer exercises its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option, each Guarantor will be released from all of its obligations with respect to its Guarantee.

The Issuer may exercise its legal defeasance option notwithstanding its prior exercise of its covenant defeasance option. If the Issuer exercises its legal defeasance option, payment of the Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default with respect thereto. If the Issuer exercises its covenant defeasance option, payment of the Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in clause (iv), (v) (as it relates to the covenants described under “—Certain Covenants” above (other than the covenant described under “—Listing”)), (vi), (vii), (viii) (but only with respect to events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of a Subsidiary other than the Issuer), (ix) or (x) under “—Defaults” above or because of the failure of the Parent Guarantor or the Issuer to comply with clause (iii) or (iv) of the first paragraph and clause (iii) or (iv) of the second paragraph under “—Merger and Consolidation” above.

Either defeasance option may be exercised to any Redemption Date or to the maturity date for the Notes. In order to exercise either defeasance option, the Issuer must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited in trust (the “defeasance trust”) with the Trustee (or such other entity directed, designated or appointed by (and acting for) the Trustee for this purpose) money or European Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, sufficient (without reinvestment) to pay principal of, and premium (if any) and interest on, the Notes to redemption or maturity, as the case may be (provided that if such redemption is made pursuant to the provisions described in the fourth paragraph under “—Optional Redemption,” (x) the amount of money or European Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, that the Issuer must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited will be determined using an assumed Applicable Premium calculated as of the date of such deposit, as calculated by the Issuer, and (y) the Issuer must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited additional money in trust on the applicable Redemption Date as necessary to pay the Applicable Premium as determined on such date), and must comply with certain other conditions, including delivery to the Trustee of (1) an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred (and, in the case of legal defeasance only, such Opinion of Counsel (x) must be based on a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service or other change in applicable U.S. federal income tax law since the Issue Date and (y) need not be delivered if all Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable, will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, or have been called for redemption or are to be called for redemption within one year, under arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer) and (2) of an Opinion of Counsel in the jurisdiction of organization of the Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that the Holders of the Notes will not recognize gain or loss for income tax purposes of such jurisdiction as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to income tax in such jurisdiction on the same amounts and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred.

Satisfaction and Discharge

The Indenture and Notes will be discharged and cease to be of further effect (except as to surviving rights of registration of transfer or exchange of the Notes, as expressly provided for in the Indenture) when (i) either (a) all Notes previously authenticated and delivered (other than certain lost, stolen or destroyed Notes, and certain Notes for which provision for payment was previously made and thereafter the funds have been released to the Issuer) have been cancelled or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or (b) all Notes not previously cancelled or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year or (3) have been called for redemption or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer; (ii) the Issuer has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee (or such other entity directed, designated or appointed by (and acting for) the Trustee for this purpose) money, European Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, sufficient (without reinvestment) to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on the Notes not previously cancelled or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, premium, if any, and interest to the date of such deposit (in the case of Notes that have become due and payable), or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be (provided that if such redemption is made pursuant to the provisions described in the fourth paragraph under “—Optional Redemption,” (1) the amount of money or European Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, that the Issuer must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited will be determined using an assumed Applicable Premium calculated as of the date of such deposit, as calculated by the Issuer in good faith (which calculation shall be conclusive), and (2) the Issuer must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited additional money on the applicable Redemption Date as necessary to pay the Applicable Premium as determined on such date); (iii) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable under the Indenture by the Issuer; (iv) the Issuer has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee under the Indenture to apply the deposited amounts towards the payment of the Notes at maturity or on the redemption date, as the case may be; and (v) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each to the effect that all conditions precedent under the “Satisfaction and Discharge” section of the Indenture relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture have been complied with, provided that any such counsel may rely on any Officer’s Certificate as to matters of fact (including as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii)).

Judgment Currency

Any payment on account of an amount that is payable in Euros (the “Required Currency”) which is made to or for the account of any Holder or the Trustee in lawful currency of any other jurisdiction (the “Judgment Currency”), whether as a result of any judgment or order or the enforcement thereof or the liquidation of the Issuer or any Guarantor, shall constitute a discharge of the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s obligation under the Indenture and the Notes, as the case may be, only to the extent of the amount of the Required Currency which such Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, could purchase in the London foreign exchange markets with the amount of the Judgment Currency in accordance with normal banking procedures at the rate of exchange prevailing on the first Business Day following receipt of the payment in the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Required Currency that could be so purchased is less than the amount of the Required Currency originally due to such Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, under the Indenture or the Notes, the Issuer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, from and against all loss sustained by such recipient as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity shall constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in the Indenture or the Notes, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder or the Trustee from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due under the Indenture, the Notes or any judgment or order.

No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees, Incorporators and Stockholders

No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer, any Guarantor or any Subsidiary of any thereof shall have any liability for any obligation of the Issuer or any Guarantor under the Indenture, the Notes or any Guarantee, or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, any such obligation or its creation. Each Noteholder, by accepting the Notes, waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes.

Concerning the Trustee

Wilmington Trust, National Association, will be the Trustee under the Indenture.

The Indenture will provide that, except during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Trustee will perform only such duties as are set forth specifically in the Indenture. During the existence of an Event of Default, the Trustee will exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it under the Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

The Indenture will impose certain limitations on the rights of the Trustee, should it become a creditor of the Issuer, to obtain payment of claims in certain cases or to realize on certain property received by it in respect of any such claims, as security or otherwise. The Trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions; provided, that if it acquires any conflicting interest, it must eliminate such conflict or resign.

Listing

Application has been made to list the Notes on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to admit the Notes to trading on the Euro MTF market. As long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, an agent for making transfers of Notes will be maintained in Luxembourg. The Issuer has initially designated Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. as its agent for those purposes. The address of Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. is 2, boulevard Konrad Adenauer, L-1115 Luxembourg.

Transfer and Exchange

The Global Notes (as defined below) may be transferred only to Euroclear, Clearstream, their common depository or a successor or nominee of such entities. Ownership of interests in the Global Notes ("Book Entry Interests") will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer and certification requirements.

All transfers of Book Entry Interests between participants in Euroclear or participants in Clearstream will be effected by Euroclear or Clearstream pursuant to the Indenture and customary procedures established by Euroclear or Clearstream and subject to the applicable rules and procedures established by Euroclear or Clearstream and their respective participants.

Notes sold within the United States of America to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act will initially be represented by one Global Note in registered form without interest coupons attached (the "144A Global Note"), and notes sold outside the United States of America pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act will initially be represented by one Global Note in registered form without interest coupons attached (the "Reg S Global Note," and together with the 144A Global Note, the "Global Notes"). Book Entry Interests in the 144A Global Note, or the "Restricted Book Entry Interests," may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of Book Entry Interests in the Reg S Global Note, or the "Reg S Book Entry Interests," only upon delivery by the transferor of a written order given in accordance with the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, containing information regarding the participant account of Euroclear or Clearstream to be credited with a Book Entry Interest, together with certifications and other information satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee. Prior to 40 days after the date of initial issuance of the Notes, ownership of Reg S Book Entry Interests will be limited to Persons who have accounts with Euroclear or Clearstream or Persons who hold interests through Euroclear or Clearstream, and any sale or transfer of such interest to U.S. Persons shall not be permitted during such period unless such resale or transfer is made pursuant to Rule 144A. Subject to the foregoing, Reg S Book Entry Interests may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of Restricted Book Entry Interests only upon delivery by the transferor of a written order given in accordance with the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, together with a written certification (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that such transfer is being made to a Person who the transferor reasonably believes is a “qualified institutional buyer” within the meaning of Rule 144A in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or otherwise in accordance with applicable transfer restrictions and all applicable securities laws of the United States of America, any state of the United States of America or any other jurisdiction.

Any Book Entry Interest that is so transferred will, upon transfer, cease to be a Book Entry Interest in the Global Note from which it was transferred and become a Book Entry Interest in the Global Note to which it was transferred, and accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions, if any, and other procedures applicable to Book Entry Interests in such Global Note to which it was transferred for as long as it remains such a Book Entry Interest. In connection with such transfer, appropriate adjustments will be made to reflect a decrease in the principal amount of the Global Note from which it was transferred and a corresponding increase in the principal amount of the Global Note to which it was transferred, as applicable.

If Physical Notes are issued, they will be issued only in the limited circumstances provided in the Indenture and in the Minimum Denomination and integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof, upon receipt by the Registrar of instructions relating thereto and any certificates and other documentation required by the applicable rules and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, as the case may be, and the Indenture. Physical Notes issued in exchange for a Book Entry Interest will, except as set forth in the Indenture, be subject to, and will have a legend with respect to, certain transfer restrictions.

Subject to certain restrictions on transfer, Notes issued as Physical Notes may be transferred, in whole or in part, in the Minimum Denomination or integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof, to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of Physical Notes. In connection with any such transfer, the Indenture will require the transferor to, among other things, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents, furnish certain certificates and to pay any Taxes, duties and governmental charges in connection with such transfer. Any such transfer will be made without charge to the Holder, other than any Taxes, duties and governmental charges payable in connection with such transfer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer is not required to issue, exchange or transfer any Note:

- (a) for a period of 15 Business Days before the day of the sending of any notice of redemption or purchase;
  - (b) for a period of 15 calendar days immediately prior to the date fixed for selection of Notes for redemption or purchase;
  - (c) for a period of 15 calendar days prior to the regular record date with respect to any interest payment date;
- or
- (d) which the Holder has tendered (and not withdrawn) for repurchase in connection with a Change of Control Offer or an Offer.

The Board of Directors may designate any Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor (including any newly acquired or newly formed Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor), other than the Issuer and any direct or indirect parent entity of the Issuer, to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary unless such Subsidiary or any of its Subsidiaries owns any Capital Stock or Indebtedness of, or owns or holds any Lien on any property of, the Parent Guarantor or any other Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Guarantor that is not a Subsidiary of the Subsidiary to be so designated; provided, that (A) such designation was made at or prior to the Issue Date or (B) the Subsidiary to be so designated has total consolidated assets of $1,000 or less or (C) if such Subsidiary has consolidated assets greater than $1,000, then such designation would be permitted under the covenant described under "—Certain Covenants—Limitation on Restricted Payments." ## BOOK-ENTRY; DELIVERY AND FORM

General

The Notes issued on the Issue Date will be issued in the form of Global Notes in fully registered form without interest coupons and the Global Notes in aggregate will represent the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes. Each Global Note will be deposited with, or on behalf of, a common depository for the Euroclear System, which we refer to in this offering memorandum as “Euroclear,” and for Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, which we refer to in this offering memorandum as “Clearstream.”

The Issuer will issue Notes in denominations of €100,000 and in integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof. Notes in denominations of less than €100,000 will not be available.

Notes sold within the U.S. to QIBs pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act will initially be represented by the 144A Global Note, and Notes sold outside the U.S. pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act will initially be represented by the Regulation S Global Note. On the Issue Date, the Global Notes will be deposited with, and registered in the name of, a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, or its nominee which we refer to as “Book-Entry Interests.” The Notes will not be eligible for clearance with The Depository Trust Company.

Book-Entry Interests will be limited to persons that have accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream or persons that may hold interests through such participants. Book-Entry Interests will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained in book-entry form by Euroclear and/or Clearstream and their participants.

The Book-Entry Interests will not be held in definitive form. Instead, Euroclear and/or Clearstream will credit on their respective book-entry registration and transfer systems a participant’s account with the Book-Entry Interest beneficially owned by such participant. The laws of some jurisdictions, including certain states of the U.S., may require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of such securities in definitive form. The foregoing limitations may impair the ability to own, transfer or pledge Book-Entry Interests. In addition, while the Notes are in global form, owners of interests in the Global Notes will not have Notes registered in their names, will not receive physical delivery of notes in certificated form and will not be considered the registered owners or “Noteholders” thereof under the Indenture for any purpose.

Physical Notes

Under the terms of the Indenture, owners of Book-Entry Interests will receive Physical Notes in registered form only in the following circumstances:

- if either Euroclear or Clearstream, or their common depository, notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue to act as depository and a successor depository is not appointed by us within 120 days;
- if the Issuer, at its option, notifies the Trustee that it elects to cause the issuance of Physical Notes; or
- if either Euroclear or Clearstream, or their common depository, requests such exchange in writing following an Event of Default under the Indenture that shall be continuing.

Euroclear has advised the Issuer that upon request by an owner of a Book-Entry Interest following an Event of Default (as defined under the Indenture), its current procedure is to request that the Issuer issue or cause to be issued Physical Notes to all owners of Book-Entry Interests.

In such an event, the registrar will issue Physical Notes, registered in the name or names and issued in any approved denominations, requested by or on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as applicable (in accordance with their respective customary procedures and based upon directions received from participants reflecting the beneficial ownership of Book-Entry Interests), and such Physical Notes will bear a restrictive legend with respect to certain transfer restrictions, unless that legend is not required by the Indenture or applicable law.

To the extent permitted by law, the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the transfer agent and the Registrar shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any Global Note as the absolute owner thereof.

The Issuer will not impose any fees or other charges in respect of the Notes except as set forth under the Indenture; however, holders of the Book-Entry Interests may incur fees normally payable in respect of the maintenance and operation of accounts in Euroclear and/or Clearstream.

So long as the Notes are held in global form, the common depository for Euroclear and/or Clearstream (or its nominee) will be considered the sole Holder of Global Notes for all purposes under the Indenture. As such, participants must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream and indirect participants must rely on the procedures of the participants through which they own Book-Entry Interests in order to exercise any rights of Noteholders under the Indenture.

Neither the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent, the Luxembourg Listing Agent, the Registrar nor any of their agents will have any responsibility or be liable for any aspect of the records relating to the Book-Entry Interests.

Redemption of Global Notes

In the event a Global Note, or any portion thereof, is redeemed, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as applicable, will distribute the amount received by them in respect of the Global Note so redeemed to the holders of the Book-Entry Interests in such Global Note from the amount received by it in respect of the redemption of such Global Note. The redemption price payable in connection with the redemption of such Book-Entry Interests will be equal to the amount received by Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, in connection with the redemption of such Global Note (or any portion thereof). The Issuer understands that under existing practices of Euroclear and Clearstream, if fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, Euroclear and Clearstream will credit their respective participants' accounts on a proportionate basis (with adjustments to prevent fractions) or on such other basis as they deem fair and appropriate; provided, however, that no Book-Entry Interest of less than €100,000 in principal amount may be redeemed in part.

Payments on Global Notes

Payments of any amounts owing in respect of the Global Notes (including principal, premium interest and Additional Amounts) will be made by the Issuer in euros to the Paying Agent. The Paying Agent will, in turn, make such payments to the common depository for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, which will distribute such payments to participants in accordance with their respective procedures.

Under the terms of the Indenture, the Issuer and the Trustee will treat the registered holder of the Global Notes (e.g., the common depository or its nominee) as the owner thereof for the purpose of receiving payments and for all other purposes. Consequently, neither the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent, the Luxembourg Listing Agent, the Registrar nor any of their respective agents has or will have any responsibility or liability for:

- any aspect of the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a Book-Entry Interest, for any such payments made by Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participants, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a Book-Entry Interest;
- any other matter relating to the actions and practices of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant; or
- the common depository, Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant.

Payments by participants to owners of Book-Entry Interests held through participants are the responsibility of such participants, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in "street name."

In order to tender Book Entry Interests in a Change of Control Offer or an Offer, the Holder of the applicable Global Note must, within the time period specified in such offer, give notice of such tender to the Paying Agent and specify the principal amount of Book-Entry Interests to be tendered.

Action by Owners of Book-Entry Interests

Euroclear and Clearstream have advised the Issuer that they will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder (including the presentation of Notes for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the Book-Entry Interests in the Global Notes are credited and only in respect of such portion to the aggregate principal amount of Notes as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. Euroclear and Clearstream will not exercise any discretion in the granting of consents, waivers or the taking of any other action in respect of the Global Notes. However, if there occurs an Event of Default that is continuing under the Notes, each of Euroclear and Clearstream reserves the right to exchange the Global Notes for Physical Notes in certificated form, and to distribute such Physical Notes to its participants.

Global Clearance and Settlement under the Book-Entry System

Initial Settlement

Initial settlement for the Notes will be made in euros. Book-Entry Interests owned through Euroclear or Clearstream accounts will follow the settlement procedures applicable to conventional eurobonds in registered form. Book-Entry Interests will be credited to the securities custody accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream holders on the business day following the settlement date against payment for value on the settlement date.

Secondary Market Trading

The Book-Entry Interests will trade through participants of Euroclear or Clearstream and will settle in same-day funds. Since the purchase determines the place of delivery, it is important to establish at the time of trading of any Book-Entry Interests where both the purchaser's and seller's accounts are located to ensure that settlement can be made on the desired value date.

Information Concerning Euroclear and Clearstream

Euroclear and Clearstream hold securities for participating organizations and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between their respective participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of such participants. Euroclear and Clearstream provide to their participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Euroclear and Clearstream interface with domestic securities markets. Euroclear and Clearstream participants are financial institutions such as underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and certain other organizations. Indirect access to Euroclear or Clearstream is also available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodian relationship with a Euroclear or Clearstream participant, either directly or indirectly.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Notes by a U.S. Holder (as defined below). This summary deals only with initial purchasers of Notes at the "issue price" (the first price at which a substantial amount of the Notes is sold for cash to investors other than to bond houses, brokers or similar persons acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers) that are U.S. Holders and that will hold the Notes as capital assets (generally, property held for investment). The discussion does not cover all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to, or the actual tax effect that any of the matters described herein will have on, the acquisition, ownership or disposition of the Notes by any particular investor, and does not address state, local, foreign or other tax laws. This summary also does not discuss all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to certain types of investors subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (such as banks or other financial institutions, insurance companies, dealers in securities or other persons that generally mark their securities to market for U.S. federal income tax purposes, tax-exempt entities, retirement plans, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, former citizens or residents of the U.S., partnerships or other pass-through entities (or investors therein), persons that hold the Notes as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion or other integrated transaction, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax or U.S. Holders that have a "functional currency" other than the U.S. dollar).

As used herein, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the U.S., (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S., any state thereof, or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source or (iv) a trust (x) with respect to which a court within the U.S. is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or (y) that has in effect a valid election under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

If an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes invests in a Note, the tax treatment of a partner of such entity will depend in part upon the status and activities of the entity and of the particular partner. Any such entity should consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences applicable to it and its partners relating to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Notes.

This summary is based on the tax laws of the U.S., including the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, all as in effect on the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change or to different interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary is for general information only and is not tax advice. This summary is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) or a court. We have not sought, and do not intend to seek, any ruling from the IRS with respect to any of the statements made in this summary, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not take a position contrary to these statements, or that a contrary position taken by the IRS would not be sustained by a court.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE NOTES IN LIGHT OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Effect of Certain Contingent Payments

In certain circumstances, we are required to make payments on the Notes in addition to stated interest and principal (see, e.g. “Description of Notes—Optional Redemption,” “Description of Notes—Redemption for Changes in Taxes,” “Description of Notes—Change of Control Triggering Event” and “Description of Notes—Additional Amounts”). U.S. Treasury regulations provide special rules for contingent payment debt instruments which, if applicable, could cause the timing, amount and character of a U.S. Holder’s income, gain or loss with respect to the Notes to be different from those described below. For purposes of determining whether a debt instrument is a contingent payment debt instrument, remote or incidental contingencies are ignored. We intend to treat the possibility of our making any of the above payments as remote and/or to treat such payments as incidental. Accordingly, we do not intend to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments. Our position will be binding on all U.S. Holders, except a U.S. Holder that discloses its differing position in a statement attached to its timely filed U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year during which the Notes were acquired by such U.S. Holder. However, our position is not binding on the IRS. If the IRS were to successfully challenge our position, a U.S. Holder might be required to accrue ordinary income on the Notes in excess of stated interest, to treat as ordinary income, rather than capital gain, any gain recognized on the taxable disposition of the Notes before the resolution of the contingencies, and to recognize foreign currency exchange gain or loss with respect to such income. In any event, if we actually make any such additional payment, the timing, amount and character of a U.S. Holder’s income, gain or loss with respect to the Notes may be affected. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the Notes will not be treated as contingent payment debt instruments.

Payments of Interest

General

Interest on a Note will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary income at the time it is received or accrued, depending on the holder’s method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is expected, and this summary assumes, that the Notes will not be treated as issued with “original issue discount” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Interest paid by the Issuer on the Notes generally will be considered income from sources outside the U.S. and, for purposes of the U.S. foreign tax credit, generally will be considered passive category income. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors concerning the applicability of the U.S. foreign tax credit and source of income rules to income attributable to the Notes.

Foreign Currency Denominated Interest

The amount of interest income recognized by a cash basis U.S. Holder will be the U.S. dollar value of the Euro interest payment, based on the exchange rate in effect on the date of receipt, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars.

An accrual basis U.S. Holder may determine the amount of income recognized with respect to an interest payment denominated in Euros in accordance with either of two methods. Under the first method, the amount of income accrued will be based on the average exchange rate in effect during the interest accrual period (or, in the case of an accrual period that spans two taxable years of a U.S. Holder, the part of the period within the taxable year).

Under the second method, a U.S. Holder may elect to determine the amount of income accrued on the basis of the exchange rate in effect on the last day of the accrual period (or, in the case of an accrual period that spans two taxable years, the exchange rate in effect on the last day of the part of the period within the taxable year). Additionally, if a payment of interest is actually received within five business days of the last day of the accrual period, an electing accrual basis U.S. Holder may instead translate the accrued interest into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the day the payment is received. A U.S. Holder that elects to use this second method must apply it consistently to all debt instruments held by the U.S. Holder at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and any debt instruments thereafter acquired by the U.S. Holder, and the U.S. Holder cannot revoke the election without the consent of the IRS.

Upon receipt of a Euro interest payment (including a payment attributable to accrued but unpaid interest upon the sale or other disposition of a Note), an accrual basis U.S. Holder will generally recognize U.S. source exchange gain or loss (which is taxable as ordinary income or loss, and is generally not treated as an adjustment to interest income or expense) equal to the difference, if any, between the amount received (translated into U.S. dollars at the spot rate on the date of receipt) and the amount previously accrued in U.S. dollars with respect to such payment, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars.

Sale, Exchange, Redemption, Retirement or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes

Upon the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the amount realized on such disposition (i.e., the amount of cash and the fair market value of any property received, excluding amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be taxable as ordinary income to such U.S. Holder, to the extent not previously included in income) and (ii) such U.S. Holder's "adjusted tax basis" in such Note. A U.S. Holder's "adjusted tax basis" in a Note is generally its U.S. dollar cost (as defined below). The U.S. dollar cost of a Note purchased with Euros will generally be the U.S. dollar value of the purchase price on the date of purchase, or the settlement date for the purchase, in the case of Notes traded on an established securities market, as defined in the applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, that are purchased by a cash basis U.S. Holder (or an accrual basis U.S. Holder that so elects). The amount realized on a sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition for an amount in Euros will be the U.S. dollar value of this amount on the date of such disposition, or the settlement date for the sale, in the case of Notes traded on an established securities market sold by a cash basis U.S. Holder (or an accrual basis U.S. Holder that so elects). A U.S. Holder that makes the election described above must apply it consistently to all debt instruments held by the U.S. Holder at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and any debt instruments thereafter acquired by such U.S. Holder, and such U.S. Holder cannot revoke the election without the consent of the IRS. If a Note is not traded on an established securities market (or, if a Note is so traded, but a U.S. Holder is an accrual basis taxpayer that has not made the settlement date election), a U.S. Holder will recognize foreign currency gain or loss (taxable as ordinary income or loss) to the extent that the U.S. dollar value of the Euros received on the settlement date differs from the U.S. dollar value of the amount realized on the date of the taxable disposition.

A U.S. Holder will recognize U.S. source exchange rate gain or loss (taxable as ordinary income or loss) on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note equal to the difference, if any, between the U.S. dollar values of the U.S. Holder's purchase price for the Note (i) on the date of such disposition and (ii) on the date on which the U.S. Holder acquired the Note. Any such exchange rate gain or loss (including any exchange gain or loss with respect to the receipt of accrued but unpaid interest) will be realized only to the extent of total gain or loss realized on the taxable disposition.

Except to the extent attributable to changes in exchange rates, gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of a Note will be U.S. source capital gain or loss and will be long-term U.S. source capital gain or loss if the Note was held by the U.S. Holder for more than one year. For certain non-corporate holders (including individuals), any such long-term capital gain is currently subject to U.S. federal income tax at preferential rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Prospective purchasers should consult their tax advisors as to the foreign tax credit implications of the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other taxable disposition of Notes.

Disposition of Foreign Currency

A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the Euros received as interest on a Note or on the sale or other disposition of a Note will be the U.S. dollar value of the Euros at the time the Euros are received. In addition, foreign currency that is purchased will generally have a tax basis equal to the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency on the date of purchase. Any gain or loss recognized on a sale or other disposition of a foreign currency (including its use to purchase Notes or upon exchange for U.S. dollars) generally will be U.S. source ordinary income or loss.

Additional Tax on Net Investment Income

An additional tax of 3.8% may be imposed on the "net investment income" of certain U.S. individuals and on the undistributed "net investment income" of certain estates and trusts. Among other items, "net investment income" generally includes payments of interest, accruals of OID and certain net gains from the disposition of investment property. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the rules described above.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments of principal and interest on, and the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of, Notes by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary will be reported to the IRS and to the U.S. Holder as may be required under applicable regulations. Backup withholding may apply to these payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number and fails to report all interest and dividends required to be shown on its U.S. federal income tax returns, or otherwise fails to establish its exempt status. Certain U.S. Holders (including, among others, corporations) generally are not subject to backup withholding. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining an exemption.

Reportable Transactions

A U.S. taxpayer that participates in a "reportable transaction" will be required to disclose its participation to the IRS. Under the relevant rules, since the Notes are denominated in a foreign currency, a U.S. Holder may be required to treat a foreign currency exchange loss from the Notes as a reportable transaction if this loss exceeds the relevant threshold in the regulations and to disclose its investment by filing Form 8886 with the IRS. Prospective purchasers should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of these rules.

Foreign Financial Asset Reporting

Certain U.S. Holders may be required to report information relating to their holding of certain foreign financial assets, including debt of foreign entities, if the aggregate value of all of these assets exceeds certain thresholds. The Notes are expected to constitute foreign financial assets subject to these requirements unless the Notes are held in an account at certain financial institutions. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their reporting obligations with respect to the Notes.

Certain Dutch Tax Considerations

Introduction

The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all Dutch tax considerations that could be relevant to holders of the Notes. This summary is intended for general information only. Each prospective holder should consult a professional tax adviser with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in the Notes. This summary is based on Dutch tax legislation and published case law in force as of the date of this document. It does not take into account any developments or amendments thereof after that date, whether or not such developments or amendments have retroactive effect. For the purposes of this section, "the Netherlands" shall mean that part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands that is in Europe.

Scope

Regardless of whether or not a holder of Notes is, or is treated as being, a resident of the Netherlands, this summary, with the exception of the section on withholding tax below, does not address the Netherlands tax consequences for such a holder:

- (i) having a substantial interest (aanmerkelijk belang) or deemed substantial interest in the Issuer (such a substantial interest is generally present if an equity stake of at least 5%, or a right to acquire such a stake, is held, in each case by reference to the Issuer's total issued and outstanding capital, or the issued and outstanding capital of a certain class of shares);

- (ii) who is a private individual and who may be taxed in box 1 for the purposes of Netherlands income tax (inkomstenbelasting) as an entrepreneur (ondernemer) having an enterprise (onderneming) to which the Notes are attributable, or who may otherwise be taxed in box 1 with respect to benefits derived from the Notes;
- (iii) which is a corporate entity and a taxpayer for the purposes of Netherlands corporate income tax (vennootschapsbelasting), having a participation (deelneming) in the Issuer (such a participation is generally present in the case of an interest of at least 5% of the Issuer's nominal paid-in capital);
- (iv) which is a corporate entity and an exempt investment institution (vrijgestelde beleggingsinstelling) or investment institution (beleggingsinstelling) for the purposes of Netherlands corporate income tax, a pension fund, or otherwise, in whole or in part, not subject to or exempt from Netherlands corporate income tax;
- (v) which is a corporate entity and a resident of Aruba, Curaçao or Sint Maarten; or
- (vi) which is not considered the beneficial owner (uiteindelijk gerechtigde) of the Notes and/or the benefits derived from the Notes.

This summary does not describe the Netherlands tax consequences for a person to whom the Notes are attributed on the basis of the separated private assets provisions (afgezonderd particulier vermogen) in the Netherlands Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) and/or the Netherlands Gift and Inheritance Tax Act 1956 (Successiewet 1956).

Withholding Tax

All payments made by the Issuer under the Notes may be made free of withholding or deduction for any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, withheld or assessed by the Netherlands or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

Income Tax

Resident Holders

A holder who is a private individual and a resident, or treated as being a resident of the Netherlands for the purposes of Netherlands income tax, must record Notes as assets that are held in box 3. Taxable income with regard to the Notes is then determined on the basis of a deemed return on income from savings and investments (sparen en beleggen), rather than on the basis of income actually received or gains actually realised. This deemed return is fixed at a rate of 4% of the holder's yield basis (rendementsgrondslag) at the beginning of the calendar year, insofar as the yield basis exceeds a certain threshold (heffingvrij vermogen). Such yield basis is determined as the fair market value of certain qualifying assets held by the holder of the Notes, less the fair market value of certain qualifying liabilities at the beginning of the calendar year. The fair market value of the Notes will be included as an asset in the holder's yield basis. The deemed return on income from savings and investments is taxed at a rate of 30%. As from January 2017, instead of the deemed return of 4% three graduated rates (presently estimated 2.9%, 4.7% and 5.5%), which will be adjusted annually, will apply.

Non-resident Holders

A holder who is a private individual and neither a resident, nor treated as being a resident, of the Netherlands for the purposes of Netherlands income tax, will not be subject to such tax in respect of benefits derived from the Notes, unless such holder is entitled to a share in the profits of an enterprise or a co-entitlement to the net worth of an enterprise which is effectively managed in the Netherlands, to which enterprise the Notes are attributable.

Corporate Income Tax

Resident Holders

A holder which is a corporate entity and, for the purposes of Netherlands corporate income tax, a resident, or treated as being a resident, of the Netherlands, is taxed in respect of benefits derived from the Notes at rates of up to 25%.

Non-resident Holders

A holder which is a corporate entity and, for the purposes of Netherlands corporate income tax, is neither a resident, nor treated as being a resident, of the Netherlands, will not be subject to corporate income tax, unless such holder has an interest in an enterprise that is, in whole or in part, carried on through a permanent establishment, a deemed permanent establishment or a permanent representative in the Netherlands, a Netherlands Enterprise (Nederlandse onderneming), to which Netherlands Enterprise the Notes are attributable, or such holder is (other than by way of securities) entitled to a share in the profits of an enterprise or a co-entitlement to the net worth of an enterprise, which is effectively managed in the Netherlands and to which enterprise the Notes are attributable. Such holder is taxed in respect of benefits derived from the Notes at rates of up to 25%.

Gift and Inheritance Tax

Resident Holders

Netherlands gift tax or inheritance tax (schenk- of erfbelasting) will arise in respect of an acquisition (or deemed acquisition) of Notes by way of a gift by, or on the death of, a holder of Notes who is a resident, or treated as being a resident, of the Netherlands for the purposes of Netherlands gift and inheritance tax at the time of the gift or his/her death.

Non-resident Holders

No Netherlands gift tax or inheritance tax will arise in respect of an acquisition (or deemed acquisition) of Notes by way of a gift by, or on the death of, a holder of Notes who is neither a resident, nor treated as being a resident, of the Netherlands for the purposes of Netherlands gift and inheritance tax unless the acquisition is otherwise construed as a gift or inheritance made by, or on behalf of, a person who, at the time of the gift or death, is deemed to be resident in The Netherlands.

Other Taxes

No Netherlands turnover tax (omzetbelasting) will arise in respect of any payment in consideration for the issue of Notes, with respect to any cash settlement of Notes or with respect to the delivery of Notes. Furthermore, no Netherlands registration tax, capital tax, transfer tax or stamp duty (nor any other similar documentary tax or duty) will be payable in connection with the issue or acquisition of the Notes.

Residency

A holder will not become a resident, or a deemed resident, of the Netherlands for Netherlands tax purposes by reason only of holding the Notes.

Stabilization and Short Positions

In connection with the offering of the Notes, the Initial Purchasers (or persons acting on behalf of the Initial Purchasers) may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, there is no assurance that the Initial Purchasers (or persons acting on behalf of the Initial Purchasers) will undertake stabilization action. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offering of the Notes is made and, if begun, may be ended at any time, but it must end no later than 30 days after the date on which the Issuer received the proceeds of the issue, or no later than 60 days after the date of the allotment of the Notes, whichever is the earlier.

Notice to Prospective Investors in Canada

This document constitutes an "exempt offering document" as defined in and for the purposes of applicable Canadian securities laws. No prospectus has been filed with any securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada in connection with the offer and sale of the securities described herein (the "Securities"). No securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed upon this document or on the merits of the Securities and any representation to the contrary is an offence.

Canadian investors are advised that this document has been prepared in reliance on section 3A.3 of National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts (“NI 33-105”). Pursuant to section 3A.3 of NI 33-105, this document is exempt from the requirement to provide investors with certain conflicts of interest disclosure pertaining to “connected issuer” and/or “related issuer” relationships as would otherwise be required pursuant to subsection 2.1(1) of NI 33-105.

Resale Restrictions

The offer and sale of the Securities in Canada is being made on a private placement basis only and is exempt from the requirement to prepare and file a prospectus under applicable Canadian securities laws. Any resale of Securities acquired by a Canadian investor in this offering must be made in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws, which may vary depending on the relevant jurisdiction, and which may require resales to be made in accordance with Canadian prospectus requirements, a statutory exemption from the prospectus requirements, in a transaction exempt from the prospectus requirements or otherwise under a discretionary exemption from the prospectus requirements granted by the applicable local Canadian securities regulatory authority. These resale restrictions may under certain circumstances apply to resales of the Securities outside of Canada.

Representations of Purchasers

Each Canadian investor who purchases the Securities will be deemed to have represented to the issuer and to each dealer from whom a purchase confirmation is received, as applicable, that the investor (i) is purchasing as principal, or is deemed to be purchasing as principal in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws, for investment only and not with a view to resale or redistribution; (ii) is an “accredited investor” as such term is defined in section 1.1 of National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions (“NI 45-106”) or, in Ontario, as such term is defined in section 73.3(1) of the Securities Act (Ontario); and (iii) is a “permitted client” as such term is defined in section 1.1 of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations.

Taxation and Eligibility for Investment

Any discussion of taxation and related matters contained in this document does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a Canadian investor when deciding to purchase the Securities and, in particular, does not address any Canadian tax considerations. No representation or warranty is hereby made as to the tax consequences to a resident, or deemed resident, of Canada of an investment in the Securities or with respect to the eligibility of the Securities for investment by such investor under relevant Canadian federal and provincial legislation and regulations.

Rights of Action for Damages or Rescission

Securities legislation in certain of the Canadian jurisdictions provides certain purchasers of securities pursuant to an offering memorandum, including where the distribution involves an “eligible foreign security” as such term is defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 45-501 Ontario Prospectus and Registration Exemptions and in Multilateral Instrument 45-107 Listing Representation and Statutory Rights of Action Disclosure Exemptions, as applicable, with a remedy for damages or rescission, or both, in addition to any other rights they may have at law, where the offering memorandum, or other offering document that constitutes an offering memorandum, and any amendment thereto, contains a “misrepresentation” as defined under applicable Canadian securities laws. These remedies, or notice with respect to these remedies, must be exercised or delivered, as the case may be, by the purchaser within the time limits prescribed under, and are subject to limitations and defences under, applicable Canadian securities legislation. In addition, these remedies are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy available at law to the investor.

Language of Documents

Upon receipt of this document, each Canadian investor hereby confirms that it has expressly requested that all documents evidencing or relating in any way to the sale of the Securities described herein (including for greater certainty any purchase confirmation or any notice) be drawn up in the English language only. Par la réception de ce document, chaque investisseur canadien confirme par les présentes qu’il a expressément exigé que tous les documents faisant foi ou se rapportant de quelque manière que ce soit à la vente des valeurs mobilières décrites aux présentes (incluant, pour plus de certitude, toute confirmation d’achat ou tout avis) soient rédigés en anglais seulement.

Rule 144A and Regulation S

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold within the U.S., or to or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. See “Transfer Restrictions.” The Notes have no established trading market. The Initial Purchasers have advised us of their intention to make a market for the Notes, but have no obligation to do so and may discontinue market-making at any time without providing any notice. We cannot assure you as to the liquidity of any trading market for the Notes. In addition, any market-making activities will be subject to the limits imposed by the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

We have been advised by the Initial Purchasers that the Initial Purchasers propose to resell the Notes to (i) qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act and (ii) outside the U.S. to certain non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. See “Transfer Restrictions.”

The Initial Purchasers have acknowledged and agreed that, except as permitted by the purchase agreement, in connection with sales outside the U.S., they will not offer, sell or deliver the Notes to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering or the date the Notes were originally issued. The Initial Purchasers will send to each dealer to whom they sell the Notes in reliance on Regulation S during the 40-day distribution compliance period, a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the U.S. or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S under the Securities Act.

In addition, until the expiration of the 40-day distribution compliance period referred to above, an offer or sale of the Notes within the U.S. by a dealer (whether or not participating in this offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act or pursuant to another exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

European Economic Area

This offering memorandum has been prepared on the basis that all offers of Notes will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive (as defined below), as implemented in Member States of the EEA, from the requirement to produce a prospectus for offers of securities. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make any offer within the EEA of Notes, which are the subject of the offering contemplated in this offering memorandum, should only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or the Initial Purchasers to produce a prospectus for such offer. Neither the Issuer nor the Initial Purchasers have authorized, nor do they authorize, the making of any offer of Notes through any financial intermediary, other than offers made by the Initial Purchasers, which constitute the final placement of Notes contemplated in this offering memorandum.

In relation to each Member State of the EEA which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), the Initial Purchasers have represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the “Relevant Implementation Date”) they have not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the offering memorandum to the public in that Relevant Member State other than:

- to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- to fewer than 150, natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), as permitted under the Prospectus Directive, subject to obtaining the prior consent of the initial purchaser for any such offer; or
- in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Notes shall require us or the Initial Purchasers to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression “an offer of Notes to the public” in relation to any Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Relevant Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Notes before the Notes are delivered will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle in T+7, to specify an alternative settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the Notes who wish to trade the Notes before their delivery should consult their own advisor.

In addition, affiliates of the Initial Purchasers from time to time have acted, or in the future may act, as agents and lenders to us and our affiliates and subsidiaries under our or their respective credit facilities and other asset-based and asset-backed financing arrangements, or as trustee under the indentures governing our Senior Notes, for which services they have received, or in the future will receive, customary compensation.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Initial Purchasers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Typically, these Initial Purchasers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities, including potentially the notes offered hereby. Any such credit default swaps or short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the notes offered hereby. The Initial Purchasers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

LIMITATIONS ON VALIDITY AND ENFORCEABILITY OF THE GUARANTEES AND CERTAIN INSOLVENCY LAW CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary description of certain limitations on the validity and enforceability of the Guarantees for the Notes, and a summary of certain insolvency law considerations in some of the jurisdictions in which the Issuer and the Guarantors are incorporated or organized. The description is only a summary and does not purport to be complete or to discuss all of the limitations or considerations that may affect the validity and enforceability of the Notes and the Guarantees. Prospective investors in the Notes should consult their own legal advisors with respect to such limitations and considerations.

European Union

The Issuer and certain of the Non-U.S. Subsidiary Guarantors are organized under the laws of Member States of the EU. Pursuant to Council Regulation (EC) no. 1346/2000 on insolvency proceedings (the “EU Insolvency Regulation”), the court which shall have jurisdiction to open insolvency proceedings in relation to a company is the court of the Member State (other than Denmark) where the company concerned has its “centre of main interests” (as that term is used in Article 3(1) of the EU Insolvency Regulation). The determination of where any such company has its “centre of main interests” is a question of fact on which the courts of the different Member States may have differing and even conflicting views.

The term “centre of main interests” is not a static concept and may change from time to time. Although there is a rebuttable presumption under Article 3(1) of the EU Insolvency Regulation that any such company has its “centre of main interests” in the Member State in which it has its registered office, Preamble 13 of the EU Insolvency Regulation states that the “centre of main interests” of a debtor should correspond to the place where the debtor conducts the administration of its interests on a regular basis and “is therefore ascertainable by third parties.” In that respect, factors such as where board meetings are held, the location where the company conducts the majority of its business and the location where the large majority of the company’s creditors are established may all be relevant in the determination of the place where the company has its “centre of main interests.”

If the centre of main interests of a company is and will remain located in the state in which it has its registered office, the main insolvency proceedings in respect of the company under the EU Insolvency Regulation would be commenced in such jurisdiction and accordingly a court in such jurisdiction would be entitled to commence the types of insolvency proceedings referred to in Annex A to the EU Insolvency Regulation. Insolvency proceedings opened in one Member State under the EU Insolvency Regulation are to be recognized in the other Member States (other than Denmark), although secondary proceedings may be opened in another Member State. If the “centre of main interests” of a debtor is in one Member State (other than Denmark), under Article 3(2) of the EU Insolvency Regulation, the courts of another Member State (other than Denmark) have jurisdiction to open “territorial proceedings” only in the event that such debtor has an “establishment” in the territory of such other Member State. The effects of those territorial proceedings are restricted to the assets of the debtor situated in the territory of such other Member State. If the company does not have an establishment in any other Member State, no court of any other Member State has jurisdiction to open territorial proceedings in respect of such company under the EU Insolvency Regulation.

In the event that any one or more of the Issuer or the Guarantors experience financial difficulty, it is not possible to predict with certainty in which jurisdiction or jurisdictions insolvency or similar proceedings would be commenced, or the outcome of such proceedings. Applicable insolvency laws may affect the enforceability of the obligations and the security of the Issuer and the Guarantors.

Starting from June 26, 2017, Regulation (EU) 2015/848 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 on insolvency proceedings will replace the EU Insolvency Regulation. The content of Regulation (EU) 2015/848 of the European Parliament and of the Council of May 20, 2015 on insolvency proceedings is not summarized in this offering memorandum.

The Netherlands

Insolvency

The Issuer and Hertz Automobielen Nederland B.V. are incorporated in The Netherlands. Any insolvency proceedings concerning these entities would likely be based on Dutch insolvency law. Under certain circumstances, bankruptcy proceedings may also be opened in The Netherlands in accordance with Dutch law over the assets of companies that are not incorporated under Dutch law.

The following is a brief description of certain aspects of Dutch insolvency law.

There are two primary insolvency regimes under Dutch law in relation to corporations. The first, moratorium of payments (surseance van betaling), is intended to facilitate the reorganization of a debtor’s indebtedness and enable the debtor to continue as a going concern. The second, bankruptcy (faillissement), is primarily designed to liquidate and distribute the proceeds of the assets of a debtor to its creditors. Both insolvency regimes are set forth in the Dutch Bankruptcy Act. In practice, bankruptcy proceedings may also be used to sell the business, or parts of the business, as a going concern. As such, a bankruptcy could function as a restructuring procedure as well as a liquidation procedure. A general description of the principles of both insolvency regimes is set out below.

An application for a moratorium of payments can only be made by the debtor itself. Once the request for a moratorium of payments is filed, the court will immediately (dadelijk) grant a provisional moratorium and appoint an administrator (bewindvoerder). A meeting of creditors is required to decide on the definitive moratorium. If a draft composition (ontwerp akkoord) is filed simultaneously with the application for a moratorium of payments, the court can order that the composition will be processed before a decision about a definitive moratorium. If the composition is accepted and subsequently confirmed by the court (gehomologeerd), the provisional moratorium ends. The definitive moratorium will generally be granted unless a qualified minority (more than one-quarter in amount of claims held by creditors represented at the creditors' meeting or more than one-third in number of creditors represented at such creditors' meeting) of the unsecured non-preferential creditors withholds its consent. The moratorium of payments is only effective with regard to unsecured non-preferential creditors. Unlike Chapter 11 proceedings under US bankruptcy law, during which both secured and unsecured creditors are generally barred from seeking to recover on their claims during a moratorium of payments, under Dutch law, secured and preferential creditors (including tax and social security authorities) may enforce their rights against assets of the company in moratorium of payments to satisfy their claims as if there were no moratorium of payments. A recovery under Dutch law could, therefore, involve a sale of assets that does not reflect the going concern value of the debtor. However, the court may order a "cooling down period" for a maximum period of four months during which enforcement actions by secured or preferential creditors are barred. Also in a definitive moratorium of payments, a composition (akkoord) may be offered to creditors. A composition will be binding on all unsecured and non-preferential creditors if it is (i) approved by a simple majority of the creditors being present or represented at the creditors' meeting, representing at least 50% of the amount of the claims that are admitted for voting purposes, and (ii) subsequently ratified (gehomologeerd) by the court. Consequently, Dutch insolvency laws could preclude or inhibit the ability of the holders of the Notes to effect a restructuring and could reduce the recovery of a holder of Notes in Dutch moratorium of payments proceedings. Interest payments that fall due after the date on which a moratorium of payments is granted cannot be claimed in a composition.

Under Dutch law, a debtor can be declared bankrupt when it is no longer able to pay its debts when due. The bankruptcy can be requested by the debtor itself or a creditor whose claim is due and payable but left unpaid, provided that there is at least one other eligible creditor or, in exceptional circumstances (e.g., for reasons of public interest), by the public prosecutor.

If the court declares a company bankrupt, it will appoint a receiver (curator) (or several receivers, depending on the complexity of the proceedings) and a judge to supervise the insolvency proceedings. The receiver will realise the company's assets and distribute the proceeds to the company's creditors in accordance with the statutory order of payment. The general principle of Dutch bankruptcy law is the so-called paritas creditorum (principle of equal treatment), which means that all creditors have an equal right to payment and that the proceeds of bankruptcy proceedings shall be distributed in proportion to the size of their claims. However, certain creditors (such as secured creditors and preferential creditors, including tax and social security authorities) will have special rights that take priority over the rights of other creditors. As a general rule, claims of unsecured and non-preferential creditors will have to be submitted to the receiver in bankruptcy to be verified. Any remaining funds will be distributed to the company's shareholders. Creditors of secured claims and preferential creditors with respect to certain assets of a debtor, who expect that the proceeds of a future enforcement against the assets subject to the security or their preferred rights, as the case may be, will be insufficient to satisfy their claim in full, may request to receive the same rights as unsecured and non-preferential creditors with respect to the expected remainder of their claim, with preservation of their rights as a secured or preferential creditor in respect of the secured asset or the asset to which the relevant preferential right relates. If a secured creditor enforces its security rights prior to the expiry of the period for submitting claims for verification, and the proceeds of such enforcement are insufficient to satisfy its claim in full, the remainder of that claim may be submitted to the receiver in bankruptcy in order to be verified. "Verification" under Dutch law means that the receiver in bankruptcy determines the value of the claim and whether and to what extent it will be admitted in the bankruptcy proceedings to the purpose of the distribution of the proceeds. A claim with an uncertain due date or which entitles the creditor to periodic payments shall be admitted for its value at the date of the bankruptcy order. Claims which become payable within one year after the day the debtor is declared bankrupt shall be considered matured. Claims which become payable one year after the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings shall be admitted for their value one year from the date of the commencement of the bankruptcy. Claims having an indeterminate or uncertain value or whose value is not expressed in Dutch currency or not expressed in money at all, shall be admitted for their estimated value in Dutch currency. Interest payments on claims existing at the time of the bankruptcy order that fall due after such time cannot be verified, unless secured by a pledge or mortgage. In that event, interest will be admitted pro memoria. To the extent that the interest is not covered by the proceeds of the security the creditor may not derive any rights from the admission. The existence, value and ranking of any claims submitted by the holders of the Notes may be challenged in the Dutch bankruptcy proceedings. Generally, in a creditors' meeting (verificatievergadering), the receiver in bankruptcy, the insolvent debtor and all verified creditors may dispute the verification of any other claim that has been submitted for verification. Creditors whose claims or value thereof are disputed in the creditors meeting may be referred to separate court proceedings (renvooi procedure). As in moratorium of payments proceedings, in a bankruptcy a composition may be offered to creditors, which shall be binding on unsecured non-preferential creditors if (i) it is approved by a simple majority of the creditors being present or represented at the creditors' meeting, representing at least 50% of the amount of the claims that are admitted for voting purposes, and (ii) subsequently ratified (gehomologeerd) by the court. The Dutch Bankruptcy Act does not in itself recognize the concept of classes of creditors. Remaining amounts, if any, after satisfaction of the secured and the preferential creditors are distributed among the unsecured non-preferential creditors, who will be satisfied on a pro rata basis. Contractual subordination may to a certain extent be given effect in Dutch insolvency proceedings. The actual effect depends largely on the way such subordination is construed.

Secured creditors may enforce their rights against assets of the debtor that are subject to the security to satisfy their claims during a Dutch bankruptcy as if there is no bankruptcy. As in moratorium of payments proceedings, the court may order a “cooling down period” for a maximum of four months during which all recourse actions (including action to enforce security) by secured creditors (other than estate creditors (boedelschuldeisers)), are prohibited unless such creditors have obtained leave from the supervisory judge. Further, a receiver in bankruptcy can force a secured creditor to enforce its security interest within a reasonable period of time, failing which the receiver will be entitled to sell the secured assets. Failing enforcement before such deadline, the receiver is permitted to sell the secured asset. After such a sale, the former holder of the security right remains entitled to a prioritised claim, but the underlying assets are no longer available for immediate recourse and the secured creditor will need to contribute to the general costs of the bankruptcy to be paid out of the proceeds realized by such a sale by the liquidator. If the proceeds of sale are insufficient to repay the debt owed to the secured creditor, the secured creditor will be treated as an unsecured creditor for the balance of its residual claims. Excess proceeds of enforcement must be returned to the bankruptcy estate; they may not be set-off against an unsecured claim of the secured creditor in the bankruptcy. Such set-off is allowed prior to the bankruptcy although a set-off prior to bankruptcy may be subject to clawback in the case of fraudulent conveyance or bad faith in obtaining the claim used for set-off.

Under Dutch law, as soon as a debtor is declared bankrupt, all pending executions of judgments against such debtor, as well as all attachments on the debtor’s assets, will be terminated by operation of law. Litigation pending on the date of the bankruptcy order is automatically stayed.

Limitation on Enforcement

A transaction (such as the granting of a guarantee) entered into by a Dutch company may be nullified by that company or its receiver in bankruptcy if that transaction is a transgression of the corporate objects of that company, and, as a consequence, may not be valid, binding and enforceable against it. In determining whether the granting of such guarantee is in the interest of the relevant company, the Dutch courts would not only consider the text of the objects clause in the articles of association of the company but all relevant circumstances, including whether the company derives certain commercial benefits from the transaction in respect of which the guarantee was granted. In addition, if it is determined that there are no, or insufficient, commercial benefits from the transactions for the company that grants the guarantee, the company (or its bankruptcy receiver) may contest the enforcement of the guarantee, and it is possible that such challenge would be successful. Such benefit may, according to Dutch case law, consist of an indirect benefit derived by the company as a consequence of the interdependence of such company with the group of companies to which it belongs. In addition, it is relevant whether, as a consequence of the transaction, the continuity of such company would foreseeably be endangered. It remains possible that even if such strong financial and commercial interdependence exists, the transaction may be declared void if it appears that the transaction cannot serve the realization of the relevant company’s objects.

It is unclear whether a transaction can be nullified for being a transgression of the corporate objects of a company if that transaction is expressly permitted according to the wording of the objects clause in the articles of association of that company. In a recent decision, a Dutch court of appeal ruled that circumstances such as the absence of corporate benefit are in principle not relevant if the relevant transaction is expressly permitted according to the objects clause in the articles of association of the company. However, there is no decision of the Dutch Supreme Court confirming this, and therefore there can be no assurance that a transaction which is expressly permitted according to the objects clause in the articles of association of a company cannot be nullified for being a transgression of the corporate objects of that company. The objects clauses in the articles of association of the Dutch Guarantor includes the issuance of guarantees in favor of Group companies and third parties.

Hardening Periods and Fraudulent Conveyance

To the extent that Dutch law applies, a legal act performed by a debtor (including, without limitation, an agreement pursuant to which it guarantees the performance of the obligations of a third party and any other legal act having a similar effect) can be challenged in an insolvency proceeding or otherwise and may be nullified by any of its creditors or its receiver in bankruptcy, if (i) it performed such acts without an obligation to do so (onverplicht), (ii) generally the creditor concerned or, in the case of its bankruptcy, any creditor was prejudiced as a consequence of the act, and (iii) at the time the act was performed both it and (unless the act was for no consideration (om niet)) the party with or towards which it acted, knew or should have known that one or more of its creditors (existing or future) would be prejudiced. In addition, in the case of such a bankruptcy, their receiver in bankruptcy may nullify its performance of any due and payable obligation if (i) the payee (hij die betaling ontving) knew that a request for bankruptcy had been filed at the moment of payment, or (ii) the performance of the obligation was the result of concerted efforts by the debtor and the payee with a view to give preference to the latter over the debtor's other creditors.

For certain types of transactions that are entered into within one year before (a) the declaration of the bankruptcy, or (b) the moment the transaction is challenged by a creditor, the debtor and the counterparty to the transaction are legally presumed to have knowledge of the fact that the transaction will prejudice the debtor's creditors (subject to evidence of the contrary).

Belgium

Limitation on Enforcement

The obligations under the Notes and Guarantees of any Guarantor with its main establishment (voornaamste vestiging/établissement principal) in Belgium (including any Guarantor incorporated and existing in Belgium) must be for the corporate benefit of such Belgian company.

Corporate benefit is not a well-defined term under Belgian law and its interpretation is left to the courts and legal authors. The corporate benefit rules and their application in the context of granting guarantees or collateral for the benefit of a group company are not clearly established under Belgian law and there is only limited case law on this issue.

The question of corporate benefit must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Consideration has to be given to any direct and/or indirect benefit that the company would derive from the transaction and is particularly relevant for upstream or cross-stream guarantees. It is generally taught by legal scholars that such benefit should be proportionally greater than the risk for the guarantor resulting from the granting and/or enforcement of the guarantee concerned. The financial support granted by the company should not exceed its financial capabilities. Belgian case law does not offer clear guidelines on when a group transaction is within the individual group member's corporate benefit and when aforementioned conditions are met.

Whether the corporate benefit requirement is met is a matter for the board of directors of the company granting the guarantee or collateral. The corporate benefit justification by the company's board of directors will be subject to only a "marginal review" by the courts; although in insolvency situations, the courts can be expected to take a more critical view.

If the corporate benefit requirement is not met, the directors of the company may be held liable under civil law (i) by the company for negligence in the management of the company and (ii) by third parties in tort and under criminal law in certain specific circumstances. Moreover, the guarantee could be declared null and void and, under certain circumstances, the creditor that benefits from the guarantee might be held liable for up to the amount of the guarantee or under criminal law in certain specific circumstances. Alternatively, the guarantee could be reduced to an amount corresponding to the corporate benefit or the creditor may be held liable for any guarantee amount in excess of such amount. These rules have been seldom tested under Belgian law, and there is only limited case law on this issue.

In order to enable Belgian subsidiaries to grant a guarantee to secure liabilities of a direct or indirect parent or sister company and to limit and/or exclude the risk of violating Belgian rules on corporate interest, it is standard market practice for indentures, credit agreements, guarantees and security documents to contain so-called "limitation language" in relation to subsidiaries incorporated or established in Belgium. Accordingly, the Indenture will contain such limitation language and the guarantee of a Belgian guarantor may so be limited. Including such limitation language is, however, not conclusive to determine the corporate benefit.

The grant of a guarantee or security by a Belgian company must further be within or serve the corporate purpose and statutory purpose of the Belgian company as described in its articles of association, and the guarantee or security may not include any liability that would result in unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of the Belgian Companies Code.

Based upon the above, guarantee limitation language has been agreed in this transaction with respect to the Guarantees to be granted by a Belgian guarantor in respect of the payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes:

In the case of each Guarantor having its main establishment (voornaamste vestiging/établissement principal) in Belgium and/or incorporated in Belgium (a “Belgian Guarantor”), with respect to the obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor which is not a Subsidiary of that Belgian Guarantor, its liability shall be limited, at any time, to a maximum aggregate amount equal to the greater of:

- (i) an amount equal to 95% of such Belgian Guarantor’s net assets (netto actief/actif net), as determined in accordance with the Belgian Companies Code and accounting principles generally accepted in Belgium, but not taking intra-group debts into account as debts) as shown by its most recent audited annual financial statements on the date on which the relevant demand is made;
- (ii) the aggregate amount outstanding on the day prior to the date on which the relevant demand is made, of any intra-group loans or facilities made to it by the Parent Guarantor and/or the Subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor directly and/or indirectly using all or part of the proceeds of any issued Notes or any drawings under the Revolving Credit Facility (whether or not such intra-group loan is retained by the relevant Belgian Guarantor for its own purposes or on-lent to the Parent Guarantor and/or the Subsidiaries of the Parent Guarantor) outstanding on the date on which the relevant demand is made; and
- (iii) the aggregate value of the enforcement proceeds of the assets that have been pledged or mortgaged to the benefit of the Holders by the relevant Belgian Guarantor.

The grant of a guarantee by a Belgian company must further be within the corporate purpose of the Belgian company as described in its articles of association, and the guarantee may not include any liability which would result in unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of the Belgian Company Code.

Insolvency

In the event of an insolvency of a Guarantor with its main establishment in Belgium (including any Guarantor incorporated and existing in Belgium), main insolvency proceedings may be initiated in Belgium. Such main proceedings would then be governed by Belgian law. Under certain circumstances, Belgian law also allows secondary bankruptcy proceedings to be opened in Belgium over the assets of companies that are not established under Belgian law. The following is a brief description of certain aspects of Belgian insolvency law.

Belgian insolvency laws provide for two insolvency procedures: a judicial reorganization (gerechtelijke reorganisatie/réorganisation judiciaire) and a bankruptcy (faillissement/faillite).

The judicial reorganization proceedings are regulated by the Act of January 31, 2009 on the Continuity of Enterprises (the “Act on the Continuity of Enterprises”), which entered into force on April 1, 2009 and has been amended from time to time.

Judicial Reorganization

A debtor may file a petition for judicial reorganization if the continuity of the enterprise is at risk, whether immediately or in the future. If the net assets of the debtor have fallen under 50% of its registered capital (maatschappelijk kapitaal/capital social), the continuity of the debtor is always presumed to be at risk.

As long as the court overseeing a judicial reorganization has not issued a ruling on the restructuring petition, the debtor cannot be declared bankrupt or wound up by court order. In addition, during the period between the filing of the petition and the court’s decision, with few exceptions, none of the debtor’s assets may be disposed of by any of its creditors as a result of the enforcement of any security interests that such creditors may hold with respect to such assets.

Subject to the satisfaction of the filing conditions, the court will declare the judicial reorganization open, allowing a temporary moratorium for a maximum period of six months. At the request of the debtor and pursuant to the report issued by the delegated judge, the moratorium period can be extended by six months. In exceptional circumstances (such as due to the size of the business, the complexity of the case or the impact of the procedure on employment), and in the interest of the creditors, the court may order an additional extension of the moratorium period for six months.

The granting of the judicial reorganization operates as a stay. No enforcement measures can be continued or initiated and no attachments can be made with respect to pre-existing claims against any of the debtor’s assets from the time that the moratorium is granted until the end of the period, with a few exceptions. During the duration of the moratorium, no attachments can be made with regard to pre-existing claims.

Conservatory attachments that existed prior to the opening of the judicial reorganization retain their conservatory character, but the court may order their release, provided that such release does not have a material adverse effect on the situation of the creditor concerned.

Receivables other than credit claims (bankvorderingen/créances bancaires in the meaning of the Financial Collateral Law of December 15, 2004), pledged by the debtor in favor of a creditor prior to the opening of the judicial reorganization procedure are not affected by the moratorium. The holder of such pledged receivables is permitted to take enforcement measures against the estate of the initial counterparty of the debtor (e.g., the debtor's customers) during the moratorium. Receivables which form part of a pledge over business assets do not benefit from such exemption. A pledge, to the extent a payment breach has been established, on financial instruments in the meaning of the Financial Collateral Law of December 15, 2004 can be enforced notwithstanding the enforcement prohibition imposed by the moratorium (unless considered an abuse of right). Personal guarantees granted by third parties in favor of the debtor's creditors are not covered by the enforcement prohibition imposed by the moratorium, nor are the debts payable by co-debtors. An exception exists for natural persons which have granted a personal guarantee free of charge in case the amount is manifestly disproportionate in relation to their capacity to pay. The moratorium also does not prevent the voluntary payment by the debtor of claims covered by the moratorium provided such payment is necessary for the continuity of the enterprise. However, in respect of an enforcement of a pledge over cash, the enforcement prohibition applies, with a few exceptions, if the judicial reorganization procedure affects (i) a corporate debtor which is not a public or financial legal entity in the meaning of the Financial Collateral Law of December 15, 2004 or (ii) a public or financial legal entity but the creditor is not such an entity.

The judicial reorganization aims to preserve the continuity of a company as a going concern. The board of directors and management of the debtor continue to exercise their management functions and the initiation of the procedure does not terminate any contracts. Contractual provisions which provide for the early termination or acceleration of the contract upon the filing for or approval of a judicial reorganization, and certain contractual terms such as default interest, may not be enforceable. In addition, a creditor may not terminate a contract on the basis of a debtor's default that occurred prior to the restructuring procedure if the debtor remedies such default within a 15-day period following the notification of such default. Upon request of the debtor or any other interested party and to the extent it is deemed useful for reaching the aims of the restructuring, the court may appoint a judicial administrator (gerechtsmandataris/mandataire de justice) to assist the debtor during the restructuring. Upon request of the public prosecutor's office or unpaid creditors and in case the debtor has committed a manifest gross error or is of manifest bad faith, the court may appoint a temporary administrator (voorlopig bestuurder/administrateur provisoire) to exercise the management of the debtor.

As an exception to the general rule of continuity of contracts, the debtor may cease performing a contract during the restructuring procedure, provided that the debtor notifies the creditor, and the decision is necessary for the debtor to be able to propose a reorganization plan to its creditors or to transfer all or part of the company or its assets. In such case, the creditor is allowed to suspend its performance of the agreement as well.

Judicial reorganization by Amicable Settlement by Collective Agreement, or by Court-ordered Transfer of Enterprise

The Act on the Continuity of Enterprises provides for three types of restructurings: (i) the amicable settlement, (ii) the collective agreement and (iii) the transfer of (part of) the activities.

The type of restructuring may change during the proceedings and may also depend on the position of the court and/or third parties.

In the case of a judicial reorganization by collective agreement, the creditors agree to a restructuring plan during the restructuring procedure. The plan may include measures such as the reduction or rescheduling of liabilities and interest obligations and the swap of debt into equity. The plan cannot provide for the reduction or release of debts related to employment, alimony, physical damage and criminal fines.

The maximum duration of the plan is five years. It must be filed with the Clerk's Office of the Commercial Court at least 20 days in advance of the date on which the creditors will vote on the approval of the restructuring plan. The court needs to ratify the restructuring plan prior to its taking effect. A restructuring plan approved by a double majority of the creditors (both in headcount and in value of the claims) and by the court will bind all creditors, including those who voted against it or did not vote and whether secured or not. Within a period of 14 days following the ruling declaring the judicial reorganization procedure open, the debtor must inform each of its creditors individually of the amount of its claims against the debtor as recorded in the books of the debtor, as well as of details regarding security interests, if applicable. Creditors with pre-existing claims, as well as any other interested party that claims to be a creditor, can challenge the amounts and the ranking of the secured claims declared by the debtor. A creditor needs to bring such a dispute before the court at least 14 days before the restructuring plan is submitted to vote. The court can determine the disputed amounts and the ranking of such claims on a preliminary basis for the purpose of the restructuring procedure, or definitively, on the condition that it has jurisdiction in that respect, but that the decision relating to the dispute cannot be taken in a sufficiently short time frame.

The debtor must use the moratorium period to complete and finalize a restructuring plan, with the assistance of the court-appointed administrator, as the case may be. A court-ordered transfer of all or part of the debtor's enterprise or (part of) its activities can be requested by the debtor in his petition or at a later stage in the procedure. It can be requested by the public prosecutor, by a creditor or by any party who has an interest in acquiring, in whole or in part, the debtor's enterprise, and the court can order such transfer in specific circumstances. The price of the transferred assets should at least be equal to the liquidation value. In case of comparable offers, priority will be given to the offer guaranteeing employment by way of a social agreement.

Bankruptcy

A bankruptcy procedure may be initiated by the debtor, by unpaid creditors or upon the initiative of the public prosecutor's office or the provisional administrator of the merchant's assets or the liquidator of "main insolvency proceedings" opened in another EU member state (except Denmark) according to the EU Insolvency Regulation. Once the court ascertains that the requirements for bankruptcy are met, the court will establish a date by which all creditors' claims must be submitted to the court for verification.

Conditions for a bankruptcy order (aangifte van faillissement/déclaration de faillite) are that the debtor must be in a situation of cessation of payments (staking van betaling/cessation de paiements) and be unable to obtain further credit (wiens krediet geschokt is/ébranlement du crédit). Cessation of payments is generally accepted to mean that the debtor is not able to pay its debts as they fall due. Such situation must be persistent and not merely temporary. In bankruptcy, the debtor loses all authority and decision rights concerning the management of the bankrupt entity. The bankruptcy receiver (curator/curateur) becomes responsible for the operation of the business and implements the sale of the debtor's assets, the distribution of the sale proceeds to creditors and the liquidation of the debtor. The rights of creditors in the process are limited to being informed of the course of the bankruptcy proceedings on a regular basis by the receiver. Creditors may oppose the sale of assets by bringing an action before the court, or may request the temporary continued operation of the business.

The receiver must decide whether or not to continue performance under ongoing contracts (i.e., contracts existing before the bankruptcy order). The receiver may elect to continue the business of the debtor, provided the receiver obtains the authorization of the court and such continuation does not cause any prejudice to the creditors. However, two exceptions apply: (i) the parties to an agreement may contractually agree that the occurrence of a bankruptcy constitutes an early termination or acceleration event, and (ii) intuitu personae contracts (i.e., contracts whereby the identity of the other party constitutes an essential element for the signing of the contract) are automatically terminated as of the bankruptcy judgment since the debtor is no longer responsible for the management of the company. Parties can agree to continue to perform under such contracts.

The bankruptcy receiver may elect not to perform the obligations of the debtor which are still to be performed after the bankruptcy under any agreement validly entered into by the bankrupt party prior to the bankruptcy if such decision is necessary for the management and liquidation of the bankrupt estate. The counterparty to that agreement may make a claim for damages in the bankruptcy and such claim will rank pari passu with claims of all other unsecured creditors and/or seek a court order to have the relevant contract dissolved. The counterparty may not seek injunctive relief or require specific performance of the contract.

As a general rule, enforcement rights of individual creditors are suspended upon the rendering of the court order opening bankruptcy proceedings, and after such order is made, only the bankruptcy receiver may proceed against the debtor and liquidate its assets. However, such suspension does not apply, in principle, to a pledge of financial instruments or cash held on account falling within the scope of the Belgian Financial Collateral Law, and to a certain extent, other secured creditors.

For creditors with claims secured by movable assets, such suspension would normally be limited to the period required for the first report of verification of the claims. At the request of the receiver, the suspension period may be extended for up to one year from the bankruptcy judgment. Such extension requires a specific order of the court, which can only be made if the further suspension will allow for a realization of the assets in the interest of all creditors but without prejudicing the secured creditors, and provided that those secured creditors have been given the opportunity to be heard by the court.

For creditors with claims secured by immovable assets, the intervention of the receiver is necessary to pursue the sale of the assets. The receiver will do so upon an order of the court, given either at its request or at the request of a mortgagee. A first-ranking mortgagee will generally be entitled to pursue the enforcement of its mortgage as soon as the first report of claims has been finalized; the court may suspend such enforcement for a period of not more than one year from the date of the bankruptcy if the suspension will allow for a realization of the assets without prejudicing the mortgagee, provided that the mortgagee has been given the opportunity to be heard by the court. However, a pledge on financial instruments or cash held on accounts can be enforced during the suspension period.

As from the date of the bankruptcy judgment, no further interest accrues against the bankrupt debtor on its unsecured debt, or debts secured by a general privilege, like tax administration or social security.

The debts of the bankrupt estate generally will be ranked as to priority on the basis of complex rules. The following is a general overview only of the main principles: (i) estate debt: costs and indebtedness incurred by the receiver during the bankruptcy proceedings, the so-called “estate debts”, have a senior priority. In addition, if the receiver has contributed to the realization and enforcement of secured assets, such costs will be paid to the receiver in priority out of the proceeds of the realized assets before distributing the remainder to the secured creditors; (ii) security interests: creditors that hold a security interest have a priority right over the secured asset (whether by means of appropriation of the asset or on the proceeds upon realization); (iii) privileges: creditors may have a particular privilege on certain or all assets (e.g., tax claims, claims for social security premiums, etc.). Privileges on specific assets rank before privileges on all assets of the debtor; and (iv) unsecured creditors: once all estate debts and creditors having the benefit of security interests and privileges have been satisfied, the proceeds of the remaining assets will be distributed by the receiver among the unsecured creditors who rank pari passu (unless a creditor agreed to be subordinated).

Trust

As there is no established concept of “trust” or “trustee” under the present Belgian legal system, the nature, effect and enforceability of the duties, rights and powers of a security agent as agent or trustee for holder of the Notes in respect of security interests such as pledges are debated and may not be effective or enforceable under Belgian law.

Beneficial Ownership

As there is no concept of “beneficial ownership” or “beneficial owner” under the present Belgian legal system, the rights, claims and effects resulting from such a concept may not be enforceable under Belgian law.

Hardening Periods and Fraudulent Transfer

In the event that bankruptcy proceedings are governed by Belgian law, certain business transactions may be declared ineffective against third parties if concluded or performed during a so-called “hardening period.”

In principle, the cessation of payments (which constitutes a condition for filing for bankruptcy) is deemed to have occurred as of the date of the bankruptcy order. The court issuing the bankruptcy order may determine, based on serious and objective indications that the cessation of payments occurred on an earlier date. Such earlier date may not be earlier than six months before the date of the bankruptcy order, except in cases where the bankruptcy order relates to a company that was dissolved more than six months before the date of the bankruptcy order in circumstances suggesting an intent to defraud its creditors, in which case the date of cessation of payments may be determined as being the date of such decision to dissolve the company. The period from the date of cessation of payments up to the declaration of bankruptcy is referred to as the “hardening period” (période suspecte/verdachte periode).

The actions entered into during the hardening period which are unenforceable against the bankrupt estate are the following: (i) transactions entered into without consideration or where the consideration received is considerably below the value of the act or asset provided by the debtor, (ii) payments for debts which are not due and payments other than in money for debts due, and (iii) new security provided for existing debt.

The Belgian receiver may request the court to declare payments of a Belgian guarantor during the hardening period for debts due ineffective against third parties, provided that it can be proven that the creditor concerned was aware of the cessation of payment of the company.

Finally, regardless of any declaration by the commercial court of a hardening period, transactions of which it can be demonstrated that they have been entered into with fraudulent prejudice to third creditors may be declared ineffective against third parties, irrespective of its date.

England and Wales

Hertz UK Receivables Ltd is a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (the “English company”). As a general rule, insolvency proceedings with respect to an English company should be commenced in England based on English insolvency laws; although insolvency proceedings in respect of English companies could also be based in other jurisdictions under certain circumstances (see “—European Union” above).

Formal insolvency proceedings under the laws of England and Wales may be initiated in a number of ways, including by (i) the company, its directors, or one or more of its creditors making an application for administration, (ii) the company, its directors, or certain creditors (discussed below) appointing administrators out of court, or (iii) a creditor filing a petition to wind-up the English company or the company resolving to wind itself up (in the case of liquidation). An English company may be wound up if it is unable to pay its debts, and may be placed into administration if it is, or is likely to become, unable to pay its debts, and the administration is reasonably likely to achieve one of three statutory purposes (as described below).

Under the Insolvency Act 1986 as amended (the “Insolvency Act”), a company is deemed to be unable to pay its debts if it is insolvent on a “cash flow” basis (i.e. it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that it is unable to pay its debts as they fall due), if it is insolvent on a “balance sheet” basis (i.e. it is provided to the satisfaction of the court that the value of the company’s assets is less than the amount of its liabilities, taking into account its contingent and prospective liabilities), if it fails to satisfy a creditor’s statutory demand for a debt exceeding £5,000 within the specified time or if it fails to satisfy in full a judgment debt (or similar court order).

Liquidation/winding-up

Liquidation is an asset realization and distribution procedure under which the assets of the company are realized and distributed by the liquidator to creditors in the statutory order of priority prescribed by the Insolvency Act. At the end of the liquidation process the company will normally be dissolved. In the case of a liquidation commenced by way of an English court order, there is a stay on the commencement or continuation of proceedings against the company except by leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court may impose.

Under English insolvency law, a liquidator has the power to disclaim any onerous property by serving the prescribed notice on the relevant party. Onerous property, for these purposes, is any unprofitable contract and any other property of the company which is unsaleable or not readily saleable or is such that it may give rise to a liability to pay money or perform any other onerous act. A contract may be unprofitable if it imposes continuing financial obligations on the company which may be regarded as detrimental to creditors. A contract will not be unprofitable merely because it is financially disadvantageous, or because the company could have made, or could make, a better bargain.

Challenges to guarantees

There are circumstances under English insolvency law in which the granting by an English company of guarantees can be challenged. In most cases, this will only arise if the English company is placed into administration or liquidation within a specified period of the granting of the guarantee. Therefore, if during the specified period an administrator or liquidator is appointed to an English company, the administrator or liquidator may challenge the validity of guarantee given by such company. The Issuer cannot be certain that, in the event that the onset of an English company’s insolvency is within any of the requisite time periods set out below, the grant of a guarantee in respect of the Notes would not be challenged or that a court would uphold the transaction as valid.

Onset of insolvency

The date of the onset of insolvency, for the purposes of transactions at an undervalue and preferences (each discussed below), depends on the insolvency procedure in question.

In administration, the onset of insolvency is the date on which (a) the court application for an administration order is issued or (b) the notice of intention to appoint an administrator is filed at court, or (c) otherwise, the date on which the appointment of an administrator takes effect. In a compulsory liquidation the onset of insolvency is the date the winding-up petition is presented to court, whereas in a voluntary liquidation it is the date the company passes a winding-up resolution. Where liquidation follows administration, the onset of insolvency will be as for the initial administration.

Connected persons

A “connected person” of a company granting a guarantee for the purposes of transactions at an undervalue and preferences is a party who is (i) a director of the company, (ii) a shadow director, (iii) an associate of such director or shadow director, or (iv) an associate of the relevant company.

A party is associated with an individual if they are (i) a relative of the individual, (ii) the individual's husband, wife or civil partner, (iii) a relative of the individual's husband, wife or civil partner, or (iv) the husband, wife or civil partner of a relative of the individual.

A party is associated with a company if they are employed by that company.

A company is associated with another company if (i) the same person has control of both companies, or (ii) it is controlled by a person, that person's associates have control of the other company, or (iii) it is controlled by a group of two or more persons who also control the other company, and the groups either consist of the same persons or could be regarded as consisting of the same persons by treating (in one or more cases) a member of either group as replaced by a person of whom he is an associate.

The potential grounds for challenge available under the English insolvency legislation that may apply to any guarantee granted by an English company include, without limitation, the following.

Transaction at an undervalue

Under English insolvency law, a liquidator or administrator of an English company could apply to the court for an order to set aside the creation of a guarantee if such liquidator or administrator believes that the creation of such guarantee constituted a transaction at an undervalue. It will only be a transaction at an undervalue if at the time of the transaction or in consequence of the transaction, the English company is unable to pay its debts or becomes unable to pay its debts (as defined in Section 123 of the Insolvency Act). The transaction can be challenged if the English company enters into liquidation or administration proceedings within a period of two years from the date the English company grants the guarantee. A transaction might be subject to being set aside as a transaction at an undervalue if the company made a gift to a person, if the company received no consideration or if the company received consideration of significantly less value, in money or money's worth, than the consideration given by such company. However, a court will generally not intervene if it is satisfied that the company entered into the transaction in good faith and for the purpose of carrying on its business and that, at the time it did so, there were reasonable grounds for believing the transaction would benefit it. If the court determines that the transaction was a transaction at an undervalue, the court can make such order as it thinks fit to restore the company to the position it would have been in had it not entered into the transaction. In any proceedings, it is for the administrator or liquidator to demonstrate that the English company was unable to pay its debts unless a beneficiary of the transaction was a connected person (as set out above), in which case there is a presumption of insolvency and the connected person must demonstrate the solvency of the English company in such proceedings.

Preference

Under English insolvency law, a liquidator or administrator of an English company could apply to the court for an order to set aside the creation of a guarantee if such liquidator or administrator believed that the creation of such guarantee constituted a preference. It will only be a preference if at the time of the transaction or in consequence of the transaction the English company is unable to pay its debts or becomes unable to pay its debts (as defined in Section 123 of the Insolvency Act). The transaction can be challenged if the English company enters into liquidation or administration proceedings within a period of six months (if the beneficiary of the guarantee is not a connected person) or two years (if the beneficiary is a connected person) from the date the English company takes the decision to grant the guarantee. A transaction may constitute a preference if it has the effect of putting a creditor of the English company (or a surety or guarantor for any of the company's debts or liabilities) in a better position (in the event of the company going into insolvent liquidation) than such creditor, guarantor or surety would otherwise have been in had that transaction not been entered into. If the court determines that the transaction was a preference, the court can make such order as it thinks fit to restore the company to the position it would have been in had it not entered into the transaction. However, for the court to determine a preference, it must be shown that the English company was influenced by a desire to produce the preferential result. In any proceedings, it is for the administrator or liquidator to demonstrate that the English company was unable to pay its debts and that there was such desire to prefer the relevant creditor, unless the beneficiary of the transaction was a connected person, in which case the connected person must demonstrate in such proceedings that there was no such desire, on the part of the company, to prefer them.

Transaction defrauding creditors

Under English insolvency law, where it can be shown that a transaction was at an undervalue and was made for the purpose of putting assets beyond the reach of a person who is making, or may make, a claim against a company, or of otherwise prejudicing the interests of a person in relation to the claim which that person is making or may make, the transaction may be set aside by the court as a transaction defrauding creditors. This provision may be used by any person who claims to be a “victim” of the transaction and is not therefore limited to liquidators or administrators and, subject to certain conditions, the UK Financial Conduct Authority and the UK Pensions Regulator. There is no statutory time limit in the English insolvency legislation within which the challenge must be made and the relevant company does not need to be insolvent at the time of or as a result of the transaction. If the court determines that the transaction was a transaction defrauding creditors, the court can make such orders as it thinks fit to restore the position to what it would have been if the transaction had not been entered into and to protect the interests of the victims of the transaction. The relevant court order may affect the property of, or impose any obligation on, any person, whether or not he is the person with whom the transaction was entered into. However, such an order will not prejudice any interest in property which was acquired from a person other than the debtor company in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances, and will not require a person who received a benefit from such transaction to pay any sum unless such person was a party to the transaction.

Extortionate credit transaction

An administrator or a liquidator can apply to court to set aside an extortionate credit transaction. The court can review extortionate credit transactions entered into by an English company up to three years before the day on which the English company entered into administration or went into liquidation. A transaction is “extortionate” if, having regard to the risk accepted by the person providing the credit, the terms of it are (or were) such as to require grossly exorbitant payments to be made (whether unconditionally or in certain contingencies) in respect of the provision of the credit or it otherwise grossly contravened ordinary principles of fair dealing.

Limitation on enforcement

The grant of a guarantee by the English Company in respect of the obligations of another group company must satisfy certain legal requirements. More specifically, such a transaction must be allowed by the English Company’s memorandum and articles of association. To the extent that the above do not allow such an action, there is the risk that the grant of the guarantee can be found to be void and the respective creditor’s rights unenforceable. Some comfort may be obtained for third parties if they are dealing with an English company in good faith; however, the relevant legislation is not without difficulties in its interpretation. Further, corporate benefit must be established for each English company in question by virtue of entering into the proposed transaction. Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006 provides that a director must act in the way that he considers, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the English company for the benefit of its members as a whole. If the directors enter into a transaction where there is no or insufficient commercial benefit, they may be found as abusing their powers as directors and such a transaction may be vulnerable to being set aside by a court.

Priority of claims

One of the primary functions of administration and liquidation under English law is to realize the assets of the insolvent company and to distribute realizations made from those assets to its creditors. Under the Insolvency Act and the Insolvency Rules 1986, creditors are placed into different classes, with the proceeds from the realization of the insolvent company’s property applied in descending order of priority, as set out below. With the exception of the “Prescribed Part” (see “—Prescribed part” below), distributions cannot be made to a class of creditors until the claims of the creditors in a prior ranking class have been paid in full. Unless creditors have agreed otherwise, distributions are made on a pari passu basis, that is, the assets are distributed in proportion to the debts due to each creditor within a class.

The general priority of claims on insolvency is as follows (in descending order of priority):

First ranking claims: holders of fixed charge security and creditors with a proprietary interest in assets of the debtor;

Second ranking claims: expenses of the insolvent estate (there are statutory provisions setting out the order of priority in which expenses are paid);

Third ranking claims: preferential creditors. Preferential debts include (but are not limited to) debts owed by the insolvent company in relation to: (i) contributions to occupational and state pension schemes; (ii) wages and salaries of employees for work done in the four months before the insolvency date, up to a maximum of £800 per person; and (iii) holiday pay due to any employee whose contract has been terminated, whether the termination takes place before or after the insolvency date. As between one another, preferential debts rank equally;

Fourth ranking claims: holders of floating charge security, according to the priority of their security. However, before distributing asset realizations to the holders of floating charges, the Prescribed Part (as defined below) must be set aside for distribution to unsecured creditors (see “—Prescribed part” below);

Fifth ranking claims: unsecured creditors. However, any secured creditor not repaid in full from the realization of assets subject to its security can also claim the remaining debt due to it (a shortfall) from the insolvent estate as an unsecured claim. To pay a shortfall, the officeholder can only use realization from unsecured assets, as secured creditors are not entitled to any distribution from the Prescribed Part in respect of a shortfall; and

Sixth ranking claims: shareholders. If after the repayment of all unsecured creditors in full, any remaining funds exist, these will be distributed to the shareholders of the insolvent company.

Prescribed part

An administrator, receiver (including administrative receiver) or liquidator of the company will be required to ring-fence a certain percentage of the proceeds of enforcement of floating charge security for the benefit of unsecured creditors (the “Prescribed Part”). Under current law, this applies to 50% of the first £10,000 of floating charge realizations and 20% of the remainder over £10,000, and the Prescribed Part is subject to a maximum aggregate cap of £600,000. The Prescribed Part must be made available to unsecured creditors unless the cost of doing so would be disproportionate to the resulting benefit to creditors. As noted above, the Prescribed Part will not be available for any shortfall claims of secured creditors.

Foreign Currency

Under English insolvency law, where creditors are asked to submit formal proofs of claims for their debts, any debt of a company payable in a currency other than pound sterling must be converted into pound sterling at the “official exchange rate” prevailing at the date when the company went into liquidation or administration (if the administration was immediately preceded by a winding up, on the date the company went into liquidation). This provision overrides any agreement between the parties. The “official exchange rate” for these purposes is the middle exchange rate on the London Foreign Exchange Market at close of business, as published for the date in question or, if no such rate is published, such rate as the court determines.

France

Insolvency

To the extent that the center of the main interests (“COMI”) within the meaning of EU Insolvency Regulation or, if not applicable, the main center of the interests within the meaning of article R.600-1 of the French Commercial Code of the Issuer is deemed to be in France, such Issuer would be subject to French pre-insolvency or insolvency proceedings affecting creditors, including court-assisted pre-insolvency proceedings ((mandat ad hoc proceedings or conciliation proceedings (procédure de conciliation)), and court-controlled insolvency proceedings (safeguard proceedings (procédure de sauvegarde), accelerated safeguard proceedings (procédure de sauvegarde accélérée), accelerated financial safeguard proceedings (procédure de sauvegarde financière accélérée), judicial reorganization proceedings (redressement judiciaire) and judicial liquidation proceedings (liquidation judiciaire)).

Similarly, Guarantors would be subject to French pre-insolvency or main insolvency proceedings if their COMI (or main center of interests where applicable, as mentioned above) is deemed to be in France by a French court. In general, French insolvency legislation favors the continuation of a business and protection of employment over the payment of creditors and could limit your ability to enforce your rights under the Notes, and/or the Notes Guarantees granted by the Guarantors, in the context of French pre-insolvency and insolvency proceedings. The following is a general discussion of pre-insolvency or insolvency proceedings governed by French law for informational purposes only and does not address all the French legal considerations that may be relevant to the holders of the Notes.

A reform of the French Civil Code has been introduced by Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016 and will be effective as from October 1, 2016. Absent any practical application yet, the potential impacts of certain provisions of such reform (such as the doctrine of hardship (imprévision)) on the rights of the parties to French-law contracts (including French law security documents), entered into as from such date are being discussed among certain academics notably within the context of insolvency proceedings. Reference to articles of the French Civil Code below are those currently available (the renumbering resulting from such reform is mentioned between brackets for information only).

Grace Periods

In addition to and independently from the specific provisions of insolvency laws discussed below, the holders of the Notes as our creditors could also be subject to article 1244-1 et seq. of the French Civil Code (Code civil) (which will become article 1343-5 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016).

Pursuant to the provisions of this article, French courts may, in any civil or commercial proceeding involving the debtor, defer or otherwise reschedule over a maximum period of two years the payment dates of payment obligations and decide that any amounts, the payment date of which is thus deferred or rescheduled, will bear interest at a rate that is lower than the contractual rate (but not lower than the prevailing legal rate as published twice a year by administrative decree of the Ministry of Economy) or that payments made shall first be allocated to repayment of principal. A court order made under article 1244-1 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) (which will become article 1343-5 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016) will suspend any pending enforcement measures, and any contractual interest or penalty for late payment will not accrue or be due during the period ordered by the relevant court. A creditor cannot contract out of such grace period.

When the debtor benefits from the opening of a conciliation proceeding, these provisions shall be read in combination with Article L. 611-7 of the French Commercial Code (see below).

Cash Flow Insolvency Test

Under French law, a company is deemed in a state of cessation des paiements when it is not able to pay its debts which are due with its available assets taking into account credit lines available to it, and debt rescheduling which its creditors have granted to it.

The date of insolvency (cessation des paiements) is generally deemed to be the date of the court order commencing judicial reorganization or liquidation proceedings, unless the court sets an earlier date, which may be up to 18 months before the date of the court order. Except for fraud, the date of insolvency may not be fixed at an earlier date than the date of the final court decision that approved an agreement (homologation) in the context of conciliation proceedings. The date of insolvency marks the beginning of the hardening period (see below).

Warning Procedure (procédure d'alerte)

In order to anticipate a debtor's difficulties to the extent possible, French law provides for warning procedures. Indeed, when there are elements which they believe put the company's existence as a going concern in jeopardy, the statutory auditors of a company must request the management to provide an explanation. Failing satisfactory explanations or appropriate corrective measures, the auditors must request that a board of directors (or the equivalent body), and, at a later stage, the shareholders' meeting be convened. Depending on the answers provided to them (and the type of company), the auditors must inform the President of the relevant Commercial Court of the warning procedure.

Shareholders representing at least 5% of the share capital and the workers' committee (or, in their absence, the employees' representatives) have similar rights.

The President of the Commercial Court can also himself summon the management to provide explanations on elements which the President of the court believes put the company's existence as a going concern in jeopardy (or when the company has not filed its financial statements within the statutory timeframe, despite his/her injunction).

Court-assisted pre-insolvency proceedings

Pre-insolvency proceedings may only be initiated by the debtor company itself, in its sole discretion provided that it experiences or anticipates legal, economic or financial difficulties:

- (i) while not being in a state of cessation des paiements in case of mandat ad hoc or conciliation proceedings, or
- (ii) while being in a state of cessation des paiements for less than 45 days in case of conciliation proceedings only.

Mandat ad hoc and conciliation proceedings are informal and confidential (subject to the details below as regards conciliation proceedings) proceedings carried out under the supervision of the president of the court. The President of the competent court will appoint a trustee (as the case may be, a mandataire ad hoc or a conciliateur) in order to help the debtor company reach an agreement with its main creditors and stakeholders, in particular by reducing or rescheduling its indebtedness. The debtor may propose, in the filing for the commencement of the proceedings, the appointment of a particular person as trustee. Such proceedings are non-binding since the court-appointed trustee has no power to force the parties to accept an agreement and the dissenting creditors will not be bound by the arrangement, if any. Creditors are not barred from taking legal action against the company to recover their claims, but, in practice, they generally abstain from doing so for a certain time, to try to negotiate a consensual restructuring.

Mandat ad hoc and conciliation proceedings may also be used at the request of the debtor and after the opinion of the participating creditors has been sought to prepare the sale of all or part of the business of the debtor with a view to implement such sale (plan de cession) in a subsequent insolvency proceeding. To ensure transparency, the Public Prosecutor must be consulted on any offer received by the mandataire ad hoc or the conciliator. Contractual provisions modifying the terms of an outstanding contract, by diminishing the rights or increasing the obligations of the debtor solely by reason of the appointment of a mandataire ad hoc or the opening of conciliation proceedings, or of any request made to this end are deemed null and void.

Equally, contractual provisions that would, as the sole result of the opening of a mandat ad hoc proceedings or the opening of conciliation proceedings, make the debtor bear the fees of the creditor's counsel relating to such proceedings for the portion that would exceed three quarters of the total fee of the relevant counsel are null and void.

Mandat Ad Hoc Proceedings

French law does not provide for any detailed rules in respect of mandat ad hoc proceedings. In practice, mandat ad hoc proceedings are used by debtors that are facing difficulties of an economic or financial nature but are not insolvent (en état de cessation de paiements). Such proceedings are confidential (save for their disclosure to statutory auditors if any) and are not limited in time. The agreement reached by the parties (if any) with the help of the court-appointed officer (mandataire ad hoc, whose name can be suggested by the debtor) can be reported by the latter to the President of the court but is not sanctioned by the court. This restructuring agreement between the company and its main creditors will be negotiated on a purely consensual and voluntary basis; those creditors not willing to take part cannot be bound by the arrangement. The mandataire ad hoc is appointed in order to facilitate negotiations with creditors but cannot coerce the latter into accepting any proposal.

In any event, the debtor retains the right to petition the court for a grace period as set forth in Article 1244-1 and seq. of the French Civil Code) (which will become article 1343-5 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016).

Conciliation Proceedings

Conciliation proceedings are available to French debtors that face current or foreseeable difficulties of a legal, economic or financial nature but which have not been cash-flow insolvent for more than 45 days. The debtor petitions the President of the relevant Court for the appointment of a "conciliator" (whose name the debtor can suggest) in charge of assisting the debtor in negotiating with all or part of its creditors and/or trade partners an agreement, that puts an end to its difficulties, providing e.g. for the restructuring of its indebtedness. Conciliation proceedings are confidential (subject to the below) and may last up to five months. During the proceedings, no general stay is imposed on creditors which may continue to sue individually for payment of their claims but in practice creditors accept not to do so for a certain time, to try to negotiate a consensual restructuring.

In addition, if a creditor seeks payment, then pursuant to article L. 611-7 of the French Commercial Code, the judge having opened the Conciliation proceedings has jurisdiction to grant a grace period to the debtor, in accordance with article 1244-1 et seq. of the French Civil Code (Code civil) (which will become article 1343-5 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016), provided that the debtor has received a formal notice requesting payment or faces enforcement measures, in which case the decision would be taken after having heard the conciliator. The judge having opened conciliation proceedings may grant a grace period even when the formal notice asking the debtor to pay was sent before conciliation proceedings commenced (and not only during conciliation proceedings). This judge also has jurisdiction to grant such a grace period during the implementation of the conciliation agreement (i.e. after the end of the conciliation proceedings), in relation to claims of non-consenting creditors (other than public creditors) (provided that this agreement has been either recognized or sanctioned by a court decision, as described below).

The agreement may be either recognized (constaté) by the president of the court at all parties' request or, at the request of the debtor (and provided that certain conditions are satisfied, i.e. that (i) the debtor is not in cessation des paiements or the conciliation agreement puts an end to such cessation des paiements, (ii) the agreement does not infringe upon the rights of the non-signatory creditors and (iii) it effectively ensures that the company will survive as a going concern), sanctioned (homologué) by the court. In both cases, (i) any individual proceedings by creditors with respect to the claims included in this agreement are suspended, (ii) the agreement is immediately enforceable against the parties thereto, and (iii) accrued interest of the claims governed by the restructuring agreement cannot bear themselves interest (notwithstanding Article 1154 of the French Civil Code) (Code civil) (which will become article 1343-5 of the French Civil Code (Code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016). Joint debtors, personal guarantors, or any third party that granted a security interest can benefit from the grace periods granted in accordance with article L. 611-7 of the French Commercial Code to the debtor during conciliation proceedings as well as from the provisions of the recognised or sanctioned agreement.

While recognition (constatation) of the agreement by the president of the court does not entail any specific consequences, other than to render the agreement immediately enforceable and binding upon the parties thereto, the sanction (homologation) of the agreement by the court has the following consequences:

- the judgment will make the conciliation proceedings public (however, disclosure only of the existence of the conciliation proceedings and not of the content of the agreement except the guarantees, security interests and liens as well as the amount of claims benefitting from the so-called “New Money Lien” detailed below, as provided for in the agreement);
- creditors who, as part of the sanctioned agreement or during the course of the conciliation proceedings, provide new money or goods or services designed to ensure the continuation of the business of the distressed company (other than shareholders providing new equity) will benefit from a specific protection (the so-called “New Money Lien”) and as such enjoy priority of payment over all pre-petition and post-petition claims (other than certain pre-petition employment claims and post petition procedural costs), in the event of subsequent insolvency proceedings;
- in the event of subsequent safeguard, accelerated safeguard, accelerated financial safeguard, or judicial reorganization proceedings, the payment date of claims benefitting from the New Money Lien may not be rescheduled or written off by the court without their holders' consent (it is debated, however, whether such debt restructuring would be possible within the framework of creditors' committees);
- in the event of subsequent judicial reorganization proceedings or judicial liquidation proceedings, the date of the cessation des paiements (and therefore the starting date of the “hardening period” as defined below) cannot be determined by the court to be at a date earlier than the date on which the sanction of the agreement by the court has become final, except in case of fraud.

In case of breach of the agreement, whether sanctioned or recognized, any party thereto can petition the court for its rescission. The commencement of subsequent insolvency proceedings will automatically put an end to the conciliation agreement, in which case the creditors will recover their claims and security interests, to the exception of those amounts already paid to them.

Conciliation proceedings, in the context of which a draft debt restructuring plan has been negotiated and is supported by a large majority of creditors without reaching unanimity, will be a mandatory preliminary step of the accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings as described below.

Court-administered Proceedings—Safeguard, Accelerated Safeguard, Accelerated Financial Safeguard, Judicial Reorganization and Judicial Liquidation Proceedings

The following French insolvency proceedings may be initiated by or against a company in France:

- (a) safeguard (procédure de sauvegarde), accelerated safeguard (procédure de sauvegarde accélérée) or accelerated financial safeguard (procédure de sauvegarde financière accélérée) proceedings, upon petition by the debtor only if, while not being in a state of cessation des paiements (or for accelerated safeguard and accelerated financial safeguard proceedings, if in cessation des paiements for less than 45 days when it initially requested the opening of conciliation proceedings), it is facing difficulties which it cannot overcome;

The conditions of opening of accelerated safeguard (procédure de sauvegarde accélérée) or accelerated financial safeguard (procédure de sauvegarde financière accélérée) proceedings are described below.

(b) judicial reorganization (redressement judiciaire) or judicial liquidation (liquidation judiciaire) proceedings upon petition by the debtor, any creditor or the Public Prosecutor if such company is in cessation des paiements. Judicial reorganization proceedings are available to companies whose recovery prospects are possible while judicial liquidation proceedings are available to companies whose recovery is manifestly impossible.

While a company may file for safeguard proceedings at any time it is facing insurmountable difficulties, it is required to petition for the opening of judicial reorganization or judicial liquidation proceedings within 45 days of becoming in a state of cessation des paiements. Alternatively, it may request the opening of conciliation proceedings within the same timeframe. If it does not, directors and, as the case may be, de facto managers of the company, are subject to civil liability.

The observation period and its outcome

The period from the date of the court decision commencing the insolvency proceedings until the court makes a decision on the outcome of the proceedings is called the observation period (période d'observation) and may last up to 18 months under a safeguard or a judicial reorganization proceeding. There is no observation period in the case of judicial liquidation proceedings being opened against the debtor. During the observation period, a court-appointed administrator, whose name can be suggested by the debtor (but also by the Public Prosecutor), investigates the business of the company.

In safeguard proceedings, the administrator's mission is limited to either supervising the debtor's management or assisting it, and in any case helping it prepare a safeguard plan for the company. In judicial reorganization proceedings, the administrator's mission is usually to assist the management and to make proposals for the reorganization of the company, which proposals may include a reorganization plan (equivalent to a safeguard plan) and/or the sale of all or part of the company's business to a third party. In judicial reorganization proceedings, the court may also decide that the court-appointed administrator will manage the company alone by replacing the debtor's management.

At the end of the observation period, if it concludes that the company can survive as a going concern, the court will adopt a safeguard or a reorganization plan, which will essentially provide for a restructuring and/or rescheduling of debts and which may entail the partial divestiture of the business to a third party (a sale of the entire business is not possible in a safeguard plan). Unlike in safeguard proceedings, at the end of the observation period of judicial reorganization proceedings, and alternatively to a reorganization plan, the court may determine that all or part of the business should be sold to purchasers who have submitted bids. In such a case, the court orders such a (partial or entire) sale in the framework of a so-called "sale of the business plan" (plan de cession), which consists of transferring assets, contracts and employees cherry-picked by the purchaser thereto (see section "Judicial reorganization or liquidation proceedings" for further details), for a lump sum, in accordance with the bid submitted by the purchaser during the observation period.

Judicial liquidation proceedings entail the relief of the management of the debtor and there is no observation period in such proceedings (see "Judicial reorganization or liquidation proceedings" for further details).

At any time during the observation period, the court may convert the safeguard proceedings into judicial reorganization proceedings or into judicial liquidation proceedings, either upon its own initiative or at the request of either of the debtor, the court-appointed administrator, the creditors' representative or the Public Prosecutor, if the debtor becomes in a state of cessation des paiements.

Where no safeguard plan has been adopted by the creditors' committees (pursuant to article L.626-30-2 and L.626-32 of the French Commercial Code, as the case may be), the Court may also convert the proceedings into a judicial reorganization procedure upon request of the debtor, the court-appointed administrator, the creditors' representative or the Public Prosecutor if the approval of the safeguard plan is obviously impossible and if the company would shortly and surely become in cessation des paiements should safeguard proceedings be closed.

At any time during the observation period, the court can order the liquidation of the company if the debtor is in cessation des paiements and its rescue has become manifestly impossible. If the court adopts a safeguard plan, a reorganization plan or a sale of the business plan, it can set a time period during which the assets that it deems to be essential to the continued business of the debtor may not be sold without its consent.

The sales that have been pre-packed in mandat ad hoc or conciliation proceedings and that are deemed satisfactory will be implemented in insolvency proceedings through an expeditious and derogatory process. Such sale could only relate to part (but not all) of the business of the debtor in safeguard proceedings.

Creditors' committees and adoption of the safeguard or reorganization plan

During the observation period, in the case of large companies (i.e. if the debtor (a) has more than 150 employees or a turnover greater than €20,000,000 and (b) its accounts are certified by a statutory auditor or carried out by a certified public accountant), or where authorized by the supervising judge for smaller companies, two creditors' committees must be established: one for credit institutions having a claim against the debtor or entities having granted credit or advances in favor of the debtor (or the assignees of such claim or of a claim acquired from a supplier), and the other for suppliers of goods and services having a claim that represents more than 3 per cent of the total amount of the claims of all the debtor's suppliers (the smaller suppliers, if invited by the court-appointed administrator, may elect to be members of such committee). To be eligible to vote, suppliers must have their claims set forth in the list provided by the debtor to the court-appointed administrator as certified by the debtor's statutory auditors (or, in their absence, its accountant).

If there are any outstanding debt securities in the form of "obligations" (such as bonds or notes), a general meeting gathering all holders of such debt securities will be established whether or not there are different issuances and no matter what the governing law of those "obligations" is (the "bondholders general meeting"). The Notes constitute "obligations" for purposes of a safeguard or judicial reorganization proceeding and the Noteholders would therefore vote within the bondholders' general meeting.

These creditors' committees and the bondholders' general meeting will be consulted on the draft safeguard or reorganization plan(s) elaborated during the observation period. Such draft plan(s) may be prepared not only by the debtor's management together with the judicial administrator(s), but also by any creditor belonging to a creditors' committee (credit institutions' committee or suppliers' committee). For the avoidance of doubt, the bondholders are not entitled to propose such a draft plan. Draft plans submitted to the committees and the bondholders' general meeting:

- must take into account subordination agreements entered into by the creditors before the opening of the proceedings;
- may treat creditors differently if it is justified by their differences in situation; and
- may notably include a rescheduling or cancellation of debts and debt-for-equity swaps.

In the first instance, one of the plans must be approved by each of the two creditors' committees. Each committee must announce whether its members approve or reject such plan within 20 to 30 days of its proposal by the company (such time can be reduced or extended by the supervising judge, at the request of the debtor or the judicial administrator, it being noted that it cannot last less than 15 days). If there is no proposal by the debtor, the judicial administrator determines the date on which the committees will vote.

Such approval requires the affirmative vote of the members of each committee holding at least two-thirds of the amount of the claims held by the members of such committee that expressed a vote. Each member of a committee must inform the court-appointed administrator of any agreement subjecting its vote to certain conditions or providing for the total or partial payment of its claim by a third-party or any subordination agreement. The court-appointed administrator can then modulate the voting rights of such a creditor, and submit to such creditor the conditions of calculation of its voting rights. In case of disagreement on this calculation, the creditor or the court-appointed administrator may seize the president of the Court in summary proceedings.

Following the approval of the plan by the two creditors' committees, the plan will be submitted for approval to the bondholders' general meeting. The approval of the plan at such meeting requires the affirmative vote of bondholders representing at least two-thirds of the amount of the obligations held by bondholders who expressed a vote in the bondholders' general meeting. The same rules as set forth in the paragraph above apply to the bondholders' general meeting.

If the plan provides for a share capital modification, the shareholders' general meeting must approve this modification. If the plan provides for a share capital increase, shareholders can set off their claim, provided it is acknowledged by the Court, and within the limit of the reduction included in the plan. In the judgment adopting the plan, the court may mandate the administrator to convene the shareholders' general meeting, in order to vote on the modifications of the articles of association provided for by the plan. In such a case, the administrator may decide that the general meeting will rule on first convening, by the majority of the votes held by the shareholders attending the meeting or represented at the meeting, provided that said shareholders hold at least half the shares with voting rights. On second convening, the common law provisions relating to the quorum and majority requirements shall apply.

In case of judicial reorganization only, if equity capital of the debtor is lower than half of the share capital and has not been restored, the court-appointed administrator can request the Court to appoint a judicial officer (mandataire de justice) to (i) convene the shareholders meeting and (ii) vote the share capital restoration in place of the opposing shareholders should the plan provide for a share capital modification to the benefit of one or several persons which made commitments to execute the plan.

In addition, Article L.631-19-2 of the French Commercial Code applicable to judicial reorganization proceedings opened as from August 7, 2015, in the cases where (i) a debtor (a) employs at least 150 employees or (b) is a dominant company (within the meaning of article L.2331-1 of the French Labour Code) of one or more companies with at least 150 employees in aggregate, (ii) the disappearance of such debtor is likely to cause serious disturbance to the national or local economy and to local employment, and (iii) a share capital modification appears—after review of total or partial transfer plan solutions—to be the only credible solution to avoid such a disturbance and to allow the debtor’s business activities to continue. In summary, if, in such event, a reorganization plan provides for a modification of the share capital in favour of one or more person(s) who undertake to implement the plan and the existing shareholders refuse to vote such share capital modification, the court may, under certain procedural and substantial conditions (e.g., the payment to the evicted shareholders of an amount corresponding to the value of their shares, as determined by a court appointed expert if no agreement as to such value is reached among the parties) and upon request of the court-appointed administrator or the Public Prosecutor, either (a) appoint a trustee (mandataire) to vote in favour of a share capital increase in lieu of the dissenting shareholders up to the amount provided for in the plan or (b) order, in favour of the person(s) who have undertaken to implement the plan, the transfer of all or part of the shares owned by the dissenting shareholders who own (directly or indirectly) a majority of voting rights (including pursuant to any arrangement to that effect with any other shareholder that is not contradictory to the debtor’s interest) or hold a blocking minority in the company. Any approval clause is deemed null and void.

Creditors for whom the plan does not provide any modification of their repayment schedule or provides for a payment of their claims in cash in full as soon as the plan is adopted or as soon as their claims are admitted do not take part in the vote. For those creditors outside such committees or where no such committees have been convened, the creditors’ representative may elect not to consult them.

Following approval by the requisite creditors’ committees and the bondholders’ general meeting, the plan has to be approved (arrêté) by the relevant court. In considering such approval, the court has to verify that the interests of all creditors are sufficiently protected. Once approved by the relevant court, the safeguard or reorganization plan accepted by the committees and the bondholders’ general meeting will be binding on all the members of the committees and all bondholders (including those who did not vote or voted against the adoption of the plan). The plan also specifies how creditors that do not belong to the committees/bondholders’ general meeting are going to be treated (it being noted that if they do not consent to the proposals that they received, they can only be imposed uniform debt rescheduling as detailed below).

Creditors who are not members of the committees/bondholders’ general meeting are consulted individually on the draft plan. The same rule applies to all creditors if no such committees nor general meeting of bondholders are convened. Likewise, in the event the creditors’ committees are dissolved because any of the committees or the bondholders’ general meeting has refused to give its consent to the draft plan (or has not rendered its decision within 6 months of the opening judgment, it being noted that this 6 months period may be extended by the court at the request of the judicial administrator to the extent it does not exceed the duration of the observation period), the court can still adopt a safeguard/reorganization plan in the time remaining until the end of the observation period, in which case creditors are consulted individually. In the framework of an individual consultation, creditors will be asked whether they accept rescheduling, cancellation of debt and/or debt-for-equity swaps provided for in the draft plan. Where the consultation is in writing, the creditor is deemed to have accepted the debt rescheduling proposal if he fails to respond within thirty days upon receipt of the creditors’ representative letter. However, in respect to debt-to-equity swap proposals, the creditors’ representative must obtain the agreement of each individual creditor in writing within this 30-day timeframe. The court is entitled to adopt the plan regardless of whether or not a majority of creditors accepted the individual proposals that they received. In those circumstances, the court has the right to accept or reduce debt deferrals or write-offs with respect to the claims of creditors who have consented to such measures but it may only impose uniform debt deferrals (with interest continuing to accrue for debts with an initial maturity of more than one year) for up to 10 years on the claims of the non-consenting creditors, except for claims with maturity dates falling after the end of the plan, in which case such maturity date shall remain the same.

The first payment must be made within a year of the judgment adopting the plan. As from the third year on, the amount of each annual installment must amount to at least 5 per cent of the total amount of the debt (subject to specific rules regarding loans whose maturity date falls after the first installment of the restructuring plan or after the end of the restructuring plan). The court cannot impose debt write-offs or debt-to-equity swaps.

Accelerated safeguard proceedings and accelerated financial safeguard proceedings

A debtor in the course of conciliation proceedings may request commencement of accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings (subject to the conditions listed below). The accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings have been designed to “fast-track” the regular safeguard proceedings. The regime applicable to accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings is roughly the regime applicable to the regular safeguard proceeding to the extent compatible with the accelerated timing in accelerated safeguard and or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings. Therefore some provisions relating in particular to ongoing contracts and restitution claims formed by owners are excluded by law.

The accelerated safeguard proceeding has effect against pre-insolvency creditors that have to file a proof of claim (see below) and as a consequence trade creditors notably will be involved in the accelerated safeguard proceedings, whereas accelerated financial safeguard proceedings only involve financial creditors (i.e. members of the credit institutions committee and the bondholders’ general meeting), with no impact on suppliers or public creditors notably (who will thus continue to be paid according to their applicable contract terms and are not subject to the automatic stay applicable during the observation period).

The regime applicable to accelerated financial safeguard proceedings is similar to the one applicable to accelerated safeguard proceedings (which is designed as the common accelerated proceeding, the accelerated financial safeguard proceedings being a variety of the latter, designed to “fast-track” purely financial difficulties).

To be eligible to accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings, the debtor must fulfill the following conditions:

- the debtor must be subject to ongoing conciliation proceedings when it files for accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings;
- the debtor must not have been insolvent for more than 45 days when it initially requested the opening of conciliation proceedings;
- as is the case for regular safeguard proceedings, the debtor must face difficulties that it is not in a position to overcome;
- in the context of the conciliation proceedings, the debtor must have prepared a draft restructuring plan that aims to protect its operations in the long run and which is likely to be supported, within the group of those creditors who will be affected by the accelerated (or accelerated financial) safeguard proceedings, by a sufficiently large majority of them to allow a likely adoption of the plan by the relevant creditors’ committees (credit institutions’ committee only for the accelerated financial safeguard) and bondholders general meeting if any within the duration of the procedure;
- the debtor must (i) have its accounts certified by a statutory auditor or established by an accounting expert and have (x) more than twenty employees; or (y) have a turnover greater than €3 million excluding any applicable taxes; or (z) have total assets in its balance sheet greater than €1.5 million or (ii) establish consolidated financial statements in accordance with article L. 233-16 of the French Commercial Code. Where the debtor does not meet the statutory thresholds provided for to constitute creditors’ committees (see above), the court shall order such constitution in its ruling opening the accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings.

Where accelerated safeguard proceedings are opened, the creditors committees (only the credit institutions committee in accelerated financial safeguard proceedings) and the bondholders’ general meeting are convened and are required to vote on the proposed accelerated safeguard plan within the minimum period of 15 days of delivery of the proposed plan (applicable in safeguard proceedings) (eight days in accelerated financial safeguard proceedings).

The plan is adopted following the same majority rules as in regular safeguard proceedings and it may notably provide for a debt rescheduling, and/or debt cancellation, and/or conversion of debt into equity (requiring the relevant shareholder consent).

The total duration of the accelerated safeguard proceedings is three months, while the duration of the accelerated financial safeguard proceedings is one month, unless the court decides to extend it by one additional month. If no plan is adopted by the creditors committee(s) and the bondholders’ general meeting at the relevant majority rules within such timeframe, the court shall terminate the accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings and cannot impose any uniform debt rescheduling.

The “hardening period” (période suspecte) in judicial reorganization and judicial liquidation proceedings

The date of insolvency (cessation des paiements) is generally deemed to be the date of the court decision commencing the judicial reorganization or judicial liquidation proceedings. However, in the decision commencing judicial reorganization or judicial liquidation proceedings or in a subsequent decision, a court may set the date on which the debtor became insolvent at an earlier date, up to 18 months prior to the court decision commencing the proceedings. This date is important because it marks the beginning of the “hardening period” (which lasts until the opening of the insolvency proceedings). Certain transactions entered into by the debtor during the hardening period are, by law, automatically void or voidable by the court.

Automatically void transactions include in particular transactions or payments entered into during the hardening period that may constitute voluntary preferences for the benefit of some creditors to the detriment of other creditors. Such transactions or payments must be set aside by the court if a claimant (the judicial administrator, the liquidator, the creditors’ representative or the court-appointed trustee in charge of overseeing the implementation of the restructuring plan, or the Public Prosecutor) so requests. These include, notably, transfers of assets for no consideration, contracts under which the reciprocal obligations of the debtor significantly exceed those of the other party, payments of debts not due at the time of payment, payments made in a manner which is not commonly used in the ordinary course of business, security granted for debts previously incurred, provisional measures (unless the right of attachment or seizure predates the date of cessation des paiements), share options granted or sold during the hardening period, the transfer of any assets or rights to a trust arrangement (fiducie) (unless such transfer is made as a security for debt incurred at the same time), any amendment to a trust arrangement (fiducie) that dedicates assets or rights as a guaranty of pre-existing debts and a declaration of non-seizability (déclaration d’insaisissabilité) applying to certain assets of the debtor pursuant to article L.526-1 of the French Commercial Code (e.g., its main domicile) during the hardening period.

Voidable transactions include, (i) transactions for consideration, (ii) payments of due and payable debts or (iii) notices of attachments made to third parties (avis à tiers détenteur), seizures (saisie attribution) and oppositions, in each case, if such actions are taken after the debtor was in cessation des paiements and the party dealing with the debtor knew that the debtor was in cessation des paiements at that time. In addition, transactions relating to transfers of assets for no consideration are also voidable when carried out during the six-month period prior to the beginning of the hardening period. Unlike void transactions, which must be set aside by the court if so requested, the court has discretion to decide whether or not it is appropriate to set aside transactions that are only “voidable”.

There is no hardening period prior to the opening of safeguard proceedings, since the condition required to commence such proceedings is that the company is not cash flow insolvent (en état de cessation des paiements) within the meaning of French law.

Extension of insolvency proceedings

French law provides that, upon the petition of the debtor, of the Public Prosecutor, the judicial administrator, the liquidator or the creditors’ representative, the insolvency proceedings of a company may be extended to another one, so that their respective assets and liabilities will be treated as belonging to one single insolvency estate, if (i) the debtor company is deemed “fictitious”, i.e. a sham, or (ii) the debtor company “commingled its assets and liabilities” with another entity, i.e. either it proves impossible to determine which assets and liabilities belong to each of them or “abnormal financial relationships” existed between the two entities (such as transfers of assets or funds without consideration).

Protective measures under safeguard, judicial reorganization and judicial liquidation proceedings

Protective measures may be taken by the President of the Court on the assets of de facto or de jure managers against whom a liability action for shortfall of assets has been launched in judicial liquidation proceedings.

In addition, protective measures may be requested:

- in the context of a legal action to extend the insolvency to a third party (on the grounds mentioned above), against the defendant; and
- over the assets of the de facto or de jure manager of a company subject to judicial reorganization proceedings and against whom an action for liability is brought on the grounds of a fault having led the company to its cash-flow insolvency (cessation des paiements). Such protective measure can be maintained in judicial liquidation proceedings.

These protective measures aim at precluding third parties from seizing the assets of the company against which an action for extension of the insolvency proceedings is brought or the assets of the manager against which an action for liability is brought.

Status of creditors during safeguard, judicial reorganization or judicial liquidation proceedings

As a general rule, creditors domiciled in France whose debts arose prior to the commencement of insolvency proceedings must file a proof of claim (déclaration de créances) with the creditors' representative within two months of the publication of the court decision in the Bulletin Officiel des annonces civiles et commerciales (by exception, the deadline starts upon receipt of an individual notification for those creditors whose claim arose out of a published contract or who benefit from a published security interest); this period is extended to four months for creditors domiciled outside France. Where the debtor has informed the creditors' representative of the existence of a claim and no proof of a claim has been filed yet, such claim is deemed filed with the creditors' representative. Creditors are allowed to ratify a proof of claim made on their behalf until the judge rules on the admission of their claims. Creditors who have not submitted their claims during the relevant period and whose claims are not deemed filed with the creditors' representative are barred, except with respect to very limited exceptions, from receiving distributions made in accordance with the insolvency proceedings. Employees do not need to file proofs of claim and are preferential creditors under French law.

In accelerated safeguard and accelerated financial safeguard proceedings, the debts held by creditors that took part in the conciliation proceedings are listed by the debtor and certified by its statutory auditor (or, in its absence, its accountant) and are thus deemed to have been filed. Although such creditors can file proofs of claim pursuant to the regular process, they may also avail themselves of this simplified alternative and merely adjust the amounts of their claims as set forth on the list prepared by the debtor (within the 2 or 4 months' time limit). Those creditors who did not take part in the conciliation proceedings (but who would be members of the creditors' committees or the bondholders' general meeting) would have to file their proofs of claim within the above-mentioned legal time limit and process.

During the observation period:

- accrual of interest is suspended (except in respect of loans providing for an initial term of at least one year, or contracts providing for a payment which is deferred by at least one year; even in such a case, accrued interest cannot bear themselves interest, notwithstanding Article 1154 of the French Civil Code) (Code civil) (which will become article 1343-2 of the French Civil Code (code civil) effective as from October 1, 2016 further to the Ordinance n° 2016-131 dated February 10, 2016);
- the debtor is prohibited from paying (i) debts incurred prior to the date of the court decision commencing the insolvency proceedings, subject to specified exceptions which essentially cover the set-off of related debts (compensation pour dettes connexes), and payments authorized by the supervising judge (juge-commissaire) to recover assets for which recovery is justified by the continued operation of the business and (ii) post-opening debts not useful to the proceedings; and
- creditors may not initiate or pursue any individual legal action against the debtor (or, in safeguard or reorganization proceedings, against a guarantor of the debtor provided such guarantor is an individual) with respect to any claim arising prior to the court decision commencing the insolvency proceedings if the objective of such legal action is:
  - to obtain an order for payment of a sum of money by the debtor to the creditor (however, the creditor may require that a court determine the amount due);
  - to terminate or cancel a contract for non-payment of pre-opening amounts owed to the creditor; or
  - to enforce the creditor's rights against any assets of the debtor, except where such asset—whether tangible or intangible, moveable or immovable—is located in another Member State within the European Union, in which case the rights in rem of creditors thereon would not be affected by the insolvency procedure, in accordance with the terms of article 5 of EC Regulations 1346/2000 (provided no secondary proceedings are open in such member state). In practice, the rights of a creditor on the debtor's assets located outside France (and the EU) would only be affected by the French insolvency proceedings if they were to be recognized by the local courts where the assets at stake are located.

In accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings, the above rules only apply to the creditors which are subject to those proceedings.

Contractual provisions such as those contained in the Indenture that would accelerate the payment of the debtor's obligations upon the occurrence of certain insolvency events are not enforceable under French law, and the court-appointed administrator can unilaterally decide not to continue ongoing contracts (contrats en cours) which it believes the debtor will not be able to continue to perform. The court-appointed administrator can, on the contrary, require that other parties to a contract continue to perform their obligations even though the debtor may have been in default, but on the condition that such debtor fully performs its post-opening contractual obligations. The opening of liquidation proceedings does, however, automatically accelerate the maturity of all of the debtor's liabilities, unless the court allows the business to continue for a period of no more than three months (renewable once) if it considers that a sale of part or all of the business is possible. In this case, the debtor's liabilities are deemed mature on the day the court approves the sale of the business or the end of the period of continuation of the business.

Contractual provisions pursuant to which the opening of insolvency proceedings triggers the acceleration of the debt (for safeguard or judicial reorganization proceedings) or the termination or cancellation of an ongoing contract are not enforceable against the debtor, as well as, according to a decision of the French Supreme Court dated January 14, 2014, n°12-22.909, "contractual provisions modifying the conditions of continuation of an ongoing contract, diminishing the rights or increasing the obligations of the debtor solely upon the opening of reorganization proceedings" (which should also apply in case of safeguard, accelerated safeguard or accelerated financial safeguard proceedings).

During reorganization proceedings, when an ongoing contract involves the payment of a sum of money, this payment must be made in cash (i.e. without payment terms), unless the administrator obtains extended payment deadlines from the contractual partner of the debtor; the administrator is under an obligation to verify that by continuing the contract he or she does not risk creating a foreseeable damage for the contractual partner.

If the court adopts a safeguard plan or a reorganization plan, claims of creditors included in the plan will be paid according to the terms of the plan. The court can also set a time period during which the assets that it deems to be essential to the continued business of the debtor may not be sold without its consent.

If the court adopts a sale of the business plan (plan de cession), the proceeds of the sale will be allocated for the repayment of the creditors according to the ranking of their claims.

If the court decides to order the judicial liquidation of the debtor, the court will appoint a liquidator in charge of selling the assets of the company and settling the relevant debts in accordance with their ranking. However, in practice, where a plan for the sale of the business is considered, it will usually appoint a judicial administrator to manage the company and organize such sale of the business process.

French insolvency law assigns a certain order of priority to the payment of certain preferred creditors, i.e.: certain pre-opening employee claims, post-opening legal costs (essentially, fees of the officials appointed by the insolvency court), creditors who, as part of a sanctioned conciliation agreement, have provided new money or goods or services (the "New Money Lien"), creditors having security over real estate assets (in case of judicial liquidation proceedings only; in case of safeguard or judicial reorganization proceedings, they rank behind post-opening privileged creditors), post-opening privileged creditors (i.e. whose claims meet certain criteria, such claims being subject to a specific order of priority among themselves), and the other pre-opening and post-opening creditors, whose order of priority among themselves depends on various factors (in particular, the French State and other public institutions benefit from the highest ranking, with respect to taxes and social charges). Some creditors may nevertheless bypass this order of priority, e.g. if they benefit from a retention right over certain assets.

Judicial reorganization or judicial liquidation proceedings

The court ruling commencing the proceedings may order either the liquidation or the reorganization of the company (see "The observation period and its outcome" and "Creditors' committees and adoption of the safeguard or reorganization plan" for a description of the observation period and the consultation of the creditors on the draft reorganization plan). There is no observation period in case of judicial liquidation proceedings being opened against the debtor. The outcome of these proceedings, which is decided by the court without a vote of the creditors, may be a plan for the sale of the business and/or isolated sales of the debtor's assets in order to discharge the debtor's liabilities. In case a plan for the sale of the business is considered, the court can authorize a temporary continuation of the business for a maximum period of three months (renewable once at the Public Prosecutor's request), whose effects are similar to an observation period.

In either judicial liquidation proceedings or in judicial reorganization proceedings (in the latter case, if no restructuring plan is drafted or if the draft restructuring plans appears obviously incapable of restoring the debtor's viability), the court may also decide to adopt a sale of the business plan (plan de cession), i.e. a plan whereby all or part of the business is sold to a third party which can cherry-pick the assets, contracts and employees, without (subject to certain exceptions) the need to obtain the consent of either the debtor, the creditors or the other party to certain contracts (such as lease-back agreements or supply agreements of goods and services). Any third party may make a bid to that effect as from the opening of judicial reorganization of judicial liquidation proceedings. By exception, such sale may be organized in mandat ad hoc and / or conciliation proceedings and implemented in insolvency (including safeguard) proceedings, through an expeditious and derogatory process (without a formal competitive bids process, if so decided by the Court).

If such a sale of the business plan is adopted, the proceeds of the sale will be allocated for the repayment of the creditors according to the ranking of their claims. The sale price is generally significantly lower than the aggregate value of the assets, bearing in mind that the courts would endorse the most credible offer that would best ensure the preservation of jobs.

Creditors' Liability

Pursuant to Article L. 650-1 of the French Commercial Code, where insolvency proceedings (including safeguard proceedings) have been commenced, creditors may only be held liable for the losses suffered as a result of facilities granted to the debtor on the following grounds: (i) fraud; (ii) clear interference with the management (immixtion caractérisée dans la gestion) of the debtor; or (iii) if the security or guarantees taken to support the facilities are disproportionate to such facilities. In addition, any security or guarantees taken to support facilities in respect of which a creditor is found liable on any of these grounds can be cancelled or reduced by the court. Case law has recently set out that this liability would also require that the granting of the facility be deemed to be wrongful.

If a creditor has repeatedly interfered in the company's management, it can be deemed a de facto manager of such company ("dirigeant de fait"). In such case, article L 651-2 of the French commercial Code provides that, if liquidation proceedings (liquidation judiciaire) have been commenced against the debtor, such creditor being deemed de facto manager may be liable for bearing the excess of liabilities over the company's assets, along with the other managers (whether de jure or de facto), as the case may be, if it is established that their mismanagement has contributed to the company's shortfall of assets. If such conditions are met, French courts will decide whether the managers should bear all or part of the shortfall amount.

Limitation on Enforcement of the Guarantee

The liabilities and obligations of a Guarantor incorporated in France (a "French Guarantor") are subject to the rules relating to corporate benefit. Under French corporate benefit rules, a court could declare any guarantee unenforceable and void, and if payment had already been made under the relevant guarantee, require that the recipient return the payment to the relevant guarantor, if the court found that the French Guarantor did not receive some real and adequate corporate benefit from the transaction involving the grant of the guarantee as a whole. Existence of corporate benefit is a factual matter which must be determined on a case-by-case basis.

The existence of a real and adequate benefit to the guarantor and whether the amounts guaranteed are commensurate with the benefit received are matters of fact as to which French case law provides no clear guidance.

However, based on current case law certain inter-group transactions (including up-stream guarantees) can be in the corporate interest of the relevant company, in particular, where the following four criteria are fulfilled:

- existence of a genuine group of companies to which the guarantor and the person whose obligations are being guaranteed belong operating under a common strategy aimed at a common objective and the guarantee, and the transaction to which they relate, must be entered into in furtherance of the common economic interest of the group as a whole and the liability under the guarantee should be commensurate with such group benefit;
- the risk assumed by a French Guarantor must be proportionate to the benefit;
- the French Guarantor must receive an actual and adequate benefit, consideration or advantage from the transaction involving the granting by it of the guarantee which is commensurate with the liability which it takes on under the guarantee; and
- the obligations of the French Guarantor under the guarantee must not exceed its financial capability.

However, such criteria being subject to interpretation and depending on factual matters, the prudent approach prevailing in the French market is to create a strict correlation between the risk assumed and the benefit received by a French Guarantor without relying on the corporate benefit of the group (intérêt social de groupe) and applying the conditions listed above and therefore, limiting the amounts of the guarantee to the amounts on-lent to the French Guarantors as set out below.

Each Guarantee provided by a French Guarantor will apply only insofar as required to:

(i) guarantee the payment obligations under the Indenture and the Notes of its direct or indirect subsidiaries which are or become Issuer or Guarantor from time to time under the Indenture and the Notes and incurred by those subsidiaries as Issuers and Guarantors (without double counting). However, where such subsidiary is itself a Guarantor which guarantees the obligations of a member of the Group which is not a subsidiary of the relevant French Guarantor, the amounts payable by such French Guarantor under this paragraph (i) in respect of the obligations of this subsidiary as Guarantor shall be limited as set out in paragraph (ii) below; and

(ii) guarantee the payment obligations under the Indenture and the Notes of the Issuer or Guarantor which is not a direct or indirect subsidiary of that French Guarantor, provided that in each case such guarantee shall be limited to the payment obligations of the Issuer or Guarantor under the Indenture and the Notes provided that these shall not exceed an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts made available (directly or indirectly) to the Issuer or Guarantor under the Indenture and the Notes and on-lent (directly or indirectly by way of intra-group loans) to such French Guarantor and outstanding from time to time (such amount being the “French Maximum Guaranteed Amount”).

It being specified that any payment made by such French Guarantor in accordance with paragraph (ii) above in respect of the obligations of the Issuer or Guarantor shall reduce pro tanto the outstanding amount of the intercompany loans (if any) due by such French Guarantor to the Issuer or Guarantor under the intercompany loan arrangements referred to above. For the avoidance of doubt, any payment made by a French Guarantor in respect of the payment obligations of the Issuer or a Guarantor referred to in paragraph (ii) above shall reduce the French Maximum Guaranteed Amount.

No French Guarantor will secure liabilities under the Indenture and the Notes which would result in such French Guarantor not complying with French financial assistance rules as set out in Article L. 225-216 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) and/or would constitute a misuse of corporate assets within the meaning of article L. 241-3, L. 242-6 or L. 244-1 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) or any other law or regulations having the same effect, as interpreted by French courts

No French Guarantor will be acting jointly and severally with the Issuer and/or the other Guarantors and no French Guarantor shall be deemed to be a “co-débiteur solidaire” as to its obligations arising under or in connection with any such guarantee given in accordance with any Indenture.

By virtue of this limitation, each French Guarantor’s obligations under the Guarantees could be significantly less than amounts payable with respect to the Notes or a French Guarantor may have effectively no obligation under the Guarantee should the balance of the portion of the proceeds of the Notes made available to a French Guarantor directly or indirectly be equal to or reduced to zero.

In addition, if a French Guarantor receives, in return for issuing the guarantee, an economic return that is less than the economic benefit such French Guarantor would obtain in a transaction entered into on an arms’ length basis, the difference between the actual economic benefit and that in a comparable arms’ length transaction could be taxable under certain circumstances.

Fraudulent Conveyance

French law contains specific provisions dealing with fraudulent conveyance both in and outside of insolvency proceedings, called action paulienne provisions. The action paulienne offers creditors protection against a decrease in their means of recovery. A legal act performed by a debtor (including, without limitation, an agreement pursuant to which such person guarantees the performance of the obligations of a third party or agrees to provide or provides security for any of such person’s or a third party’s obligations, enters into additional agreements benefiting from existing security and any other legal act having similar effect) can be challenged in or outside insolvency proceedings of the relevant person by, as the case may be, the creditors’ representative or the trustee in charge of overseeing the implementation of the restructuring plan (commissaire à l’exécution du plan) of the relevant debtor, or any creditor who was prejudiced in its means of recovery as a consequence of the act in or outside insolvency proceedings, and may be declared unenforceable against third parties if:

(i) the person performed such acts without an obligation to do so; (ii) the creditor concerned or, in the case of the debtor's insolvency proceedings, any creditor, was prejudiced in its means of recovery as a consequence of the act; and (iii) at the time the act was performed both the person and the counterparty to the transaction knew or should have known that one or more of such person's creditors (existing or future) would be prejudiced in their means of recovery, unless the act was entered into for no consideration (à titre gratuit), in which case such knowledge of the counterparty is not necessary for a successful challenge on grounds of fraudulent conveyance. If a court found that the issuance of the Notes or the granting of a Guarantee involved a fraudulent conveyance that did not qualify for any defense under applicable law, then the issuance of the Notes or the granting of such Guarantee could be declared unenforceable against third parties or declared unenforceable against the creditor that lodged the claim in relation to the relevant act. As a result of such successful challenges, the holders of the Notes may not enjoy the benefit of the Notes, the Guarantees and the value of any consideration that the holders of the Notes received with respect to the Notes or the Guarantees could also be subject to recovery from the holders of the Notes and, possibly, from subsequent transferees. In addition, under such circumstances, the holders of the Notes might be held liable for any damages incurred by prejudiced creditors of the Issuers or the Guarantors as a result of the fraudulent conveyance.

Germany

The enforcement of the Guarantee granted by a German subsidiary of the Issuer (such as Hertz Autovermietung GmbH) will be limited if, and to the extent, payments under the Guarantee would cause the amount of such German subsidiary's net assets (i.e., assets minus liabilities and liability reserves) to fall below the amount of its stated share capital. In such event, the German subsidiary will be entitled to block enforcement of the Guarantee in full or in part, as the case may be, and any payments received under the Guarantee in violation thereof must be refunded to such German subsidiary. See “—Limitation on Enforcement” below.

Insolvency

In the event of insolvency of a German subsidiary of the Issuer, insolvency proceedings may be initiated in Germany if it was held to have its centre of main interest within the territory of the Federal Republic of Germany at such time. Such proceedings would then be governed by German law. However, pursuant to the EU Insolvency Regulation, where a German company conducts business in more than one member state of the European Union, the jurisdiction of the German courts may be limited if the company's “centre of main interests” is found to be in a member state other than Germany (see—“European Union”). This issue is to be determined at the time when the application for the opening of insolvency proceedings (Insolvenzeröffnungsantrag) is filed.

Under German law, insolvency proceedings can be initiated either by a company itself or by a creditor of such company upon the occurrence of a cause of insolvency, with over indebtedness (Überschuldung), illiquidity (Zahlungsunfähigkeit) and impending illiquidity (drohende Zahlungsunfähigkeit) of the relevant company constituting such causes of insolvency. In case of impending illiquidity, though, only the relevant company's management but not its creditors may initiate insolvency proceedings.

According to the relevant provision of the German Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung), a debtor is over indebted when its liabilities exceed the value of its assets (based on their liquidation values), unless a continuation of the debtor's business is predominantly likely (positive Fortführungsprognose/Fortbestehensprognose). A company is considered to be illiquid if it is unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due. Impending illiquidity (drohende Zahlungsunfähigkeit) exists if the company is currently able to service its payment obligations, but will presumably not be able to continue to do so at some point in time within a certain prognosis period.

Upon a limited liability company (Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung—GmbH) or any company not having an individual as its personally liable shareholder becoming illiquid or over indebted, its managing director(s) and, in certain circumstances its shareholders, are required by law to file for insolvency without undue delay, however, at the latest within three weeks after the mandatory insolvency reason (i.e., illiquidity and/or over indebtedness) occurred. Failure to comply with this obligation exposes the management to both severe damage claims as well as sanctions under criminal law.

The insolvency proceedings are administered by the competent insolvency court which monitors the due performance of the proceedings. Upon receipt of the insolvency petition, the insolvency court may take preliminary measures to secure the property of the debtor during the preliminary proceedings (Insolvenzeröffnungsverfahren). The insolvency court may prohibit or suspend any measures taken to enforce individual claims against the debtor's assets during these preliminary proceedings. In addition, the court will also appoint a preliminary insolvency administrator (vorläufiger Insolvenzverwalter), unless the debtor has petitioned for preliminary debtor in possession status (vorläufiger Eigenverwaltung)—an insolvency process in which the debtor's management generally remains in charge of administering the debtor's business affairs under the supervision of a preliminary custodian (vorläufiger Sachwalter)—with this petition not being obviously futile. Depending on the size of the debtor’s business operations, the insolvency court must or may appoint a preliminary creditors’ committee (vorläufiger Gläubigerausschuss) to form a view on the profile of the officeholder to be appointed or even to make a suggestion for a particular individual to be appointed by the court. In case the members of the preliminary creditors’ committee unanimously agree on an individual, such suggestion is binding on the court (unless the suggested individual is not eligible; i.e., incompetent and/or not interested). To ensure that the preliminary creditors’ committee reflects the interests of all creditor constituencies, it shall comprise a representative of the secured creditors, one for the large and one for the small creditors as well as one for the employees. The duty of the preliminary insolvency administrator is, in particular, to safeguard and to preserve the debtor’s assets (which includes the continuation of the business carried out by the debtor), to verify the existence of reason for insolvency and to assess whether the debtor’s net assets will be sufficient to cover the costs of the insolvency proceedings. The court orders the opening (Eröffnungsbeschluss) of formal insolvency proceedings (eröffnetes Insolvenzverfahren) if certain requirements are met, particularly if there are sufficient assets to cover at least the cost of the insolvency proceedings. If the assets of the debtor are not expected to be sufficient, the insolvency court will only open formal insolvency proceedings if third parties, such as creditors, advance the costs themselves. In the absence of such advancement, the petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings will be dismissed for insufficiency of assets (Abweisung mangels Masse).

Upon the opening of formal insolvency proceedings, an insolvency administrator (usually the same person who acted as preliminary insolvency administrator) is appointed by the insolvency court unless a debtor in possession status (Eigenverwaltung) is ordered. In the absence of a debtor in possession status, the right to administer the debtor’s business affairs and to dispose of the assets of the debtor passes to the insolvency administrator with the insolvency creditors (Insolvenzgläubiger) only being entitled to change the individual appointed as insolvency administrator upon the occasion of the first creditors’ assembly (erste Gläubigerversammlung) with such change requiring that (i) a simple majority of votes cast (by heads and amount of insolvency claims) has voted in favor of the proposed individual to become insolvency administrator and (ii) the proposed individual being eligible as officeholder (i.e., he or she is sufficiently qualified, business experienced and impartial). The insolvency administrator may raise new financial indebtedness and incur other liabilities to continue the debtor’s business. These new liabilities incurred by the insolvency administrator qualify as preferential claims against the estate (Masseforderung) which are preferred to any insolvency claim of an unsecured creditor (with the residual claim of a secured insolvency creditor remaining after realization of the available collateral (if any) also qualifying as unsecured insolvency claim).

All creditors, whether secured or unsecured, who wish to assert claims against the debtor need to participate in the insolvency proceedings. Any individual enforcement action brought against the debtor by any of its creditors is subject to an automatic stay once insolvency proceedings have been opened. German insolvency proceedings are collective proceedings and creditors may generally no longer pursue their individual claims in the insolvency proceedings separately, but can instead only enforce them in compliance with the restrictions of the German Insolvency Code. In the insolvency proceedings, however, secured creditors have certain preferential rights (Absonderungsrechte). Depending on the legal nature of the security interest, entitlement to enforce such security is either vested with the secured creditor or the insolvency administrator. In this context, it should be noted that the insolvency administrator generally has the sole right to realize any movable assets in his, her or the debtor’s possession that are subject to preferential rights (e.g., liens over movable assets (Mobiliarsicherungsrechte), or security transfer of title (Sicherungsübereignung)) as well as to collect any claims that are subject to security assignment agreements (Sicherungsabtretungen). Pursuant to a minority view, the insolvency administrator is also entitled to enforce share pledges and account pledges. If the enforcement right is vested with the insolvency administrator, the enforcement proceeds, less certain contributory charges for (i) assessing the value of the secured assets (Feststellungskosten) and (ii) realizing the secured assets (Verwertungskosten) which, in the aggregate, usually add up to 9% (or more in certain circumstances) of the gross enforcement proceeds plus VAT (if any), are disbursed to the creditor holding a security interest in the relevant collateral up to an amount equal to its secured claims. With the remaining unencumbered assets of the debtor the insolvency administrator has first to satisfy the preferential creditors of the insolvency estate (Massegläubiger) (including the costs of the insolvency proceedings as well as any preferred liabilities incurred by the insolvency estate after the opening of formal insolvency proceedings). Thereafter, all other unsubordinated claims (insolvency claims) (Insolvenzforderungen), will be satisfied on a pro rata basis if and to the extent there is cash remaining in the insolvent estate (Insolvenzmasse) after the security interest and the preferential claims against the estate have been settled and paid in full. Therefore, the proceeds resulting from the realization of the insolvency estate of the debtor may not be sufficient to satisfy unsecured creditors of the Issuer or under a guarantee granted by any German guarantor in full after the secured creditors have been satisfied. Claims of subordinated creditors in the insolvency proceedings (nachrangige Insolvenzgläubiger) are satisfied only after the claims of other non subordinated creditors (including the unsecured insolvency claims) have been fully satisfied. In addition, it may take several years until an insolvency dividend (if any) is distributed to unsecured creditors.

While in ordinary insolvency proceedings the value of the debtor's assets is realized by a piecemeal sale or, as the case may be, by a bulk sale of the debtor's business as a going concern, a different approach aimed at the rehabilitation of the debtor can be taken based on an insolvency plan (Insolvenzplan). Such plan can be submitted by the debtor or the insolvency administrator and requires, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, the consent of the debtor and the consent of each class of creditors in accordance with specific majority rules and the approval of the insolvency court. The insolvency court may order the deemed approval of one or more opposing creditor groups under certain conditions (cram down). The insolvency plan may derogate from the provisions of the German Insolvency Code. In particular, it may contain provision regarding the discharge of secured and unsecured creditors, the disposal of the insolvency estate as well as procedure. It may also create, modify, transfer or terminate rights in rem such as property rights or security interests. If the debtor is a corporate entity, the shares or, as the case may be, the membership rights in the debtor can also be included in the insolvency plan, e.g., these can be transferred to third parties, including a transfer to creditors based on a debt to equity swap. Thus, an insolvency plan could under certain circumstances provide for provisions regarding the Guarantees which are less favorable to the Noteholders than the provisions of the German Insolvency Code. Under certain conditions, such provisions could be adopted against the votes of the affected Noteholders. Moreover, if the debtor has filed a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings based on a reason for the insolvency other than illiquidity (i.e., imminent illiquidity or over indebtedness), combined with a petition to initiate such process based on a debtor in possession status and can demonstrate that a restructuring of its business is not obviously futile, the court may grant a period of up to three months to draw up an insolvency plan for the debtor business (Schutzschirmverfahren). During this period, the creditors' rights to enforce security may—upon application of the filing debtor—be suspended. Under these circumstances, the insolvency court must appoint a preliminary custodian (vorläufiger Sachwalter) to supervise the process. The debtor is entitled to suggest an individual to be appointed as custodian with such suggestion being binding on the insolvency court unless the suggested person is obviously not eligible to become a custodian (i.e., he or she is obviously not competent or impartial).

Under German insolvency law, there is no consolidation of the assets and liabilities of a group of companies in the event of insolvency. In case of a group of companies, each entity, from an insolvency law point of view, has to be dealt with separately on an entity by entity basis (i.e., there is no group insolvency concept under German insolvency law). The German federal government Ministry of Justice (Bundesregierung) has presented a draft Bill to Facilitate the Handling of Group Insolvencies (Entwurf eines Gesetzes zur Erleichterung der Bewältigung von Konzerninsolvenzen). While the draft Bill does not propose to abolish the principle of separate insolvency proceedings in relation to each group entity, it stipulates four key amendments of the German Insolvency Act in order to facilitate an efficient administration of group insolvencies: (1) a single court may be competent for each group entity insolvency proceedings; (2) the appointment of an identical person as insolvency administrator for all group companies is facilitated; (3) certain coordination obligations are imposed on insolvency courts, insolvency administrators and creditors' committees; and (4) certain parties may apply for "coordination proceedings" (Koordinationsverfahren) and the appointment of a "coordination insolvency administrator" (Koordinationsverwalter) with the ability to propose a "coordination plan" (Koordinationsplan). It is currently unclear if and when, and whether in its current or in a modified form, this Bill might be adopted by parliament.

Under German insolvency law, termination rights, automatic termination events or "escape clauses" entitling one party to terminate an agreement, or resulting in an automatic termination of an agreement, upon the opening of insolvency proceedings in respect of the other party, the filing for insolvency or the occurrence of reasons justifying the opening of insolvency proceedings (insolvenzbezogene Kündigungsrechte oder Lösungsklauseln) may be invalid if they frustrate the election right of the insolvency administrator whether or not to perform the contract unless they reflect termination rights applicable under statutory law. This may also relate to agreements that are not governed by German law.

Finally, the insolvency estate shall serve to satisfy the liquidated claims held by the personal creditors against the debtor on the date when the insolvency proceedings were opened. The following claims shall be satisfied ranking below the other claims of insolvency creditors in the order given below, and according to the proportion of their amounts if ranked with equal status: (i) interest and penalty payments accrued on the claims of the insolvency creditors from the opening of the insolvency proceedings; (ii) costs incurred by individual insolvency creditors due to their participation in the proceedings; (iii) fines, regulatory fines, coercive fines and administrative fines, as well as such incidental legal consequences of a criminal or administrative offense binding the debtor to pay money; (iv) claims to the debtor's gratuitous performance of a consideration; and (v) claims for restitution of a shareholder loan or claims resulting from legal transactions corresponding in economic terms to such a loan.

Limitation on Enforcement

The German subsidiaries of the Issuer (such as Hertz Autovermietung GmbH) are established in the form of a limited liability company (Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung, "GmbH"). Consequently, the grant of collateral or a guarantee by a German subsidiary is subject to certain provisions of the German Limited Liability Company Act (Gesetz betreffend die Gesellschaften mit beschränkter Haftung, "GmbHG").

Sections 30 and 31 of the GmbHG (“Sections 30 and 31”) prohibit a GmbH from disbursing its assets to its shareholders to the extent that the amount of the GmbH’s net assets determined in accordance with the provisions of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch, HGB) (i.e., assets minus liabilities and liability reserves) is or would fall below the amount of its stated share capital (Stammkapital). Guarantees, share pledges and any other collateral granted by a GmbH in order to guarantee or secure liabilities of a direct or indirect parent or sister company are considered disbursements under Sections 30 and 31. Therefore, in order to enable subsidiaries incorporated in Germany in the legal form of a German limited liability company (GmbH) to grant collateral or a guarantee to secure liabilities of a direct or indirect parent or sister company without the risk of violating Sections 30 and 31, it is standard market practice for credit agreements, guarantees and security documents to contain so called “limitation language” in relation to such subsidiaries. Pursuant to such limitation language, the secured parties agree to enforce the collateral and the beneficiaries of the guarantees agree to enforce the guarantees against the German subsidiary only to the extent that such enforcement does not result in the subsidiary’s net assets falling below its stated share capital. Accordingly, the documentation in relation to the guarantees and the security interests, to the extent they relate to a German subsidiary of the Issuer in the legal form of a German limited liability company (GmbH), includes such limitation language and such guarantees and security interests are limited in the manner described.

In addition to the limitations resulting from the capital maintenance rules described above, the guarantees granted by a German subsidiary of the Issuer in the legal form of a German limited liability company (GmbH) will contain additional provisions limiting the enforcement in the event the enforcement would result in an illiquidity of such German subsidiary.

The limitations set out above apply mutatis mutandis if the guarantee is granted by a German guarantor incorporated as a limited liability partnership (KG) in relation to each general partner (Komplementär) incorporated as a limited liability company (GmbH, so called GmbH & Co KG) or if the guarantee is granted by a German guarantor incorporated as a partnership (OHG) in relation to each partner incorporated as a limited liability company (GmbH).

German capital maintenance rules are subject to ongoing court decisions. We cannot assure you that future court rulings may not further limit the access of shareholders to assets of their subsidiaries constituted in the form of a GmbH, which can negatively affect the ability of the Issuer to make payment on the Notes, of the subsidiaries to make payments on the guarantees or of the beneficiaries of the guarantees to enforce the guarantees.

In addition, it cannot be ruled out that the case law of the German Federal Supreme Court (Bundesgerichtshof) regarding “destructive interference” (existenzvernichtender Eingriff) (i.e., a situation in which a shareholder deprives a German limited liability company of the liquidity necessary for it to meet its own payment obligations) may be applied by courts with respect to the enforcement of a subsidiary guarantee or security granted by the German subsidiary guarantors. In such a case, the amount of proceeds to be realized in an enforcement process may be reduced.

According to a decision of the German Federal Supreme Court (Bundesgerichtshof), a security agreement may be void due to tortious inducement of breach of contract if a creditor knows about the distressed financial situation of the debtor and anticipates that the debtor will only be able to grant collateral by disregarding the vital interests of its other business partners. It cannot be ruled out that German courts may apply this case law with respect to the granting of subsidiary guarantees or security by German subsidiary guarantors. Furthermore, the beneficiary of a transaction effecting a repayment of the stated share capital of the grantor of the subsidiary guarantee could moreover become personally liable under exceptional circumstances. The German Federal Supreme Court (Bundesgerichtshof) ruled that this could be the case if, for example, the creditor were to act with the intention of detrimentally influencing the position of the other creditors of the debtor in violation of the legal principle of bonos mores (Sittenwidrigkeit). Such intention could be present if the beneficiary of the transaction was aware of any circumstances indicating that the grantor of the guarantee or security was close to collapse (Zusammenbruch), or had reason to enquire further with respect thereto.

Hardening Periods and Fraudulent Transfer

In the event of insolvency proceedings with respect to a German subsidiary of the Issuer based on and governed by the insolvency laws of Germany, the Guarantee provided by that entity could be subject to potential challenges by an insolvency administrator (Insolvenzverwalter) under the rules of avoidance as set out in the German insolvency code (Insolvenzordnung).

Acts (Rechtshandlungen) or transactions (Rechtsgeschäfte) (which term includes the provision of security or the repayment of debt) taken by the debtor and its creditors that have been detrimental to the insolvency estate may be challenged by an insolvency administrator. This may affect actions which have occurred up to ten years prior or at any time after an insolvency petition with respect to the relevant debtor’s assets has been filed.

In particular, an act (Rechtshandlung) or a legal transaction (Rechtsgeschäfte) (which term includes the granting of a guarantee, the provision of security and the payment of debt) detrimental to the creditors of the debtor may be voided according to the German Insolvency Code in the following cases:

- any act granting a creditor security or satisfaction for a debt (Befriedigung) can be voided if the transaction was effected (i) in the last three months prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings, if at the time of the transaction the debtor was illiquid (zahlungsunfähig), which means such debtor was unable to pay its debt when due and the creditor had knowledge thereof, or (ii) after a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings has been filed and the creditor had knowledge thereof or of the debtor being cash flow insolvent (or knowledge of circumstances which imperatively suggesting such illiquid or filing);
- any act granting a creditor security or satisfaction for a debt to which such creditor had no right, no right at the respective time or no right as to the respective manner, can be voided if the transaction was effected in the month prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings; if the transaction was effected in the second and third month prior to the filing, it can be voided if at the time of the transaction (i) the debtor was illiquid, or (ii) the creditor knew that the transaction would be detrimental to the creditors of the debtor;
- any legal transaction effected by the debtor which is directly detrimental to the creditors of the debtor can be voided if the transaction was effected (i) in the last three months prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings against the debtor, if at the time of the legal transaction the debtor was illiquid and the other party to the legal transaction had knowledge thereof or (ii) after a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings has been filed against the debtor and the other party to the legal transaction had knowledge thereof or of the debtor being illiquid;
- if an act whereby a debtor grants security for a third party debts is regarded as having been granted gratuitously (unentgeltlich); such gratuitous transaction can be voided unless it was effected earlier than four years prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings against the debtor;
- any act performed by the debtor during a period of ten years prior to the filing of the petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings or at any time after such filing can be voided if the debtor acted with the intent to disadvantage its creditors and the beneficiary of the transaction had knowledge of such intent at the time of the transaction, with such knowledge being presumed if the beneficiary knew that the debtor at least imminent illiquid and that the transaction disadvantaged the other creditors;
- any non gratuitous contract concluded between the debtor and an affiliated party which directly operates to the detriment of the creditors can be voided unless such contract was concluded earlier than two years prior to the filing of the petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings or the other party had no knowledge of the debtor's intention to disadvantage its creditors as of the time the contract was concluded; in relation to corporate entities, the term "affiliated party" includes, subject to certain limitations, members of management or the supervisory board, general partners and shareholders owning more than 25% of the debtor's share capital, persons or companies holding comparable positions that give them access to information about the economic situation of the debtor, and other persons who are spouses, relatives or members of the household of any of the foregoing persons;
- any act that provides security or satisfaction for a claim of a shareholder for the repayment of a shareholder loan (Gesellschafterdarlehen) or an economically equivalent claim can be voided (i) in the event it provided security, if the transaction was effected within the last ten years prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings or thereafter or (ii) in the event it provided satisfaction, if the transaction was effected in the last year prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings or thereafter; or
- any act whereby the debtor grants satisfaction for a loan claim or an economically equivalent claim to a third party can be voided if the transaction was effected in the last year prior to the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings or thereafter and if a shareholder of the debtor had granted security or was liable as a guarantor (Bürge) (in which case the shareholder must compensate the debtor for the amounts paid (subject to further conditions)).

For purposes of the above, the knowledge of circumstances from which a compelling conclusion regarding the debtor's illiquidity or regarding the filing of a petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings can be drawn, will be considered tantamount to the actual knowledge of the debtor's illiquidity or of the filing of the petition for the opening of insolvency proceedings.

When successful, the challenge of such act (Rechtshandlung) or legal transaction results in an obligation of the relevant creditor to return the benefit obtained through or in connection with such action to the insolvency estate, while a claim for the return of a consideration originally granted to the debtor for the debtor's performance (if any) may constitute only a regular, unsecured insolvency claim which may be satisfied only to the extent a general insolvency dividend is paid upon the distribution of the insolvency estate to the creditors.

Such transactions can include the payment of any amounts to the Noteholders as well as granting them any security interest. In the event that such a transaction is successfully avoided, the Noteholders would be under an obligation to repay the amounts received or to waive the Guarantee or security interest.

If the Guarantee given or by a German subsidiary of the Issuer were avoided or held unenforceable for any reason, you would cease to have any claim in respect thereof. Any amounts received from a transaction that has been avoided would have to be repaid to the insolvent estate.

Furthermore, even in the absence of an insolvency proceeding, a third party creditor who has obtained an enforcement order but has failed to obtain satisfaction of its enforceable claims by a levy of execution or where such levy of execution can be expected not to result in full satisfaction of such claims, under certain circumstances, has the right to avoid certain transactions, such as the payment of debt and the granting of security pursuant to the German Code on Avoidance (Anfechtungsgesetz). The prerequisites vary to a certain extent from the rules described above and the voidance periods are calculated from the date when a creditor exercises its rights of avoidance in the courts.

Ireland

The Notes may be guaranteed by Hertz Fleet Limited, a company incorporated in Ireland. The obligations under the Notes and the Guarantees of any Guarantor incorporated in Ireland must be for the corporate benefit of such Irish company.

The question of corporate benefit must be determined on a case by case basis. Consideration has to be given to any direct and/or indirect benefit that the company would derive from the transaction.

The company must be solvent at the time the company gives any guarantee.

The statutory duty owed by the director to the company is to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence to ensure that everything which the company does is for the benefit of the company as a whole. Consequently, it is necessary for the directors to consider what corporate benefit accrues to the company of which they are directors if the transaction is implemented. In respect of a guarantee which is for the benefit of a group of companies or a parent company the law is surrounded with a certain amount of ambiguity. In certain circumstances it might be legitimate for the directors of a subsidiary company to sacrifice its short-term interests for the good of the group. Furthermore, there may be no breach of duty where this is done with a view to the good of the subsidiary in the medium term. Certain transactions which may seem to benefit the parent company at the expense of the subsidiary may therefore be permissible.

If directors give guarantees not in the commercial interests of the company, not only can they be sued for breach of duties and misfeasance but the guarantees can be set aside. If the transaction results in the company's liabilities exceeding its assets or in its becoming unable to pay its debts as they fall due, then a company creditor could potentially bring an action for unfair preference (as discussed below).

Furthermore the giving of guarantees must be within the powers of the company where a company was incorporated prior to the Irish Companies Act 2014 coming into effect and it has not since converted to a private limited company under that regime, the giving of guarantees by such a company must be exercised in furtherance of its objects and should be specifically expressed in the company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, otherwise, the transaction could be ultra vires.

Liquidation

As an Irish incorporated company, Hertz Fleet Limited may be wound up under Irish law. On a liquidation of an Irish company, certain categories of preferential debts and the claims of secured creditors would be paid in priority to the claims of unsecured creditors. Such preferential debts would comprise, among other things, any amounts owed in respect of local rates and certain amounts owed to the Irish Revenue Commissioners for income/corporation/capital gains tax, VAT, employee taxes, social security and pension scheme contributions and remuneration, salary and wages of employees and certain contractors and the expenses of liquidation and examinership (if any). If Hertz Fleet Limited becomes subject to an insolvency proceeding and if it has obligations to creditors that are treated under Irish law as creditors that are senior relative to the Noteholders, the Noteholders may suffer losses as a result of their subordinated status during such insolvency proceedings. In particular:

- under Irish law, the claims of creditors holding fixed charges may rank behind other creditors (namely fees, costs and expenses of any examiner appointed and certain capital gains tax liabilities) and, in the case of fixed charges over book debts, may rank behind claims of the Irish Revenue Commissioners for PAYE and VAT;
- under Irish law, for a charge to be characterized as a fixed charge, the charge holder is required to exercise the requisite level of control over the assets purported to be charged and the proceeds of such assets including any bank account into which such proceeds are paid. There is a risk therefore that even a charge which purports to be taken as a fixed charge may take effect as a floating charge if a court deems that the requisite level of control was not exercised;
- floating charges have certain weaknesses, including the following:
  - (i) they have weak priority against chargees who are bona fide purchasers (who are not on notice of any negative pledge contained in the floating charge) and against lien holders, execution creditors and creditors with rights of set-off;
  - (ii) they rank after certain preferential creditors, such as claims of employees and certain taxes on winding-up;
  - (iii) they rank after certain insolvency officer remuneration expenses and liabilities;
  - (iv) the examiner of a company has certain rights to deal with the property covered by the floating charge; and
  - (v) they rank after fixed charges;
- in an insolvency of Hertz Fleet Limited, the claims of certain other creditors (including the Irish Revenue Commissioners for certain unpaid taxes), as well as those of creditors mentioned above, will rank in priority to claims of unsecured creditors and claims of creditors holding floating charges.

Under Irish insolvency law a liquidator of Hertz Fleet Limited could apply to court to have set aside certain transactions entered into by Hertz Fleet Limited before the commencement of liquidation. Section 286 of the Irish Companies Act, 2014 provides that any conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other act relating to property made or done by or against a company which is unable to pay its debts as they become due, to any creditor, within six months of the commencement of a winding up of the company, with a view to giving such creditor (or any surety or guarantor of the debt due to such creditor) a preference over its other creditors shall, if the company is at the time of the commencement of the winding-up unable to pay its debts (taking into account the contingent and prospective liabilities), be deemed an unfair preference of its creditors and be invalid accordingly. Where the conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other action is in favor of a connected person the six month period is extended to two years. In addition, any such act in favor of a connected person is deemed a preference over the other creditors and as such to be an unfair preference and invalid accordingly.

Under section 608 of the Irish Companies Act, 2014, if it can be shown on the application of a liquidator, creditor or contributory of a company which is being wound up to the satisfaction of the Irish High Court that any property of such company was disposed of and the effect of such a disposal was to “perpetrate a fraud” on the company, its creditors or members, the Irish High Court may, if it deems it just and equitable, order any person who appears to have “use, control or possession” of such property or the proceeds of the sale or development thereof to deliver it or pay a sum in respect of it to the liquidator on such terms as the Irish High Court sees fit. In deciding whether it is just and equitable to make an order under section 608, the Irish High Court must have regard to the rights of persons who have bona fide and for value acquired an interest in the property the subject of the application.

Examinership

Examinership is a court procedure available under the Irish Companies Act 2014, as amended to facilitate the survival of Irish companies in financial difficulties. Hertz Fleet Limited, its directors, its shareholders holding, at the date of presentation of the petition, not less than one-tenth of its voting share capital, or a contingent, prospective or actual creditor, are each entitled to petition the court for the appointment of an examiner. The examiner, once appointed, has the power to set aside contracts and arrangements entered into by the company after this appointment and, in certain circumstances, can avoid a negative pledge given by the company prior to this appointment. Furthermore, he may sell assets which are the subject of a fixed charge. However, if such power is exercised he must account to the holders of the fixed charge for the amount realized and discharge the amount due to them out of the proceeds of sale.

During the period of protection, the examiner will compile proposals for a compromise or scheme of arrangement to assist in the survival of the company or the whole or any part of its undertaking as a going concern. A scheme of arrangement may be approved by the Irish High Court when at least one class of creditors, whose interests are impaired under the proposals, has voted in favor of the proposals and the Irish High Court is satisfied that such proposals are fair and equitable in relation to any class of members or creditors who have not accepted the proposals and whose interests would be impaired by implementation of the scheme of arrangement and the proposals are not unfairly prejudicial to any interested party.

In considering proposals by the examiner, it is likely that secured and unsecured creditors would form separate classes of creditors. In the case of Hertz Fleet Limited, if the Trustee represented the majority in number and value of claims within the secured creditor class, the Trustee would be in a position to vote against any proposal not in favor of the Noteholders. The Trustee would also be entitled to argue at the High Court hearing at which the proposed scheme of arrangement is considered that the proposals are unfair and inequitable in relation to the Noteholders, especially if such proposals included a writing down to the value of amounts due by the Issuer to the Noteholders.

If, for any reason, an examiner were appointed to Hertz Fleet Limited while any amounts due by the Issuer under the Notes were unpaid, the primary risks to the Noteholders are as follows:

- the Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, would not be able to exercise enforcement rights against Hertz Fleet Limited during the period of examinership;
- a scheme of arrangement may be approved involving the writing down of the debt due by Hertz Fleet Limited to the Noteholders irrespective of their views;
- an examiner may seek to set aside any negative pledge in the Notes prohibiting the creation of security or the incurring of borrowings by Hertz Fleet Limited to enable the examiner to borrow to fund Hertz Fleet Limited during the protection period; and
- in the event that a scheme of arrangement is not approved and Hertz Fleet Limited subsequently goes into liquidation, the examiner's remuneration and expenses (including certain borrowings incurred by the examiner on behalf of Hertz Fleet Limited and approved by the Irish High Court) and the claims of certain other creditors referred to above (including the Irish Revenue Commissioners for certain unpaid taxes) will take priority over the amounts due by Hertz Fleet Limited to the Noteholders.

Furthermore, a court may order that an examiner shall have any of the powers a liquidator appointed by court would have, which could include the power to apply to have transactions set aside under section 604 of the Irish Companies Act, 2014 or section 608 of the Irish Companies Act, 2014.

The Issuer cannot be certain that, in the event of Hertz Fleet Limited becoming insolvent, a Guarantee or any payment under it will not be challenged by a liquidator or examiner or that a court would uphold such Guarantee or payment.

Limitations on Guarantees by Irish Guarantors

In respect of the liabilities and obligations of any Guarantor incorporated in Ireland, no Guarantee will apply to the extent that it would constitute unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of section 82 of the Companies Act, 2014 of Ireland.

Italy

Under Italian Law the obligations under the Notes and Guarantees of a Guarantor incorporated in Italy are subject to compliance with the rules on corporate benefit and corporate authorization. If the guarantee is being provided in the context of an acquisition, group reorganization or restructuring, financial assistance issues may also be triggered.

An Italian company granting a guarantee must receive a real and adequate benefit in exchange for the guarantee. The concept of real and adequate benefit is not defined in the applicable legislation and is determined on a case by case basis. In particular, in case of upstream and cross-stream guarantees for the financial obligations of group companies, examples include financial consideration in the form of a guarantee fee or access to cash flows in the form of intercompany loans from other members of the group. The general rule is that the risk assumed by an Italian guarantor must not be disproportionate to the direct or indirect economic benefit to that guarantor. Absence of a real and adequate benefit could render the guarantee or the collateral ultra vires and potentially affected by conflict of interest. Thus, civil liabilities may be imposed on the directors of the guarantor if it is assessed that they did not act in the best interest of the guarantor and that the acts they carried out do not fall within the corporate purpose of the guarantor. The lack of corporate benefit could also result in the imposition of civil liabilities on those companies or persons ultimately exercising control over the guarantor or having knowingly received an advantage or profit from such improper control. Moreover, guarantee could be declared null and void if the lack of corporate benefit was known or presumed to be known by the third party and such third party acted intentionally against the interest of the guarantor. In order to enable Italian companies to grant upstream and cross-stream guarantee to secure liabilities of third parties, customary “limitation language” is usually inserted in indentures, credit agreements and guarantees for the purpose of limiting the amount guaranteed by the guarantor to an amount that is proportionate for the direct or indirect economic benefit to the guarantor derived from the transaction.

As to corporate authorizations and financial assistance, the granting of a guarantee by an Italian company must be permitted by the by-laws (statuto) of the Italian company and cannot include any liability which would result in unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of article 2358 of the Italian civil code pursuant to which, subject to specific exceptions, it is unlawful for a company to give financial assistance (whether by means of loans, security, guarantees or otherwise) for the acquisition of its own shares by a third party.

The Indenture will provide that each Guarantor incorporated under the laws of Italy (an “Italian Guarantor”) will guarantee all obligations arising under the Indenture except that it shall not exceed, at any time, the highest outstanding principal amount at any time (as calculated at that time) of all inter-company loans advanced (or granted) to that Italian Guarantor (or any of its direct or indirect Subsidiaries) by the Issuer or any Guarantor after the date of the Indenture, it being specified that any payment made by such Italian Guarantor under the Indenture or pursuant to the Revolving Credit Facility and/or the European Vehicle Notes in respect of the obligations of the Issuer or any other Guarantor shall reduce for a corresponding amount the outstanding amount of the intercompany loans (if any) due by such Italian Guarantor to the Issuer or that Guarantor under the intercompany loan agreements referred to above.

Each Italian Guarantor will be entitled to raise as a defense (eccezione) in relation to the relevant intercompany loan granted by the Issuer or any Guarantor to the Italian Guarantor that the payment obligations of such Italian Guarantor under the intercompany loan shall be set-off against its claims of recourse or subrogation (regresso o surrogazione) arising as a result of any payment made by such Italian Guarantor under the guarantee given under the Indenture or pursuant to the Revolving Credit Facility or pursuant to the indenture regulating the European Vehicle Notes (the “Set-Off Right”).

Any provision establishing a deferral of Guarantors’ rights in the Indenture shall not prejudice, and will not apply to, the Set-Off Right.

The obligations of each Italian Guarantor under the Indenture are not exclusive of the obligations of that Italian Guarantor in its capacity as guarantor under the Revolving Credit Facility and the indenture regulating the European Vehicle Notes and, therefore, the obligations deemed to be assumed by each Italian Guarantor under the Indenture, Revolving Credit Facility and the European Vehicle Notes are, in aggregate, limited as set out in the Indenture.

In any event, pursuant to Article 1938 of the Italian Civil Code, the maximum amount that an Italian Guarantor may be required to pay in respect of its obligations as Guarantor under the Indenture shall not exceed 110% of the maximum amount of the Notes.

The guarantee of any Italian Guarantor acceding as an additional Guarantor shall be subject to any limitations relating to that additional Guarantor set out in any relevant accession letter.

Insolvency Proceedings

The two primary aims of Royal Decree No. 267 of March 16, 1942 (the main Italian bankruptcy legislation), as reformed and currently in force (the “Italian Bankruptcy Law”), are to liquidate the debtor’s assets and protect the goodwill of the going concern (if any) for the satisfaction of creditors’ claims as well as, in case of the “Prodi-bis” procedure or “Marzano” procedure, to maintain employment. These competing aims have often been balanced by selling businesses as going concerns and ensuring that employees are transferred along with the businesses being sold.

Under the Italian Bankruptcy Law, bankruptcy must be declared by a court, based on the insolvency (insolvenza) of a company upon a petition filed by the company itself, the public prosecutor and/or one or more creditors. Insolvency occurs when a debtor is no longer able to regularly meet its obligations as they become due. This must be a permanent, and not a temporary, status in order for a court to hold that a company is insolvent.

In cases where a company is in distress, it may be possible for it to enter into out-of-court arrangements with its creditors, which may safeguard the existence of the company, but which are susceptible to being reviewed by a court in the event of a subsequent insolvency, and possibly challenged as voidable transactions.

In addition, the following forms of debt restructuring and bankruptcy are available under Italian law for companies in a state of crisis and for insolvent companies.

Out-of-court reorganization plans (piani di risanamento) pursuant to Article 67, Paragraph 3(d) of the Italian Bankruptcy Law

Out-of-court debt restructuring agreements are based on restructuring plans (piani di risanamento attestati) prepared by companies in order to restructure their indebtedness and to ensure the recovery of their financial condition. An independent expert (who has to meet the requirements set out in Article 67, Paragraph 3(d) of the Italian Bankruptcy Law) appointed by the debtor has to verify the feasibility of the restructuring plan and the truthfulness of the business data provided by the company.

The terms and conditions of these plans are freely negotiable. Unlike in-court pre-bankruptcy agreement proceedings and debt restructuring agreements, out-of-court reorganization plans pursuant to Article 67, Paragraph 3(d) of the Italian Bankruptcy Law do not offer the debtor any protection against enforcement proceedings and/or precautionary actions of third-party creditors. The Italian Bankruptcy Law provides that, should these plans fail and the debtor be declared bankrupt, the payments and/or acts carried out for the implementation of the reorganization plan, subject to certain conditions (i) are not subject to clawback action and (ii) are exempted from certain potentially applicable criminal sanctions. Neither ratification by the court nor publication in the Companies’ Register are needed (although publication in the Companies’ Register is possible upon a debtor’s request) and, therefore, the risk of bad publicity or disvalue judgments are lower than in case of an in-court pre-bankruptcy agreement or a debt restructuring agreement.

Debt restructuring agreements with creditors (accordi di ristrutturazione dei debiti) pursuant to Article 182-bis of the Italian Bankruptcy Law

Out-of-court agreements for the restructuring of indebtedness entered into with creditors representing at least 60% of the outstanding company’s debts can be ratified by the court. An expert appointed by the debtor must assess the truthfulness of the business data provided by the company and declare that the agreement is feasible and, particularly, that it ensures that the debts of the nonparticipating creditors can be fully satisfied within the following time frames: (i) 120 days from the date of ratification of the agreement by the court, in the case of debts which are due and payable to the nonparticipating creditors as at the date of the sanctioning (omologazione) of the debt restructuring agreement by the court; and (ii) 120 days from the date on which the relevant debts fall due, in case of receivables which are not yet due and payable to the nonparticipating creditors as of the date of the sanctioning (omologazione) of the debt restructuring agreement by the court. Only a debtor (meeting the requirements to be subject to bankruptcy proceeding (fallimento)—see below) who is insolvent or in a state of crisis (i.e., facing distress which does not yet amount to insolvency) can initiate this process and request the court’s sanctioning (omologazione) of the debt restructuring agreement entered into with its creditors.

The agreement is published in the companies’ register and is effective as of the day of its publication. Starting from the date of such publication and for 60 days thereafter, creditors cannot start or continue any interim relief or enforcement actions over the assets of the debtor and cannot obtain any security interest (unless agreed) in relation to preexisting debts. Such moratorium can be requested, pursuant to Article 182-bis, Paragraph 6 of the Italian Bankruptcy Law, by the debtor from the court pending negotiations with creditors (prior to the above-mentioned publication of the agreement), subject to the fulfillment of certain conditions. Such moratorium request must be published in the companies' register and becomes effective as of the date of publication. The court, having verified the completeness of the documentation, sets the date for a hearing within 30 days of the filing and orders the company to supply the relevant documentation in relation to the moratorium to the creditors. In such hearing, the court assesses whether the conditions for granting the moratorium are in place and, if they are, orders that no interim relief or enforcement action may be started or continued, nor can security interests (unless agreed) be acquired over the assets of the debtor, and sets a deadline (not exceeding 60 days) within which the restructuring agreement has to be filed. The court's order may be challenged within 15 days of its publication. Within the same time frame, an application for the concordato preventivo (as described below) may be filed, without prejudice to the effect of the moratorium.

The Italian Bankruptcy Law does not expressly provide for any indications concerning the contents of the debt restructuring agreement. The plan can therefore provide, inter alia, either for the prosecution of the business by the debtor or by a third party, or the sale of the business to a third party and may contain, refinancing agreements, moratoria, write-offs and/or postponements of claims. The debt restructuring agreement may also contain a proposed tax settlement for the partial or deferred payment of certain taxes.

Creditors and other interested parties may oppose the agreement within 30 days from the publication of the agreement in the companies' register. The court will, after having settled the oppositions (if any), validate the agreement by issuing a decree, which may be appealed within 15 days of its publication.

Pursuant to the new Article 182-quinquies of the Italian Bankruptcy Law, the court, pending the sanctioning (omologazione) of the agreement pursuant to Article 182-bis, paragraph 1, or after the filing of the instance pursuant to Article 182-bis, paragraph 6, and also before the submission of the underlying plan and all relevant documentation, or a petition for a concordato preventivo, also pursuant to Article 161, paragraph 6, may authorize the debtor (i) to incur in new indebtedness pre-deductible, provided that the expert appointed by the debtor declares the aim of the new financial indebtedness results in a better satisfaction of the creditors, and (ii) to pay debts deriving from the supply of services or goods, already payable and due, provided that the expert declares that such payment is essential for the keeping of company's activities and to ensure the best satisfaction for all creditors. . In case of urgency, the court, pending the sanctioning (omologazione) of the agreement pursuant to Article 182-bis, paragraph 1, or after the filing of the instance pursuant to Article 182-bis, paragraph 6, or a petition for a concordato preventivo, also pursuant to Article 161, paragraph 6, may authorize the debtor (i) to maintain discount on bills facilities (linee autoliquidanti) or (ii) to incur in the above-mentioned new pre-deductible indebtedness aimed at covering urgent needs to carry out the business until the expiry of the term assigned by the court under Article 161, paragraph 6, or the hearing for the sanctioning of the agreement pursuant to Article 182-bis, paragraph 4, or the expiry of the term set out in Article 182-bis, paragraph 7 if (a) the purpose of the new facilities is disclosed, (b) the company has no access to alternative financing sources, and (c) the company would suffer imminent and irreparable prejudice to its business should no authorization be granted. The decision should be taken by the court within 10 days from the filing of the application.

In addition, pursuant to the new Article 182-septies of the Italian Bankruptcy Law, if at least 50% of the overall indebtedness of the distressed company is owed to banks and financial intermediaries, the company will be able to split such financial creditors into one or more classes having homogeneous legal rights and economic interest. In such circumstance if all the financial creditors of a class have been informed of the beginning of the negotiations for the debt restructuring agreement and put in the condition to participate to such negotiations in good faith and at least 75% in value of the financial creditors of a class accept the debt restructuring agreement, upon the debtor's request all the nonconsenting creditors pertaining to the same class may be bound by the treatment applicable to their class. However non consenting financial creditors cannot be forced to commit new money or advance undrawn commitments or perform new obligations (continuation of financial lease agreement can be imposed). The court before sanctioning the debt restructuring agreement will have to verify certain requirements in addition to the ordinary one, including the satisfaction of the non-consenting financial creditors for an amount which is not lower than the amount achievable through otherwise available alternatives. Non-consenting financial creditors will be entitled to file a petition with the court to oppose to the sanctioning of the debt restructuring agreement by contesting the compliance of the proposed agreement with the applicable legal requirements.

Furthermore, if between a debtor and one or more banks or financial intermediaries is agreed an interim standstill agreement and the 75% in value of the financial creditors of a class accepts it, the nonconsenting financial creditors pertaining to the same class will be bound by the same standstill regime, provided that they have been informed of the beginning of the negotiations and put in the condition to join the same in good faith and an independent expert certifies that classes have been correctly created. Within 30 days from the company communication of the execution of the interim standstill agreement to the nonconsenting financial creditors, they will be entitled to challenge the application of such agreement to them in front of the court.

Court-supervised pre-bankruptcy composition with creditors (concordato preventivo)

A debtor (meeting the requirements to be subject to bankruptcy proceedings (fallimento)—see below) which is insolvent or in a situation of crisis, but has not been declared insolvent by the court, has the option to make a composition proposal to its creditors, under court supervision, in order to compose its overall indebtedness and/or reorganize its business, thereby avoiding a declaration of insolvency and the initiation of bankruptcy proceedings. Only the debtor can file a petition with the court for a concordato preventivo (together with, inter alia, the proposed agreement and an independent expert report assessing the feasibility of the composition proposal and the truthfulness of the business data provided by the company). The petition for concordato preventivo is then published by the debtor in the companies' register. From the date of such publication to the date on which the court sanctions the concordato preventivo, all enforcement and interim relief actions by the creditors (whose debt arose before the sanctioning of the concordato preventivo by the court) are stayed. During this time, all enforcement, precautionary actions and interim measures sought by the creditors, whose title arose beforehand, are stayed. Preexisting creditors cannot obtain security interests (unless authorized by the court) and mortgages registered within the 90 days preceding the date on which the petition for the concordato preventivo is published in the companies' register are ineffective against such preexisting creditors.

The composition proposal filed in connection with the petition may provide for: (i) the restructuring of debts and the satisfaction of creditors' claims (including through extraordinary transactions, such as the granting to creditors and to their subsidiaries or affiliated companies of shares, bonds (including bonds convertible into shares), or other financial instruments and debt securities); (ii) the transfer to a receiver (assuntore) of the operations of the debtor company making the composition proposal; (iii) the division of creditors into classes and (iv) different treatment of creditors belonging to different classes. The composition proposal may also contain a proposed tax settlement for the partial or deferred payment of certain taxes. In any case the composition proposal, except for those on a going concern basis (concordato con continuità aziendale), must ensure the payment of at least the 20% of the unsecured creditor's claims.

The filing of the petition for the concordato preventivo may be preceded by the filing of a preliminary petition for a concordato preventivo (so called concordato in bianco, pursuant to Article 161, paragraph 6, of the Italian Bankruptcy Law). The debtor company may file such petition along with its financial statements from the latest three financial years and a list of the creditors and respective credits reserving the right to submit the underlying plan, the proposal and all relevant documentation within a period assigned by the court between 60 and 120 days from the date of the filing of the preliminary petition, subject to only one possible further extension of up to 60 days, where there are reasonable grounds for such extension. In advance of such deadline, the debtor may also file a petition for the approval of a debt restructuring agreement (pursuant to Article 182-bis of the Italian Bankruptcy Law). The Court, with the decree setting the term set out above, (i) may appoint the judicial commissioner (commissario giudiziale) and (ii) shall provide for the periodical information requirements that the debtor has to fulfil. Following the filing of the pre-application and until the decree of admission to the composition with creditors, the debtor may carry out acts pertaining to its ordinary activity and seek the court's authorization, once received the judicial commissioner (commissario giudiziale) opinion (if appointed), to carry out acts pertaining to its extraordinary activity, to the extent they are urgent.

Under Article 169-bis the debtor may request authorization to the court—which will have to hear the debtor's counterparty—for the termination of pending agreements. In case of termination the counterparty will be entitled to an indemnification claim which shall rank unsecured against the company while any receivable arising further to the performance of the agreement after publication of the composition proposal shall benefit from super-seniority in case of liquidation. The debtor may also request the authorization for the suspension of the agreement for no more than 6 months, which may be extended only once. In case of termination of financial leasing agreements, the leasing entity will have the right to the repossession of the leased asset but, in case the market value of the leased asset is higher than the outstanding leasing debt, the difference will have to be paid to the debtor, on the contrary, if it is lower, the relevant claim will rank unsecured against the debtor.

The composition proposal may propose that (i) the debtor's company's business continues to be run by the debtor's company as a going concern, or (ii) the business is transferred or contributed to one or more companies (concordato con continuità aziendale). In these cases, the petition for the concordato preventivo should fully describe the costs and revenues which are expected as a consequence of the continuation of the business as a going concern, as well as the financial resources and support which will be necessary. The report of the independent expert shall also certify that the continuation of the business is conducive to the satisfaction of creditors' claims to a greater extent than if such composition proposal was not implemented.

Furthermore, the going concern-based arrangements with creditors can provide for, inter alia, the winding-up of those assets which are not functional to the business allowed. The composition agreement may also contain a proposed tax settlement for the partial or deferred payment of certain taxes.

The composition proposal may envisage the transfer or lease of the business and/or assets of the debtor to a predetermined purchaser. In such circumstance the court is required to open a public bid process and, in case of more competing bids on better terms than the original binding offer, a bid process shall be carried out by the court in a public hearing. Further to the sale to a bidder other than the original one, the latter shall be released from its original obligation and shall be reimbursed of the costs incurred for an amount up to 3% of the price set out in the original binding offer.

If the court determines that the composition proposal is admissible, it appoints a judge (giudice delegato) to supervise the procedure, appoints one or more judicial officers (commissari giudiziali) and calls a creditors' meeting. During the implementation of the proposal, the company generally continues to be managed by its board of directors, but is supervised by the appointed judicial officers and judge (who shall authorize all transactions that exceed the ordinary course of business).

The concordato preventivo is voted on at a creditors' meeting and must be approved by the majority (by value of claims) of the creditors entitled to vote and, where there are different classes of creditors also, by the majority of classes. Creditors who have not voted may notify their objection via telegraph, fax, mail or e-mail to such proposal within 20 days from the closure of the minutes of that creditors' meeting. Secured creditors are not entitled to vote on the proposal of concordato preventivo unless and to the extent they waive their security, or the concordato preventivo provides that they will not receive full satisfaction of the fair market value of their secured assets (such value being assessed by an independent expert), in which case they can vote only in respect of the part of their debt affected by the proposal. The court may also approve the concordato preventivo (notwithstanding the circumstance that one or more classes objected to it) if (i) the majority of classes has approved it, and (ii) the court deems that the interests of the dissenting creditors would be adequately safeguarded through it compared to other solutions. In particular, if an objection to the implementation of the concordato preventivo is filed by 20% of the creditors or, in case there are different classes of creditors, by a creditor belonging to a dissenting class, entitled to vote, the court may nevertheless sanction the concordato preventivo if it deems that the relevant creditors' claims are likely to be satisfied to a greater extent as a result of the concordato preventivo than would otherwise be the case.

No later than 30 days prior to the creditors' meeting for the vote on the concordato preventivo proposal, creditors representing at least 10% in value of the overall indebtedness (even if such percentage is reached through purchases made after the date of the filing of the proposal and being understood that receivables towards the distressed company owned by its controlling/controlled/subject to common control entities would not count for such purpose) may present a composition counter-proposal. Such proposal will not be admitted if the independent expert assesses that the debtor's composition proposal provides for the payment of at least 40% (or 30% in relation to composition with going concern) of the unsecured receivables. The creditors presenting the counter-proposal may only vote to the extent they are confined into a separate class under such proposal. The proposal obtaining the higher majority of votes will prevail, being understood that the debtor's original proposal will prevail over a creditors' counter-proposal obtaining the same majority.

After the approval by the creditors' meeting, the court (having settled possible objections raised by the dissenting creditors, if any) confirms the concordato preventivo proposal by issuing a confirmation order.

If the creditors' meeting does not approve the concordato preventivo, the court may, upon request of the public prosecutor or a creditor, and having decided that the relevant conditions apply, declare the company bankrupt.

Bankruptcy (fallimento)

A request to declare a debtor bankrupt and to commence bankruptcy proceedings (fallimento) and the judicial liquidation of the debtor company's assets can be filed by the debtor company itself, any of its creditors and, in certain cases, by the public prosecutor. The bankruptcy is declared by the competent bankruptcy court. The Italian Bankruptcy Law is applicable only to commercial enterprises (imprenditori commerciali) if any of the following thresholds are met (i.e., the debtor has had assets (attivo patrimoniale) in an aggregate amount exceeding €0.3 million for each of the three preceding fiscal years, gross revenues (ricavi lordi) in an aggregate amount exceeding €0.2 million for each of the three preceding fiscal years and has total indebtedness in excess of €0.5 million). On the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings:

- subject to certain exceptions, all actions of creditors are stayed and creditors must file claims within a defined period. In particular, under certain circumstances secured creditors may enforce against the secured property as soon as their claims are admitted as preferred claims. Secured claims are paid out of the proceeds of the secured assets, together with interest and expenses. Any outstanding balance will be considered unsecured and rank pari passu with all of the bankrupt's other unsecured debt. The secured creditor may sell the secured asset only after it has obtained authorization from the designated judge (giudice delegato). After hearing the bankruptcy receiver and the creditors' committee, the designated judge decides whether to authorize the sale, and sets forth the timing in its decision;

- the administration of the debtor company and the management of its assets pass from the debtor company to the bankruptcy receiver (curatore fallimentare);
- any act of the debtor company done after a declaration of bankruptcy (including payments made) is ineffective against the creditors;
- continuation of business may be authorized by the court if an interruption would cause greater damage to the company, but only if the continuation of the company's business does not cause damage to creditors; and
- the execution of certain contracts and/or transactions pending as of the date of the bankruptcy declaration are suspended until the receiver decides whether to take them over. Although the general rule is that the bankruptcy receiver is allowed to either continue or terminate contracts where some or all of the obligations have not been performed by both parties, certain contracts are subject to specific rules expressly provided for by the Italian Bankruptcy Law.

The bankruptcy proceedings are carried out and supervised by a court-appointed bankruptcy receiver, a deputy judge (giudice delegato) and a creditors' committee. The bankruptcy receiver is not a representative of any one of the creditors, but is responsible for the liquidation of the assets of the debtor for the satisfaction of the creditors as a whole. The proceeds from the liquidation are distributed in accordance with statutory priority. The Italian Bankruptcy Law provides that the receiver shall present the liquidation plan within maximum 180 days from the opening of the liquidation procedure and the liquidation activities shall be concluded within 2 years from the delivery of the judgment opening the bankruptcy proceeding (in case for specific assets a longer deadline is needed, the liquidator shall have to expressly mention the grounds for such a longer deadline). The failure to comply with such timing requirements constitutes good cause for termination of the receiver appointment. The Italian Bankruptcy Law provides for a priority of payment to certain preferential creditors, including employees, the Italian treasury, and judicial and social authorities. Such priority of payment is provided under mandatory provisions of Italian law (as a consequence it is untested and it is unlikely that priority of payments such as those commonly provided in intercreditor contractual arrangements would be recognized by an Italian bankruptcy estate to the extent they are inconsistent with the priorities provided by law).

Bankruptcy composition with Creditors (concordato fallimentare)

A bankruptcy proceeding can terminate prior to liquidation through a bankruptcy composition proposal with creditors. The proposal can be filed, by one or more creditors or third parties, from the declaration of bankruptcy. By contrast, the debtor or its subsidiaries are only permitted to file such proposal after one year following such declaration, but within two years following the decree giving effectiveness to the liabilities account (stato passivo). Secured creditors are not entitled to vote on the proposal of concordato fallimentare, unless and to the extent they waive their security or the concordato fallimentare provides that they will not receive full satisfaction of the fair market value of their secured assets (such value being assessed by an independent expert), in which case they can vote only in respect of the part of their debt affected by the proposal.

The proposal may provide for the division of creditors into classes (thereby proposing different treatment among the classes), the restructuring of debts and the satisfaction of creditors' claims in any manner. The concordato fallimentare proposal must be approved by the creditors' committee and the creditors holding the majority (by value) of claims (and, if classes are formed, also by a majority (by value) of the claims in a majority of the classes). Final court ratification is also required.

Statutory priorities

The statutory priority given to creditors under the Italian Bankruptcy Law may be different from that established in the U.S., and certain other EU jurisdictions. Neither the debtor nor the court can deviate from the rules of statutory priority by proposing their own priorities of claims or by subordinating one claim to another based on equitable subordination principles (as a consequence it must be noted that priority of payments such as those commonly provided in intercreditor contractual arrangements may not be enforceable against an Italian bankruptcy estate to the extent they are inconsistent with the priorities provided by law). The rules of statutory priority apply irrespective of whether the proceeds are derived from the sale of the entire bankrupt's estate or part thereof, or from a single asset.

Article 111 of the Italian Bankruptcy Law establishes that proceeds of liquidation shall be allocated according to the following order: (i) for payments of “pre-deductible” claims (i.e., claims expressly classified as such under the provision of law or originated in the context of insolvency proceeding); (ii) for payment of claims which are privileged (e.g. mortgage and pledge; and (iii) for the payment of unsecured creditors’ claims.

Avoidance powers in insolvency

Under Italian law, there are “clawback” or avoidance provisions that may lead to, inter alia, the revocation of payments made or security interests granted by the debtor prior to the declaration of bankruptcy. The key avoidance provisions include, but are not limited to, transactions made below market value, preferential transactions and transactions made with a view to defraud creditors. Clawback rules under Italian law are normally considered to be particularly favorable to the receiver in bankruptcy, compared to the rules applicable in other jurisdictions.

In bankruptcy proceedings, depending on the circumstances, the Italian Bankruptcy Law provides for a clawback period of up to either one year or six months in certain circumstances (please note that in the context of extraordinary administration procedures—see sections below—in relation to certain transactions the clawback period can be extended to five and three years, respectively) and a two-year ineffectiveness period for certain other transactions.

The Italian Bankruptcy Law distinguishes between acts or transactions which are ineffective by operation of law and acts or transactions which are voidable at the request of the bankruptcy receiver/court commissioner, as detailed below.

(a) Acts ineffective by operation of law

(i) Under Article 64 of the Italian Bankruptcy Law, all transactions entered into for no consideration are ineffective vis-à-vis creditors if entered into by the debtor in the two-year period prior to the insolvency declaration. Any asset which has been subject to such transactions becomes part of the bankruptcy estate by operation of law upon registration of the declaration of bankruptcy; and

(ii) under Article 65 of the Italian Bankruptcy Law, payments of debts falling due on the day of the declaration of insolvency or thereafter are deemed ineffective vis-à-vis creditors if made by the debtor in the two-year period prior to the insolvency declaration.

(b) Acts which could be declared ineffective at the request of the bankruptcy receiver/court commissioner

(i) The following acts and transactions, if done or made during the period specified below, may be clawed back (revocati) vis-à-vis the bankruptcy as provided for by article 67 of the above referenced Royal Decree and be declared ineffective unless the other party proves that it had no actual or constructive knowledge of the debtor’s insolvency:

(I) the onerous transactions entered into in the year preceding the insolvency declaration, where the value of the debt or of the obligations undertaken by the debtor exceeds by 25% the value of the consideration received by and/or promised to the debtor;

(II) payments of debts, due and payable, made by the debtor, which were not paid in cash or by other customary means of payment in the year preceding the insolvency declaration;

(III) pledges and mortgages granted by the bankrupt entity in the year preceding the insolvency declaration in order to secure preexisting debts which have not yet fallen due; and

(IV) pledges and mortgages, granted by the bankrupt entity in the six months preceding the insolvency declaration, in order to secure debts which had fallen due.

(ii) The following acts and transactions, if done or made during the period specified below, may be clawed back (revocati) and declared ineffective if the bankruptcy receiver proves that the other party knew that the bankrupt entity was insolvent at the time of the act or transaction:

(I) the payments of debts that are immediately due and payable and any onerous transactions entered into or made in the six months preceding the insolvency declaration; and

(II) the granting of security interests securing debts (even those of third parties) which are simultaneously created and made in the six months preceding the insolvency declaration.

(iii) The following transactions are exempt from clawback actions:

(I) a payment for goods or services made in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with market practice;

(II) a remittance on a bank account, provided that it does not reduce the bankrupt entity's debt towards the bank in a material and lasting manner;

(III) a sale, including an agreement for sale registered pursuant to Article 2645-bis of the Italian Civil Code, currently in force, made for a fair value and concerning a residential property that is intended as the main residence of the purchaser or the purchaser's family (within three degrees of kinship) or a nonresidential property that is intended as the main seat of the enterprise of the purchaser, on the condition that, as at the date of the insolvency declaration, such activity is actually exercised or the investments for the start of such activity have been carried out;

(IV) transactions entered into, payments made and security interests granted with respect to the bankrupt entity's assets, provided that they concern the implementation of a piano di risanamento attestato (see Out-of-court reorganization plans (Piani di risanamento) pursuant to Article 67, Paragraph 3(d) of the Italian Bankruptcy Law);

(V) a transaction entered into, payment made or security interest granted to implement a concordato preventivo (see Court-supervised pre-bankruptcy composition with creditors (concordato preventivo)) or an accordo di ristrutturazione dei debiti under Article 182-bis of the Italian Bankruptcy Law (see Debt restructuring agreements with creditors (accordi di ristrutturazione dei debiti) pursuant to Article 182-bis of the Italian Bankruptcy Law) and transactions entered into, payments made and security interests granted after the filing of the application for a concordato preventivo (see above);

(VI) remuneration payments to the bankrupt entity's employees and consultants; and

(VII) a payment of a debt that is immediately due, payable and made on the due date, with respect to services necessary for access to concordato preventivo procedures.

In addition, in certain cases, the bankruptcy receiver can request that certain transactions of the bankrupt entity be declared without effect vis-à-vis the acting creditors within the Italian Civil Code ordinary clawback period of five years (revocatoria ordinaria). Under Article 2901 of the Italian Civil Code, a creditor may demand that transactions through which the bankrupt entity disposed of its assets to the detriment of such creditor's rights be declared ineffective with respect to such creditor, provided that the bankrupt entity was aware of such detriment (or, if the transaction was entered into prior to the date on which the creditor's claim originated, that such transaction was fraudulently entered into by the debtor in order to cause detriment of such creditor's rights) and that, in the case of a transaction entered into for consideration with a third person, the third person was aware of such detriment (or, if the transaction was entered into prior to the date on which the creditor's claim originated, such third party participated in the fraudulent scheme).

Extraordinary administration for large insolvent companies (amministrazione straordinaria delle grandi imprese in stato di insolvenza)

An extraordinary administration procedure applies under Italian law for large industrial and commercial enterprises (the Prodi-bis procedure). The relevant company must be insolvent, but demonstrating serious recovery prospects. To qualify for this procedure, the company must have employed at least 200 employees in the previous year. In addition, it must have debts equal to at least two-thirds of its assets as shown in its financial statements and two-thirds of its income from sales and services during its last financial year. Either of the creditors, the debtor, a court or the public prosecutor may make a petition to commence an extraordinary administration procedure. The same rules set forth for bankruptcy proceedings with respect to creditors' claims largely apply to extraordinary administration proceedings.

There are two main phases—a judicial phase and an administrative phase.

Judicial phase

In the judicial phase, the court determines whether the company meets the admission criteria and whether it is insolvent. It then issues a decision to that effect and appoints up to three judicial receivers (commissario giudiziale) to investigate whether the company has serious prospects for recovery via a business sale or reorganization. The judicial receiver files a report with the court within 30 days, and within ten days from such filing, the Italian Productive Activities Minister (the “Ministry”) may make an opinion on the admission of the company to the extraordinary administration procedure. The court then decides (within 30 days from the filing of the report) whether to admit the company to the procedure or to place it into bankruptcy.

Administrative phase

Assuming that the company is admitted to the extraordinary administration procedure, the administrative phase begins and an extraordinary commissioner (or commissioners) is appointed by the Ministry. The extraordinary commissioner(s), prepares a plan which can provide for either the sale of the business as a going concern within one year (unless extended by the Ministry) (the “Disposal Plan”) or a reorganization leading to the company’s economic and financial recovery within two years (unless extended by the Ministry) (the “Recovery Plan”). If the company operates in the essential public services sector or manages at least one industrial plant of national strategic interest, the Ministry can authorize the extension of a Disposal Plan or of a Recovery Plan up to a maximum of four years. The plan may also include an arrangement with creditors (e.g., a debt for equity swap, an issue of shares in a new company to whom the assets of the company have been transferred, etc.) (concordato). The plan must be approved by the Ministry.

The procedure ends upon successful completion of either a Disposal Plan or a Recovery Plan, failing which the company is declared bankrupt.

Industrial restructuring of large insolvent companies (ristrutturazione industriale di grandi imprese in stato di insolvenza)

Introduced in 2003, the industrial restructuring of large insolvent companies is also known as the “Marzano” procedure. It is complementary to the Prodi-bis procedure and, except as otherwise provided, the same provisions apply. The Marzano procedure is intended to be faster than the Prodi-bis procedure. For example, although a company must be insolvent, the application to the Ministry is made together with the filing to the court for the declaration of the insolvency of the debtor.

The Marzano procedure only applies to large insolvent companies which, on a consolidated basis, have at least 500 employees in the year before the procedure is commenced and at least €300 million of debt. The decision whether to open a Marzano procedure is taken by the Ministry following the debtor’s request (who must also file an application for the declaration of insolvency). The Ministry assesses whether the relevant requirements are met and then appoints the extraordinary commissioner(s) who will manage the company. The court decides on the company’s insolvency.

The extraordinary commissioner(s) has/have 180 days (or 270 days if the Ministry so agrees) to submit a Disposal Plan or Recovery Plan. The restructuring through the Disposal Plan or the Recovery Plan must be completed within two years. If no Disposal or Recovery Plan is approved by the Ministry, the court will declare the company bankrupt and open bankruptcy proceedings.

Compulsory administrative winding-up (liquidazione coatta amministrativa)

A compulsory administrative winding-up (liquidazione coatta amministrativa) is only available for certain companies, including, inter alia, public interest entities such as state-controlled companies, insurance companies, credit institutions and other financial institutions, none of which can be made subject to bankruptcy proceedings. It is irrelevant whether these companies belong to the public or the private sector. A compulsory administrative winding-up is a special sort of insolvency proceeding in which the entity is liquidated not by the bankruptcy court, but by the relevant administrative authority that oversees the industry in which the entity is active. The procedure may be triggered not only by the insolvency of the relevant entity, but also on other grounds expressly provided for by the relevant legal provisions. The effect of this procedure is that the entity loses control over its assets and a liquidator (commissario liquidatore) is appointed to wind up the company. The liquidator’s actions are monitored by a steering committee (comitato di sorveglianza). The powers assigned to the designated judge and the bankruptcy court under the other insolvency proceedings are assumed by the relevant administrative authority under this procedure. The effect on creditors of the forced administrative winding-up is largely the same as under bankruptcy proceedings and includes, for example, a ban on enforcement measures. The same rules set forth for bankruptcy proceedings with respect to existing contracts and creditors’ claims largely apply to a compulsory administrative winding-up.

Luxembourg

The granting of guarantees by a company incorporated and existing in Luxembourg must not be prohibited by the corporate object (“objet social”) and/or legal form of that company.

In addition, there is also a requirement according to which the granting of a guarantee by a Luxembourg company has to be for its corporate benefit.

Although no statutory definition of corporate benefit exists under Luxembourg law, corporate benefit is widely interpreted and includes any transactions from which the company derives a direct or indirect economic or commercial benefit.

The provision of a guarantee for the obligations of direct or indirect subsidiaries is likely to raise no particular concerns, whereas the provision of cross-stream and upstream guarantees may be more problematic.

Failure to comply with the corporate benefit requirement will typically result in liability for the managers of the Luxembourg company if:

- the guarantee so provided would materially exceed the (direct or indirect) benefit deriving from the guaranteed obligations for the Luxembourg company, or
- the Luxembourg company derives no personal benefit or obtains no direct or indirect consideration for the guarantee granted, or
- the commitment provided under the guarantee by the Luxembourg company exceeds its financial means.

In such a case, and further to the criminal and civil liability incurred by the managers of the Luxembourg company, the guarantee could itself be held unenforceable, as its provision would have been contrary to public policy (“ordre public”).

The above analysis is slightly different within a group of companies where a group interest can be recognized which prevents the guarantee from falling foul of the above constraints, in which case the following criteria must be met:

- the “assisting” company must receive some benefit, or there must be a balance between the respective commitments of all the affiliates;
- the financial assistance must not exceed the assisting company’s financial means, in which case it is typical for the guarantee to be limited to an aggregate amount not exceeding 80% to 95% of the obligor’s own funds (“capitaux propres”); and
- the companies involved must form part of a genuine group operating under a common strategy aimed at a common objective.

As a result, the guarantees granted by a Luxembourg company may be subject to certain limitations, which usually take the form of a general limitation language covering the aggregate obligations and exposure of the relevant Luxembourg obligor under all finance documents (including guarantee agreements) and in the relevant finance document(s).

For the purposes of this transaction, a specific limitation language has been agreed upon between the parties, whereby the aggregate obligations and exposure of any Guarantor incorporated under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg (a “Luxembourg Guarantor”) with respect to the obligations of the Issuer or any Guarantor which is not a Subsidiary of such Luxembourg Guarantor, under any Guarantee or document creating a security interest shall be limited at any time to an amount not exceeding the greater of:

- any amount(s) directly or indirectly made available to the Luxembourg Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries under any Guarantee (and which have not yet been repaid by the Luxembourg Guarantor or its Subsidiaries at the date on which the guarantee provided under the Indenture is called upon or enforced) PLUS (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the sum of that Luxembourg Guarantor’s net assets (“capitaux propres”), as determined pursuant to Article 34 of the Luxembourg law of 19 December 2002 on the register of commerce and companies, accounting and companies annual accounts, as amended (the “2002 Law”) or, as the case may be, referred to in any law, regulation and accounting standard to which Article 34 refers and its subordinated debts (“dettes subordonnées”) (as referred to in account 191 of the standard chart of accounts attached to the Grand-Ducal Regulation dated June 10, 2009 setting out the form and content of a standard chart of accounts, as the same may be amended or replaced), as reflected in its latest annual accounts available as at the date any guarantee or security interest provided under and pursuant to any Guarantee or document creating a security interest is called upon or any guarantee or security interest created under and pursuant to any Guarantee or document creating a security interest is enforced; or

- any amount(s) directly or indirectly made available to the Luxembourg Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries under any Guarantee (and which have not yet been repaid by the Luxembourg Guarantor or its Subsidiaries at the date on which the guarantee provided under the Indenture is called upon or enforced) PLUS (ii) ninety percent (90%) of the sum of that Luxembourg Guarantor’s net assets (“capitaux propres”), as determined pursuant to Article 34 of the 2002 Law or, as the case may be, referred to in any law, regulation and accounting standard to which Article 34 refers and its subordinated debts (“dettes subordonnées”) as referred to in account 191 of the standard chart of accounts attached to the Grand-Ducal Regulation dated June 10, 2009 setting out the form and content of a standard chart of accounts as the same may be amended or replaced), as reflected in its last annual accounts available as at the date of the Indenture.

Insolvency

In the event where a Guarantor incorporated in Luxembourg would become insolvent, insolvency proceedings may be initiated in Luxembourg to the extent that the Guarantor has its principal establishment or its centre of main interests in Luxembourg. Such proceedings would then be governed by Luxembourg law. Under certain limited circumstances, Luxembourg law also allows secondary bankruptcy proceedings to be opened in Luxembourg over the assets of companies that are not established in Luxembourg.

There are three statutory insolvency proceedings under Luxembourg law: bankruptcy proceedings (“faillite”), controlled management (“gestion contrôlée”) and composition proceedings (“concordat préventif de la faillite”). Controlled management and composition proceedings are formal corporate rescue procedures, while the purpose of bankruptcy proceedings is to realize the assets of the company, distribute the proceeds to its creditors and wind up the company.

A company in financial difficulty may instead seek to reach an informal contractual agreement with its creditors to reorganize its financial position or to restructure its business (non-statutory proceedings). On the basis of articles 593ff. of the Commercial Code, the company may also apply to court to suspend payment of its debts (“sursis de paiement”).

Bankruptcy proceedings, controlled management, composition proceedings and “sursis de paiement” are available to all types of Luxembourg companies with a commercial corporate object. Special regimes apply for entities including, but not limited to, financial institutions and insurance companies. The commencement of any procedure, other than bankruptcy, does not preclude the court from declaring the company bankrupt (including on the court’s own motion), if the legal conditions for bankruptcy are met.

Bankruptcy (“faillite”)

A company may enter into bankruptcy proceedings if it has ceased making payments (i.e. it is no longer able to repay its debts as they fall due) (“cessation des paiements”) and its creditworthiness has been impaired (“ébranlement du crédit”) (for example, the company is no longer able to obtain credit). In other words, the company must be insolvent under a cash flow test (as opposed to a balance sheet test).

Bankruptcy proceedings may be opened by the company or a creditor of the company by filing a declaration of insolvency (in the case of the company) or an application for bankruptcy (in the case of a creditor) with the commercial court in the district in which the company has its principal place of business. Alternatively, the court may order bankruptcy proceedings on the proposal of the public prosecutor representing the state.

If the court declares a company bankrupt, it will appoint a receiver (“curateur”) (or several receivers, depending on the complexity of the proceedings) and a judge (“juge-commissaire”) to supervise the insolvency proceedings. The receiver will realize the company’s assets and distribute the proceeds to the company’s creditors in accordance with the statutory order of payment and (if there are any funds left) the company’s shareholders. The receiver must notify creditors of the date by which they must file claims with the clerk of the court. The period within which creditors must file their claims is specified in the published judgment declaring the company bankrupt. All preferential, secured, and unsecured creditors of the bankruptcy company are required to lodge details of their claims in writing up to one month after receiving the notice. The receiver will need to obtain court permission for certain acts, such as agreeing settlement of claims or deciding to pursue the business of the company during the bankruptcy proceedings.

The receiver takes over the management and control of the company in place of the directors. The receiver represents the company on the one hand and, on the other, the creditors collectively (“masse des créanciers”). Contracts of the company are not automatically terminated on commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, save for contracts for which the identity or solvency of the company is crucial (“intuitu personae” agreements) (e.g. a power of attorney). However, certain contracts are terminated automatically by law, such as employment contracts, unless expressly confirmed by the receiver. Contractual provisions purporting to terminate a contract upon bankruptcy are valid. The receiver may choose to terminate contracts of the company.

Bankruptcy proceedings typically last approximately at least one year and, in practice, often last for several years in complex situations. Bankruptcy is governed by public policy and strict regulations, which generally delay the bankruptcy proceedings and any restructuring of the group to which the bankrupt company belongs. On closing of the bankruptcy proceedings, the company will typically be dissolved.

Controlled Management (“gestion contrôlée”)

A company may enter into controlled management proceedings in order to resolve its financial difficulties under the supervision of the court and with the approval of the creditors, without being declared bankrupt.

The company must have lost its creditworthiness or be experiencing difficulties in meeting all its financial commitments. The procedure is not available if the company has already been declared insolvent by the court. Also, the company must be acting in good faith, so fraud or irregularities in the management of the business may, in practice, mean that the procedure is not available to the company.

Controlled management proceedings may only be applied for by the company.

If the court commences controlled management proceedings, it will appoint one or more commissioners. The commissioners prepare composition proposals, which may involve a reorganization plan or a plan for the realization and distribution of the company’s assets. Creditors must lodge their claims in order to be included in the plan and have the right to vote on it. The plan must be approved by a majority in number of all the creditors representing more than 50% in value of all claims. The court must also approve the plan.

The company’s business activities continue during the controlled management procedure and the directors of the company remain in control of the business. However, the commissioners supervise the operation of the business. In particular, the company can no longer dispose of, or grant security over, its assets without authorization. Business continuity is maintained as existing contracts of the company are not automatically terminated by reason of the commencement of controlled management proceedings.

Controlled management proceedings end when either the plan is complete or the company is declared bankrupt. Proceedings are not frequently applied for and granted in practice but would probably last between one year and three years.

If an application to commence controlled management proceedings is dismissed, the court may commence bankruptcy proceedings if the conditions for bankruptcy are met.

Composition in Order to Avoid Bankruptcy (“condordat préventif de la faillite”)

A company may enter into composition proceedings (“condordat préventif de la faillite”) in order to resolve its financial difficulties by entering into an agreement with its creditors, the purpose of which is to avoid bankruptcy. The agreement is made under the control, and with the approval of, the court.

Composition proceedings may only be applied for by a company which is in financial difficulty.

As with the controlled management procedure, this procedure is not available if the company has already been declared insolvent by the court or if the company is acting in bad faith.

The application to open composition proceedings must be supported by a majority in number of the company's unsecured creditors, representing three quarters in value of the outstanding unsecured amounts. If the court commences composition proceedings, the composition will be binding on all unsecured creditors. The composition is not binding on secured creditors unless they choose to vote on the composition. A judge is appointed to oversee the negotiation of an agreement between the company and its creditors. The agreement may take various forms. For example, it may consist of an extension of time for the payment of debts or for the payment of debts by installments.

The company's business activities continue during the composition proceedings. While the composition is being negotiated, the company may not dispose of, or grant any security over, any assets without the approval of the judge. Once the composition has been agreed, this restriction is lifted. However, the company's business activities will still be supervised by the judge.

Suspension of Payments (“sursis de paiement”)

A company may voluntarily propose an informal contractual arrangement with its creditors to restructure or reschedule its debts.

The purpose of the reprieve from payment is to allow a business undertaking experiencing financial difficulties to suspend its payments for a limited time. Reprieve from payment acknowledges and ratifies, by means of court judgment, an agreement which has been reached with the creditors of the undertaking.

The reprieve from payment is, however, not of general application—one of the main reasons why it has lost its attractiveness. It only applies to those liabilities which have been assumed by the debtor prior to obtaining the reprieve from payment and has no effect as far as taxes and other public charges or secured claims (by right of priority, a mortgage or a pledge) are concerned.

Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy imposes a moratorium on unsecured creditors taking action against the company to recover debts owed. However, secured creditors are entitled to take action against the company to enforce security. The receiver is entitled to recover the pledged assets by paying the debt owed to the pledgee. If the proceeds of sale are insufficient to repay the debt owed to the secured creditor, such secured creditor will be treated as a non-privileged (i.e. unsecured) creditor for the balance of its claim.

Certain transactions which took place within a specified period known as the “suspect period” (“période suspecte”) prior to the date that the court declares the company bankrupt may be set aside. The suspect period is determined by the court and, generally, may be no more than six months from the date on which the company is declared bankrupt. These transactions include:

- Specified transactions: Transactions specified in Article 445 of the Commercial Code entered into during the suspect period (or in the 10 preceding days) must be set aside. These transactions include:
  - (i) the transfer of movable or immovable properties or assets without consideration or for a consideration materially lower than the value of such assets;
  - (ii) the payments of debts or liabilities which are not become due whether in cash or by way of assignment, sale, set-off or by any other means (other than set-off arrangements governed by the Law on financial collateral arrangements);
  - (iii) the payments of debts or liabilities which are become due by any means other than cash or bills of exchange; and
  - (iv) the grant of security interests for pre-existing debts (other than security interests over cash and/or financial instruments (including, without limitation debt and equity securities and other instruments equivalent to shares, units in companies and undertakings for collective investment and claims and receivables which are to be governed by the Law of financial collateral arrangements)).

- Transactions where the counterparty was aware of the company's insolvency/cessation of payments: Certain transactions entered into during the suspect period may be set aside where the counterparty was aware of the company's insolvency and/or its cessation of payments. Such transactions are set out in Article 446 of the Commercial Code and include payments of matured debts and transactions entered into for consideration.
- Fraudulent transactions: Fraudulent transactions entered into at any time prior to the declaration of bankruptcy may be set aside (i.e. whether or not entered into during the suspect period) under Article 448 of the Commercial Code and Article 1167 of the Civil Code ("actio pauliana").

Controlled Management

During the controlled management procedure (i.e. from the date the application is filed to the date on which the commissioner's plan is approved by the court), there is a moratorium on creditors, whether secured or unsecured (other than those with security interest governed by the Law on financial collateral arrangements), taking action to enforce their rights against the company. Once the plan is approved, the creditors are bound by the terms and conditions of the plan.

Fraudulent transactions which took place before the date on which the court commenced controlled management proceedings, may be set aside as described above.

Composition

While the composition is being negotiated, unsecured creditors may not take action against the company to recover their claims. Secured creditors who do not participate in the composition proceedings may take action against the company to recover their claims and to enforce their security.

Fraudulent transactions which took place before the date on which the court commenced composition proceedings, may be set aside as described above.

Recognition and enforcement of judgments

We have been advised by our Luxembourg counsel that the U.S. and Luxembourg are not currently bound by a treaty providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments, other than arbitral awards rendered in civil and commercial matters. According to such counsel, an enforceable judgment for the payment of monies rendered by any U.S. federal or state court based on civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the U.S. securities laws, would not directly be enforceable in Luxembourg. However, a valid judgment against a Luxembourg company with respect to the Notes obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction in the U.S., which judgment remains in full force and effect after all appeals as may be taken in the relevant U.S. state or federal jurisdiction with respect thereto have been taken, may be entered and enforced through a court of competent jurisdiction of Luxembourg subject to compliance with the enforcement procedures (exequatur) set forth in Articles 678 et seq. of the Luxembourg New Code of Civil Procedure (Nouveau Code de Procédure Civile). The district court will authorize the enforcement in Luxembourg of the U.S. judgment if it is satisfied that all of the following conditions are met:

- the U.S. judgment is final and enforceable (exécutoire) in the U.S.;
- the U.S. court awarding the judgment has jurisdiction to adjudicate the respective matter under applicable U.S. federal or state jurisdictions rules, and the jurisdiction of the U.S. court is recognized by Luxembourg private international law;
- the U.S. court has applied to the dispute the substantive law designated by Luxembourg and U.S. conflict of law rules;
- the U.S. judgment does not contravene international public policy or public order as understood under the laws of Luxembourg;
- the U.S. court has acted in accordance with its own procedural laws;

- the principles of natural justice have been complied with and the judgment was granted following proceedings where the counterparty had the opportunity to appear, was granted the necessary time to prepare its case and if appeared, to present a defense;
- the U.S. judgment was granted following proceedings where the counterparty had the opportunity to appear, and if it appeared, to present a defense; and
- the U.S. judgment was not granted pursuant to an evasion of Luxembourg law (fraude à la loi luxembourgeoise).

Subject to the above conditions, Luxembourg courts tend not to review the merits of a foreign judgment, although there is no statutory prohibition for such review. If an original action is brought in Luxembourg, Luxembourg courts may refuse to enforce any choice of law provisions if the application of such law would contravene, or is manifestly incompatible with, Luxembourg public policy. In a judgment of the Luxembourg District Court, dated January 10, 2008, the District Court differed slightly from the traditional rules for enforcing a judgment described above, and decided that, in order to enforce a foreign judgment in Luxembourg, a Luxembourg judge must make sure that three conditions are fulfilled: (1) the “indirect” competence of the foreign judge based on the connection of the litigation with such judge, (2) the conformity with international public policy requirements, both substantive and procedural, and (3) the absence of fraud to the law. In the judgment, the District Court held that the Luxembourg judge does not need to verify that the (substantive) law applied by the foreign judge is the law which would have been applicable according to Luxembourg conflict of law rules.

Whether the District Court’s opinion described above will develop into the prevailing position of Luxembourg case law cannot be forecast with certainty at this stage, especially considering that in the case at issue the matter was not appealed to the Court of Appeal and because, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case, there has been no further case law on the issue since then. To the extent, however, that the District Court’s decision endorsed the solution prevailing in French case law, its decision might, in the future, be endorsed by the Luxembourg courts in general. Further, in the event of any proceedings being brought in a Luxembourg court in respect of a monetary obligation expressed to be payable in a currency other than euro, a Luxembourg court would have power to give judgment expressed as an order to pay a currency other than euro. However, enforcement of the judgment against any party in Luxembourg would be available only in euro and for such purposes all claims or debts would be converted into euro. Even if a U.S. judgment is recognized in Luxembourg, it does not necessarily mean that it will be enforced in all circumstances. The obligations need to be of a specific kind and type for which an enforcement procedure exists under Luxembourg law. Also, if circumstances have arisen after the date at which such foreign judgment became legally effective and final, a defense against execution may arise. Enforcement is also subject to the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, moratorium as well as other similar laws affecting creditor’s rights generally. Moreover, a Luxembourg court may reduce the amount of damages granted by a U.S. court and recognize damages only to the extent that they are necessary to compensate actual losses or damages. In addition, it is doubtful whether a Luxembourg court would accept jurisdiction and impose civil liability in an original action predicated solely upon U.S. federal securities laws.
