Subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives, the Notes may have no minimum maturity and/or no maximum maturity. In addition, Notes may be issued which have no fixed maturity date (Open-ended Notes). On or after the date of this Base Prospectus, the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding will not at any time exceed Euro 30,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies). The Issuers are entitled to issue further Notes pursuant to Condition 13 (Further Issues) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 12 (Further Issues) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes which will be fungible with existing Notes of the Series, and in the case of a further issue of Secured Notes, such further Secured Notes will be backed by the Collateral Assets subject always to the obligations of the NCIBL to adjust the Collateral Assets as provided in Condition 20 (Secured Notes Provisions) of the Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

Application has been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to trading on the regulated market "Bourse de Luxembourg" (the Luxembourg Regulated Market) (including the professional segment of the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange) or the Euro MTF market and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, during the period of 12 months after the date of publication of this Base Prospectus. References in this document to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (and all related references) shall include the Luxembourg Regulated Market and/or the Euro MTF market, as the case may be (as specified in the applicable Final Terms). In addition, references in this document to Notes being listed (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange or, as the case may be, a Regulated Market (as defined below) or other stock exchange(s) and admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Regulated Market (including the professional segment of the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange) and/or the Euro MTF market, as the case may be. The Programme provides that Notes may be listed on such other or further stock exchanges as may be agreed between the relevant Issuer and the Dealers specified under the "General Description of the Programme" and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a Dealer and together the Dealers), and may also be unlisted. The relevant Final Terms (as defined herein) in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (or any other stock exchange). The CSSF has neither approved nor reviewed information contained in this Base Prospectus in connection with Notes to be admitted to trading on the Euro MTF market and in connection with Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under Prospectus Regulation (Exempt Notes). The Luxembourg Regulated Market is a regulated market for the purposes of the Directive 2014/65/EU on markets in financial instruments, as amended (a Regulated Market).

Application has been made to the Luxembourg Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF) which is the Luxembourg competent authority for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended (the Prospectus Regulation) for the approval of this Base Prospectus as a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Regulation. The CSSF assumes no responsibility for the economic and financial soundness of the transactions contemplated by this Base Prospectus or the quality or solvency of the Issuers in accordance with Article 6(4) of the Luxembourg law on prospectuses for securities of 16 July 2019 (the Prospectus Act 2019). This Base Prospectus has been approved on [19 April 2024] and is valid until [19 April 2025] and must during such period and in accordance with Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation be completed by a supplement to the Base Prospectus in the event of any new significant facts or material errors or inaccuracies. In accordance with Article 25 of the Prospectus Regulation, the Issuers reserve the right to request the CSSF to provide another competent authority with a certificate of approval attesting that the Base Prospectus has been drawn up in accordance with the Prospectus Regulation. The CSSF only approves this Base Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus Regulation. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuers nor as an endorsement of the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Base Prospectus. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes.

In relation to English Law Notes, each Series (as defined herein) of Notes in bearer form (Bearer Notes) will be represented on issue by a temporary global note in bearer form (each a Temporary Global Note) or a permanent global note in bearer form (each a Permanent Global Note) and together with Temporary Global Notes, Bearer Global Notes. Interests in a Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note on or after the date 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the relevant issue date (the Exchange Date), upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Notes in registered form (Registered Notes) will be represented by a registered global note (each a Registered Global Note), one Registered Global Note being issued in respect of each Noteholder's entire holding of Registered Notes of one Series. If the Bearer Global Notes are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in new global note form (New Global Notes or NGNs) the Bearer Global Notes will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the Common Safekeeper) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (Clearstream), or with a sub-custodian for the Central Moneymarkets Unit Service (the CMU) operated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (the HKMA). In certain circumstances, investors may also hold interests in the Notes indirectly through Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited through the issuance of dematerialised depository interests issued, held, settled and transferred through CREST (CDIs) – see "Clearing and Settlement in Relation to English Law Notes". Each Series of Registered Notes will initially be represented by a permanent registered global note (each an Unrestricted Registered Global Note), without interest coupons, which may (or in the case of Notes listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will) be deposited on the issue date with a common depository on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream. An Unrestricted Registered Global Note in respect of a Tranche of Notes that is not to be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange may be cleared through a clearing system other than or in addition to Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or The Depository Trust Company (DTC) or delivered outside a clearing system, as agreed between the relevant Issuer, the Fiscal Agent and the relevant Dealer(s). Beneficial interests in Registered Global Notes held by Euroclear and/or Clearstream will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by Clearstream and/or Euroclear and their participants. See "Clearing and Settlement in Relation to English Law Notes". The provisions governing the exchange of interests in Bearer Global Notes for definitive Notes in bearer form and the exchange of interests in each Registered Global Note for individual definitive Notes in registered form are described in "Provisions Relating to the Notes While in Global Form".

Notes may also be issued in registered, uncertificated and dematerialised book-entry form (Clearing System Dematerialised Notes) in accordance with all applicable laws of the relevant jurisdiction, and the rules, regulations and procedures, of any local clearing system from time to time in which such Notes are deposited and through which they are cleared. All matters relating to title and transfer of such Notes, and the exercise of certain rights under such Notes, will be governed by such applicable laws, rules, regulations and procedures from time to time.

With respect to French Law Notes, the Notes may, at the option of the Issuer, be in bearer dematerialised form (au porteur) inscribed as from the issue date in the books of Euroclear France (Euroclear France) (acting as central depository) which shall credit the accounts of Euroclear France Account Holders (as defined in "Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes – 1. Form, Denomination, Title, Redenomination and Replacement Currency") including Euroclear and Clearstream or in registered dematerialised form (au nominatif) and, in such latter case, at the option of the relevant Noteholder, in either fully registered form (nominatif pur), in which case they will be inscribed either with the Issuer or with the registration agent (designated in the applicable Final Terms) for the Issuer, or in administered registered form (nominatif administré), in which case they will be inscribed in the accounts of the Euroclear France Account Holders designated by the relevant Noteholders.

The Notes, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee and the Secured Notes Guarantee have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) or under the securities law of any State or political sub-division of the United States. No person has registered nor will register as a commodity pool operator of any Issuer under the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended and the rules thereunder of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, and the Issuers have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The Notes, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee and the Secured Notes Guarantee are being offered and sold outside the United States to Permitted Transferees (as defined below) in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act (Regulation S) and the Notes, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee and the Secured Notes Guarantee may not at any time be offered, sold, transferred or, in the case of Bearer Notes, delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of (i) a "U.S. person" as defined in Rule 902(k)(1) of Regulation S or (ii) a person who comes within any definition of U.S. person for the purposes of the Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended, or any rule, guidance or order proposed or issued by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the CFTC) thereunder (including but not limited to any person who is not a "Non-United States person" under CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(1)(iv) (excluding for purposes of CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(1)(iv)(D) the exception for qualified eligible persons who are not "Non-United States persons") (any such person or account, a Non-Permitted Transferee, and any such person or account who is not a Non-Permitted Transferee, a Permitted Transferee). For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and transfers of the Notes and distribution of this Base Prospectus, see "Transfer Restrictions" and "Subscription and Sale".

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the long term senior unsecured debt of NATIXIS is rated A1 (stable) by Moody's France S.A.S. (Moody's)¹, A (stable) by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (S&P)² and A+ (stable) by Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited (Fitch)³. Each of Moody's, S&P and Fitch is established in the European Union and is registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation). The European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) publishes on its website (<https://www.esma.europa.eu/credit-rating-agencies/cra-authorisation>) a list of credit rating agencies registered in accordance with the CRA Regulation. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. The rating of certain Series of Notes to be issued under the Programme may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. Whether or not each credit rating applied for in relation to relevant Series of Notes will be issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under the CRA Regulation, and if so, whether the rating agency is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the ESMA on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation will be disclosed in the applicable Final Terms.

Amounts payable under the Notes may be calculated by reference to one or more "benchmarks" for the purposes of Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016, as amended (the EU Benchmarks Regulation). In this case, a statement will be included in the applicable Final Terms as to whether or not the relevant administrator of the "benchmark" is included in ESMA's register of administrators under Article 36 of the EU Benchmarks Regulation. Certain "benchmarks" may either (i) not fall within the scope of the EU Benchmarks Regulation by virtue of Article 2 of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or (ii) transitional provisions in Article 51 of the EU Benchmarks Regulation may apply to certain other "benchmarks", which would otherwise be in scope, such that at the date of the applicable Final Terms, the administrator of the "benchmark" is not required to be included in the register of administrators.

In relation to investors in the Kingdom of Bahrain, securities issued in connection with this Base Prospectus and related offering documents must be in registered form and must only be marketed to existing account holders and accredited investors as defined by the Central Bank of Bahrain (the CBB) in the Kingdom of Bahrain where such investors make a minimum investment of at least US$100,000, or any equivalent amount in other currency or such other amount as the CBB may determine. Any offer of the securities does not constitute an offer of securities in the Kingdom of Bahrain in terms of Article (81) of the Central Bank and Financial Institutions Law 2006 (decree Law No. 64 of 2006). This Base Prospectus and related offering documents have not been and will not be registered as a prospectus with the CBB. Accordingly, no securities may be offered, sold or made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase nor will this Base Prospectus or any other related document or material be used in connection with any offer, sale or invitation to subscribe or purchase securities, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in the Kingdom of Bahrain, other than as marketing to accredited investors for an offer outside Bahrain. The CBB has not reviewed, approved or registered the Base Prospectus or related offering documents and it has not in any way considered the merits of the securities to be marketed for investment, whether in or outside the Kingdom of Bahrain. Therefore, the CBB assumes no responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the statements and information contained in this document and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from reliance upon the whole or any part of the content of this document. No offer of securities will be made to the public in the Kingdom of Bahrain and this Base Prospectus must be read by the addressee only and must not be issued, passed to, or made available to the public generally.

1 Obligations rated "A" by Moody's are considered upper-medium-grade and are subject to low credit risk.

2 Obligations rated "A" by S&P are more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than obligations in higher-rated categories. However, the obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is still strong.

3 Obligations rated "A" by Fitch denote expectations of low default risk. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered strong. This capacity may, nevertheless, be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic conditions than is the case for higher ratings.

With respect to Chilean law, any private offering of Notes under this Base Prospectus will start on the date specified in the applicable Final Terms and will be made subject to General Rule (Norma de Carácter General) No. 336, dated 27 June 2012, issued by the Chilean Financial Market Commission (Comisión para el Mercado Financiero or CMF), as amended (Rule 336). Any such offer of Notes refers to the marketing of securities to be placed/sold and which have not been registered at the securities registry or at the foreign securities registry of the CMF and therefore such securities are not subject to its oversight. Given that the Notes will not be registered in Chile, there is no obligation from the Issuer to provide public information on them in Chile.

The Notes cannot and will not be publicly offered in Chile unless they are registered in the corresponding securities registry in Chile or if they are offered in reliance on any available exemption from such registration requirement. Pursuant to Section I of CMF General Rule No. 452 dated 22 February 2021 (Rule 452), the Notes may be publicly offered under no registration requirement provided they can only be acquired by “qualified investors” (as defined in CMF General Rule No. 216, dated 12 June 2008) and in compliance with the conditions further described therein. .

NATIXIS, the Permanent Dealer (as defined below) and Arranger, is also an Issuer and Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL, the other Issuers, are wholly-owned subsidiaries of NATIXIS. Consequently, the Issuers are “related issuers” of the Permanent Dealer and Arranger within the meaning of National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts of the Canadian provinces and territories in connection with the distribution of the Notes under this Base Prospectus.

The date of this Base Prospectus is 19 April 2024

Responsibility Statement

The Issuers (whose registered offices appear on the last page of this document), confirm that the information contained in this Base Prospectus reflects, to the best of their knowledge, the facts and makes no omission likely to affect its import. The opinions and intentions expressed in this Base Prospectus with regard to the Issuers are honestly held. The Issuers accept responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and the Final Terms for each issue of Notes under the Programme accordingly.

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with all other documents which are incorporated by reference herein (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference").

This Base Prospectus, together with any supplements to this Base Prospectus published from time to time (each a Supplement and together the Supplements) constitutes a base prospectus (for the purposes of Article 8 of the Prospectus Regulation, with respect to the admission to trading of Notes on the Luxembourg Regulated Market) for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Issuers, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee, the Secured Notes Guarantee and the Notes which, according to the particular nature of the Issuers, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee, the Secured Notes Guarantee and the Notes, is necessary to enable investors to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuers. In relation to each separate issue of Notes, the final offer price and the amount of such Notes will be determined by the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealers in accordance with prevailing market conditions at the time of the issue of the Notes and will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Natixis Structured Issuance is a wholly-owned subsidiary of NATIXIS. Natixis Structured Issuance has the full benefit of the Unsecured Notes Guarantee, which will apply to all Series of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance (see section "Description of the Issuers" – paragraph "2 Description of Natixis Structured Issuance – Unsecured Notes Guarantee").

NCIBL is a wholly-owned subsidiary of NATIXIS. Secured Notes issued by NCIBL that are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms will, if "Secured Notes Guarantee" is also specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, have the benefit of the Secured Notes Guarantee given by Natixis in its capacity as Guarantor (the form of which is included in section "Form of Secured Notes Guarantee" of this Base Prospectus).

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation other than those contained in this Base Prospectus in connection with the issue or sale of the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuers, the Dealers or the Arranger. Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor any sale made in connection herewith shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Issuers since the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently supplemented or that there has been no adverse change in the financial position of the Issuers since the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

The Notes may be redeemed by Physical Delivery or (with respect to Secured Notes in certain cases) by Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets (as further defined in the Terms and Conditions). The shares of underlying entities which may be delivered (as the case may be) are not shares in either the relevant Issuer nor an entity belonging to the Issuers' group.

The Notes shall not be physically delivered in Belgium, except to a clearing system, depository or another institution for the purpose of their immobilisation in accordance with Article 4 of the Belgian Law of 14 December 2005.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Notes to be issued under this Programme will not be settled by delivery of the Issuers' own equity securities or of the equity securities of any entity in the Issuers' group and cannot be converted or exchanged into shares or other equity securities within the meaning of Article 19 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/980.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offering or sale of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus comes are required by the Issuers, the Dealers and the Arranger to inform themselves about and to observe any such restriction. For a description of certain restrictions on offers and sales of Notes and on distribution of this Base Prospectus, see "Subscription and Sale" and "Transfer Restrictions".

This Base Prospectus does not constitute an offer of, or an invitation or solicitation by or on behalf of the Issuers, the Arranger and the Dealers to subscribe for or purchase any of the Notes.

It should be remembered that the price of securities and the income from them (if applicable) can go down as well as up and investors may lose the entire amount of their investment.

If you are in any doubt about the content of this document you should consult your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other financial adviser.

The Notes are complex financial instruments with high risk and are only suitable for financially sophisticated investors who are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of such investment and who have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses which may result from such investment. There are significant risks inherent in the holding of the Notes, including the circumstances in which the Notes may be written down or converted to ordinary shares and the implications on Noteholders (such as substantial loss), the circumstances in which Noteholders may suffer loss as a result of holding the Notes are difficult to predict and the quantum of any loss incurred by investors in the Notes in such circumstances is also highly uncertain.

Noteholders, by acquiring Secured Notes, expressly accept, and shall be deemed to be bound by the Terms for Secured Notes and, in particular, the provisions with respect to the segregation between Collateral Pools, the limited recourse against the Issuer, non-petition and priority of payments thereof. If, in respect of any Secured Notes, the net proceeds of the enforcement or realisation of the relevant Collateral Assets contained in the relevant Collateral Pool are not sufficient to make all payments due in respect of the Secured Notes, no other assets of the Issuer will be available to meet such shortfall, and the claims of the Noteholder of the Secured Notes as against the Issuer in respect of any such shortfall shall be extinguished. In all cases, neither the Noteholder of a Secured Notes nor any person on its behalf shall have the right to petition for the winding-up of the Issuer as a consequence of any shortfall.

The decision by any prospective holder of a relevant Series of Secured Notes to invest in such Secured Notes should be based, among other things, on the Eligibility Criteria which each Collateral Asset is required to satisfy, as disclosed in this Base Prospectus, as completed by the relevant Final Terms relating to the particular Series of Secured Notes. This Base Prospectus contains information regarding the types and classes of individual Collateral Assets in respect of which the Secured Notes will be secured from time to time in the section entitled "Description of the Underlying Structures and Applicable Hedging Arrangements in respect of Secured Notes that can be issued under Condition 20 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes" in this Base Prospectus. Potential investors of any of the Secured Notes will not generally have an opportunity to evaluate for themselves the relevant economic, financial and other information regarding the Collateral Assets and, accordingly, will be dependent upon the criteria in respect of each relevant Series.

Potential purchasers and sellers of the Notes should be aware that they may be required to pay taxes or documentary charges or duties in accordance with the laws and practices of the jurisdiction in which the Notes are transferred or other jurisdictions. In some jurisdictions, no official statements of the tax authorities or court decisions may be available for financial instruments such as the Notes. Potential investors are advised to consult their own tax adviser on the tax impacts of the acquisition, holding, disposal and redemption of the Notes. The requirement to pay such taxes may reduce the effective yield on the Notes and may also have an adverse impact on their value.

Investors should consult NATIXIS should they require a copy of the 1998 FX and Currency Option Definitions, a copy of the 2021 ISDA Definitions or a copy of the June 2013 FBF Master Agreement.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms constitute an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of any of the Issuers, the Dealers or the Arranger to subscribe for, or purchase, any Notes.

IMPORTANT – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and, with effect from such date, should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any Retail Investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a Retail Investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97/EU (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA will be prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and, with effect from such date, should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (UK). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 217/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (EUWA); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended) (FSMA) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97 on insurance distribution, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of the Prospectus Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the UK PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK will be prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MiFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes will include a legend entitled "MiFID II product governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the MiFID Product Governance Rules), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance/ target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes taking into account the five categories referred to in item 18 of the Guidelines published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on 5 February 2018 (in accordance with the FCA's policy statement entitled "Brexit our approach to EU non-legislative materials"), and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

Other than NATIXIS in its capacity as Issuer, the Arranger and the Dealers have not separately verified the information contained in this Base Prospectus. Other than NATIXIS in its capacity as Issuer, none of the Dealers or the Arranger makes any representation, express or implied, or accepts any responsibility, with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any of the information in this Base Prospectus. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other financial statements are intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation and should not be considered as a recommendation by any of the Issuers, the Arranger or the Dealers that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any other financial statements should purchase the Notes. Each potential purchaser of Notes should determine for itself the relevance of the information contained in this Base Prospectus and its purchase of Notes should be based upon such investigation as it deems necessary. None of the Dealers or the Arranger undertakes to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuers during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Base Prospectus nor to advise any investor or potential investor in the Notes of any information coming to the attention of either the Dealers or the Arranger.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the final terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation actions or over-allotment shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the SFC Code — Important Notice to Prospective Investors Prospective investors should be aware that certain intermediaries in the context of certain offerings of Notes pursuant to this Programme, each such offering, a CMI Offering, including certain Dealers, may be “capital market intermediaries” (CMIs) subject to Paragraph 21 of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission (the SFC Code). This notice to prospective investors is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on such CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of prospective investors. Certain CMIs may also be acting as “overall coordinators” (Ocs) for a CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the relevant Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an association (Association) with the relevant Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor, the CMI or the relevant group company. Prospective investors associated with the relevant Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor or any CMI (including its group companies) should specifically disclose this when placing an order for the relevant Notes and should disclose, at the same time, if such orders may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not disclose their Associations are hereby deemed not to be so associated. Where prospective investors disclose their Associations but do not disclose that such order may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such order is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should ensure, and by placing an order prospective investors are deemed to confirm, that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). A rebate may be offered by the relevant Issuer to all private banks for orders they place (other than in relation to Notes subscribed by such private banks as principal whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors), payable upon closing of the relevant CMI Offering based on the principal amount of the Notes distributed by such private banks to investors. Private banks are deemed to be placing an order on a principal basis unless they inform the CMIs otherwise. As a result, private banks placing an order on a principal basis (including those deemed as placing an order as principal) will not be entitled to, and will not be paid, the rebate. Details of any such rebate will be set out in the applicable Final Terms or otherwise notified to prospective investors. If a prospective investor is an asset management arm affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such prospective investor should indicate when placing an order if it is for a fund or portfolio where the relevant Dealer or its group company has more than 50% interest, in which case it will be classified as a “proprietary order” and subject to appropriate handling by CMIs in accordance with the SFC Code and should disclose, at the same time, if such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. If a prospective investor is otherwise affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such that its order may be considered to be a “proprietary order” (pursuant to the SFC Code), such prospective investor should indicate to the relevant Dealer when placing such order. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. Where prospective investors disclose such information but do not disclose that such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such “proprietary order” is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should be aware that certain information may be disclosed by CMIs (including private banks) which is personal and/or confidential in nature to the prospective investor. By placing an order, prospective investors are deemed to have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by the relevant Dealers and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the relevant Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor, any Ocs, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, it being understood and agreed that such information shall only be used for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. Failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected.

Notification under Section 309B(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore, as modified or amended from time to time (the SFA) – Unless otherwise stated in the Final Terms in respect of any Notes, Notes issued or to be issued under the Programme shall be capital markets products other than prescribed capital markets products (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018) and Specified Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

Hong Kong- Investors in Hong Kong should not purchase the Notes in the primary or secondary markets unless they are professional investors (as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571., Laws of Hong Kong) and its subsidiary legislation, “Professional Investors”) only and understand the risks involved. The Notes are generally not suitable for retail investors.

Conflicts of interest – the Issuers and their affiliates

NATIXIS and/or any of its affiliates or NCIBL may, in connection with their respective additional business activities, undertake activities in relation to the Underlyings or possess or acquire material information about the Underlyings. Such activities and information may have consequences which are adverse to Noteholders. Such actions and conflicts may include, without limitation: engaging in transactions relating to the Notes or their Underlyings, which may have a negative effect on the value of the Underlying; on the open market or by non-public transaction purchase or sell Notes without being obliged to inform the Noteholders about any such purchase or sale; exercising certain functions with regard to the Notes, e.g. as calculation agent, paying agent or hedging counterparty; issuing further derivative instruments which may be competing with the Notes; receiving non-public information in relation to an Underlying of the Notes or the issuer of such Underlying where neither NATIXIS, any of its affiliates nor NCIBL is required to inform the Noteholders of such information; and hedging transactions or other transactions in the relevant Underlying of the Notes and/or the issuer of such Underlying by NATIXIS or any of its affiliates. NATIXIS and any of its affiliates or NCIBL and their respective officers and directors may engage in any such activities without regard to the Notes or the effect that such activities may directly or indirectly have on any Note.

In addition, NATIXIS or any of its affiliates may engage in trading or hedging transactions involving the Notes, any Underlying, or other derivative products that may affect the value of the Notes.

The above situations may result in consequences which may be adverse to your investment. Neither the relevant Issuer, nor (if applicable) the Guarantor, nor any of their respective affiliates assumes any responsibility whatsoever for such consequences and their impact on your investment.

Since the Calculation Agent in respect of the Notes may be NATIXIS, or an affiliate of NATIXIS, potential conflicts of interest may exist between NATIXIS as Issuer and/or (if applicable) Guarantor and the Calculation Agent and the Noteholders, including with respect to certain determinations and judgements that the Calculation Agent must make.

In addition to providing calculation agency services to any Issuer, NATIXIS or any of its affiliates may perform further or alternative roles relating to either Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor and any Note including, but not limited to, being involved in arrangements relating to any Underlying (for example as calculation agent). Further, any affiliates of NATIXIS may contract with any Issuer or (if applicable) the Guarantor and/or enter into transactions, including hedging transactions, which relate to such Issuer, the Notes or any Underlying and as a result NATIXIS may face a potential conflict of interest between its obligations as Calculation Agent and its and/or its affiliates' interests in other capacities.

The activities described in this section are subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations (including under Regulation (EU) No. 596/2014 as amended).

Conflicts of interest – Managers

Certain of the Managers and/or their affiliates may have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, the Issuers, the Guarantor and/or their respective affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and/or their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of either Issuer, the Guarantor or their respective affiliates. In addition, certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuers and/or the Guarantor consistent with their customary risk management policies. Any of the above situations may result in consequences which may be adverse to any investment made by any investor in the Notes. Neither the relevant Issuer, (if applicable) the Guarantor nor any of their respective affiliates assumes any responsibility whatsoever for such consequences and their impact on any such investment.

Conflict of interest – Secured Notes

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the business and activities of the Arranger, the Dealer, the Issuer, their respective affiliates and their clients and from the conduct by the Arranger, the Dealer, the Issuer, the Security Trustee, the Security Agent and their respective affiliates of other transactions with the Issuer.

The Issuer or its affiliates may have, respectively, originated the Collateral Assets at original issuance, may own equity or other securities of issuers of Collateral Assets and may have provided investment banking services, advisory, banking and other services to the issuers of Collateral Assets.

The Arranger, the Dealer, the Issuer, the Security Trustee, the Security Agent, the other parties to the Hedging Agreements and any of their respective affiliates may deal in any obligation, including any Collateral Assets, and may accept deposits from, make loans or otherwise extend credit to, and generally engage in any kind of commercial or investment banking or other business with, any issuer of Collateral Assets, its affiliates, any other person or entity having obligations relating to an issuer of Collateral Assets or its affiliates and may act with respect to such business in the same manner as if any Secured Notes did not exist, regardless of whether any such action might have an adverse effect (including, without limitation, any action which might give rise to a default under such Collateral Asset) on an issuer of Collateral Assets and/or its affiliates.

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise between the interests of the Issuer or its affiliates as originator or underwriter of a Collateral Asset, on the one hand, and the holders of Secured Notes, on the other hand. The Issuer and its affiliates are not required to resolve such conflicts of interest in favour of the holders of Secured Notes and may pursue actions and take such steps that it deems necessary or appropriate to protect its interests without regard to the consequences for the holders of Secured Notes.

In addition, NCIBL, (if applicable) the Guarantor or any of the affiliates of the Guarantor may engage in trading or hedging transactions involving the Secured Notes, any Underlying, any of the Collateral Assets or other derivative products that may affect the value of the Secured Notes.

Recognition of English court judgments

As a result of leaving the EU, the UK is no longer bound by the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 (the Brussels Recast), a formal reciprocal regime between EU Member States on the allocation of jurisdiction and the mutual recognition and enforcement of Member State judgments. Nor is it a member of another convention on the allocation of jurisdiction and the mutual enforcement of judgments, the Lugano Convention 2007 (the Lugano Convention). The EU, Switzerland, Iceland and Norway are members of the Lugano Convention. As a result, the Brussels and Lugano regimes are no longer applied by English courts, save in relation to legacy cases. As a further consequence, English judgments are no longer recognised and enforced in the courts of Member States/Norway, Iceland and Switzerland under these regimes, again, save for legacy cases. (Norway has put in place arrangements with the UK for the reciprocal enforcement of judgments).

The UK has applied to re-join the Lugano Convention. As of the date of this Base Prospectus, this application remains pending (although the Commission has indicated that it does not agree with the UK's readmission).

On 1 January 2021 the UK re-joined the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements 2005 (Hague 2005). The UK was previously a party to this convention by virtue of the EU being a contracting state. Hague 2005 is an international convention on the jurisdiction and the reciprocal enforcement of contracting state judgments. Hague 2005 requires contracting states to respect exclusive jurisdiction clauses in favour of other contracting state courts and to enforce resulting judgments. The UK, EU, Denmark, Mexico, Montenegro, Singapore and Ukraine are contracting states. Under Hague 2005, English judgments issued by an English court pursuant to an exclusive jurisdiction clause entered into after 1 January 2021 can be recognised and enforced in EU states (and Mexico, Montenegro, Singapore and Ukraine), subject to standard exceptions. It is generally considered that Hague 2005 only covers exclusive jurisdiction clauses and resulting judgments.

Where English judgments are not within the scope of Hague 2005, it will be necessary to consider the applicable national law rules on jurisdiction and enforcement.

In 2022 the EU ratified another convention dealing with the cross border enforcement of judgments, the 2019 Hague Convention on Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments (Hague 2019). In January 2024 the UK signed Hague 2019, as a precursor to ratification. If the UK does ratify Hague 2019 (and the expectation in the market is that it will), this will provide a mechanism for the enforcement of a wide range of English judgments in the EU (other than Denmark) and in other contracting states. Currently Hague 2019 only applies in the EU (other than Denmark) and Ukraine. Although there are subject matter exclusions, Hague 2019 covers a much wider range of judgments than Hague 2005 and importantly for investors, could cover judgments issued pursuant to asymmetric jurisdiction clauses.

Assuming the UK does accede to Hague 2019, there would be a time lag in its application. Hague 2019 would only apply to judgments where the convention was in force in both the state of origin and the state of enforcement when the proceedings leading to the judgment were initiated. Moreover, under the terms of Hague 2019, once a country ratifies the convention, there is a 12 month period before it is deemed to come into force in relation to that country.

Important notice relating to Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds

Prior to making any investment in Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds (each as defined in the "Use of Proceeds" section), prospective investors should have regard to the information set out in the "Use of Proceeds" section of this Base Prospectus and in the "Reasons for the [issue/offer]" item of the relevant Final Terms and must determine for themselves the relevance of such information together with any other investigation such investor deems necessary. In particular, the use of an amount equal to such proceeds for any Eligible Assets (as defined in the "Use of Proceeds" section) may not satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, any Eligible Assets.

Furthermore, investors are advised that as of the issue date and at any time until the maturity of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds, they may not have a comprehensive knowledge of all the Eligible Assets that have been financed or refinanced by an amount equal to the net proceeds of the issue, despite the relevant annual allocation report published by the BPCE Group (see the section "Use of Proceeds" of this Base Prospectus). Moreover, for practical and/or confidentiality reasons, the relevant annual allocation report of the BPCE Group may not include an exhaustive list of Eligible Assets and the BPCE Group may only provide a summary of the Eligible Assets.

Finally, prior to an investment in Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds, potential investors must (i) read, (ii) form their own opinion on the relevance or reliability, for any purpose whatsoever, and (iii) conduct any other analysis they deem necessary, in relation to the Second Party Opinion on the Green Funding Framework and/or the Social Funding Framework of the Sustainable Development Funding Programme of BPCE Group (as defined in the "Use of Proceeds" section) or any opinion or certification that may be provided in the context of the issue of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds and in particular on the fact that an Eligible Asset meets environmental, social, sustainable development and/or other criteria. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the relevant second party opinion, nor any such other opinion or certification is, or shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus.

Important notice relating to Charity Payment Notes

The deduction of the Shared Amount(s) may have significant tax consequences for prospective investors, depending on their individual circumstances and the applicable tax laws and regulations. Noteholders should note that they are not entitled to receive any Shared Amount, except in the limited circumstances where a NPO Termination Event or Early Redemption Termination Event occurs. Prospective investors should consult their own legal, tax or accounting advisers before deciding to invest in Charity Payment Notes.

Furthermore, the Shared Amount feature does not mean that Charity Payment Notes are "green bond" or any other type of "sustainable finance" securities where proceeds are invested in sustainable finance projects designed to have a positive impact for the environment or other ethical causes. None of the Issuer makes any representation or commitment regarding the alignment of the Charity Payment Notes with any sustainability standards or principles.

Under the Prospectus Regulation, prospectuses relating to money market instruments having a maturity at issue of less than 12 months and complying also with the definition of securities are not subject to the approval provisions of the Prospectus Regulation.

Open-ended Notes

With respect to English Law Notes: Open-ended Notes, being Notes with no fixed maturity date, may be issued and may, if issued by NATIXIS, include an Issuer's and/or a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early. Open-ended Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL will have an Issuer's option and a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early.

With respect to French Law Notes: Open-ended Notes, being Notes with no fixed maturity date, may be issued and will include an Issuer's and a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early.

Denomination

Notes will be in such denominations as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Specified Denomination), save that (i) the minimum denomination of each Note issued by NATIXIS and admitted to trading on a Regulated Market within the EEA or offered to the public in a Member State of the EEA in circumstances which require publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation will be €1,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies) and (ii) unless otherwise permitted by then current laws and regulations, Notes (including Notes denominated in Sterling) which have a maturity of less than one year and in respect of which the issue proceeds are to be accepted by the relevant Issuer in the United Kingdom or whose issue otherwise constitutes a contravention of section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 will have a minimum denomination of £100,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies).

Fixed Interest Rate Notes

Fixed interest will be payable in arrear on the date or dates in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Floating Rate Notes

Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a rate set separately for each Series as follows:

- (i) on the same basis as the floating rate under a notional interest rate swap transaction in the relevant Specified Currency governed by an agreement incorporating the 2021 ISDA Definitions, as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. as may be supplemented or amended or superseded as at the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes of the relevant Series, or

- (ii) on the same basis as the floating rate under a notional interest rate swap transaction in the relevant Specified Currency governed by an agreement incorporating the June 2013 FBF Master Agreement, as published by the Fédération Bancaire Française, and as amended and/or updated as at the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes of the relevant Series, or
- (iii) by reference to the Reference Rate specified in the applicable Final Terms in each case, as adjusted for any applicable margin.

Interest periods will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Benchmark Trigger Event and Administrator/Benchmark Event

In respect of Floating Rate Notes or Rate Linked Notes, if a Benchmark Trigger Event has occurred in respect of a Relevant Rate Benchmark, the Calculation Agent will attempt to (A) identify a replacement index by using either (i) an Alternative Post-nominated Index, (ii) a Calculation Agent Nominated Replacement Index or (iii) in the case of where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, an Interpolated Benchmark Rate (each, a Replacement Index), (B) calculate an adjustment spread that will be applied to the Replacement Index, as the case may be (an Adjustment Spread) and (C) determine such other amendments that it considers are necessary or appropriate in order to account for the effect of the replacement of the Relevant Rate Benchmark with the Replacement Index (as adjusted by the Adjustment Spread). If the Calculation Agent does not consider it commercially reasonable or possible to apply any one of the options described in (A) above or any outcomes produced by applying any of those options, the Issuer may redeem all but not some only of the Notes, each Note being redeemed by payment of an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount.

If the Calculation Agent has not elected to take one of the above described options and the Relevant Rate Benchmark is no longer available or the Administrator/Benchmark Event Date has occurred, then the level of the Relevant Rate Benchmark shall be determined pursuant to the fallback(s), if any, provided in the Conditions of the Notes to determine a level for the Relevant Rate Benchmark in circumstances in which the Relevant Rate Benchmark is not available and no Benchmark Trigger Event has occurred. If a level for the Relevant Rate Benchmark cannot be determined, the level of the Relevant Rate Benchmark may be determined by reference to the rate published at that time on the last day on which the rate was published or can be used in accordance with applicable laws or regulations, as applicable.

In respect of Index Linked Notes or Commodity Linked Notes, If the Calculation Agent determines that an Administrator/Benchmark Event has occurred in respect of a Relevant Index Benchmark or a Relevant Commodity Benchmark, it will be entitled to (A) calculate the level of such Relevant Benchmark in accordance with the formula for, and method last in effect prior to the Administrator/Benchmark Event or (B) replace the Relevant Benchmark, as so modified or by the new index or by the new commodity, as the case maybe, in order to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligation of the Issuer to make payment of any amount due and payable under the Notes linked to the Relevant Benchmark as if such new or modified index or commodity had not replaced the Relevant Benchmark and, if need be, multiply the modified or new index or commodity by a linking coefficient to preserve such economic equivalent or (C) require the Issuer to redeem each Note at an amount per Note equal to the Early Redemption Amount.

In respect of Currency Linked Notes, If the Calculation Agent determines that an Administrator/Benchmark Event has occurred in respect of a Relevant Currency Benchmark, the Disruption Fallback Rules shall apply. Disruption Fallback Rules shall include (A) FX Determination Date Delay, (B) Application of the Fallback Rate and (C) Determination by the Calculation Agent.

Structured Notes

The Notes may be Structured Notes (which include in respect of each issue of Commodity Linked Notes, Fund Linked Notes, Index Linked Notes, Warrant Linked Notes, Preference Share Linked Notes, Dividend Linked Notes, Inflation Linked Notes, Equity Linked Notes, Credit Linked Notes, Futures Linked Notes, Currency Linked Notes, Rate Linked Notes, Bond Linked Notes, Hybrid Structured Notes and Secured Notes) in which case the Final Terms will specify the basis for calculating interest amounts and/or redemption amounts payable, which may be by reference to shares, commodities, funds, warrants, preference shares, dividends, inflation indices, debt instruments, futures contracts, currencies, interest rates, indices relating to any of the foregoing, a formula or trading strategy involving any of the foregoing types of assets, or as otherwise provided in the applicable Final Terms.

In respect of each issue of Credit Linked Notes, the basis for calculating the redemption amounts payable is by reference to the occurrence (or lack of) of certain events in respect of the relevant Reference Entity(ies).

In respect of each issue of Bond Linked Notes the basis for calculating the redemption amounts payable, is by reference to the occurrence (or lack of) of certain events in respect of the relevant Reference Bond(s).

Secured Notes will be collateralised by various collateral assets (including, without limitation, equity securities, debt securities and/or derivatives) and will be issued only by NCIBL. Secured Notes that are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms will, if "Secured Notes Guarantee" is also specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, benefit from the Secured Notes Guarantee.

Zero Coupon Notes

Zero Coupon Notes may be issued at their principal amount or at a discount to it and will not bear interest.

Partitioned Interest Notes

Partitioned Interest Notes will bear interest simultaneously at several distinct Interest Basis whereby relevant portions of the Calculation Amount will each bear interest at a relevant Interest Basis for the purpose of determining relevant Interest Amounts.

Charity Payment Notes

The Issuer may issue Notes pursuant to which the Issuer shall deduct the relevant Shared Amount(s) from the amounts due to the Noteholder under the Notes. Such Shared Amount(s) will then be paid on the Shared Amount Payment Date(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation(s) on behalf of the Noteholders to fund the Project(s).

Interest Periods and Interest Rates

The length of the interest periods for the Notes and the applicable interest rate or its method of calculation may differ from time to time or be constant for any Series. Notes may have a maximum interest rate, a minimum interest rate, or both. The use of interest accrual periods permits the Notes to bear interest at different rates in the same interest period. All such information will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Variable Issue Amount Registered Notes

NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance may from time to time issue Variable Issue Amount Registered Notes (which will be represented by Registered Global Notes) (which may also constitute Structured Notes), which will be issued either in full on the Issue Date or over time "up to" a specified maximum Aggregate Nominal Amount as provided in the applicable Final Terms.

Italian Notes/Italian Certificates

The Italian Notes are Notes distributed/offered in Italy cleared through Euronext Securities Milan.

Where "Certificates" is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the Type of Securities, Italian Notes will be issued as Italian Listed Certificates. The Italian Listed Certificates are issued in the form of certificates and intended to be admitted to trading on the "Securities Derivative Exchange" (SeDeX), a multilateral trading facility organised and managed by Borsa Italiana.

SeDeX does not constitute a Regulated Market for purposes of MiFID II.

Redemption by Instalments

The Final Terms issued in respect of each issue of Instalment Notes (being Notes that are redeemable in two or more instalments) will set out the dates on which, and the amounts in which, such Notes may be redeemed.

Optional Redemption

The Final Terms issued in respect of each issue of Notes will state whether such Notes may be redeemed prior to their stated maturity (or at any time during the life of the Notes, in the case of Open-ended Notes) at the option of the relevant Issuer (either in whole or in part) and/or the holders, and if so the terms applicable to such redemption.

Status of Notes

Unsecured Notes

The Notes (and the Receipts and the Coupons relating to them) issued by NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance will constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated or, with respect to Notes issued by NATIXIS, senior preferred (within the meaning of Article L.613-30-3-I 3° of the French Code monétaire et financier) and (subject to the provisions of Condition 4 (Negative Pledge (Unsecured Notes only))) unsecured obligations of the relevant Issuer and shall at all times rank pari passu without any preference among themselves, all as described in Condition 3 (Status).

Pursuant to the exercise of the bail-in power by the relevant resolution authority of the Issuer, the outstanding amounts of the Unsecured Notes may be reduced (in whole or in part), converted into equity (in whole or in part) or cancelled and/or the maturity of the Unsecured Notes or the amount of interest or the date on which interest becomes payable may be amended.

Secured Notes

The obligations of NCIBL under the Secured Notes will constitute direct, unconditional, secured, limited recourse and unsubordinated obligations of NCIBL ranking pari passu among themselves and (subject to certain exceptions) pari passu with other outstanding unconditional, secured, limited recourse and unsubordinated obligations of NCIBL, all as described in Condition 3 (Status).

To the extent that secured liabilities are excluded from the scope of the bail-in power by applicable law, the bail-in power may not be exercised in respect of Secured Notes.

For the avoidance of doubt, the bail-in power shall apply to the Secured Notes Guarantee.

Negative Pledge

Unsecured Notes

Where the Issuer in respect of any Notes (and the Receipts and Coupons relating to them) is NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance, as the case may be, the relevant Issuer undertakes that, so long as any of the Unsecured Notes, and (with respect to English Law Notes in bearer form) Receipts or Coupons relating to them, remain outstanding, it will not create or permit to subsist any mortgage, pledge, lien or other form of encumbrance or security interest upon the whole or any part of its undertaking, assets or revenues, present or future, to secure any Relevant Debt or any guarantee of or indemnity by the Issuer in respect of any Relevant Debt, unless at the same time or prior thereto the relevant Issuer's obligations under the Unsecured Notes and (with respect to English Law Notes) Receipts or Coupons relating to them (A) are secured equally and rateably therewith, or (B) have the benefit of such other security, guarantee, indemnity or other arrangement as shall be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (with respect to English Law Notes) or by a Collective Decision (with respect to French Law Notes) of the Noteholders. See Condition 4 (Negative Pledge (Unsecured Notes only)).

Secured Notes

There is no Negative Pledge with respect to the Secured Notes.

Events of Default (including cross default)

Any Note may become immediately redeemable by notice by a holder upon the occurrence of certain Events of Default (including cross default) as described in Condition 10 (Events of Default).

Automatic Early Redemption

In certain circumstances, the Notes may be redeemed automatically prior to maturity following the occurrence of certain events specified in the applicable Conditions.

Early Redemption

Except as provided in "Optional Redemption" above, Notes, other than Warrant Linked Notes, Preference Share Linked Notes and the Italian Listed Certificates, will be redeemable at the option of the relevant Issuer prior to maturity for tax reasons (unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms) and illegality. See Condition 6 (Redemption, Purchase and Options).

Warrant Linked Notes and Preference Share Linked Notes will be redeemable at the option of the relevant Issuer prior to maturity for tax reasons (unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms), illegality or following the occurrence of a Warrant Early Termination Event or a Preference Share Early Termination Event. See "Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes – Condition 9 (Terms for Warrant Linked Notes)" and "Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes Condition 19 (Terms for Preference Share Linked Notes)".

In the case of English Law Notes, Preference Share Linked Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance will be redeemable at the option of the relevant Issuer prior to maturity if Natixis Structured Issuance (or a substitute for Natixis Structured Issuance) decides to substitute for itself as principal debtor for the Preference Share Linked Notes another company and the Issuer or the Calculation Agent determines that any tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge may be imposed on any Noteholder by (or by any authority in or of) the United Kingdom that would not be so imposed if the substitution is not made. See "Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes".

Italian Listed Certificates will be automatically exercised on the Maturity Date.

The Notes may also be redeemed early following the occurrence of certain disruption, adjustment, extraordinary or other events.

Description of the Warrant Issuer and the Warrants

The following is a summary description of the Warrant Issuer and the Warrants in the case of Warrant Linked Notes.

The Warrant Issuer

The Warrants

Each series of Warrant Linked Notes will give exposure to changes in the market value of Warrants that in turn give exposure to a Warrant Underlying.

The Warrant Issuer may issue Warrants of any kind, including but not limited to Warrants linked to the performance of one or more reference item(s) which may include, but will not be limited to, securities, indices and baskets of the foregoing and which may change over time as a result of performance, the exercise of investment management discretion or other factors (each a Warrant Underlying) and will be issued on such terms as may be determined by the Warrant Issuer and specified in the applicable terms and conditions of the relevant Warrants (the Warrant Terms and Conditions).

The Warrant Terms and Conditions provide that the applicable Warrants will be exercisable on their exercise date at a defined amount as determined in accordance with the Warrant Terms and Conditions. The Warrant Terms and Conditions may also provide that the Warrant Issuer may terminate the Warrants early if:

- (i) the Warrant Issuer and/or the Warrant Calculation Agent (as applicable) determines that the performance of its obligations or any arrangements made to hedge its obligations, or the obligations of any of its Affiliates, under the Warrants has become illegal in whole or in part for any reason; or
- (ii) certain tax events occur, which affect the Warrant Issuer.

If the relevant Issuer receives a notice from the Warrant Issuer of the early termination of the Warrants, the relevant Issuer will notify holders of the Warrant Linked Notes in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes and each Warrant Linked Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 9(a)).

The value of the Warrant Linked Notes is scheduled to be published on each Business Day on the Bloomberg service or at such other interval and on such other widely available Information Source if and as may be specified in the Final Terms, or, in each case, such widely available replacement price source as is specified by notice to the holders of the Warrant Linked Notes in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes.

The Warrant Underlying

The performance of the Warrants depends on the performance of the Warrant Underlying to which the relevant Warrants give investment exposure.

Investors in the Warrant Linked Notes should carefully review and ensure they understand the Warrant Terms and Conditions and the investment exposure the Warrants give to the Warrant Underlying and consult with their own professional advisers if they consider it necessary.

Description of the Preference Share Issuer and the Preference Shares

The following is a summary description of the Preference Share Issuer and the Preference Shares in the case of Preference Share Linked Notes.

The Preference Share Issuer

The Preference Share Issuer is Cannon Bridge Capital Ltd, a private company limited by shares established under the laws of England and Wales with registered number 9610759.

The Preference Shares

Each series of Preference Share Linked Notes will give exposure to changes in the market value of Preference Shares that in turn gives exposure to Preference Share Underlying(s).

The Preference Share Issuer may issue Preference Shares of any kind, including but not limited to Preference Shares linked to the performance of one or more reference item(s) which may include, but will not be limited to, equity, debt or derivative securities, indices, investments, funds, exchange traded funds, commodities, baskets of securities or indices, currencies, portfolios and trading strategies and which may change over time as a result of performance or other factors (each a Preference Share Underlying) and will be issued on such terms as may be determined by the Preference Share Issuer and specified in the applicable terms and conditions of the relevant Preference Shares (the Preference Share Terms and Conditions).

The Preference Share Terms and Conditions provide that the applicable Preference Shares will be redeemed on their redemption date at a defined amount as determined in accordance with the Preference Share Terms and Conditions. The Preference Share Terms and Conditions may also provide that the Preference Share Issuer may redeem the Preference Shares early if:

- (i) the Preference Share Issuer and/or the Preference Share Determination Agent (as applicable) determines that the performance of its obligations under the Preference Shares has become illegal in whole or in part for any reason; or

- (ii) the Preference Share Determination Agent determines that certain events which affect the Preference Share Issuer's hedging arrangements or the Preference Share Underlying(s) have occurred, and no adjustment to the terms and conditions of the Preference Shares will achieve a commercially reasonable result; or
- (iii) the Preference Share Determination Agent determines that there is a change in applicable law or regulation that in the determination of the Preference Share Determination Agent results, or will result, by reason of the Preference Shares being outstanding, in the Preference Share Issuer being required to be regulated by any additional regulatory authority or being subject to any additional legal requirement or regulation or tax considered by the Preference Share Determination Agent or the Preference Share Issuer to be materially onerous to the Preference Share Issuer.

If the relevant Issuer receives a notice from the Preference Share Issuer or the Preference Share Determination Agent of the early redemption of the Preference Shares, the relevant Issuer or the Calculation Agent will notify holders of the Preference Share Linked Notes in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes and each Preference Share Linked Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 19(a)).

The value of the Preference Share Linked Notes is scheduled to be published on each Business Day on the Bloomberg service as specified in the Final Terms or on such other widely available Information Source if and as may be specified in the Final Terms, or, in each case, such widely available replacement price source as is determined by the Calculation Agent and specified by notice to the holders of the Preference Share Linked Notes in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes.

The Preference Share Underlying

The performance of the Preference Shares depends on the performance of the Preference Share Underlying(s) to which the relevant Preference Shares give investment exposure.

Investors in the Preference Share Linked Notes should carefully review and ensure they understand the Preference Share Terms and Conditions and the investment exposure the Preference Shares give to the Preference Share Underlying(s) and consult with their own professional advisers if they consider it necessary.

Withholding Tax

Unsecured Notes

All payments of principal and interest by, or on behalf of, the relevant Issuer in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Luxembourg or France, as applicable, or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law (whether directly by operation of law or through an agreement of the relevant Issuer or its Agents).

In that event, unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Issuer shall, save in certain limited circumstances, pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the holders of Notes, Receipts or Coupons, after such withholding or deduction, receive the full amount then due and payable thereon in the absence of such withholding or deduction. If it is specified in the applicable Final Terms that the Notes issued by the relevant Issuer will not have the benefit of a tax gross-up, Noteholders will receive payments of principal and interest only after imposition of any applicable withholding tax.

All payments by NATIXIS in respect of the Unsecured Notes Guarantee of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance, where applicable, will be made free and clear of deduction of French withholding taxes or deduction, unless required by law. If NATIXIS (in its capacity as Guarantor) is compelled by law to make a deduction for or on account of French taxes, it shall pay, to the extent not prohibited by French law, such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the relevant recipients receive(s), after such deduction, the full amount which would have been due and payable in the absence of such deduction, all as described in the Unsecured Notes Guarantee.

Secured Notes

Tax Gross-up does not apply to Secured Notes nor to the Secured Notes Guarantee.

All payments of principal and interest by, or on behalf of, NCIBL in respect of the Secured Notes, Receipts or Coupons shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Luxembourg, or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law (whether directly by operation of law or through an agreement of the relevant Issuer or its Agents).

If any payment to be made under the Secured Notes or the Secured Notes Guarantee would be subject to any withholding on account of taxation required by any applicable law (or in the application or official interpretation of any law), then the Issuer or Guarantor, as applicable, shall withhold the required amount and account for such amount to the relevant tax authorities and shall pay to the holder of the Notes the net sum remaining after making such withholding. In such a case, the Issuer shall determine whether this event will constitute a Collateral-Linked Note Taxation Event or a Collateral Arrangement Tax Event, both as defined in Condition 20 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes.

Governing Law

English law or French law.

Listing and Admission to Trading

Notes of a particular Series may be listed on the official list of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (including the professional segment of the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange) or the Euro MTF Market, or on such other or additional Regulated Market or other stock exchange(s) as agreed between the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer in relation to such Series. Notes which are neither listed nor admitted to trading on any market may also be issued.

The applicable Final Terms for each issue will state whether or not the relevant Notes are to be listed and/or admitted to trading and, if so, on which stock exchange(s) and/or market(s).

Italian Listed Certificates are intended to be admitted to trading on SeDeX, a multilateral trading facility organised and managed by Borsa Italiana.

Selling Restrictions

There are restrictions on the sale of the Notes and the distribution of offering materials in various jurisdictions, including France, the United States, the EEA, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Switzerland, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Hong Kong, Singapore, Japan, Taiwan, the Russian Federation, the Cayman Islands, Guernsey, Jersey, Mauritius, Mexico, Brazil, Chile, Panama, Bahrain, Canada, the People's Republic of China, Korea, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar (including the Qatar Financial Centre), Peru, the United Arab Emirates (excluding the Dubai International Financial Centre), the Dubai International Financial Centre, Uruguay, Australia, South Africa and such other restrictions as may be required in connection with a particular issue. See "Subscription and Sale".

The Notes, the Unsecured Notes Guarantee and the Secured Notes Guarantee may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred except in an "offshore transaction" (as such term is defined in Regulation S) to or for the account or benefit of a Permitted Transferee.

Permitted Transferee means any person who is not:

- (a) a U.S. person as defined in Rule 902(k)(1) of Regulation S; or
- (b) a person who comes within any definition of U.S. person for the purposes of the United States Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended (the CEA) or any rule thereunder (a CFTC Rule), guidance or order proposed or issued under the CEA (for the avoidance of doubt, any person who is not a

"Non-United States person" as such term is defined under CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(1)(iv), but excluding, for purposes of subsection (D) thereof, the exception for qualified eligible persons who are not "Non-United States persons", shall be considered a U.S. person).

See "Transfer Restrictions".

Bearer and Exchangeable Bearer Notes will be issued in compliance with U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor U.S. Treasury regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with United States Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the United States Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the D Rules) unless (i) the relevant Final Terms state that Notes are issued in compliance with U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor U.S. Treasury regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with United States Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the United States Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the C Rules) or (ii) the Notes are issued other than in compliance with the D Rules or the C Rules but in circumstances in which the Notes will not constitute "registration required obligations" under the U.S. Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 (TEFRA).

RISK FACTORS

Each Issuer, in its reasonable opinion, believes that the risk factors described below represent or may represent the risks known to it which may affect such Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

Prospective purchasers of the Notes offered hereby should consider carefully, among other things and in light of their financial circumstances and investment objectives, all of the information in this Base Prospectus (including that incorporated by reference) and, in particular, the risk factors set forth below in making an investment decision. Investors may lose the value of their entire investment in certain circumstances.

Each Issuer operates in an environment that presents inherent risks, some of which it cannot control or moderate. Material risks to which the relevant Issuer is exposed are identified below, it being emphasised that it is not an exhaustive list of all risks relating to the relevant Issuer or its business or in consideration of its environment. The risks set out below, as well as other currently unidentified risks or risks which are currently considered immaterial by the relevant Issuer, may have a material adverse impact on its operations, financial position and/or results.

In each category below, the Issuer shall first identify the most material risk based on its assessment, taking into account its negative impact and the likelihood of its occurrence.

Terms used but not defined in this section shall have the meanings given to them in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

1. RISKS RELATING TO THE ISSUERS AND THE GUARANTOR

1.1 Risks relating to NATIXIS as Issuer or Guarantor

The risk factors related to NATIXIS that may affect NATIXIS' ability to perform its obligations either as Issuer or as Guarantor under the Notes issued pursuant to the Programme are described in section 3.1 "Risk Factors" which appears on pages 81 to 89 of the NATIXIS 2023 Universal Registration Document incorporated by reference herein.

The following subsections of the above-mentioned section are incorporated by reference in this category of risk factors:

- Credit and counterparty risks;
- Financial risks;
- Non-financial risks; and
- Strategic and business risks.

1.2 Risks relating to Natixis Structured Issuance as Issuer

Risks related to Natixis Structured Issuance's exposure to counterparty credit risk and in particular NATIXIS' credit risk

Natixis Structured Issuance is exposed to counterparty credit risk in the course of its business. If one or more of its counterparties is unable to perform its contractual obligations and against a background of increasing default by its counterparties, Natixis Structured Issuance may suffer losses of a greater or lesser magnitude depending on how concentrated its exposure is to those defaulting counterparties.

Natixis Structured Issuance is a wholly-owned subsidiary of NATIXIS whose main activity is raising finance to be on-lent to NATIXIS under the NSI Loan Agreement to finance NATIXIS' business activities. As a result, and in addition to the credit risk on other counterparties, Natixis Structured Issuance is primarily exposed to credit risk on NATIXIS and the NATIXIS group entities, a default by any of which could cause significant financial loss given the links maintained between Natixis Structured Issuance and NATIXIS in the course of their day-to-day activities.

For a better assessment of risks related to NATIXIS risk factors, please see paragraph “Risks relating to NATIXIS as Issuer or Guarantor” above.

Risks related to an interruption or malfunction of Natixis Structured Issuance’s information and communication systems could result in lost business and other losses

Natixis Structured Issuance relies on communications and information systems to conduct its business. Any failure or interruption or breach in security of these systems could result in failures or interruptions in Natixis Structured Issuance’s organisation systems. Natixis Structured Issuance cannot provide assurances that such failures or interruptions will not occur or, if they do occur, that they will be adequately addressed. The occurrence of any failures or interruptions could have a material adverse effect on Natixis Structured Issuance’s financial condition and results of operations.

1.3 Risks relating to NCIBL as Issuer

The intrinsic risks of NCIBL’s business are presented in four main categories:

- Credit and counterparty risks;
- Financial risks;
- Non-financial risks; and
- Strategic and business risks.

1.3.1 Credit and counterparty risks

(a) NCIBL is exposed to credit and counterparty risk which may compound in case of concentration

NCIBL is exposed to credit and counterparty risk through its financing, loans and deposits activities that were performed in large part in 2023 by its run-off Wealth Management portfolio.

Credit and counterparty risk is one of the major risks identified by NCIBL and represented 94.86% of total risk-weighted assets (RWA) as at December 31, 2023. Credit and counterparty risk captures the risk that NCIBL’s borrowers may not honor their financial contractual commitments, including the risk that they may not repay their loans on time or at all.

As at December 31, 2023, NCIBL’s exposure to credit and counterparty risk (Exposure at Default excl. credit valuation adjustment (CVA)) totalled €3,244.8m, split primarily between intragroup exposures (92.3%) central bank exposures (4.0%), retail and corporates (2.4%) and other exposures representing 1.3% of the overall exposures.

Exposure to credit and counterparty risk is concentrated primarily in France, followed by Luxembourg, the United States of America and the European Union.

Should one or more of NCIBL’s counterparties fail to honor their contractual obligations, NCIBL could suffer varying degrees of financial loss depending on the concentration of its exposure to its counterparties. Moreover, if the ratings or events of default of counterparties belonging to a single group sector were to deteriorate significantly, or if a country’s economic situation were to weaken, NCIBL’s credit risk exposure could increase. NCIBL’s credit risk is also increased in the context of financing with leverage.

NCIBL’s ability to carry out its financing transactions also depends, among other factors, on the stability and financial soundness of mainly BPCE and NATIXIS group members. This is because most of NCIBL funding and exposures comes from NATIXIS and BPCE group members.

A default, or the anticipated potential default of one or several counterparties, whether or not it is justified or by any counterparties or BPCE and NATIXIS group members could thus have repercussions on other financial institutions, causing a chain of defaults by other counterparties or market participants and negatively impacting the market's liquidity and could have a significant adverse effect on the cost of risk, the results and the financial situation of NCIBL.

For a better assessment of risk factors related to NATIXIS, please see paragraph "Risks relating to NATIXIS as Issuer or Guarantor" above. If the Secured Notes Guarantee is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms for a certain Series of Secured Notes that are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, then NATIXIS will act as Guarantor with respect to such Series of Secured Notes.

(b) A material increase in NCIBL's impairments or provisions for expected credit losses could adversely affect its net income and financial position

As part of its activities, and wherever necessary, NCIBL recognizes provisions for non-performing loans, reflecting actual or potential losses in respect of its credit portfolio, under "Cost of risk" on its income statement. As at December 31, 2023, NCIBL's IFRS-9 expected credit loss stood at €2.32million (it was €6.17 million as at December 31, 2022). Despite the geopolitical context and European inflation, NCIBL believes that the portfolio of its wealth management division, which is fully secured, should not be affected.

NCIBL applies IFRS 9 "Financial Instruments", which requires provisions to be booked from the initial recognition of a financial instrument. This provisioning model applies to outstanding recognized at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income recyclable to income and to loan and guarantee commitments given (excluding those recognized at fair value through profit or loss), as well as to lease receivables. Probabilities of default (PD) are adjusted by sectors based on an assessment of each sector's rating over a 6-to 12-month period. The sector's forward looking weighted average PD, determined by the transition matrix, is compared and adjusted to align with the PD equivalent to the sector's expected rating.

Under this framework, performing loans (Stage 1), for which there has been no material increase in credit risk since initial recognition, are provisioned for 12 months of expected losses.

Underperforming loans (Stage 2), for which there has been a material increase in credit risk since initial recognition, without this being sufficient for them to be classified as non-performing loans, are provisioned based on lifetime expected losses.

Non-performing loans (Stage 3) are loans for which there is objective evidence of impairment loss. NCIBL determines the provisions for non-performing loans based on an individual expected cash flow recovery analysis, whether these cash flows come from the counterparty's activity or from the potential execution of guarantees.

Non-performing loans that are not impaired following the individual analysis are provisioned at a standard rate based on historical unexpected losses on unprovisioned outstanding loans. As at December 31, 2023, non-performing loans to clients amounted to €706,556.13. The ratio of NCIBL's non-performing loans to loans outstanding was 0.085% and the overall coverage rate of these non-performing loans was 666.49%.

NCIBL could experience materially higher credit impairments in the future. Market volatility and uncertainties related to the geopolitical context make it difficult to forecast the impact of these factors on the economy as well as on the sectors of activity of NCIBL's counterparties. This could result in a substantial increase in losses and provisions, adversely affecting NCIBL's cost of risk, its results and financial position.

(c) Country and geographical risk

NCIBL is exposed to country and geographical risk depending on its counterparties location. As of December 31, 2023, the geographical distribution of the assets of NCIBL is as follows: 70.88% in France, 22.41% in the United States of America, 6.32% in Luxembourg and the remaining 0.39% of assets are in other countries. In term of liabilities 71.72% are coming from France, 25.76% are coming from Luxembourg, 2.16% are coming from the United States of America and the remaining 0.36% are coming from other countries.

The country risk is therefore limited as most of the assets/liabilities of NCIBL are located/coming from low risk country. With the launch of collateralized notes issuance, there will be no impact on NCIBL balance sheet. The launch of Corporate loans/deposits activity will focus on family office in Luxembourg and in France at first glance, meaning that it is not expected to change significantly the location of funding/assets which should largely remain between Luxembourg, France and United States of America during the coming years.

1.3.2 Financial risks

(a) Fluctuations in the fair value of securities held by NCIBL, due to changes in securities credit quality may adversely affect NCIBL

This risk deals with securities held by NCIBL in the trading book category that are designated at fair value. In the event of market fluctuations and volatility, the fair value of certain of NCIBL's assets may fluctuate or decline. As at December 31, 2023, NCIBL did not hold a trading portfolio, but following its reorganisation NCIBL may be exposed to this risk in particular through the debt instruments it will hold on its new collateralized notes activity. This risk manifests itself as a decrease in the value of financial assets resulting both from market volatility and from changes to credit issuer quality for debt securities credit spread risk in the trading book.

The emergence or resurgence of crises could lead to a further deterioration in credit spreads and consequently, have a negative impact on the value of NCIBL's assets and, in turn, NCIBL's asset management, its equity and its solvency.

(b) Liquidity risks may adversely affect NCIBL's ability to fulfil its contractual obligations

Liquidity risk measures NCIBL's ability to meet its current and future liquidity requirements, both expected and unexpected, whether or not the situation deteriorates. NCIBL addresses its structural liquidity risk through governance and controls put in place (realised through the three lines of defence model (Three Lines of Defence), namely through: (i) business units that take or acquire risks and carry out controls; (ii) support functions such as the financial and accounting functions, compliance and risk control; and (iii) the internal audit function, before a matter is dealt with by its authorised management committee and then its board of directors).

The liquidity management process is based upon covering funding requirements with available liquidity reserves. Funding requirements are assessed carefully, dynamically and comprehensively by taking the existing and planned on and off-balance sheet asset and liability transactions into consideration.

NCIBL notably manages its liquidity needs through the regulatory liquidity ratios with a short-term view, (the Liquidity Coverage Ratio (LCR)) and with a long-term view (the Net Stable Funding Ratio (NSFR)). As at September 30, 2023, NCIBL's LCR was 149.97% and its NSFR was 105.26%. As at December 31, 2023, NCIBL's LCR was 174.53% and its NSFR was 104.75%. If NCIBL's liquidity position strongly deteriorates or liquidity disappears entirely, it could make it more difficult for NCIBL to run its operations and meet applicable regulatory requirements in terms of liquidity ratios referred to above, which may adversely affect its ability to fulfil its contractual obligations.

For example, during 2023 and due to the reorganization of NCIBL, NCIBL reported a daily NSFR breach during several days during February 2023. The main reason of the NSFR breach was the transfer of wealth management activity to other BPCE group entities resulting to a significant reduction of assets and liabilities of NCIBL banking book. The incident has been reported to CSSF and to ECB with the remediation actions defined in order to avoid reoccurrence of such incidents. Such incident did not occur during the transfer of wealth management activity in May 2023.

1.3.3 Non-financial risks

(a) Should NCIBL fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations, it could be exposed to heavy fines and other administrative, tax or criminal sanctions

NCIBL's business activities are subject to substantial regulation and regulatory oversight in the jurisdictions in which it operates. Failure to comply with these applicable laws and regulations would be likely to have a material adverse effect on its financial position, business and reputation. Non-compliance risk is defined as the risk of legal, administrative or disciplinary sanctions, but also of financial loss or reputational damage, resulting from a failure to comply with the legislative and regulatory provisions, codes of conduct and standards of good practice specific to banking and insurance activities, whether national or international. Any past and/or current non-compliance with regulatory requirements may result in supervisory bodies taking actions against NCIBL such as licenses revocation, causing its inability to service certain jurisdictions or markets and levy of fines on NCIBL or NCIBL's employees. NCIBL may also incur significant costs in defending itself against such claims and suffer reputational risk related to such events. The cost of remediation of such non-compliance events, combined with the possible increased cost of ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations in the future, could negatively affect the NCIBL's assets under management, revenue and profitability. For example, in December 2019, the European Central Bank (ECB) imposed an administrative sanction of €1,850,000 on Natixis Wealth Management Luxembourg, now NCIBL, for non-compliance with the limits applicable to large risks and reporting obligations for major risks during three consecutive quarterly reporting periods in 2016 and 2017. This non-compliance was due to an error by Natixis Wealth Management Luxembourg, which had wrongly considered that certain intra-group commitments benefited from an exemption under "Large Exposures". The situation identified and corrected by Natixis Wealth Management Luxembourg was reported to the ECB, which noted the breach and used its power of sanction. For the 2022 financial year, NCIBL suffered a loss of €2.3 million due to an error during the borrowing of Irish securities, following the undue payment of stamp duty to the Irish Customs and Tax Administration. Recovery of this undue payment is still on-going as at December 31, 2023. In addition, within the framework of its custodian bank activity, NCIBL suffered an administrative sanction in the amount of €108,900 from the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF).

NCIBL reported to CSSF in November 2023 an operational incident regarding some temporary deficiency on AML/KYC duties. Remediation actions have been shared with CSSF and are on-going to avoid such reoccurrence in the future.

(b) NCIBL is subject to stringent prudential capital requirements which may have an impact on its business decisions

NCIBL calculates its capital requirements and publishes its solvency ratios in accordance with the Basel III framework drawn by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (the Basel Committee). One of the components of the solvency ratio are the RWA that are used to determine the minimum amount of capital that must be held by credit institutions and other institutions to reduce the risk of insolvency. Such capital requirement is based on a risk assessment for each type of bank asset. Leverage ratio is monitored for a regulatory purpose on a quarterly basis, and the management of NCIBL takes relevant actions for this ratio to stay above the 3% minimum leverage ratio recommendation of the Basel Committee.

Pursuant to Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on access to the activity of credit institutions and the prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms (CRD IV), as amended by Directive (EU) 2019/878 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2019 amending CRD IV as regards exempted entities, financial holding companies, mixed financial holding companies, remuneration, supervisory measures and powers and capital conservation measures (CRD V), institutions are required to hold a minimum amount of regulatory capital expressed in percentage of RWA. In addition to these so-called "own funds" requirements under CRD V, supervisors may add extra capital to cover other risks (thereby increasing the regulatory minimum required under CRD V) and NCIBL may also decide to hold an additional amount of capital. CRD V also provides a number of capital buffers for additional risks that financial institutions may be subject to. These buffers comprise: (i) the capital conservation buffer; (ii) the institution-specific countercyclical buffer, (iii) the global systemically important institutions buffer; (iv) the other systemically important institutions buffer; and (v) the systemic risk buffer.

NCIBL's capital ratio as at December 31, 2023 was 48.64% compared to a regulatory ratio of 10.71% (minimum of 8% combined with a capital conservation buffer of 2.5% applicable in Luxembourg since 2014 and a countercyclical capital buffer specific to NCIBL of 0.21%). NCIBL's leverage ratio as at December 31, 2023 largely meets the minimum requirements, standing at 21.75%.

NCIBL's capital position may be impacted by NCIBL's business decisions which may not be fully aligned with the interests of the holders of Secured Notes.

(c) In the course of its activities, NCIBL is exposed to unethical acts or behaviours contrary to ethics and to laws and regulations by its employees, service provider and suppliers

NCIBL is exposed to unethical acts or behaviours contrary to ethics and to laws and regulations by its employees and third parties. Such events could damage NCIBL's reputation, expose it to sanctions and may negatively impact its financial position. The use of inappropriate means to promote and market its products and services, inadequate management of potential conflicts of interest, legal and regulatory requirements, rules of ethics, laws on money laundering, the requirements of economic sanctions, information security policies and sales and transaction practices could damage the reputation of NCIBL.

Any inappropriate behaviour by a NCIBL employee, a supplier or service provider, any cybercrime or cyberterrorism to which NCIBL's communication and information systems could be subject, or any fraud, embezzlement or other wrongdoing to which NCIBL could be exposed or any court decision or regulatory action with a potentially unfavourable outcome could also damage NCIBL's reputation.

Applicable to all NCIBL employees, NCIBL's code of conduct formalizes the general principles of conduct in force at NCIBL and establishes guidelines for all employees regarding expected behaviour when carrying out their duties and responsibilities. A code of conduct is also applicable to NCIBL suppliers and service providers.

However, even with the adoption of a code of conduct, NCIBL is exposed to potential actions or behaviours by employees, suppliers and contractors that are unethical or not in the client's interests, that do not comply with the laws and regulations on corruption or fraud, or that do not meet financial security or market integrity requirements.

Such actions or behaviour could have negative consequences for NCIBL, damage its reputation and expose NCIBL, its employees or its stakeholders to criminal, administrative or civil sanctions that could adversely affect its financial position and business outlook.

(d) An operational failure, or an interruption of NCIBL's information systems, or a breach of NCIBL's information systems could result in losses or reputational damage

NCIBL is exposed to several types of operational risks, including process and procedural weaknesses, acts of fraud (both internal and external), system failures or unavailability, as well as cybercrime, and operational failures related to health risks.

Due to the nature of its activities, NCIBL is highly dependent on its communication and information systems, as its activities require it to process a large number of increasingly complex transactions. Although NCIBL has made data transmission quality a priority, any breakdown, interruption or failure of these communication and information systems could result in errors or interruptions to the systems it uses for customer relationship management, the general ledger, deposit and loan processing transactions, and/or risk management. To the extent that interconnectivity increases, NCIBL is exposed to the risk of a breakdown or operational failure of its clearing agents, foreign exchange markets, clearing houses, custodians or other financial intermediaries or external service providers. Like the other control functions, the operational risk function contributes to the assessment of risks borne by suppliers as part of the Group's compliance program with European Banking Authority regulations on outsourcing.

NCIBL is also exposed to the risk of cybercrime. Cybercrime covers a range of malicious and/or fraudulent acts, perpetrated digitally in an effort to manipulate data (personal, banking, insurance, technical or strategic data), processes and users, with the aim of causing material losses to companies, their employees, partners, clients and counterparties. A company's data assets are exposed to complex and evolving threats likely to have material financial and reputational impacts on all companies, and in particular those in the banking sector. Given the increasing sophistication of the criminal enterprises behind cyberattacks, regulatory and supervisory authorities have begun to highlight the importance of information and communication technology (ICT) risk management.

During 2023, no incident related to cybercrime had a material adverse impact on NCIBL's financial position or reputation. However, as cyberattacks are constantly evolving to become increasingly advanced and taking into account the evolution of the geopolitical context and the rapid emergent of artificial intelligence which enhances the capacity of threat actors to launch sophisticated attacks, the measures described above may not be sufficient in the future to fully protect NCIBL, its employees, partners and clients. The occurrence of such attacks could potentially disrupt NCIBL's client services, result in the alteration or disclosure of confidential data or lead to business interruptions and, more broadly, have a material adverse effect on its business, financial position and reputation.

Operational difficulties could also arise as a result of unforeseen or catastrophic events, such as terrorist attacks, natural disasters or a major health crisis. NCIBL demonstrated its resilience in the face of the crises as the current conflict in the middle east between Israel and Hamas, Ukrainian crisis and previously the COVID-19 pandemic.

NCIBL strives to prevent the occurrence of interruptions, failures in communication and information systems, or breaches of its information systems, and implements a control framework, particularly for third-party systems. The exceptional occurrence of the events described above could, however, result in lost business, other losses and additional costs, or even damage NCIBL's reputation.

(e) Any damage to the reputation of NCIBL, NATIXIS and more broadly the BPCE Group could affect its competitive position and have a negative impact on its financial position

The reputation of NCIBL, NATIXIS and/or more broadly the BPCE Group is pivotal to allow NCIBL to conduct its business. Thanks to the current reputation of NCIBL, NATIXIS and the BPCE Group, NCIBL is able to maintain relationships with its clients, employees, suppliers, partners and investors that are built on trust.

The occurrence, whether once or repeatedly, of one or more of the risks identified in this section, a lack of transparency or communication errors could impact the reputation of NCIBL, NATIXIS and/or more broadly the BPCE Group. There is greater reputational risk today due to the growing use of social media. In addition to its own negative impact, any damage to the reputation of NCIBL, NATIXIS and/or more broadly the BPCE Group could be accompanied by a loss of business or affect to its competitive position. Such confidence shock could manifest itself by (i) with regard to its banking activity business a reduction in deposits from external clients, or (ii) with regard to its secured notes activities, a lower volume of issues, or even an absence of issues, which would ultimately lead to a drop in revenues generated by its activities and therefore a negative impact on the financial position of NCIBL.

1.3.4 Strategic and business risks

(a) Market volatility may generate significant losses in NCIBL's trading and secured notes activities

Market risks are spread within three categories: liquidity risk, interest rate risk and currency risk. Market activity is governed by several risk mandates ruled by NATIXIS' market risk department. These mandates determine authorisations and limits and are renewed annually by NATIXIS' market risk department. Monitoring of the risk mandates limits is carried out locally and jointly with NATIXIS' market risk department. Market risk is also monitored through the quarterly Assets and Liabilities Management (ALM) committee, of which NATIXIS Paris Risk Department (as well as NCIBL Risk department and Treasury), NCIBL's Authorised Management and top management of NATIXIS Paris in charge of CIB form part. Periodic second level risk controls are also handled such as interest rate limit check, interest rate risk in the banking book (IRRBB) stress tests, LCR and NSFR ratio levels compliance by risk department. Where significant market risks materialise, escalation to Bank Executive Committee (Comex) and NATIXIS Risk Department would be mandatory and, when necessary, the Bank Board is to be informed following NCIBL risk management framework.

As part of its capital markets activities and to meet the needs of its clients, NCIBL operates in financial markets – mainly fixed income, forex, and equity markets. In recent years, the financial markets have fluctuated significantly in an exceptionally volatile environment, which remains and which could recur, and which could potentially result in significant losses for market activities. 2022 was marked by the conflict in Ukraine and the increase in the cost of commodities and energy, which caused a major inflationary shock, leading central banks to implement a policy of rapidly raising key interest rates. The economic activity has abruptly slowed down, creating a risk of recession at regional and global levels. 2023 was mainly marked by the increase of interest rate by all the main central banks in the world in order to contain and mitigate the inflation.

Risk mitigation for market volatility on products in which NCIBL operates, is generally done through hedging activities. If the global economic situation were to deteriorate again following, for example, a resumption of the health crisis or for any other reason related to the geopolitical context in Europe or rising inflation, it may be difficult to manage the portfolios of NCIBL activities, particularly those exposed to strong fluctuations in the collateralized notes markets.

Therefore, an unfavourable development in the markets, leading in particular to the inadequacy of its hedges given market conditions, could generate significant losses on NCIBL's market activities. In addition, a further deterioration in the equity and debt financial markets, such as that observed in 2022, could adversely impact the collateralised notes activities, in particular because: (i) in the case of Collateral-Backed Notes, if a decrease in the valuation of the Collateral Assets results in non-satisfaction of the Collateral Test, NCIBL will be obliged to increase the quantity of Collateral Assets to be deposited in the relevant Collateral Account; or (ii) a decrease in the valuations of secured notes could make this type of financial product less attractive for investors, which could lead to a lower volume of issues, or even a lack of issues. These events could ultimately lead to a drop in revenues generated by NCIBL's activities and could therefore negatively impact NCIBL's financial situation.

(b) NCIBL may be unable to reach its 2024-2026 strategic plan goals

In 2024, NCIBL plans to focus on new corporate and investment banking activities, namely corporate finance activities and collateralized note issuances. As part of this shifting business strategy, that will become effective during Q2 2024, most of the wealth management activities (private banking and discretionary portfolio management) of NCIBL have been transferred to Massena Partners, a subsidiary of Natixis Wealth Management, and to some local banking partners. The custody activity has also been transferred to banking partners. Remaining wealth management and custody portfolios will be operated in a run-off mode (it is expected to be a small portfolio around €48.7 million (as of February 2024) mainly composed of mortgages loans issued to customers with attractive interest rates for the clients compared to the current market interest rates, further these loans are fully collateralized). The achievement of the various goals set by this strategic shift from wealth management to corporate and investment banking is based on the implementation by NCIBL of a certain number of initiatives and investments. The new activities related to corporate and investment banking will be launched progressively in order to reduce the operational risks. Some unexpected events and/or delays on the launch/setup of the different activities could potentially significantly affect the business, financial position and results of NCIBL for 2024 and therefore the overall business and strategy defined for 2024-2026. An assessment of the business plan will be done at the end of each year and potential adaptation might be done.

In addition, the costs associated with this reorganisation amounted to €1,090,000 in 2023 (€3,125,000 in 2022). This amount includes social expenses (redundancy plan) for an amount of €990,000 (€1,725,000 in 2022) and expenses mainly associated with external consultant services for an amount of €100,000 (€1,400,000 in 2022). Costs associated with this reorganisation will continue into NCIBL's 2024 fiscal year.

As the delay of some activities could harm the dynamic effect, NATIXIS supports NCIBL in the deployment of these new activities in order to mitigate the potential operational risk during the development phase and to reduce regulatory and/or compliance risks.

The risk related to the transfer of activity is also mitigated. Indeed, a significant part of the wealth management activities has already been transferred to a sister company of the BPCE Group that is located in the same building as NCIBL, and the remaining part will be transferred in a case by case basis to some local banking partners that were already used as correspondent of NCIBL (they will remain correspondent bank of NCIBL).

(c) This Base Prospectus includes limited information with respect to NCIBL's business excluding wealth management operations

Following the strategic reorganisation with the disposal of a significant part of the previous wealth management activities of NCIBL only a less significant part of the wealth management activity will remain as part of NCIBL's business. As a result, certain of the descriptions of NCIBL's operations and historical financial statements included in this Base Prospectus involve the past wealth operations of NCIBL. The descriptions of NCIBL's operations or the historical financial statements provided in this Base Prospectus will not be consistent with the information NCIBL will provide in the future with respect to its business after the strategic reorganisation becomes effective.

(d) Preventing risks linked to climate change could have a negative impact on the performance of NCIBL's activities

Among the risks related to climate change are what is considered the transition risk, which results from the process of transition to a low-carbon economy, for example, regulatory changes, technological breakthroughs, changes in consumer preferences, and the physical risk, which reflects the risks related to the direct impact of climate change and the increase in extreme weather events. In general, climate change risks are factors that aggravate traditional categories of risk (credit and counterparty risk, market and structural risk, operational risks, reputation risk, compliance risks, liquidity and financing risks) and are likely to impact NCIBL's activities, results and financial position in the short, medium and long term. NCIBL monitors these risks in the course of conducting its business, that of its counterparties and in its investments on its own behalf.

Real estate companies represented 1.00% of NCIBL's client assets as at December 31, 2023 (it was 0.97% as at December 31, 2022), a percentage which could increase in the future with the development of NCIBL's corporate and investment banking activities. The global warming and the environmental changes might significantly affect real-estate corporates by affecting the valuation of their assets or by causing additional work and operating costs in response to changes in applicable regulations following climate change (in particular due to the impact on the way they are designing new buildings), as a consequence, this could have significant impact on the costs and on the revenues of NCIBL.

With the development of its corporate loans/deposits activity, NCIBL will be increasingly exposed to counterparties that would be directly impacted with the climate change (such as floods that could partially and/or significantly reduce the activity of some corporates). Indeed climate change will impact directly or indirectly almost all activities due to heatwaves, landslides, floods, late frosts, fire and storms that will become more frequent. These phenomenon could impact the macro-economy and lead to inflation pressure or degradation of economical attractiveness of areas subject to these phenomenon. This climate risk could spread along the value chain of NCIBL's counterparties, potentially leading to their failure and thus generating financial losses for NCIBL.

(e) Legislative and regulatory measures taken in response to changes in the economic world (technological change, sustainable development, financial crisis, etc.) could have a significant impact on NCIBL and the environment in which it operates

Legislative and regulatory texts are constantly evolving to address recent crises and adapt to the transformation of the economic and financial environment. The financial crises, technological innovations and the challenges posed by sustainable development are examples and are at the origin of many changes. These rapid developments have significantly changed, and are likely to continue to change, the environment in which NCIBL and other financial institutions operate. Among the measures that have been or may be adopted, without being exhaustive, are:

- strengthening of internal control requirements, which would require investing heavily in human resources and materials for risk monitoring and compliance purposes;
- introduction of new prescriptive provisions to identify, measure and manage environmental, societal and governance risks, particularly in relation to sustainable development and the transition to a low-carbon economy (e.g. amendments to the regulations on financial products, enhanced information disclosure requirements);
- strengthening of requirements in terms of personal data protection and cybercrime, in connection with Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 of 14 December 2022 on digital operational resilience for the financial sector, which could, among other things, lead to additional costs related to additional investments in the bank's information system;
- imposition of new obligations following the proposals for measures published by the European Commission in July 2021 aimed at strengthening the European framework for the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism as well as the establishment of a new European agency dedicated to the fight against money laundering;
- fostering training related to regulatory change, climate change and technological change as artificial intelligence, in order to keep employees aware and ready to remediate and mitigate those risk; and
- Prepare NCIBL to the regulatory changes that will occur in 2024-2025 with the adoption of the CRD V package regarding the calculation of the risk weighted assets.

In this changing legislative and regulatory environment, these new measures could have an adverse impact on NCIBL. NCIBL is incurring, and could incur in the future, significant costs to update or develop programs to comply with these new legislative and regulatory measures, and to update or enhance its information systems in response to or in preparation for these measures. Despite its efforts, NCIBL may also be unable to fully comply with all applicable legislation and regulations and could therefore be subject to financial or administrative penalties. In addition, new legislative and regulatory measures could force NCIBL to adapt its activities, which could affect its results and financial position. Lastly, under new regulations, NCIBL may be obligated to increase its capital requirements or its overall funding costs.

(f) NCIBL's ability to attract and retain qualified employees is critical to the success of its business and failure to do so may significantly affect its performance

As at December 31, 2023, NCIBL has 49 employees (it was 91 as at December 31, 2022). NCIBL's performance relies in part on its ability to retain key employees and to continue to attract highly qualified professionals and talents especially in the competitive Luxembourg market. A high turnover or the departure of talent could affect NCIBL's skills and know-how in key areas, which could reduce its business outlook and consequently affect its financial results. NCIBL may also be unable to offer attractive compensation models and thus attract and retain employees, particularly in the face of competitors, which could, in turn, affect its competitiveness and financial performance.

In addition, strong aspirations of some employees to access new work organization methods exist. If NCIBL were unable to adapt its organization to employee expectations, this could affect its ability to attract and retain its employees, or attract new ones, particularly those with high qualifications, and thus reduce their satisfaction and, consequently, affect the quality of its services and its performance.

2. RISKS SPECIFIC TO THE NOTES

2.1 Risks relating to the holding of Notes

2.1.1 Risks that may affect the holders of Notes issued by NATIXIS

Risks relating to the holding of Notes issued by NATIXIS – Holders of Notes issued by NATIXIS and certain other NATIXIS creditors may suffer losses should NATIXIS or an entity of the BPCE Group undergo resolution proceedings

Directive (EU) 2014/59 establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (BRRD 1), transposed into French law by order No. 2015-1024 of August 20, 2015 which also adapted French law to the provisions of European Regulation 806/2014 of July 15, 2014 which established the rules and a uniform procedure for the resolution of credit institutions under a single resolution mechanism and a single Bank Resolution Fund, aim in particular to set up a single resolution mechanism giving resolution authorities a “bail-in” power aimed at combating systemic risks attached to the financial system and in particular at avoiding financial intervention by governments in the event of a crisis. Directive (EU) 2019/879 of May 20, 2019 (BRRD 2, and together with BRRD 1, the BRRD) amended BRRD 1 and was transposed into French law by order No. 2020-1636 of December 21, 2020. In particular, the powers provided for by the BRRD regulation allow the resolution authorities to write down, cancel or convert into shares, the securities and eligible liabilities of this financial institution, in the event that a financial institution or the group to which it belongs subject to BRRD becomes or is close to defaulting. In addition to the possibility of using this “bail-in” mechanism, the BRRD grants the resolution authorities more extensive powers, allowing them in particular to: (1) force the entity to recapitalize itself in order to comply with the conditions of its authorization and continue the activities for which it is approved with a sufficient level of confidence on the part of the markets; if necessary, by modifying the legal structure of the entity; and (2) reduce the value of the receivables or debt instruments, or convert them into equity securities for transfer to a bridging institution for capitalization, or as part of the sale of a business, or recourse to an asset management vehicle.

As an institution affiliated to BPCE, a central body of the BPCE Group within the meaning of Article L.511-31 of the French Monetary and Financial Code and by virtue of the full and entire legal solidarity that binds all the affiliates of the BPCE Group and the central body, NATIXIS may only be subject to resolution proceedings in the event of default by BPCE and of all the affiliates of the BPCE Group, including NATIXIS. Such resolution proceedings would be initiated against the whole BPCE Group and all affiliated entities. If the financial position of the whole BPCE Group, including NATIXIS, were to deteriorate, or be perceived as deteriorating, the implementation of the resolution measures provided for by the BRRD could cause the market value of NATIXIS financial securities, including the Notes, to decline more rapidly.

If BPCE and all its affiliates, including NATIXIS, were subject to resolution measures, the holders of Notes issued by NATIXIS could suffer losses due to the exercise of the powers conferred by the BRRD to the resolution authorities, which can then lead to:

- the full or partial write-down of NATIXIS equity instruments and eligible financial instruments including the Notes, leading to the full or partial loss of the value of these instruments;

- the full or partial conversion of eligible financial instruments, including the Notes, into NATIXIS shares, resulting in the unwanted holding of NATIXIS shares and a possible financial loss when reselling these shares; and
- a change to the contractual conditions of the financial instruments, including the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, that could alter the instruments' financial and maturity terms; such a change could result in lower coupons or longer maturities and have a negative impact on the value of said financial instruments.

Additionally, the implementation of resolution measures at the BPCE Group level would also significantly affect NATIXIS' ability to make the payments required by such instruments, including the Notes, or, more generally, to honor its payment obligations to third parties, including the Noteholders. Indeed, the debt securities issued by NATIXIS under its issuance programs, including the Programme, constitute general and unsecured and senior contractual commitments within the meaning of Article L.613-30-3-I 3° of the French Monetary and Financial Code (see Condition 3 (Status)). These securities could be impacted as a last resort once the subordinated receivables and debt instruments (Common Equity Tier 1 instruments, Additional Tier 1 capital instruments and Tier 2 capital) have been affected by "bail-in" measures. In any event, holders of equity securities would have been the first to be affected by the impairment of NATIXIS.

The legislative provisions establishing a legal principle of solidarity oblige BPCE, in its capacity as central body, to do everything necessary to restore the liquidity or solvency of affiliates in difficulty and/or of all affiliates of the BPCE Group, including NATIXIS. BPCE may in particular implement the internal solidarity mechanism that it has put in place (as described in the section entitled "Financial solidarity mechanism with BPCE" of the most recent universal registration document of Natixis which is incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus). Furthermore, by virtue of the unlimited nature of the principle of solidarity, BPCE is entitled at any time to request any one, several or all of the affiliates, including NATIXIS, to participate in the financial efforts that would be necessary to restore liquidity or solvency and will thus be able, if necessary, to mobilise up to all the availability and own funds of the affiliates, including those of NATIXIS, in the event of difficulty of one or more of them. Thus: (i) in the event of financial difficulties for NATIXIS, BPCE may resort to the resources of any one, several, or all of the affiliates; and (ii) in the event of financial difficulties of one of BPCE's affiliates other than NATIXIS, the implementation of solidarity through recourse to the resources of any one of several or all of the affiliates, including NATIXIS, may lead to the emergence of financial difficulties at the level of NATIXIS and, consequently, to the Noteholders losing all or part of their initial investment and/or not receiving the return initially planned.

If resolution proceedings were to be brought at the BPCE group level, the Noteholders may, following the exercise of powers of write-down, conversion or amendment of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes by the competent authority, lose all or part of their initial investment and/or not receive the originally anticipated remuneration.

Finally, the BRRD and the legal and regulatory texts relating to resolution procedures are evolving continuously and may be amended in the future, including in a way that could result in a less favourable treatment of the Noteholders in the context of a resolution procedure. For example, on 18 April 2023, the European Commission presented a package of legislative measures aimed at adapting and further strengthening the existing European Union framework for bank crisis management and deposit guarantees by amending the BRRD, Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014 establishing uniform rules and a uniform procedure for the resolution of credit institutions and certain investment firms in the framework of a Single Resolution Mechanism and a Single Resolution Fund (as amended) and Directive 2014/49/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on deposit guarantee schemes (recast) (the European Commission's Proposal). The legislative package is subject to further legislative procedures, but if implemented in its current form, senior preferred obligations (such as the Notes) will then have a lower rank in right of payment than all deposits of NATIXIS, including deposits of large corporations and other deposits that are currently excluded from privileged deposits. As a result, there could be an increased risk that an investor in senior preferred obligations (such as the Notes) loses all or part of its investment. The European Commission's Proposal, if implemented, may also lead to a downgrade of the rating of the Notes. In this respect, please also refer to the risk factor entitled "Risks relating to a downgrade in the rating or rating outlook of NATIXIS or the Notes".

Risk of total or partial loss of investment should insolvency proceedings be brought against NATIXIS

In accordance with Condition 3(a) (Unsecured Notes issued by NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance), the Notes issued by NATIXIS constitute NATIXIS' general, unsecured and senior preferred contractual obligations within the meaning of article L. 613-30-3-I 3° of the Code monétaire et financier, and therefore, were insolvency proceedings to be brought against NATIXIS, the rights of claim against NATIXIS represented by the Notes will rank equally with claims in respect of all other unsubordinated, unsecured and senior preferred contractual obligations and junior to present and future claims benefiting from preferred exceptions, including those preferred by operation of law.

If its financial position deteriorates resulting in the commencement of insolvency proceedings against NATIXIS, NATIXIS may be unable to perform some or all of its payment obligations under the Notes and accordingly the Noteholders could lose some or all of their initial investment and/or not receive the originally anticipated remuneration.

Risks of deferred payment and of reduction or conversion of the Noteholders' right to claim in the event of the commencement of insolvency proceedings against NATIXIS

NATIXIS is a société anonyme with its corporate seat in France. In the event that NATIXIS becomes insolvent, insolvency proceedings will be generally governed by the insolvency laws of France to the extent that, where applicable, the "centre of main interests" (as construed under Regulation (EU) 2015/848, as amended) of NATIXIS is located in France.

The Directive (EU) 2019/1023 on preventive restructuring frameworks, on discharge of debt and disqualifications, and on measures to increase the efficiency of procedures concerning restructuring, insolvency and discharge of debt, and amending Directive (EU) 2017/1132 has been transposed into French law by the Ordonnance 2021-1193 dated 15 September 2021. Such ordonnance, applicable as from 1st October 2021, amends French insolvency laws notably with regard to the process of adoption of restructuring plans under insolvency proceedings. According to this ordonnance, "affected parties" (including notably creditors, and therefore the Noteholders) shall be treated in separate classes which reflect certain class formation criteria for the purpose of adopting a restructuring plan. Classes shall be formed in such a way that each class comprises claims or interests with rights that reflect a sufficient commonality of interest based on verifiable criteria. Noteholders will no longer deliberate on the proposed restructuring plan in a separate assembly, meaning that they will no longer benefit from a specific veto power on this plan. Instead, as any other affected parties, the Noteholders will be grouped into one or several classes (with potentially other types of creditors) and their dissenting vote may possibly be overridden by a cross-class cram down.

Both the scopes of the Directive (EU) 2019/1023 and the ordonnance do not cover financial institutions, unless the competent authority chooses to make them applicable. In such a case, the application of French insolvency law to a credit institution such as NATIXIS is also subject to the prior permission of the Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution before the opening of any safeguard, judicial reorganisation or liquidation procedures. This limitation will affect the ability of the Noteholders to recover their investments in the Notes.

Should such proceedings be opened, the commencement of insolvency proceedings against NATIXIS would have a material adverse effect on the market value of Notes issued by NATIXIS. As a consequence, any decisions taken by a class of affected parties could negatively and significantly impact the Noteholders and cause them to lose all or part of their investment, should they not be able to recover all or part of the amounts due to them from NATIXIS.

2.1.2 Risks that may affect the holders of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance/Natixis Corporate and Investment Banking Luxembourg and guaranteed by NATIXIS

Risks relating to Notes guaranteed by NATIXIS

The Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance under the Programme are guaranteed by NATIXIS pursuant to the Unsecured Notes Guarantee (as described in the paragraph "(2) Description of Natixis Structured Issuance SA – (h) Unsecured Notes Guarantee" of the section "Description of the Issuers" of this Base Prospectus) and, with respect to any Series of Secured Notes that are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if indicated as "Applicable" in the relevant Final Terms, the Secured Notes Guarantee (as described in the section "Form of Secured Notes Guarantee" of this Base Prospectus) is granted by NATIXIS with respect to the such Series of Secured Notes. Therefore, when NATIXIS is the Guarantor of the Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL, the Holder of such a Note is exposed, in addition to the risk factors specific to the Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL, to the risk factors of the Notes issued by NATIXIS described in paragraph 2.1.1 "Risks that may affect the Holders of the Notes issued by NATIXIS" above.

Thus, if the financial situation of the Guarantor deteriorates leading to the opening of a resolution or bankruptcy proceeding against the Guarantor, the Guarantor may not be able to fulfil all or part of its payment obligations under the Guarantee, if it was triggered, and the Holders of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or the Holders of Secured Notes issued by NCIBL could thus lose all or part of their initial investment.

Risks relating to the holding of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL, should Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL undergo resolution proceedings in Luxembourg

Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, as amended (the BRRD), was transposed into Luxembourg law by the law dated 18 December 2015 on the failure of credit institutions and certain investment firms, as amended (the BRR Law). According to the BRR Law, the resolution authority is the Luxembourg financial sector supervisory authority (Commission de surveillance du secteur financier, the CSSF) acting as resolution board (conseil de résolution).

The BRR Law is applicable to, among others, financial institutions (within the meaning of the BRR Law) incorporated under Luxembourg law that are: (i) subsidiaries of credit institutions or certain investment firms (both within the meaning of the BRR Law); and (ii) covered by the supervision on a consolidated basis of their parent company (in accordance with Articles 6 to 17 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, as amended (the CRR)).

Each of (a) Natixis Structured Issuance, a financial institution established under Luxembourg law and a wholly-owned subsidiary of NATIXIS covered by the supervision of the latter on a consolidated basis in accordance with CRR and (b) NCIBL, as a Luxembourg credit institution, fall within the scope of the BRR Law.

Moreover, Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014 establishing uniform rules and a uniform procedure for the resolution of credit institutions and certain investment firms in the framework of a Single Resolution Mechanism (SRM) and a Single Resolution Fund and amending Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010, as amended (the SRM Regulation) has established a centralised power of resolution entrusted to a Single Resolution Board (the SRB) in cooperation with the national resolution authorities, such as the CSSF. Under Article 5(1) of the SRM Regulation, the SRB has been granted the responsibilities and powers granted to the national resolution authorities under the BRRD in relation to, among others, groups which are considered to be significant and which are subject to direct supervision by the European Central Bank (the ECB).

BPCE group has been designated as significant for the purposes of Article 49(1) of Regulation (EU) No 468/2014 of the ECB of 16 April 2014 establishing the framework for cooperation within the Single Supervisory Mechanism between the ECB and national competent authorities and with national designated authorities (the SSM Regulation) and its entities are consequently subject to the direct supervision of the ECB. This means that BPCE, NATIXIS as well as Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL are subject to the SRM Regulation and the SRB is, at a European level (and alongside the national resolution authority of Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL, the CSSF), their resolution authority.

The BRR Law and the SRM Regulation implement the resolution measures specified in the BRRD, including the power to require the suspension of the activities of the entity under resolution under certain circumstances. Any suspension of activity may, to the extent determined by the SRB, in cooperation with the CSSF (in the case of Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL), result in a total or partial suspension of the performance of the agreements entered into or obligations (including payment and/or delivery obligations) undertaken by any entity of the BPCE group, including Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL (including under the relevant Notes). The BRR Law and the SRM Regulation also give the SRB the power, in cooperation with the CSSF (in the case of Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL), to take various resolution measures which could also apply to Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL, including: (i) the forced sale of some or all of their activities; (ii) the establishment of a bridge institution to transfer their activities; (iii) disposal of the assets, rights and obligations of Natixis Structured Issuance to a special purpose vehicle (a measure that is required to be taken in combination with another resolution measure); and (iv) in respect of Natixis Structured Issuance only, a use of the bail-in tool.

However, the BRR Law and the SRM Regulation state that, under exceptional circumstances, if the bail-in instrument is applied, the SRB, in cooperation with the CSSF, may totally or partially exclude certain liabilities from the application of the impairment or conversion powers under certain conditions. In particular, the Secured Notes constitute secured liabilities which are excluded from the scope of the bail-in tool pursuant to Article 44(2) of Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms as transposed into Luxembourg law, without prejudice to the resolution authorities' power to exercise this tool in respect of any part of a secured liability that exceeds the value of the assets given as collateral.

If the bail-in tool and the write-down and conversion powers were to be applied to Natixis Structured Issuance, the Notes issued by it could be subject to write-down or conversion into equity (meaning ordinary shares or other equity instruments), resulting in the loss of all or part of a holder's investment in the Notes (in particular, the amount due under such Notes could be reduced to zero). Under certain conditions, the Terms and Conditions of the Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance could be amended by the SRB, in cooperation with the CSSF (in particular, with regards to their maturity date, interest payable and interest payment dates).

The exercise of the powers conferred upon the SRB, in cooperation with the CSSF, or the mere threat of exercise of such powers, could substantially affect the rights of the holders of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or Secured Notes issued by NCIBL, the price or the value of their investment in such Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or such Secured Notes issued by NCIBL and/or the ability of Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL to perform its obligations under such Notes.

Risk of partial or total loss of their investment by Noteholders as a result of the status of the Notes in the event that insolvency proceedings are commenced against Natixis Structured Issuance

In accordance with Condition 3(a) (Unsecured Notes issued by NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance), the Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance constitute general, unsecured and unsubordinated contractual obligations of Natixis Structured Issuance.

Since Natixis Structured Issuance is registered, and has its main centre of interests in Luxembourg, insolvency proceedings involving Natixis Structured Issuance may be subject to, and governed by, Luxembourg insolvency law.

If insolvency proceedings are commenced against Natixis Structured Issuance, the rights of claim against Natixis Structured Issuance represented by the Notes will rank equally with claims in respect of all other unsubordinated and unsecured contractual obligations and behind all preferred obligations, including those preferred by operation of law.

If Natixis Structured Issuance's financial position deteriorates resulting in the commencement of insolvency proceedings against it, Natixis Structured Issuance may be unable to perform some or all of its payment obligations under the Notes and accordingly investors may lose all or some of their initial investment.

Risk of partial or total loss of their investment by Noteholders as a result of the status of the Notes in the event that insolvency proceedings are commenced against Natixis Corporate and Investment Banking Luxembourg

In accordance with Condition 3(b) (Secured Notes issued by NCIBL) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, as applicable, the Secured Notes constitute direct, unconditional, secured (in accordance with Condition 20 (Terms for Secured Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes), limited recourse and unsubordinated obligations of NCIBL.

NCIBL being a credit institution, the insolvency proceedings relating to NCIBL will fall under, and be governed by, the BRR Law. The BRR Law provides, in addition to the resolution procedures, that Luxembourg credit institutions are subject to, in case of insolvency, the procedures of suspension of payments and voluntary or judicial liquidation.

If NCIBL were to be subject to a suspension of payments or voluntary or judicial liquidation procedure, the claims on NCIBL represented by the Secured Notes will rank pari passu with the claims arising from all other outstanding direct, unconditional, secured by the same security interest (in accordance with Condition 20 (Terms for Secured Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes), limited recourse and unsubordinated obligations of NCIBL, present or future.

In the event of a suspension of payments, the credit institution may, upon request of the CSSF or the institution itself, be granted the temporary cessation of its payments to certain of its creditors for a period not exceeding six months. The dissolution and liquidation of a credit institution may occur when: (i) the suspension of payments regime previously decided does not allow to remedy the situation that justified it; (ii) the financial situation of the credit institution is shaken to the point that it will no longer be able to meet its commitments to all holders of claims or participation rights; and (iii) the authorization of the credit institution has been withdrawn and this decision has become final.

In accordance with the provisions of the Luxembourg law of 5 August 2005 on financial collateral arrangements (as amended), the opening of an insolvency proceeding against NCIBL does not prevent the realization of the Pledge Agreement concluded prior to such opening, which remains valid and enforceable against third parties. The opening of such insolvency proceedings could have a negative impact on the security interest granted by NCIBL through the Supplemental Security Documents.

If its financial position deteriorates resulting in the commencement of an insolvency proceeding against NCIBL, NCIBL may be unable to perform some or all of its payment obligations under the Notes and accordingly investors may lose all or some of their initial investment.

If its financial position deteriorates resulting in the commencement of an insolvency proceeding against NCIBL, NCIBL may be unable to perform some or all of its payment obligations under the Secured Notes and the Noteholders may thus lose all or part of their initial investment. For more information, refer to paragraph "3. Risk Factors applicable to the Secured Notes" in this section "Risk Factors" of this Base Prospectus. In such case, if the Secured Notes are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and the "Secured Notes Guarantee" is also specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Noteholders will benefit from a claim against NATIXIS in its capacity as Guarantor for the Guaranteed Early Redemption Amount in respect of such Secured Notes determined in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. However, the Noteholders will not benefit from such a claim when the Secured Notes do not benefit from the Secured Notes Guarantee.

2.1.3 Other risks that may affect the Holders of Notes

Risks relating to the early redemption of the Notes in the event of illegality, change in taxation, Force Majeure Event or Significant Alteration Event

If (i) the performance of the relevant Issuer's obligations under the Notes has or will become unlawful; (ii) a withholding or deduction in respect of tax is required to be made under the Notes in accordance with Condition 8 of the Notes; or (iii) the performance of the relevant Issuer's obligations under the Notes is impossible and insurmountable due to the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event or if the economic balance of the Notes is significantly altered due to the occurrence of a Significant Alteration Event, then, in accordance with Condition 6(c), Condition 6(b) or Condition 6(m) of the Notes, respectively, the relevant Issuer may, or shall, under certain circumstances, redeem all outstanding Notes early.

If the Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide that the Early Redemption Amount is equal to their market value in the event of redemption before maturity, investors will not benefit from the redemption amount of the Notes at maturity specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Furthermore, the market value payable on early redemption may be lower, particularly in the event of a deterioration in market conditions, than the amount that would have been paid if the Notes had been redeemed on the Maturity Date and investors may lose all or part of their initial investment.

CREST Depository Interests (CDIs) are separate legal obligations distinct from the Notes and CDI Holders (as defined below) will be subject to provisions outside the Notes

Holders of CDIs (CDI Holders) will hold or have an interest in a separate legal instrument and will not be holders of the Notes in respect of which the CDIs are issued (the Underlying Notes). The rights of CDI Holders to the Notes are represented by the relevant entitlements against the CREST Depository (as defined in the "Provisions relating to the Notes while in Global Form" section of this Base Prospectus) which (through the CREST Nominee (as defined in the "Clearing and Settlement in relation to English Law Notes" section of this Base Prospectus)) holds interests in the Notes. Accordingly, rights under the Underlying Notes cannot be enforced by CDI Holders except indirectly through the intermediary depositories and custodians. The enforcement of rights under the Notes will be subject to the local law of the relevant intermediaries. This could result in an elimination or reduction in the payments that otherwise would have been made in respect of the Notes in the event of any insolvency or liquidation of any of the relevant intermediaries, in particular where the Notes held in clearing systems are not held in special purpose accounts and are fungible with other securities held in the same accounts on behalf of other customers of the relevant intermediaries.

The rights of the CDI Holders will be governed by the arrangements between CREST, Euroclear, Clearstream and the relevant Issuer, including the CREST Deed Poll (as defined in the "Provisions relating to the Notes while in Global Form" section of this Base Prospectus). Potential investors should note that the provisions of the CREST Deed Poll, the CREST Manual (as defined in the "Clearing and Settlement in relation to English Law Notes" section of this Base Prospectus) and the CREST Rules (as defined in the "Clearing and Settlement in relation to English Law Notes" section of this Base Prospectus) contain indemnities, warranties, representations and undertakings to be given by CDI Holders and limitations on the liability of the CREST Depository. CDI Holders are bound by such provisions and may incur liabilities resulting from a breach of any such indemnities, warranties, representations and undertakings in excess of the amounts originally invested by them. As a result, the rights of, and returns received by, CDI Holders may differ from those of holders of Notes which are not represented by CDIs.

In addition, CDI Holders may be required to pay fees, charges, costs and expenses to the CREST Depository in connection with the use of the CREST International Settlement Links Service. These will include the fees and expenses charged by the CREST Depository in respect of the provision of services by it under the CREST Deed Poll and any taxes, duties, charges, costs or expenses which may be or become payable in connection with the holding of the Notes through the CREST International Settlement Links Service. Potential investors should note that none of the relevant Issuer, the relevant Dealer(s), the Trustee (as defined herein) and the Paying Agents will have any responsibility for the performance by any intermediaries or their respective direct or indirect participants or accountholders of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

For further information on the issue and holding of CDIs see the section entitled "Clearing and Settlement in Relation to English Law Notes" in this Base Prospectus.

Risks relating to Green Bonds, Social Bonds and Sustainability Bonds

The applicable Final Terms relating to any specific Series of Notes may provide that the Issuer will issue Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds (see section "Use of Proceeds" of this Base Prospectus). The Issuer intends and has procedures in place to allocate an amount equal to the net proceeds of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds to Eligible Assets that finance or refinance green and/or social projects in accordance with the Green Funding Framework and/or Social Funding Framework (as defined in section "Use of Proceeds" of this Base Prospectus).

However, the Issuer may not be able to fully allocate an amount equal to the net proceeds to Eligible Assets during the life of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds. This may happen if there are not enough green and/or social projects available for financing or refinancing after the repayment of existing Eligible Assets. Any such failure by the Issuer will not constitute an Event of Default under the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds or a default of the Issuer for any purpose, but it may affect the credibility and reputation of the Issuer and the attractiveness of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds for investors.

The allocation of an amount equal to the net proceeds of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds to Eligible Assets is subject to annual verification by an external auditor, who will provide a limited assurance report on the compliance of the Issuer with the Green Funding Framework and/or Social Funding Framework. If the external auditor find that a significant portion of the net proceeds is not allocated to Eligible Assets, they may reduce the level of assurance given in their report, which could undermine the confidence of investors and the market in the Issuer's commitment and capacity to issue Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds.

The definition and classification of green and/or social projects may vary depending on the legal, regulatory or market standards and expectations that apply to the Issuer and the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds. In particular, the European Union has adopted Regulation (EU) No. 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the Taxonomy Regulation), which sets out a common EU-wide classification system, or "taxonomy", for determining which economic activities can be considered environmentally sustainable. The Taxonomy Regulation is supplemented by Commission Delegated Regulations (EU) 2021/2139 (as amended), 2022/1214 and 2023/2486 (together, the Delegated Regulations), which establish the technical screening criteria for assessing the contribution of economic activities to the six environmental objectives of the Taxonomy Regulation, namely (i) climate change mitigation, (ii) climate change adaptation, (iii) sustainable use and protection of water and marine resources, (iv) transition to a circular economy, (v) pollution prevention and control, and (vi) protection and restoration of biodiversity and ecosystems. The Taxonomy Regulation and the Delegated Regulations do not directly apply to the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds, but they may influence the expectations and preferences of investors and the market regarding the definition and classification of green projects. The Taxonomy Regulation and the Delegated Regulations may also be subject to further development and refinement, which may result in changes to the technical screening criteria or the inclusion or exclusion of certain economic activities from the taxonomy. There is currently no equivalent EU-wide classification system or regulation for social or sustainability projects, and the definition and classification of such projects may depend on various voluntary or national frameworks, guidelines or principles that may differ or evolve over time. Therefore, the Eligible Assets that the BPCE Group selects and allocates an amount equal to the net proceeds of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds to may not meet the current or future legal, regulatory or market standards or expectations for green and/or social projects, or may be subject to controversy or criticism by stakeholders or the public. This may affect the perception and valuation of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds by investors and the market.

Further, the Eligible Assets or the green and/or social projects they finance may not achieve their intended environmental or social outcomes or impacts, or may cause or contribute to adverse environmental or social impacts during their design, construction, implementation or operation. The occurrence of any adverse environmental or social impacts or controversies involving the Eligible Assets or the green and/or social projects they finance may negatively affect the reputation and performance of the Issuer and the borrowers, and may reduce the demand and price of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds in the secondary market.

In the event the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "green," "social," "environmental," "sustainable" or other equivalently labeled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated) such listing or admission may not satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements, and such listing or admission to trading may not be maintained during the life of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds. Any change to the listing or admission status of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds may have a material adverse effect on the value of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

Finally, the market for Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds is influenced by various factors, including the supply and demand of sustainability-themed investment products, the availability and reliability of information and data on the environmental or social performance and impact of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds and the Eligible Assets and the green and/or social projects they finance, the evolution and diversity of investor preferences, expectations and criteria for sustainability or environmental, social and governance (ESG) themed investing, and the regulatory or market scrutiny or oversight on the issuers and the products of sustainability or ESG themed investing. These factors may change over time and may affect the attractiveness and competitiveness of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds for investors and may create volatility and uncertainty in the pricing and liquidity of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds.

If the perception or suitability of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds as green, social or sustainability bonds deteriorates or diminishes due to any of the factors mentioned above, the trading prices and the liquidity of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds may be negatively affected to the extent investors are required or choose to sell their holdings and holders of the Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds may receive less than their initial investment in selling their Green Bonds, Social Bonds and/or Sustainability Bonds before the Maturity Date.

Noteholders who hold less than the minimum Specified Denomination may be unable to sell their English Law Notes and may be adversely affected if definitive English Law Notes are subsequently required to be issued

In relation to any issue of English Law Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such English Law Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case, a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of English Law Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to one or more Specified Denominations. Further, a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive English Law Note in respect of such holding (should definitive English Law Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of English Law Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to one or more Specified Denominations.

If such English Law Notes in definitive form are issued, Noteholders should be aware that definitive English Law Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

2.2 Risks that may affect the valuation and sale price of Notes on the secondary market

Volatility risk relating to the Notes

Volatility risk refers to the risk of changes in the sale price of the Notes, as well as any difference between the valuation level and the sale price of the Notes.

The market for debt instruments, including the Notes, is influenced by economic and market conditions, interest rates, exchange rates, and inflation rates in Europe and other countries and territories.

Events in France, Europe or elsewhere (as the health crisis related to COVID-19 or a fuel crisis or a major geopolitical event) could cause volatility in this market, which could result in a negative impact on the trading or sale price of the Notes. The relevant Final Terms will state whether or not the Notes will be admitted to trading on a Regulated Market.

Noteholders wishing to sell their Notes prior to their Maturity Date may, consequently, be unable to sell their Notes at their valuation level, or be obliged to sell their Notes at a lower price than they would expect, having regard to the value of the Notes.

Risks relating to a downgrade in the rating or rating outlook of NATIXIS or the Notes

The value of the Notes may be affected in part by investors' assessment of the solvency of the Issuer and, where applicable, the Guarantor. This assessment will generally be influenced by the ratings assigned to the long term senior unsecured debt of NATIXIS or to existing Notes by ratings agencies such as Moody's, S&P and Fitch (each a Rating). Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL are not rated.

A Rating is an indication used to assess the prospects of creditors being repaid by an issuer. It is not representative of all the risks that may affect the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Notes and does not constitute a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Notes and may be modified or withdrawn at any time by any of the relevant rating agencies.

The Notes may be unrated or rated by one or more independent rating agencies. The Ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks relating to, inter alia, the structure of the relevant issue, the relevant market for the Notes, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes.

A downgrade of, or a creditwatch in relation to any Rating of the long term senior unsecured debt of NATIXIS and, if the Notes are rated, that of the Notes, may result in a fall in the trading value of the Notes and cause, for Noteholders wishing to sell their Notes prior to the Maturity Date, a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment compared to the price at which the Notes could have been sold before the Rating was changed or placed under creditwatch.

Risks relating to changes in interest rates

Interest rate levels may fluctuate during the life of the Notes. Long-term interest rates may vary differently than short-term interest rates and to a greater or lesser extent for different currencies.

The value of the Notes may be greatly impacted by interest rate fluctuations, an increase in interest rates generally resulting in a fall in the value of the Notes.

The value of Notes with a fixed coupon and/or redemption amount and, all the more so, that of zero-coupon Notes or Notes issued at a substantial discount to the issue price, is likely to be affected if interest rates rise above their initial rate. The market value of the Notes would typically fall, until the yield of such Notes is approximately equal to the market interest rate. The impact of interest rate fluctuations is greater where the fluctuation affects interest rates for maturities equivalent to that of the relevant Notes than where it affects shorter term interest rates.

In the case of Notes issued in treasury non-eligible currencies (*non éligibles au trésor*⁴), the relevant interest rates for the currency also factors in the premiums on the market for currency swaps between the non-eligible currency and the currency in which NATIXIS is refinancing. The factoring in of increased premiums may affect the value of the Notes in addition to the fluctuation of the interest rates of such treasury non-eligible currency.

In the event of a sale prior to the Maturity Date, an increase in interest rates or factoring-in of increased currency swap market premiums, may have a negative impact on the value of the Notes and investors may lose all or part of their initial investment.

⁴ Treasury eligible currencies ("éligible au trésor") include, on the date of this Base Prospectus, Euros, United States Dollars, Pounds Sterling, Swiss Francs, Japanese Yen, Swedish Krona, Danish Krone, Norwegian Krone, Australian Dollars, Singapore Dollars, Hong Kong Dollars, Canadian Dollars, South African Rand and New Zealand Dollars. Treasury non-eligible currencies are those currencies that do not constitute treasury eligible currencies.

Risk of illiquidity or limited liquidity for the Notes

No assurance can be given that an active trading market for the Notes will develop or, if such a market develops, that it will be sustained. Noteholders should be aware that the initial aggregate nominal amount value of Notes issued does not necessarily reflect the number of Notes outstanding and therefore is not representative of the strength of the secondary market and the liquidity level of the Notes.

Where there is no or only limited liquidity for the Notes, Noteholders may be unable to sell their Notes or may not be able to sell them at their true valuation level. Consequently, Noteholders may be unable to sell their Notes prior to the Maturity Date or to sell their Notes at a price equal to the amount they might expect given the true value of the Notes.

2.3 Risks relating to the features and specific terms of remuneration on and redemption of the NotesRisk of loss of capital for Notes whose redemption amount is determined by reference to a calculation formula and/or linked to one or more underlying assets or a strategy

For certain Notes, the amounts of principal payable by the Issuer are linked to or make references to changes in one or more underlying assets, including indices, price indices, dividends, currencies, exchange rates, interest rates, fund units, shares, commodities, credit risk of one or more reference entities, debt securities, futures contracts or a basket of any of the above, or any formula, strategy or combination thereof (each an Underlying). This may concern the amounts payable on redemption including amounts payable upon partial redemption, automatic early redemption or, redemption at the option of the Issuer as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Such amounts may be determined in particular by the application of a calculation formula and one or more observations of a price, value or level of, or the occurrence or the absence of occurrence of an event in relation to one or more Underlying(s) observed during the life or at the maturity of the Notes, or by indexing payment to a secondary currency other than that of the Notes. The Notes may provide for redemption by physical delivery of the Underlying(s) and/or redemption may be linked to the occurrence of one or more credit events or bond events on one or more reference entities and/or one or more reference debt securities. Even where relevant credit events or bond events do not occur the formula for the Notes may provide for redemption at less than the specified denomination or calculation amount of the Notes. It should also be noted that while the occurrence of credit event(s) over "long" reference entity(ies) will normally be disadvantageous for Noteholders, for "short" reference entity(ies) the failure of credit event(s) to occur will be disadvantageous for Noteholders.

The price, value or level of the relevant Underlying(s) may change in a manner unfavourable to the Noteholder, meaning that holding the Notes may present a risk comparable to holding or short-selling the Underlying(s), or an even greater risk depending on the terms of the formula or indexation provisions which may increase the exposure to such risk through leverage or combine exposure to several Underlyings or a number of adverse scenarios.

Potential investors in Open-ended Notes should consider that this type of Note has no fixed redemption date. Therefore, the duration of the Notes may be dependent, among others on the Issuer's optional election to redeem the Notes at any time, the occurrence of certain events or by a certain trigger being reached or activated, in each case to the extent applicable in respect of the Notes. If there is no secondary market, there might be no possibility for the Noteholders to sell the Notes (see risk factors relating to illiquidity below).

In the event of an adverse change in the price, value or level of the Underlying(s), or a bond event(s) or credit event(s) occurs (or fails to occur), exacerbated, if relevant, by the terms of the formula or indexation or strategy provisions, Noteholders may lose all or part of the capital they originally invested.

Risks relating to currency fluctuations and exchange controls

For certain Notes, the Issuer must redeem the principal, pay interest or any other amount due on the Notes either: (i) in the Specified Currency (as defined in the relevant Final Terms); or (ii) in the case of Dual Currency Notes in a Secondary Currency (as specified in the relevant Final Terms); or (iii) a replacement currency which may be:

(a) euros (the Redenomination Currency) in the event of redenomination of the Specified Currency into euro; or (b) Euros or U.S. dollars (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) if the Specified Currency is discontinued, converted, re-denominated, exchanged or otherwise unavailable (the Replacement Currency); (c) the Fallback Payment Currency (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) in the case non-deliverability or exchange rate disruption with respect to the Secondary Currency for Currency Linked Notes that are Dual Currency Notes; or (d) the Relevant Currency (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) in the case of illiquidity, non-transferability or inconvertibility with respect to CNY (see below) for CNY Notes.

This may pose a risk if an investor's financial activities are essentially processed and denominated in a currency or monetary unit (the Investor's Currency) other than the Specified Currency (or, as applicable, the Secondary Currency, the Redenomination Currency, the Replacement Currency, the Fallback Payment Currency or the Relevant Currency) and exchange rates vary significantly (for example, in the event of devaluation of any such currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency).

Moreover, the authorities of the country governing the Specified Currency (or, as applicable, the Secondary Currency, the Redenomination Currency, the Replacement Currency, the Fallback Payment Currency or the Relevant Currency) or Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. This may have an adverse effect on the value of such currencies, the interest rates of such currencies or on currency swaps market risk premiums.

These risks may be significantly increased if one of these currencies is an emerging market currency or a currency issued by a central bank or a government whose operating and market oversight rules do not match the general standards of the major international markets. For example, CNY is not freely convertible and the PRC government continues to regulate conversion between CNY and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong Dollar, despite a reduction in recent years by the PRC government of its control over routine foreign exchange transactions for current account items such as payments for imported goods and salary payments. In the event that funds cannot be repatriated outside the PRC in CNY, this may affect the overall availability of CNY outside the PRC and the ability of the Issuer to source CNY to finance its obligations under the Notes.

An assessment of the value of the Investor's Currency in relation to the Specified Currency (and, as applicable, the Secondary Currency, the Redenomination Currency, the Replacement Currency, the Fallback Payment Currency or the Relevant Currency), or the introduction or modification of exchange controls could decrease: (i) the return on the Notes once converted into the Investor's Currency; and (ii) the redemption amount payable on the Notes once converted into the Investor's Currency. Investors may then suffer a decreased return on or net loss of their investment after conversion into the Investor's Currency.

Risk of low or no returns

For certain Notes, the amounts of interest payable by the Issuer are linked to or make reference to changes in one or more Underlying(s).

The determination of such amounts may result from the application of a calculation formula and one or more observations of a price, value or level of, or the occurrence or the absence of occurrence of an event in relation to one or more Underlying(s) made before the interest amount is determined, from the application of a fallback formula on the terms specified in the relevant Terms and Conditions of the Notes, or by indexing payment to a secondary currency other than that of the Notes. The Notes may provide for amounts of interest to be linked to the occurrence of one or more credit events or bond events on one or more reference entities and/or one or more reference debt securities.

In the event that an adverse change in the price, value or level of the Underlying(s), or a bond event(s) or credit event(s) occurs or fails to occur, exacerbated, if relevant, by the terms of the formula or strategy or indexation provisions, investors may suffer a significantly decreased rate of return on the Notes or even no return whatsoever.

Risks relating to Notes redeemable by delivery of an Underlying

For certain Notes, the Issuer may redeem such Notes by delivering an Underlying as specified in the relevant Final Terms. If, on or after the delivery of an Underlying, a Noteholder wishes to sell such delivered Underlying, and if the liquidity of the market for the relevant Underlying is limited, the Noteholder may potentially be unable to sell the Underlying at a price equivalent to the amount it may have obtained had the Notes been redeemed in cash. Moreover, if there is no liquidity, a Noteholder may be unable to sell the relevant Underlying at all.

Where the Notes provide for physical delivery, the relevant Issuer or Calculation Agent (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) may determine that the specified assets to be delivered are either: (a) assets which for any reason (including, without limitation, failure of the relevant clearance system or due to any law, regulation, court order, contractual restrictions, statutory restrictions or market conditions or the non-receipt of any requisite consents with respect to the delivery of assets which are loans) it is impossible, illegal or impracticable to deliver on the specified settlement date; or (b) assets which the relevant Issuer and/or any affiliate has not received under the terms of any transaction entered into by the relevant Issuer and/or such affiliate to hedge such Issuer's obligations in respect of the Notes. Any such determination may delay the redemption of the Notes and/or cause the obligation to deliver such specified assets to be replaced by an obligation to pay a cash amount which, in either case, may affect the value of the Notes and, in the case of payment of a cash amount, will affect the timing of the valuation of such Notes and as a result, the redemption amount. Prospective investors should review the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to ascertain whether and how such provisions should apply to the relevant Notes and be aware that the amounts payable or deliverable and the timing of the valuation, payment or delivery of these may be different from expected.

The redemption of the Notes by way of delivery of an Underlying may involve additional risk to the Noteholder compared to Notes redeemed in cash, and if redeemed in this manner, the Noteholder may lose some or all of the redemption value of Notes redeemed by way of delivery of Underlying.

Reinvestment risk following early redemption

For certain Notes, all or part of the outstanding principal amount may be redeemed before the Maturity Date, in the circumstances specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Such early redemptions may occur due to conditions relating to the observation of the price, value or level of one or more Underlying(s) during the life of the Notes, the occurrence of one or more credit events or bond events, conditions relating to the effective payment of interest and/or redemption amounts on such Notes or a decision by the Issuer in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Terms and Conditions of the Notes, including for Notes where the interest and/or redemption amounts are not linked to or do not make reference to an Underlying.

Market conditions existing at the time of early redemption of the Notes will most likely not be similar to those existing when investors invested in the Notes. Noteholders may therefore not be in a position to reinvest the Early Redemption Amount in instruments with an initial maturity equal to that of the Notes at a comparable rate of return.

The duration of Open-ended Notes is dependent on an optional redemption by the relevant Issuer and/or on an optional redemption by the Noteholder

Open-ended Notes have no exercise date and no fixed maturity date. Therefore, the duration is dependent on when the Issuer's optional redemption and/or, as the case may be, the Noteholder's optional redemption is exercised. The duration is further dependent on the Issuer's optional election to redeem the Notes at any time, the occurrence of certain events or by a certain trigger being reached or activated, in each case to the extent applicable in respect of the Open-ended Notes. In particular, if Noteholders have no optional redemption right, a realisation of the economic value attached to the Open-ended Notes (in whole or in part) will only be possible by selling such Open-ended Notes on the secondary market. If there is no secondary market, Noteholders may not be able to sell their Notes. Even if a secondary market exists, a sale of the Open-ended Notes will only be possible if market participants are willing to buy the Open-ended Notes at an appropriate price, the absence of which could prevent the value of the Open-ended Notes from being realised.

Risks relating to Charity Payment Notes

In accordance with Condition 5(s) (Charity Payment Notes) and if “Charity Payment Notes” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final terms, the Issuer shall deduct the relevant Shared Amount(s) from the amounts due to the Noteholder under the Notes. Such Shared Amount(s) will then be paid on the Shared Amount Payment Date(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation(s) on behalf of the Noteholders to fund the Project(s), unless a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs.

Therefore, the return on Charity Payment Notes may be lower than the return on a standard debt security of comparable maturity. The return that a Noteholder will receive on the Charity Payment Notes may be less than the return such Noteholder could earn on other investments. Even if a Noteholder’s return is positive, such Noteholder’s return may be less than the return such Noteholder would earn if such Noteholder bought other notes of the Issuers with the same maturity date.

If “Full Shared Amount Due” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, then should a Noteholder request NATIXIS or the Issuer buy back its Charity Payment Notes prior to their Maturity Date, the proposed repurchase price, whether conditional or hypothetical, will be equivalent to the market value of the Charity Payment Notes as determined by NATIXIS or the Issuer reduced by the aggregate amount of the Shared Amounts yet to be paid until, and including on, the Maturity Date, unless a NPO Termination Event has occurred. This could negatively affect the value of the Charity Payment Notes and result in investors losing all or a portion of their initial investment.

The deduction of the Shared Amount(s) may have significant tax consequences for prospective investors, depending on their individual circumstances and the applicable tax laws and regulations. Noteholders should consult their own tax advisers regarding the tax consequences of holding and disposing of Charity Payment Notes. Noteholders of Charity Payment Notes may not be entitled to any tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit, in any jurisdiction, with respect to the Shared Amount paid to the Non-Profit Organisation.

Additionally, Noteholders may have to report the full Interest Amount or Redemption Amount (being, for the avoidance of doubt, the Final Redemption Amount, the Automatic Early Redemption Amount, the Optional Redemption Amount, or, as relevant, an Instalment Payable Amount, as the case may be, but not the Early Redemption Amount due as a result of an Early Redemption Termination Event), including the Shared Amount(s), as taxable income on their own tax return, regardless of whether they have donated the Shared Amount(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation or not. This may result in a higher tax liability for Noteholders of Charity Payment Notes than for holders of notes without shared amount mechanisms.

Furthermore, if “Tax Certificate” is specified as “Not Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, Noteholders of Charity Payment Notes irrevocably waive any rights to claim any such tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit, in any jurisdiction, in respect of the Charity Payment Notes and neither the Non-Profit Organisation nor the Issuer will provide any certificate or document to the Noteholders to support any tax claim in respect of the Shared Amount(s). This may result in a higher effective tax burden for Noteholders of Charity Payment Notes than if they received the full Interest Amount or Redemption Amount and then donated a portion equal to the Shared Amount(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation.

Finally, any negative publicity related to the occurrence of a NPO Termination Event, including the use of the funds derived from the payment of the Shared Amount(s) for a purpose other than related to funding the Project(s), may have a negative impact on the market value of the Charity Payment Notes.

2.4 Risks relating to events that may impact on an Underlying or the determination of the price, value or level of an Underlying

Risks relating to changes in law or the inability to hold hedging positions and/or increased cost of hedging

In connection with issues of Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to the price, value or level of, or the occurrence or the absence of occurrence of an event in relation to, one or more Underlying(s), the Issuer may enter into hedging arrangements (Hedging Positions) to hedge itself against the risks associated with such Notes and in particular changes in the price, value or level of the relevant Underlying(s). In the event of a change in law, it may become unlawful for the Issuer to hold, acquire, sell or unwind these Hedging Positions.

Moreover, the performance by the Issuer of its obligations under the Notes or in order to fulfil the applicable legal requirements could generate significant associated costs for the Issuer. In addition, the Issuer may be unable to hold such Hedging Positions or may incur significant costs relating to such Hedging Positions.

These various events constitute additional adjustment events.

Should the Calculation Agent determine that any of the above-mentioned additional adjustment event has occurred, it shall notify the Issuer which may elect, depending on the nature of such event to either: (i) require the Calculation Agent to adjust the terms of redemption and payment of the Notes; or (ii) redeem all of the Notes at an Early Redemption Amount equal to the fair market value of the Notes (such value to be determined by reference to market conditions adjusted to take account of all fees and costs incurred by the Issuer, including those in relation to unwinding Hedging Positions), as determined by, and at the sole discretion of, the Calculation Agent; or (iii), in the case of Notes whose interest or redemption amounts are linked to or make references to the Net Asset Value of one or more underlying Funds, at its discretion, replace the Fund with one or more new Funds; or (iv), in the case of Credit Linked Notes and Bond Linked Notes, redeem all the Notes at an Early Redemption Amount equal to the fair market value of the Notes as aforesaid.

Each of (i) such adjustment of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes by the Calculation Agent following the occurrence of an additional adjustment event; (ii) replacement of Fund(s); or (iii) early redemption as aforesaid may have a significant impact on the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts (as applicable) as well as the value of the Notes. Moreover, the Early Redemption Amount determined by reference to the fair market value of the Notes may be significantly less than the redemption amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. As a result, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and investors may lose all or some of their investment.

Risks relating to certain events affecting Underlying Shares

Determination of interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under the Notes linked to or which make reference to one or more shares (the Shares), requires observing the price of one or more Shares. Certain events affecting the Shares may have an impact on the price of such Shares or make it impossible to observe them. These events include, but are not limited to: (i) nationalisation of the company issuing the Shares (the Issuing Company); (ii) commencement of insolvency proceedings or any similar proceedings against the Issuing Company; (iii) de-listing of the Shares; (iv) a takeover offer, tender offer or exchange offer, or any other initiative by any entity or person in relation to the acquisition, or potential acquisition, of the Shares; (v) any modification of the Shares involving the disposal of the Shares to another person or entity; and (vi) a consolidation, merger, absorption or mandatory exchange of the Shares. Furthermore, the Issuer may have to borrow the relevant Shares for the purposes of hedging the Notes. The cost of such borrowing may increase significantly or the Issuer and/or its affiliates may be unable to borrow the Shares at an appropriate rate. These various events constitute additional adjustment events.

In addition, in the case of Shares where China Connect applies, the China Connect Service is subject to a number restrictions including pre-trade checking requirements, daily quota restrictions and may also be affected by the intervention of the Chinese Government and/or regulatory bodies in the China market (which may be positive or negative). Such restrictions and uncertainties relating to China Connect may also result in additional adjustment events.

Should the Calculation Agent determine that any of the above-mentioned additional adjustment events has occurred, it shall notify the Issuer which may elect, depending on the nature of such event, to either: (i) require the Calculation Agent to adjust the terms of redemption and payment of the Notes; or (ii) redeem all of the Notes at an Early Redemption Amount equal to the fair market value of the Notes (such value to be determined by reference to market conditions adjusted to take account of all fees and costs incurred by the Issuer, including those in relation to unwinding Hedging Positions), as determined by, and at the sole discretion of, the Calculation Agent.

The adjustment of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes by the Calculation Agent following the occurrence of an additional adjustment event may have a significant impact on the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts as well as the value of such Notes. Moreover, the Early Redemption Amount determined by reference to fair market value of the Notes may be less than the redemption amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. As a result, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and investors may lose all or some of their investment.

Risks associated with Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a "benchmark"

Reference rates, such as EURIBOR or CMS rates, commodities, currencies and indices that are considered "benchmarks" (Benchmarks) are the subject of regulatory guidance and reform proposals at national and international level. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented.

Among these regulations, the EU Benchmarks Regulation applies to the provision of Benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a Benchmark and the use of a Benchmark within the European Union. Among other things: it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and to comply with extensive requirements in relation to the administration of Benchmarks (or, if non-EU based, to be subject to equivalent requirements); and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities of Benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised/registered (or, if non-EU based, deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed), subject to certain transitional provisions. There are proposals to reform the EU Benchmarks Regulation (and significantly narrow the range of benchmarks to which it applies), but these changes are not agreed in form and not expected to apply until 2026.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a rate or index deemed to be a Benchmark, in particular if the methodology or other terms of the Benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation was amended by Regulation (EU) 2021/168 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 10 February 2021 (the Amending Regulation). The Amending Regulation introduces a harmonized approach to deal with the cessation or wind-down of certain Benchmarks by conferring on the European Commission the power to designate a statutory replacement for certain Benchmarks, resulting in such Benchmarks being replaced in contracts and financial instruments that have not been renegotiated before the date of cessation of the relevant Benchmarks and contain either no contractual replacement (or so-called fallback provision) or a fallback provision which is deemed unsuitable by the European Commission or competent national authorities (Article 23b of the EU Benchmarks Regulation).

In addition, Regulation (EU) 2023/2222 extended the transitional provisions applicable to third-country benchmarks until the end of 2025.

These provisions could have a negative impact on the value or liquidity of, and return on, Notes linked or referencing to Benchmarks such as EURIBOR or CMS rate(s) in the event that the fallback provisions in the terms and conditions of the Notes (see Condition 17(f) (Benchmark Trigger Event)) are deemed unsuitable (Article 23b of the EU Benchmarks Regulation). However, there are still uncertainties about the exact implementation of this provision pending the implementing acts of the European Commission.

More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of Benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a Benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the following effects on certain Benchmarks: (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain Benchmarks; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain Benchmarks; or (iii) lead to the disappearance of certain Benchmarks.

Such modifications could in particular have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level of the relevant Benchmark or affect in any manner the evolution of the rate or level of the relevant Benchmark or lead to the replacement of the relevant Benchmark by a replacement Benchmark and accordingly have a material adverse effect on the return on and value of the Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to such Benchmark.

Risks associated with Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to risk free rates as the market continues to develop in relation to such risk free rates

Condition 5 (Interest and Other Calculations) of the each of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes and Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes potentially contemplate Notes referencing risk free rates to be issued. Investors should be aware that the market continues to develop in relation to risk free rates, such as the Euro short term rate (€STR), the Sterling Overnight Index Average (SONIA), the Secured Overnight Financing Rates (SOFR) and the Tokyo Overnight Average Rate (TONA) as reference rates in the capital markets for euro, sterling, US Dollar or Japanese Yen, respectively, and their adoption as alternatives to the relevant interbank offered rates. The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of risk-free rates that differs significantly from that contemplated in the Terms and Conditions referred to above and used in relation to Floating Rate Notes or Rate Linked Notes that reference a risk-free rate issued under this Programme. The Issuers may in the future issue notes referencing €STR, SONIA, SOFR or TONA in a way that differs materially in terms of determination of interest or other amounts referencing such rates when compared with the manner of determination of such amounts for any previous Notes issued by the Issuers referencing such risk-free rates.

The nascent development of the use of €STR, SONIA, SOFR or TONA as reference rates for bond markets, as well as continued development of €STR-, SONIA-, SOFR- or TONA-based rates for such markets and of the market infrastructure for adopting such rates, could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise affect the market price of the Notes.

Amounts payable on Notes which reference a risk free rate are only capable of being determined shortly prior to the relevant payment date. This will have the effect that the amount payable will only be known a short time before the relevant payment date. It may therefore be difficult for investors in Notes which reference such risk-free rates to be able to reliably pre-estimate the amount which will be payable on such Notes.

In addition, a mismatch between the adoption of such reference rates in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which investors may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of any Notes.

Accordingly, an investment in any such Floating Rate Notes or Rate Linked Notes (as the case may be), may entail significant risks not associated with similar investments in debt securities referencing reference rates other than risk free rates such as forward looking interbank offered rates.

Risks relating to the occurrence of a Benchmark Trigger Event or an Administrator/Benchmark Event

The Terms and Conditions in respect of the Rate Linked Notes, Index Linked Notes, Commodity Linked Notes and Currency Linked Notes provide for certain fallback provisions to apply should events affecting an administrator of a Benchmark or a Benchmark arise, in particular if the original Relevant Benchmark ceases to be published or exist or if it becomes unlawful for the Issuer, the Calculation Agent or any Paying Agent to respectively index, calculate or be involved in the settlement of the amount are linked to or make reference to that Relevant Benchmark.

Any adjustments made by the Calculation Agent would aim to reduce or eliminate, to the extent possible, any economic loss or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders resulting from the replacement of the Relevant Benchmark. However, it may not be possible to determine or apply an adjustment and, even if an adjustment is applied, that adjustment may not be effective in reducing or eliminating the economic loss to Noteholders.

Similarly, the application of any adjustment decided by the Calculation Agent may require changes to the Terms and Conditions to ensure their proper integration and the proper operation of the relevant provisions. These changes, in particular if they relate to the Terms and Conditions for calculating the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts due in respect of the Notes, could affect the performance, and consequently the nature, of the relevant Notes.

Investors should note that the consent of the Noteholders shall not be required if the Calculation Agent were to make the aforementioned adjustments or changes and that the Calculation Agent has discretionary powers when making such adjustments or changes.

Finally, in the case of an event affecting an administrator of a Benchmark or a Benchmark, if the Issuer decides at its discretion to redeem all the Notes early, the Early Redemption Amount will be equal to the fair market value of the Notes based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination less, except if Unwind Costs are specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements. Consequently, the Early Redemption Amount may be less (and in certain circumstances, significantly less) than Noteholders' initial investment in the relevant Notes.

All of the items above may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes and/or adversely affect the value or liquidity of the Notes.

Risks relating to the modification, termination or disruption of a market index, forward contract or commodity

Determination of interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under the Notes linked to or which make reference to one or more market indices, one or more future contracts or one or more commodities (each, a Relevant Underlying) requires observing the level of such Relevant Underlying as determined and/or published by its administrator in accordance with a formula and/or calculation method established by the administrator. The administrator of the Relevant Underlying may, where appropriate, significantly change the formula or the calculation method of the Relevant Underlying (for example, by changing its components), make any other significant change to the Relevant Underlying, definitively cancel the Relevant Underlying or no longer publish the level of the Relevant Underlying required to determine the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts payable on the Notes. An Administrator/Benchmark Event can also occur. These various events constitute adjustment events for the Relevant Underlying.

Should any such adjustment events occurs, the Calculation Agent may at its discretion: (i) calculate the level of the Relevant Underlying in accordance with the formula and calculation method of the Relevant Underlying in force prior to such adjustment; (ii) replace the Relevant Underlying with a modified Relevant Underlying or with a new Relevant Underlying; or (iii) require the Issuer to redeem the Notes at the Early Redemption Amount equal to the fair market value of the Notes (such value to be determined by reference to market conditions adjusted to take account of all fees and costs incurred by the Issuer, including those in relation to unwinding Hedging Positions), determined by, and at the sole discretion of, the Calculation Agent.

The determination of the level of the Relevant Underlying or its replacement by the Calculation Agent following the occurrence of an adjustment event may have a significant impact on the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts as well as the value of such Notes. Moreover, the Early Redemption Amount determined by reference to fair market value of the Notes may be less than the redemption amount specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. As a result, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment.

Risks related to the adjustment of one or more currencies in the event of Price Source Disruption or a Substantial Rate Discrepancy

Determination of interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under the Notes linked to or which make reference to one or more currencies requires observing the exchange rate between one or more currencies and one or more other currencies.

Adjustment events may occur and impact the method of determination of the applicable exchange rate. Such adjustment events may occur: (i) if there is an event or situation in which, once it ends, it becomes impossible to obtain, notably if an Administrator/Benchmark Event occurs, the exchange rate of the currency(ies) (Price Source Disruption); or (ii) if substantial spreads are observed between various exchange rates exceeding a maximum spread specified in the relevant Final Terms (Substantial Rate Discrepancy).

Should any such adjustment event occur, the Calculation Agent may at its discretion: (i) defer the FX Determination Date (for a maximum number of days specified in the relevant Final Terms); (ii) use a Fallback Reference Rate specified in the relevant Final Terms; or (iii) determine in a commercially reasonable way the applicable exchange rate, taking into account all available information which, in good faith, it deems suitable.

Such postponement of the FX Determination Date, replacement or determination of the exchange rate by the Calculation Agent could have a material impact on the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts due in respect of the Notes. Consequently, it is possible that, following a Price Source Disruption or a Substantial Rate Discrepancy, no settlement will be made or the settlement made will be less than the amount initially anticipated by the Noteholders in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Risks relating to certain event affecting the Fund(s)

Determination of interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under Notes linked to or which make reference to one or more Fund(s) requires observing the Net Asset Value of such Fund(s) as determined or published by the Management Company, the Fund Administrator, the Fund Services Provider or any other person which generally publishes this value on behalf of the Fund(s). Certain events that affect the Fund(s) may have an impact on the Net Asset Value of such Funds or make it impossible to observe it. These events include, but are not limited to, an AUM Trigger Event, a Nationalisation, a FRTB Event, a Fund Insolvency Filing, a Fund Modification, a Fund Merger Event, a Termination of Fund Adviser and/or Fund Administrator, a Change of Investment Policy, a Holding Event, a NAV Trigger Event, a Redemption of Fund Shares, a Reporting Disruption, a Change in Law, an Adviser Resignation, a Fund Hedging Disruption, an Increased Cost of Hedging, a Liquidation, a Regulatory Action, a Volatility Trigger Event and a Strategy Breach.

These events constitute an Extraordinary Event for the Fund(s) under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Should any such Extraordinary Event occurs, the Calculation Agent may at its discretion (i) replace the Fund(s) with one or more new Fund(s), (ii) amend or adjust the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, or (iii) require the Issuer to redeem the Notes at an Early Redemption Amount equal to the fair market value of the Notes (such value to be determined by reference to market conditions adjusted, as the case may be, to take account of all fees and costs incurred by the Issuer, including those in relation to unwinding Hedging Positions), as determined by, and at the sole discretion of, the Calculation Agent.

The adjustments made, or the replacement of the Fund(s), by the Calculation Agent following the occurrence of an Extraordinary Event may have a significant impact on the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts as well as the value of the Notes. Moreover, the Early Redemption Amount determined by reference to fair market value may be less than the redemption amount initially specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. As a result, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and investors may lose all or some of their investment.

Risks relating to the inability to observe the Net Asset Value of the Fund(s) in the case of a Market Disruption Event Determination of the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under Notes linked to or which make reference to one or more Fund(s) whose interest amounts or redemption amounts are linked to which make reference to one or more Fund(s), requires observing the Net Asset Value of such Fund(s). Market Disruption Events as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may occur and prevent the Calculation Agent from making these determinations.

These Market Disruption Events may occur: (i) when the Management Company, the Fund Administrator, the Fund Services Provider or any other person which generally publishes the Net Asset Value on behalf of the relevant Fund(s) fails to publish their Net Asset Value for such Fund(s) in accordance with the provisions of the Fund Documentation; or (ii) on the occurrence or existence of: (a) a Valuation Disruption; (b) a Liquidity Disruption; or (c) a Settlement Disruption (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) which the Calculation Agent determines to be material.

Should any such Market Disruption Event occur, the Calculation Agent shall postpone the observation of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund(s) until the next following Scheduled Trading Day, which is not a Disrupted Day (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes). If the disruption continues, the Calculation Agent shall determine in good faith the Net Asset Value of the affected Fund(s).

The Net Asset Value of the affected Fund(s) may be significantly different than the Net Asset Value published immediately before the occurrence of such Market Disruption Event.

Where determining interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or which make reference to one or more Fund(s) requires observing the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund(s) during a pre-determined period, the Calculation Agent may have to ignore a particular day in calculating the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable on the Notes.

Postponing the observation of the Net Asset Value of the affected Fund(s) or ignoring the day on which a Market Disruption Event occurred, may reduce all or part of the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, as well as the value of the Notes. This risk will be exacerbated in the event of significant volatility of the affected Fund(s). As a result, investors may lose all or part of their initial investment.

Risks relating to Cash Settlement for CLNs and BLNs

In connection with issues of Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a credit risk, if, Cash Settlement is applicable and: (i) in respect of a CLN, one or more Credit Event(s) occurs in respect of one or more underlying Long Reference Entity(ies); or (ii) in respect of a BLN, one or more Bond Event(s) occurs in respect of one or more underlying Reference Entity(ies); or (iii) in respect of a CLN, no Credit Event(s) occur in respect of one or more Short Reference Entity(ies). The formula for determining the Cash Settlement Amount in the case of (i) and (ii) and the Cash Credit Protection Amount in the case of (iii), uses the Final Price or the Weighted Average Final Price, which are either predetermined or determined by reference to one or more Quotation(s) obtained from one or more Dealers.

A Quotation represents a firm or indicative purchase offer by a Dealer. The price quoted is determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Dealer(s), having regard to economic and legal parameters, the Calculation Agent, which may in certain circumstances provide a Quotation, chooses in its sole and absolute discretion which Dealers it shall request one or more Quotations from.

Following a Credit Event Determination Date, the Issuer is entitled to select one or more Valuation Obligations for valuation which have the lowest (or highest) value in the market at the relevant time, provided each such obligation satisfies certain specifications and limits for qualification as a Valuation Obligation. This could result in a lower (or higher) recovery value and therefore greater losses for Noteholders.

Since the Final Price or Weighted Average Final Price may therefore be determined by reference to subjective criteria, the Cash Settlement Amount, Final Redemption Amount or Cash Credit Protection Amount received by the Noteholder may be substantially different than the Cash Settlement Amount, Final Redemption Amount or Cash Credit Protection Amount estimated by the Noteholder. In addition, the amounts payable and the timing of the valuation and payment of these may be different from what a Noteholder may have expected.

Cheapest to deliver or cheapest to value

For Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a credit risk, following a credit event in respect of one or more reference entities, the Issuer may be entitled to select one or more valuation obligations for delivery (or, if cash settlement applies, for valuation) which has the lowest value in the market at the relevant time (or in the case of a "short" reference entity with the highest value in the market at the relevant time).

Following a bond event in respect of one or more reference bonds, the Issuer may be entitled to select one or more valuation obligations for delivery (or, if cash settlement applies, for valuation) which has the lowest value in the market at the relevant time.

These aforementioned selection by the Issuer could result in a lower recovery value and therefore greater losses (or in the case of a "short" reference entity, a lower amount payable) for Noteholders.

Risks relating to leverage

For Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a credit risk, where leverage applies to CLNs and BLNs, such leverage is measured by the "reference overleverage ratio". Such leverage means that the portion of the relevant CLN(s) or BLN(s) which is/are exposed to underlying credit default risk is increased and the Noteholder's risk exposure is greater than it would otherwise have been. In the case of any "Long" Reference Entity for a CLN or any Reference Entity for a BLN, such exposure and credit default risk may result in a greater loss for Noteholders and, in the case of a "Short" Reference Entity for a CLN, such exposure and credit default risk may result in a higher gain for Noteholders although no assurance can be given that this will be the case.

Risks of certain CLNs and/or BLNs where additional strategies apply

For certain CLNs and BLNs, including, without limitation, SBP CLNs, Negative Basis BLNs and Digital CLNs, any Early Redemption Amount, negative basis note amount or trigger event redemption amount payable may be predetermined, determined pursuant to a formula or strategy, determined to be the market value of the Notes including the costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging strategy arrangements or otherwise determined as set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and as a result, such amount may be less than initially anticipated and may be less than or significantly less than the amount which would have applied had the CLNs or BLNs not been so linked to such strategy.

In addition for BLNs and Dual Notes where "Early Redemption on First Event" is applicable the exposure of the Noteholders to the credit risk of the relevant Reference Entities and/or the relevant Reference Bonds will be increased, as they may lose a significant part or all of their investment as soon as a Bond Event (or in the case of a Dual Note a Credit Event or a Bond Event) occurs in respect of one of the Reference Entities or Reference Bonds. Accordingly, Noteholders will be exposed to the credit risk of each stipulated Reference Entity or Reference Bond (as appropriate), and the more Reference Entities or Reference Bonds there are in the basket, the greater the degree of risk for Noteholders.

In the case of Tranching Long Only Basket CLNs, the amount payable on redemption and where Tranching Interest is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest amounts will only be reduced if the aggregate percentage loss amounts incurred as a result of the occurrence of relevant Credit Event(s) exceeds the specified "tranche attachment point". However, the amount payable on redemption and where Tranching Interest is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest amounts will be reduced to zero where such aggregate percentage loss reaches or exceeds the specified "tranche detachment point" and, in such circumstances, investors will lose all of their investment and no further amounts in respect of interest shall be paid.

For SBP CLNs, any SBP Component Adjustment or SBP Component Substitution (where applicable) the Issuer is not obliged to consider the interests of any Noteholder in relation to any such SBP Component Adjustment or SBP Component Substitution and, in the case of an SBP Component Substitution, any change in the relevant SBP Components may increase the volatility of the Notes mark-to-market as the Issuer may add or substitute components which have wider spreads and therefore greater volatility and this may therefore generate greater losses for the Noteholders in the case of redemption prior to the Maturity Date than if such SBP Component Substitution had not occurred. Where applicable, the right for the Issuer to proceed with an SBP Component Substitution embedded within the Notes may result in an additional advantage for NATIXIS and a conflict of interest between NATIXIS and the Noteholder.

Risks relating to the occurrence of a CDS Trigger Event for CLNs

If "CDS Trigger Event" is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms relating to an issue of CLNs, then a CDS Trigger Event shall occur if, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, a specified credit default swap spread level referring to a reference entity (the Reference Entity CDS) is, on any CLN Business Day in a specified Observation Period, greater than the relevant trigger level specified in the applicable Final Terms. In determining such Reference Entity CDS spread level, the Calculation Agent shall attempt to obtain quotes from Dealers and apply a specified methodology. If the Calculation Agent does not receive at least one firm offer or at least three indicative offers, then a CDS Trigger Event shall be deemed to have occurred. If a CDS Trigger Event occurs, the CLNs shall be redeemed on the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Date at an amount (referred to as the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount) determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, based on the fair market value of the Note (or relevant proportion thereof) at the date of determination and adjusted to account for, among other things, the cost of unwinding any relevant hedging arrangements. Such CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount could be significantly less than the relevant outstanding principal amount and/or the price originally paid by an investor for the Notes. In the worst case, the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount could be zero. The risk that a CDS Trigger Event occurs depends on the ability of the Calculation Agent to obtain offers from Dealers and the level of such offers. The offers that a Dealer is prepared to provide, or a Dealer's decision not to provide an offer, will generally be influenced by, among other things, prevailing market conditions and liquidity.

Risks relating to the determination of PV (Remaining Coupons) in lieu of Interest Amounts for CLNs with American Settlement

If "PV (Remaining Coupons)" is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Calculation Agent determines that a Credit Event Determination Date has occurred, then (for CLNs with American Settlement) PV (Remaining Coupons) shall be payable together with and at the same time as the Final Redemption Amount in lieu of the future Interest Amounts that would have been due in absence of the determination of a Credit Event Determination Date. PV (Remaining Coupons) shall be the amount determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be equal to the aggregate of such Interest Amounts discounted to their present market values (which may take into account, without limitation, the market conditions prevailing at the relevant determination date to be specified in the applicable Final Terms) and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses, costs and/or amounts received in unwinding. Depending on the market conditions prevailing at the relevant determination date and any applicable unwinding costs, the PV (Remaining Coupons) may be substantially less than anticipated and/or substantially less than the aggregate amount that the Noteholder would have received if the Interest Amounts originally scheduled had each been paid as and when scheduled. For example, a Noteholder will no longer benefit from any improvement in market conditions or changes in prevailing interest rates between the PV (Remaining Coupons) determination date and any interest valuation dates that would have applied).

Risks related to Auction Settlement for CLNs and BLNs (where "ISDA Bond Event" applies)

For Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a credit risk, if Auction Settlement is applicable and: (i) in respect of a CLN, one or more Credit Event(s) occurs in respect of one or more underlying Long Reference Entity(ies); or (ii) in respect of a BLN, one or more Bond Event(s) occurs in respect of one or more underlying Reference Entity(ies) (where "ISDA Bond Event" applies); or (iii) in respect of a CLN, no Credit Event(s) occur in respect of one or more Short Reference Entity(ies), the formula for determining the Auction Settlement Amount in the case of (i) and (ii) and the Auction Credit Protection Amount in the case of (iii), uses the Auction Final Price, which will be determined in the relevant Auction Settlement Transaction Terms.

The Auction Final Price may be different to the market value that would otherwise have been determined in respect of the specified Reference Entity or its obligations which will lead to a different return to Noteholders. In particular, the Auction process may be affected by technical factors or operational errors, which would not otherwise apply or may be the subject of actual or attempted manipulation. Neither the Calculation Agent, the Issuer nor any of their respective affiliates has any responsibility for verifying that any Auction price is reflective of current market values, for establishing any Auction methodology or for verifying that any Auction has been conducted in accordance with its rules. Noteholders will have no right to submit bids and/or offers in an Auction solely by virtue of holding CLNs or BLNs. Neither the Calculation Agent, the Issuer nor any of their respective affiliates has any responsibility to dispute any determination of an Auction Final Price.

Following a "Restructuring" Credit Event in relation to which there are one or more concurrent Auctions, the Calculation Agent may elect that the Auction Final Price is determined by reference to any concurrent Auction. Therefore, the Auction Final Price so determined may be different from the amount which would have been otherwise determined or as might have otherwise been expected by the Noteholder.

Where the CLNs or BLNs are settled following the occurrence of a Credit Event by reference to an Auction, the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or its affiliates may act as a participating bidder in any such Auction and, in such capacity, may take certain actions which may influence the Auction Final Price including (without limitation) submitting bids, offers and physical settlement requests with respect to the obligations of the Reference Entity. If the Issuer or its affiliates participate in an Auction, then they will do so without regard to the interests of Noteholders, and such participation may have a material adverse effect on the outcome of the relevant Auction and/or on the CLNs or BLNs.

Risks associated with Credit Derivatives Determinations Committees

The institutions which are members of each Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee owe no duty to the Noteholders and have the ability to make determinations that may materially affect the Noteholders, such as the occurrence of a Credit Event or a Succession Event. A Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee may be able to make determinations without action or knowledge of the Noteholders. Noteholders may have no recourse against either the institutions serving on a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee or the external reviewers.

Noteholders may have no role in the composition of any Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee. Separate criteria apply with respect to the selection of institutions to serve on a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee and the Noteholders may have no role in establishing such criteria. In addition, the composition of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee will change from time to time in accordance with the rules of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, as the term of an institution may expire or an institution may be required to be replaced. The Noteholders may have no control over the process for selecting institutions to participate on a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee and, to the extent provided for in the CLNs or BLNs, will be subject to the determinations made by such selected institutions in accordance with the rules of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee.

Noteholders should also be aware that institutions serving on a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee have no duty to research or verify the veracity of information on which a specific determination is based. In addition, a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee is not obligated to follow previous determinations and, therefore, could reach a conflicting determination on a similar set of facts. If the Issuer, the Calculation Agent or any of their respective affiliates serve as a member of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee at any time, then they will act without regard to the interests of the Noteholders.

In certain circumstances, for example where: (i) a Credit Event has occurred and the related credit loss has not been determined as at the relevant date for payment; (ii) where a potential Credit Event exists as at the Scheduled Maturity Date of the CLNs or BLNs; or (iii) pending a resolution of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, payment of the Final Redemption Amount in respect of the CLN or BLN may be deferred for a material period in whole or part without compensation to the Noteholders. Noteholders should be aware that in no event interest accrued or any other compensation shall become payable as a consequence of such suspension or deferral.

If the Calculation Agent determines that, under the terms of the CLNs and BLNs, the obligations of the parties would be suspended pending a resolution of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee all of the obligations of the Issuer under each CLN or BLN (including any obligation to deliver any notices, pay any interest, principal or redemption amount or to make any delivery) shall be and remain suspended until ISDA publicly announces that the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has resolved the matter in question or has resolved not to determine the matter in question. The Calculation Agent will provide notice of such suspension as soon as reasonably practicable; however, any failure or delay by the Calculation Agent in providing such notice will not affect the validity or effect of such suspension. Noteholders should be aware that in no event shall interest accrue or any other compensation become payable as a consequence of such suspension or deferral.

Noteholders are responsible for obtaining information relating to deliberations of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee. Notices of questions referred to the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, meetings held to deliberate such questions and the results of binding votes will be published on the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee's website (currently located at: .cdsdeterminationscommittees.org/) and neither the Issuer, the Calculation Agent nor any of their respective affiliates shall be obliged to inform the Noteholders of such information. Failure by the Noteholders to be aware of information relating to deliberations of a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee will have no effect under the CLNs and BLNs and Noteholders are solely responsible for obtaining any such information.

The rules of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee (published 2 October 2020) (<https://www.cdsdeterminationscommittees.org/dc-rules/>), as they exist as of the date of this Base Prospectus, may be amended from time to time without the consent or input of the Noteholders and the powers of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee may be expanded or modified as a result.

The Unwind Costs will be determined by the Calculation Agent and may result in significant losses for Noteholders

For Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to a credit risk, the Unwind Costs may comprise costs, expenses (including any funding arrangements and/or any financing loss), taxes and fees incurred by the Issuer and its affiliates in relation to the redemption of Notes and the unwinding, cancellation, settlement or related restoration of any Hedge Transaction, and may be substantial.

If "Non-Standard Credit Unwind Costs" is specified as applicable in the relevant Final Terms, the Unwind Costs for the CLN or BLN shall be as set out above plus all costs, expenses (including financing loss), taxes and fees incurred by the Issuer and its affiliates in relation to the unwinding, cancellation, termination, settlement or related restoration of any Internal Currency Swap thereby reducing further any amount to be paid to Noteholders.

Risks relating to Warrant Linked Notes

Determination of Extraordinary Events and Additional Disruption Events

The Calculation Agent may determine the occurrence of an Extraordinary Event or Additional Disruption Event in relation to the Warrant Linked Notes. Upon such determination, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem the Warrant Linked Notes in whole at the Early Redemption Amount which may be less than the amount initially invested in the Warrant Linked Notes. Noteholders will not benefit from any appreciation of the Warrants that may occur following such redemption.

Warrant Early Termination Event

If certain events occur in relation to the relevant Warrant Underlying, the Warrant Issuer and/or the Warrant Calculation Agent (as applicable) may make adjustments to certain of the terms of the Warrants as it determines appropriate or, if it determines that it is unable to make any such adjustment, terminate the Warrants at their market value less any costs associated with the early termination of the Warrants including the costs of unwinding any hedging arrangements relating to the Warrants or the Warrant Linked Notes. Warrant Linked Notes will be subject to early termination if a Warrant Early Termination Event (as defined in Condition 9(a) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (Early Redemption as a result of a Warrant Early Termination Event)) occurs. Upon the occurrence of a Warrant Early Termination Event, Natixis Structured Issuance will redeem the Warrant Linked Notes at the Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 9(a) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (Early Redemption as a result of a Warrant Early Termination Event)). The Early Redemption Amount may be less (and in certain circumstances, significantly less) than investors' initial investment in the relevant Notes.

Risks relating to Preference Share Linked Notes

Exposure to the Preference Share Underlying

The Preference Share Underlying may be one or more underlying asset(s) which may include, but will not be limited to, equity, debt or derivative securities, indices, investments, funds, exchange traded funds, commodities, baskets of securities or indices, currencies, portfolios and trading strategies, which may change over time as a result of performance or other factors, as may be determined by the Preference Share Issuer or the Preference Share Determination Agent and specified in the Preference Share Terms and Conditions of the relevant Class of Preference Shares.

Investors should carefully consider the following risks associated with these asset classes, on the basis that the Preference Shares to which the Notes are linked will be affected by their exposure to the relevant Preference Share Underlying.

Adjustments or early redemptions

In certain circumstances (such as the Issuer receiving notice from the Preference Share Issuer or the Preference Share Determination Agent that the Preference Shares will be redeemed early following the occurrence of certain events in relation to the Preference Shares or the Preference Share Issuer (such as an illegality, a change in law that results in the Preference Share Issuer being subject to additional regulation or an external event affecting an underlying asset to which the Preference Shares are linked)), the Issuer will redeem the Preference Share Linked Notes early at the Early Redemption Amount in accordance with Condition 19 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (Terms for Preference Share Linked Notes), as determined by it or the Calculation Agent without the consent of the holders of the Preference Share Linked Notes. The Issuer or the Calculation Agent may determine the occurrence of an extraordinary Event or Additional Disruption Event in relation to the Preference Share Linked Notes. Upon such determination, the Issuer may, at its option redeem the Preference Share Linked Notes in whole at the Early Redemption Amount. Only with respect to English Law Notes, if Natixis Structured Issuance (or a substitute for Natixis Structured Issuance) decides to substitute for itself as principal debtor for the Preference Share Linked Notes another company and the Issuer or the Calculation Agent determines that any tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge may be imposed on any Noteholder by (or by any authority in or of) the United Kingdom that would not be so imposed if the substitution is not made, the Issuer may, at its option redeem the Preference Share Linked Notes in whole at the Early Redemption Amount. The Early Redemption Amount may be less than the amount invested in the Preference Share Linked Notes and could be as low as zero.

If certain events occur in relation to the relevant Preference Share Underlying, the Preference Share Issuer and/or the Preference Share Determination Agent (as applicable) may make adjustments to certain of the terms of the Preference Shares as it determines appropriate or, if it determines that it is unable to make any such adjustment, terminate the Preference Shares at their market value less any costs associated with the early termination of the Preference Shares including the costs of unwinding any hedging arrangements relating to the Preference Shares or the Preference Share Linked Notes. Preference Share Linked Notes will be subject to early termination if a Preference Share Early Termination Event (as defined in Condition 19(a) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (Early Redemption as a result of a Preference Share Early Termination Event)) in relation to the relevant Preference Share Underlying, the Preference Share Issuer and/or the Preference Share Determination Agent (as applicable) occurs. Upon the occurrence of a Preference Share Early Termination Event, the relevant Issuer will redeem the Preference Share Linked Notes at the Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 19(a) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (Early Redemption as a result of a Preference Share Early Termination Event)). The Early Redemption Amount may be less (and in certain circumstances, significantly less) than holders' initial investment in the relevant Notes. In addition, the early redemption amount payable may be predetermined, determined pursuant to a formula or strategy, determined to be the market value of the Notes or otherwise determined as set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and as a result, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and holders may lose all or some of their investment.

Following early redemption of Preference Share Linked Notes, the holders of such Preference Share Linked Notes may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds on terms as favourable as those of the Preference Share Linked Notes being redeemed. Holders of Preference Share Linked Notes should consider such reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Credit and fraud risk of the Preference Share Issuer

Preference Share Linked Notes are linked to the performance of the relevant Preference Shares issued by the relevant Preference Share Issuer. Holders bear the Preference Share Issuer risk. The value of the Preference Share Linked Notes is dependent on the value of the Preference Share, which is dependent on the creditworthiness of the Preference Share Issuer, which may vary over the term of the Preference Share Linked Notes. The Preference Share Issuer is not an operating company. Its sole business activity is the issue of redeemable preference shares. The Preference Share Issuer does not have any trading assets and does not generate any significant net income. As its funds are limited any misappropriation of funds or other fraudulent action by the Preference Share Issuer or person acting on its behalf would have a significant effect on the value of the Preference Shares which would affect the value of the Preference Share Linked Notes. For more information on the Preference Share Issuer, please see the section of this Base Prospectus headed "Description of the Preference Share Issuer and the Preference Shares".

Risks relating to inability to observe the price, value or level of the Underlying(s) in the event of Market Disruption Event

Determination of the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable on Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to one or more Underlying(s), requires observing the price, value or level of the Underlying(s) on the relevant market(s) or from a particular source of information. Market Disruption Events as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may occur and prevent the Calculation Agent from making these determinations.

Such Market Disruption Events may occur if the relevant market or markets do not open during their normal trading sessions or close early or in the event of the suspension or restriction of trading imposed by the relevant markets or more generally in the event of the disruption or reduced ability of the participants in such markets to trade on the affected Underlying(s).

Should any such Market Disruption Event occurs, the Calculation Agent shall postpone observation of the price, value or level of the Underlying(s) until the next following trading day on the relevant market(s) or, if relevant, in particular if the Calculation Agent must determine an average of the prices, values or levels of the affected Underlying(s), until the next following Scheduled Trading Day on the relevant market(s) which is not a Disrupted Day. If the Market Disruption Event continues, the Calculation Agent shall determine in good faith the price, value or level of the affected Underlying(s).

The price, value or level of the affected Underlying(s) may be significantly different from the price, value or level published immediately prior to the occurrence of the Market Disruption Event.

Where determining the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable under Notes whose interest amounts and/or redemption amounts are linked to or make reference to one or more Underlying(s) requires observing the price, value or level of the Underlying(s) on the relevant market(s) during a pre-determined period, the Calculation Agent may have to ignore a particular day in calculating the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, payable on the Notes.

Postponing observation of the price, value or level of the affected Underlying(s), or ignoring the day on which a market disruption event occurred, may reduce all or part of the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts, as the case may be, as well as the value of the Notes. This risk will be exacerbated in the event of significant volatility of the affected Underlying(s). As a result, Noteholders may lose all or part of their initial investment.

Risks relating to the Calculation Agent's discretionary powers

The Calculation Agent, being responsible for making the determinations and adjustments required for the Notes has the discretionary power to make the calculations, observations and adjustments set forth in the Terms of the Notes. The Calculation Agent's decisions may also, subject as provided in the Terms of the Notes, result in early redemption of the Notes.

All decisions taken by the Calculation Agent are binding on the Issuer, the Noteholders and, if relevant, the Guarantor.

Given the discretionary nature of the decisions taken by the Calculation Agent, it is possible that these do not match investors' expectations and that the interest amounts and/or redemption amounts and calculations made by the Calculation Agent may affect the value of, return on and interest amounts and/or redemption amounts payable on, the Notes in a manner unfavourable to Noteholders. This is particularly the case if the financial terms and conditions relating to one or more Underlying(s) are adjusted or, if applicable, if one or more Underlying(s) are replaced. Such adjustments may result in a reduced return on the Notes or in Noteholders losing all or part of their investment. Furthermore, if the Notes are redeemed early, the Calculation Agent shall determine the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes which may be predetermined, determined pursuant to a formula or strategy, determined to be the market value of the Notes or otherwise determined as set out in the Terms of the Notes and as a result, the value of the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment.

2.5 Risks relating to Renminbi denominated Notes

Notes denominated in Renminbi (the Renminbi Notes) may be issued under the Programme. Renminbi Notes contain particular risks for potential investors.

Renminbi is not freely convertible and there are significant restrictions on the remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of Renminbi Notes.

Renminbi is not freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between Renminbi and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar.

However, there has been significant reduction in control by the PRC government in recent years, particularly over trade transactions involving import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items.

On the other hand, remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for the settlement of capital account items, such as capital contributions, debt financing and securities investment, is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from, or completing specific registrations or filings with, the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and is subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for settlement of capital account items are being adjusted from time to time to match the policies of the PRC government.

Although the People's Bank of China (the PBOC) has implemented policies improving accessibility to Renminbi to settle cross-border transactions in the past, there is no assurance that the PRC government will liberalise control over cross-border remittance of Renminbi in the future, that the schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or out of the PRC. Despite Renminbi internationalisation pilot programme and efforts in recent years to internationalise the currency, there can be no assurance that the PRC government will not impose interim or long-term restrictions on the cross-border remittance of Renminbi. In the event that funds cannot be repatriated out of the PRC in Renminbi, this may affect the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC and the ability of the relevant Issuer to source Renminbi to finance its obligations under Notes denominated in Renminbi.

There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Notes and the relevant Issuer's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service Renminbi Notes.

As a result of the restrictions by the PRC Government on cross-border Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside the PRC is limited. While the PBOC has entered into agreements (the Settlement Arrangements) on the clearing of Renminbi business with financial institutions (the Renminbi Clearing Banks) in a number of financial centres and cities, including but not limited to Hong Kong, it has established the Cross-Border Inter-Bank Payments System (CIPS) to facilitate cross-border Renminbi settlement and is further in the process of establishing Renminbi clearing and settlement mechanisms in several other jurisdictions, the current size of Renminbi denominated financial assets outside the PRC is limited.

There are restrictions imposed by PBOC on Renminbi business participating banks in respect of cross-border Renminbi settlement, such as those relating to direct transactions with PRC enterprises. Furthermore, Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from PBOC, although PBOC has gradually allowed participating banks to access the PRC's onshore inter-bank market for the purchase and sale of Renminbi. The Renminbi Clearing Banks only have limited access to onshore liquidity support from PBOC for the purpose of squaring open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions and are not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services. In cases where the participating banks cannot source sufficient Renminbi through the above channels, they will need to source Renminbi from outside the PRC to square such open positions.

The offshore Renminbi market is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the Settlement Arrangements will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside the PRC. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Notes. To the extent the relevant Issuer is required to source Renminbi in the offshore market to service its Renminbi Notes, there is no assurance that the relevant Issuer will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all.

Investment in the Renminbi Notes is subject to exchange rate risks.

The value of Renminbi against other foreign currencies fluctuates from time to time and is affected by changes in the PRC and international political and economic conditions as well as many other factors. The PBOC has in recent years implemented changes to the way it calculates the Renminbi's daily mid-point against the U.S. dollar to take into account market-maker quotes before announcing such daily mid-point. This change, and others that may be implemented, may increase the volatility in the value of the Renminbi against foreign currencies. All payments of interest and principal will be made in Renminbi with respect to Renminbi Notes unless otherwise specified. As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments may vary with the changes in the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against another foreign currency, the value of the investment made by a holder of the Renminbi Notes in that foreign currency will decline.

Payments with respect to the Renminbi Notes may be made only in the manner designated in the Renminbi Notes.

All payments to investors in respect of the Renminbi Notes will be made solely: (i) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are represented by Bearer Global Notes or Registered Global Notes held with the common depository for Clearstream and Euroclear, deposited with a custodian of DTC or any alternative clearing system, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank clears and settles Renminbi, if so specified in the Final Terms; (ii) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are represented by Bearer Global Notes or Registered Global Notes lodged with a sub-custodian for or registered with the CMU, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing CMU rules and procedures; or (iii) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank clears and settles Renminbi, if so specified in the Final Terms in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations. The relevant Issuer cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

3. RISK FACTORS APPLICABLE TO SECURED NOTES

These risk factors must be taken into account when the Final Terms specify that the Notes are "Secured Notes".

An investment in the Secured Notes involves certain risks, including risks relating to the Collateral Assets, or other Charged Assets, and risks relating to the structure and rights of such Secured Notes.

3.1 Risk Factors applicable to all Secured Notes

The risk factors set out below relate to Secured Notes, which are subject to the provisions set out at Condition 20 (Secured Notes Provisions) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes.

3.1.1 The Secured Notes constitute limited recourse obligations of NCIBL

Pursuant to Condition 3(b) (Secured Notes issued by NCIBL) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 3(b) (Secured Notes issued by NCIBL) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, as applicable, the Secured Notes are direct, secured, limited recourse obligations of NCIBL payable upon enforcement solely out of the assets over which NCIBL has granted security in favour of the Security Trustee (in the case of English Law Notes) or the Security Agent (in the case of French Law Notes). NCIBL will have no other assets or sources of revenue other than its rights under the Collateral assets and, where applicable, any other Charged Assets for the relevant Series of Secured Notes. Pursuant to Condition 20.2(f)(A) (Limited Recourse against the Issuer) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, if the proceeds of the realisation of the Collateral Assets and any other Charged Assets are insufficient to make payments on the relevant Series of Secured Notes, no other assets of NCIBL will be available for payment of any shortfall and the holders of Secured Notes will have no recourse against the Issuer in respect of any amounts due to them which remain unpaid, and any right of the Noteholders to receive any further sums in respect of the Secured Notes shall be extinguished in full. Furthermore, pursuant to Condition 20.2(f)(C) (Non-petition) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, by acquiring and holding Secured Notes, Noteholders will be deemed to acknowledge and agree that they will not take any steps or initiate proceedings to procure the winding-up, administration or liquidation (or any other analogous proceeding) of the Issuer. As a result, the return on the Secured Notes may be less than initially anticipated and Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment.

3.1.2 Collateral Assets

Holders of Secured Notes will be exposed to the credit risk of the relevant Collateral Assets. In this regard the following risks apply, which in each case may adversely affect the value of the Secured Notes, particularly in the case where the Collateral Assets are realised following an enforcement of the security for the Secured Notes: (i) Collateral Assets may comprise illiquid assets and it may be difficult to accurately and reliably value or realise such Collateral Assets; (ii) some or all of the Collateral Assets could be comprised of below investment grade assets which have greater credit and liquidity risk than investment grade assets; (iii) equity securities may be included as Collateral Assets and may fluctuate in value and experience volatility to a greater extent than debt securities; (iv) where the Collateral Assets are subordinated obligations, they will be junior to certain obligations of the issuer of those Collateral Assets and carry an increased risk of loss in the event of the insolvency of the issuer of those assets; (v) the price and value of Collateral Assets may be influenced by the political, financial and economic stability of the country and/or region associated with such Collateral Assets; and (vi) this may be a greater risk where the Collateral Assets are limited to one or a few assets or assets between which there is a correlation in respect of value or risk.

At the same time, save where Collateral Assets delivered to the Noteholders where “Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets” is indicated as “Applicable” in the relevant Final Terms, the holders of Secured Notes will not have voting rights or rights to receive dividends or distributions nor any other rights relating to the Collateral Assets. If the proceeds from the realization of the Collateral Pool are insufficient to make payments for the relevant Series of Secured Notes, the Noteholders themselves will not have any right of recourse under the Secured Notes to any such Collateral Assets.

3.1.3 Secured Note acceleration events and enforcement of the security interests

Noteholders of any relevant Series holding no less than 25 per cent. of the outstanding aggregate amount of the Secured Notes of such Series are (or, in the case of French Law Notes only, the Representative of the Masse pursuant to a request of a Noteholder is) only entitled to send a Collateral Enforcement Notice if an Event of Default has occurred in respect of the Notes, in each case subject to procedures and timing provided for in the Secured Notes. Prior to enforcement, there may be a depreciation in the value of the relevant Collateral Assets, thus reducing the amount available to satisfy the claims of Noteholders upon realisation of the Collateral Assets. In addition, in the case of a Multiple Series Collateral Pool, if a Secured Note acceleration event occurs in relation to a one or more Secured Notes, all Secured Notes which are secured by the same Collateral Pool will also become immediately due and repayable. Claims of secured Noteholders of all such accelerated Series will therefore be met from the same Collateral Pool.

If the proceeds of the realisation of the Collateral Pool are insufficient to make payments on the relevant Series of Secured Notes, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment. If the proceeds of the realisation of the Collateral Pool are insufficient to make payments on the relevant Series of Secured Notes, the return on the Notes may be less than initially anticipated and Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment.

3.1.4 Illiquid Collateral Assets

The Collateral Assets comprised in some Collateral Pools may comprise assets that are not admitted to any public trading market and may be illiquid and not readily realisable. Where there is limited liquidity in the secondary market relating to any relevant Collateral Assets, the Disposal Agent (or its agent) or the Security Trustee (or its agent or any receiver appointed by it) if the relevant Secured Notes are English Law Notes or the Security Agent (or its agent), as the case may be, if the relevant Secured Notes are French Law Notes may not be able to sell such Collateral Assets to a third party and there may be no proceeds to distribute to Noteholders. As a result, Noteholders of any relevant Series of Secured Notes may be adversely affected, as they may not receive payments in respect of their Secured Notes until such Collateral Assets mature or are redeemed in accordance with their terms or following any liquidation or realisation of such Collateral Assets. The maturity of such Collateral Assets may be after the date of redemption of the relevant Secured Notes.

3.1.5 Subordination of Noteholders to payment of expenses, payments and prior ranking claims

Following the enforcement of security in respect of any Secured Notes, the rights of Secured Notes Noteholders rank behind claims relating to any amounts payable to any Secured Parties ranking prior to such holders in accordance with the relevant Order of Priority. This will reduce the amount available to be paid to the Noteholders in the event of enforcement of the security and increase the likelihood of the Noteholders suffering a loss of all or some of their investment. In particular, where any relevant Counterparty is specified as the "Priority Secured Party" in the applicable Final Terms, claims of that Counterparty shall rank prior to the claims of the Noteholders, except if a Default-Related Mandatory Termination Event has occurred and continues on the relevant date in which case the Noteholders will be the Priority Secured Party.

3.1.6 Reliance on Collateral Service Providers and potential conflicts of interest

As described in the section entitled "Description of the Roles and Parties and Transaction Documents in respect of a Series of Secured Notes" of this Base Prospectus, the Issuer is party to agreements with the Collateral Service Providers (as defined in Condition 20.1 (Definitions) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes). Collateral Service Providers may include the Collateral Custodian, the Collateral Account Bank, the Disposal Agent, the Collateral Netting Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Securities Valuation Agent, as applicable. These Collateral Service Providers have agreed to perform services in relation to the Secured Notes. Noteholders may be negatively affected if any such party is unable to perform its obligations under the Notes.

In addition, various potential conflicts of interest could arise between the Collateral Service Providers (which may be affiliates of the Issuer such as NATIXIS), on the one hand, and the holders of Secured Notes, on the other hand. The Collateral Service Providers are not required to resolve any such conflicts of interest in favour of the holders of Secured Notes and may take such measures as they deem necessary or appropriate to protect their interests without regard to the consequences of these actions on the holders of Secured Notes. The actions of the Collateral Service Providers could affect the market value or liquidity of the Collateral Assets and be considered adverse to the interests of the relevant Noteholders.

3.1.7 Physical Delivery of Collateral

If Physical Delivery of Collateral is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms in respect of a Series of Secured Notes upon enforcement of the relevant security interests, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent or the Disposal Agent (as the case may be) will not sell the Collateral Assets but will instead deliver or cause to be delivered the Collateral Assets Entitlement. Holders of Secured Notes will be exposed to fluctuations in the price of the Collateral Assets according to market conditions, which may negatively affect the return they receive and in some cases delivery of Collateral Assets may be disrupted or ultimately replaced by cash settlement.

3.1.8 Scope of the Secured Notes Guarantee

The Secured Notes Guarantee provided by NATIXIS in respect of any Series of Secured Notes that are Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms is not a guarantee to deliver any securities or pay any interest amount and/or Final Redemption Amount in respect of such Series of Secured Notes but is a guarantee to pay an amount equal to the Guaranteed Early Redemption Amount in respect of such Series of Secured Notes as determined in accordance with the Conditions. As a result, and depending on the Guaranteed Early Redemption Amount applicable, Holders of Secured Notes may receive less than the amount of interest and/or Final Redemption Amount payable if NCIBL had performed its obligations under the Secured Notes and/or if payment of such amounts had been guaranteed in full by NATIXIS (as is the case with the Unsecured Notes Guarantee for Unsecured Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Secured Notes Guarantee will not be applicable with regards to any Collateral-Backed Notes or to any Collateral-Linked Notes in respect of which either: (i) "Structure 1" or "Structure 3" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms; or (ii) either: (x) the Early Redemption Amount in respect of each Collateral-Linked Note of the relevant Series is its Collateral Liquidation Proceeds Share; or (y) Monetisation is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms.

In addition, the bail-in power may apply to the Secured Notes Guarantee. Therefore, in the event of an bail-in of NATIXIS, the obligations and/or amounts owed by NATIXIS under the Secured Notes Guarantee will be reduced to take into account any modification or reduction applied to NATIXIS's liabilities resulting from the implementation of a bail-in of NATIXIS by any competent authority (including in a situation where the Secured Notes Guarantee itself is not subject to such bail-in) and the Noteholders of Secured Notes issued by NCIBL and guaranteed by NATIXIS could thus lose all or part of their initial investment.

3.2 Risk Factors applicable to Secured Notes that are Collateral-Backed Notes

3.2.1 Fluctuation in value of the Collateral Assets

Pursuant to Condition 20.3(a) (Valuation of Collateral and Secured Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, in order to ensure that a Series of Secured Notes is collateralized in accordance with its terms, the Collateral Value and the Market Value of the Secured Notes of each Series of Secured Notes secured by this Collateral Pool will each be tested on the Issue Date of this Series of Secured Bonds and on each Collateral Test Date specified in the relevant Final Terms. However, the valuation of the Collateral Assets may vary after a Collateral Test Date and consequently the value of the Collateral Assets at the time of liquidation or realization of the Collateral Assets may not be sufficient to ensure that, following enforcement of security, the amounts available for distribution or the value of the Collateral Assets available to be delivered will be sufficient to pay all amounts otherwise due to Noteholders in respect of the relevant Secured Notes. If this amount is less than the amounts owed to the relevant Noteholders, they could lose all or part of their investment.

3.2.2 "Haircut" applied to Collateral Assets

The level(s) of Haircut specified in the applicable Final Terms is intended to reflect the risk of a depreciation in the value of Collateral Assets in the period between the most recent Collateral Test Date and the date on which such Collateral Assets may be realised. The value of a Collateral Asset may change over time and the Haircut may not provide suitable protection against a significant depreciation in value of the relevant Collateral Asset. Any such depreciation in value of the Collateral Assets will mean that there is less cash available to NCIBL to make payments and increase the Noteholders' risk lose all or some of their investment.

3.2.3 Frequency of Collateral Test Dates

The less frequent the Collateral Test Dates in respect of any relevant Series, the greater the risk that the Collateral Value of the relevant Collateral Assets is less than to the Required Collateral Value at any relevant time. In these circumstances, it may be more likely that, upon enforcement of the security, a Noteholder's share of the proceeds of enforcement or the value of the Collateral Assets delivered, will be less than the amounts otherwise due and as a result Noteholders may lose all or some of their investment.

3.2.4 Early Redemption following a Collateral Disruption Event

Pursuant to Condition 20.3(i) (Collateral Disruption Events in respect of Collateral-Backed Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, if the Issuer or Calculation Agent determines that a Collateral Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer may redeem the relevant Secured Notes at the Early Redemption Amount or purchase and cancel, as applicable, all (but not some only) of the relevant Secured Notes following the occurrence of such Collateral Disruption Event. The market value payable in the event of early redemption could be lower, in particular in the event of a deterioration in market conditions, than the amount that would have been paid if the Notes had been redeemed on the Maturity Date and the Noteholders could lose all or part of their initial investment.

3.3 Risk Factors applicable to Secured Notes that are Collateral-Linked Notes

3.3.1 Reliance on the Creditworthiness of the Counterparty(ies) (which may be NATIXIS) under any relevant Hedging Agreement(s)

The ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Collateral-Linked Notes will be dependent on its receipt of payments and deliveries from the relevant Counterparty(ies) under any relevant Hedging Agreement(s) (which may include, in particular, Repurchase Agreements, Securities Lending Agreements, Pledge GMSLAs or Swap Agreements, depending on the terms of the relevant Final Terms) as these cash flows are described in more details in the section entitled "Description of the underlying structures and applicable hedging arrangements in respect of Secured Notes that can be issued under Condition 20 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes" of this Base Prospectus. Consequently, holders of Secured Notes are relying on both the performance and/or market value of the relevant Collateral Assets, and on the creditworthiness of the relevant Counterparty(ies). If the relevant Counterparty(ies) is unable to pay the sums due under the any relevant Hedging Agreement(s), Noteholders may lose all or a substantial part of their investment.

When specified in the relevant Final Terms, NATIXIS may act as Counterparty for a relevant Series of Secured Notes, in which case the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations under the Collateral Linked Notes will depend on the solvency of NATIXIS. For a better assessment of the risk factors relating to NATIXIS, please consult the paragraph "Risk factors relating to NATIXIS as Issuer or Guarantor" of this Base Prospectus.

3.3.2 Collateral under any relevant Hedging Agreement

The Issuer and any relevant Counterparty may enter into Credit Support Arrangements as defined in Condition 20.1 (Definitions) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes and as specified where applicable in the relevant Final Terms. In this case, the Issuer may be obliged to post collateral under any relevant Credit Support Arrangement. This may include Collateral Assets, thereby reducing the amount of Collateral Assets then available on enforcement. This will reduce the amount available to be paid to the noteholders in the event of enforcement of the security and increase the likelihood of the Noteholder suffering a loss of all or some of their investment. This will reduce the amount available to be paid to the Noteholders in the event of enforcement of the Collateral Assets and increase the likelihood of the Noteholder suffering a loss of all or some of their investment.

3.3.3 Early Redemption following a Mandatory Redemption Event

Pursuant to Condition 20.6(c) (Mandatory Redemption Event) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, if a Mandatory Redemption Event (as defined in Condition 20.1 (Definitions) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes and if specified as Applicable, as the case may be, in the relevant Final Terms) occurs the Issuer shall redeem all (but not some only) of the Secured Notes of the relevant Series of Secured Notes at their Early Redemption Amount.

The Early Redemption Amount following a Mandatory Redemption Event could be less than the amount that would have been paid if the Notes had been redeemed on the Maturity Date and the Noteholders could lose all or part of their initial investment.

	Annex to the Final Terms in relation to the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes
Supplement dated 23 October 2023	Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes Form of Final Terms	43 44 54 to 56

For the avoidance of doubt, the introduction paragraph of each former Forms of Final Terms incorporated by reference hereof is no longer valid. Therefore, in the event (i) of an issuance of a new Tranche of a Series of Notes initially issued pursuant a previous Base Prospectus, or (ii) that any Notes for which the Issue Date fell under a former Base Prospectus are being admitted to trading on a regulated market under this Base Prospectus, then the new Final Terms shall be prepared and only use as introduction the introduction paragraph of the Form of Final Terms included in this Base Prospectus.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE BASE PROSPECTUS

Every significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy relating to the information included in the Base Prospectus which may affect the assessment of the Notes and which arises or is noted between the time when this Base Prospectus is approved by the CSSF and the closing of the offer period or the time when trading on a Regulated Market begins, whichever occurs later, shall be mentioned by NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL in a supplement to the Base Prospectus without undue delay in accordance with Article 23 of Prospectus Regulation or in a Base Prospectus prepared by NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL to replace this document and applicable to any subsequent offer of Notes or admission to trading on a Regulated Market. NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL undertake to submit for approval to the CSSF such supplement to the Base Prospectus and to provide each dealer and the CSSF with the number of copies of this supplement that they may reasonably request.

In accordance with Article 23.2 of Prospectus Regulation, under certain circumstances investors shall have the right, exercisable within two (2) working days after the publication of the supplement (period which may be extended by the Issuer), to withdraw their acceptances. The conditions of such right of withdrawal shall be stated in the relevant supplement.

Any supplement to the Base Prospectus shall be published on the websites of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange website (www.luxse.com) and of the Issuers (<https://cib.natixis.com/Home/pims/Prospectus#/prospectusPublic>).

CONDITIONS RELATING TO THE CONSENT OF THE ISSUERS TO THE USE OF THE BASE PROSPECTUS

Certain Tranches of Notes with a denomination of less than €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency) may be offered in circumstances where there is no exemption from the obligation under the Prospectus Regulation to publish a prospectus. Any such offer is referred to as a Non-Exempt Offer.

Restrictions on Non-Exempt Offers of Notes in relevant Member States

This Base Prospectus has been prepared on a basis that permits Non-Exempt Offers of Notes in the EEA (each specified Member State a Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdiction and together the Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdictions). Any person making or intending to make a Non-Exempt Offer of Notes on the basis of this Base Prospectus must do so only with the relevant Issuer's consent to the use of this Base Prospectus as provided under "Consent given in accordance with Article 5(1) of the Prospectus Regulation" below and provided such person complies with the conditions attached to that consent.

This Base Prospectus contemplates Non-Exempt offers in the following jurisdictions: Belgium, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Spain, and/or Sweden.

Consent given in accordance with Article 5(1) of the Prospectus Regulation

In the context of a Non-Exempt Offer of Notes, the relevant Issuer and the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) accept responsibility, in each of the Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdictions, for the content of this Base Prospectus in relation to any person (an Investor) who purchases any Notes in a Non-Exempt Offer made by a Dealer or an Authorised Offeror (as defined below), where that offer is made during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms and provided that the conditions attached to the giving of consent for the use of this Base Prospectus are complied with. The consent and conditions attached to it are set out under "Consent" and "Common Conditions to Consent" below.

None of the Issuers, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or any Dealer makes any representation as to the compliance by an Authorised Offeror with any applicable conduct of business rules or other applicable regulatory or securities law requirements in relation to any Non-Exempt Offer and none of the Issuers, the Guarantor (as the case may be) or any Dealer has any responsibility or liability for the actions of that Authorised Offeror.

Except in the circumstances set out in the following paragraphs, neither of the Issuers nor the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) has authorised the making of any Non-Exempt Offer by any offeror and none of them have consented to the use of this Base Prospectus by any other person in connection with any Non-Exempt Offer of Notes. Any Non-Exempt Offer made without the consent of the relevant Issuer is unauthorised and neither of the Issuers, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) nor, for the avoidance of doubt, any Dealer accepts any responsibility or liability in relation to such offer or for the actions of the persons making any such unauthorised offer. If, in the context of a Non-Exempt Offer, an Investor is offered Notes by a person which is not an Authorised Offeror, the Investor should check with that person whether anyone is responsible for this Base Prospectus for the purposes of the relevant Non-Exempt Offer and, if so, who that person is. If the Investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on this Base Prospectus and/or who is responsible for its contents it should take legal advice.

The financial intermediaries referred to in sub-paragraphs (a)(ii), (a)(iii) and paragraph (a) below are together the Authorised Offerors and each an Authorised Offeror.

Consent

In connection with each Tranche of Notes and subject to the conditions set out under "Common Conditions to Consent" below:

Non-consent

- (a) if Specific Consent and General Consent are specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer does not consent to the use by any financial intermediary of the Base Prospectus in connection with a Non-Exempt Offer of Notes;

Specific Consent

- (a) the relevant Issuer consents to the use of this Base Prospectus (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) in connection with a Non-Exempt Offer of such Notes by:

General Consent

- (a) if (and only if) Part B of the applicable Final Terms specifies "General Consent" as "Applicable", the relevant Issuer hereby offers to grant its consent to the use of this Base Prospectus (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) in connection with a Non-Exempt Offer of Notes by any other financial intermediary which satisfies the following conditions:
 - (i) it is authorised to make such offers under Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU); and
 - (ii) it accepts the relevant Issuer's offer to grant consent to the use of this Base Prospectus by publishing on its website the following statement (with the information in square brackets duly completed) (the Acceptance Statement):

"We, [insert legal name of financial intermediary], refer to the offer of [insert title of relevant Notes] (the Notes) described in the Final Terms dated [insert date] (the Final Terms) published by [NATIXIS/Natixis Structured Issuance/NCIBL] (the Issuer). In consideration of the Issuer offering to grant its consent to our use of the Base Prospectus (as defined in the Final Terms) in connection with the offer of the Notes in [specify Member State(s)] during the Offer Period and subject to the other conditions to such consent, each as specified in the Base Prospectus, we hereby accept the offer by the Issuer in accordance with the Authorised Offeror Terms (as specified in the Base Prospectus) and confirm that we are using the Base Prospectus accordingly."

The Authorised Offeror Terms, being the terms to which the relevant financial intermediary agrees in connection with using this Base Prospectus, are that the relevant financial intermediary:

- (A) will, and it agrees, represents, warrants and undertakes for the benefit of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer that it will, at all times in connection with the relevant Non-Exempt Offer:

- I act in accordance with, and be solely responsible for complying with, all applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidance of any applicable regulatory bodies (the Rules) from time to time including, without limitation and in each case, Rules relating to both the appropriateness or suitability of any investment in the Notes by any person and disclosure to any potential Investor;
- II comply with the restrictions set out under "Subscription and Sale" in this Base Prospectus which would apply if the relevant financial intermediary were a Dealer and consider the relevant manufacturer's target market assessment and distribution channels identified under the "MiFID II product governance" legend set out in the applicable Final Terms;
- III ensure that any fee (and any other commissions or benefits of any kind) or rebate received or paid by the relevant financial intermediary in relation to the offer or sale of the Notes does not violate the Rules and, to the extent required by the Rules, is fully and clearly disclosed to Investors or potential Investors;
- IV hold all licences, consents, approvals and permissions required in connection with solicitation of interest in, or offers or sales of, the Notes under the Rules;
- V comply with applicable anti-money laundering, fight against terrorism, anti-bribery, anti-corruption and "know your client" Rules (including, without limitation, taking appropriate steps, in compliance with such Rules, to establish and document the identity of each potential Investor prior to initial investment in any Notes by any potential Investor), and will not permit any application for Notes in circumstances where the financial intermediary has any suspicion as to the source of the application monies;
- VI retain Investor identification records for at least the minimum period required under applicable Rules, and shall, if so requested, and to the extent permitted by the Rules make such records available to the relevant Dealer, the relevant Issuer and the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or directly to the appropriate authorities with jurisdiction over the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and/or the relevant Dealer in order to enable the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and/or the relevant Dealer to comply with anti-money laundering, anti-bribery, anti-corruption and "know your client" Rules applying to the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure

4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer, as the case may be;

- VII ensure that it does not, directly or indirectly, cause the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer to breach any Rule or subject the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Secured Notes to which the Secured Notes Guarantee is applicable) or the relevant Dealer to any requirement to obtain or make any filing, authorisation or consent in any jurisdiction;
- VIII immediately inform the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer if at any time it becomes aware, or suspects, that it is or may be in violation of any Rules and take all appropriate steps to remedy such violation and comply with such Rules in all respects;
- IX comply with the conditions to the consent referred to under "Common Conditions to Consent" below and any further requirements or other Authorised Offeror Terms relevant to the Non-Exempt Offer as specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- X make available to each potential Investor in the Notes the Base Prospectus (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable), the applicable Final Terms and any applicable information booklet provided by the relevant Issuer for such purpose, and not convey or publish any information that is not contained in or entirely consistent with this Base Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms;
- XI if it conveys or publishes any communication (other than the Base Prospectus or any other materials provided to such financial intermediary by or on behalf of the relevant Issuer for the purposes of the relevant Non-Exempt Offer) in connection with the relevant Non-Exempt Offer, it will ensure that such communication (A) is fair, clear and not misleading and complies with the Rules, (B) states that such financial intermediary has provided such communication independently of the relevant Issuer, that such financial intermediary is solely responsible for such communication and that none of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer accepts any responsibility for such communication and (C) does not, without the prior written consent of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer (as applicable), use the legal or publicity names of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer or any other name, brand or logo registered by an entity within their respective groups or any material over which any such entity retains a proprietary interest, except to describe the relevant Issuer as issuer of the relevant Notes and the Guarantor as the guarantor of the relevant Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or of the Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is applicable on the basis set out in the Base Prospectus;

- XII ensure that no holder of Notes or potential Investor in Notes shall become an indirect or direct client of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer for the purposes of any applicable Rules from time to time, and to the extent that any client obligations are created by the relevant financial intermediary under any applicable Rules, then such financial intermediary shall perform any such obligations so arising;
- XIII co-operate with the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer in providing relevant information (including, without limitation, documents and records maintained pursuant to sub-paragraph (VI) above) and such further assistance as is reasonably requested upon written request from the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer in each case, as soon as is reasonably practicable and, in any event, within any time frame set by any such regulator or regulatory process. For this purpose, relevant information is information that is available to or can be acquired by the relevant financial intermediary:
- (i) in connection with any request or investigation by any regulator in relation to the Notes, the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer; and/or
 - (ii) in connection with any complaints received by the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and/or the relevant Dealer relating to the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and/or the relevant Dealer or another Authorised Offeror including, without limitation, complaints as defined in the Rules; and/or
 - (iii) which the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer may reasonably require from time to time in relation to the Notes and/or to allow the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer fully to comply with its own legal, tax and regulatory requirements;

- XIV during the period of the initial offering of the Notes: (i) only sell the Notes at the Issue Price specified in the applicable Final Terms (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer); (ii) only sell the Notes for settlement on the Issue Date specified in the applicable Final Terms; (iii) not appoint any sub-distributors (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer); (iv) not pay any fee or remuneration or commissions or benefits to any third parties in relation to the offering or sale of the Notes (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer); and (v) comply with such other rules of conduct as may be reasonably required and specified by the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer; and
- XV either (i) obtain from each potential Investor an executed application for the Notes, or (ii) keep a record of all requests the relevant financial intermediary (x) makes for its discretionary management clients, (y) receives from its advisory clients and (z) receives from its execution-only clients, in each case prior to making any order for the Notes on their behalf, and in each case maintain the same on its files for so long as is required by any applicable Rules;
- (B) agrees and undertakes to each of the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and the relevant Dealer that if it or any of its respective directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates and controlling persons (each a Relevant Party) incurs any losses, liabilities, costs, claims, charges, expenses, actions or demands (including reasonable costs of investigation and any defence raised thereto and counsel's fees and disbursements associated with any such investigation or defence) (a Loss) arising out of or in relation to, or in connection with, any breach of any of the foregoing agreements, representations, warranties or undertakings by the relevant financial intermediary, including (without limitation) any unauthorised action by the relevant financial intermediary or failure by it to observe any of the above restrictions or requirements or the making by it of any unauthorised representation or the giving or use by it of any information which has not been authorised for such purposes by the relevant Issuer or, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) the relevant Dealer, the relevant financial intermediary shall pay to the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) or the relevant Dealer, as the case may be, an amount equal to such Loss. None of the Issuers, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which “Structure 2” or “Structure 4” is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) nor any Dealer shall have any duty or obligation, whether as fiduciary or trustee for any Relevant Party or otherwise, to recover any such payment or to account to any other person for any amounts paid to it under this provision; and

- (C) agrees and accepts that:
- I the contract between the relevant Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary formed upon acceptance by the relevant financial intermediary of the relevant Issuer's offer to use this Base Prospectus with its consent in connection with the relevant Non-Exempt Offer (the Authorised Offeror Contract), and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law if the applicable Notes are English Law Notes, or French law if the applicable Notes are French Law Notes;
 - II subject to sub-paragraph IV below, with respect to English Law Notes, the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract (including any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract) (a Dispute) and the relevant Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts; with respect to French Law Notes, the French courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any Dispute and the relevant Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the French courts;
 - III for the purposes of sub-paragraph II above and IV below, the relevant financial intermediary waives any objection to the English courts with respect to English Law Notes, or to the French courts with respect to French Law Notes, on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum to settle any dispute;
 - IV to the extent allowed by law, the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and each relevant Dealer may, in respect of any Dispute or Disputes, take (i) proceedings in any other court with jurisdiction; and (ii) concurrent proceedings in any number of jurisdictions; and
 - V the Guarantor (for Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or for Collateral-Linked Notes to which "Structure 2" or "Structure 4" is applicable and the Secured Notes Guarantee is also applicable) and each relevant Dealer will, pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, be entitled to enforce those provisions of the Authorised Offeror Contract which are, or are expressed to be, for their benefit, including the agreements, representations, warranties, undertakings and indemnity given by the financial intermediary pursuant to the Authorised Offeror Terms.

Common Conditions to Consent

The conditions to the relevant Issuer's consent to the use of this Base Prospectus in the context of the relevant Non-Exempt Offer are (in addition to the conditions described in paragraph (a) above if Part B of the applicable Final Terms specifies "General Consent" as "Applicable") that such consent:

- (i) is only valid during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) only extends to the use of this Base Prospectus to make Non-Exempt Offers of the relevant Tranche of Notes in the Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdictions, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The consent referred to above only relates to Offer Periods (if any) occurring within 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus.

The only relevant Member States which may, in respect of any Tranche of Notes, be specified in the applicable Final Terms (if any relevant Member States of the EEA are so specified) as indicated in sub-paragraph (ii) above, will be the Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdictions, and accordingly each Tranche of Notes may only be offered to any potential Investors as part of a Non-Exempt Offer in the Non-Exempt Offer Jurisdictions, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, or otherwise in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the relevant Issuer or any Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer.

AUTHORISED OFFERORS WILL PROVIDE INFORMATION ON THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER TO INVESTORS THROUGH OUT THE OFFER PERIOD. THE INVESTOR MUST LOOK TO THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR AT THE TIME OF SUCH OFFER FOR THE PROVISION OF SUCH INFORMATION AND THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCH INFORMATION. THE ISSUER WILL NOT BE A PARTY TO ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENTS WITH SUCH INVESTORS IN CONNECTION WITH THE NON-EXEMPT OFFER OR SALE OF THE NOTES CONCERNED AND, ACCORDINGLY, THIS BASE PROSPECTUS AND ANY FINAL TERMS WILL NOT CONTAIN SUCH INFORMATION. THE RELEVANT INFORMATION WILL BE PROVIDED BY THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR AT THE TIME OF SUCH OFFER. NONE OF THE ISSUERS, THE GUARANTOR (FOR NOTES ISSUED BY NATIXIS STRUCTURED ISSUANCE OR FOR COLLATERAL-LINKED NOTES TO WHICH "STRUCTURE 2" OR "STRUCTURE 4" IS APPLICABLE AND THE SECURED NOTES GUARANTEE IS ALSO APPLICABLE) AND, FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, ANY DEALER HAS ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY TO AN INVESTOR IN RESPECT OF THE INFORMATION DESCRIBED ABOVE.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. Neither the Issuers nor any Dealer represents that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offer. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuers or any Manager which would permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE ENGLISH LAW NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions that, subject to completion in accordance with the provisions of Part A of the relevant Final Terms, shall be applicable to the English Law Notes in definitive form (if any) issued in exchange for the Global Note(s) representing each Series. Either (i) the full text of these Terms and Conditions together with the relevant provisions of Part A of the Final Terms or (ii) these Terms and Conditions as so completed, or, in the case of Notes issued pursuant to an exemption from the obligations of the Prospectus Regulation, amended or varied (subject to simplification by the deletion of non-applicable provisions) shall be endorsed on such Bearer Notes or on the Registered Notes representing Notes in registered form, but not on Clearing System Dematerialised Notes (as defined herein). The wording appearing in italics below is included for disclosure purposes only and does not form part of the terms and conditions of the Notes. Words and expressions defined in the Agency Agreement or used in Part A of the applicable Final Terms shall have the same meanings where used in these Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms will prevail. Those definitions will be endorsed on the Definitive Bearer Notes or Definitive Registered Notes (each as defined below), as the case may be, but not on Clearing System Dematerialised Notes. References in the Conditions to (i) Notes are to the English law-governed notes of one series only issued by either NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL, not to all Notes that may be issued under the Programme, (ii) Issuer are to NATIXIS, Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL as specified in the applicable Final Terms, and (iii) Luxembourg Stock Exchange (and all related references) are to the regulated market "Bourse de Luxembourg" (including the professional segment of the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange) or the Euro MTF market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the avoidance of doubt the provisions of the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes are not mutually exclusive with respect to the provisions of these Conditions (which, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall mean the Conditions excluding the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes) and all options relating to (without limitation) interest and redemption set out in these Conditions (which, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall mean the Conditions excluding the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes) are potentially applicable to all Notes. The terms of the applicable Final Terms shall be construed accordingly.

In the event of any discrepancy or inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and any provisions of the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the relevant provisions of the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes shall prevail.

For the avoidance of doubt terms used but not defined in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes shall, where applicable, have the meaning attributed to them in these Terms and Conditions.

If "Certificates" is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the Type of Securities, any references herein to "Notes" and "Noteholders" shall be deemed to be a reference to "Certificates" and "Certificateholders" respectively, and related terms shall be construed accordingly.

The Issuer may enter into (i) an agreement (an Issuing Agreement) with a local issuing agent (the Issuing Agent) in each applicable jurisdiction in connection with the issue of Clearing System Dematerialised Notes or (ii) an agreement (a local paying agency agreement) with a local paying agent (the local paying agent) in respect of payments to be made in the relevant jurisdiction, each as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the holder (as defined below) of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon shall, to the extent permitted by law, be deemed to be and may be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes, whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest in it, any writing on it or its theft or loss and no person shall be liable for so treating the holder.

In these Conditions, Noteholder means the bearer of any Bearer Note and the Receipts relating to it or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered or the person in whose name (either directly or as nominee) a Clearing System Dematerialised Note is registered (as the case may be), holder (in relation to a Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon) means the bearer of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon or the person in whose name (either directly or as nominee) a Registered Note is registered or the person in whose name a Clearing System Dematerialised Note is registered (as the case may be) and capitalised terms have the meanings given to them hereon, the absence of any such meaning indicating that such term is not applicable to the Notes.

(d) Redenomination

- (i) The Issuer may (if so specified in the applicable Final Terms), on any Interest Payment Date, without the consent of the Noteholders, by giving at least 30 days' notice in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices), and on or after the date on which the European Member State in whose national currency the Notes are denominated has become a participating Member State in the third stage of the European Economic and Monetary Union (as provided in the Treaty establishing the European Community (the EC), as amended from time to time (the Treaty)) or events have occurred which have substantially the same effects (in either case, EMU), redenominate all, but not some only, of the Notes of any series into Euro and adjust the aggregate principal amount and the Specified Denomination(s) set out in the applicable Final Terms accordingly, as described below. The date on which such redenomination becomes effective shall be referred to in these Conditions as the Redenomination Date.
- (ii) Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the redenomination of the Notes pursuant to Condition 1(d)(i) shall be made by converting the principal amount of each Note from the relevant national currency into Euro using the fixed relevant national currency Euro conversion rate established by the Council of the European Union pursuant to Article 123 (4) of the Treaty and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest 0.01 Euro (with 0.005 Euro being rounded upwards). If the Issuer so elects, the figure resulting from conversion of the principal amount of each Note using the fixed relevant national currency Euro conversion rate shall be rounded down to the nearest Euro. The Euro denominations of the Notes so determined shall be notified to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices). Any balance remaining from the redenomination with a denomination higher than 0.01 Euro shall be paid by way of cash adjustment rounded to the nearest 0.01 Euro (with 0.005 Euro being rounded upwards). Such cash adjustment will be payable in Euros on the Redenomination Date in the manner notified to Noteholders by the Issuer.

- (iii) Upon redenomination of the Notes, any reference in the applicable Final Terms to the relevant national currency shall be construed as a reference to Euro.
- (iv) Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, with prior approval of the Paying Agent, in connection with any redenomination pursuant to this Condition or any consolidation pursuant to Condition 12 (Further Issues), without the consent of the Noteholders, make any changes or additions to these Conditions which it reasonably believes to be necessary or desirable to give effect to the provisions of this Condition or Condition 12 (Further Issues) (including, without limitation, any change to any applicable business day definition, business day convention, principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency, interest accrual basis or benchmark), taking into account market practice in respect of redenominated euromarket debt obligations and which it believes are not prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders. Any such changes or additions shall, in the absence of manifest error, be binding on the holders of Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons and shall be notified to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) as soon as practicable thereafter.
- (v) Neither the Issuer nor any Paying Agent shall be liable to any Noteholder or other person for any commissions, costs, losses or expenses in relation to or resulting from the credit or transfer of Euro or any currency conversion or rounding effected in connection therewith.

Capitalised terms which are not defined in these Conditions will have the meanings given to them in the applicable Final Terms.

(e) Replacement Currency

If at any time on or after the date of the Final Terms, the Specified Currency is discontinued, converted, re-denominated, exchanged or otherwise unavailable in the relevant country or area, the Calculation Agent will convert the Specified Currency into Euros or U.S. dollars (the Replacement Currency, as specified in the applicable Final Terms) using the established, recognised and used conversion rate or exchange rate, on the most recent date on which the relevant discontinuation, conversion, re-denomination, exchange or unavailability occurred. The Calculation Agent shall give notice of such replacement to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices).

In the case of a transfer of part only of a holding of Registered Notes represented by one Definitive Registered Note, a new Definitive Registered Note shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Definitive Registered Note in respect of the balance of the holding not transferred shall be issued to the transferor.

(c) Exercise of Options or Partial Redemption in Respect of Registered Notes

In the case of a partial exercise of an option resulting in Registered Notes of the same holding having different terms, separate Definitive Registered Notes shall be issued in respect of those Notes of that holding that have the same terms. New Definitive Registered Notes shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Definitive Registered Notes to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. In the case of a transfer of Registered Notes to a person who is already a holder of Registered Notes, a new Definitive Registered Note representing the enlarged holding shall only be issued against surrender of the Definitive Registered Note representing the existing holding. All transfers of Notes and entries on the Register will be made subject to the detailed regulations concerning transfers of Notes scheduled to the Agency Agreement. The regulations may be changed by the Issuer, with the prior written approval of the Registrar and the Noteholders. A copy of the current regulations will be made available by the Registrar to any Noteholder upon request.

(d) Delivery of New Definitive Registered Note

Each new Definitive Registered Note to be issued pursuant to Conditions 2(a), (b) or (c) shall (subject to compliance with the applicable provisions of Conditions 2(a), (b) or (c)) be available for delivery within three business days of receipt of the request for exchange, form of transfer or Exercise Notice and surrender of the Definitive Registered Note for exchange. In this Condition 2(d), business day means a day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, on which banks are open for business in the place of the specified office of the relevant Transfer Agent or the Registrar.

Exchange and transfer of Bearer Notes and Registered Notes on registration, transfer, partial redemption or exercise of an option shall be effected without charge by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Registrar or the Transfer Agents, but upon payment of any tax or other governmental charges that may be imposed in relation to it (or the giving of such indemnity as the Registrar or the relevant Transfer Agent may require).

(f) Closed Periods

No Noteholder may require the transfer of a Registered Note to be registered or an Exchangeable Bearer Note to be exchanged for one or more Registered Note(s) (i) during the period of 15 days ending on the due date for redemption of, or payment of any Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount in respect of, that Note, (ii) during the period of 15 days before any date on which Notes may be called for redemption by the Issuer at its option pursuant to Condition 6(e), (iii) after any such Note has been called for redemption or (iv) during the period of seven days ending on (and including) any Record Date. 4. Negative Pledge (Unsecured Notes only)

Where the Issuer in respect of any Notes (and the Receipts and Coupons relating to them) is NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance, as the case may be, the relevant Issuer undertakes that, so long as any of the Unsecured Notes, and Receipts or Coupons relating to them remains outstanding (as defined in the Agency Agreement), it will not create or permit to subsist any mortgage, pledge, lien or other form of encumbrance or security interest upon the whole or any part of its undertaking, assets or revenues, present or future, to secure any Relevant Debt (as defined below) or any guarantee of or indemnity by the relevant Issuer in respect of any Relevant Debt, unless at the same time or prior thereto the relevant Issuer's obligations under the Unsecured Notes, Receipts or Coupons relating to them: (A) are secured equally and rateably therewith; or (B) have the benefit of such other security, guarantee, indemnity or other arrangement as shall be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of the Noteholders.

For the avoidance of doubt, no Issuer should be obligated to provide collateral in respect of any Series of Unsecured Notes in relation to any action taken pursuant to (B) above.

For the purposes of this Condition 4, Relevant Debt means present or future indebtedness in the form of, or represented by, bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities which are for the time being, or are capable of being, listed or ordinarily dealt in on any stock exchange, over-the-counter market or other securities market.

This Condition 4 shall only apply to Unsecured Notes.

5. Interest and Other Calculations

(a) Interest Rate and Accrual

If applicable, each Note will bear interest (if any) on its outstanding principal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Interest Rate, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with this Condition 5.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note on the due date for redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused, in which event, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, interest will continue to accrue (as well after as before judgment) at the relevant Interest Rate in the manner provided in this Condition 5 to the Relevant Date (as defined in this Condition 5), which, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, shall be the Interest Rate prevailing for the last Interest Period.

(b) Business Day Convention

If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (i) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (A) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (B) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (ii) the Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day, (iii) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (iv) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(c) Interest on Fixed Interest Rate Notes

Each Fixed Interest Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Fixed Interest Rate.

Interest shall be calculated in respect of any period (other than in respect of which a Fixed Interest Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms) by applying the Interest Rate to the Calculation Amount and multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with the applicable market convention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Broken Amount or a Fixed Interest Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms with respect to an Interest Payment Date, such Broken Amount or Fixed Interest Amount, as the case may be, shall apply. Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Interest Rate Note is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Interest Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

(d) Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes

The Interest Rate in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined in the manner specified herein and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified in the applicable Final Terms. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(g) (Calculations).

(A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, the Interest Rate for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any).

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), ISDA Rate for an "Interest Accrual Period" means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction (a Swap Transaction) if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent (as defined in the 2021 ISDA Definitions, as defined in Condition 5(k)) (the ISDA Calculation Agent) for that Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the 2021 ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (i) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (ii) the Designated Maturity, if applicable, is a period specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (iii) the Fixing Day is as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the absence thereof, has the meaning given to such term in the 2021 ISDA Definitions;

- (iv) the Effective Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Interest Commencement Date;
- (v) unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Floating Rate Day Count Fraction has the meaning given to such term in the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (vi) the Reset Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, is (i) in the case of a Compounded Floating Rate Option, (ii) in the case of a Average Floating Rate Option, (iii) if "Compounding/Averaging" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or (iv) in the case of a Compounded Index Floating Rate Option, the day immediately preceding the relevant Interest Accrual Period End Date, or in all other cases, the relevant Interest Accrual Period Start Date; and
- (vii) the Termination Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the last occurring Interest Accrual Period End Date,

PROVIDED THAT if the Calculation Agent determines that such ISDA Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the 2021 ISDA Definitions read with the above provisions but prior to the application of any provisions relating to permanent cessation or an Administrator/Benchmark Event in the 2021 ISDA Definitions (including, for the avoidance of doubt any Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions) then, subject as provided in paragraphs (g) to (i) below and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Conditions, the ISDA Rate for such Interest Accrual Period shall be such rate as is determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner using any available data which may include Relevant Market Data.

For the purposes of this Condition 5(d)(A) (ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes), terms used for the purpose of determining the relevant ISDA Rate under 2021 ISDA Definitions shall have the meanings given to those terms in the 2021 ISDA Definitions (unless expressly stated to the contrary).

References in the 2021 ISDA Definitions to:

- numbers, financial centres, elections or other items to be specified in the relevant Confirmation shall be deemed to be references to the numbers, financial centres, elections or other items specified for such purpose in the applicable Final Terms;
- a "Period End Date" shall be deemed to be references to an Interest Accrual Period End Date; and
- a "Payment Date" shall be deemed to be references to an Interest Payment Date.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the 2021 ISDA Definitions:

- (a) whenever the Calculation Agent is required to act, make a determination or to exercise judgment in any way as ISDA Calculation Agent under the 2021 ISDA Definitions, it will do so in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and any provision relating to the determination standard of the ISDA Calculation Agent in the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall be disregarded. In addition, all calculations and determinations made in respect of the Notes by the Calculation Agent under the Conditions shall (save in the case of manifest error) be final, conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the Noteholders;

- (b) any requirement under the 2021 ISDA Definitions for the ISDA Calculation Agent: (i) to give notice of a determination made by it to any other party will be deemed to be a requirement for the Calculation Agent to provide an equivalent notice to the Issuer; and (ii) to consult with the other party or the parties will be deemed to be a requirement for the Calculation Agent to consult with the Issuer. Any such notice or consultation may be given or carried out orally or in writing (including by electronic mail or communications). In addition the right of any party under the 2021 ISDA Definitions to require the ISDA Calculation Agent to take any action or fulfil any responsibility will be deemed to be solely the right of the Issuer to require this of the Calculation Agent in its discretion and no Noteholder will have any right to require the Issuer to do this or to direct the Calculation Agent in this regard;
- (c) where the 2021 ISDA Definitions require agreement between the parties to the relevant transaction, the parties will be deemed to have been unable to reach agreement and the fallback applicable in such circumstances will be deemed to apply;
- (d) in the event that the Calculation Agent determines that any Fixing Day or other day on or by which an ISDA Rate is to be determined under the 2021 ISDA Definitions is less than two Business Days prior to the relevant date scheduled for payment (the Rate Cut-Off Date), the Calculation Agent may determine that such Fixing Day or other day be deemed to be the Rate Cut-Off Date and the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall be construed accordingly;
- (e) in the event that the Correction Time Period applicable to an ISDA Rate ends later than two Business Days prior to the relevant date for payment, any corrections published after the second Business Day prior to the relevant date for payment shall be disregarded for the purposes of determining the relevant ISDA Rate;
- (f) where the 2021 ISDA Definitions state that the determination of the Floating Rate Option will be pursuant to any requirement for the Calculation Agent to request quotes from Reference Banks or Major Banks pursuant to the 2021 ISDA Definitions, such requirement to make requests for quotations for rates from, and the provision of quotations for rates by, the requisite number of such Reference Banks or Major Banks may be satisfied by reference to and using quotations or tradable market prices which are made available by such Reference Banks or Major Banks via electronic data providers or electronic trading platforms;
- (g) on the occurrence of a Permanent Cessation Trigger in respect of a Floating Rate Option, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of the Permanent Cessation Fallback provisions under the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (h) where Administrator/Benchmark Event is specified in the Floating Rate Matrix as applicable in respect of the relevant Floating Rate Option, on the occurrence of an Administrator/Benchmark Event under the 2021 ISDA Definitions, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of the provisions relating to such Administrator/Benchmark Event and the Administrator/Benchmark Event Fallback in each case under the 2021 ISDA Definitions;

- (i) where an ISDA Rate would otherwise be determined by reference to Linear Interpolation pursuant to the Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred thereon and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of such Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions;
- (j) if any adjustment, fallback, modification, correction or replacement of a relevant rate, or adjustment or modification to a relevant date, applies pursuant to the 2021 ISDA Definitions or the Swap Transaction then, in relation thereto, the Calculation Agent may but shall not be required to (i) if it would not otherwise apply (as applicable) in relation to the determination of the ISDA Rate in accordance with the above provisions or in relation to any equivalent date under the Notes, take into account any such any adjustment, fallback, modification, correction or replacement (including by reference to the hedging arrangements for the relevant Notes) in determining of the relevant ISDA Rate and (ii) make any related or consequential changes to the Conditions not otherwise provided for in this Condition (including without limitation any technical, administrative or operational changes, changes to the definition of Interest Period, timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, maturity and changes to the definition of Designated Maturity (where applicable)) that the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Calculation Agent decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Calculation Agent determines that no appropriate market practice exists, in such other manner as the Calculation Agent determines is reasonably necessary); and
- (k) Section 2.3.6 (Consequences of an Unscheduled Holiday) of the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall not apply to an ISDA Rate.
- (l) Linear Interpolation

The provisions relating to "Linear Interpolation" set out in the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall apply to an ISDA Rate where "2021 Definitions Linear Interpolation" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms. If such provisions apply, the provisions of Condition 5(m) (Linear Interpolation) shall not apply to the relevant ISDA Rate.
- (m) Business Day Convention

If "No Adjustment" is specified in the applicable Final Terms in respect of a date, then if that date falls on a day that is not a Business Day, no adjustment will be made to that date.

(B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, the Interest Rate for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent at or about the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in respect of such Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following (subject to the occurrence of a Benchmark Trigger Event in which case the following provisions shall not apply):

- (i) if the Primary Source is a Page, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be:
 - (I) the Relevant Rate (where such Relevant Rate on such Page is a composite quotation or is customarily supplied by one entity); or
 - (II) the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates of the persons whose Relevant Rates appear on that Page, in each case appearing on such Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date;
- (ii) if the Page specified in the applicable Final Terms as a Primary Source permanently ceases to quote the Relevant Rate (s) but such quotation(s) is/are available from another page, section or other part of such information service selected by the Calculation Agent (the Replacement Page), the Replacement Page shall be substituted as the Primary Source for the Interest Rate and if no Replacement Page exists but such quotation(s) is/are available from a page, section or other part of a different information service selected by the Calculation Agent and approved by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) (the Secondary Replacement Page), the Secondary Replacement Page shall be substituted as the Primary Source for the Interest Rate;
- (iii) if the Primary Source is Reference Banks or if sub-paragraph (i)(I) above applies and no Relevant Rate appears on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date or if sub-paragraph (i)(II) above applies and fewer than two Relevant Rates appear on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates which each of the Reference Banks is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent;
- (iv) if sub-paragraph (iii) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are so quoting Relevant Rates then, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) that the Calculation Agent determines to be the rates (being the nearest equivalent to the Reference Rate) in respect of a Representative Amount of the Specified Currency that at least two out of five leading banks selected by the Calculation Agent in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency or, if the Specified Currency is Euro, the Eurozone, (the Principal Financial Centre) are quoting at or about the Relevant Time on the date on which such banks would customarily quote such rates for a period commencing on the Effective Date for a period equivalent to the Specified Duration (x) to leading banks carrying on business in Europe, or (if the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in Europe) (y) to leading banks carrying on business in the Principal Financial Centre; except that, if fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in the Principal Financial Centre, the Interest Rate shall (unless otherwise specified) be the Interest Rate determined on the previous Interest Determination Date (after readjustment for any difference between any Margin, Rate Multiplier or Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate applicable to the preceding Interest Accrual Period and to the relevant Interest Accrual Period).

(C) Benchmark Trigger Event

Where a Benchmark Trigger Event occurs or is deemed to occur pursuant to this Condition 5 in respect of a Relevant Rate Benchmark which is used in whole or in part to calculate interest under Condition 5(d) (Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes), the Calculation Agent shall comply with the process described in Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes (as if such terms were set out herein in extenso and regardless of whether the Terms for Rate Linked Notes are specified as applying in the relevant Final Terms).

(e) Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes

- (i) Where a Note for which Zero Coupon is specified as the Interest Basis is repayable prior to the Maturity Date and is not paid when due, the amount due and payable prior to the Maturity Date shall be the Redemption Amount of such Note. As from the Maturity Date, the Interest Rate for any overdue principal of such a Note the Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/or a formula, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms in accordance with Condition 5(a), shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (as described in Condition 6(e) (Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes)).
- (ii) If Non-Interest Bearing is specified as the Interest Basis for any Note, such Note shall not bear interest.
- (iii) Payments of interest in respect of Structured Notes will be calculated by reference either: (i) to such index and/or formula(e) as are set out in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes; and/or (ii) to the applicable provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d) of this Condition 5, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(f) Margin, Maximum/Minimum Interest Rates, Instalment Amounts, Instalment Payable Amounts and Redemption Amounts, Rate Multipliers and Rounding

- (i) If any Margin or Rate Multiplier is specified in the applicable Final Terms (either: (x) generally; or (y) in relation to one or more Interest Accrual Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Interest Rates, in the case of (x), or the Interest Rates for the specified Interest Accrual Periods, in the case of (y), calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (iii) below by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin or multiplying by such Rate Multiplier, subject always to the next paragraph. In such case all references to the "Interest Rate" shall be construed accordingly.
- (ii) If any Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or Redemption Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, then any Interest Rate, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or Redemption Amount shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be. Unless a higher Minimum Interest Rate is specified in the Final Terms, the Minimum Interest Rate shall be deemed to be zero.

- (iii) For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified): (x) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with halves being rounded up); (y) all figures will be rounded to seven significant figures (with halves being rounded up); and (z) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with halves being rounded up), save in the case of Yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest Yen. For these purposes unit means the lowest amount of such currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries of such currency and with respect to the Euro, means 0.01 Euro.

(g) Calculations

Subject to Condition 5(e) (Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes) and Condition 6(e) (Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes) in relation to Zero Coupon Notes, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any period shall be equal to the product of the Interest Rate, the Calculation Amount or (in relation to Partitioned Interest Note) Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the Day Count Fraction (adjusted, as applicable, in accordance with the Interest Period Date Business Day Convention), unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period, in which case the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Note for such period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). Where any Interest Period comprises two or more Interest Accrual Periods, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Interest Amounts payable in respect of each of those Interest Accrual Periods.

In relation to Partitioned Interest Notes, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any period shall be the aggregate of partial interest amounts per Calculation Amount Interest Portion (each a Partial Interest Amount). Each Partial Interest Amount is determined as above on the basis of the product of the relevant Interest Rate, the Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the Day Count Fraction, unless a Partial Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period and Calculation Amount Interest Portion.

(h) Determination and Publication of Interest Rates, Interest Amounts, Redemption Amounts, Instalment Amounts and Instalment Payable Amounts

As soon as practicable (i) after the Relevant Time on each Interest Determination Date, (ii) where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms, on each date on which any ISDA Rate is to be determined or (iii) after such other time on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount, obtain any quote or make any determination or calculation, it shall determine the Interest Rate and calculate the relevant Interest Amount in respect of each Specified Denomination of the Notes for the relevant Interest Accrual Period or, as the case may be, Interest Period, calculate the Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount, obtain such quote or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Interest Rate and the Interest Amounts for each Interest Accrual Period or, as the case may be, Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date and, if required to be calculated, the Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount to be notified to the Fiscal Agent, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information and, if the Notes are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, such exchange as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such stock exchange of an Interest Rate and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 5(b) (Business Day Convention), the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under Condition 10 (Events of Default), the accrued interest and the Interest Rate payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition but no publication of the Interest Rate or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made. The determination of each Interest Rate, Interest Amount, Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount and Instalment Payable Amount, the obtaining of each quote and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

- (i) If, at or around 11:30 a.m. (Beijing time) on the Interest Determination Date, a relevant SHIBOR is published on <http://www.shibor.org>, then the relevant SHIBOR will be that rate; and for the purposes of these Conditions, the relevant SHIBOR means SHIBOR in a critical term corresponding to the relevant Interest Period.
- (ii) If for any reason the relevant SHIBOR is not published in respect of a certain Interest Determination Date, the relevant SHIBOR in respect of the business day immediately preceding that Interest Determination Date shall be applied in place thereof.

(l) Calculation Agent and Reference Banks

The Issuer shall procure that there shall at all times be five Reference Banks (or such other number as may be required) with offices in the Relevant Financial Centre and one or more Calculation Agents if provision is made for them in the applicable Final Terms, and for so long as any Note is outstanding (as defined in the Agency Agreement). If any Reference Bank (acting through its relevant office) is unable or unwilling to continue to act as a Reference Bank, then the Issuer shall appoint another Reference Bank with an office in the Relevant Financial Centre to act as such in its place. Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Notes, references in these Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under the Conditions. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish the Interest Rate for an Interest Period or Interest Accrual Period or to calculate any Interest Amount, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or the Redemption Amount or to comply with any other requirement, the Issuer shall appoint a leading bank or investment banking firm engaged in the interbank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter index options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal London office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been appointed as aforesaid.

In relation to the Italian Listed Certificates, the Calculation Agent in exercising its discretion under the relevant Terms and Conditions, shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner. The Calculation Agent may make any adjustment that it determines appropriate to any terms of the Securities, in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, preserving the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes.

(m) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as "Applicable" in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Interest Rate for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the applicable Relevant Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms) or the relevant Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms), one of which shall be determined as if the Specified Duration or the Designated Maturity, as applicable, were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Specified Duration or the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Calculation Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

(n) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 5 by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and all Noteholders, Receiptholders and Couponholders and no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders, the Couponholders or any other person shall attach to the Calculation Agent (in the absence as aforesaid), the Issuer or the Paying Agents in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by the Calculation Agent of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions. None of the Issuer, the Paying Agents nor the Calculation Agent shall have any responsibility to any person for any errors or omissions in: (i) the calculation by the Calculation Agent of any amount due in respect of the Notes; or (ii) any determination made by the Calculation Agent in relation to the Notes, in each case in the absence (in the case of the Calculation Agent) of bad faith or wilful default of the Calculation Agent.

(o) Change of Interest Basis

Where Change of Interest Basis is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the calculation of the Interest Rate or Interest Amount in accordance with the Fixed Interest Rate Note Provisions, the Floating Rate Note Provisions, Zero Coupon Note Provisions or Structured Note Provisions by reference to the relevant provision of paragraphs (a) to (d) of this Condition 5 will be applicable to an Interest Period if: (i) the relevant provision is the Interest Basis applicable to the relevant Interest Period and: (a) no Interest Basis Switch is applicable; or (b) the Interest Basis Switch has not been triggered on any Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the beginning of the relevant Interest Period; or (ii) the relevant provision is the Alternate Interest Basis and the Interest Basis Switch Timing is specified in the applicable Final Terms as "in Advance" and the Interest Basis Switch has been triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the beginning of the relevant Interest Period; or (iii) the relevant provision is the Alternate Interest Basis and the Interest Basis Switch Timing is specified in the applicable Final Terms as "in Arrears" and the Interest Basis Switch has been triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the end of the relevant Interest Period.

(p) Interest Basis Switch

Where Interest Basis Switch is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Interest Basis Switch may be triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, either:

- (i) if no condition for the trigger of such Interest Basis Switch is provided for in the applicable Final Terms: at the sole discretion of the Issuer, by giving no more than 45 nor less than 30 days' prior notice to the Noteholders (or any other Interest Basis Switch Option Notice Period specified in the applicable Final Terms), in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices); or

- (ii) if condition(s) for the trigger of such Interest Basis Switch is (are) provided for in the applicable Final Terms: if the condition(s) for such trigger is (are) met.

(q) Interest Basis Switch Timing

Where Interest Basis Switch is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms:

- (i) the Interest Basis Switch Timing may be specified as being "In Advance" or "In Arrears"; or
- (ii) if the Interest Basis Switch Timing is not specified or specified as "Not Applicable", then the Interest Basis Switch Timing is considered to be specified as "In Advance".

(r) Partitioned Interest Notes

Partitioned Interest Notes shall bear interest at relevant Interest Basis on each specified Calculation Amount Interest Portion.

Where a formula or a method providing the determination of an Interest Amount is applicable in respect of a Calculation Amount Interest Portion, such formula shall be applied by replacing any reference to Calculation Amount by the Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the resulting amount shall be aggregated for the determination of Interest Amount in accordance with Condition 5(g) (Calculations).

In the case of Instalment Notes where the Calculation Amount Interest Portions are defined by reference to Instalment Amounts, each such Calculation Amount Interest Portions shall cease to be taken into account after the relevant Instalment Date, in accordance with and subject to Condition 6(a)(i).

In the case of Credit Linked Notes or Bond Linked Notes, if Calculation Amount Interest Portions are specified by reference to Reference Entity(ies) or Reference Bond(s), each Calculation Amount Interest Portion shall be the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount (as defined in Condition 13(g)) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes or Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount (as defined in Condition 14(g)) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes respectively, and the provisions set out in Condition 13(c)(i) (Credit Linked Interest Basis – reduction or cessation of interest accrual) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes and Condition 14(c)(i) (Bond Linked Interest Basis - reduction or cessation of interest accrual) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable, shall apply accordingly.

In any other case, each Calculation Amount Interest Portion shall be increased or decreased in proportion of the Outstanding Calculation Amount as applicable.

(s) Charity Payment Notes

(A) Charity Shared Amount

If "Charity Payment Notes" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall deduct the relevant Shared Amount(s) from the amounts due to the Noteholder under the Notes. Such Shared Amount(s) will then be paid on the Shared Amount Payment Date(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation(s) on behalf of the Noteholders to fund the Project(s), unless a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the Type of Charity Payment Notes is “Shared Coupon”, the Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from the Interest Amount due on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the Type of Charity Payment Notes is “Shared Redemption Amount”, the Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from the relevant Redemption Amount (being, for the avoidance of doubt, the Final Redemption Amount, the Automatic Early Redemption Amount, the Optional Redemption Amount, or, as relevant, an Instalment Payable Amount, as the case may be, but not the Early Redemption Amount due as a result of an Early Redemption Termination Event) when such amount becomes due and payable by the Issuer. However, for the avoidance of doubt, no Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from an Early Redemption Amount in the event an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs.

In accordance with the applicable Undertaking Agreement, the Non-Profit Organisation is required to provide the Issuer with a certificate (a NPO Certificate) within sixty (60) calendar days following the relevant Shared Amount Payment Date (the NPO Certificate Cut-off Date). The NPO Certificate will confirm that the Non-Profit Organisation (i) has received the Shared Amount from the Issuer, (ii) has used or intends to use the Shared Amount to fund the Project(s) in accordance with the Undertaking Agreement, and (iii) complies with applicable laws and regulations. The Issuer shall notify the Noteholders of the occurrence of a NPO Termination Event in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, but in any event no later than 45 calendar days after the occurrence of the NPO Termination Event.

In the event a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs, the Issuer shall forthwith cease to deduct the Shared Amount and the Noteholders shall be entitled to the full Interest Amount on each subsequent Interest Payment Date or the full Redemption Amount, as applicable.

The Shared Amount will be paid by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment. For the avoidance of doubt, any delay, absence or disruption in the payment of the Shared Amount to the Non-Profit Organisation by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment, shall not constitute an Event of Default for the purposes of Condition 10 (Events of Default), provided that any sum due to the Noteholders under the Notes (excluding the Shared Amount(s)) is duly paid to the Noteholders. The Issuer shall not be held liable to the Noteholders or the Non-Profit Organisation for any loss, damage, cost, expense or liability arising from or in connection with the failure or negligence of the Paying Agent to perform its obligations in relation to the payment of the Shared Amount, and neither the Noteholders nor the Non-Profit Organisation shall have no recourse to the Issuer in respect of such payment.

(B) Acknowledgments by Noteholders

By acquiring any Charity Payment Note, each Noteholder acknowledges, accepts and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary the Conditions, that:

- (i) it will not be entitled to receive any Shared Amount in respect of the Charity Payment Notes, unless a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event has occurred;
- (ii) the Issuer will not and has no obligation or responsibility to issue, deliver or obtain any Tax Certificate for the Noteholders. The Issuer cannot be held liable if the Non-Profit Organisation fails to deliver a Tax Certificate and such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default for the purposes of Condition 10 (Events of Default). Further, the Noteholders shall have no recourse to the Issuer in respect of any Tax Certificate or any tax benefit or relief arising from the payment of the Shared Amount;

- (iii) if a Noteholder requests NATIXIS or the Issuer to buy back its Charity Payment Notes prior to their Maturity Date, the proposed repurchase price, whether conditional or hypothetical, will be equivalent to the market value of the Charity Payment Notes as determined by NATIXIS or the Issuer either: (a) reduced by the aggregate amount of the Shared Amounts yet to be paid until, and including on, the Maturity Date, if “Full Shared Amount Due” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms and unless a NPO Termination Event has occurred, or (b) without taking into account the aggregate amount of the Shared Amounts yet to be paid until the Maturity Date, if “Full Shared Amount Due” is specified as “Not Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms;
- (iv) the Issuer will not independently verify that any Shared Amount has been or will be effectively used to fund the relevant Project(s) or that the Non-Profit Organisation complies with applicable laws and regulations, and will rely solely on the relevant NPO Certificate without further investigations.

(C) Taxation

If “Tax Certificate” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, upon request to the Non-Profit Organisation by any Noteholder, who shall duly identify itself and provide proof of its status as a Noteholder of the relevant Charity Payment Notes, the Non-Profit Organisation shall provide such Noteholder with a tax certificate (the Tax Certificate). This request shall be made in accordance with the contact details provided for the Non-Profit Organisation in the applicable Final Terms. This Tax Certificate shall detail the amount of the Shared Amount(s) paid to the Non-Profit Organisation on behalf of such Noteholder for the relevant fiscal year and shall take the form prescribed by the tax law and regulations applicable to the Non-Profit Organisation.

If “Tax Certificate” is specified as “Not Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, the Non-Profit Organisation will not provide any Tax Certificate to the Noteholders and Noteholders irrevocably waive any rights to claim any such tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit, in any jurisdiction, in respect of the Shared Amount(s).

The Issuer will not claim any tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit in respect of the Shared Amount(s).

- (iv) the Issuer, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines that:
 - (I) the Non-Profit Organisation has failed to perform in any material respect its obligations under the Undertaking Agreement;

6. Redemption, Purchase and Options

(a) Redemption by Instalments (Instalment Notes) and Final Redemption

- (i) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided in this Condition 6 or the relevant Instalment Date is extended pursuant to the Issuer's or Noteholder's option in accordance with Condition 6(f) (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer and Exercise of the Issuer's Options) or 6(h) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options), each Instalment Note shall be partially redeemed on each Instalment Date by the payment of the related Instalment Payable Amount. As a consequence, the Outstanding Calculation Amount of each such Note shall be reduced by the related Instalment Amount for all purposes with effect from, and including, the related Instalment Date, unless payment of the Instalment Payable Amount is improperly withheld or refused on presentation of the related Receipt, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the Relevant Date relating to such Instalment Payable Amount.
- (ii) Where a formula or a method providing for the determination of a Redemption Amount is applicable in respect of an Instalment Amount on an Instalment Date, such formula or method shall be applied by replacing any reference to Calculation Amount by the Instalment Amount and the resulting amount shall be the Instalment Payable Amount.
- (iii) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided below or its maturity is extended pursuant to the Issuer's or Noteholder's option in accordance with Condition 6(f) (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer and Exercise of the Issuer's Options) or 6(h) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options), each Note shall be redeemed on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Final Terms at its Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes, is its principal amount) or, in the case of a Note falling within sub-paragraph (i) above, its final Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount.

(b) Redemption for taxation reasons

- (A) In the case of Notes where "Tax Gross-up" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if by reason of any change in Luxembourg law (in the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance SA or NCIBL) or French law (in the case of Notes issued by NATIXIS), or in either case any change in the official application or interpretation of such law, becoming effective after the Issue Date in respect of the relevant Series of Notes, the relevant Issuer would, on the occasion of the next payment of principal or interest due in respect of the Notes, not be able to make such payment without having to pay additional amounts as specified under Condition 8 (Taxation), the relevant Issuer may, at its option, on any Interest Payment Date or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 30 days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of principal and interest without withholding for Luxembourg or French taxes, as applicable.

- (B) In the case of Notes where "Tax Gross-up" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if the relevant Issuer would on the next payment of principal, interest or other revenues in respect of the Notes be prevented by the law applicable to the relevant Issuer from making payment to the Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders of the full amount then due and payable, notwithstanding the undertaking to pay additional amounts contained in Condition 8 (Taxation), then the relevant Issuer shall forthwith give notice of such fact to the Fiscal Agent and the relevant Issuer shall upon giving not less than seven days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Early Redemption Amount (together with (unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms) any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) on (A) the latest practicable Interest Payment Date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount then due and payable in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons provided that if such notice would expire after such Interest Payment Date the date for redemption pursuant to such notice to Noteholders shall be the later of: (i) the latest practicable date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount then due and payable in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons; and (ii) 14 days after giving notice to the Fiscal Agent as aforesaid; or (B) if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at any time, provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder shall be given shall be the latest practicable date at which as the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons or, if that date is passed, as soon as practicable thereafter.
- (C) In the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance, if, following the occurrence of an NSI Loan Tax Event (as defined below), NATIXIS gives to Natixis Structured Issuance notice of its intention to prepay the whole (and not part) of any of the loans made under the NSI Loan Agreement (as defined below) corresponding to a particular Series of Notes specified in such notice, Natixis Structured Issuance may, at its option, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 15 Business Days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes of that Series at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the date on which NATIXIS has notified Natixis Structured Issuance that it will prepay in whole but not in part all of the relevant loans under the NSI Loan Agreement.

For these purposes:

NSI Loan Agreement means an intra-group loan agreement entered into on 23 January 2014 between Natixis Structured Issuance (as lender) and NATIXIS (as borrower), as amended from time to time, pursuant to which the net proceeds of Series of Notes may be lent by Natixis Structured Issuance to NATIXIS.

NSI Loan Tax Event means that NATIXIS is, or would be on the occasion of the next payment of principal or interest due to Natixis Structured Issuance under the NSI Loan Agreement, required to pay additional amounts to Natixis Structured Issuance to ensure that Natixis Structured Issuance receives a sum, net of any deduction or withholding, equal to the sum which it would have received had no such deduction or withholding for French tax been made or required to be made.

(c) Redemption for Illegality

The Issuer shall have the right to redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, if, in the opinion of the Issuer: (i) it is or will become unlawful for it to perform or comply with any one or more of its obligations under such Notes; or (ii) if Hedging Arrangements are specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any Hedging Arrangements have or will become illegal in whole or in part (an Illegality Event). Upon the occurrence of an Illegality Event, the Issuer may, at its option, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 30 Business Days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date on which the Issuer could lawfully make payment of principal and interest irrespective of the Illegality Event.

(d) Purchases

The Issuer, or any of its affiliates, may at any time purchase Notes (provided that all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons appertaining thereto are attached or surrendered therewith) in the open market or otherwise at any price. Unless the possibility of holding and reselling is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, all Notes so purchased by NATIXIS may be held and resold in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Any Notes purchased by an affiliate of the Issuer may be so purchased by it for its own account or for, and on behalf of: (i) the Issuer; or (ii) another person.

(e) Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes

(i) The early redemption amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note, the Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/or a formula, upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 6(b) (Redemption for taxation reasons) or 6(c) (Redemption for Illegality) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 (Events of Default) shall be either: (i) the Amortised Face Amount (calculated as provided below, the Amortised Face Amount) of such Note; or (ii) the Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 5(k)) of such Note, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (iii) below, the Amortised Face Amount of any such Note shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date discounted at a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (which, if none is shown in the applicable Final Terms, shall be such rate as would produce an Amortised Face Amount equal to the issue price of the Notes if they were discounted back to their issue price on the Issue Date in respect of the relevant Series) compounded annually. Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction shown in the applicable Final Terms.

- (iii) If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon its redemption pursuant to Condition 6(b) (Redemption for taxation reasons) or 6(c) (Redemption for Illegality) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 (Events of Default) is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortised Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (ii) above, except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the reference therein to the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were replaced by a reference to the Relevant Date. The calculation of the Amortised Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph (iii) will continue to be made (as well after as before judgment), until the Relevant Date unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the principal amount of such Note together with any interest which may accrue in accordance with Condition 5(e) (Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes).

(f) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer and Exercise of the Issuer's Options

If so provided in the applicable Final Terms and upon giving not less than 15 days' nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms), the Issuer may: (i) exercise its option and redeem the Notes in relation to all or, if so provided, some only of the Notes in their principal amount or integral multiples thereof and on the option exercise date(s), being any day falling within the Issuer's Option Period and specified in the notice provided to Noteholders by the Issuer, which date shall be no later than the Business Day falling immediately prior to the Maturity Date (each an Option Exercise Date); or (ii) on any Optional Redemption Date, redeem all or, if so provided, some only of the Notes in their principal amount or integral multiples thereof. Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their Optional Redemption Amount together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption.

The notice shall also specify, in the case of Clearing System Dematerialised Notes, the relevant Closed Period for the purposes of Condition 2(f).

In the case of a partial redemption or a partial exercise of an Issuer's option, the notice to Noteholders shall also contain the serial numbers of the Notes to be redeemed or in respect of which such option has been exercised, which shall have been drawn in such place and in such manner as may be fair and reasonable in the circumstances, taking account of prevailing market practices, subject to compliance with any applicable laws including mandatory provisions of Luxembourg law, and stock exchange or other relevant authority requirements. So long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of that Stock Exchange so require, the Issuer shall, promptly upon the partial redemption, cause to be published on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange Website (www.luxse.com) a notice specifying the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding and where applicable a list of the Notes previously drawn for redemption but not surrendered. In respect of Clearing System Dematerialised Notes, the notice to Noteholders shall also specify the Notes or amounts of the Notes to be redeemed or in respect of which such option has been so exercised and the procedures for partial redemption provided by the relevant CSD Rules will apply.

For the purposes of this Condition 6(f) and Condition 6(h) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options) the Issuer's Option Period and the Noteholder's Option Period, as applicable, mean any specified period of time within the period from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the Maturity Date, or as otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms (provided that in any case the Issuer's Option Period and/or the Noteholder's Option Period, as applicable, will end no later than the Business Day prior to the Maturity Date).

(g) Forced Transfer at Option of the Issuer upon void transfer or other disposition

Any transfer or other disposition of any legal or beneficial ownership interest in a Note to:

- (i) a U.S. person as defined in Rule 902(k)(1) of Regulation S of the Securities Act; or
- (ii) a person who comes within any definition of U.S. person for the purposes of the Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended, or any rule, guidance or order proposed or issued by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the CFTC) thereunder (including but not limited to any person who is not a "Non-United States person" under CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(1)(iv) (excluding for purposes of CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(1)(iv)(D) the exception for qualified eligible persons who are not "Non-United States persons")) (any such person or account, a Non-Permitted Transferee), will be void ab initio and of no legal effect whatsoever. Accordingly, any purported transferee of any legal or beneficial ownership interest in a Note in such a transaction will not be entitled to any rights as a legal or beneficial owner of such interest in such Note.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions, the Issuer shall give notice to the Fiscal Agent or the Registrar, as applicable, and shall have the right at any time after becoming aware that any legal or beneficial ownership interest in a Note is held by a Non-Permitted Transferee to require such Non-Permitted Transferee to sell such interest to: (a) an affiliate of the Issuer (to the extent permitted by applicable law); or (b) a person who is not a Non-Permitted Transferee, in each case, at a price equal to the lesser of: (x) the purchase price paid for such interest by such Non-Permitted Transferee; (y) the principal amount of such interest; and (z) the fair market value of such interest, less any costs or expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Issuer in connection with such sale.

(h) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options

If so provided in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any such Note, upon the holder of such Note giving not less than 15 days' nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Issuer (or such other notice period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) exercise and redeem such Note: (i) on the Option Exercise Date specified in the Exercise Notice and falling during the Noteholder's Option Period; or (ii) on the Optional Redemption Date(s) provided in the applicable Final Terms at its Optional Redemption Amount together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption.

To exercise such option or any other Noteholders' option that may be set out for the relevant Notes the holder must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Bearer Note (together with all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Registered Note representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office or, in the case of Swedish Notes or Swiss Notes, the holder must transfer such Note to the account designated by the relevant Issuing Agent and blocked for further transfer by such Agent (such date of transfer and blocking being deemed to be the first date of the relevant Closed Period for the purposes of Condition 2(f), together with

No Note so deposited or transferred and option exercised may be withdrawn (except as provided in the Agency Agreement) without the prior consent of the Issuer.

(i) Exercise Rights in respect of Italian Listed Certificates

This Condition 6(i) shall only apply where "Certificates" is specified as the Type of Securities in the applicable Final Terms.

Any other taxes, duties and/or expenses, including any applicable depository charges, transaction or exercise charges, stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, issue, registration, securities transfer and/or other taxes or duties which may arise in connection with the automatic exercise of the Italian Listed Certificates, are payable by the holder of Italian Listed Certificates.

(j) Automatic Early Redemption

Certain provisions of certain types of Structured Notes set out in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide that such Notes will be automatically redeemed early in certain specified circumstances set out in the relevant Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes. Should such circumstances apply the Notes will be automatically redeemed early, without any requirement for the giving of notice, at the applicable Early Redemption Amount, all subject to and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

(k) Open-ended Notes

Open-ended Notes, being Notes with no fixed maturity date, may be issued and may, if issued by NATIXIS, include an Issuer's and/or a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early. Open-ended Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL will have an Issuer's option and a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early.

(l) Cancellation

All Notes purchased by, or on behalf of, the Issuer may be surrendered for cancellation, in the case of Bearer Notes by surrendering each such Note together with all unexpired Receipts and Coupons and all unexchanged Talons to the Fiscal Agent and, in the case of Registered Notes,

Any Notes so surrendered for cancellation may not be reissued or resold and the obligations of the Issuer in respect of any such Notes shall be discharged. Any Notes purchased by an affiliate of the Issuer for its own account need not be surrendered for cancellation and may be resold.

(m) Redemption for Force Majeure Event and Significant Alteration Event

- (i) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and if the Issuer determines that a Force Majeure Event or Significant Alteration Event has occurred, the Issuer may redeem all but not some only of the Notes as further specified in Condition 6(n) below by giving notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices).
- (ii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and if the Issuer determines that a Force Majeure Event has occurred, the Issuer may redeem all but not some only of the Notes at the Fair Market Value by giving notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices).

For these purposes, Fair Market Value means the fair market value of the Notes determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination, including accrued but unpaid interest and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, expressed as a percentage of the Outstanding Nominal Amount; provided that, in relation to Notes for which the Final Redemption Amount is specified to be equal to the Fair Market Value of the Notes, in the event of an Event of Default in respect of such Notes, any unwind costs relating to funding arrangements will be deemed to be zero and this definition and the definitions of Final Redemption Amount and Redemption Amount shall be construed accordingly.

(n) Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms

- (i) If Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, may only redeem the Notes (other than Open-ended Notes) prior to their Maturity Date, as described in these Terms and Conditions, where the relevant event giving rise to such redemption qualifies as a: (a) Significant Alteration Event; or (b) Force Majeure Event.
- (ii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and where Notes for which a Protected Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), or 6(m) above or 6(o) below (and provided that the circumstances set out in these Conditions do not constitute a Force Majeure Event), the Issuer shall:
 - (I) if "Highest Value" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at the greater of the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) of such Notes or the Protected Amount of such Notes; or

(II) if "Monetisation Option" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, offer to each Noteholder the choice (to be exercised at such Noteholder's absolute discretion) of the following two options:

- (a) the Monetisation Amount (as defined below) (including the reimbursement by the Issuer, pro rata (calculated from the Early Redemption Date, or as the case may be, partial redemption date notified to the Noteholders until the Maturity Date of the Notes), of any costs, or as the case may be the proportionate share of costs (including but not limited structuring costs) paid by the Noteholders to the Issuer in the Issue Price of the Notes), such amount to be paid by the Issuer (notwithstanding the notice of early redemption) on the Maturity Date; or
- (b) if the Noteholder duly elects to receive fair market value, as provided below, the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption), such amount to be paid by the Issuer on the date fixed for early redemption as notified to the Noteholders.

In the Issuer's notice of early redemption, the Issuer must include the following:

- (A) the Cut-off Date and time for each Noteholder to elect to receive the Early Redemption Amount on the date fixed for early redemption;
- (B) the date of determination of the Early Redemption Amount in respect of such election and the amount determined by the Calculation Agent as the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes on such date; and
- (C) the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent as the Monetisation Amount.

If the Noteholder does not make a valid election to receive the Early Redemption Amount on the date fixed for early redemption before the Cut-off Date and time set out in the Issuer's notice of early redemption, the Noteholder will receive the Monetisation Amount in respect of such Note on the Maturity Date.

(iii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and where: (x) Notes for which a Protected Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), or 6(m) above or 6(o) below and where the circumstances set out in these Conditions constitute a Force Majeure Event; or (y) Notes for which Protected Amount is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), or 6(m) above, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) of such Notes.

(iv) For the purposes of this Condition 6(n)(iv):

Monetisation Amount means, in respect of a Note, an amount equal to the greater of the Protected Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms and the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent as follows:

$$(S + D) \times (1 + r)^n$$

Where:

S is the present value of the Protected Amount of such Note on the date on which the event triggering early redemption occurs;

D is the market value of the Derivative Component on the date on which the event triggering early redemption occurs (calculated by the Calculation Agent by reference to a generally accepted valuation method for such instruments in the financial markets);

r is a hypothetical annual interest rate that would be applied on an equivalent hypothetical debt instrument issued by the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as applicable) with the same time to redemption as the remaining time to redemption on the Notes from the date fixed for early redemption until the Maturity Date of the Notes;

n is the time remaining until the Maturity Date of the Notes, expressed as a number of years with "(1+r)ⁿ" meaning that "(1+r)" is multiplied by itself "n-1" times. (e.g.: (S+D) x (1+r)⁵ means (S+D) x (1+r) x (1+r) x (1+r) x (1+r) x (1+r)); and

Derivative Component means the option component or embedded derivative in respect of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes or the interest amount due under the Notes, as applicable, in order to enable the Issuer to issue the Notes at the issue price and on their applicable terms. The value of the Derivative Component will be determined by the Calculation Agent, taking into account a number of factors, including, but not limited to:

- (A) market prices or values for the underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases) and other relevant economic variables (such as interest rates; dividend rates; financing costs; the value, price or level of any relevant underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases) and any futures or options relating to any of them; the volatility of any relevant underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases); and exchange rates (if applicable));
- (B) the time remaining until the Maturity Date of the Notes;
- (C) internal pricing models; and
- (D) prices at which other market participants might bid for the Derivative Component.

(o) Redemption for a Fair Market Value Trigger Event

In the event that a Fair Market Value Trigger Event occurs, the Issuer may (at its option) having given not less than 10 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) (the Fair Market Value Trigger Notice) (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the relevant Fair Market Value Trigger Redemption Date), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, each Note being redeemed at the relevant Early Redemption

Amount calculated as at such date unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms and no further interest will be payable commencing from the Interest Payment Date immediately preceding such occurrence or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date.

For the purposes of this Condition 6(o), if Fair Market Value Trigger Event is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms:

Fair Market Value Trigger means an amount, expressed as a percentage, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Fair Market Value Trigger Event means the existence or occurrence at any time after the Issue Date, in the determination of the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, of any event or circumstance resulting in the fair market value of the Notes based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination, including accrued but unpaid interest and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, expressed as a percentage of the Outstanding Nominal Amount, being lower than or equal to the Fair Market Value Trigger.

Fair Market Value Trigger Redemption Date means the date specified in the Fair Market Value Trigger Notice on which the Notes shall be redeemed, being in the case of a CLN or BLN with American Settlement not less than five nor more than 10 Business Days after the date of delivery of such Fair Market Value Trigger Notice and in the case of a CLN or BLN with European Settlement the Maturity Date.

(p) Issuer Discretion

Unless otherwise specified in these Conditions, upon the occurrence of any event or circumstances (howsoever described) that could constitute an event or circumstances (as the case may be) under more than one of Conditions 6(a)-(m) (inclusive) above, such event shall be treated in accordance with the terms of such Condition(s) as the Issuer may in its reasonable discretion elect and such election shall be conclusive and binding on the Agents, the Guarantor (if any) and the relevant Noteholders.

(c) Physical Delivery Notes

In the case of any Note which is a Physical Delivery Note that is to be redeemed by the transfer of the Deliverable Asset(s) comprising the Physical Delivery Amount, transfer of the Deliverable Asset(s) in respect of any Physical Delivery Amount will be effected: (a) by the delivery to, or to the order of, the Noteholder of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s); (b) at the risk of the relevant Noteholder in such manner as may be specified in the transfer notice (the Transfer Notice, the form of which is annexed to the Agency Agreement); and (c) subject to compliance with applicable securities laws.

When the settlement of a Physical Delivery Note is by way of physical delivery, the delivery of any Physical Delivery Amount in respect of Physical Delivery Notes (including, without limitation, liability for the costs of transfer of Deliverable Asset(s)) will be made through the relevant Clearing System.

No additional payment or delivery will be due to a Noteholder where any Deliverable Asset(s) is/are delivered after their due date in circumstances beyond the control of either the Issuer or the Settlement Agent. The Transfer Notice will be delivered using the transfer procedures currently utilised by the relevant Clearing System.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in Conditions 1, 3, 7 and 8, no additional payment of any sum or delivery of any Asset will be due to:

- (a) the Issuer in compensation for amounts representing the excess Deliverable Asset(s) if the Issuer delivers Deliverable Asset(s) in an aggregate amount greater than the Physical Delivery Amount; or
- (b) the Noteholders for amounts representing a shortfall in the Deliverable Asset(s) if the Issuer delivers the Deliverable Asset(s) in an aggregate amount less than the Physical Delivery Amount.

A Noteholder's entitlement to any Physical Delivery Amount will be evidenced:

- (a) by the Noteholder's account balance appearing on the records of the relevant Clearing System and in the case of Italian Notes, on the records of the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder; and/or
- (b) if necessary, the number of Notes held by each Noteholder as notified to the Fiscal Agent by the relevant Clearing System, and in the case of Italian Notes, by the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder.

Any delivery of Deliverable Assets will only be made in compliance with applicable securities laws.

In the event that the Issuer, for any reason, is unable to effect Delivery of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) to any Noteholder by the Maturity Date (or other specified settlement date therefor specified in the applicable Final Terms (such Maturity Date, or, as the case may be, other settlement date, the Final Settlement Date)) the Issuer may continue to attempt such Delivery for an additional 60 Business Days after the Final Settlement Date. Failure by the Issuer to Deliver to a Noteholder the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) on or prior to the date that is 60 Business Days after the Final Settlement Date shall not constitute an Event of Default nor give any entitlement to default interest and failure to Deliver (a) Deliverable Asset(s) at any time for reasons beyond the Issuer's control, and where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, provided that such reasons constitute a Force Majeure Event, shall also not constitute an Event of Default nor give any entitlement to default interest.

Transfer and Delivery of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) in accordance with the above provisions shall fully and effectively discharge the Issuer's obligation to redeem the pro rata share of the relevant Physical Delivery Notes and (in the circumstances referred to in the following paragraph) payment of the pro rata share of any Final Redemption Amount shall fully and effectively discharge the Issuer's obligation to redeem the whole of the relevant Physical Delivery Note.

When the applicable Final Terms specify that "Issuer's option to vary method of settlement" is "Applicable", the Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, and where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, only upon the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event or a Significant Alteration Event, elect to pay or cause to be paid to Noteholders on the Maturity Date in lieu of its obligation to deliver or procure delivery of the Physical Delivery Amount, either (at the Issuer's sole and absolute discretion): (i) the Final Redemption Amount (cash only); or (ii) an amount payable partly in Deliverable Assets and partly in cash in such proportions as the Issuer shall, in its sole and absolute discretion determine. Notification to the Noteholders of any such election may be given at any time during the "Designated Variation Period" specified in the applicable Final Terms, or if no such Designated Variation Period is specified, such notification may be given at any time up until the tenth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date (which term, in the case of Credit Linked Notes or, as the case may be, Bond Linked Notes, shall be construed in accordance with the definition thereof in Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (for Credit Linked Notes) or Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (for Bond Linked Notes), as applicable). Any such notification shall be given in accordance with Condition 14.

In the case of Credit Linked Notes and Bond Linked Notes, the Final Redemption Amount will be determined on the basis of either the Cash Settlement Amount or, at the sole discretion of the Issuer, on the basis of the Auction Settlement Amount (each term as defined in Condition 13 or Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable).

For the avoidance of doubt in the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between: (i) any provision of Condition 5 and this Condition 7 regarding settlement of Physical Delivery Notes; and (ii) any provision of Conditions 1 to 19 relating to settlement of Physical Delivery Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Notes settled by "Physical Settlement" as contemplated by Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes or Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable), the relevant provisions of Conditions 1 to 19 shall prevail.

(d) Payments in the United States

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Bearer Notes are denominated in U.S. dollars, payments in respect thereof may be made at the specified office of any Paying Agent in New York City in the same manner as aforesaid if: (i) the Issuer shall have appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment of the amounts on the Notes in the manner provided above when due; (ii) payment in full of such amounts at all such offices is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on payment or receipt of such amounts; and (iii) such payment is then permitted by United States law, without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, any adverse tax consequence to the Issuer.

(e) Payments subject to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986

All payments are subject in all cases to: (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives in the place of payment (whether directly by operation of law or through an agreement of the Issuer or its Agents); (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) (such withholding or deduction, 871(m) Withholding); and (iii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the Code or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto. No commission or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders in respect of such payments. In addition, in determining the amount of 871(m) Withholding imposed with respect to any amounts to be paid on the Notes, the Issuer shall be entitled to withhold on any "dividend equivalent" (as defined for purposes of Section 871(m) of the Code) at the highest rate applicable to such payments regardless of any exemption from, or reduction in, such withholding otherwise available under applicable law.

With respect to Notes that provide for net dividend reinvestment in respect of either an underlying U.S. security or an index that includes U.S. securities, all payments on the Notes that reference such U.S. securities or an index that includes U.S. securities may be calculated by reference to dividends on such U.S. securities that are reinvested at a rate of 70%. In such case, in calculating the relevant payment amount, the Noteholder will be deemed to receive, and the Issuer will be deemed to withhold, 30% of any dividend equivalent payments (as defined in Section 871(m) of the Code) in respect of the relevant U.S. securities. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts to the holder on account of the Section 871(m) amount deemed withheld.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent in New York City in respect of any Bearer Notes denominated in U.S. dollars in the circumstances described in Condition 7(d).

- (g) in the case of any other Clearing System Dematerialised Notes, a local registrar and a local issuing agent as provided in the applicable Final Terms.

Notice of any such change or any change of any specified office shall promptly be given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices).

(g) Unmatured Coupons and Receipts and unexchanged Talons

- (i) Unless the Notes provide that the relative Coupons are to become void upon the due date for redemption of those Notes, Bearer Notes should be surrendered for payment together with all unmatured Coupons (if any) appertaining thereto, failing which an amount equal to the face value of each missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, that proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon which the sum of principal so paid bears to the total principal due) shall be deducted from the Redemption Amount due for payment. Any amount so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of such missing Coupon within a period of ten years from the Relevant Date for the payment of such principal (whether or not such Coupon has become void pursuant to Condition 9).

- (ii) If the Notes so provide, upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, unmaturing Coupons relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of them.
- (iii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no Coupon shall be delivered in respect of such Talon.
- (iv) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note which is redeemable in instalments, all Receipts relating to such Note having an Instalment Date falling on or after such due date (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of them.
- (v) Where any Bearer Note which provides that the relative unmaturing Coupons are to become void upon the due date for redemption of those Notes is presented for redemption without all unmaturing Coupons and where any Bearer Note is presented for redemption without any unexchanged Talon relating to it, redemption shall be made only against the provisions of such indemnity as the Issuer may require.
- (vi) If the due date for redemption of any Note is not a due date for payment of interest, interest accrued from the preceding due date for payment of interest or the Interest Commencement Date, as the case may be, shall only be payable against presentation (and surrender if appropriate) of the relevant Bearer Note or Registered Note representing it, as the case may be. Interest accrued on a Note which only bears interest after its Maturity Date shall be payable on redemption of such Note against presentation of the relevant Bearer Note or Registered Note representing it, as the case may be.
- (vii) The provisions of sub-paragraph (i) of Condition 7(g) notwithstanding, if any Note should be issued with a maturity date and an Interest Rate or Rates such that, on the presentation for payment of any such Note without any unmaturing Coupons attached thereto or surrendered therewith, the amount required by sub-paragraph (i) to be deducted in respect of such unmaturing Coupons would be greater than the Redemption Amount otherwise due for payment, then, upon the due date for redemption of any such Note, such unmaturing Coupons (whether or not attached) shall become void (and no payment shall be made in respect thereof) as shall be required so that, upon application of the previous sub-paragraph (i) in respect of such Coupons as have not so become void, the amount required by sub-paragraph (i) to be deducted would not be greater than the Redemption Amount otherwise due for payment. Where the application of the foregoing sentence requires some but not all of the unmaturing Coupons relating to a Note to become void, and the relevant Paying Agent shall determine which unmaturing Coupons are to become void, and shall select for such purpose Coupons maturing on later dates in preference to Coupons maturing on earlier dates.

(h) Talons

On or after the Interest Payment Date for the final Coupon forming part of a Coupon sheet issued in respect of any Bearer Note, the Talon forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Fiscal Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet (and if necessary another Talon for a further Coupon sheet) (but excluding any Coupons which may have become void pursuant to Condition 9).

(i) Non-Business Days

If any date for payment in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon is not a business day, the holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following business day nor to any interest or other sum in respect of such postponed payment. In this Condition 7(i) business day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business in the relevant place of presentation and, in the case of Clearing System Dematerialised Notes, a day on which the relevant clearing system for such Notes is operating, in such jurisdictions as shall be specified as Additional Business Day Jurisdictions in the applicable Final Terms and:

- (i) in the case of a payment in a currency other than Euro, where payment is to be made by transfer to an account maintained with a bank in the Specified Currency, on which foreign exchange transactions may be carried on in the Specified Currency in the principal financial centre of the country of such currency;
- (ii) if TARGET System is specified as an Additional Business Day Jurisdiction in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the TARGET System is open; or
- (iii) in the case of a payment in Euro, which is a TARGET Business Day.

(j) Provisions specific to CNY Currency Event

If "CNY Currency Event" is specified in the applicable Final Terms and a CNY Currency Event, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, exists on a date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon, the Issuer may determine one or more of the following, and require the Calculation Agent to take such action or make such determination accordingly, in its sole and absolute discretion:

- (i) the relevant payment of the Issuer be postponed to 10 Business Days after the date on which the CNY Currency Event ceases to exist or, if that would not be possible (as determined by the Issuer acting in good faith) as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter;
- (ii) that the Issuer's obligation to make a payment in CNY under the terms of the Notes be replaced by an obligation to pay such amount in the Relevant Currency (converted at the Alternate Settlement Rate determined by the Calculation Agent as of a time selected in good faith by the Calculation Agent); and
- (iii) by giving notice to the Noteholders in accordance with the Conditions, the Issuer, in its sole and absolute discretion, may redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, each Note being redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount.

Upon the occurrence of a CNY Currency Event, the Issuer shall give notice, as soon as practicable, to the Noteholders in accordance with the Conditions stating the occurrence of the CNY Currency Event, giving brief details thereof and the action proposed to be taken in relation thereto.

(k) Dual Currency Notes

If "Dual Currency Note Provisions" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, amounts payable in respect of payment of principal and/or interest, if any, in respect the Notes shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by converting the relevant amounts denominated in the relevant Specified Currency into the Secondary Currency at the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate.

- (i) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that "Settlement in the Specified Currency" is "Not Applicable", then settlement will be made in the Secondary Currency at the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate.
- (ii) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that "Settlement in the Specified Currency" is "Applicable", then the amount payable in the relevant Secondary Currency calculated in accordance with the paragraph above shall be then converted by the Calculation Agent into the Specified Currency at the Specified Currency Conversion Rate. In such case settlement will be made in the Specified Currency at the Specified Currency Conversion Rate.
- (iii) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that the Dual Currency Note Provisions are "Applicable" "as set out in the Annex", then the settlement will be made in accordance with the applicable Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes as completed by the Annex to the Final Terms in relation to the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Secondary Currency means, in respect of the provision above, the currency or currencies specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Secondary Currency Conversion Rate means the conversion rate used to convert amounts in the Specified Currency into the Secondary Currency determined in accordance with the Conversion Method specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Specified Currency Conversion Rate means the conversion rate used to convert amounts previously converted into the Secondary Currency into the Specified Currency determined in accordance with the Conversion Method specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Conversion Method means the method of determining the conversion rate specified in the applicable Final Terms in relation, as the case may be, to the Specified Currency Conversion Rate or the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate and may be one of the following methods:

- (i) the applicable Final Terms may specify that the conversion rate shall be the Cross Currency Rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms which appears on the Page designated in the applicable Final Terms on the Conversion Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms. If such rate does not appear on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent will determine the conversion rate (or a method for determining the conversion rate) by reference to such sources as it acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner selects;
- (ii) the applicable Final Terms may specify a predetermined conversion rate. The applicable Final Terms will specify if this conversion rate is (i) the value of one Unit of the Specified Currency expressed as a unit (and/or fractions) of the Secondary Currency, or (ii) the value of one Unit of the Secondary Currency expressed as a unit (and/or fractions) of the Specified Currency; or

- (iii) all other methods described in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes as completed by the Annex to the Final Terms in relation to the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

(l) Charity Payment Notes

If “Charity Payment Notes” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, payments of the Shared Amount(s) to the relevant Non-Profit Organisation shall be made directly by the Issuer, or by the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment, on behalf of the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 5(s) (Charity Payment Notes).

8. Taxation

All payments of principal and interest by, or on behalf of, the relevant Issuer in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Luxembourg (in the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL) or France (in the case of Notes issued by NATIXIS), or, in either case, any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In that event (unless the Tax Gross-up provision is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms), the relevant Issuer shall pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the holders of Notes, Receipts or Coupons, after such withholding or deduction, will receive the full amount then due and payable thereon in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that the relevant Issuer shall not be liable to pay any such additional amounts in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon:

- (a) presented (or in respect of which the Registered Note representing it is presented) for payment by, or on behalf of, a holder who is subject to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note, Receipt or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with Luxembourg or France, as applicable, other than the mere holding of such Note, Receipt or Coupon; or
- (b) presented (or in respect of which the Registered Note representing it is presented) for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date, except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting it for payment on the thirtieth such day; or
- (c) where such withholding or deduction is required to be made pursuant to the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005, as amended.

In addition, no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to: (i) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to Section 871(m) of the Code; and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the Code or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

9. Prescription

Claims against the Issuer for payment in respect of the Notes, Receipts and Coupons (which for this purpose shall not include Talons) shall be prescribed and become void unless presented for payment within ten years (in the case of principal) or five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect of them.

The Luxembourg act dated 3 September 1996 on the involuntary dispossession of bearer securities, as amended (the Involuntary Dispossession Act 1996) requires that any amount that is payable under the Bearer Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL (but has not yet been paid to the holders of the Bearer Notes), in the event that: (i) an opposition has been filed in relation to the Bearer Notes; and (ii) the Bearer Notes mature prior to becoming forfeited (as provided for in the Involuntary Dispossession Act 1996), is paid to the Caisse des consignations in Luxembourg until the opposition has been withdrawn or the forfeiture of the Bearer Notes occurs.

Claims against the Issuer for payment in respect of the Finnish Notes will be paid automatically to the Noteholders' respective bank accounts registered in the Finnish CSD system and are subject to a general three-year prescription period.

Claims against the Issuer for payment in respect of Swedish Notes or Swiss Notes shall be prescribed and become void unless made within ten years (in the case of principal) or five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect thereof.

10. Events of Default

(a) Notes issued by NATIXIS

In respect of Notes issued by NATIXIS, if any of the following events (each, an Event of Default) occurs and is continuing, the holder of any Note may give written notice to the Fiscal Agent at its specified office effective upon receipt thereof by the Fiscal Agent that such Note is immediately payable (provided that, in the case of Swiss Notes, such payment shall not be made until the relevant Note(s) shall have been transferred to the account designated by the Swiss Issuing and Paying Agent and blocked for further transfer by such Agent (such date of blocking and transfer being deemed to be the first date of the relevant closed period for the purposes of Condition 2(f))), whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable unless in all cases prior to the time when the Fiscal Agent receives such notice all Events of Default in respect of the Notes shall have been cured:

- (i) default in any payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note including the payment of any additional amounts pursuant to Condition 8 (Taxation) (if applicable), when and as the same shall become due and payable, if such default shall not have been cured within 15 days thereafter;
- (ii) default by the Issuer in the due performance of any other obligations under the Notes, if such default shall not have been cured within 60 days after receipt by the Fiscal Agent of written notice of default given by the holder of such Note;

- (iv) a judgment is rendered for the judicial liquidation (liquidation judiciaire) or for the transfer of the whole of the business (cession totale de l'entreprise) of the Issuer or the

Issuer makes any conveyance for the benefit of, or enters into any agreement with, its creditors or is subject to any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings; or

- (v) the Issuer sells, transfers, lends or otherwise disposes of, directly or indirectly, the whole or a substantial part of its undertaking or assets, or the Issuer enters into, or commences any proceedings in furtherance of, forced or voluntary liquidation or dissolution, except in the case of a disposal of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in favour of, a legal entity organised in the European Union, which simultaneously assumes (by operation of law or by express agreement) all of or substantially all of the Issuer's liabilities including the Notes.

(b) Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance

In respect of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance, if any of the following events (Events of Default) occurs and is continuing, the holder of any Note may give written notice to the Fiscal Agent at its specified office that such Note is immediately repayable, whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable (provided that, in the case of Swedish or Swiss Notes, such payment shall not be made until the relevant Note(s) shall have been transferred to the account designated by the Swedish, or Swiss Issuing and Paying Agent and blocked for further transfer by such Agent (such date of blocking and transfer being deemed to be the first date of the relevant closed period for the purposes of Condition 2(f))) whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable unless, in all cases, prior to the time when the Fiscal Agent receives such notice all Events of Default in respect of the Notes shall have been cured:

- (i) default in any payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note including the payment of any additional amounts pursuant to Condition 8 (Taxation) (if applicable), when and as the same shall become due and payable, if such default shall not have been cured within 15 days thereafter;
- (ii) default by the Issuer in the due performance of any other provision of the Notes, if such default shall not have been cured within 30 days after receipt by the Fiscal Agent of written notice of default given by the bearer of such Note;
- (iii) any other present or future indebtedness for money borrowed or otherwise raised by the Issuer in excess of €50,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies) shall become due and payable or capable of being declared due and payable prior to its stated maturity by reason of default, or any security in respect of any such indebtedness becomes enforceable and the holder thereof takes any steps to enforce it, or any such indebtedness shall not be paid when due (or at the expiration of any grace period originally applicable thereto) or any guarantee or indemnity given by the Issuer in respect of any such indebtedness of any person shall not be honoured when due and called upon, save, in each case, where such default or failure to pay or honour such obligations is due to a technical or settlement failure beyond the control of the Issuer, provided that such default or failure is remedied within seven days;
- (iv) the Issuer is insolvent or bankrupt or unable to pay its debts as they fall due, stops, suspends or threatens to stop or suspend payment of all, or a material part of (or of a particular type of), its debts, proposes or makes a general assignment or an arrangement or composition with, or for the benefit of, the relevant creditors in respect of any of such debts or a moratorium is agreed or declared or comes into effect in respect of, or affecting all or any part of (or of a particular type of), (including with respect to the Issuer, without limitation, the opening of any bankruptcy (faillite), insolvency, voluntary or judicial liquidation (liquidation volontaire ou judiciaire), negotiation or conclusion of an amicable agreement (accord amiable), reprieve from payment (sursis de paiement), general settlement with creditors or reorganisation proceedings (including judicial reorganisation (réorganisation judiciaire)) or similar proceedings affecting the rights of creditors generally and/or the appointment of any receiver (curateur), liquidator (liquidateur), auditor (commissaire), verifier (expert-vérificateur), or similar officer including any conciliateur d'entreprise, mandataire de justice, administrateur provisoire or juge commissaire); or

- (v) an order is made, or an effective resolution passed, for the winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer, except pursuant to its consolidation or amalgamation with, or its merger with or into, or a transfer of all, or substantially all, of its assets to, one or more other entities provided (unless otherwise approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of the Noteholders) that:
 - (a) a resulting, surviving or transferee entity (a Successor) assumes all the obligations (whether past or future) of the Issuer under the Notes, whether by operation of law or otherwise, and
 - (b) the conditions which would have applied to a substitution set out under sub-paragraphs (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of Condition 15.2 are satisfied, except that: (i) references to "Substitute" shall be construed as references to "Successor"; and (ii) references to "Deed Poll" or "Deed of Covenant" shall be deemed to be deleted.

(c) Secured Notes issued by NCIBL

In respect of Secured Notes issued by NCIBL, the Events of Default shall be, mutatis mutandis, identical to those applicable to Natixis Structured Issuance set out in paragraph (b) above and, in addition, any applicable Events of Default set out in Condition 20.4(a) (Events of Default) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes shall also apply in respect of any relevant Series and the provisions of these Conditions shall be construed accordingly.

11. Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications

(a) Meeting of Noteholders

The Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening meetings of Noteholders to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of a modification of any of these Conditions. Any modification of the Conditions shall only be binding on the Issuer if agreed by it or on its behalf. Such a meeting may be convened by Noteholders holding not less than 10% in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding. The quorum for any meeting convened to consider an Extraordinary Resolution shall be two or more persons holding or representing a clear majority in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned meeting two or more persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the principal amount of the Notes held or represented, unless the business of such meeting includes consideration of proposals, inter alia, (i) to amend the dates of maturity or redemption of the Notes, any Instalment Date or any date for payment of interest or Interest Amounts on the Notes, (ii) to reduce or cancel the principal amount of, or any Instalment Amount (or Instalment Payable Amount) of, or any premium payable on redemption of, the Notes, (iii) to reduce the rate or rates of interest in respect of the Notes or to vary the method or basis of calculating the rate or rates or amount of interest or the basis for calculating any Interest Amount in respect of the Notes, (iv) if a minimum and/or a maximum Interest Rate, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or Redemption Amount is shown in the applicable Final Terms, to reduce any such Minimum and/or Maximum, (v) to vary any method of, or basis for, calculating the Redemption Amount, including the method of calculating the Amortised Face Amount, (vi) to vary the currency or currencies of payment or denomination of the Notes, (vii) to take any steps that as specified hereon may only be taken following approval by an Extraordinary Resolution to which the special quorum provisions apply or (viii) to modify the provisions concerning the quorum required at any meeting of Noteholders or the majority required to pass the Extraordinary Resolution in which case the necessary quorum shall be two or more persons holding or representing not less than 75%, or at any adjourned meeting not less than 25%, in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed shall be binding on Noteholders (whether or not they were present at any meeting and whether or not they voted on the resolution) and on all Couponholders.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agency Agreement or in this Condition 11, no modification shall be made to the Italian Listed Certificates pursuant to a meeting of Noteholders, the effect of which is the reduction or cancellation of the Redemption Amount of such Italian Listed Certificates, unless such reduction or cancellation occurs as a result of a bankruptcy, insolvency or similar type proceeding resulting in a restructuring of the debt obligations of the Issuer, or the reorganisation of the Issuer.

The Agency Agreement provides that: (i) a resolution passed at a meeting duly convened and held in accordance with Agency Agreement by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast on such resolution; (ii) a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all the Noteholders who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a Meeting in accordance with the provisions herein contained; or (iii) consent given by way of electronic consents through the relevant clearing system(s) (in a form satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent) by or on behalf of all the Noteholders who are for the time being entitled to receive notice of a Meeting in accordance with the provisions herein contained shall in each case for all purposes be valid and effectual as an Extraordinary Resolution of such Noteholders. Such resolution in writing may be contained in one document or in several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of such Noteholders.

In the case where a meeting of holders of Finnish Notes is to be convened, the Issuer shall notify Euroclear Finland thereof as soon as practicable and in any event prior to such meeting being held.

These Conditions may be amended, modified or varied in relation to any Series of Notes by the terms of the relevant Final Terms in relation to such Series.

For the avoidance of doubt, Articles 470-3 to 470-19 of the Luxembourg act dated 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended (the Companies Act 1915), shall not apply with regard to the Notes. In addition, no Noteholder may initiate proceedings against Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL based on article 470-21 of the Companies Act 1915.

(b) Modifications

The Fiscal Agent and the Issuer may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders, to any modification of the Notes, the Receipts and/or the Coupons which is: (i) to cure or correct any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provision contained herein, provided that such modification is not in the opinion of the Fiscal Agent and the Issuer materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders, the Receiptholders and/or the Couponholders; or (ii) to correct any manifest error; or (iii) to comply with mandatory provisions of Luxembourg law (where NSI or NCIBL is the Issuer) or French law (where NATIXIS is the Issuer or in the case of French Law Notes issued by NCILB) or English law (in the case of English Law Notes issued by NCIBL) and, if Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, provided that, in each of the cases (i) to (iii) above, such modification does not relate to the essential characteristics of the Notes. Any such modification shall be binding on the Noteholders, the Couponholders and the Receiptholders and any such modification shall be notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) as soon as practicable thereafter.

If Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, may only modify or adjust the terms of the Notes (other than as specified above), as described in these Terms and Conditions, where the relevant event giving rise to such modification or adjustment, as applicable, qualifies as a: (a) Significant Alteration Event; or (b) Force Majeure Event.

For the purpose of this Condition 11, essential characteristics of the Notes means characteristics of the Notes that are considered essential to the Noteholders, including without limitation the Underlying, the Protected Amount, if applicable, the identity of the Issuer and of the Guarantor (if applicable) and the scheduled Maturity Date.

For the purpose of these Conditions:

Force Majeure Event means that, in the opinion of the Issuer, on or after the Issue Date, the performance of the Issuer's obligations under the Notes is impossible and insurmountable due to the occurrence of any one of the following events, for which the Issuer is not accountable (being for the avoidance of doubt events which are not attributable to the Issuer), on the condition that the occurrence of such events renders the continuation of the Notes definitively impossible:

- (a) any act (other than a Market Disruption Event), law, rule, regulation, judgment, order, directive, interpretation, decree or material legislative or administrative interference of any Government Authority or otherwise; or
- (b) the occurrence of civil war, disruption, military action, unrest, political insurrection, terrorist activity of any kind, riot, public demonstration and/or protest, or any other financial, political or economic reasons or any other causes or impediments beyond such party's control; or
- (c) any expropriation, confiscation, requisition, nationalisation or other action taken or threatened by any Government Authority that deprives the Issuer or any of its affiliates, of all or substantially all of its assets in the local currency jurisdiction.

Government Authority means any nation, state or government, any province or other political subdivision thereof, any body, agency or ministry, any monetary or foreign exchange or other authority, court, tribunal or other instrumentality and any other entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

Significant Alteration Event means any event or circumstance or combination of events or circumstances occurring after the Issue Date that is not attributable to the Issuer but which has as its consequence that the economic balance of the Notes between the Issuer on the one hand and the Noteholders on the other hand as at the Issue Date is significantly altered, where such event constitutes an Illegality Event or Change in Law or causes a material increased cost for the Issuer as a consequence of a change in tax laws, solvency or regulatory capital requirements, nationalisation, or regulatory action, or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any other event of a similar nature that complies with the above conditions, but, in each case, where such event does not constitute a Force Majeure Event.

The Issuer shall only permit any modification of, or any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of or any failure to comply with, the Agency Agreement, if to do so could not reasonably be expected to be prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders or the Couponholders.

(c) Discretion

If Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Conditions, in exercising its discretion and making any election, determination, modification or adjustment, the Issuer, the Calculation Agent and any other relevant Agent shall do so in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner to preserve or restore the economics of the agreed terms as far as practicable. Any such election, determination, modification or adjustment shall not create a significant imbalance between the rights and obligations of the Issuer compared to the Noteholders, to the detriment of the Noteholders.

12. Replacement of Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons

If a Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed it may be replaced, subject to applicable laws and stock exchange regulations, at the respective specified offices of the Fiscal Agent or the Paying Agent in Luxembourg (in the case of Bearer Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons) and of the Registrar (in the case of Registered Notes) or such other Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, as the case may be, as may from time to time be designated by the Issuer for the purpose and notice of whose designation is given to Noteholders, in each case on payment by the claimant of the fees and costs incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence, security and indemnity (which may provide, inter alia, that if the allegedly lost, stolen or destroyed Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is subsequently presented for payment or, as the case may be, for exchange for further Coupons, there will be paid to the Issuer on demand the amount payable by the Issuer in respect of such Notes, Receipts, Coupons or further Coupons) and otherwise as the Issuer may require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued. In respect of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL only, the replacement of Bearer Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons, in the case of loss or theft, is subject to the procedure of the Involuntary Dispossession Act 1996.

13. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders create and issue further notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes (so that, for the avoidance of doubt, references in the conditions of such Notes to "Issue Date" shall be to the first Issue Date of the first tranche of the Notes) and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single series with such Notes, and references in these Conditions to "Notes" shall be construed accordingly.

14. Notices

Notices to the holders of Registered Notes shall be mailed to them at their respective addresses in the Register and deemed to have been given on the fourth weekday (being a day other than a Saturday or a Sunday) after the date of mailing. In addition, so long as any Registered Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of that exchange so require, notices to the holders of such Notes will only be valid if placed on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com).

All notices regarding Italian Listed Certificates shall be delivered to Borsa Italiana S.p.A. to be published in accordance with the rules of Borsa Italiana S.p.A. (if and for as so long as the rules of the exchange so require), guidelines and market practice. Notices to the holders of Bearer Notes will be valid if published in a leading newspaper having general circulation in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) and, so long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of that exchange so require, on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com). The relevant Issuer shall also ensure that notices are duly published in a manner which complies with the rules of any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading including publication on the website of the relevant stock exchange or relevant authority if required by those rules. If any such publication shall not be practicable, notice shall be validly given if published in another English language newspaper with general circulation in Europe. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such publication or, if published more than once or on different dates, on the first date on which publication is made.

Notices to holders of Clearing System Dematerialised Notes may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to the relevant clearing system for such Notes, except that, so long as such Notes for distribution to the Noteholders are listed on any stock exchange and the rules of such stock exchange so require, notices shall also be published as required by the rules of such stock exchange.

In the case of Italian Notes, notices to holders of Italian Notes shall be deemed to have been duly given through the systems of EuroNext Securities Milan.

In the case of Finnish Notes, notices to holders of Finnish Notes may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to the Finnish Issuing Agent for distribution to the holders of Finnish Notes, except that, so long as such Notes are listed on any stock exchange and the rules of such stock exchange so require, notices shall also be published as required by the rules of such stock exchange.

Couponholders will be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice to the holders of Bearer Notes in accordance with this Condition.

15. Substitution (applicable to Natixis Structured Issuance and NCIBL)

15.1 In respect of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL, the Issuer or any previous substituted company, may at any time, following the occurrence of a Substitution Event, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders, substitute for itself as principal debtor under the Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons any company (the Substitute) that is an Affiliate of the Issuer, or an Affiliate of any previous substituted company, provided that:

- (i) no payment in respect of the Notes, the Receipts or the Coupons is at the relevant time overdue;
- (ii) unless an Unsecured Notes Guarantee applies to the Notes, the Issuer unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees in favour of each Noteholder the performance of all obligations by the Substitute under the Notes; and
- (iii) the Substitution Conditions have been satisfied.

For the purposes of this Condition, a Substitution Event means:

- (a) a divestment of any assets of the Issuer;
- (b) the cancellation, suspension or revocation of any relevant authorisation or licence of the Issuer or the Guarantor, as the case may be, by any governmental, legal or regulatory authority;

15.2 The substitution shall be made by a deed poll (the Deed Poll), to be substantially in the form scheduled to the Agency Agreement as Schedule 8, and may take place only if the following conditions (the Substitution Conditions) are satisfied:

- (i) the Substitute shall, by means of the Deed Poll, agree to indemnify each Noteholder and Couponholder against any tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge that is imposed on it by (or by any authority in or of) the jurisdiction of the country of the Substitute's residence for tax purposes and, if different, of its incorporation with respect to any Note, Receipt, Coupon, Talon or the Deed of Covenant and that would not have been so imposed had the substitution not been made, as well as against any tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge, and any cost or expense, relating to the substitution;
- (ii) where the Substitute is not NATIXIS, the Substitute has: (a) a credit rating at least the same as the credit rating assigned by Moody's Investor Services, Inc. or Standard and Poor's Rating Group, Inc (or, if either ceases to exist or publish ratings generally, any alternative internationally recognised rating agency which has assigned a credit rating to the Issuer or, as the case may be, any previous substituted company) to the Issuer or, as the case may be, any previous substituted company, immediately prior to such substitution; and (b) the benefit of any equivalent guarantee arrangement (or any undertakings pursuant to any guarantee arrangement) which is not materially less beneficial to the holders of the Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons than the guarantee arrangement in place immediately prior to such substitution;
- (iii) all action, conditions and things required to be taken, fulfilled and done (including the obtaining of any necessary consents) to ensure that the Deed Poll, the Notes, Receipts, Coupons, Talons and Deed of Covenant represent valid, legally binding and enforceable obligations of the Substitute have been taken, fulfilled and done and are in full force and effect; the Substitute shall have become party to the Agency Agreement, with any appropriate consequential amendments, as if it had been an original party to it;
- (iv) legal opinions addressed to the Noteholders shall be made available to them (at the offices of the Agent) from a reputable lawyer or firm of lawyers with a securities practice in each jurisdiction referred to in (i) above and in England as to the fulfilment of the preceding conditions of this Condition 15 and the other matters specified in the Deed Poll;
- (v) the Issuer shall have given at least 14 days' prior notice of such substitution to the Noteholders, stating that copies, or pending execution the agreed text, of all documents in relation to the substitution that are referred to above, or that might otherwise reasonably be regarded as material to Noteholders, shall be available for inspection at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents. References in Condition 10 (Events of Default) to obligations under the Notes shall be deemed to include obligations under the Deed Poll;
- (vi) where Affiliate means, with respect to any specified person, any other person who directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such specified person. The term control means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise;

- (vii) in respect of the Swedish Notes, Danish Notes, Finnish Notes, Norwegian Notes or Swiss Notes, the Substitute shall have become party to the relevant Issuing Agreement with any appropriate consequential amendments, as if it had been an original party to it, and the Swedish Registrar, the Finnish Registrar, the Danish Register, the Norwegian CSD and the Norwegian Issuing and Paying Agent or the Swiss Issuing Agent (as the case may be) has given its consent to such substitution (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed);
- (viii) with reference to Italian Listed Certificates, the right of substitution will be exercised in compliance with the applicable rules and regulations of Borsa Italiana;
- (ix) in respect of the Preference Share Linked Notes, if the Issuer or the Calculation Agent determines that any tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge may be imposed on any Noteholder by (or by any authority in or of) the United Kingdom that would not be so imposed if the substitution is not made (a Substitution Charge), the Substitute shall, without prejudice to (i) above, indemnify each Noteholder against all such Substitution Charges, provided that the Issuer may instead elect to redeem the Preference Share Linked Notes in full (but not in part) prior to the substitution being made at the Early Redemption Amount determined in accordance with Condition 19(a) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (and for this purpose the Issuer's election hereunder shall constitute a Preference Share Early Redemption Event);
- (x) each stock exchange on which the Securities are listed has confirmed that, following the proposed substitution of the Substitute, the Securities will continue to be listed on such stock exchange; and
- (xi) if appropriate, the Substitute has appointed a process agent as its agent in England to receive service of process on its behalf in relation to any legal action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the Notes.

15.3 In the case of a substitution of: (i) NCIBL as Issuer in respect of any Series of Secured Notes, the Substitute shall (without the consent of any Noteholder) enter into: (a) additional Security Agreements, in each case, in form satisfactory to the Security Trustee in order to secure and to collateralise the obligations of the Substitute under the relevant Secured Notes; and (b) amendments to the Conditions and/or the applicable Final Terms to effect such consequential changes as may be necessary in relation to any such substitution, including (without limitation) in relation to such additional Security Agreements; or (ii) Natixis Structured Issuance in respect of any Series of Notes, the Substitute shall (without the consent of any Noteholder) enter into amendments to the Conditions and/or the applicable Final Terms to effect such consequential changes as may be necessary in relation to any such substitution.

16. Governing Law

(a) Governing Law

The Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons (including any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons) are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

(b) Jurisdiction

(A) Subject to Condition 16(b)(C) below, the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the Receipts, the Talons and/or the Coupons, including any dispute as to their existence, validity, interpretation, performance, breach or termination or the consequences of their nullity and any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the Receipts, the Talons and/or the Coupons (a Dispute) and accordingly each of the Issuer and any Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders in relation to any Dispute submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

- (B) For the purposes of this Condition 16(b), the Issuer waives any objection to the English courts on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum to settle any Dispute.
- (C) To the extent allowed by law, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders and the Couponholders may, in respect of any Dispute, take (i) proceedings in any other court with jurisdiction; and (ii) concurrent proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Condition 16(b) are without prejudice to any party's rights under Regulation (EU) no 1215/2012 (the Brussels Recast Regulation) and are not intended to restrict the competence of any court which is competent under the Brussels Recast Regulation.

(c) Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

No person shall have the right to enforce any term or condition of these Notes under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

(d) Service of Process

The Issuer irrevocably appoints NATIXIS, London Branch, Cannon Bridge, 25 Dowgate Hill, London EC4R 2YA, as its agent in England to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any Proceedings in England. Such service shall be deemed completed on delivery to such process agent (whether or not it is forwarded to and received by the Issuer). If for any reason such process agent ceases to be able to act as such or no longer has an address in London, the Issuer irrevocably agrees to appoint a suitable process agent and shall immediately notify Noteholders of such appointment in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices). Nothing shall affect the right to serve process in any manner permitted by law.

17. Recognition of Bail-in

17.1 Acknowledgement

Notwithstanding any other term of the Notes or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding between the Issuers and the Noteholders, by its subscription and/or purchase and holding of the Notes, each Noteholder (which for the purposes of this Condition 17 includes each holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes) acknowledges, accepts, consents and agrees:

- (a) to be bound by the effect of the exercise of the Bail-in Power (as defined below) by the Relevant Resolution Authority (as defined below), which may include and result in any of the following, or some combination thereof:
 - (A) the reduction of all, or a portion, of the Amounts Due (as defined below);
 - (B) the conversion of all, or a portion, of the Amounts Due into shares, other securities or other obligations of the Issuer or another person (and the issue to the Noteholder of such shares, securities or obligations), including by means of an amendment, modification or variation of the terms of the Notes, in which case the Noteholder agrees to accept in lieu of its rights under the Notes any such shares, other securities or other obligations of the Issuer or another person;

- (C) the cancellation of the Notes; and/or
 - (D) the amendment or alteration of the maturity of the Notes or amendment of the amount of interest payable on the Notes, or the date on which the interest becomes payable, including by suspending payment for a temporary period;
- (b) that the terms of the Notes are subject to, and may be varied, if necessary, to give effect to, the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority.

17.2 Payment of Interest and Other Outstanding Amounts Due

No repayment or payment of the Amounts Due will become due and payable or be paid after the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority with respect to the relevant Issuer unless, at the time such repayment or payment, respectively, is scheduled to become due, such repayment or payment would be permitted to be made by the Issuer under the laws and regulations in effect in France or Luxembourg, as applicable, and the European Union applicable to the Issuer or other members of its group.

17.3 No Event of Default

Neither a cancellation of the Notes, a reduction, in part or in full, of the Amounts Due, the conversion thereof into another security or obligation of the relevant Issuer or another person, as a result of the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority with respect to the Issuer, nor the exercise of any Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority with respect to the Notes will be an event of default or otherwise constitute non-performance of a contractual obligation, or entitle the Noteholder to any remedies (including equitable remedies) which are hereby expressly waived.

17.4 Notice to Noteholders

Upon the exercise of any Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority with respect to the Notes, the relevant Issuer will give notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) as soon as practicable regarding such exercise of the Bail-in Power. The Issuer will also deliver a copy of such notice to the Principal Paying Agent for information purposes, although the Principal Paying Agent shall not be required to send such notice to Noteholders. Any delay or failure by the Issuer to give notice shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the Bail-in Power nor the effects on the Notes described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of Condition 17.1.

17.5 Duties of the Principal Paying Agent

Upon the exercise of any Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority, the Issuers and each Noteholder (including each holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes) hereby agree that: (a) the Principal Paying Agent shall not be required to take any directions from Noteholders; and (b) no duties shall be imposed upon the Principal Paying Agent whatsoever, in each case with respect to the exercise of any Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority.

Notwithstanding the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority, the provisions of the Agency Agreement shall remain applicable to any outstanding Notes following the completion of the exercise of such Bail-In Power (for example, if the exercise of the Bail-in Power results in only a partial write-down of the principal of the Notes).

17.6 Prorating

If the Relevant Resolution Authority exercises a Bail-in Power with respect to less than the total Amounts Due, unless the Principal Paying Agent is otherwise instructed by the relevant Issuer or the Relevant Resolution Authority, any cancellation, write-off or conversion made in respect of the Notes pursuant to the Bail-in Power will be made on a pro-rata basis.

17.7 Conditions Exhaustive

The matters set forth in this Condition 17 shall be exhaustive on the foregoing matters to the exclusion of any other agreements, arrangements or understandings between the Issuers and any holder of a Note.

For the purposes of these Conditions:

Amounts Due means the principal amount, together with any accrued but unpaid interest, and additional amounts, if any, due on the Notes. Relevant Entity means any entity referred to in Section I of Article L.613-34 of the French Code Monétaire et Financier as modified by the 20 August 2015 Decree Law, which includes certain credit institutions (such as NATIXIS), investment firms, financial institutions and certain of their parent or holding companies established in France or any entity referred to in Article 2 of the BRR Act 2015, which includes certain credit institutions (such as NCIBL), investment firms or relevant financial institutions (such as Natixis Structured Issuance) established in Luxembourg.

17.8 Exclusion of the Secured Notes

To the extent that secured liabilities are excluded from the scope of the Bail-in Power by applicable law, Conditions 17.1 to 17.7 (inclusive) above shall not apply to Secured Notes.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Bail-in Power shall apply to the Secured Notes Guarantee as further described in the section entitled “Form of Secured Notes Guarantee” of this Base Prospectus.

4. Negative Pledge (Unsecured Notes only)

Where the Issuer in respect of any Notes is NATIXIS or Natixis Structured Issuance, as the case may be, the relevant Issuer undertakes that, so long as any of the Unsecured Notes, and Receipts or Coupons relating to them remains outstanding (as defined in the French Law Agency Agreement), it will not create or permit to subsist any mortgage, pledge, lien or other form of encumbrance or security interest upon the whole or any part of its undertaking, assets or revenues, present or future, to secure any Relevant Debt (as defined below) or any guarantee of or indemnity by the relevant Issuer in respect of any Relevant Debt, unless at the same time or prior thereto the relevant Issuer's obligations under the Unsecured Notes (A) are secured equally and rateably therewith, or (B) have the benefit of such other security, guarantee, indemnity or other arrangement.

For the avoidance of doubt, no Issuer should be obligated to provide collateral in respect of any Series of Unsecured Notes in relation to any action taken pursuant to (B) above.

For the purposes of this Condition 4, Relevant Debt means present or future indebtedness in the form of, or represented by, bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities which are for the time being, or are capable of being, listed or ordinarily dealt in on any stock exchange, over-the-counter market or other securities market.

This Condition 4 shall only apply to Unsecured Notes.

5. Interest and Other Calculations

(a) Interest Rate and Accrual

If applicable, each Note will bear interest (if any) on its outstanding principal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Interest Rate, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with this Condition 5.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note on the due date for redemption unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused, in which event, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, interest will continue to accrue (as well after as before judgment) at the relevant Interest Rate in the manner provided in this Condition 5 to the Relevant Date (as defined in this Condition 5), which, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms shall be the Interest Rate prevailing for the last Interest Period.

(b) Business Day Convention

If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (i) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (A) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (B) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (ii) the Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day, (iii) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (iv) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(c) Interest on Fixed Interest Rate Notes

Each Fixed Interest Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Fixed Interest Rate.

Interest shall be calculated in respect of any period (other than in respect of which a Fixed Interest Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms) by applying the Interest Rate to the Calculation Amount and multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with the applicable market convention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Broken Amount or a Fixed Interest Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms with respect to an Interest Payment Date, such Broken Amount or Fixed Interest Amount, as the case may be, shall apply.

(d) Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes

The Interest Rate in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined in the manner specified herein and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination, FBF Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified in the applicable Final Terms. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(g) (Calculations).

(A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, the Interest Rate for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any).

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), ISDA Rate for an "Interest Accrual Period" means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction (a Swap Transaction) if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent (as defined in the 2021 ISDA Definitions, as defined in Condition 5(k)) (the ISDA Calculation Agent) for that Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the 2021 ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (i) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (ii) the Designated Maturity, if applicable, is a period specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (iii) the Fixing Day is as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the absence thereof, has the meaning given to such term in the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (iv) the Effective Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Interest Commencement Date;
- (v) unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Floating Rate Day Count Fraction has the meaning given to such term in the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (vi) the Reset Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, is (i) in the case of a Compounded Floating Rate Option, (ii) in the case of a Average Floating Rate Option, (iii) if "Compounding/Averaging" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or (iv) in the case of a Compounded Index Floating Rate Option, the day immediately preceding the relevant Interest Accrual Period End Date, or in all other cases, the relevant Interest Accrual Period Start Date; and
- (vii) the Termination Date is, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the last occurring Interest Accrual Period End Date,

PROVIDED THAT if the Calculation Agent determines that such ISDA Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the 2021 ISDA Definitions read with the above provisions but prior to the application of any provisions relating to permanent cessation or an Administrator/Benchmark Event in the 2021 ISDA Definitions (including, for the avoidance of doubt any Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions), then, subject as provided in paragraphs (g) to (i) below and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Conditions, the ISDA Rate for such Interest Accrual Period shall be such rate as is determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner using any available data which may include Relevant Market Data.

For the purposes of this Condition 5(d)(A) (ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes), terms used for the purpose of determining the relevant ISDA Rate under 2021 ISDA Definitions shall have the meanings given to those terms in the 2021 ISDA Definitions (unless expressly stated to the contrary).

References in the 2021 ISDA Definitions to:

- numbers, financial centres, elections or other items to be specified in the relevant Confirmation shall be deemed to be references to the numbers, financial centres, elections or other items specified for such purpose in the applicable Final Terms;
- a "Period End Date" shall be deemed to be references to an Interest Accrual Period End Date; and
- a "Payment Date" shall be deemed to be references to an Interest Payment Date.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the 2021 ISDA Definitions:

- (a) whenever the Calculation Agent is required to act, make a determination or to exercise judgment in any way as ISDA Calculation Agent under the 2021 ISDA Definitions, it will do so in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and any provision relating to the determination standard of the ISDA Calculation Agent in the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall be disregarded. In addition, all calculations and determinations made in respect of the Notes by the Calculation Agent under the Conditions shall (save in the case of manifest error) be final, conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the Noteholders;
- (b) any requirement under the 2021 ISDA Definitions for the ISDA Calculation Agent: (i) to give notice of a determination made by it to any other party will be deemed to be a requirement for the Calculation Agent to provide an equivalent notice to the Issuer; and (ii) to consult with the other party or the parties will be deemed to be a requirement for the Calculation Agent to consult with the Issuer. Any such notice or consultation may be given or carried out orally or in writing (including by electronic mail or communications). In addition the right of any party under the 2021 ISDA Definitions to require the ISDA Calculation Agent to take any action or fulfil any responsibility will be deemed to be solely the right of the Issuer to require this of the Calculation Agent in its discretion and no Noteholder will have any right to require the Issuer to do this or to direct the Calculation Agent in this regard;
- (c) where the 2021 ISDA Definitions require agreement between the parties to the relevant transaction, the parties will be deemed to have been unable to reach agreement and the fallback applicable in such circumstances will be deemed to apply;
- (d) in the event that the Calculation Agent determines that any Fixing Day or other day on or by which an ISDA Rate is to be determined under the 2021 ISDA Definitions is less than two Business Days prior to the relevant date scheduled for payment (the Rate Cut-Off Date), the Calculation Agent may determine that such Fixing Day or other day be deemed to be the Rate Cut-Off Date and the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall be construed accordingly;
- (e) in the event that the Correction Time Period applicable to an ISDA Rate ends later than two Business Days prior to the relevant date for payment, any corrections published after the second Business Day prior to the relevant date for payment shall be disregarded for the purposes of determining the relevant ISDA Rate;

- (f) where the 2021 ISDA Definitions state that the determination of the Floating Rate Option will be pursuant to any requirement for the Calculation Agent to request quotes from Reference Banks or Major Banks pursuant to the 2021 ISDA Definitions, such requirement to make requests for quotations for rates from, and the provision of quotations for rates by, the requisite number of such Reference Banks or Major Banks may be satisfied by reference to and using quotations or tradable market prices which are made available by such Reference Banks or Major Banks via electronic data providers or electronic trading platforms;
- (g) on the occurrence of a Permanent Cessation Trigger in respect of a Floating Rate Option, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of the Permanent Cessation Fallback provisions under the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (h) where Administrator/Benchmark Event is specified in the Floating Rate Matrix as applicable in respect of the relevant Floating Rate Option, on the occurrence of an Administrator/Benchmark Event under the 2021 ISDA Definitions, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of the provisions relating to such Administrator/Benchmark Event and the Administrator/Benchmark Event Fallback in each case under the 2021 ISDA Definitions;
- (i) where an ISDA Rate would otherwise be determined by reference to Linear Interpolation pursuant to the Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions, a Benchmark Trigger Event (as defined in Condition 5(k)) shall be deemed to have occurred thereon and the provisions of Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes below shall apply in place of such Discontinued Rates Maturities provisions;
- (j) if any adjustment, fallback, modification, correction or replacement of a relevant rate, or adjustment or modification to a relevant date, applies pursuant to the 2021 ISDA Definitions or the Swap Transaction then, in relation thereto, the Calculation Agent may but shall not be required to (i) if it would not otherwise apply (as applicable) in relation to the determination of the ISDA Rate in accordance with the above provisions or in relation to any equivalent date under the Notes, take into account any such any adjustment, fallback, modification, correction or replacement (including by reference to the hedging arrangements for the relevant Notes) in determining of the relevant ISDA Rate and (ii) make any related or consequential changes to the Conditions not otherwise provided for in this Condition (including without limitation any technical, administrative or operational changes, changes to the definition of Interest Period, timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, maturity and changes to the definition of Designated Maturity (where applicable)) that the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Calculation Agent decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Calculation Agent determines that no appropriate market practice exists, in such other manner as the Calculation Agent determines is reasonably necessary); and

(k) Section 2.3.6 (Consequences of an Unscheduled Holiday) of the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall not apply to an ISDA Rate.

(l) Linear Interpolation

The provisions relating to "Linear Interpolation" set out in the 2021 ISDA Definitions shall apply to an ISDA Rate where "2021 Definitions Linear Interpolation" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms. If such provisions apply, the provisions of Condition 5(m) (Linear Interpolation) shall not apply to the relevant ISDA Rate.

(m) Business Day Convention

If "No Adjustment" is specified in the applicable Final Terms in respect of a date, then if that date falls on a day that is not a Business Day, no adjustment will be made to that date.

(B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, the Interest Rate for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent at or about the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in respect of such Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following (subject to the occurrence of a Benchmark Trigger Event in which case the following provisions shall not apply):

(i) if the Primary Source is a Page, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be:

(I) the Relevant Rate (where such Relevant Rate on such Page is a composite quotation or is customarily supplied by one entity); or

(ii) if the Page specified in the applicable Final Terms as a Primary Source permanently ceases to quote the Relevant Rate (s) but such quotation(s) is/are available from another page, section or other part of such information service selected by the Calculation Agent (the Replacement Page), the Replacement Page shall be substituted as the Primary Source for the Interest Rate and if no Replacement Page exists but such quotation(s) is/are available from a page, section or other part of a different information service selected by the Calculation Agent and approved by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) (the Secondary Replacement Page), the Secondary Replacement Page shall be substituted as the Primary Source for the Interest Rate;

(iii) if the Primary Source is Reference Banks or if sub-paragraph (i)(I) above applies and no Relevant Rate appears on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date or if sub-paragraph (i)(II) above applies and fewer than two Relevant Rates appear on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates which each of the Reference Banks is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent;

- (iv) if sub-paragraph (iii) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are so quoting Relevant Rates then, subject as provided below, the Interest Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) that the Calculation Agent determines to be the rates (being the nearest equivalent to the Reference Rate) in respect of a Representative Amount of the Specified Currency that at least two out of five leading banks selected by the Calculation Agent in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency or, if the Specified Currency is Euro, the Eurozone, (the Principal Financial Centre) are quoting at or about the Relevant Time on the date on which such banks would customarily quote such rates for a period commencing on the Effective Date for a period equivalent to the Specified Duration (x) to leading banks carrying on business in Europe, or (if the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in Europe) (y) to leading banks carrying on business in the Principal Financial Centre; except that, if fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in the Principal Financial Centre, the Interest Rate shall (unless otherwise specified) be the Interest Rate determined on the previous Interest Determination Date (after readjustment for any difference between any Margin, Rate Multiplier or Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate applicable to the preceding Interest Accrual Period and to the relevant Interest Accrual Period).

(C) FBF Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where FBF Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate is to be determined, the Interest Rate for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant FBF Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (C), FBF Rate for an "Interest Accrual Period" means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the FBF Definitions (as defined below) and under which:

- (i) the Floating Rate is as specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) the relevant Floating Rate Determination Date (Date de Détermination du Taux Variable) is the first (1st) day of that Interest Accrual Period unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (C), Floating Rate (Taux Variable), Calculation Agent (Agent de Calcul), Floating Rate Determination Date (Date de Détermination du Taux Variable) and Transaction (Transaction) have the meanings given to those terms in the FBF Definitions, provided that Euribor means the rate calculated for deposits in euro which appears on Reuters Page EURIBOR01, as more fully described hereon.

(D) Benchmark Trigger Event

Where a Benchmark Trigger Event occurs or is deemed to occur pursuant to this Condition 5 in respect of a Relevant Rate Benchmark which is used in whole or in part to calculate interest under Condition 5(d) (Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes), the Calculation Agent shall comply with the process described in Condition 17 (Terms for Rate Linked Notes) of the Structured Notes (as if such terms were set out herein in extenso and regardless of whether the Terms for Rate Linked Notes are specified as applying in the relevant Final Terms).

- (e) Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes
- (i) Where a Note for which Zero Coupon is specified as the Interest Basis is repayable prior to the Maturity Date and is not paid when due, the amount due and payable prior to the Maturity Date shall be the Redemption Amount of such Note. As from the Maturity Date, the Interest Rate for any overdue principal of such a Note the Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/or a formula, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms in accordance with Condition 5(a), shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (as described in Condition 6(e) (Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes)).
 - (ii) If Non-Interest Bearing is specified as the Interest Basis for any Note, such Note shall not bear interest.
 - (iii) Payments of interest in respect of Structured Notes will be calculated by reference either: (i) to such index and/or formula(e) as are set out in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes; and/or (ii) to the applicable provisions of Conditions 5(a) (Interest Rate and Accrual) to 5(d) (Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes), as specified in the applicable Final Terms.
- (f) Margin, Maximum/Minimum Interest Rates, Instalment Amounts, Instalment Payable Amounts and Redemption Amounts, Rate Multipliers and Rounding
- (i) If any Margin or Rate Multiplier is specified in the applicable Final Terms (either: (x) generally; or (y) in relation to one or more Interest Accrual Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Interest Rates, in the case of (x), or the Interest Rates for the specified Interest Accrual Periods, in the case of (y), calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (iii) below by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin or multiplying by such Rate Multiplier, subject always to the next paragraph. In such case all references to the "Interest Rate" shall be construed accordingly.
 - (ii) If any Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or Redemption Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, then any Interest Rate, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or Redemption Amount shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be. Unless a higher Minimum Interest Rate is specified in the Final Terms, the Minimum Interest Rate shall be deemed to be zero.
 - (iii) For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified): (x) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with halves being rounded up); (y) all figures will be rounded to seven significant figures (with halves being rounded up); and (z) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with halves being rounded up), save in the case of Yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest Yen. For these purposes unit means the lowest amount of such currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries of such currency and with respect to the Euro, means 0.01 Euro.

(g) Calculations

Subject to Condition 5(e) (Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes) and Condition 6(e) (Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes) in relation to Zero Coupon Notes, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any period shall be equal to the product of the Interest Rate, the Calculation Amount or (in relation to Partitioned Interest Note) Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the Day Count Fraction (adjusted, as applicable, in accordance with the Interest Period Date Business Day Convention), unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period, in which case the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Note for such period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). Where any Interest Period comprises two or more Interest Accrual Periods, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Interest Amounts payable in respect of each of those Interest Accrual Periods.

In relation to Partitioned Interest Notes, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any period shall be the aggregate of partial interest amounts per Calculation Amount Interest Portion (each a Partial Interest Amount). Each Partial Interest Amount is determined as above on the basis of the product of the relevant Interest Rate, the Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the Day Count Fraction, unless a Partial Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period and Calculation Amount Interest Portion.

(h) Determination and Publication of Interest Rates, Interest Amounts, Redemption Amounts, Instalment Amounts and Instalment Payable Amounts

As soon as practicable after (i) the Relevant Time on each Interest Determination Date, (ii) such time on the date on which any ISDA Rate is to be determined or (iii) such other time on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount or Instalment Payable Amount, obtain any quote or make any determination or calculation, it shall determine the Interest Rate and calculate the relevant Interest Amount in respect of each Specified Denomination of the Notes for the relevant Interest Accrual Period or, as the case may be, Interest Period, calculate the Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount or Instalment Payable Amount, obtain such quote or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Interest Rate and the Interest Amounts for each Interest Accrual Period or, as the case may be, Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date and, if required to be calculated, the Redemption Amount or any Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount to be notified to the Fiscal Agent, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information and, if the Notes are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange so require, such exchange as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such stock exchange of an Interest Rate and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 5(b) (Business Day Convention), the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under Condition 10 (Events of Default), the accrued interest and the Interest Rate payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition 5(h) but no publication of the Interest Rate or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made. The determination of each Interest Rate, Interest Amount, Redemption Amount, Instalment Amount and Instalment Payable Amount, the obtaining of each quote and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

(i) Provisions specific to SHIBOR rate

SHIBOR means the Shanghai Interbank Offered Rate as published on <http://www.shibor.org>, by China Foreign Exchange Trade System & National Interbank Funding Centre under the authorisation of the People's Bank of China, at around 11.30 a.m., Beijing time on each business day, including 8 critical terms, i.e. O/N, 1W, 2W, 1M, 3M, 6M, 9M, 1Y, each representing the rate for the corresponding period.

If Reference Rate is specified in the applicable Final Terms as SHIBOR, "SHIBOR" will be the rate determined by the Issuer (or, if one is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent) on the following basis:

- (i) If, at or around 11:30 a.m. (Beijing time) on the Interest Determination Date, a relevant SHIBOR is published on <http://www.shibor.org>, then the relevant SHIBOR will be that rate; and for the purposes of these Conditions, the relevant SHIBOR means SHIBOR in a critical term corresponding to the relevant Interest Period.
- (ii) If for any reason the relevant SHIBOR is not published in respect of a certain Interest Determination Date, the relevant SHIBOR in respect of the business day immediately preceding that Interest Determination Date shall be applied in place thereof.

If any Reference Bank (acting through its relevant office) is unable or unwilling to continue to act as a Reference Bank, then the Issuer shall appoint another Reference Bank with an office in the Relevant Financial Centre to act as such in its place. Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Notes, references in these Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under the Conditions. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish the Interest Rate for an Interest Period or Interest Accrual Period or to calculate any Interest Amount, Instalment Amount, Instalment Payable Amount or the Redemption Amount or to comply with any other requirement, the Issuer shall appoint a leading bank or investment banking firm engaged in the interbank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter index options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal Paris office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been appointed as aforesaid.

(m) Linear Interpolation

(n) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 5 by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and all Noteholders and no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders or any other person shall attach to the Calculation Agent (in the absence as aforesaid), the Issuer or the Paying Agents in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by the Calculation Agent of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions. None of the Issuer, the Paying Agents nor the Calculation Agent shall have any responsibility to any person for any errors or omissions in: (i) the calculation by the Calculation Agent of any amount due in respect of the Notes; or (ii) any determination made by the Calculation Agent in relation to the Notes, in each case in the absence (in the case of the Calculation Agent) of bad faith or wilful default of the Calculation Agent.

(o) Change of Interest Basis

Where Change of Interest Basis is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the calculation of the Interest Rate or Interest Amount in accordance with the Fixed Interest Rate Note Provisions, the Floating Rate Note Provisions, Zero Coupon Note Provisions or Structured Note Provisions by reference to the relevant provision of Conditions 5(a) (Interest Rate and Accrual) to 5(d) (Interest Rate on Floating Rate Notes) will be applicable to an Interest Period if: (i) the relevant provision is the Interest Basis applicable to the relevant Interest Period and: (a) no Interest Basis Switch is applicable; or (b) the Interest Basis Switch has not been triggered on any Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the beginning of the relevant Interest Period; or (ii) the relevant provision is the Alternate Interest Basis and the Interest Basis Switch Timing is specified in the applicable Final Terms as "in Advance" and the Interest Basis Switch has been triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the beginning of the relevant Interest Period; or (iii) the relevant provision is the Alternate Interest Basis and the Interest Basis Switch Timing is specified in the applicable Final Terms as "in Arrears" and the Interest Basis Switch has been triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date on or prior to the end of the relevant Interest Period.

(p) Interest Basis Switch

Where Interest Basis Switch is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Interest Basis Switch may be triggered on an Interest Basis Switch Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms either:

- (i) if no condition for the trigger of such Interest Basis Switch is provided for in the applicable Final Terms: at the sole discretion of the Issuer, subject to applicable laws and regulations, by giving no more than 45 nor less than 30 days' prior notice to the Noteholders (or any other Interest Basis Switch Option Notice Period specified in the applicable Final Terms), in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices); or
- (ii) if condition(s) for the trigger of such Interest Basis Switch is (are) provided for in the applicable Final Terms: if the condition(s) for such trigger is (are) met.

(q) Interest Basis Switch Timing

Where Interest Basis Switch is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms:

- (i) the Interest Basis Switch Timing may be specified as being "In Advance" or "In Arrears"; or
- (ii) if the Interest Basis Switch Timing is not specified or specified as "Not Applicable", then the Interest Basis Switch Timing is considered to be specified as "In Advance".

(r) Partitioned Interest Notes

Partitioned Interest Notes shall bear interest at relevant Interest Basis on each specified Calculation Amount Interest Portion.

Where a formula or a method providing the determination of an Interest Amount is applicable in respect of a Calculation Amount Interest Portion, such formula shall be applied by replacing any reference to Calculation Amount by the Calculation Amount Interest Portion and the resulting amount shall be aggregated for the determination of Interest Amount in accordance with Condition 5(g) (Calculations).

In the case of Instalment Notes where the Calculation Amount Interest Portions are defined by reference to Instalment Amounts, each such Calculation Amount Interest Portions shall cease to be taken into account after the relevant Instalment Date, in accordance with and subject to Condition 6(a)(i).

In the case of Credit Linked Notes or Bond Linked Notes, if Calculation Amount Interest Portions are specified by reference to Reference Entity(ies) or Reference Bond(s), each Calculation Amount Interest Portion shall be the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount (as defined in Condition 13(g)) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes or Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount (as defined in Condition 14(g)) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes respectively, and the provisions set out in Condition 13(c)(i) (Credit Linked Interest Basis – reduction or cessation of interest accrual) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes and Condition 14(c)(i) (Bond Linked Interest Basis - reduction or cessation of interest accrual) of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable, shall apply accordingly.

In any other case, each Calculation Amount Interest Portion shall be increased or decreased in proportion of the Outstanding Calculation Amount as applicable.

(s) Charity Payment Notes

(A) Charity Shared Amount

If “Charity Payment Notes” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall deduct the relevant Shared Amount(s) from the amounts due to the Noteholder under the Notes. Such Shared Amount(s) will then be paid on the Shared Amount Payment Date(s) to the Non-Profit Organisation(s) on behalf of the Noteholders to fund the Project(s), unless a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the Type of Charity Payment Notes is “Shared Coupon”, the Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from the Interest Amount due on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the Type of Charity Payment Notes is “Shared Redemption Amount”, the Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from the relevant Redemption Amount (being, for the avoidance of doubt, the Final Redemption Amount, the Automatic Early Redemption Amount, the Optional Redemption Amount, or, as relevant, an Instalment Payable Amount, as the case may be, but not the Early Redemption Amount due as a result of an Early Redemption Termination Event) when such amount becomes due and payable by the Issuer. However, for the avoidance of doubt, no Shared Amount(s) shall be deducted from an Early Redemption Amount in the event an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs.

In accordance with the applicable Undertaking Agreement, the Non-Profit Organisation is required to provide the Issuer with a certificate (a NPO Certificate) within sixty (60) calendar days following the relevant Shared Amount Payment Date (the NPO Certificate Cut-off Date). The NPO Certificate will confirm that the Non-Profit Organisation (i) has received the Shared Amount from the Issuer, (ii) has used or intends to use the Shared Amount to fund the Project(s) in accordance with the Undertaking Agreement, and (iii) complies with applicable laws and regulations. The Issuer shall notify the Noteholders of the occurrence of a NPO Termination Event in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, but in any event no later than 45 calendar days after the occurrence of the NPO Termination Event.

In the event a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event occurs, the Issuer shall forthwith cease to deduct the Shared Amount and the Noteholders shall be entitled to the full Interest Amount on each subsequent Interest Payment Date or the full Redemption Amount, as applicable.

The Shared Amount will be paid by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment. For the avoidance of doubt, any delay, absence or disruption in the payment of the Shared Amount to the Non-Profit Organisation by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment, shall not constitute an Event of Default for the purposes of Condition 10 (Events of Default), provided that any sum due to the Noteholders under the Notes (excluding the Shared Amount(s)) is duly paid to the Noteholders. The Issuer shall not be held liable to the Noteholders or the Non-Profit Organisation for any loss, damage, cost, expense or liability arising from or in connection with the failure or negligence of the Paying Agent to perform its obligations in relation to the payment of the Shared Amount, and neither the Noteholders nor the Non-Profit Organisation shall have no recourse to the Issuer in respect of such payment.

(B) Acknowledgments by Noteholders

By acquiring any Charity Payment Note, each Noteholder acknowledges, accepts and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary the Conditions, that:

- (i) it will not be entitled to receive any Shared Amount in respect of the Charity Payment Notes, unless a NPO Termination Event or an Early Redemption Termination Event has occurred;
- (ii) the Issuer will not and has no obligation or responsibility to issue, deliver or obtain any Tax Certificate for the Noteholders. The Issuer cannot be held liable if the Non-Profit Organisation fails to deliver a Tax Certificate and such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default for the purposes of Condition 10 (Events of Default). Further, the Noteholders shall have no recourse to the Issuer in respect of any Tax Certificate or any tax benefit or relief arising from the payment of the Shared Amount;
- (iii) if a Noteholder requests NATIXIS or the Issuer to buy back its Charity Payment Notes prior to their Maturity Date, the proposed repurchase price, whether conditional or hypothetical, will be equivalent to the market value of the Charity Payment Notes as determined by NATIXIS or the Issuer either: (a) reduced by the aggregate amount of the Shared Amounts yet to be paid until, and including on, the Maturity Date, if “Full Shared Amount Due” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms and unless a NPO Termination Event has occurred, or (b) without taking into account the aggregate amount of the Shared Amounts yet to be paid until the Maturity Date, if “Full Shared Amount Due” is specified as “Not Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms;
- (iv) the Issuer will not independently verify that any Shared Amount has been or will be effectively used to fund the relevant Project(s) or that the Non-Profit Organisation complies with applicable laws and regulations, and will rely solely on the relevant NPO Certificate without further investigations.

(C) Taxation

If “Tax Certificate” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, upon request to the Non-Profit Organisation by any Noteholder who shall duly identify itself and provide proof of its status as a Noteholder of the relevant Charity Payment Notes, the Non-Profit Organisation shall provide such Noteholder with a tax certificate (the Tax Certificate). This request shall be made in accordance with the contact details provided for the Non-Profit Organisation in the applicable Final Terms. This Tax Certificate shall detail the amount of the Shared Amount(s) paid to the Non-Profit Organisation on behalf of such Noteholder for the relevant fiscal year and shall take the form prescribed by the tax law and regulations applicable to the Non-Profit Organisation.

If “Tax Certificate” is specified as “Not Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, the Non-Profit Organisation will not provide any Tax Certificate to the Noteholders and Noteholders irrevocably waive any rights to claim any such tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit, in any jurisdiction, in respect of the Shared Amount(s).

The Issuer will not claim any tax credit or deduction for charitable giving or any similar tax benefit in respect of the Shared Amount(s).

 - (I) the Non-Profit Organisation has failed to perform in any material respect its obligations under the Undertaking Agreement;

- (V) the Non-Profit Organisation (or any other entity responsible for implementing any part of the Project) has ceased to exist in the same legal form as that prevailing as of the date of the Undertaking Agreement.

Projects means one or more specific projects as referred to in the relevant Undertaking Agreement that the Shared Amount(s) will finance and which will have a philanthropic, educational, scientific, social, healthcare, humanitarian, athletic, familial, cultural nature, and/or will contribute to gender equality, the enhancement of the artistic heritage, the defense of the natural environment, the dissemination of French culture, language, or/and scientific knowledge projects, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

6. Redemption, Purchase and Options

(a) Redemption by Instalments (Instalment Notes) and Final Redemption

- (i) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided in this Condition 6 or the relevant Instalment Date is extended pursuant to the Issuer's or Noteholder's option in accordance with Condition 6(f) (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer and Exercise of the Issuer's Options) or 6(g) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options), each Instalment Note shall be partially redeemed on each Instalment Date by the payment of the related Instalment Payable Amount. As a consequence, the Outstanding Calculation Amount of each such Note shall be reduced by the related Instalment Amount for all purposes with effect from, and including, the related Instalment Date, unless payment of the Instalment Payable Amount is improperly withheld, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the Relevant Date relating to such Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount.
- (ii) Where a formula or a method providing for the determination of a Redemption Amount is applicable in respect of an Instalment Amount on an Instalment Date, such formula or method shall be applied by replacing any reference to Calculation Amount by the Instalment Amount and the resulting amount shall be the Instalment Payable Amount.
- (iii) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided below or its maturity is extended pursuant to the Issuer's or Noteholder's option in accordance with

Condition 6(f) (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer and Exercise of the Issuer's Options) or 6(g) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options), each Note shall be redeemed on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Final Terms at its Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes, is its principal amount) or, in the case of a Note falling within sub-paragraph (i) above, its final Instalment Amount or, as the case may be, Instalment Payable Amount.

(b) Redemption for taxation reasons

- (A) In the case of Notes where "Tax Gross-up" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if, by reason of any change in Luxembourg law (in the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance SA or NCIBL) or French law (in the case of Notes issued by NATIXIS), or in either case any change in the official application or interpretation of such law, becoming effective after the Issue Date in respect of the relevant Series of Notes, the relevant Issuer would, on the occasion of the next payment of principal or interest due in respect of the Notes, not be able to make such payment without having to pay additional amounts as specified under Condition 8 (Taxation), the relevant Issuer may, at its option, on any Interest Payment Date or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 30 days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of principal and interest without withholding for Luxembourg or French taxes, as applicable.
- (B) In the case of Notes where "Tax Gross-up" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if the relevant Issuer would on the next payment of principal, interest or other revenues in respect of the Notes be prevented by the law applicable to the relevant Issuer from making payment to the Noteholders of the full amount then due and payable, notwithstanding the undertaking to pay additional amounts contained in Condition 8 (Taxation), then the relevant Issuer shall forthwith give notice of such fact to the Fiscal Agent and the relevant Issuer shall upon giving not less than seven days' prior notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Early Redemption Amount (together with (unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms) any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) on: (A) the latest practicable Interest Payment Date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount then due and payable in respect of the Notes provided that if such notice would expire after such Interest Payment Date the date for redemption pursuant to such notice to Noteholders shall be the later of: (i) the latest practicable date on which the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount then due and payable in respect of the Notes; and (ii) 14 days after giving notice to the Fiscal Agent as aforesaid; or (B) if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at any time, provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder shall be given shall be the latest practicable date at which as the relevant Issuer could make payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Notes or, if that date is passed, as soon as practicable thereafter.

- (C) In the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance, if, following the occurrence of an NSI Loan Tax Event (as defined below), NATIXIS gives to Natixis Structured Issuance notice of its intention to prepay the whole (and not part) of any of the loans made under the NSI Loan Agreement (as defined below) corresponding to a particular Series of Notes specified in such notice, Natixis Structured Issuance may, at its option, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 15 Business Days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes of that Series at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the date on which NATIXIS has notified Natixis Structured Issuance that it will prepay in whole but not in part all of the relevant loans under the NSI Loan Agreement.

For these purposes:

NSI Loan Agreement means an intra-group loan agreement entered into on 23 January 2014 between Natixis Structured Issuance (as lender) and NATIXIS (as borrower), as amended from time to time, pursuant to which the net proceeds of Series of Notes may be lent by Natixis Structured Issuance to NATIXIS.

NSI Loan Tax Event means that NATIXIS is, or would be on the occasion of the next payment of principal or interest due to Natixis Structured Issuance under the NSI Loan Agreement, required to pay additional amounts to Natixis Structured Issuance to ensure that Natixis Structured Issuance receives a sum, net of any deduction or withholding, equal to the sum which it would have received had no such deduction or withholding for French tax been made or required to be made.

(c) Redemption for Illegality

The Issuer shall have the right to redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, if, in the opinion of the Issuer: (i) it is or will become unlawful for it to perform or comply with any one or more of its obligations under such Notes; or (ii) if Hedging Arrangements are specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any Hedging Arrangements have or will become illegal in whole or in part (an Illegality Event). Upon the occurrence of an Illegality Event, the Issuer may, at its option, at any time, subject to having given not more than 45 nor less than 30 Business Days' prior notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at their Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) provided that the due date for redemption of which notice hereunder may be given shall be no earlier than the latest practicable date on which the Issuer could lawfully make payment of principal and interest irrespective of the Illegality Event.

(d) Purchases

The Issuer, or any of its affiliates, may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise at any price. Unless the possibility of holding and reselling is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, all Notes so purchased by NATIXIS may be held and resold in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Any Notes purchased by an affiliate of the Issuer may be so purchased by it for its own account or for, and on behalf of: (i) the Issuer; or (ii) another person.

(e) Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes

- (i) The early redemption amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note, the Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/or a formula, upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 6(b) (Redemption for taxation reasons) or 6(c) (Redemption for Illegality) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 (Events of Default) shall be either: (i) the Amortised Face Amount (calculated as provided below, the Amortised Face Amount) of such Note; or (ii) the Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 5(k)) of such Note, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.
- (ii) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (iii) below, the Amortised Face Amount of any such Note shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date discounted at a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (which, if none is shown in the applicable Final Terms, shall be such rate as would produce an Amortised Face Amount equal to the issue price of the Notes if they were discounted back to their issue price on the Issue Date in respect of the relevant Series) compounded annually. Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction shown in the applicable Final Terms.
- (iii) If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon its redemption pursuant to Condition 6(b) (Redemption for taxation reasons) or 6(c) (Redemption for Illegality) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 (Events of Default) is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortised Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (ii) above, except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the reference therein to the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were replaced by a reference to the Relevant Date. The calculation of the Amortised Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph (iii) will continue to be made (as well after as before judgment), until the Relevant Date unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the principal amount of such Note together with any interest which may accrue in accordance with Condition 5(e) (Interest Rate on Zero Coupon Notes, Non-Interest Bearing Notes and Structured Notes).

If so provided in the applicable Final Terms and upon giving not less than 15 days' nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms), the Issuer may: (i) exercise its option and redeem the Notes in relation to all or, if so provided, some only of the Notes in their principal amount and on the option exercise date(s), being any day falling within the Issuer's Option Period and specified in the notice provided to Noteholders by the Issuer, which date shall be no later than the Business Day falling immediately prior to the Maturity Date (each an Option Exercise Date); or (ii) on any Optional Redemption Date, redeem all or, if so provided, some only of the Notes in their principal amount. Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their Optional Redemption Amount together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption.

In the case of a partial redemption or a partial exercise of an Issuer's option, such partial redemption shall be made by application of a pool factor (corresponding to a reduction of the Aggregate Nominal Amount of all such Notes in a Series in proportion to the Aggregate Nominal Amount redeemed). So long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of that Stock Exchange so require, the Issuer shall, promptly upon partial redemption of the Notes or partial exercise of an Issuer's option, cause to be published on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website (www.luxse.com) a notice specifying the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding.

For the purposes of this Condition 6(f) and Condition 6(g) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options) the Issuer's Option Period and the Noteholder's Option Period, as applicable, mean any specified period of time within the period from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the Maturity Date, or as otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms (provided that in any case the Issuer's Option Period and/or the Noteholder's Option Period, as applicable, will end no later than the Business Day prior to the Maturity Date).

(g) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders and Exercise of Noteholder's Options

If so provided in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any such Note, upon the holder of such Note giving not less than 15 days' nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Issuer (or such other notice period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) exercise and redeem such Note: (i) on the Option Exercise Date specified in the Exercise Notice and falling during the Noteholder's Option Period; or (ii) on the Optional Redemption Date(s) provided in the applicable Final Terms at its Optional Redemption Amount together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption.

To exercise such option or any other Noteholders' option that may be set out for the relevant Notes, the Noteholder must deposit with any Paying Agent at its specified office during usual business hours a duly completed option exercise notice (the Exercise Notice) in the form obtainable during usual business hours from any Paying Agent or the Registration Agent, as the case may be, within the notice period. The Noteholder shall transfer, or cause to be transferred, the Notes to be redeemed to the account of the Fiscal Agent specified in the Exercise Notice. No Note so transferred and option exercised may be withdrawn without the prior consent of the Issuer.

(h) Automatic Early Redemption

Certain provisions of certain types of Structured Notes set out in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide that such Notes will be automatically redeemed early in certain specified circumstances set out in the relevant Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes. Should such circumstances apply the Notes will be automatically redeemed early, without any requirement for the giving of notice, at the applicable Early Redemption Amount, all subject to and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

(i) Open-ended Notes

Open-ended Notes, being Notes with no fixed maturity date, may be issued and will include an Issuer's and a Noteholder's option to redeem the Notes early.

(j) Cancellation

All Notes purchased for cancellation by, or on behalf of, the Issuer shall be cancelled by transfer to an account in accordance with the rules and procedures of Euroclear France and, if so transferred or surrendered, shall be cancelled together with all rights relating to payment of interest and other amounts relating to such Notes. Any Notes so surrendered for cancellation may not be reissued or resold and the obligations of the Issuer in respect of any such Notes shall be discharged. Any Notes purchased by an affiliate of the Issuer for its own account need not be surrendered for cancellation and may be resold.

(k) Redemption for Force Majeure Event and Significant Alteration Event

- (i) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and if the Issuer determines that a Force Majeure Event or Significant Alteration Event has occurred, the Issuer may redeem all but not some only of the Notes as further specified in Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) below by giving notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices).
- (ii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and if the Issuer determines that a Force Majeure Event has occurred, the Issuer may redeem all but not some only of the Notes at the Fair Market Value by giving notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices).

For these purposes, Fair Market Value means the fair market value of the Notes determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination, including accrued but unpaid interest and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, expressed as a percentage of the Outstanding Nominal Amount; provided that, in relation to Notes for which the Final Redemption Amount is specified to be equal to the Fair Market Value of the Notes, in the event of an Event of Default in respect of such Notes, any unwind costs relating to funding arrangements will be deemed to be zero and this definition and the definitions of Final Redemption Amount and Redemption Amount shall be construed accordingly.

(l) Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms

- (i) If Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, may only redeem the Notes (other than Open-ended Notes) prior to their Maturity Date, as described in these Terms and Conditions, where the relevant event giving rise to such redemption qualifies as a: (a) Significant Alteration Event; or (b) Force Majeure Event.

- (ii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and where Notes for which a Protected Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), 6(k) or 6(m) (and provided that the circumstances set out in these Conditions do not constitute a Force Majeure Event), the Issuer shall:

if "Highest Value" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at the greater of the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) of such Notes or the Protected Amount of such Notes; or if "Monetisation Option" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, offer to each Noteholder the choice (to be exercised at such Noteholder's absolute discretion) of the following two options:

- (a) the Monetisation Amount (as defined below) (including the reimbursement by the Issuer, pro rata (calculated from the Early Redemption Date, or as the case may be, partial redemption date notified to the Noteholders until the Maturity Date of the Notes), of any costs, or as the case may be the proportionate share of costs (including but not limited structuring costs) paid by the Noteholders to the Issuer in the Issue Price of the Notes), such amount to be paid by the Issuer (notwithstanding the notice of early redemption) on the Maturity Date; or
- (b) if the Noteholder duly elects to receive fair market value, as provided below, the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption), such amount to be paid by the Issuer on the date fixed for early redemption as notified to the Noteholders.

In the Issuer's notice of early redemption, the Issuer must include the following:

- (A) the Cut-off Date and time for each Noteholder to elect to receive the Early Redemption Amount on the date fixed for early redemption;
- (B) the date of determination of the Early Redemption Amount in respect of such election and the amount determined by the Calculation Agent as the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes on such date; and
- (C) the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent as the Monetisation Amount.

If the Noteholder does not make a valid election to receive the Early Redemption Amount on the date fixed for early redemption before the Cut-off Date and time set out in the Issuer's notice of early redemption, the Noteholder will receive the Monetisation Amount in respect of such Note on the Maturity Date.

- (iii) Where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms and where (x) Notes for which a Protected Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), 6(k) above or 6(m) and where the circumstances set out in these Conditions constitute a Force Majeure Event or (y) Notes for which Protected Amount is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms are to be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with Conditions 6(b), 6(c), 6(f), 6(k) above or 6(m) below, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at the Early Redemption Amount (together with any interest accrued to the date set for redemption) of such Notes.
- (iv) For the purposes of this Condition 6(l)(ii):

Monetisation Amount means, in respect of a Note, an amount equal to the greater of the Protected Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms and the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent as follows:

$$(S + D) \times (1 + r)^n$$

Where:

S is the present value of the Protected Amount of such Note on the date on which the event triggering early redemption occurs;

D is the market value of the Derivative Component on the date on which the event triggering early redemption occurs (calculated by the Calculation Agent by reference to a generally accepted valuation method for such instruments in the financial markets);

r is a hypothetical annual interest rate that would be applied on an equivalent hypothetical debt instrument issued by the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as applicable) with the same time to redemption as the remaining time to redemption on the Notes from the date fixed for early redemption until the Maturity Date of the Notes;

n is the time remaining until the Maturity Date of the Notes, expressed as a number of years with $(1+r)^n$ meaning that $(1+r)$ is multiplied by itself $n-1$ times. (e.g.: $(S+D) \times (1+r)^5$ means $(S+D) \times (1+r) \times (1+r) \times (1+r) \times (1+r) \times (1+r)$); and

Derivative Component means the option component or embedded derivative in respect of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes or the interest amount due under the Notes, as applicable, in order to enable the Issuer to issue the Notes at the issue price and on their applicable terms. The value of the Derivative Component will be determined by the Calculation Agent, taking into account a number of factors, including, but not limited to:

- (A) market prices or values for the underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases) and other relevant economic variables (such as interest rates; dividend rates; financing costs; the value, price or level of any relevant underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases) and any futures or options relating to any of them; the volatility of any relevant underlying reference asset(s) or basis (bases); and exchange rates (if applicable));
- (B) the time remaining until the Maturity Date of the Notes;
- (C) internal pricing models; and
- (D) prices at which other market participants might bid for the Derivative Component.

(m) Redemption for a Fair Market Value Trigger Event

In the event that a Fair Market Value Trigger Event occurs, the Issuer may (at its option) having given not less than 10 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (the Fair Market Value Trigger Notice) (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the relevant Fair Market Value Trigger Redemption Date), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, each Note being redeemed at the relevant Early Redemption Amount calculated as at such date unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms and no further interest will be payable commencing from the Interest Payment Date immediately preceding such occurrence or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date.

For the purposes of this Condition 6(m), if Fair Market Value Trigger Event is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms:

Fair Market Value Trigger means an amount, expressed as a percentage, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Fair Market Value Trigger Event means the existence or occurrence at any time after the Issue Date, in the determination of the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, of any event or circumstance resulting in the fair market value of the Notes based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination, including accrued but unpaid interest and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, expressed as a percentage of the Outstanding Nominal Amount, being lower than or equal to the Fair Market Value Trigger.

Fair Market Value Trigger Redemption Date means the date specified in the Fair Market Value Trigger Notice on which the Notes shall be redeemed, being in the case of a CLN or BLN with American Settlement not less than five nor more than 10 Business Days after the date of delivery of such Fair Market Value Trigger Notice and in the case of a CLN or BLN with European Settlement the Maturity Date.

(n) Issuer Discretion

Unless otherwise specified in these Conditions, upon the occurrence of any event or circumstances (howsoever described) that could constitute an event or circumstances (as the case may be) under more than one of Conditions 6(a)–(k) (inclusive) above, such event shall be treated in accordance with the terms of such Condition(s) as the Issuer may in its reasonable discretion elect and such election shall be conclusive and binding on the Agents, the Guarantor (if any), and the relevant Noteholders.

7. Payments

(a) Bearer Notes and Registered Notes

Payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes shall (in the case of Bearer Notes or Administered Registered Notes) be made by transfer to the account denominated in the relevant currency of the relevant Euroclear France Account Holders for the benefit of the Noteholders and, (in the case of Fully Registered Notes), to an account denominated in the relevant currency with a Bank (as defined below) designated by the Noteholders. All payments validly made to such Euroclear France Account Holders will be an effective discharge of the Issuer in respect of such payments.

Bank means a bank in the principal financial centre for the relevant currency or, in the case of Euro, in a city in which banks have access to the TARGET System.

(b) Physical Delivery Notes

In the case of any Note which is a Physical Delivery Note that is to be redeemed by the transfer of the Deliverable Asset(s) comprising the Physical Delivery Amount, transfer of the Deliverable Asset(s) in respect of any Physical Delivery Amount will be effected: (a) by the delivery to, or to the order of, the Noteholder of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s); (b) at the risk of the relevant Noteholder in such manner as may be specified in the transfer notice (the Transfer Notice, the form of which is annexed to the French Law Agency Agreement); and (c) subject to compliance with applicable securities laws.

When the settlement of a Physical Delivery Note is by way of physical delivery, the delivery of any Physical Delivery Amount in respect of Physical Delivery Notes (including, without limitation, liability for the costs of transfer of Deliverable Asset(s)) will be made through the Euroclear France Account Holder.

No additional payment or delivery will be due to a Noteholder where any Deliverable Asset(s) is/are delivered after their due date in circumstances beyond the control of either the Issuer or the Settlement Agent. The Transfer Notice will be delivered using the transfer procedures currently utilised by Euroclear France.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in Conditions 1, 3, 7 and 8, no additional payment of any sum or delivery of any Asset will be due to:

- (a) the Issuer in compensation for amounts representing the excess Deliverable Asset(s) if the Issuer delivers Deliverable Asset(s) in an aggregate amount greater than the Physical Delivery Amount; or
- (b) the Noteholders for amounts representing a shortfall in the Deliverable Asset(s) if the Issuer delivers the Deliverable Asset(s) in an aggregate amount less than the Physical Delivery Amount.

A Noteholder's entitlement to any Physical Delivery Amount will be evidenced by the Noteholder's account balance appearing on the records of the Euroclear France Account Holder.

Any delivery of Deliverable Assets will only be made in compliance with applicable securities laws.

In the event that the Issuer, for any reason, is unable to effect Delivery of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) to any Noteholder by the Maturity Date (or other specified settlement date therefor specified in the applicable Final Terms (such Maturity Date, or, as the case may be, other settlement date, the Final Settlement Date)) the Issuer may continue to attempt such Delivery for an additional 60 Business Days after the Final Settlement Date. Failure by the Issuer to Deliver to a Noteholder the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) on or prior to the date that is 60 Business Days after the Final Settlement Date shall not constitute an Event of Default nor give any entitlement to default interest and failure to Deliver (a) Deliverable Asset(s) at any time for reasons beyond the Issuer's control, and where Essential Trigger is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms provided that such reasons constitute a Force Majeure Event, shall also not constitute an Event of Default nor give any entitlement to default interest.

Transfer and Delivery of the relevant Deliverable Asset(s) in accordance with the above provisions shall fully and effectively discharge the Issuer's obligation to redeem the pro rata share of the relevant Physical Delivery Notes and (in the circumstances referred to in the following paragraph) payment of the pro rata share of any Final Redemption Amount shall fully and effectively discharge the Issuer's obligation to redeem the whole of the relevant Physical Delivery Note.

When the applicable Final Terms specify that "Issuer's option to vary method of settlement" is "Applicable", the Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, and where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, only upon the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event or a Significant Alteration Event, elect to pay or cause to be paid to Noteholders on the Maturity Date in lieu of its obligation to deliver or procure delivery of the Physical Delivery Amount, either (at the Issuer's sole and absolute discretion): (i) the Final Redemption Amount (cash only); or (ii) an amount payable partly in Deliverable Assets and partly in cash in such proportions as the Issuer shall, in its sole and absolute discretion determine. Notification to the Noteholders of any such election may be given at any time during the "Designated Variation Period" specified in the applicable Final Terms, or if no such Designated Variation Period is specified, such notification may be given at any time up until the tenth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date (which term, in the case of Credit Linked Notes or, as the case may be, Bond Linked Notes, shall be construed in accordance with the definition thereof in Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (for Credit Linked Notes) or Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes (for Bond Linked Notes), as applicable). Any such notification shall be given in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices).

In the case of Credit Linked Notes and Bond Linked Notes, the Final Redemption Amount will be determined on the basis of either the Cash Settlement Amount or, at the sole discretion of the Issuer, on the basis of the Auction Settlement Amount (each term as defined in Condition 13 or 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable).

For the avoidance of doubt in the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between: (i) any provision of Condition 5 (Interest and Other Calculations) and this Condition 7 regarding settlement of Physical Delivery Notes; and (ii) any provision of Conditions 1 to 19 relating to settlement of Physical Delivery Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Notes settled by "Physical Settlement" as contemplated by Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes or Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of Structured Notes, as applicable), the relevant provisions of Conditions 1 to 19 shall prevail.

(c) Payments subject to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986

All payments are subject in all cases to: (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives in the place of payment (whether directly by operation of law or through an agreement of the Issuer or its Agents); (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) (such withholding or deduction, 871(m) Withholding); and (iii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the Code or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto. No commission or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders in respect of such payments. In addition, in determining the amount of 871(m) Withholding imposed with respect to any amounts to be paid on the Notes, the Issuer shall be entitled to withhold on any "dividend equivalent" (as defined for purposes of Section 871(m) of the Code) at the highest rate applicable to such payments regardless of any exemption from, or reduction in, such withholding otherwise available under applicable law.

With respect to Notes that provide for net dividend reinvestment in respect of either an underlying U.S. security or an index that includes U.S. securities, all payments on the Notes that reference such U.S. securities or an index that includes U.S. securities may be calculated by reference to dividends on such U.S. securities that are reinvested at a rate of 70%. In such case, in calculating the relevant payment amount, the Noteholder will be deemed to receive, and the Issuer will be deemed to withhold, 30% of any dividend equivalent payments (as defined in Section 871(m) of the Code) in respect of the relevant U.S. securities. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts to the holder on account of the Section 871(m) amount deemed withheld.

(d) Appointment of Agents

The Fiscal Agent, the other Paying Agents, the Registration Agent and the Calculation Agent initially appointed by the Issuer and their respective specified offices are set out at the end of this Base Prospectus. The Fiscal Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registration Agent and the Calculation Agent(s) act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligation to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with, any Noteholder. The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Fiscal Agent, any Paying Agent, the Registration Agent or the Calculation Agent and to appoint additional or other Paying Agents provided that the Issuer shall at all times maintain: (i) a Fiscal Agent; (ii) a Registration Agent in relation to Registered Notes; (iii) one or more Calculation Agent(s) where the Conditions so require; (iv) a Paying Agent having specified offices in at least two major European cities provided that: (A) so long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of such Stock Exchange so require, the Issuer will maintain a Paying Agent in Luxembourg; and (B) so long as the Notes are admitted to trading on Euronext Paris and the rules applicable to that Regulated Market so require, the Issuer will maintain a Paying Agent allowed to provide in France services relating to issues of securities within the meaning of Directive 2006/48/EC relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions; and (v) such other agents as may be required by any other stock exchange on which the Notes may be listed.

Notice of any such change or any change of any specified office shall promptly be given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices).

(e) Non-Business Days

If any date for payment in respect of any Note is not a business day, the holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following business day nor to any interest or other sum in respect of such postponed payment. In this Condition 7(e), business day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday): (A) on which Euroclear France is open for business; (B) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business, in such jurisdictions as shall be specified as Additional Business Day Jurisdictions in the applicable Final Terms; and (C): (i) in the case of a payment in a currency other than Euro, where payment is to be made by transfer to an account maintained with a bank in the Specified Currency, on which foreign exchange transactions may be carried on in the Specified Currency in the principal financial centre of the country of such currency; or (ii) in the case of a payment in Euro, which is a TARGET Business Day.

(f) Provisions specific to CNY Currency Event

If "CNY Currency Event" is specified in the applicable Final Terms and a CNY Currency Event, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, exists on a date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note, the Issuer may determine one or more of the following, and require the Calculation Agent to take such action or make such determination accordingly, in its sole and absolute discretion:

- (i) the relevant payment of the Issuer be postponed to 10 Business Days after the date on which the CNY Currency Event ceases to exist or, if that would not be possible (as determined by the Issuer acting in good faith) as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter;
- (ii) that the Issuer's obligation to make a payment in CNY under the terms of the Notes be replaced by an obligation to pay such amount in the Relevant Currency (converted at the Alternate Settlement Rate determined by the Calculation Agent as of a time selected in good faith by the Calculation Agent); and
- (iii) by giving notice to the Noteholders in accordance with the Conditions, the Issuer, in its sole and absolute discretion, may redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, each Note being redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount.

Upon the occurrence of a CNY Currency Event, the Issuer shall give notice, as soon as practicable, to the Noteholders in accordance with the Conditions stating the occurrence of the CNY Currency Event, giving brief details thereof and the action proposed to be taken in relation thereto.

(g) Dual Currency Notes

If "Dual Currency Note Provisions" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, amounts payable in respect of payment of principal and/or interest, if any, in respect the Notes shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by converting the relevant amounts denominated in the relevant Specified Currency into the Secondary Currency at the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate.

- (i) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that "Settlement in the Specified Currency" is "Not Applicable", then settlement will be made in the Secondary Currency at the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate.
- (ii) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that "Settlement in the Specified Currency" is "Applicable", then the amount payable in the relevant Secondary Currency calculated in accordance with the paragraph above shall be then converted by the Calculation Agent into the Specified Currency at the Specified Currency Conversion Rate. In such case settlement will be made in the Specified Currency at the Specified Currency Conversion Rate.
- (iii) If the applicable Final Terms specifies that the Dual Currency Note Provisions are "Applicable" "as set out in the Annex", then the settlement will be made in accordance with the applicable Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes as completed by the Annex to the Final Terms in relation to the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Secondary Currency means, in respect of the provision above, the currency or currencies specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Secondary Currency Conversion Rate means the conversion rate used to convert amounts in the Specified Currency into the Secondary Currency determined in accordance with the Conversion Method specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Specified Currency Conversion Rate means the conversion rate used to convert amounts previously converted into the Secondary Currency into the Specified Currency determined in accordance with the Conversion Method specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Conversion Method means the method of determining the conversion rate specified in the applicable Final Terms in relation, as the case may be, to the Specified Currency Conversion Rate or the Secondary Currency Conversion Rate and may be one of the following methods:

- (i) the applicable Final Terms may specify that the conversion rate shall be the Cross Currency Rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms which appears on the Page designated in the applicable Final Terms on the Conversion Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms. If such rate does not appear on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent will determine the conversion rate (or a method for determining the conversion rate) by reference to such sources as it acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner selects;
- (ii) the applicable Final Terms may specify a predetermined conversion rate. The applicable Final Terms will specify if this conversion rate is (i) the value of one Unit of the Specified Currency expressed as a unit (and/or fractions) of the Secondary Currency, or (ii) the value of one Unit of the Secondary Currency expressed as a unit (and/or fractions) of the Specified Currency; or

(iii) all other methods described in the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes as completed by the Annex to the Final Terms in relation to the Additional Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

(h) Charity Payment Notes

If “Charity Payment Notes” is specified as “Applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, payments of the Shared Amount(s) to the relevant Non-Profit Organisation shall be made directly by the Issuer, or by the Paying Agent instructed by the Issuer to make such payment, on behalf of the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 5(s) (Charity Payment Notes).

8. Taxation

All payments of principal and interest by, or on behalf of, the relevant Issuer in respect of the Notes shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Luxembourg (in the case of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL) or France (in the case of Notes issued by NATIXIS), or, in either case, any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In that event (unless the Tax Gross-up provision is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms), the relevant Issuer shall pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the holders of Notes, after such withholding or deduction, will receive the full amount then due and payable thereon in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that the relevant Issuer shall not be liable to pay any such additional amounts in respect of any Note:

- (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Noteholder who is subject to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of his having some connection with Luxembourg or France, as applicable, other than the mere holding of such Note; or
- (ii) where such withholding or deduction is required to be made pursuant to the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005, as amended.

In addition, no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to: (i) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to Section 871(m) of the Code; and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the Code or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

9. Prescription

Claims against the Issuer for payment in respect of the Notes shall be prescribed and become void unless presented for payment within ten years (in the case of principal) or five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect of them.

The Luxembourg act dated 3 September 1996 on the involuntary dispossession of bearer securities, as amended (the Involuntary Dispossession Act 1996) requires that any amount that is payable under the Bearer Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance or NCIBL (but has not yet been paid to the holders of the Bearer Notes), in the event that: (i) an opposition has been filed in relation to the Bearer Notes; and (ii) the Bearer Notes mature prior to becoming forfeited (as provided for in the Involuntary Dispossession Act 1996), is paid to the Caisse des consignations in Luxembourg until the opposition has been withdrawn or the forfeiture of the Bearer Notes occurs.

10. Events of Default

(a) Notes issued by NATIXIS

In respect of Notes issued by NATIXIS, if any of the following events (each, an Event of Default) occurs and is continuing, the holder of any Note may give written notice to the Fiscal Agent at its specified office effective upon receipt thereof by the Fiscal Agent that such Note is immediately payable, whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable unless in all cases prior to the time when the Fiscal Agent receives such notice all Events of Default in respect of the Notes shall have been cured:

- (i) default in any payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note including the payment of any additional amounts pursuant to Condition 8 (Taxation) (if applicable), when and as the same shall become due and payable, if such default shall not have been cured within 15 days thereafter;
- (ii) default by the Issuer in the due performance of any other obligations under the Notes, if such default shall not have been cured within 60 days after receipt by the Fiscal Agent of written notice of default given by the holder of such Note;
- (iii) if any other indebtedness of the Issuer for borrowed money becomes due and repayable prematurely by means of an event of default in relation thereto or the Issuer fails to make any payment in respect thereof on the due date for such payments, as extended by any applicable grace period or the security for any such other payment becomes enforceable, provided that the provisions of this paragraph (iii) shall not apply: (a) where the aggregate amount which is payable or repayable as aforesaid is equal to or less than €50,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies); or (b) where such default is due to a technical or settlement failure beyond the control of the Issuer, provided that such default is remedied in 7 days; or (c) the Issuer has disputed in good faith that such indebtedness is due and payable or that such security is enforceable and such dispute has been submitted to a competent court, in which case default in payment or security becoming enforceable shall not constitute an event of default hereunder so long as the dispute shall not have been finally adjudicated;
- (iv) a judgment is rendered for the judicial liquidation (liquidation judiciaire) or for the transfer of the whole of the business (cession totale de l'entreprise) of the Issuer or the Issuer makes any conveyance for the benefit of, or enters into any agreement with, its creditors or is subject to any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings; or
- (v) the Issuer sells, transfers, lends or otherwise disposes of, directly or indirectly, the whole or a substantial part of its undertaking or assets, or the Issuer enters into, or commences any proceedings in furtherance of, forced or voluntary liquidation or dissolution, except in the case of a disposal of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in favour of, a legal entity organised in the European Union, which simultaneously assumes (by operation of law or by express agreement) all of or substantially all of the Issuer's liabilities including the Notes.

(b) Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance

In respect of Notes issued by Natixis Structured Issuance, if any of the following events (Events of Default) occurs and is continuing, the holder of any Note may give written notice to the Fiscal Agent at its specified office that such Note is immediately repayable, whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable whereupon the Redemption Amount of such Note together with accrued interest (where applicable) to the date of payment shall become immediately due and payable unless, in all cases, prior to the time when the Fiscal Agent receives such notice all Events of Default in respect of the Notes shall have been cured:

 - (iv) a call by the Company in respect of Shares that are not fully paid;
 - (v) a repurchase by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of relevant Shares whether out of profits or capital and whether the consideration for such repurchase is cash, securities or otherwise;
 - (vi) in respect of the Company, an event that results in any shareholder rights being distributed or becoming separated from shares of common stock or other shares of the capital stock of the Company pursuant to a shareholder rights plan or arrangement directed against hostile takeovers that provides upon the occurrence of certain events for a distribution of preferred stock, warrants, debt instruments or stock rights at a price below their market value, as determined by the Calculation Agent, provided that any adjustment effected as a result of such an event shall be readjusted upon any redemption of such rights; or
 - (vii) any other similar event that may have a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Shares.
- (2) Consequences
- (i) If a Potential Adjustment Event occurs from, and including, the Issue Date to, and including, the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, the Calculation Agent will promptly determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of that Share and, if so, will:

The Calculation Agent may (but need not) determine the appropriate adjustment(s) by reference to the adjustment(s) in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by an options exchange to options on such Share traded on such options exchange.

If "China Connect" is specified as applicable in the relevant Final Terms, in its determinations of the existence and extent of any dilutive or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares of any Potential Adjustment Event, and any related adjustments to the terms of the Notes, the Calculation Agent shall take into account any requirement, adjustment and/or limitation that may be imposed by the China Connect Service or any action or inaction by any one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, CSDCC and HKSCC in relation to such Potential Adjustment Event in respect of Shares held through the China Connect Service.

- (ii) The Calculation Agent shall not be required to make an adjustment to the terms of the Notes if it determines (with reference as the case may be to the adjustment method of the Related Exchange on which options on the Shares are traded) that the theoretical change in value of any Share resulting from the occurrence of one or more events listed in the provisions hereof above is less than or equal to one per cent. of the value of that Share immediately before the occurrence of that event or those events.
- (iii) No adjustments to the terms of the Notes will be required other than those specified above. However, the Issuer may cause the Calculation Agent to make additional adjustments to the terms of the Notes to reflect changes occurring in relation to any Share in other circumstances where the Issuer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that such changes are appropriate.
- (iv) If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 14 (Discretion) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to elect to adjust any provisions of the Notes pursuant to this Condition 1.

In the case of Combined Consideration, the Calculation Agent may, in its sole and absolute discretion, determine that the Share shall be replaced by the number of New Shares equal to the sum of (a) the number of New Shares, which originally formed part of the Combined Consideration together with (b) the number of additional New Shares that could be purchased using the value on the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date of the Other Consideration.

- (i) the fair market value of a Note based on the market conditions prevailing at the Monetisation Date and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation, any equity options, equity swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes); and
- (ii) the Monetisation Formula.

In respect of any Fixed Interest Rate Notes and Structured Notes interest amount, for the purposes of determining the Monetisation Amount, no accrued unpaid interest shall be payable but shall be taken into account in calculating the fair market value of each Note.

For the purposes of this Condition 1(f)(F):

Change of Investment Policy means that the ETF Adviser of the Company effects or announces an intention to effect a change in the investment objectives, risk profile or investment guidelines of the Company in any material respect or makes any other material change to the terms and conditions of the Company such that the Shares cease to or are reasonably likely to cease to track the ETF Underlying Index.

FRTB Event means in respect of any Share in respect of which the related ETF Adviser or the related ETF Administrator (a) does not make publicly available on a voluntary basis or, as the case may be, as required by applicable laws and regulations, the FRTB Information and (b) in breach of an agreement with NATIXIS or any of its affiliates, if any, fails to provide Natixis or any of its affiliates with the FRTB Information and as a consequence of such failure, NATIXIS or any of its affiliates would incur materially increased (as compared with circumstances existing on the Trade Date) capital requirements pursuant to the Fundamental Review of the Trading Book as implemented into French law, in holding the Shares, where FRTB Information means sufficient information, including relevant risk sensitivities data, in a processable format to enable NATIXIS or any of its affiliates, as a holder of the Shares for its hedging constraints, to calculate its market risk in relation thereto as if it were holding the Shares directly; "processable format" means that the format of such information can be readily used by NATIXIS or any of its affiliates by using the existing functionality of a software or application commonly used by financial institutions to compute its market risk as described above;

Termination of ETF Adviser and/or ETF Administrator means that (i) voluntary or involuntary liquidation, bankruptcy or any analogous insolvency proceedings including, for the avoidance of doubt, bankruptcy, civil rehabilitation proceedings, corporate reorganisation proceedings, company arrangement or special liquidation are commenced with respect to the ETF Adviser or the ETF Administrator or (ii) the appointment of the ETF Adviser or ETF Administrator of the Company is terminated in accordance with its terms or notice of such termination is given to the holders of the Shares or (iii) the ETF Adviser or ETF Administrator of the Company fails to maintain or obtain, as the case may be, all required approvals and authorisations by the relevant financial and administrative authorities necessary to perform its obligations in respect of the Company and the Shares or (iv) it becomes illegal or impossible in the opinion of the Calculation Agent for the ETF Adviser or ETF Administrator of the Company to continue to act as ETF Adviser or ETF Administrator of the Company, and in any such case in the determination of the Calculation Agent no appropriate successor is appointed to act as adviser or administrator, as the case may be, of the Company.

- (ii) Condition 1(f)(D)(2) shall be construed as if reference to Additional Adjustment Events were also references to "Adjustment to the ETF Underlying Index", "Change of Investment Policy", "FRTB Event", "Liquidation", "Redemption of Shares", "Restrictions on Shares", "Termination of Adviser and/or Administrator" as defined above.
- (iii) The definition of "Integral Number of Shares" in Condition 1(g) is deleted and replaced by the following: "Integral Number of Shares means, in respect of each Note, an integral number of Shares equal to the Relevant Number of Shares rounded downwards to the ETF Minimum Tradable Quantity. (A) Definitions

Clearance System means indiscriminately the Share Clearance System, Clearstream or Euroclear.

Clearstream means Clearstream Banking S.A. (or any successor thereof).

Delivery Agent means NATIXIS or such other agent as may be appointed by the Issuer, as specified in the applicable Final Terms which term shall include any successor or any agent acting on behalf thereof, as the case may be. The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Delivery Agent and to appoint, or not, other Delivery Agents.

Disruption Cash Settlement Price means, in respect of any Note, an amount in the Specified Currency specified as such in the applicable Final Terms equal to the fair market value of a Note less (i) the Residual Cash Amount and (ii) unless where Unwind Costs is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the cost to the Issuer of unwinding any underlying related hedging arrangements, all as determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion.

Euroclear means Euroclear S.A./N.V. (or any successor thereof).

Integral Number of Shares means, in respect of each Note, an integral number of Shares equal to the Relevant Number of Shares rounded downwards to the nearest integral number; except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Integral Number of Shares" shall be deemed not applicable. For the avoidance of doubt the Integral Number of Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Reference Amount means either (i) the Specified Denomination or (ii) the Final Redemption Amount, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Rounding Convention means the method specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if such Physical Delivery Rounding Convention is not specified, the figure to be rounded shall be rounded upwards to the nearest third decimal.

Prevailing Exchange Rate means, in respect of any date specified in the applicable Final Terms, the cross currency rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms which appears on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms. If such rate does not appear on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent will determine the Prevailing Exchange Rate (or a method for determining the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

Relevant Number of Shares means, in respect of each Note, a number of Shares equal to (i) the Physical Delivery Reference Amount multiplied by the Prevailing Exchange Rate (if any) divided by (ii) the Share Reference Price, subject to the Physical Delivery Rounding Convention and to adjustment from time to time in accordance with the provisions as set out in Condition 1(f) (Particular Provisions) above. For the avoidance of doubt, the Relevant Number of Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Residual Number of Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Settlement Date means the Maturity Date. If a Settlement Disruption Event does prevent delivery on that day, then the Settlement Date will be the first succeeding day on which delivery of the Integral Number of Shares can take place through the relevant Clearance System unless a Settlement Disruption Event prevents settlement on each of the five Clearance System Business Days immediately following the original date that, but for the Settlement Disruption Event, would have been the Settlement Date. In that case, (a) if the Integral Number of Shares can be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then the Settlement Date will be the first day on which settlement of a sale of the Integral Number of Shares executed on that fifth Clearance System Business Day customarily would take place using such other commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery will be deemed to be the relevant Clearance System for the purposes of delivery of the relevant Integral Number of Shares), and (b) if the Integral Number of Shares cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then in lieu of physical settlement the Issuer may satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes by payment to the Noteholders of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price on the third Business Day following such fifth Clearance System Business Day. For the avoidance of doubt, where a Settlement Disruption Event affects some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Shares, the Settlement Date for shares or securities not affected by the Settlement Disruption Event will be the Maturity Date. In the event that a Settlement Disruption Event will result in the delivery on the Settlement Date of some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Shares, the Calculation Agent shall determine in its sole discretion the appropriate pro rata portion of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price which the Issuer, to satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes to the extent the Issuer has not already done so by delivery of shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Shares, will pay to the Noteholders on the third Business Day following the fifth Clearance System Business Day.

Settlement Disruption Event means an event beyond the control of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent as a result of which (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Share Clearance System cannot clear the transfer of the Shares or (ii) Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Share Clearance System ceases to clear all or any of such Shares.

(ii) Unless Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall be under no obligation to compensate or indemnify the Noteholder(s) for any delay or failure on the part of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to deliver or procure the delivery of the Integral Number of Shares on the Settlement Date and/or to pay or procure the payment of the Residual Cash Amount on the Maturity Date to the Noteholder(s) to the extent Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, does not receive the Delivery Notice from the Noteholder(s) on (or before, as may be applicable) the Delivery Notice Date or, to the extent that for any reason Euroclear and/or Clearstream fail, or fail within any relevant period, to transmit (whether or not in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures and accepted methods of communication) any notice by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to its participants. Without prejudice to the preceding sentence and paragraph (iv) below, in the event that Euroclear and/or Clearstream or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, do not receive a Delivery Notice from a Noteholder on or before the tenth Business Day following the Maturity Date, the Issuer shall be entitled (but not obliged) to pay to such Noteholder, as soon as reasonably practicable on or following such date, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and notified to the Issuer, the Paying Agent, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be (to be communicated by them to the relevant Noteholders) in writing promptly following such determination, equal to the fair market value of such Integral Number of Shares and/or the Residual Cash Amount at the date determined in good faith by the Issuer, in full satisfaction of its obligations under such Notes.

- (iii) A Delivery Notice once delivered to Euroclear or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, shall be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn without the consent in writing of the Issuer. Failure properly and timely to provide a Delivery Notice may result in such notice being treated as null and void. Any determination as to whether such notice has been properly provided shall be made by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, after consultation with the Issuer and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the relevant Noteholder. If a Delivery Notice has not been provided properly and timely, the Issuer or the Delivery Agent shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery in respect of the Notes which are the subject of the Delivery Notice.
- (v) Receipt by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, of a valid Delivery Notice shall be deemed to constitute (i) written confirmation of an irrevocable election and undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to select the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Share Clearance System specified therein and (ii) an undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to pay any costs, applicable value added or sales taxes, transfer taxes, stamp duties and other taxes and duties due by reason of delivery of the Integral Number of Shares to the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Share Clearance System or to reimburse Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Share Clearance System in respect of any such costs, taxes or duties.

For the purposes of determining whether a Market Disruption Event exists at any time, if a Market Disruption Event occurs in respect of a security included in the Index at any time, then the relevant percentage contribution of that security to the level of the Index shall be based on a comparison of (x) the portion of the level of the Index attributable to that security and (y) the overall level of the Index, in each case immediately before the occurrence of such Market Disruption Event.

(2) for a Share traded on any Japanese exchange, the last traded price per such Share for the day quoted by the Exchange on such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, provided however, that if there is a closing special quote per such Share quoted by the Exchange (tokubetsu kehaine), such quote shall be deemed to be the relevant Share Price;

(b) in respect of the relevant Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates:

(1) if "Average Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the arithmetic average as determined by the Calculation Agent (rounded to the nearest unit of the Specified Currency in which the Share is valued (with halves being rounded up)) of the Specified Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR

(2) if "Minimum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically lowest price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Specified Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR

- (3) if "Maximum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically highest price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Specified Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates.

OR

(B) If Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

- (a) in respect of any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, an amount for the Basket determined by the Calculation Agent equal to the sum of the values for the Shares of each Company as the product of (i) the price per such Share as determined by the Calculation Agent as of the Valuation Time on the relevant Exchange (ii) the relevant Weighting; or
- (b) in respect of the Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates:
 - (1) if "Average Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the arithmetic average as determined by the Calculation Agent of the amounts for the Basket calculated on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates as the sum of the values for the Shares of each Company as the product of (i) the Specified Price of such Share and (ii) the relevant Weighting; OR
 - (2) if "Minimum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically lowest number as determined by the Calculation Agent of the amounts for the Basket calculated on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates as the sum of the values for the Shares of each Company as the product of (i) the Specified Price of such Share and (ii) the relevant Weighting; OR
 - (3) if "Maximum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically highest number as determined by the Calculation Agent of the amounts for the Basket calculated on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates as the sum of the values for the Shares of each Company as the product of (i) the Specified Price of such Share (ii) the relevant weighting.

Scheduled Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date means, in respect of any Share, the original date that, but for the occurrence of an event causing a Disrupted Day, would have been an Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date.

Specified Price means, in respect of any Share and any Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, either:

- (A) for a Share other than a Share traded on any Japanese exchange, the price per Share as determined by the Calculation Agent as of the Valuation Time on the Exchange on such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date; OR
- (B) for a Share traded on any Japanese exchange, the last traded price per such Share for the day quoted by the Exchange on such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, provided however, that if there is a closing special quote per such Share quoted by the Exchange (tokubetsu kehaine), such quote shall be deemed to be the relevant Specified Price.

(B) Consequences of the occurrence of an Automatic Early Redemption Event

If Automatic Early Redemption Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled, if on any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date the Automatic Early Redemption Event occurs, then the Notes will be automatically redeemed in whole, but not in part, on the Automatic Early Redemption Date immediately following such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date and the Redemption Amount payable by the Issuer on such date upon redemption of each Note shall be an amount equal to the relevant Automatic Early Redemption Amount.

Automatic Early Redemption Amount means (a) an amount in the Specified Currency specified in the applicable Final Terms, or (b) if such amount is not specified, the product of (i) the Calculation Amount and (ii) the relevant Automatic Early Redemption Rate relating to that Automatic Early Redemption Date.

(C) Consequences of Disrupted Days

(1) Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date

If, in respect of any Share, any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, then such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date for such Share shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, unless each of the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following the relevant Scheduled Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day.

In that case, (i) the relevant Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date shall be deemed to be that Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date for such Share, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and (ii) the relevant Share Price, if Separate Valuation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, or the relevant price per such Share (for the purpose of determining the Share Price of the Basket), if Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, shall be the Calculation Agent's good faith estimate of the value for such Share as of the Valuation Time on that Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date.

Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date means, in respect of any Share, and any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Scheduled Trading Day which is the last of the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date.

(2) Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date

If, in respect of any Share, any Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date is a Disrupted Day, then such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date for such Share shall be the first succeeding Automatic Early Redemption Valid Date. If the first succeeding Automatic Early Redemption Valid Date has not occurred as of the Valuation Time on the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, then (A) the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date for such Share shall be deemed to be that Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date (irrespective of whether the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date is already an Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date), and (B) the Specified Price in respect of that Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date shall be the Calculation Agent's good faith estimate of the value for such Share as of the Valuation Time on the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date.

Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date means, in respect of any Share, the Scheduled Trading Day which is the last of the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following the original date that, but for the occurrence of another Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date or Disrupted Day, would have been the final Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date.

(f) Particular Provisions

(A) Potential Adjustment Events

(1) Definitions

Potential Adjustment Event means, with respect to any Company and/or any Share, any of the following as determined by the Calculation Agent:

- (i) a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of Shares (unless resulting in a Merger Event), or a free distribution or dividend of any such Shares to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue;
- (ii) a distribution, issue or dividend to existing holders of relevant Shares of (A) such Shares, or (B) other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or the proceeds of liquidation of the Company equally or proportionately with such payments to holders of such Shares, or (C) share capital or other securities of another issuer acquired or owned (directly or indirectly) by the Company as a result of a spin-off or other similar transaction, or (D) any other type of securities, rights or warrants or other assets, in any case for payment (cash or other consideration) at less than the prevailing market price as determined by the Calculation Agent;
- (iii) a dividend which the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole discretion and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, should (in whole or part) be characterised as an extraordinary dividend;

- (iv) a call by the Company in respect of Shares that are not fully paid;
- (v) a repurchase by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of relevant Shares whether out of profits or capital and whether the consideration for such repurchase is cash, securities or otherwise;
- (vi) in respect of the Company, an event that results in any shareholder rights being distributed or becoming separated from shares of common stock or other shares of the capital stock of the Company pursuant to a shareholder rights plan or arrangement directed against hostile takeovers that provides upon the occurrence of certain events for a distribution of preferred stock, warrants, debt instruments or stock rights at a price below their market value, as determined by the Calculation Agent, provided that any adjustment effected as a result of such an event shall be readjusted upon any redemption of such rights; or
- (vii) any other similar event that may have a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Shares.

(2) Consequences

- (i) Subject to sub-paragraph (iv) below, if, in respect of any Share, a Potential Adjustment Event occurs from, and including, the Issue Date to, and including, the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, the Calculation Agent will promptly determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of that Share and, if so, will:
 - (a) make such adjustment(s), if any, to any one or more of the Barrier Price and/or the Trigger Price and/or the Initial Price and/or the Knock-in Price and/or the Knock-out Price and/or the Automatic Early Redemption Price and/or the specific Weighting and/or (if Redemption by Physical Delivery) the Relevant Number of Shares and/or any of the other relevant provisions of the Notes that the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be appropriate to account for that diluting or concentrative effect; and
 - (b) determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date(s) of such adjustment(s).

The Calculation Agent may (but need not) determine the appropriate adjustment(s) by reference to the adjustment(s) in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by an options exchange to options on such Share traded on such options exchange.

If "China Connect" is specified as applicable in the relevant Final Terms, in its determinations of the existence and extent of any dilutive or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares of any Potential Adjustment Event, and any related adjustments to the terms of the Notes, the Calculation Agent shall take into account any requirement, adjustment and/or limitation that may be imposed by the China Connect Service or any action or inaction by any one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, CSDCC and HKSCC in relation to such Potential Adjustment Event in respect of Shares held through the China Connect Service.

- (ii) The Calculation Agent shall not be required to make an adjustment to the terms of the Notes if it determines (with reference as the case may be to the adjustment method of the Related Exchange on which options on this Share are traded) that the theoretical change in value of any Share resulting from the occurrence of one or more events listed in the provisions hereof above is less than or equal to one per cent. of the value of that Share immediately before the occurrence of that event or those events.
- (iii) No adjustments to the terms of the Notes will be required other than those specified above. However, subject to sub-paragraph (iv) below, the Issuer may cause the Calculation Agent to make additional adjustments to the terms of the Notes to reflect changes occurring in relation to any Share in other circumstances where the Issuer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that such changes are appropriate.
- (iv) If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 14 (Discretion) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to elect to adjust any provisions of the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3.

(B) Correction of Share Price

In the event that, in respect of any Share, any price published on the Exchange and which is utilised by the Calculation Agent for any determination (the Original Determination) is subsequently corrected and the correction (the Corrected Value) is published by the relevant Exchange within one relevant Settlement Cycle after the original publication, then the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer of the Corrected Value as soon as reasonably practicable and shall determine the relevant value (the Replacement Determination) using the Corrected Value.

If the result of the Replacement Determination is different from the result of the Original Determination, to the extent that it determines to be necessary, the Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms accordingly.

(C) Merger Events and Tender Offers

(1) Definitions

Combined Consideration means New Shares in combination with Other Consideration.

Merger Date means the closing date of a Merger Event (as determined by the Calculation Agent) or, where a closing date cannot be determined under the local law applicable to such Merger Event, such other date as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Merger Event means, in respect of any Share, any (i) reclassification or change of the Share that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all of such Shares outstanding to another entity or person, (ii) consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of the relevant Company with or into another entity or person (other than a consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange in which such Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all of such Shares outstanding), (iii) takeover offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person to purchase or otherwise obtain 100% of the outstanding Shares of this Company that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all such Shares (other than such Shares owned or controlled by such other entity or person), or (iv) consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of this Company or its subsidiaries with or into another entity in which this Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all such Shares outstanding but results in the outstanding Shares (other than Shares owned or controlled by such other entity) immediately prior to such event collectively representing less than 50% of the outstanding Shares immediately following such event (a Reverse Merger).

Minimum Percentage means 10% or the percentage specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

New Shares means, in respect of any Share, ordinary or common shares, depositary receipts or units of exchange traded fund, as the case may be, whether of the entity or person (other than the relevant Company) involved in the Merger Event or the making of the Tender Offer or a third party, that are, or that as of the Merger Date or Tender Offer Date are promptly scheduled to be, (i) publicly quoted, traded or listed on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country as the Exchange (or, where the Exchange is within the European Union, in any member state of the European Union) and (ii) not subject to any currency exchange controls, trading restrictions or other trading limitations.

New Shares Conditions means, if Separate Valuation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in respect of New Shares, that these New Shares (i) are not a Share already comprised in the Basket, (ii) are or will be, listed on an Exchange, (iii) are, or will be, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the subject of a large and liquid market and (iv) comply with any Additional New Shares Conditions specified in the applicable Final Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, if there is more than one company issuing New Shares in respect of the relevant Merger Event or, as the case may be, Tender Offer, such conditions shall be applied separately to the shares of each such company.

Other Consideration means, in respect of any Share, cash and/or any securities (other than New Shares) or assets (whether of the entity or person (other than the relevant Company) involved in the Merger Event or the making of the Tender Offer or a third party).

Other Consideration Ratio means either (i) if the Other Consideration is quoted on an exchange on the Merger Date, the closing price of that Other Consideration on the relevant exchange on the Merger Date or (ii) if such Other Consideration is not quoted on an exchange on such date, the Calculation Agent's good faith estimate of the value at which such Other Consideration could be sold to a willing buyer in an arm's length transaction on the Merger Date, in both cases expressed in terms of the number of New Shares that a holder of an Affected Share is entitled to receive on the Merger Date.

Share Differential means, in respect of any Share, a number equal to the price of this Share as of the relevant Valuation Time on the relevant Exchange on the relevant Merger Date or, as the case may be, Tender Offer Date (or if such price is not available, the Calculation Agent's good faith estimate of the value of such Share as of the relevant Valuation Time on such date) divided by the relevant Initial Price in respect of such Share.

Share-for-Combined means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares consists solely of Combined Consideration.

Share-for-Other means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares consists solely of Other Consideration.

Share-for-Share means (i) in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares consists (or, at the option of the holder of such Shares, will consist) solely of New Shares, and (ii) a Reverse Merger.

Tender Offer means, in respect of any Share, a takeover offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person that results in such entity or person purchasing or otherwise obtaining or having the right to obtain, by conversion or other means, greater than the Minimum Percentage and less than 100% of the outstanding voting shares of the relevant Company, as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in its sole and absolute discretion, based upon the making of filings with governmental or self regulatory agencies or such other information as the Calculation Agent deems relevant.

Tender Offer Date means, in respect of a Tender Offer, the date on which voting shares in the amount of the applicable percentage threshold are actually purchased or otherwise obtained (as determined by the Calculation Agent).

(2) Consequences

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that a Merger Event or a Tender Offer, has occurred in respect of any Share at any time from, and including, the Issue Date to, and including, the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, it shall forthwith notify the Issuer of the occurrence of such event and the relevant Merger Date or, as the case may be, Tender Offer Date and, if Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may elect on or after the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date:

- (A) if Separate Valuation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

if the Calculation Agent determines that the New Share Conditions are satisfied as of the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date, then the New Shares and the company issuing those New Shares will be deemed to be that Share and that Company respectively, the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to adjust accordingly any relevant terms of the Notes to account for the economic effect on the Notes of such Merger Event and to reflect the number of New Shares to which a holder of one such Affected Share is entitled in exchange for the Affected Share, provided that such adjustment shall only apply after the Merger Date;

OR (but not and) if the Calculation Agent determines that the New Share Conditions are not satisfied as of the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date, the Affected Share shall be replaced by a Substitute Share in accordance with the provisions set forth in Condition 3(f)(E) (Substitution) below.

In respect of any Merger Event or Tender Offer, to the extent that a holder of an Affected Share could elect to receive New Shares or Other Consideration, the Calculation Agent will, for the purposes of making any calculation in respect of the Notes, be deemed to elect to receive New Shares.

OR (BUT NOT AND)

- (B) if Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

in the case where the Share continues to be listed and traded on the Exchange, to retain such Share in the Basket, subject to any adjustments to the terms of the Notes as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate;

OR (but not and)

to require the Calculation Agent (a) to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, payment or any other terms of the Notes as the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Notes of such Merger Event or Tender Offer (including, without limitation, (A) the replacement of the Share by the number of New Shares and/or the amount of Other Consideration (as subsequently modified in accordance with any relevant terms and including the proceeds of any redemption, if applicable) to which a holder of a Share would be entitled upon consummation of the Merger Event or the Tender Offer and/or (B) the adjustment to the relevant terms of the Notes that the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be appropriate to account for such replacement and/or (C) the replacement of the Affected Share in the Basket by the cash value of such Affected Share, as determined in good faith by the Calculation Agent) and (b) to determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s).

If "China Connect" is specified as applicable in the relevant Final Terms, in its determination of any adjustments to the terms of the Notes to account for the economic effect on the Notes of the relevant Merger Event or Tender Offer, as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall take into account any requirement, adjustment and/or limitation that may be imposed by the China Connect Service or any action or inaction by any one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, CSDCC and HKSCC in relation to such Merger Event or Tender Offer in respect of Shares held through the China Connect Service.

If a holder of Shares could make an election as between different components of the New Shares and/or Other Consideration, the Calculation Agent shall make, in its sole and absolute discretion, such election for the purposes of this sub-paragraph 0.

If Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms and in the case of Combined Consideration, the Calculation Agent may, in its sole and absolute discretion, determine that the Share shall be replaced by the number of New Shares equal to the sum of (a) the number of New Shares, which originally formed part of the Combined Consideration together with (b) the number of additional New Shares that could be purchased using the value on the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date of the Other Consideration.

If Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms and in the event that the consideration for the Share consists of more than any one type of share or security, the Calculation Agent may determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, that the Share will be comprised of some but not all of such considerations (the Retained Consideration), and that the balance of the consideration shall not be so retained for purposes of comprising the Share (the Non Retained Consideration); provided, however, that an adjustment shall be made to the Retained Consideration comprising the Share so as to take into account the value of the Non Retained Consideration. The foregoing adjustment shall be made with reference to the values of the Retained Consideration and Non Retained Consideration in accordance with the quotations (if any) of the Retained Consideration and the Non Retained Consideration, respectively, made on the first Exchange Business Day following the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date and otherwise as the Calculation Agent may reasonably determine.

OR (BUT NOT AND)

- (C) if Monetisation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to apply the Monetisation provisions set forth in paragraph 3(f)(F) below;

OR (BUT NOT AND)

- (D) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes on the tenth Business Day following the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date (such date being an Early Redemption Date) by paying the Early Redemption Amount determined by the Calculation Agent on the Merger Date or, as the case may be, the Tender Offer Date. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes shall be satisfied in full upon payment of such amount. In such event, the Issuer shall promptly notify the Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes that it has elected to redeem the Notes (such notice stating the Early Redemption Date and the applicable Early Redemption Amount).

The Calculation Agent shall not be required to make an adjustment to the terms of the Notes if it determines (with reference as the case may be to the adjustment method of the Related Exchange on which options on this Share are traded) that the theoretical change in value of any Share resulting from the occurrence of one or more events listed in the provisions hereof above is less than or equal to one per cent. of the value of that Share immediately before the occurrence of that event or those events.

No adjustments to the terms of the Notes will be required other than those specified above. However, the Issuer may cause the Calculation Agent to make additional adjustments to the terms of the Notes to reflect changes occurring in relation to any Share in other circumstances where the Issuer determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that such changes are appropriate.

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by English Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, and (iii) Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable. If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by French Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 15 of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, and (iii) Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable.

China Connect Event means either a China Connect Service Share Disqualification event or a China Connect Service Termination event.

China Connect Service Termination means, on or after the Trade Date (being the date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms), the announcement by one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, the CSDCC, HKSCC or any regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of a suspension or termination of the China Connect Service or a part thereof for any reason which materially affects the routing of orders in respect of, or holding of, the Shares through the China Connect Service and the Calculation Agent determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such suspension or termination is not, or will not be, temporary.

China Connect Share Disqualification means, on or after the Trade Date (being the date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms), the Shares cease to be accepted as "China Connect Securities" (as defined in the rules of SEHK) for the purposes of the China Connect Service.

Delisting means, in respect of any Share, that the relevant Exchange announces that pursuant to the rules of this Exchange, this Share ceases (or will cease) to be listed, traded or publicly quoted on this Exchange for any reason (other than a Merger Event or Tender Offer) and is not immediately re-listed, re-traded or re-quoted on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country as the Exchange (or, where the Exchange is in the European Union, in any member state of the European Union).

Hedging Arrangements means any hedging arrangements entered into by the Issuer or NATIXIS (and/or its affiliates) or any entities which are relevant to the Hedging Arrangements at any time with respect to the Notes, including without limitation the purchase and/or sale of any securities, any options or futures on such securities, any depositary receipts in respect of such securities and any associated foreign exchange transactions.

Hedging Disruption means, where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, that NATIXIS (and/or its affiliates) or any entities which are relevant to the Hedging Arrangements is unable, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to (i) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transaction(s) or asset(s) it deems necessary to hedge the risk of NATIXIS entering into and performing its obligations with respect to the Notes, or (ii) realise, recover or remit the proceeds of any such transaction(s) or asset(s). For the avoidance of doubt, "using commercially reasonable efforts" to hedge the risks with respect to the Notes referred to in Hedging Disruption does not include the use of any quota granted to such Hedging Party or its Affiliates under the Qualified Foreign Institutional

Investor (QFII) or Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor (RQFII) schemes.

Hedging Shares means the number of Shares that the Issuer deems necessary to hedge the equity or other price risk of entering into and performing its obligations with respect to the Notes.

Increased Cost of Stock Borrow means, where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, that the Issuer and/or any of its Affiliates would incur a rate to borrow any Share that is greater than the Initial Stock Loan Rate.

Initial Stock Loan Rate means, in respect of a Share, the initial stock loan rate specified in relation to such Share in the applicable Final Terms.

(2) Consequences

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that an Additional Adjustment Event has occurred in respect of any Share or any Company from, and including, the Issue Date to, and including, the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, it shall forthwith notify the Issuer of such event and, if Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may elect either:

- (i) if Separate Valuation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to require the Calculation Agent to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Notes (including, without limitation, to determine its good faith estimate of the value of such Share (the Share Value) which may be, for the avoidance of doubt, equal to zero, provided that the Calculation Agent may (but is not obliged to) decide that the Share Value shall be deemed to be the Other Consideration and reinvested in a Substitute Share in accordance with the provisions set forth in Condition 3(f)(E) (Substitution) below). If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, (i) as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate, and determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s); the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable.

OR (but not and)

- (ii) if Separate Valuation is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to require the Calculation Agent (a) to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Notes, as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate, (including, without limitation, the good faith estimate by the Calculation Agent of the value of the Share before the effective date of such event, taking into account that the value of such Share may, for the avoidance of doubt, replace such Affected Share in the Basket or be equal to zero) and (b) determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s);

OR (but not and)

- (iii) if Monetisation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to apply the Monetisation provisions set forth in paragraph 3(f)(F) below;

OR (but not and)

- (iv) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes on the tenth Business Day (such day being an Early Redemption Date) following the day (or, if such day is not a Business Day, the first Business Day following the day) on which the Issuer receives notice from the Calculation Agent that such Additional Adjustment Event has occurred (such day being a Notification Date). The Notes shall be redeemed on the Early Redemption Date at the Early Redemption Amount determined by the Calculation Agent as of the Notification Date. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes shall be satisfied in full upon payment of such amount. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes that it has elected to redeem the Notes (such notice stating the Early Redemption Date and the applicable Early Redemption Amount).

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by English Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and (iii) Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable. If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by French Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 15 of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3, and (iii) Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable.

(E) Substitution

(1) Definitions

Market Value means an amount determined by the Calculation Agent to be respectively:

- (i) in respect of the Substitute Share (the Market Value of the Substitute Share), the closing price per Substitute Share on the relevant exchange on the Substitution Date;
- (ii) in respect of the Substitute Consideration (the Market Value of the Substitute Consideration):
 - (a) if such Substitute Consideration is quoted on an exchange on the Substitution Date, the closing price per Substitute Consideration on the relevant exchange on the Substitution Date; and/or
 - (b) if such Substitute Consideration is not quoted on an exchange on the Substitution Date, the Calculation Agent's good faith estimate of the value at which the Substitute Consideration could be sold to a willing buyer in an arm's length transaction on the Substitution Date.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Market Value of Other Consideration shall be deemed to be expressed as an amount per Affected Share.

Substitute Share means, in respect of any Affected Share, an ordinary share or stock in the capital of a Company or, as the case may be, a Depositary Receipt evidencing ownership of the Underlying Share or, as the case may be, a Unit in the Exchange Traded Fund with the ISIN (International Securities Identification Number) code or any other identification code, selected by the Calculation Agent to replace that Affected Share which satisfies each of the following criteria:

- (i) it is not already a Share comprised in the Basket (except if such Share is a New Share received as a consequence of a de-merger Event in respect of which the New Share Conditions are satisfied);
- (ii) it is a Share in respect of which no Share Event would occur immediately upon its substitution for the relevant Affected Share;
- (iii) it is listed on a regulated exchange and is traded on an exchange, quotation system or market that the Calculation Agent determines is of comparative size and liquidity relative to the Substitute Share as the Exchange is relative to the Affected Share;
- (iv) it is issued to the extent that this is possible by a company located in the same geographical area as the Company relating to the Affected Share;
- (v) it is part, to the extent that this is possible, of the same economic sector as the Company relating to the Affected Share; and
- (vi) any Additional Substitute Share Conditions specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Substitute Consideration means (i) the Affected Share or (ii) New Shares and/or Other Consideration exchanged or otherwise received in respect of the Affected Share.

Substitution Date means, in respect of any Share Event and any Share, the third Exchange Business Day (on which, if relevant, no Market Disruption Event has occurred) succeeding the Effective Date.

(2) Consequences

If Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the occurrence of a Share Event with respect to an Affected Share (other than a Share-for-Combined Merger Event or a Share-for-Combined Tender Offer or a Share-for-Share Merger Event or a Share-for-Share Tender Offer where the New Share Conditions are satisfied):

- (i) the Calculation Agent shall determine the Market Value of the Substitute Consideration and the Market Value of the Substitute Share;
- (ii) the Substitute Share and the company issuing those Substitute Shares will be deemed to be the Share and the Company respectively with effect on the Substitution Date;

- (iii) the relevant Initial Price will be adjusted by the Calculation Agent by dividing (a) such relevant Initial Price by (b) an amount equal to (A) the Market Value of the Substitute Consideration divided by (B) the Market Value of the Substitute Share, provided that such adjustment shall only apply after the Substitution Date; and
- (iv) the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to adjust accordingly any of the other relevant terms of the Notes (including, but not limited to, any of the relevant Barrier Price and/or the Trigger Price and/or Knock-in Price and/or Knock-out Price and/or Automatic Early Redemption Price and/or the specific Weighting which will be adjusted by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the methodology above defined), provided that such adjustment shall only apply after the Substitution Date.

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by English Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable. If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by French Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 15 in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 3 and Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable.

(F) Monetisation

Means, if "Monetisation" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Monetisation Event occurs but Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, that in respect of the Final Redemption Amount, any Fixed Interest Rate, Floating Rate and Structured Note interest amount, the Issuer shall no longer be liable for the payment, (i) on any Interest Payment Date following the occurrence of a Monetisation Event, of the Fixed Interest Rate, Floating Rate, and/or Structured Note interest amount initially scheduled to be paid on such Interest Payment Date(s) and (ii) on the Maturity Date, of the Final Redemption Amount initially scheduled to be paid on the Maturity Date, but instead will, in full and final satisfaction and discharge of its obligations of payment under the Notes, pay on the Maturity Date an amount per Note as calculated by the Calculation Agent as of the Monetisation Date until the Maturity Date (the Monetisation Amount) equal to the product of:

- (A) the fair market value of a Note based on the market conditions prevailing at the Monetisation Date and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation, any equity options, equity swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes); and
- (B) the Monetisation Formula.

In respect of any Fixed Interest Rate Notes and Structured Notes interest amount for the purposes of determining the Monetisation Amount, no accrued unpaid interest shall be payable but shall be taken into account in calculating the fair market value of each Note.

For the purposes of this Condition 3(f)(F):

Monetisation Date means the date as of which the Monetisation provisions shall be effective, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and which shall be no earlier than the date of occurrence of the relevant Monetisation Event.

Monetisation Event means any event specified in Condition 3(f) (Particular Provisions) which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, triggers the Monetisation provisions, as set forth in Condition 3(f) (Particular Provisions).

Monetisation Formula means the following formula:

where r is an Interest Rate specified in the applicable Final Terms; and n means the period in years from the Monetisation Date to the Maturity Date.

If "Monetisation Floor" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Noteholders will receive no less than the amount of the Specified Denomination in the event of the application of the Monetisation Formula.

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount.

- (G) Cut-off Date
 - (1) Definitions

Cut-off Date means, in respect of any Valuation Date, the Scheduled Trading Day which is the first of the Cut-off Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately preceding such Valuation Date.

Cut-off Number means the number specified as such in the applicable Final Terms or if no number is specified the Specific Number shall be deemed equal to five.

(2) Consequences

Notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 3(f)(C) (Merger Events and Tender Offers) and Condition 3(f)(D) (Additional Adjustment Events), if a Share Event occurs during the period from the relevant Cut-off Date to any Valuation Date (both dates inclusive), the relevant Final Price of the Affected Share shall be the price determined by the Calculation Agent as being its good faith estimate of the fair market value of the Affected Share.

(H) Miscellaneous

- (i) If more than one of the events set out above occurs, the adjustments (if any) to the terms of the Notes for the second and subsequent events shall be to the terms of the Notes as adjusted for preceding events.
- (ii) In the event that a determination is made that the Notes will be settled by Redemption by Physical Delivery and on or after the last Valuation Date or the last Observation Date or the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day (but before the Settlement Date) a Potential Adjustment Event, a Merger Event or an Additional Adjustment Event occurs, then the Issuer shall be entitled (but not obliged) upon immediate notice to the Noteholders to (a) delay the Settlement Date to such date that falls five Business Days following such event and (b) cause the property comprising the Relevant Number of Shares to be thereupon adjusted in accordance with the provisions hereof.
- (iii) As soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances after making any adjustment or modification to the terms of the Notes in accordance with these Conditions, whether in the exercise of its own discretion or at the request of the Issuer, the Calculation Agent will give notice thereof to the Issuer and to the Paying Agent whereupon the Issuer or the Paying Agent shall notify the Noteholders of such adjustment or modification in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes.

(I) Redemption by Physical Delivery

(1) Definitions

Clearance System means indiscriminately the Deliverable Share Clearance System, Clearstream or Euroclear.

Clearance System Business Day means any day on which each of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, and the Deliverable Share Clearance System is (or, but for the occurrence of a Settlement Disruption Event, would have been) open for the acceptance and execution of settlement instructions.

Clearstream means Clearstream Banking S.A. (or any successor thereof).

Deliverable Share means the Share specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Deliverable Share Clearance System means the principal domestic clearance system customarily used for settling trades in the Deliverable Share, as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Delivery Agent means NATIXIS or such other agent as may be appointed by the Issuer, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, which term shall include any successor or any agent acting on behalf thereof, as the case may be. The Delivery Agent will act solely as agent of the Issuer and will not assume any obligations to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with, the Noteholders. The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Delivery Agent and to appoint or not other Delivery Agents.

Disruption Cash Settlement Price means, in respect of any Note, an amount in the Specified Currency specified as such in the applicable Final Terms equal to the fair market value of a Note less (i) the Residual Cash Amount and (ii) unless where Unwind Costs is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the cost to the Issuer of unwinding any underlying related hedging arrangements, all as determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion.

Euroclear means Euroclear S.A./N.V. (or any successor thereof).

Integral Number of Deliverable Shares means, in respect of each Note, an integral number of Deliverable Shares equal to the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares rounded downwards to the nearest integral number; except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Integral Number of Deliverable Shares" shall be deemed not applicable. For the avoidance of doubt the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Reference Amount means either (i) the Specified Denomination or (ii) the Final Redemption Amount, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Rounding Convention means the method specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if such Physical Delivery Rounding Convention is not specified, the figure to be rounded shall be rounded upwards to the nearest third decimal.

Prevailing Exchange Rate means, in respect of any date specified in the applicable Final Terms, the cross currency rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms which appears on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms. If such rate does not appear on the page designated in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent will determine the Prevailing Exchange Rate (or a method for determining the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares means, in respect of each Note, a number of Deliverable Shares equal to (i) the Physical Delivery Reference Amount multiplied by (ii) the specific Weighting (if any), (iii) the Prevailing Exchange Rate (if any) divided by (iv) the Share Reference Price of the Deliverable Shares, subject to the Physical Delivery Rounding Convention and to adjustment from time to time in accordance with the provisions as set out in Condition 3(f) (Particular Provisions) above. For the avoidance of doubt, the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Residual Cash Amount means, in respect of each Note, an amount in the Specified Currency specified in the applicable Final Terms equal to the product of (i) the Residual Number of Deliverable Shares and (ii) the Ultimate Final Price of the Deliverable Share divided by the Prevailing Exchange Rate (if any), being specified that the result of such sum shall be rounded to the nearest second decimal and with 0.005 rounded upwards.

Residual Number of Deliverable Shares means, in respect of each Note, a number of Shares equal to (i) the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares minus (ii) the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares; except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Residual Number of Deliverable Shares" shall be deemed not applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Residual Number of Deliverable Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Settlement Date means the Maturity Date. If a Settlement Disruption Event does prevent delivery on that day, then the Settlement Date will be the first succeeding day on which delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares can take place through the relevant Clearance System unless a Settlement Disruption Event prevents settlement on each of the five Clearance System Business Days immediately following the original date that, but for the Settlement Disruption Event, would have been the Settlement Date. In that case, (a) if the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares can be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then the Settlement Date will be the first day on which settlement of a sale of the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares executed on that fifth Clearance System Business Day customarily would take place using such other commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery will be deemed to be the relevant Clearance System for the purposes of delivery of the relevant Integral Number of Deliverable Shares), and (b) if the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then in lieu of physical settlement the Issuer may satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes by payment to the Noteholders of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price on the third Business Day following such fifth Clearance System Business Day. For the avoidance of doubt, where a Settlement Disruption Event affects some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares, the Settlement Date for shares or securities not affected by the Settlement Disruption Event will be the Maturity Date. In the event that a Settlement Disruption Event will result in the delivery on the Settlement Date of some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares, the Calculation Agent shall determine in its sole discretion the appropriate pro rata portion of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price which the Issuer, to satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes to the extent the Issuer has not already done so by delivery of shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Shares, will pay to the Noteholders on the third Business Day following the fifth Clearance System Business Day.

Settlement Disruption Event means an event beyond the control of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent as a result of which (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Deliverable Share Clearance System cannot clear the transfer of the Deliverable Shares or (ii) Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Deliverable Share Clearance System ceases to clear all or any of such Deliverable Shares.

Share Reference Price means, as specified in the applicable Final Terms (i) the amount per Deliverable Share specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, (ii) the Initial Price of the Deliverable Shares or (iii) the Ultimate Final Price.

Ultimate Final Price means the Final Price or, if there are several Valuation Dates, the Final Price in respect of the last Valuation Date or otherwise specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

(2) Provisions

(i) In the case of Redemption by Physical Delivery, provided that notice of Redemption by Physical Delivery shall be made by the Calculation Agent or the Issuer to the Paying Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be, on or immediately after the last Valuation Date or the last Observation Date or the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, each Noteholder shall not later than two Business Days before the Maturity Date (the Delivery Notice Date) (or on such earlier date as the Calculation Agent, acting in its sole discretion, shall determine is necessary for the Issuer and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, to perform their respective obligations under the Notes and which earlier date has been notified to the Issuer, and of which the Issuer shall then promptly inform Noteholders) send to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be (in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures and accepted methods of communication), an irrevocable notice designating its security and cash accounts for the purposes of Redemption by Physical Delivery and details of such accounts at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Deliverable Share Clearance System (the Delivery Notice).

(ii) Unless Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall be under no obligation to compensate or indemnify the Noteholder(s) for any delay or failure on the part of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to deliver or procure the delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares on the Settlement Date and/or to pay or procure the payment of the Residual Cash Amount on the Maturity Date to the Noteholder(s) to the extent Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, does not receive the Delivery Notice from the Noteholder(s) on (or before, as may be applicable) the Delivery Notice Date or, to the extent that for any reason Euroclear and/or Clearstream fail, or fail within any relevant period, to transmit (whether or not in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures and accepted methods of communication) any notice by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to its participants. Without prejudice to the preceding sentence and sub-paragraph (iv) below, in the event that Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, do not receive a Delivery Notice from a Noteholder on or before the tenth Business Day following the Maturity Date, the Issuer shall be entitled (but not obliged) to pay to such Noteholder, as soon as reasonably practicable on or following such date an amount, determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and notified to the Issuer, the Paying Agent, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be (to be communicated by them to the relevant Noteholders) in writing promptly following such determination, equal to the fair market value of such Integral Number of Deliverable Shares and/or the Residual Cash Amount at the date determined in good faith by the Issuer, in full satisfaction of its obligations under such Notes.

- (iii) A Delivery Notice once delivered to Euroclear or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, shall be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn without the consent in writing of the Issuer. A Noteholder may not transfer any Note that is the subject of a Delivery Notice following delivery of such Delivery Notice to Euroclear or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be.
- (iv) A Delivery Notice shall only be valid to the extent that Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, have not received conflicting prior instructions in respect of the Notes that are the subject of the Delivery Notice. Failure properly and timely to provide a Delivery Notice may result in such notice being treated as null and void. Any determination as to whether such notice has been properly provided shall be made by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, after consultation with the Issuer and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the relevant Noteholder. If a Delivery Notice has not been provided properly and timely, the Issuer or the Delivery Agent shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery in respect of the Notes which are the subject of the Delivery Notice.

- (v) Receipt by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, of a valid Delivery Notice shall be deemed to constitute (a) written confirmation of an irrevocable election and undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to select the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Deliverable Share Clearance System specified therein and (b) an undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to pay any costs, applicable value added or sales taxes, transfer taxes, stamp duties and other taxes and duties due by reason of delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Shares to the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Deliverable Share Clearance System or to reimburse Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Deliverable Share Clearance System in respect of any such costs, taxes or duties.
- (vi) In the event that any Note is not represented by a Bearer Global Note or Registered Global Note held on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, the Issuer or the Delivery Agent shall procure that notice shall be provided to the relevant Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, describing the method by which an account at the Deliverable Share Clearance System shall be irrevocably designated for such Noteholders and such designation shall be binding on the Issuer and such Noteholders.
- (vii) Upon receipt of such Delivery Notice, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be, shall (a) verify that the person specified therein as the Noteholder is the holder of the specified principal amount of Notes according to its books (provided that if such verification shows that such person is not the Noteholder according to its books, the Delivery Notice shall not be valid) and (b) in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures, send a copy of the Delivery Notice to the Issuer, the Delivery Agent and such other persons as the Issuer or the Delivery Agent may previously have specified.
- (viii) The nominal amount of a number of Notes delivered by the same Noteholder for redemption shall not be aggregated for the purpose of determining the number of Deliverable Shares to be delivered in respect of such Notes. However, if the paragraph "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then the Notes delivered by the same Noteholder for exchange shall be aggregated for the purpose of determining the number of Deliverable Shares to be delivered in respect of such Notes. In such case, the Deliverable Shares deliverable to a Noteholder in respect of the Notes held by it will be a whole number of Deliverable Shares provided that where the number of Deliverable Shares which would otherwise be deliverable hereunder includes a fraction of such Deliverable Shares, the number of such Deliverable Shares shall be rounded downwards to the nearest integral number and the cash equivalent of such fraction (the Additional Cash Amount) will be paid to this Noteholder. The Additional Cash Amount shall be an amount in the Specified Currency specified in the applicable Final Terms equal to the product of (i) the above mentioned fraction and (ii) the Exchange traded price of the Share(s) as of the close of trading on the Exchange on the date specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if such price is not available in the sole opinion of the Calculation Agent on such date, the price determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion.

- (ix) Delivery of any Deliverable Shares is subject to all applicable laws, regulations and practices and neither the Issuer nor the Delivery Agent shall incur any liability whatsoever if it is unable to deliver or procure the delivery of the Deliverable Shares to the Noteholder because of any such laws, regulations or practices. Neither the Issuer nor the Delivery Agent shall under any circumstances be liable for any acts or defaults of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as may be applicable, and/or the Deliverable Share Clearance System in relation to the performance of the duties in relation to the Notes, including but not limited to the delivery of the Deliverable Shares to the Noteholder.
- (x) After delivery by the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to the relevant Noteholder(s) through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as may be applicable, and/or the Deliverable Share Clearance System of the Deliverable Shares (if applicable) and for such period of time as the Issuer or its agent or nominee shall continue to be registered in any clearance system or otherwise as the owner of the Deliverable Shares (the Intervening Period), neither the Issuer nor its agent or nominee shall:
 - (I) be under any obligation to deliver to such Noteholder(s) or any subsequent beneficial owner of the Deliverable Shares any letter, certificate, notice, circular, dividend or any other document or payment whatsoever received by the Issuer or its agent or nominee in its capacity as the holder thereof; or
 - (II) exercise any or all rights (including voting rights) attaching to such Deliverable Shares or part thereof during the Intervening Period without the prior written consent of the relevant Noteholder(s), provided that neither the Issuer nor its agent or nominee shall be under any obligation to exercise any such rights during the Intervening Period; or
 - (III) be under any liability to such Noteholder(s) or any subsequent beneficial owner of the Deliverable Shares in respect of any loss or damage which such Noteholder(s) or subsequent beneficial owner may sustain or suffer as a result, whether directly or indirectly, of the Issuer or its agent or nominee being registered in such clearance system or otherwise during such Intervening Period as legal owner of the Deliverable Shares.

- (xi) The Issuer or the Delivery Agent shall not be under any obligation to register or procure the registration of any holder of any Note, or any other person acting on behalf of such holder, or any other person, as the registered holder of any Deliverable Shares in respect of such Note.
- (xii) No right to dividends on the Deliverable Shares will accrue to Noteholders prior to the Settlement Date.

(J) Range Accrual

(1) Definitions

Range Accrual Rate means, in respect of any Monitoring Period, a rate determined by the Calculation Agent, expressed as a percentage, equal to the number of Triggering Days comprised in this Monitoring Period divided by the number of Monitoring Days comprised in this Monitoring Period.

Monitoring Day means, in respect of any Monitoring Period, any day comprised in such Monitoring Period that is a Scheduled Trading Day for each Share comprising the Basket or for the Triggering Share, subject to "Consequences of Disrupted Day(s)" set forth below.

Monitoring Period means any period which commences on, but excludes, any Reference Date and ends on, and includes, the immediately following Reference Date provided that for the avoidance of doubt the first Monitoring Period will commence on, but exclude, the first Reference Date and the last Monitoring Period will end on, and include, the last Reference Date.

If, in respect of any Index, on or prior to the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, the relevant Index Sponsor (a) announces that it will make a material change in the formula for or the method of calculating this Index or in any other way materially modifies this Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain this Index in the event of changes in constituent stock and capitalisation and other routine events) (an Index Modification) or permanently cancels this Index and no Successor Index exists (an Index Cancellation) or (b) fails to calculate and announce this Index (an Index Disruption (provided for the avoidance of doubt that a successor sponsor calculating and announcing this Index determined as unacceptable by the Calculation Agent shall be an Index Disruption) or (c) an Administrator/Benchmark Event occurs (and together with an Index Modification and an Index Cancellation and an Index Disruption, each an Index Adjustment Event), then, if Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent will be entitled, for the purpose of performing its obligations in respect of the outstanding Notes, either to:

- (A) calculate the level of this Index in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating this Index last in effect prior to the change, failure or cancellation, but using only those securities that comprised this Index immediately prior to the Index Adjustment Event; or (but not and)
- (B) replace this Index by this Index as so modified or by the new index (as the case may be), provided that in such case, (a) the Calculation Agent will make such adjustments to the new index as may be required in order to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligation of the Issuer to make payment of any amount due and payable under the Notes linked to this Index as if such new or modified index had not replaced this Index and, if need be, will multiply the modified or new index by a linking coefficient to do so as determined by the Calculation Agent and (b) the Noteholders will be notified of the modified Index or the new index (as the case may be) and, if need be, of the linking coefficient; or (but not and)
- (C) if Monetisation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to apply the Monetisation provisions set forth in paragraph 4(g) below; or (but not and)

- (D) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, require the Issuer to redeem each Note at an amount per Note equal to the Early Redemption Amount. The Early Redemption Amount shall be payable by the Issuer on the fifth Business Day following notification by the Calculation Agent to the Issuer that the Calculation Agent has determined that the event referred to in this paragraph has occurred.

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and the Notes are governed by English Law, (i) the provisions of Condition 11 (Meeting of Noteholders and Modifications) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes in relation to Essential Trigger and Discretion must also be satisfied in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to be able to elect to adjust any provisions in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 4 and (ii) the provisions of Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes must be satisfied in order for the Issuer to be able to terminate its obligations in relation to the Notes pursuant to this Condition 4 and Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount or the amount to be paid to the Noteholders on the Early Redemption Date, as applicable. - (i) In the event that, in respect of any Index, any level announced by the relevant Index Sponsor which is utilised by the Calculation Agent for any determination (the Original Determination) is subsequently corrected and the correction (the Corrected Value) is announced by this Index Sponsor within two Scheduled Trading Days after the original publication and in any case not later than the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the payment date of the amount due and payable under the Notes which is linked to that Original Determination, then the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer of the Corrected Value as soon as reasonably practicable and shall determine the relevant value (the Replacement Determination) using the Corrected Value.

If the result of the Replacement Determination is different from the result of the Original Determination, to the extent that it considers it to be necessary, the Calculation Agent may, in its sole and absolute discretion, adjust any relevant terms hereof accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, Noteholders shall not be entitled to make any claim against the Issuer or the Calculation Agent in the case where any Original Determination is not subsequently corrected and/or the correction of the Original Determination is announced by this Index Sponsor after the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the payment date of the amount due and payable under the Notes which is linked to that Original Determination.

(ii) If, in respect of any Index, on or prior to the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that a Change in Law or a Hedging Disruption (where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms) or an Increased Cost of Hedging (where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms) occurs, then it shall forthwith notify the Issuer of such event and the Issuer may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, either:

(I) to require the Calculation Agent to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Notes as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate, and determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s);

OR (but not and)

(II) if Monetisation is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to apply the Monetisation provisions set forth in paragraph 4(g) below;

OR (but not and)

The Notes shall be redeemed on the Early Redemption Date at the Early Redemption Amount determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, as of the Notification Date. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes shall be satisfied in full upon payment of such amount. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes that it has elected to redeem the Notes (such notice stating the Early Redemption Date and the applicable Early Redemption Amount).

Commodity Price means either:

- (i) in respect of any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Price of the Commodity as determined by the Calculation Agent as of the Valuation Time on the relevant Exchange on such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date; OR
- (ii) in respect of the Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates (i), if "Average Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the arithmetic average as determined by the Calculation Agent (rounded to the nearest unit of the Specified Currency in which the Commodity is valued (with halves being rounded up)) of the Specified Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR (ii) if "Minimum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically lowest price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Specified Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR (iii) if "Maximum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically highest price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Delivery Agent means NATIXIS or such other agent as may be appointed by the Issuer as specified in the applicable Final Terms, which term shall include any successor or any agent acting on behalf thereof, as the case may be. The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Delivery Agent and to appoint or not other Delivery Agent.

Integral Number of Fund Shares means, in respect of each Note and any Fund Share, an integral number of such Fund Shares equal to the Relevant Number of Fund Shares rounded downwards to the Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity, except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Integral Number of Fund Shares" shall be deemed not applicable. For the avoidance of doubt the Integral Number of Fund Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

In that case, (a) if the Integral Number of Fund Shares can be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then the Settlement Date will be the first day on which settlement of a sale of the Integral Number of Fund Shares executed on that fifth Clearance System Business Day customarily would take place using such other commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery will be deemed to be the relevant Clearance System for the purposes of delivery of the relevant Integral Number of Fund Shares), and (b) if the Integral Number of Fund Shares cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then in lieu of physical settlement the Issuer may satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes by payment to the Noteholders of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price on the third Business Day following such fifth Clearance System Business Day. - (v) any other similar event that may have a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Shares.

(2) Consequences

- (i) Subject to sub-paragraph (iv) below, if, in respect of any Fund Share, a Potential Adjustment Event occurs from, and including, the Issue Date to, and including, the latest of the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Day or the last Knock-out Determination Day, the Calculation Agent will promptly determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of that Fund Share and, if so, will:
 - (I) make such adjustment(s), if any, to any one or more of the Barrier Price and/or the Trigger Price and/or the Initial Price and/or the Knock-in Price and/or the Knock-out Price and/or the Automatic Early Redemption Price and/or the specific Weighting and/or (if Redemption by Physical Delivery) the Relevant Number of Fund Shares and/or any of the other relevant provisions of the Notes that the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be appropriate to account for that diluting or concentrative effect; and
 - (II) determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date(s) of such adjustment(s).
- (ii) The Calculation Agent shall not be required to make an adjustment to the terms of the Notes if it determines that the theoretical change in value of any Fund Share resulting from the occurrence of one or more events listed in the provisions hereof above is less than or equal to one per cent. of the value of that Fund Share immediately before the occurrence of that event or those events.
- (iii) Subject to sub-paragraph (iv) below, the Issuer may cause the Calculation Agent to make additional adjustments to the terms of the Notes to reflect changes occurring in relation to any Fund Share in circumstances other than those specified above where the Issuer

(B) Correction of value or prices of a Fund Share

In the event that, in respect of any Fund or Fund Share, (i) any price published by or on behalf of such Fund which is utilised by the Calculation Agent for any determination (the Original Determination) is subsequently corrected and the correction is published within one relevant Settlement Cycle after the original publication, or (ii) such Fund with respect to any Fund Share adjusts the Redemption Proceeds that would have been paid to a Hypothetical Investor redeeming such Fund Share, and such adjustment would be reflected in either an additional payment to such Hypothetical Investor or a claim of excess Redemption Proceeds made against such Hypothetical Investor, in each case no later than the fifth Fund Business Day prior to the Maturity Date (each, a Correction), then the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer of such Correction as soon as reasonably practicable and shall determine the relevant value (the Replacement Determination) with regard to such Correction.

If the result of the Replacement Determination is different from the result of the Original Determination, to the extent that it determines it to be necessary, the Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms hereof accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, Noteholders shall not be entitled to make any claim against the Issuer or the Calculation Agent in the case where any Original Determination is not subsequently corrected and/or the correction of the Original Determination is announced by the relevant Fund Service Provider after the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the payment date of the amount due and payable under the Notes which is linked to that Original Determination.

(G) Redemption by Physical Delivery

- (1) Definitions

Clearance System means, in respect of any Fund Share, indiscriminately the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System, Clearstream or Euroclear.

Clearance System Business Day means, in respect of any Fund Share, any day on which each of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, and the relevant Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System is (or, but for the occurrence of a Settlement Disruption Event, would have been) open for the acceptance and execution of settlement instructions.

Clearstream means Clearstream Banking S.A. (or any successor thereof).

The Issuer reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Delivery Agent and to appoint or not other Delivery Agent.

Disruption Cash Settlement Price means, in respect of any Note, an amount in the Specified Currency specified as such in the applicable Final Terms equal to the fair market value of a Note less (i) the Residual Cash Amount and (ii) unless where Unwind Costs is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the cost to the Issuer of unwinding any underlying related hedging arrangements, all as determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion.

Euroclear means Euroclear S.A./N.V. (or any successor thereof).

Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity means, in respect of any Fund, the number specified as such in the applicable Final Terms for such Fund. If no number is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity in respect of any Fund shall be deemed equal to 1.

Fund Share Reference Price means, as specified in the applicable Final Terms (i) the amount per Deliverable Fund Share specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, (ii) the Initial Price of the Deliverable Fund Shares or (iii) the Ultimate Final Price.

Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares means, in respect of each Note, an integral number of Deliverable Fund Shares equal to the Relevant Number of Deliverable Fund Shares rounded downwards to the Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity; except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Fund Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares" shall be deemed not applicable. For the avoidance of doubt the Integral Number of Fund Shares as of the Issue Date may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Reference Amount means either (i) the Specified Denomination or (ii) the Final Redemption Amount, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Physical Delivery Rounding Convention means the method specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if such Physical Delivery Rounding Convention is not specified, the figure to be rounded shall be rounded upwards to the nearest third decimal.

Relevant Number of Deliverable Fund Shares means, in respect of each Note and any Deliverable Fund Share, a number of such Deliverable Fund Shares equal to (i) the Physical Delivery Reference Amount multiplied by (ii) the specific Weighting (if any), (iii) the Prevailing Exchange Rate (if any) divided by (iv) the Fund Share Reference Price of the relevant Deliverable Fund Shares, subject to the Physical Delivery Rounding Convention and to adjustment from time to time in accordance with the provisions as set out above in this Condition 8(f); except if "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Fund Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case "Residual Number of Deliverable Fund Shares" shall be deemed not applicable.

Settlement Date means the Maturity Date. If a Settlement Disruption Event does prevent delivery on that day, then the Settlement Date will be the first succeeding day on which delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares can take place through the relevant Clearance System unless a Settlement Disruption Event prevents settlement on each of the five Clearance System Business Days immediately following the original date that, but for the Settlement Disruption Event, would have been the Settlement Date. In that case, (a) if the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares can be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then the Settlement Date will be the first day on which settlement of a sale of the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares executed on that fifth Clearance System Business Day customarily would take place using such other commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery will be deemed to be the relevant Clearance System for the purposes of delivery of the relevant Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares), and (b) if the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, then in lieu of physical settlement the Issuer may satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes by payment to the Noteholders of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price on the third Business Day following such fifth Clearance System Business Day. For the avoidance of doubt, where a Settlement Disruption Event affects some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Fund Shares, the Settlement Date for shares or securities not affected by the Settlement Disruption Event will be the Maturity Date. In the event that a Settlement Disruption Event will result in the delivery on the Settlement Date of some but not all of the shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Fund Shares, the Calculation Agent shall determine in its sole discretion the appropriate pro rata portion of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price which the Issuer, to satisfy its obligations in respect of each of the relevant Notes to the extent the Issuer has not already done so by delivery of shares or securities comprised in the Relevant Number of Deliverable Fund Shares, will pay to the Noteholders on the third Business Day following the fifth Clearance System Business Day.

(ii) Unless Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall be under no obligation to compensate or indemnify the Noteholder(s) for any delay or failure on the part of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to deliver or procure the delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares on the Settlement Date and/or to pay or procure the payment of the Residual Cash Amount on the Maturity Date to the Noteholder(s) to the extent Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, does not receive the Delivery Notice from the Noteholder(s) on (or before, as may be applicable) the Delivery Notice Date or, to the extent that for any reason Euroclear and/or Clearstream fail, or fail within any relevant period, to transmit (whether or not in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures and accepted methods of communication) any notice by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to its participants. Without prejudice to the preceding sentence and sub-paragraph (iv) below, in the event that Euroclear and/or Clearstream do not receive a Delivery Notice from a Noteholder on or before the tenth Business Day following the Maturity Date, the Issuer shall be entitled (but not obliged) to pay to such Noteholder, as soon as reasonably practicable on or following such date an amount, determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and notified to the Issuer, the Paying Agent, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be (to be communicated by them to the relevant Noteholders) in writing promptly following such determination, equal to the fair market value of such Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares and/or the Residual Cash Amount at the date determined in good faith by the Issuer, in full satisfaction of its obligations under such Notes.

- (iii) A Delivery Notice once delivered to Euroclear or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, shall be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn without the consent in writing of the Issuer. A Noteholder may not transfer any Note that is the subject of a Delivery Notice following delivery of such Delivery Notice to Euroclear or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be.
- (iv) A Delivery Notice shall only be valid to the extent that Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, have not received conflicting prior instructions in respect of the Notes that are the subject of the Delivery Notice. Failure properly and timely to provide a Delivery Notice may result in such notice being treated as null and void. Any determination as to whether such notice has been properly provided shall be made by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, after consultation with the Issuer and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the relevant Noteholder. If a Delivery Notice has not been provided properly and timely, the Issuer or the Delivery Agent shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery in respect of the Notes which are the subject of the Delivery Notice.
- (v) Receipt by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, or the Issuer, as applicable, through the relevant Monte Titoli Accountholder, as the case may be, of a valid Delivery Notice shall be deemed to constitute (a) written confirmation of an irrevocable election and undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to select the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System specified therein and (b) an undertaking by the relevant Noteholder to pay any costs, applicable value added or sales taxes, transfer taxes, stamp duties and other taxes and duties due by reason of delivery of the Integral Number of Deliverable Fund Shares to the account at Euroclear or Clearstream or the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System or to reimburse Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, or the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System in respect of any such costs, taxes or duties.

- (vii) Upon receipt of such Delivery Notice, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as the case may be, shall (a) verify that the person specified therein as the Noteholder is the holder of the specified principal amount of Notes according to its books (provided that if such verification shows that such person is not the Noteholder according to its books, the Delivery Notice shall not be valid) and (b) in accordance with its then applicable operating procedures, send a copy of the Delivery Notice to the Issuer, the Delivery Agent and such other persons as the Issuer or the Delivery Agent may previously have specified.
- (viii) The nominal amount of a number of Notes delivered by the same Noteholder for redemption shall not be aggregated for the purpose of determining the number of Deliverable Fund Shares to be delivered in respect of such Notes. However, if the paragraph "Notes to be aggregated for the purposes of determining the number of Deliverable Fund Shares to be delivered" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then the Notes delivered by the same Noteholder for exchange shall be aggregated for the purpose of determining the number of Deliverable Fund Shares to be delivered in respect of such Notes. In such case, the Deliverable Fund Shares deliverable to a Noteholder in respect of the Notes held by it will be a whole number of the Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity provided that where the number of Deliverable Fund Shares which would otherwise be deliverable hereunder includes a fraction of the Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity, the number of such Deliverable Fund Shares shall be rounded downwards to the nearest Fund Minimum Tradable Quantity and the cash equivalent of such fraction (the Additional Cash Amount) will be paid to this Noteholder. The Additional Cash Amount shall be an amount in the Specified Currency specified in the applicable Final Terms equal to the product of (i) the above mentioned fraction and (ii) the traded NAV as of the close of trading published by the Fund (or its Fund Service Provider that generally determines such value) on the date specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if such NAV is not available in the sole opinion of the Calculation Agent on such date, the NAV determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion.

Neither the Issuer nor the Delivery Agent shall under any circumstances be liable for any acts or defaults of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as may be applicable, and/or the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System in relation to the performance of the duties in relation to the Notes, including but not limited to the delivery of the Deliverable Fund Shares to the Noteholder.
- (x) After delivery by the Issuer or the Delivery Agent to the relevant Noteholder(s) through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as may be applicable, and/or the Deliverable Fund Share Clearance System of the Deliverable Fund Shares (if applicable) and for such period of time as the Issuer or its agent or nominee shall continue to be registered in any clearance system or otherwise as the owner of the Deliverable Fund Shares (the Intervening Period), neither the Issuer nor its agent or nominee shall:

(e) Automatic Early Redemption

(i) Definitions

Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date means each date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, provided that, if this date is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the next following relevant Scheduled Trading Day, subject to the "Consequences of Disrupted Day(s)" set forth below.

Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date means each date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, or, if this date is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the next Scheduled Trading Day, subject to the "Consequences of Disrupted Day(s)" stipulated below.

Automatic Early Redemption Date means each date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, subject, in each case, to adjustment in compliance with the Business Day Convention specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Automatic Early Redemption Event means that the Futures Contract Price is, specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, (i) "greater than", (ii) "greater than or equal to", (iii) "less than" or (iv) "less than or equal to" the Automatic Early Redemption Price.

Automatic Early Redemption Price means the Futures Contract Price expressed as a percentage and specified in the applicable Final Terms, subject to adjustment at any time in compliance with the provisions of Condition 11(f) (Particular Provisions) below.

Automatic Early Redemption Rate means, in respect of any Automatic Early Redemption Date, the rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Automatic Early Redemption Valid Date means a Scheduled Trading Day which is not a Disrupted Day and where no other Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date occurs or is deemed to have occurred.

Futures Contract Price means:

- (a) in respect of any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Price with respect to the Futures Contract, as determined by the Calculation Agent on such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, if such date occurs on the Settlement Date; or
- (b) in respect of the Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates, (i) if "Average Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the arithmetic average as determined by the Calculation Agent (rounded to the nearest unit of the Specified Currency in which the Futures Contract is valued (with halves being rounded up)) of the Reference Prices on each of such

Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR (ii) if "Minimum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically lowest Price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Reference Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates; OR (iii) if "Maximum Price" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the numerically highest Price as determined by the Calculation Agent of the Reference Prices on each of such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Dates.

Scheduled Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date means the original date which, without the occurrence of an event causing a Disrupted Day, would have been an Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date.

(ii) Consequences of the occurrence of an Automatic Early Redemption Event

If the applicable Final Terms specify that Automatic Early Redemption Event is applicable, and if the Automatic Early Redemption Event occurs on any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Notes will be automatically redeemed in full, and not only in part, unless they have been previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled, on the Automatic Early Redemption Date immediately following this Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, and the amount payable by the Issuer on this date, in redemption of each Note, will be an amount, provided in the Scheduled Currency, equal to the Automatic Early Redemption Amount.

Automatic Early Redemption Amount means (a) the amount provided in the Specified Currency, specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, or, if this amount is not specified, (b) the product of (i) the Calculation Amount and (ii) the Automatic Early Redemption Rate applicable on this Automatic Early Redemption Date.

(iii) Consequences of Disrupted Days

(a) Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date

If an Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date will be postponed to the next Scheduled Trading Day which is not a Disrupted Day, unless each of the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following the Scheduled Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day.

In this case, (i) the Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption will be deemed to be this Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and (ii) the Calculation Agent will determine the Futures Contract Price at the Valuation Time on this Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption, in compliance (subject to the "Adjustments of the Futures Contract" of Condition 11(f) (Particular Provisions) below) with the last formula and the last method of calculation of the Futures Contract in force before the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Price traded or listed on the Exchange at the Valuation Time, on this Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption, of the Futures Contract Underlying (or, if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day occurs in respect of the relevant Futures Contract, on the Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption, its estimate in good faith of the price of the Futures Contract, at the Valuation Time on this Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption).

Ultimate Valuation Date of the Automatic Early Redemption means, in respect of any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Scheduled Trading Day which is the last day of the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following such Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date.

(b) Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date

If any Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date is a Disrupted Day, such Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date will be the next Automatic Early Redemption Valid Date. If the first succeeding Automatic Early Redemption Valid Date has not occurred as of the Valuation Time on the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, the (i) the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date will be deemed to be that Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date (irrespective of whether or not this Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date is already an Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date), and (2) the Calculation Agent will determine the Futures Contract Price at the Valuation Time on this Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, in compliance (subject to the "Adjustments of the Futures Contract" of Condition 11(f) (Particular Provisions) below) with the last formula and the last method of calculation of the Futures Contract in force before the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Price traded or listed on the Exchange at the Valuation Time, on this Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, of the Futures Contract Underlying (or, if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day occurs in respect of the Futures Contract, on the Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date, its estimate in good faith of the Futures Contract Price, at the Valuation Time on this Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date).

Ultimate Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date means the Scheduled Trading Day which is the Specific Number of Scheduled Trading Days immediately following the original date which, without the occurrence of another Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date or another Disrupted Day, would have been the final Automatic Early Redemption Observation Date.

(f) Particular Provisions

- (i) If the Futures Contract (i) is not calculated and published by the Futures Contract Sponsor, but is calculated and published by a successor sponsor deemed acceptable by the Calculation Agent, or (ii) is replaced by a successor futures contract which, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, uses the same formula and the same calculation method as those used to calculate the Futures Contract, or a substantially similar method and formula, this futures contract (the Successor Futures Contract) will be deemed to be the Futures Contract, and the Conditions shall be interpreted accordingly.
- (ii) If, on the latest or before the latest of the following dates: the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Date or the last Knock-out Determination Date, (a) the Exchange or, as the case may be, the Futures Contract

Sponsor does not publish the Price of the Futures Contract, or the Futures Contract Sponsor (A) announces that it will significantly change the formula or method of calculation of the Futures Contract or make any other significant change to the Futures Contract (other than a modification in order to maintain the Futures Contract in the event of changes to the Futures Contract Underlying), (a Modification of the Futures Contract), or permanently cancels the Futures Contract, and if there is no Successor Futures Contract (a Withdrawal of the Futures Contract), or (B) fails to calculate and publish the Futures Contract (a Disruption of the Futures Contract) (for the avoidance of doubt, where a successor sponsor calculates and publishes a Futures Contract deemed unacceptable by the Calculation Agent, it will constitute a Disruption of the Futures Contract), and, with a Modification of the Futures Contract and a Withdrawal of the Futures Contract, an Futures Contract Adjustment Event), or (b) a Tax Disruption occurs, the Calculation Agent may then, in order to perform its obligations pursuant to the Notes outstanding, either:

- (a) calculate the Price of the Futures Contract (i) by using the last Price listed or traded of the Futures Contract Underlying used as reference immediately before the occurrence of the Futures Contract Adjustment Event, and (ii) in compliance with the formula and method of calculation of the Futures Contract in force before the occurrence of the Futures Contract Adjustment Event, but in only using the Futures Contract Underlying used as reference immediately before the occurrence of the Futures Contract Adjustment Event; or (but not "and")
 - (b) replace the Futures Contract with the Futures Contract thus modified or with the new futures contract (as the case may be), provided that in such case, (a) the Calculation Agent will make to the new futures contract the adjustments that may be required to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligation of the Issuer to pay any amount due and payable pursuant to the Notes linked to the Futures Contract, as if such new futures contract or modified futures contract had not replaced the Futures Contract and, if necessary, will multiply the modified futures contract or the new futures contract with an indexing factor, as determined by the Calculation Agent, and (b) the Noteholders will be notified of the modified Futures Contract or the new futures contract (as the case may be) and, if necessary, the indexing factor; or (but not "and")
 - (c) if the applicable Final Terms specify that Monetisation is applicable, apply the provisions of Condition 11(g) (Monetisation) below relative to Monetisation; or (but not "and")
 - (d) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, require the Issuer to redeem each Note for an amount per Note equal to the Early Redemption Amount. The Early Redemption Amount will be payable by the Issuer on the fifth Business Day following notification of the Calculation Agent informing the Issuer that it has determined that the event set out in this sub-paragraph (ii) has occurred.
- (iii) If, on or prior to the latest of the following dates: the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Date or the last Knock-out Determination Date, the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption or an Increased Cost of Hedging occurs (providing the relevant event is stipulated as applicable in the applicable Final Terms), then it shall forthwith notify the Issuer of such event and the Issuer may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, either:

(I) to require the Calculation Agent to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Notes as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate, and determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s);

OR (but not and)

(II) if the applicable Final Terms specify that Monetisation is applicable, to apply the provisions relating to Monetisation in Condition 11(g) (Monetisation) below;

OR (but not and)

(III) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes on the tenth Business Day (such day being an Early Redemption Date) following the day (or, if such day is not a Business Day, the first Business Day following the day) on which the Issuer receives notice from the Calculation Agent that such event has occurred (such day being a Notification Date). The Notes shall be redeemed on the Early Redemption Date at the Early Redemption Amount determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, as of the Notification Date. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes shall be satisfied in full upon payment of such amount. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes that it has elected to redeem the Notes (such notice stating the Early Redemption Date and the applicable Early Redemption Amount).

Where:

Change in Law means, where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, on the latest or before the latest of the following dates: the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Date or the last Knock-out Determination Date, (A) owing to the adoption, or any change, of any law (including, but not limited to, any tax law), rule, regulation or order, any decision or ruling of a regulatory or tax authority, or any regulation, rule or procedure of any stock exchange (an Applicable Regulation), or (B) owing to the promulgation of or departure from the interpretation made by any court, any tribunal or any competent regulatory authority of any law or regulation (including any measure taken by a tax authority), the Issuer or the Calculation Agent will determine, (X) unless Hedging Arrangements are specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, whether it has become or will become illegal or contrary to any Applicable Regulation for the Issuer and/or any of its respective affiliates or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements, to hold, acquire or assign Hedging Positions relative to these Notes, or (Y) whether it will incur a significantly higher cost to perform its obligations pursuant to the Notes (including, but not limited to, owing to an increase in the taxes to be paid, a reduction in tax benefits or any other adverse effect on its tax situation), or meet all applicable requirements in respect of reserves, special deposits, insurance contributions or other requirements.

Hedging Positions means any purchase, sale, conclusion or maintenance of one or more (i) positions or contracts on securities, options, futures contracts, derivatives or currencies, (ii) securities lending operations, or (iii) other instruments or agreements (irrespective of their description), undertaken in order to hedge the risk linked to entering into and performing the obligations of the Issuer pursuant to the Notes, individually or on the basis of a portfolio.

Hedging Agreements means any hedge agreements entered into by the Issuer (and/or any of its respective affiliates) or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements entered into at any time in order to hedge the Notes, including, but not limited to, the purchase and/or sale of any securities, options or futures contracts on these securities, any certificates of deposit for these securities, and any related transactions on currency.

Hedging Disruption means, if specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer (and/or any of its affiliates) or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements are unable, in spite of commercially reasonable efforts, (i) to acquire, establish, re-establish, replace, maintain, settle or hold any transaction(s) or any asset(s) that they deem necessary in order to hedge the risk resulting for this entity from the conclusion and performance of its obligations pursuant to the Notes, or (ii) to realise, recover or pay the proceeds of these transaction(s) or these asset(s).

Increased Cost of Hedging means, if specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements incur any substantially increased amount of taxes, duties, costs or commission (other than brokerage commissions) (in comparison to the circumstances existing on the Issue Date of the Notes), in order (i) to acquire, establish, re-establish, replace, maintain, settle or assign any transaction(s) or any asset(s) that they deem necessary in order to hedge the risk of the Issuer owing to the conclusion and performance of its obligations pursuant to the Notes, or (ii) to realise, recover or pay the proceeds of these transaction(s) or these asset(s), on the understanding that any substantially increased amount incurred exclusively owing to the deterioration in solvency of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements will not be deemed to constitute an Increased Cost of Hedging.

- (iv) In the event that any Price published by the Futures Contract Sponsor, used by the Calculation Agent for the purposes of any determination (the Original Determination) is later corrected, and in the event that the correction (the Corrected Value) is published by the Futures Contract Sponsor within two Scheduled Trading Days of the original publication, and, in any event, no later than the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the date of payment of the amount due and payable pursuant to the Notes which is linked to that Original Determination, the Calculation Agent will notify the Corrected Value to the Issuer, as soon as reasonably practicable, and will determine the relevant value (the Replacement Determination) using the Corrected Value.

If the result of the Replacement Determination is different to the result of the Original Determination, the Calculation Agent may, if it so deems necessary, acting reasonably but in its sole discretion, adjust any relevant provisions of the terms of the Notes accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Noteholders may not make any claim against the Issuer or the Calculation Agent if any Original Determination is not later corrected and/or if the correction of the Original Determination is published by the Futures Contract Sponsor after the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the date of payment of the amount due and payable pursuant to the Notes and linked to that Original Determination.

- (v) The Calculation Agent must provide, as soon as practically possible, a detailed notification of all determinations and/or all adjustments, as the case may be, carried out or notified to the Issuer by the Calculation Agent pursuant to paragraph (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above, after which the Issuer shall promptly provide a detailed notification of the determinations and/or adjustments thus carried out and notified by the Calculation Agent, to the Fiscal Agent and the Noteholders, in compliance with the Conditions.

- (i) the fair market value of a Note based on the market conditions prevailing at the Monetisation Date and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation, any equity options, equity swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes); and
- (ii) the Monetisation Formula.

In respect of any Fixed Interest Rate Notes and Structured Notes interest amount for the purposes of determining the Monetisation Amount, no accrued unpaid interest shall be payable but shall be taken into account in calculating the fair market value of each Note.

In this case, (i) the Automatic Early Redemption Ultimate Valuation Date will be deemed to be this Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date for this Futures Contract, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and (ii) the Calculation Agent will determine the Price at the Valuation Time on this Automatic Early Redemption Ultimate Valuation Date, in compliance (subject to the "Adjustments of the Futures Contract" of Condition 12(f) (Particular Provisions) below) with the last formula and the last method of calculation of the Futures Contract in force before the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Price traded or listed on the relevant Exchange at the Valuation Time, on this Automatic Early Redemption Ultimate Valuation Date, of the Futures Contract Underlying (or, if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day occurs in respect of the relevant Futures Contract Underlying in question, on the Automatic Early Redemption Ultimate Valuation Date, its estimate in good faith of the price of the relevant Futures Contract Underlying in question, at the Valuation Time on this Automatic Early Redemption Ultimate Valuation Date).

(f) Particular Provisions

- (i) If any Futures Contract (i) is not calculated and published by the Futures Contract Sponsor, but is calculated and published by a successor sponsor deemed acceptable by the Calculation Agent, or (ii) is replaced by a successor futures contract which, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, uses the same formula and the same calculation method as those used to calculate the Futures Contract, or a substantially similar method and formula, this futures contract (the Successor Futures Contract) will be deemed to be this Futures Contract, and the Conditions shall be interpreted accordingly.
- (ii) If, in respect of any Futures Contract, on the latest or before the latest of the following dates: the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Date or the last Knock-out Determination Date, (a) the relevant Exchange or, as the case may be, the relevant Futures Contract Sponsor (α) announces that it will significantly change the formula or method of calculation of this Futures Contract or make any other significant change to this Futures Contract (other than a modification in order to maintain this Futures Contract in the event of changes to the Futures Contract Underlying and other routine events), (a Modification of the Futures Contract), or permanently cancels the Futures Contract, and if there is no Successor Futures Contract (a Withdrawal of the Futures Contract), or (β) fails to calculate and publish this Futures Contract (a Disruption of the Futures Contract (for the avoidance of doubt, where a successor sponsor calculates and publishes this Futures Contract deemed unacceptable by the Calculation Agent will constitute a Disruption of the Futures Contract), and, with a Modification of the Futures Contract and a Withdrawal of the Futures Contract, each representing an Futures Contract Adjustment Event), or (b) if a Tax Disruption occurs, the Calculation Agent may then, in order to perform its obligations pursuant to the Notes outstanding, either:
- (a) calculate the Price of the Futures Contract in compliance with the formula and method of calculation of this Futures Contract in force before this change, this failing or this withdrawal, but only using the Futures Contract Underlying used as reference immediately before the occurrence of the Futures Contract Adjustment Event; or (but not "and")

- (b) replace this Futures Contract with the Futures Contract thus modified or with the new futures contract (as the case may be), provided that in such case, (a) the Calculation Agent will make the adjustments to the new futures contract that may be required to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligation of the Issuer to pay any amount due pursuant to the Notes linked to the Futures Contracts, as if this new futures contract or modified futures contract had not replaced the Futures Contract and, if necessary, will multiply the modified futures contract or the new futures contract with an indexing factor, as determined by the Calculation Agent, and (b) the Noteholders will be notified of the modified Futures Contract or the new futures contract (as the case may be) and, if necessary, the indexing factor; or (but not "and")
- (c) if the applicable Final Terms specify that Monetisation is applicable, apply the provisions of Condition 12(g) (Monetisation) below relative to the Monetisation; or (but not "and")
- (d) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, require the Issuer to redeem each Note for an amount per Note equal to the Early Redemption Amount. The Early Redemption Amount will be payable by the Issuer on the fifth Business Day following notification of the Calculation Agent informing the Issuer that it has determined that the event set out in this sub-paragraph (ii) has occurred.

- (iii) In the event that, in respect of any Futures Contract, any Price published by the relevant Futures Contract Sponsor, used by the Calculation Agent for the purposes of any determination (the Original Determination), is later corrected, and in the event that the correction (the Corrected Value) is published by the relevant Futures Contract Sponsor within two Scheduled Trading Days of the original publication, and, in any event, no later than the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the date of payment of the amount due and payable pursuant to the Notes and linked to that Original Determination, the Calculation Agent will notify the Corrected Value to the Issuer, as soon as is reasonably practicable, and will determine the value in question (the Replacement Determination) using the Corrected Value.

If the result of the Replacement Determination is different to the result of the Original Determination, the Calculation Agent may, if it so deems necessary, acting reasonably but at its sole discretion, adjust any relevant provisions of the terms of the Notes accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Noteholders may not make any claim against the Issuer or the Calculation Agent if any Original Determination is not later corrected and/or if the correction of the Original Determination is published by the relevant Futures Contract Sponsor after the second Scheduled Trading Day immediately preceding the date of payment of the amount due and payable pursuant to the Notes which is linked to that Original Determination.

- (iv) If, in respect of any Futures Contract, on the latest or before the latest of the following dates: the last Valuation Date, the last Observation Date, the last Knock-in Determination Date or the last Knock-out Determination Date, the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption or an Increased Cost of Hedging occurs (providing the applicable Final Terms specify as applicable), then it shall forthwith notify the Issuer of such event and the Issuer may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, either:

(I) to require the Calculation Agent to make such adjustment(s) to the redemption, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Notes as it, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers to be appropriate, and determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, the effective date of such adjustment(s);

OR (but not and)

(II) if the applicable Final Terms specify that Monetisation is applicable, to apply the provisions relating to Monetisation in Condition 12(g) (Monetisation) below;

OR (but not and)

(III) if Early Redemption is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, to redeem all (but not some only) of the Notes on the tenth Business Day (such day being an Early Redemption Date) following the day (or, if such day is not a Business Day, the first Business Day following the day) on which the Issuer receives notice from the Calculation Agent that such event has occurred (such day being a Notification Date). The Notes shall be redeemed on the Early Redemption Date at the Early Redemption Amount determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, as of the Notification Date. The Issuer's obligations under the Notes shall be satisfied in full upon payment of such amount. The Issuer shall promptly notify the Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes that it has elected to redeem the Notes (such notice stating the Early Redemption Date and the applicable Early Redemption Amount).

Hedging Positions means any purchase, sale, conclusion or maintenance of one or more (i) positions or contracts on securities, options, futures contracts, derivatives or currencies, (ii) securities lending operations, or (iii) other instruments or agreements (irrespective of their description), undertaken in order to hedge the risk linked to entering into and performing the obligations of the Issuer pursuant to the Notes, individually or on the basis of a portfolio.

Hedging Agreements means any hedge agreements entered into by the Issuer (and/or any of its respective affiliates) or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements entered into at any time in order to hedge the Notes, including, but not limited to, the purchase and/or sale of all securities, all options or all futures contracts on these securities, all certificates of deposit for these securities, and all related transactions on currency.

Hedging Disruption means, if specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements, are unable, in spite of commercially reasonable efforts, (i) to acquire, establish, re-establish, replace, maintain, settle or hold any transaction(s) or any asset(s) that they deem necessary in order to hedge the risk resulting for this entity from the conclusion and performance of its obligations pursuant to the Notes, or (ii) to realise, recover or pay the proceeds of these transaction(s) or these asset(s).

Increased Cost of Hedging means, if specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements, incur any substantially increased amount of taxes, duties, costs or commission (other than brokerage commissions) (in comparison to the circumstances existing on the Issue Date of the Notes), (i) to acquire, establish, re-establish, replace, maintain, settle or assign any transaction(s) or any asset(s) that they deem necessary in order to hedge the risk of the Issuer owing to the conclusion and performance of its obligations pursuant to the Notes, or (ii) to realise, recover or pay the proceeds of these transaction(s) or these asset(s), on the understanding that any substantially increased amount incurred exclusively owing to the deterioration in solvency of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates or any entities concerned by the Hedging Agreements will not be deemed to constitute an Increased Cost of Hedging.

- (v) The Calculation Agent must provide, as soon as practically possible, a detailed notification of all determinations and/or all adjustments, as the case may be, carried out or notified to the Issuer by the Calculation Agent pursuant to sub-paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above after which the Issuer shall promptly provide a detailed notification of the determinations and/or adjustments thus carried out and notified by the Calculation Agent, to the Fiscal Agent and the Noteholders, in compliance with the Conditions.

(g) Monetisation

Means, if "Monetisation" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Monetisation Event occurs but Essential Trigger is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, that in respect of the Final Redemption Amount, any Fixed Interest Rate, Floating Rate Structured Note interest amount, the Issuer shall no longer be liable for the payment, (i) on any Interest Payment Date following the occurrence of a Monetisation Event, of the Fixed Interest Rate, Floating Rate and/or Structured Note interest amount initially scheduled to be paid on such Interest Payment Date(s) and (ii) on the Maturity Date, of the Final Redemption

Amount initially scheduled to be paid on the Maturity Date, but instead will, in full and final satisfaction and discharge of its obligations of payment under the Notes, pay on the Maturity Date an amount per Note as calculated by the Calculation Agent as of the Monetisation Date until the Maturity Date (the Monetisation Amount) equal to the product of:

- (i) the fair market value of a Note based on the market conditions prevailing at the Monetisation Date and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation, any equity options, equity swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes); and
- (ii) the Monetisation Formula.

In respect of any Fixed Interest Rate Notes and Structured Notes interest amount for the purposes of determining the Monetisation Amount, no accrued unpaid interest shall be payable but shall be taken into account in calculating the fair market value of each Note.

For the purposes of this Condition 12(g):

Monetisation Date means the date as of which the Monetisation provisions shall be effective, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion and which shall be no earlier than the date of occurrence of the relevant Monetisation Event.

Monetisation Event means any event specified in Condition 12(f) (Particular Provisions) which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, triggers the Monetisation provisions, as set forth in Condition 12(f) (Particular Provisions).

Monetisation Formula means the following formula:

where r is an Interest Rate specified in the applicable Final Terms; and

n means the period in years from the Monetisation Date to the Maturity Date.

If "Monetisation Floor" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Noteholders will receive no less than the amount of the Specified Denomination in the event of the application of the Monetisation Formula.

If Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, Condition 6(n) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and Condition 6(l) (Early Redemption where Essential Trigger is specified as applicable in the Final Terms) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes applies to the determination of the Monetisation Amount.

If the applicable Final Terms stipulate that Range Accrual Interest is applicable, the provisions of this Condition 12(h) will apply to every Interest Amount and/or to the Redemption Amount, subject to determining the Range Accrual Interest Rate applicable.

(iii) Consequences of Disrupted Days

Unless stipulated otherwise in the applicable Final Terms, if a Monitoring Day is a Disrupted Day, this Monitoring Day will be deemed not to be a Monitoring Day and it will therefore not be taken into account in determining the Number of Monitoring Days and the Number of Triggering Days.

The Issuer shall redeem each Long Only Basket CLN, other than Tranching Long Only Basket CLNs, on the relevant Maturity Date (as such date may be extended in accordance with the definition of Maturity Date) by paying (A) the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being 100% of the outstanding Calculation Amount or such other amount as may be specified as the Final Redemption Amount in the applicable Final Terms or, as the case may be, (B) the relevant portion thereof relating to relevant Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have not been satisfied, such portion calculated on the basis of the Calculation Amount minus the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount(s) in respect of each Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have been satisfied (plus, as the case may be, any interest payable thereon), unless the CLNs have been previously repaid or redeemed or cancelled in full (including in accordance with Condition 13(b)(iv)).

 - (II) the sum, for all the Reference Entities, subject to the provisions of the definition of "Successor" and regardless of the satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions, of the Reference Entity Notional Amounts of each such Reference Entity.
- (iii) Redemption in the absence of satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in relation to Single Entity Short CLNs and Short Only Basket CLNs

The Issuer shall redeem each Single Entity Short CLN on the relevant Maturity Date (as such date may be extended in accordance with the definition of Maturity Date) by paying the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being 100% of the outstanding Calculation Amount or such other amount as may be specified

The Issuer shall redeem each Short Only Basket CLN on the relevant Maturity Date (as such date may be extended in accordance with the definition of Maturity Date) by paying (A) the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being 100% of the outstanding Calculation Amount or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms as the Final Redemption Amount or, as the case may be, (B) the relevant portion thereof relating to relevant Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have not been satisfied, such portion calculated on the basis of the Calculation Amount minus the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount(s) in respect of each Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have been satisfied (plus, as the case may be, any interest payable thereon), unless the CLNs have been previously repaid or redeemed or cancelled in full (including in accordance with Condition 13(b)(v)).

- (iv) Redemption following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in relation to Single Entity Long CLNs and Long Only Basket CLNs other than Tranched Long Only Basket CLNs.

Following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Reference Entity, each CLN (or, in the case of Basket CLNs, the relevant portion thereof) shall be redeemed by the payment or delivery, as appropriate, of the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being:

- (a) the Risk Settlement Amount which is calculated as:
 - (1) if the applicable Settlement Method is Auction Settlement, the Auction Settlement Amount on the Maturity Date following the Auction Settlement Date, unless prior to such settlement occurring a Fallback Settlement Event arises, in which case the Issuer shall fulfil its payment obligations in accordance with the Fallback Settlement Method. If the Settlement Conditions in respect of a new Credit Event are satisfied following the occurrence of a Fallback Settlement Event in respect of a first Credit Event, and if no Fallback Settlement Event arises in respect of such new Credit Event, the Issuer shall, if it so decides at the latest on the Valuation Date concerned, repay the CLNs in accordance with this Condition 13(b), by means of Auction Settlement; or
 - (2) if the applicable Settlement Method is Cash Settlement or if Cash Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method, the Cash Settlement Amount on the Maturity Date following the Cash Settlement Date; or
 - (3) if the applicable Settlement Method is Physical Settlement, or if Physical Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method, unless prior to such settlement occurring a Physical Settlement Fallback Event arises (in which case the Issuer shall fulfil its settlement obligations in accordance with the Physical Settlement Fallback Method), the Physical Settlement Amount by Delivery to the Noteholders on or prior to the Physical Settlement Date, of the Deliverable Obligations specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement or any NOPS Amendment Notice, as applicable. Such Delivery shall be made on the basis of the pro rata share of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Deliverable Obligations. If the Issuer Delivers Deliverable Obligations in an amount greater than the Deliverable Obligations specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement or any NOPS Amendment Notice, as applicable, Noteholders shall not be required to pay the Issuer for any amount representing the excess Deliverable Obligations. For the purposes of the foregoing, Delivery by the Issuer shall be made in accordance with Condition 7(c) (Physical Delivery Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 7(b) (Physical Delivery Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes (including in each case, for the avoidance of doubt, the "Issuer's option to vary method of settlement" if so specified in the applicable Final Terms), subject to the market practice applicable to the Deliverable Obligation on the Delivery Date. For the purposes hereof, all references therein to "Deliverable Asset(s)" shall be to "Deliverable Obligation(s)" and all references therein to "Physical Delivery Amount" shall be to the relevant multiple per holder of the "Physical Settlement Amount" respectively.

In the case of Physical Settlement where Deliverable Obligations are (a) Borrowed Money, the Issuer shall Deliver, per Calculation Amount, Deliverable Obligations with an Outstanding Principal Balance and (b) not Borrowed Money, the Issuer shall Deliver, per Calculation Amount, Deliverable Obligations with a Due and Payable Amount (or, in the case of either (a) or (b), the equivalent Currency Amount of any such amount), in each case in the aggregate amount as of the relevant Delivery Dates that is equal to the Physical Settlement Amount; provided that the Issuer may Deliver, per Calculation Amount, Deliverable Obligations with an Outstanding Principal Balance or a Due and Payable Amount, as applicable, (or the equivalent Currency Amount of any such amount), in the aggregate amount as of the relevant Delivery Dates that is greater than the Physical Settlement Amount, in which case the Noteholders shall not be required to pay the Issuer for any amount representing the excess Deliverable Obligations.

If Asset Package Delivery is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, Asset Package Delivery will apply if an Asset Package Credit Event occurs, unless (i) such Asset Package Credit Event occurs prior to (a) the Credit Event Backstop Date determined in respect of the Credit Event specified in the Credit Event Notice or (b) the date of the DC Credit Event Announcement applicable to the Credit Event Determination Date, or (ii) if the Reference Entity is a Sovereign, no Package Observable Bond exists immediately prior to such Asset Package Credit Event.

If Asset Package Delivery applies, (i) Delivery of a Prior Deliverable Obligation or a Package Observable Bond specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement or NOPS Amendment Notice, as applicable, may be satisfied by Delivery of the related Asset Package, and such Asset Package shall be treated as having the same currency, Outstanding Principal Balance or Due and Payable Amount, as applicable, as the Prior Deliverable Obligation or Package Observable Bond to which it corresponds had immediately prior to the Asset Package Credit Event, (ii) the relevant provisions of the definition "Deliver" shall be deemed to apply to each Asset in the Asset Package provided that if any such Asset is not a Bond, it shall be treated as if it were a Loan for these purposes, (iii) if the Asset Package is zero, the Outstanding Amount of the Prior Deliverable Obligation or Package Observable Bond shall be deemed to have been Delivered in full three Business Days following the date on which the Issuer (or the Calculation Agent acting on its behalf) has notified the Noteholders in accordance with the provisions of Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes of the reasonably detailed description of the Asset Package that the Issuer intends to Deliver pursuant to a Notice of Physical Settlement, (iv) the Issuer may satisfy its obligation to make Delivery of the Prior Deliverable Obligation or Package Observable Bond in part by Delivery of each Asset in the Asset Package in the correct proportion and (v) if the relevant Asset is a Non-Transferable Instrument or Non-Financial Instrument, the Asset shall be deemed to be an amount of cash equal to the Asset Market Value; or

- (b) if Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Underleverage Settlement Amount, paid on the relevant Maturity Date.
- (v) Redemption following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in relation to Single Entity Short CLNs and Short Only Basket CLNs

Following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Reference Entity:

- (1) each Single Entity Short CLN shall be redeemed by payment per Calculation Amount on the Maturity Date of (i) the Final Redemption Amount, being 100% of the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms plus (ii) as the case may be any interest thereon plus (iii) the Protection Settlement Amount.

- (2) a Short Only Basket CLN shall be redeemed by payment per Calculation Amount on the Maturity Date of (i) the relevant proportion relating to the relevant Reference Entity of the Final Redemption Amount, being the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms plus (ii) as the case may be any interest thereon plus (iii) the relevant Protection Settlement Amount.

The Protection Settlement Amount will be calculated as:

- (I) if the applicable Settlement Method is Auction Settlement, the Auction Credit Protection Amount on the Maturity Date following the Auction Settlement Date, unless prior to such settlement occurring a Fallback Settlement Event arises, in which case the Issuer shall fulfil its payment obligations in accordance with the Fallback Settlement Method. If the Settlement Conditions in respect of a new Credit Event are satisfied following the occurrence of a Fallback Settlement Event in respect of a first Credit Event, and if no Fallback Settlement Event arises in respect of such new Credit Event, the Issuer shall, if it so decides at the latest on the Valuation Date concerned, repay the CLNs in accordance with this Condition 13(b) by means of Auction Settlement; or
- (II) if the applicable Settlement Method is Cash Settlement or if Cash Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method, the Cash Credit Protection Amount on the Maturity Date following the Cash Settlement Date.

In each case if Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Underleverage Settlement Amount, will also be paid in respect of each Calculation Amount of a CLN on the relevant Maturity Date.

- (vi) Redemption in relation to Long/Short Basket CLNs with European Settlement

The Issuer shall redeem each Long/Short Basket CLN on the relevant Maturity Date (as such date may be extended in accordance with the definition of Maturity Date) by the payment, or delivery (as appropriate), per Calculation Amount, of the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being the sum of:

- (I) in the absence of satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Long Reference Entity:
- (A) the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Long Reference Entity, being 100% of the outstanding relevant Calculation Amount or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms as the Final Redemption Amount (plus, as the case may be, any interest payable thereon) or, as the case may be (B), the relevant portion thereof relating to relevant Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have not been satisfied, such portion calculated on the basis of the Calculation Amount minus the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount(s) in respect of each Reference Entity(ies) for which the Settlement Conditions have been satisfied (plus, as the case may be, any interest payable thereon); and

- (II) in the absence of satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Short Reference Entity:

the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Short Reference Entity, being zero or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms as the Final Redemption Amount; and

- (III) following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Long Reference Entity:

the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount in respect of a Long Reference Entity, being the Risk Settlement Amount plus, if Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Underleverage Settlement Amount; and

- (IV) following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Short Reference Entity: and the (i) relevant position relating to the relevant Reference Entity of the Final Redemption Amount, being zero or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms plus (ii) as the case may be any interest thereon plus (iii) the relevant Protection Settlement Amount plus (iv) if Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Underleverage Settlement Amount,

PROVIDED THAT the sum of the amounts payable pursuant to the above will be reduced by the sum of the absolute values of any Auction Settlement Negative Amount(s), Cash Settlement Negative Amount(s) and Physical Settlement Negative Amount(s); and PROVIDED FURTHER THAT if the sum of the amounts above, taking into account the reduction(s) on account of any Auction Settlement Negative Amount(s), Cash Settlement Negative Amount(s) and Physical Settlement Negative Amount(s), is a negative number or zero then the Issuer shall redeem each Long/Short Basket CLN on the relevant Maturity Date at zero (so no amount will be payable in respect of such Long/Short Basket CLN).

- (vii) Suspension of obligations

If a DC Credit Event Question occurs, or if notification is delivered to the DC Secretary as provided for in the definition of DC Credit Event Question in relation to any Reference Entity, then (unless the Issuer (or the Calculation Agent on its behalf) otherwise decides by sending notification to the Noteholders), as from the effective date of such notification (and notwithstanding the fact that the competent Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee may not yet have still determined whether Publicly Available Information is available or whether a Credit Event has occurred) any obligation of the Issuer to redeem any CLN (even under Condition 13(b)(i) or 13(b)(iii)) or to pay any amount of interest otherwise due on such CLN, shall be and shall remain suspended to the extent that it relates to the relevant Reference Entity, until the DC Secretary announces publicly that the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has Resolved in respect of such Reference Entity:

- (a) the relevant DC Credit Event Question; or
(b) a DC Credit Event Question Dismissal.

During such period of suspension, the Issuer shall not be required to take any measure whatsoever in relation to the settlement of CLNs, in each case to the extent that it relates to the relevant Reference Entity. Once ISDA has publicly announced that the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has Resolved the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (a) above or not to determine such matters, such suspension shall end and all obligations thus suspended shall resume on the CLN Business Day following such public announcement by ISDA, the Issuer having the benefit of the whole day irrespective of the time of commencement of the suspension.

For the avoidance of doubt, where American Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, no interest shall accrue on any payments of principal or interest deferred in accordance with this Condition 13(b)(vii). Where European Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall continue to accrue (if so provided in the applicable Final Terms) only on any payments of principal deferred in accordance with this Condition 13(b)(vii).

(viii) General provisions relating to redemption and the accrual of interest

For the purposes of Basket CLNs other than Tranched Long Only Basket CLNs, upon satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Reference Entity, the outstanding Calculation Amount shall be reduced by the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount for the purpose of redemption, and the accrual of interest thereon where so specified in accordance with the provisions of Condition 13(c)(i) below or, if applicable, Condition 13(k) or (l).

For the purposes of Tranched Long Only Basket CLNs, upon satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Reference Entity:

- (a) where Tranched Interest is not specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the outstanding Calculation Amount shall be reduced by the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount for the purpose of the accrual of interest in accordance with the provisions of Condition 13(c)(i) below; and
- (b) where Tranched Interest is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the outstanding Calculation Amount shall be reduced by an amount calculated as follows:
 - (I) the initial Calculation Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms; multiplied by
 - (II) (A) 100 per cent. minus (B) a percentage equal to (x) the Tranched CLN Attached Loss Rate after taking into account the satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of such Reference Entity minus (y) the Tranched CLN Attached Loss Rate prior to taking into account the satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of such Reference Entity.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the sum of the Reference Entity Notional Weights in the Basket is less than 100%:

- where Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, an Underleverage Settlement Amount will be paid upon satisfaction of Settlement Conditions pursuant to Condition 13(b)(iv), 13(b)(v) or 13(b)(vi) above, and the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional

Amount shall take into account such Underleverage Settlement Amount accordingly. For Basket CLNs with European Settlement, this means that, where so specified pursuant to Condition 13(c)(i) below or, if applicable, Condition 13(k) or (l), interest shall cease to accrue on the entirety of the relevant portion (being the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount, including the Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount, and for Basket CLNs with American Settlement this means that the Partial Redemption Amount paid on the Partial Redemption Date shall include the Risk Settlement Amount and the Underleverage Settlement Amount and interest shall cease to accrue on the entirety of the relevant portion (being the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount, including the Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount;

- where Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, no Underleverage Settlement Amount will be paid upon satisfaction of Settlement Conditions and, as the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount shall not take into account any Underleverage Settlement Amount, an equivalent remaining part of the initial Calculation Amount shall remain outstanding for all purposes (including the accrual of interest thereon and the determination of the Final Redemption Amount), and for Basket CLNs with American Settlement this means that the Partial Redemption Amount paid on the Partial Redemption Date shall not include any Underleverage Settlement Amount and interest shall cease to accrue on the relevant portion (being the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount not including Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount.

For the purposes of Basket CLNs with American Settlement, in the event of partial redemption, the outstanding Calculation Amount of each CLN shall be reduced for all purposes (including the accrual of interest thereon) by the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount to reflect such partial redemption.

The redemption of any CLN in accordance with this Condition 13(b), and the payment of interest (where appropriate) due thereon, shall discharge all of or the relevant portion of the Issuer's obligations thereto.

For the purposes of CLNs or Basket CLNs, in each case where American Settlement applies, if PV (Remaining Coupons) is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms then, where Settlement Conditions are satisfied in respect of a Reference Entity and a Final Redemption Amount becomes payable or deliverable, PV (Remaining Coupons) shall be payable together with and at the same time as the related Final Redemption Amount is payable or deliverable pursuant to Condition 13(b) where:

PV(Remaining Coupons) means, in respect of any Note, an amount per Calculation Amount as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, in the Specified Currency, on the PV(Remaining Coupons) Determination Date, equal to the aggregate of all the Interest Amounts per Calculation Amount which would have been due in respect of such Note or the relevant portion thereof being redeemed in the absence of the determination of a Credit Event Determination Date, discounted to their present market value (which may take into account, without limitation, the market conditions prevailing at the PV(Remaining Coupons) Determination Date, and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expense(s), cost(s) and/or any amount(s) received or due in unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates (including, without limitation, the level or value of prevailing interest rates, currency linked swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes).

PV(Remaining Coupons) Determination Date means the dates as indicated in the applicable Final Terms.

Any amount payable pursuant to Condition 13(b) shall be rounded downwards to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant currency.

(c) Interest

(i) Credit Linked Interest Basis – reduction or cessation of interest accrual

Except as provided below, upon the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date in respect of a Reference Entity, the interest on the relevant CLN (or, in the case of Basket CLNs, the relevant portion thereof, calculated in accordance with Condition 13(b)(viii) above) shall cease to accrue with effect from the Credit Event Determination Date (included) or from the Interest Payment Date (included) immediately prior to the Credit Event Determination Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no specification is made in the applicable Final Terms, such interest shall cease to accrue with effect from the Credit Event Determination Date (included).

Where European Settlement is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms except where Tranching Interest is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms shall specify whether upon the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date in respect of a Reference Entity, the interest on the relevant CLN (or, in the case of Basket CLNs, the relevant portion thereof) shall (i) continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date, (ii) cease to accrue from the Credit Event Determination Date, (iii) cease to accrue from the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to the Credit Event Determination Date, or (iv) accrue from the Credit Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, each as specified in the applicable Final Terms, provided that if none of (i) to (iv) above is specified in the applicable Final Terms then interest shall continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date.

Where Tranching Interest is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, upon the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date in respect of a Reference Entity, interest on the relevant proportion of the outstanding Calculation Amount calculated in accordance with Condition 13(b)(vii) will cease to accrue from (i) the Credit Event Determination Date (included) or (ii) the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to the Credit Event Determination Date as specified in the applicable Final Terms, provided that if neither (i) nor (ii) above is specified in the applicable Final Terms then interest on the relevant proportion of the outstanding Calculation Amount calculated in accordance with Condition 13(b)(viii) above shall cease to accrue with effect from the Credit Event Determination Date (included).

(ii) Interest following the Scheduled Maturity Date

Subject, in any event, to the provisions of Condition 13(c)(i) in the event of a Credit Event and the provisions of Condition 13(c)(iii), if a Maturity Date Extension Notice has been given (other than under sub-paragraph (i) of the definition of "Maturity Date Extension Notice"), each CLN (or, in the case of Basket CLNs, the relevant portion of such CLN) outstanding after the Scheduled Maturity Date shall cease to accrue interest as from the Scheduled Maturity Date (included) up to the corresponding Maturity Date (not included), unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Maturity Date Extension Notice has been given under sub-paragraph (i) of the definition of such Maturity Date Extension Notice, no interest shall accrue as from the Scheduled Maturity Date (included) up to the corresponding Maturity Date (not included).

(iii) Interest Payment Date(s)

If the CLNs are redeemed under Condition 6 (Redemption, Purchase and Options) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes, Condition 6 (Redemption, Purchase and Options) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, or this Condition 13 the Scheduled Maturity Date, the Maturity Date (if it is not the Scheduled Maturity Date), or the relevant Settlement Date, as appropriate, shall be an Interest Payment Date in respect of each CLN (or, in the case of Basket CLNs, the relevant portion thereof), and the Issuer shall pay the interest accrued on each CLN (or fraction applicable, where appropriate) on such Interest Payment Date.

(iv) Accrued interest

(a) With respect to CLNs for which "Cash Settlement" is specified to be the Settlement Method in the applicable Final Terms (or if Cash Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method), and:

- (I) "Include Accrued Interest" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Outstanding Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation shall include accrued but unpaid interest;
- (II) "Exclude Accrued Interest" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Outstanding Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation shall not include accrued but unpaid interest; or
- (III) "Market Practice" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent shall determine, based on the then current market practice in the market of the Reference Obligation whether the Outstanding Principal Balance of the Reference Obligation shall include or exclude accrued but unpaid interest and, if applicable, the amount thereof.

(b) With respect to CLNs for which "Physical Settlement" is specified to be the Settlement Method in the applicable Final Terms (or if Physical Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method), the Outstanding Principal Balance of the Deliverable Obligations being Delivered will exclude accrued but unpaid interest, unless "Include Accrued Interest" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, in which case, the Outstanding Principal Balance of the Deliverable Obligations being Delivered will include accrued but unpaid interest (as the Calculation Agent shall determine).

(d) Interpretation of provisions relating to Obligations

(i) Obligation Characteristics

- (a) If either of the Obligation Characteristic "Listed" or "Not Domestic Issuance" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, or is applicable in respect of the Transaction Type concerned, the relevant Final Terms shall be interpreted as if the relevant Obligation Characteristic had only been specified as an Obligation Characteristic for Bonds.
- (b) If "Financial Reference Entity Terms" and "Governmental Intervention" are specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if an obligation would otherwise satisfy a particular Obligation Characteristic or Deliverable Obligation Characteristic, the existence of any terms in the relevant obligation in effect at the time of making the determination which permit the Reference Entity's obligations to be altered, discharged, released or suspended in circumstances which would constitute a Governmental Intervention, shall not cause such obligation to fail to satisfy such Obligation Characteristic or Deliverable Obligation Characteristic.
- (c) If "Subordinated European Insurance Terms" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if an obligation would otherwise satisfy the "Maximum Maturity" Deliverable Obligation Characteristic, the existence of any Solvency Capital Provisions in such obligation shall not cause it to fail to satisfy such Deliverable Obligation Characteristic.

(ii) Qualifying Guarantee

If an Obligation or a Deliverable Obligation is a Relevant Guarantee, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) For the purposes of application of the Obligation Category, the Relevant Guarantee shall be deemed to be described by the same category or categories as those describing the Underlying Obligation;
- (b) For the purposes of application of the Obligation Characteristics, both the Relevant Guarantee and the Underlying Obligation must satisfy, on the relevant date or dates, each of the Obligation Characteristics, if any, specified in the applicable Final Terms, or applicable in respect of the relevant Transaction Type, from the following list: Not Subordinated, Credit Linked Specified Currency, Not Sovereign Lender, Not Domestic Currency, Listed, Not Domestic Issuance and Not Domestic Law;
- (c) For the purposes of application of the Obligation Characteristics or the Deliverable Obligation Characteristics, only the Qualifying Guarantee must satisfy, on the relevant date or dates, the "Not Subordinated" Obligation Characteristic, if it is specified in the applicable Final Terms or is applicable in respect of the Transaction Type concerned;
- (d) For the purposes of application of the Obligation Characteristics or the Deliverable Obligation Characteristics, only the Underlying Obligation must satisfy, on the relevant date or dates, each of the Obligation Characteristics, if any, specified in the applicable Final Terms or applicable in respect of the Transaction Type concerned, from the following list: Listed and Not Domestic Issuance; and

- (e) For the purposes of application of the Obligation Characteristics or the Deliverable Obligation Characteristics to an Underlying Obligation, references to the Reference Entity are deemed to refer to the Underlying Obligor.
- (iii) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Condition 13(d) shall apply in respect of the definition of "Obligation" insofar as the context permits.

(e) Succession Event

(i) Single Entity CLNs

If the CLNs are Single Entity CLNs and more than one Successor has been identified in respect of a Reference Entity, each CLN shall be deemed for all purposes to become a Basket CLN, under the following conditions:

- (a) each Successor shall be a Reference Entity for the purposes of the new Basket CLN deemed to result from such division;
- (b) the Reference Entity Notional Weight for each of the Successors shall be equal to the initial Reference Entity Notional Weight divided by the number of Successors and the Reference Entity Notional Amount for each of such Successors shall be determined accordingly; and
- (c) all the other Conditions of the original CLNs shall be reproduced in the new Basket CLN deemed to result from the Succession Event, except that the Calculation Agent shall make such modifications as it determines are required in order to preserve the economic effects of the original CLNs for the benefit of the new Basket CLN.

(ii) Basket CLNs

If the CLNs are Basket CLNs, and if one or more Successors have been identified in respect of a Reference Entity (the Affected Entity):

- (a) The Affected Entity shall no longer be a Reference Entity (unless it is a Successor);
- (b) Each Successor shall be deemed to be a Reference Entity (in addition to each Reference Entity that is not an Affected Entity);
- (c) The Reference Entity Notional Weight for each of such Successors shall be equal to the initial Reference Entity Notional Weight of the Affected Entity, divided by the number of Successors and the Reference Entity Notional Amount for each of such Successors shall be determined accordingly;
- (d) The Calculation Agent may make any changes to this Condition 13 required to preserve the economic effects of the obligations of the Issuer under the CLNs prior to the relevant Succession Event (considered in the aggregate); and

- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, a Reference Entity may, following a Succession Event, be represented in the reference portfolio with respect to several Reference Entity Notional Weights.

(iii) Substitute Reference Obligations

If:

- (a) a Reference Obligation is specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (b) one or more Successors to the relevant Reference Entity have been identified; and
- (c) one or more of such Successors have not assumed the Reference Obligation, a Substitute Reference Obligation shall be determined in accordance with the definition of "Substitute Reference Obligation".

(f) General provisions concerning CLNs

(i) Determinations of the Calculation Agent

The Calculation Agent's determination of any amount or of any situation, any circumstance, any event or any other question, the formation of any opinion or exercise of any discretionary power that must or can be determined, formed or exercised by the Calculation Agent under this Condition 13, respectively, shall be (except in the event of manifest error) final and binding on the Issuer and the Noteholders. In exercising its duties in respect of the CLNs, the Calculation Agent shall act in its sole and absolute discretion and, save as expressly stipulated otherwise, shall not be required to follow the determinations of the competent Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, or to act in accordance therewith. If the Calculation Agent is required to make any determination, it may, inter alia, decide issues of construction and legal interpretation. If the Calculation Agent chooses to rely on the determinations of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, it may do so without incurring any liability. Any delay, deferral or forbearance in the performance of any of the obligations of the Calculation Agent or in the exercise of any of its discretions in respect of the CLNs, including, without limitation, the giving of any notification by the Calculation Agent to any person, shall not affect the validity or the binding nature of any subsequent performance of such obligation or of any subsequent exercise of such discretion, and neither the Calculation Agent nor the Issuer shall assume any liability in respect of or as a result of such delay, such deferral or such forbearance, except in the event of wilful misconduct or gross negligence.

If, where the Calculation Agent has followed a DC Resolution for the purposes of any calculation or determination relating to the CLNs, the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee announces publicly that such DC Resolution has been reversed by a subsequent DC Resolution, such reversal shall be taken into account for the purposes of any subsequent calculation. The Calculation Agent, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, shall make all necessary adjustments to future payments to take this reversal into account, including any payment of additional interest, any reduction in an amount of interest or any other amount payable in respect of the CLNs. For the avoidance of doubt, interest accrued up to and including the date of calculation of any such adjustments shall not be affected.

DC Resolution effect

Any DC Resolution of the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee that is applicable to such CLNs, including a DC Resolution that reverses a previous DC Resolution, shall be binding on the Calculation Agent:

- (a) provided that:
 - (i) if the effect of a DC Resolution would be to reverse (A) a prior DC Resolution of the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, (B) any determination made by the Calculation Agent that is effectively notified to the Issuer or the Noteholders prior to the fifth Business Day which immediately precedes the Successor Resolution Request Date or a Substitute Reference Obligation Resolution Request Date, as applicable, or (C) the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date, that, in any case, has resulted in:
 - (a) the identification of one or more Successors;
 - (b) the identification of a Substitute Reference Obligation; or
 - (c) the occurrence of an Auction Final Price Determination Date or Settlement Date, as applicable, or to the extent of the occurrence of a Valuation Date or Delivery Date, as applicable, in each case, on or prior to the date that the DC Secretary publicly announces such DC Resolution of the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, then such DC Resolution shall not be effective for purposes of the CLNs, or, in the case of a Valuation Date or Delivery Date only, shall not be effective to the extent that a Valuation Date or Delivery Date has occurred; and

 - (ii) if the relevant Final Terms include any provision that seeks to amend or override the terms of this paragraph (f)(i) by expressly referring in writing to this paragraph, then any DC Resolution shall not be effective for purposes of such CLN; and
- (b) notwithstanding:
 - (i) that the Terms and Conditions, or any provisions incorporated in the applicable Final Terms, as applicable, may require such determination to be made by the Calculation Agent;
 - (ii) any provision in the Terms and Conditions that governs the relevant CLNs and/or the applicable Final Terms, as applicable, that describes an alternative mechanism for resolving any matter that is Resolved by the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee;
 - (iii) that in order to reach such DC Resolution, the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee may be required to Resolve one or more factual matters before being able to reach such DC Resolution; and
 - (iv) any actual or perceived conflict of interest on the part of a DC Party, legal counsel or other third-party professional hired by such DC

Party in connection with such DC Party's performance of its duties under the DC Rules.

(ii) Changes to this Condition 13 in relation to adjustments

The Calculation Agent, acting reasonably, may make changes to this Condition 13 directly resulting from adjustments made pursuant to the provisions of this Condition 13, such as the provisions concerning succession events in Condition 13(e) and to the extent necessary to ensure consistency with the prevailing market standards or market conventions.

The Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Noteholders of any such change as soon as is reasonably possible.

In particular, the Calculation Agent may make any changes to this Condition 13 to incorporate and to reflect further or alternate documents from time to time published by ISDA with respect to credit derivatives transactions and/or the operation of determinations by the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committees which the Calculation Agent determines, in a commercially reasonable manner, necessary or desirable to reflect market practice for credit derivatives transactions.

(iii) Delivery of notices

(A) Any notice or other communication given by the Calculation Agent to the Issuer must be in writing (including facsimile or email) or by telephone.

(B) As soon as is reasonably possible following receipt of a Credit Event Notice, Notice of Publicly Available Information, Notice of Physical Settlement or NOPS Amendment Notice issued by the Calculation Agent, the Issuer shall notify the Noteholders without delay, or ensure that the Calculation Agent notifies the Noteholders thereof on its behalf, in accordance with the provisions of Condition 14 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 13 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes. Any event occurring at midnight shall be deemed to have occurred immediately prior to midnight.

- (b) each Reference Obligation will be an Obligation, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Condition 13 including, but not limited to the definition of "Obligation" in Condition 13(g) above, and in particular, notwithstanding that the obligation is not an obligation of the Reference Entity.
- (c) each Reference Obligation will be a Deliverable Obligation notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Condition 13 including, but not limited to the definition of "Deliverable Obligation" in Condition 13(g) above and in particular, notwithstanding that the obligation is not an obligation of the Reference Entity.

For the avoidance of doubt with respect to any LPN Reference Obligation that specifies an Underlying Loan or an Underlying Finance Instrument, the Outstanding Principal Balance shall be determined by reference to the Underlying Loan or Underlying Finance Instrument (as applicable) relating to such LPN Reference Obligation.

The Not Subordinated Obligation Characteristic and Deliverable Obligation Characteristic shall be construed as if no Reference Obligation was specified in respect of the Reference Entity;

- (d) the definition of Reference Obligation in Condition 13(g) shall be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

Reference Obligation means, as of the Trade Date, each of the obligations listed as a Reference Obligation of the Reference Entity in the applicable Final Terms or set forth on the relevant LPN Reference Obligations List, as published by Markit Group. The "Standard Reference Obligation" provisions shall not apply. The proviso in the definition of Original Non-Standard Reference Obligation shall not apply.

It is intended that there may be more than one Reference Obligation, as a result of which all applicable references in this Condition 13 to "the Reference Obligation" shall be construed as a reference to "a Reference Obligation", and all other provisions of this Condition 13 shall be construed accordingly. The definitions of "Substitution Event" and "Substitute Reference Obligation" in Condition 13(g) above shall not be applicable to LPN Reference Obligations; and

- (e) the following additional definitions shall apply:

Money instrument (the Underlying Finance Instrument), provided that (i) either (x) in the event that there is an Underlying Loan with respect to such LPN the Underlying Loan satisfies the Obligation Characteristics specified in respect of the Reference Entity or (y) in the event that there is an Underlying Finance Instrument with respect to such LPN the Underlying Finance Instrument satisfies the Not Subordinated, Not Domestic Law and Not Domestic Currency Obligation Characteristics (ii) the LPN satisfies the following Deliverable Obligation Characteristics: Transferable, Not Bearer, Credit Linked Specified Currency - Standard Specified Currencies, Not Domestic Law, Not Domestic Issuance; and (iii) the LPN Issuer has, as of the issue date of such obligation, granted a First Ranking Interest over or in respect of certain of its rights in relation to the relevant Underlying Loan or Underlying Finance Instrument (as applicable) for the benefit of the holders of the LPNs.

Additional Obligation means each of the obligations listed as an Additional Obligation of the Reference Entity in the applicable Final Terms or set forth on the relevant LPN Reference Obligations List, as published by Markit Group Limited, or any successor thereto, as of the Trade Date, which list is as at 19 April 2024 available at <http://www.markit.com/Product/Reference-Data-CDS>.

LPN Reference Obligation means each Reference Obligation other than any Additional Obligation.

For the avoidance of doubt, any change to the issuer of an LPN Reference Obligation in accordance with its terms shall not prevent such LPN Reference Obligation constituting a Reference Obligation.

Each LPN Reference Obligation is issued for the sole purpose of providing funds for the LPN Issuer to finance a loan to the Reference Entity. For the purposes of the CLNs each such loan shall be an Underlying Loan.

- (i) Specific provisions taken from the ISDA supplement entitled "Additional Provisions for Senior Non-Preferred Reference Obligations" (published on 8 December 2017)

If "Additional Provisions for Senior Non-Preferred Reference Obligations" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or the provisions of this Condition apply in accordance with the applicable Final Terms by virtue of the specification for the relevant Transaction Type in the Physical Settlement Matrix, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Condition 13, the provisions of this Condition 13 will apply:

- (a) the definition of Reference Obligation shall be amended by adding:

"provided that, irrespective of any Original Non-Standard Reference Obligation specified in the applicable Final Terms, if (i) a Senior Non-Preferred Level Standard Reference Obligation of the Reference Entity is specified on the SRO List, such Standard Reference Obligation shall be deemed to constitute the Reference Obligation, or (ii) no such Senior Non-Preferred Level Standard Reference Obligation of the Reference Entity is specified on the SRO List but such Standard Reference Obligation has previously been specified on the SRO List, there shall be deemed to be no Reference Obligation applicable to the CLN and such previously specified Senior Non-Preferred Level Standard Reference Obligation of the Reference Entity shall be deemed to constitute the Prior Reference Obligation" after "if any";

- (b) the Seniority Level shall be:
Senior Non-Preferred Level;
- (c) "Subordination" shall have the meaning ascribed to that term in Condition 13(g) and such term shall be applied in the assessment of any Obligation without regard to how the Obligation is described by the laws of any relevant jurisdiction, including any characterisation of the Obligation as senior or unsubordinated by the laws of any relevant jurisdiction; and
- (d) The following additional definitions shall apply:

Senior Non-Preferred Transaction means a CLN in respect of which "Additional Provisions for Senior Non-Preferred Reference Obligations" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms. A Senior Non-Preferred Transaction shall constitute a Subordinated Transaction as defined in Condition 13(g);

Senior Non-Preferred Obligation means any obligation of the Reference Entity which is Subordinated only to any unsubordinated Borrowed Money Obligations of the Reference Entity but not further or otherwise, or which would be so Subordinated if any unsubordinated Borrowed Money Obligations of the Reference Entity existed, and which ranks above Traditional Subordinated Obligations of the Reference Entity or which would so rank if any Traditional Subordinated Obligations of the Reference Entity existed. A Senior Non-Preferred Obligation shall constitute a Subordinated Obligation as defined in Condition 13(g);

Traditional Subordinated Obligation means. (i) Tier 2 Subordinated Obligations of the Reference Entity; (ii) any obligations of the Reference Entity which rank or are expressed to rank pari passu with any Tier 2 Subordinated Obligations of the Reference Entity; and (iii) any obligations of the Reference Entity which are Subordinated to the obligations thereto described in (i) and (ii) above shall each (without limitation) constitute Traditional Subordinated Obligations in respect of a Senior Non- Preferred Obligation. A Traditional Subordinated Obligation shall constitute a Further Subordinated Obligation; and Tier 2 Subordinated Obligation means any obligation of the Reference Entity which meets the conditions set out in Article 63 of Regulation 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, as such Article may be amended or replaced from time to time (the CRR) or which are (or were at any time otherwise eligible as a Tier 2 item in accordance with the CRR.

(j) 2019 Narrowly Tailored Credit Event Provisions

If "2019 Narrowly Tailored Credit Event Provisions" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or the provisions of this Condition apply in accordance with the applicable Final Terms by virtue of the specification for the relevant Transaction Type in the Physical Settlement Matrix, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Condition 13, the following provisions will apply:

- (a) The definition of "Failure to Pay" in Condition 13(g) shall be deleted and replaced with the following:

"Failure to Pay means, after the expiration of any applicable Grace Period (after the satisfaction of any conditions precedent to the commencement of such Grace Period), the failure by the Reference Entity to make, when and where due, any payments in an aggregate amount of not less than the Payment Requirement under one or more Obligations, in accordance with the terms of such Obligations at the time of such failure provided that, if an occurrence that would constitute a Failure to Pay (a) is a result of a redenomination that occurs as a result of action taken by a Governmental Authority which is of general application in the jurisdiction of such Governmental Authority and (b) a freely available market rate of conversion existed at the time of the redenomination, then such occurrence will be deemed not to constitute a Failure to Pay unless the redenomination itself constituted a reduction in the rate or amount of interest, principal or premium payable (as determined by reference to such freely available market rate of conversion) at the time of such redenomination. If "Credit Deterioration Requirement" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then, notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall not constitute a Failure to Pay if such failure does not directly or indirectly either result from, or result in, a deterioration in the creditworthiness or financial condition of the Reference Entity. In the event that the Calculation Agent makes any such determination, it may take into account the guidance note set out in paragraph 3 (Interpretive Guidance) of the ISDA 2019 Narrowly Tailored Credit Event Supplement to the 2014 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions (published on July 15, 2019)."

- (b) The definition of "Outstanding Principal Balance" in Condition 13(g) shall be deleted and replaced with the following:

"Outstanding Principal Balance means the outstanding principal balance of an obligation which will be calculated as follows:

- (i) first, by determining, in respect of the obligation, the amount of the Reference Entity's principal payment obligations and, where applicable in accordance with Condition 13(c)(iv), the Reference Entity's accrued but unpaid interest payment obligations (which, in the case of a Guarantee will be the lower of (i) the Outstanding Principal Balance (including accrued but unpaid interest, where applicable) of the Underlying Obligation (determined as if references to the Reference Entity were references to the Underlying Obligor) and (ii) the amount of the Fixed Cap, if any);
- (ii) second, by subtracting all or any portion of such amount which, pursuant to the terms of the obligation, (i) is subject to any Prohibited Action, or (ii) may otherwise be reduced as a result of the effluxion of time or the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event or circumstance (other than by way of (A) payment or (B) a Permitted Contingency) (the amount determined in accordance with paragraph (a) above less any amounts subtracted in accordance with this paragraph (b), the Non-Contingent Amount); and
- (iii) third, by determining the Quantum of the Claim, which shall then constitute the Outstanding Principal Balance, in each case, determined:

- (a) unless otherwise specified, in accordance with the terms of the obligation in effect on either (A) the NOPS Effective Date (or if the terms of the obligation are amended after such date but on or prior to the Delivery Date, the Delivery Date) or (B) the Valuation Date, as applicable; and

- (b) with respect to the Quantum of the Claim only, in accordance with any applicable laws (insofar as such laws reduce or discount the size of the claim to reflect the original issue price or accrued value of the obligation).

For the purposes of paragraph (b) above, applicable laws shall include any bankruptcy or insolvency law or other law affecting creditors' rights to which the relevant obligation is, or may become, subject.

If "Fallback Discounting" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then, notwithstanding the above, if (i) the Outstanding Principal Balance of an obligation is not reduced or discounted under paragraph (b) above, (ii) that obligation is either a Bond that has an issue price less than ninety-five per cent of the principal redemption amount or a Loan where the amount advanced is less than ninety-five per cent of the principal repayment amount, and (iii) such Bond or Loan does not include provisions relating to the accretion over time of the amount which would be payable on an early redemption or repayment of such Bond or Loan that are customary for the applicable type of Bond or Loan as the case may be, then the Outstanding Principal Balance of such Bond or Loan shall be the lesser of (a) the Non-Contingent Amount; and (b) an amount determined by straight line interpolation between the issue price of the Bond or the amount advanced under the Loan and the principal redemption amount or principal repayment amount, as applicable.

For the purposes of determining whether the issue price of a Bond or the amount advanced under a Loan is less than ninety-five per cent of the principal redemption amount or principal repayment amount (as applicable) or, where applicable, for applying straight line interpolation:

- (x) where such Bond or Loan was issued as a result of an exchange offer, the issue price or amount advanced of the new Bond or Loan resulting from the exchange shall be deemed to be equal to the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of the original obligation(s) that were tendered or exchanged (the Original Obligation(s)) at the time of such exchange (determined without regard to market or trading value of the Original Obligation(s)); and
- (y) in the case of a Bond or Loan that is fungible with a prior debt obligation previously issued by the Reference Entity, such Bond or Loan shall be treated as having the same issue price or amount advanced as the prior debt obligation.

In circumstances where a holder would have received more than one obligation in exchange for the Original Obligation(s), the Calculation Agent will determine the allocation of the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of the Original Obligation(s) amongst each of the resulting obligations for the purpose of determining the issue price or amount advanced of the relevant Bond or Loan. Such allocation will take into account the interest rate, maturity, level of subordination and other terms of the obligations that resulted from the exchange and shall be made by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the methodology (if any) determined by the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee.

In this definition, Quantum of the Claim means the lowest amount of the claim which could be validly asserted against the Reference Entity in respect of the Non Contingent Amount if the obligation had become redeemable, been accelerated, terminated or had otherwise become due and payable at the time of the relevant determination, provided that the Quantum of the Claim cannot exceed the Non-Contingent Amount."

- (k) Single Entity Digital Credit Linked Notes with European Settlement or Single Entity Digital Credit Linked Notes with American Settlement or Basket Digital Credit Linked Notes with European Settlement or Basket Digital Credit Linked Notes with American Settlement

In this Condition 13 and in the case of any CLNs for which the applicable Final Terms specify that such CLNs are Single Entity Digital CLNs with European Settlement or Single Entity Digital CLNs with American Settlement or Basket Digital CLNs with European Settlement or Basket Digital CLNs with American Settlement the following additional terms shall apply:

1. Relevant Definitions

Trigger Event means the occurrence or existence, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, of the following condition for (any of) the Reference Entity(ies) on any CLN Business Day during the Trigger Event Observation Period:

[Relevant Reference Currency] [1]Y, [2]Y, [i]Y or [n]Y Reference Entity CDS > [Z] bps

where:

[Relevant Reference Currency] [1]Y, [2]Y, [i]Y

or [n]Y Reference Entity CDS is the 1 year, 2 years, i years (with $i \in [1;n]$) or n years Credit Default Swap spread level in USD or EUR (or such currency as otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms) referring to the Reference Entity as the sole reference entity on such CLN Business Day, as determined by the Calculation Agent, in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, using the same Trigger Event Determination Methodology specified below.

The applicable Final Terms shall specify in respect of each CLN Business Day during each Trigger Event Observation Period as the case may be (defined for each Reference Entity in the case of Basket Digital CLNs with European Settlement or Basket Digital CLNs with American Settlement):

- (i) C as a percentage or where so specified in the applicable Final Terms this may be the Fair Market Value (as defined in Condition 6(m) (Redemption for Force Majeure Event and Significant Alteration Event) for English Law Notes or Condition 6(k) (Redemption for Force Majeure Event and Significant Alteration Event) for French Law Notes) which is expressed as a percentage;
- (ii) n as a figure;
- (iii) Z as a figure; and
- (iv) the Relevant Reference Currency; and
- (v) the Specific CDS Quotation Amount (if not specified, such amount will equal the Reference Entity Aggregate Amount).

Trigger Event Determination Date(s) means the date(s) specified as such in the Trigger Event Notice(s) (as defined below).

Trigger Event Determination Methodology means, the Calculation Agent, on any CLN Business Day during the Trigger Event Observation Period where the Calculation Agent considers a Trigger Event may occur or might have occurred, shall try to obtain from five or more Dealers firm offers for the Reference Entity CDS for the Relevant Reference Currency and relevant maturity/ies for an amount equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount (each a Full Firm CDS Offer).

Then the following methodology will apply to determine the relevant Reference Entity CDS:

- (i) if more than three Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the arithmetic mean of such Full Firm CDS Offers, disregarding the Full Firm CDS Offers having the highest and lowest values (and, if more than one such Full Firm CDS Offers have the same highest value or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Full Firm CDS Offer shall be disregarded);
- (ii) if exactly three Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the Full Firm CDS Offer remaining after disregarding the highest and lowest Full Firm CDS Offers (and, if more than one such Full Firm CDS Offers have the same highest value or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Full Firm CDS Offers shall be disregarded);
- (iii) if exactly two Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the arithmetic mean of such Full Firm CDS Offers;
- (iv) if fewer than two Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained and a "Weighted Average CDS Offer" (meaning the weighted average of the firm CDS offers obtained from Dealers each for an amount as large a size as available, but less than the Specific CDS Quotation Amount, whose total is approximately equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount) is obtained, such Weighted Average CDS Offer;
- (v) if fewer than two Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained and no Weighted Average CDS Offer is obtained and if three or more "Indicative CDS Offers" (meaning each offer obtained from a Dealer, for an amount equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount, which reflects such Dealer's reasonable assessment of the value of the Reference Entity CDS based on such factors as such Dealer may consider relevant, which may include historical prices and recovery rates) are obtained, the arithmetic average of the Indicative CDS Offers remaining after disregarding the highest and lowest Indicative CDS Offers (and, if more than one such Indicative CDS Offer have the same highest or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Indicative CDS Offer shall be disregarded);
- (vi) if two or more Full Firm CDS Offers or a Weighted Average CDS Offer or three Indicative CDS Offers are not obtained on any such date a Trigger Event shall be deemed not to have occurred on that date and the Calculation Agent shall proceed to follow the Trigger Event Determination Method on subsequent CLN Business Days during the Trigger Event Observation Period.

Trigger Event Observation Period(s) means the period(s) specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, or if no such specification is made, such period shall be the period from the Issue Date (included) to the Scheduled Maturity Date (excluded).

Trigger Event Redemption Amount means, per Calculation Amount, (i) in the case of Single Entity Digital CLNs, C% of the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount, or (ii) in the case of Basket Digital CLNs, C% of the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount(s) of the Reference Entity(ies) concerned by the occurrence of a Trigger Event.

Trigger Event Redemption Date means the date on which the Issuer shall redeem the Single Entity Digital CLNs and/or the relevant portion of the Basket Digital CLNs further to the occurrence of a Trigger Event and the delivery of the Trigger Event Notice. The Trigger Event Redemption Date shall be the Maturity Date, unless Early Redemption on Trigger Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in which case the Trigger Event Redemption Date shall be no less than five (5) Business Days and no more than ten (10) Business Days after the date of delivery of such Trigger Event Notice.

Such redemption shall occur in accordance with the provisions for redemption upon the occurrence of a Credit Event under this Condition 13.

Redemption on the occurrence of a Trigger Event:

Following the delivery of such Trigger Event Notice, and provided Early Redemption on Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Digital CLNs shall be redeemed, in whole but not in part (or in the case of Basket Digital CLNs the whole relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount in respect of the Reference Entity concerned by the occurrence of the Trigger Event shall be redeemed), on the Trigger Event Redemption Date at an amount, per Calculation Amount, equal to the Trigger Event Redemption Amount.

For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of any Reference Entity:

- (i) the provisions applicable in case of Credit Event prevail over the provisions applicable in case of Trigger Event;
- (ii) in the absence of a Credit Event Determination Date on or prior to a Trigger Event Redemption Date, the provisions applicable in case of Trigger Event prevail over the provisions of Condition 13(b)(i); and

Credit Linked Interest Basis – reduction or cessation of interest accrual:

Interest on the Single Entity Digital CLN with European Settlement and/or on the relevant portion of the Basket Digital CLN with European Settlement (being the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount) shall (i) continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date and/or a Trigger Event Determination Date, (ii) cease to accrue from the earlier of a Credit Event Determination Date and a Trigger Event Determination Date, (iii) cease to accrue from the earlier of the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to a Credit Event Determination Date and the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to a Trigger Event Determination Date, (iv) accrue from the Credit Event Determination Date and/or Trigger Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, or (v) accrue from the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to Credit Event Determination Date and/or Interest Payment Date immediately prior to the Trigger Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. If none of (i) to (v) above is specified in the applicable Final Terms then interest shall continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of any Credit Event Determination Date and/or Trigger Event Determination Date.

If Early Redemption on Trigger Event is specified as Not Applicable in the relevant Final Terms, and if multiple Trigger Event Observation Periods with corresponding Trigger Events are specified in the relevant Final Terms, the reduction of the rate of interest or the cessation of interest accrual (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) shall only be applicable to the related Trigger Event Observation Period and interest shall start to accrue again from the following Trigger Event Observation Period (if any) in the absence of determination of another Trigger Event Determination Date (such being a re-settable interest mechanic).

in the Reference Indices, and, in each case, as multiplied by the Leverage Factor, the level of prevailing interest rates, the Guarantor's own credit risk or, where there is no Guarantor, that of the Issuer, and any credit derivatives, options, swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes.

Matrix means the Credit Derivatives Physical Settlement Matrix as defined in the Definitions.

Reference Entity/ies has the meaning ascribed to it in the Definitions and in relation to the SBP means each of the reference entities included in the Reference Indices, as specified in the Annex for SBP CLNs to the applicable Final Terms.

Reference Index CDS means, in respect of a Reference Index, a theoretical credit default swap on such Reference Index, the terms of which should be interpreted by reference to the Definitions and the standard terms supplement for the relevant type of transaction published by the relevant Index Sponsor (which can be accessed at <http://www.markit.com> or any successor website thereto) and/or such additional terms as are specified in the Annex for SBP CLNs to the applicable Final Terms having a Fixed Rate as specified for the relevant Scheduled Termination Date in the Index Annex for the relevant Eligible Reference Index or in the applicable Final Terms.

- (i) theoretical short positions where the Issuer is seller of protection (each a Short position) or theoretical long positions where the Issuer is buyer of protection (each a Long position) on each of the Reference Index CDSs in the amount of the respective Reference Index Notional Amount, as specified in the Annex for SBP CLNs to the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) Long positions or Short positions which are the opposite side of the position for each of the relevant Reference Index CDSs, under credit default swaps for each of the Reference Entities included in each relevant Reference Index (each a Corresponding CDS, and together the Corresponding CDSs), substantially on the terms specified in the Annex for SBP CLNs to the applicable Final Terms which should be interpreted by reference to the Definitions.

(B) Provisions

The Strategy performs an arbitrage between the cost of credit protection on the Reference Indices and the cost of credit protection on their Corresponding CDSs. On any early redemption of the SBP CLNs where the Early Redemption Amount becomes payable such Early Redemption Amount will equal the Market Value per Calculation Amount determined as provided in this Condition. However, the payment of the Interest Amount(s) and the Final Redemption Amount of each SBP CLN will not be affected by a Credit Event, as any loss in relation to a Credit Event affecting a Reference Entity of any of the Reference Indices will be notionally offset by an equivalent gain on the Corresponding CDS and vice versa.

The Issuer may terminate (fully or partially), in its sole and absolute discretion, any or all of the SBP Component(s) (any such SBP Component, to the extent so terminated, a Terminated SBP Component) at any time from, and including, the Trade Date to, but excluding, the Maturity Date and make any consequential changes to the Conditions to account for such termination(s). Each such partial or full termination shall be referred to as an SBP Component Adjustment and the definition of SBP Component shall be deemed to exclude any such Terminated SBP Component and the definitions of Reference Index and Corresponding CDS and related definitions shall be construed accordingly. Following an SBP Component Adjustment, the Issuer will notify the Noteholders by sending a notice containing details of the relevant termination(s) (the Notice of SBP Component Adjustment) in accordance with the Conditions. The SBP CLNs will continue to bear interest until the Maturity Date regardless of any SBP Component Adjustment.

In addition, where "SBP Substitution" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, (i) (a) substitute (fully or partially) any or all of the SBP Component(s) (each such SBP Component, to the extent so substituted, a Replaced SBP Component) by one or more Eligible SBP Component(s) (each such Eligible SBP Component, to the extent substituted for a Replaced SBP Component, a Replacement SBP Component) (which may, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, include increases or decreases in the related Reference Index Notional Amount and/or Leverage Factor of any current or previous SBP Component and/or substitutions or replacements in whole of any SBP Component) or (b) add one or more new Eligible SBP Component(s) (each such new component, an Additional SBP Component), in each case which is effective at any time from the Trade Date (inclusive), up to (but excluding) the Maturity Date and (ii) make any consequential changes to the Conditions to account for such substitution(s) (including, without limitation, determining the Leverage Factor and the Reference Index Notional Amount in respect of each Replacement SBP Component and/or Additional SBP Component), provided that:

- (a) the Leverage Factor for any Replacement SBP Component or Additional SBP Component shall not be more than the maximum Leverage Factor (the Maximum Leverage Factor) for the relevant Eligible Reference Index specified in the applicable Final Terms; and

- (b) the Reference Index Notional Amount (or the equivalent in any other currency as determined by the Issuer) for any Replacement SBP Component or Additional SBP Component may be any amount up to and including the maximum Notional Amount (the Maximum Notional Amount) for the relevant Eligible Reference Index specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (c) the Scheduled Termination Date of the Eligible Reference Index CDSs (as may be reflected in the Eligible Corresponding CDSs) may be any date up to and including the Maturity Date of the Notes, provided that, following each such full or partial substitution or addition (each an SBP Component Substitution), (i) the sum of the results of the division for each SBP Component of (A) the Reference Index Notional Amount (or the equivalent in any other currency as determined by the Issuer) for each SBP Component by (B) the Maximum Leverage Factor for each such SBP Component, shall not be greater than (ii) the outstanding Aggregate Nominal Amount.

Following any SBP Component Substitution, (x) the Issuer will notify the Noteholders by sending a notice (the Notice of SBP Component Substitution) containing details of the relevant substitution, including, without limitation, details of the relevant Eligible Reference Index (including, without limitation and where required, the relevant series and version and the relevant Annex Date), the relevant Leverage Factor and the date such SBP Component Substitution takes effect (the Substitution Date) in accordance with the Conditions and (y) the definition of SBP Component shall be deemed to exclude any such Original SBP Component and include any such Replacement SBP Component and any Additional SBP Component and the definitions of Reference Index and Corresponding CDS and related definitions shall be construed accordingly.

In addition to the above and for the avoidance of doubt, following any partial redemption of the Notes or any consolidation pursuant to Condition 12 (Further Issues), the Issuer may amend the Conditions pursuant to Condition 1(d)(iv) (which amendments may, without limitation, include increases or decreases in the Reference Index Notional Amount and/or Leverage Factor of any SBP Component), in each case subject as provided in subparagraphs (a) and (b) above.

By acquiring the SBP CLNs each Noteholder is deemed to represent, declare and warrant that it has access to the Definitions and understands them.

(n) Dual Notes

If Dual Notes is specified as applying in the applicable Final Terms, the terms and conditions of the Notes will be construed on the basis that the relevant terms applicable to CLNs in accordance with Condition 13 and BLNs in accordance with Condition 14 will apply, as the context admits, separately and independently in each case on the basis of elections made for CLNs and BLNs in the applicable Final Terms. In particular the Calculation Amount of the Notes will be deemed to be divided into the Calculation Amount CLN Portion and the Calculation Amount BLN Portion in each case as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Any reference to the "Calculation Amount" or any related terms in relation to CLNs and BLNs will be deemed to refer to the Calculation Amount CLN Portion and the Calculation Amount BLN Portion respectively, including for all purposes in Condition 13 (in the case of CLNs) and Condition 14 (in the case of BLNs).

In relation to each Interest Payment Date interest will be calculated separately in respect of the CLN-related portion of a Note (the CLN Portion) and the BLN-related portion of a Note (the BLN Portion) by reference to the Calculation Amount CLN Portion and the Calculation Amount BLN Portion respectively. The Calculation Agent will notify the Fiscal Agent of the combined interest as soon as practicable after calculating the same.

Subject as provided in the following paragraph, an early redemption or final redemption of notes will be capable of occurring separately in respect of the CLN portion and BLN portion. However each Dual Note will remain outstanding until both the CLN portion and BLN portion are redeemed in full.

Notwithstanding the above provisions where Early Redemption On First Event is a Risk Event in relation to the BLN Portion and (i) an Early Redemption On First Event occurs in relation to the BLN Portion or (ii) a Credit Event occurs and Settlement Conditions are satisfied in respect of any Reference Entity in relation to the CLN Portion, then each of the CLN Portion and the BLN Portion will become subject to early redemption in full and each Dual Note will be redeemed by the Issuer on not less than 5 Business Day's notice by payment of an Early Redemption Amount equal to the sum of the Early Redemption Amount determined in respect of the CLN Portion (based on the definition of Early Redemption Event in Condition 13(g) or if so specified such other definition of Early Redemption Amount as is set out in the applicable Final Terms and by reference only to the CLN Portion) and the BLN Portion (based on the definition of Early Redemption Event in Condition 14(g) or if so specified such other definition of Early Redemption Amount as is set out in the applicable Final Terms and by reference only to the BLN Portion) on the Early Redemption Date specified by the Issuer in its notice of early redemption.

References to a Note in Condition 13 (in the case of CLNs) and Condition 14 (in the case of BLNs) will be deemed to refer to the CLN Portion and the BLN Portion respectively.

(o) CDS Trigger Event

(A) Definitions:

CDS Trigger Event means the occurrence or existence, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, of the following condition for a Reference Entity on any CLN Business Day during the Observation Period:

Reference Entity CDS > [Z] bps

Where:

Reference Entity CDS means the credit default swap spread level with the Relevant Maturity in the Relevant Reference Currency referring to the relevant Reference Entity as the sole reference entity on such CLN Business Day, as determined by the Calculation Agent, in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, using the CDS Trigger Event Determination Methodology specified below;

Relevant Maturity means the period from such CLN Business Day to the Scheduled Maturity Date of the Notes; and the applicable Final Terms shall specify in relation to a CDS Trigger Event:

- (i) Z as a figure; and
- (ii) the Relevant Reference Currency; and

- (iii) the Specific CDS Quotation Amount (if not specified such amount will equal the Reference Entity Aggregate Amount or, in the case of a Basket CLN, the Reference Entity Aggregate Amount, in respect of the relevant Reference Entity).

CDS Trigger Event Determination Date means the date specified as such in the CDS Trigger Event Notice (as defined below).

CDS Trigger Event Determination Methodology means, the Calculation Agent, on any CLN Business Day during the Observation Period where the Calculation Agent considers a CDS Trigger Event may occur or might have occurred, shall attempt to obtain from five or more Dealers firm offers for the Reference Entity CDS for the Relevant Reference Currency and Relevant Maturity for an amount equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount (each a Full Firm CDS Offer).

Then the following methodology will apply to determine the relevant Reference Entity CDS:

- (i) if more than three Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the arithmetic mean of such Full Firm CDS Offers, disregarding the Full Firm CDS Offers having the highest and lowest values (and, if more than one such Full Firm CDS Offers have the same highest value or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Full Firm CDS Offer shall be disregarded);
- (ii) if exactly three Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the Full Firm CDS Offer remaining after disregarding the highest and lowest Full Firm CDS Offers (and, if more than one such Full Firm CDS Offers have the same highest value or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Full Firm CDS Offers shall be disregarded);
- (iii) if exactly two Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained, the arithmetic mean of such Full Firm CDS Offers;
- (iv) if exactly one Full Firm CDS Offer is obtained, such Full Firm CDS Offer;
- (v) if no Full Firm CDS Offers are obtained and a "Weighted Average CDS Offer" (meaning the weighted average of the firm CDS offers obtained from Dealers each for an amount as large a size as available, but less than the Specific CDS Quotation Amount (each a Partial CDS Offer), whose total is approximately equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount) is obtained, such Weighted Average CDS Offer;
- (vi) if no Full Firm CDS Offer is obtained and no Weighted Average CDS Offer is obtained but Partial CDS Offers are obtained, albeit in an aggregate size smaller than the Specific CDS Quotation Amount and so not amounting to a Weighted Average CDS Offer, then, where there is more than one such Partial CDS Offer, the weighted average of such Partial CDS Offers and where only one Partial CDS Offer is obtained such Partial CDS Offer;
- (vii) if no Full Firm CDS Offer is obtained, no Weighted Average CDS Offer is obtained, no Partial CDS Offer is obtained and if three or more "Indicative CDS Offers" (meaning each indicative offer obtained from Dealer, for an amount equal to the Specific CDS Quotation Amount, which reflects such Dealer's reasonable assessment of the value of the Reference Entity CDS based on such factors as such Dealer may consider relevant, which may include historical prices and recovery rates) are obtained, the arithmetic average of the Indicative CDS Offers remaining after disregarding the highest and lowest Indicative CDS Offers (and, if more than one such Indicative CDS Offer have the same highest or lowest value, then one of such highest or lowest Indicative CDS Offer shall be disregarded);

- (viii) if no Full Firm CDS Offer, no Weighted Average CDS Offer, no Partial CDS Offer or three Indicative CDS Offers are not obtained on any such date a CDS Trigger Event shall be deemed to have occurred on that date.

CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount means, where CDS Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, per Calculation Amount, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, in the Specified Currency, to be the fair market value of a Note or, in the case of a Basket CLN, the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount thereof, based on the market conditions prevailing at the date of determination, and adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging (and funding arrangements in the case of American Settlement) of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates (including, without limitation, the level or value of credit default swaps or any credit derivatives options referencing the Reference Entity, the level or value of prevailing interest rates, swaps or other instruments of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Notes). For the purposes of determining the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount, no accrued unpaid interest shall be payable but shall be taken into account in calculating the fair market value of each Note.

CDS Trigger Event Redemption Date means, where CDS Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the date on which the Issuer shall redeem the CLNs further to the occurrence of a CDS Trigger Event and the delivery of the CDS Trigger Event Notice, being the Maturity Date for CLNs with European Settlement and no less than five (5) Business Days and no more than ten (10) Business Days after the date of delivery of such CDS Redemption Amount and Date Notice in the case of CLNs with American Settlement, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(B) Operative Provisions

Redemption on the occurrence of a CDS Trigger Event:

Where CDS Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if at any time during the Observation Period, the Calculation Agent notifies the Issuer that it has determined that a CDS Trigger Event has occurred, then the Issuer, or the Calculation Agent on its behalf, shall give written notice (the CDS Trigger Event Notice) to the Noteholders of such determination in accordance with Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, as applicable, giving details of such CDS Trigger Event and setting out the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date.

Within 10 Business Days as of the date of the CDS Trigger Event Notice, the Issuer, or the Calculation Agent on its behalf, shall give written notice (the CDS Redemption Amount and Date Notice) to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 13 of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes, as applicable, setting out CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount and the applicable CDS Trigger Event Redemption Date.

Following the delivery of such CDS Redemption Amount and Date Notice the CLN shall be redeemed on the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Date at an amount, per Calculation Amount, equal to the CDS Trigger Event Redemption Amount. In the case of a Single Entity CLN, such a redemption will be in whole and not in part and, following redemption upon the occurrence of a CDS Trigger Event no further amounts shall be due to the Noteholder. In the case of a Basket CLN such redemption will be in respect of the affected Reference Entity only and the Calculation Amount will be reduced by the relevant Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount, and in the case of Basket CLNs with American Settlement, the Notes will continue to remain outstanding in respect of the remaining portion of the Basket CLNs, all subject as provided in this Condition 13.

For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of any Reference Entity:

- (i) the provisions applicable in case of CDS Trigger Event prevail over the provisions applicable in case of Credit Event; and
- (ii) in the absence of a Credit Event Determination Date on or prior to a CDS Trigger Event Redemption Date, the provisions applicable in case of CDS Trigger Event prevail over the provisions of Condition 13(b).

Credit Linked Interest Basis – reduction or cessation of interest accrual:

Where CDS Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest on a Single Entity CLN with American Settlement or, in the case of Basket CLNs with American Settlement, the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount thereof, shall cease to accrue from (i) the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date (included) or (ii) the Interest Payment Date or, if none, the Issue Date, immediately prior to the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no specification is made in the applicable Final Terms, from the Interest Payment Date or, if none, the Issue Date immediately prior to the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date.

Where CDS Trigger Event is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest on a Single Entity CLN with European Settlement or, in the case of Basket CLNs with European Settlement, the Reference Entity Adjusted Notional Amount thereof, shall (i) continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a CDS Trigger Event Determination Date, (ii) cease to accrue from the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date, (iii) cease to accrue from the Interest Payment Date or, if none, the Issue Date immediately prior to a CDS Trigger Event Determination Date, (iv) accrue from the CDS Trigger Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, or (v) accrue from the Interest Payment Date or, if none, the Issue Date immediately prior to a CDS Trigger Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. If none of (i) to (v) above is specified in the applicable Final Terms then interest shall cease to accrue from the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to a CDS Trigger Event Determination Date or, if none, the Issue Date.

(p) Monoline Insurer Reference Entities Provisions

If "Provisions relating to Monoline Insurer as Reference Entity" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or the provisions of this Condition apply in accordance with the applicable Final Terms by virtue of the specification for the relevant Transaction Type in the Physical Settlement Matrix, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Condition 13, the following provisions will apply:

 - (D) any change in the ranking in priority of payment of (x) any Obligation under a Qualifying Policy in respect of Instrument Payments, causing the Subordination of such Obligation to any other Obligation or (y) any Instrument Payments, causing the Subordination of such Insured Instrument to any other instrument in the form of a pass-through certificate or similar funded beneficial interest issued by the Insured Obligor, it being understood that, for this purpose, Subordination will be deemed to include any such change that results in a lower ranking under a priority of payments provision applicable to the relevant Instrument Payments; or
 - (E) any change in the currency of any payment of Instrument Payments that are guaranteed or insured by the Qualifying Policy to any currency other than the lawful currency of Canada, Japan, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States of America and the euro and any successor currency to any of the aforementioned currencies (which in the case of the euro, shall mean the currency which succeeds to and replaces the euro as a whole)."
- (II) Paragraph (ii)(D) of the definition of "Restructuring" in Condition 13(g) is hereby amended by adding "or, in the case of a Qualifying Policy and an Insured Instrument, where (x) the Qualifying Policy continues to guarantee or insure, as applicable, that the same Instrument Payments will be made on the same dates on which the Qualifying Policy guaranteed or insured that such Instrument Payments would be made prior to such event and (y) such event is not a change in the ranking in the priority of payment of the Qualifying Policy" at the end thereof.
- (III) The definition of "Restructuring" in Condition 13(g) is hereby amended by the insertion of the following paragraph after the final paragraph thereof:
- "For purposes of this definition of "Restructuring" and the definition of "Multiple Holder Obligation", the term "Obligation" shall be deemed to include Insured Instruments for which the Reference Entity is acting as provider of a Qualifying Policy. In the case of a Qualifying Policy and an Insured Instrument, references to the Reference Entity in paragraph (i) of this definition of "Restructuring" shall be deemed to refer to the Insured Obligor and the reference to the Reference Entity in paragraph (ii)(D) in this definition of "Restructuring" which shall continue to refer to the Reference Entity."
- (viii) Other Provisions. For purposes of the definitions of "Credit Event", "Deliver" and "Prohibited Action" in Condition 13(g) references to the "Underlying Obligation" and the "Underlying Obligor" shall be deemed to include "Insured Instruments" and the "Insured Obligor", respectively.

(ix) Additional Definitions.

Qualifying Policy means a financial guaranty insurance policy or similar financial guarantee pursuant to which a Reference Entity irrevocably guarantees or insures all Instrument Payments of an instrument that constitutes Borrowed Money (modified as set forth in this Condition 13(p)) (the Insured Instrument) for which another party (including a special purpose entity or trust) is the obligor (the Insured Obligor). Qualifying Policies shall exclude any arrangement (i) structured as a surety bond, letter of credit or equivalent legal arrangement or (ii) pursuant to the express contractual terms of which the payment obligations of the Reference Entity can be discharged or reduced as a result of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event or circumstance (other than the payment of Instrument Payments).

Instrument Payments means (A) in the case of any Insured Instrument that is in the form of a pass-through certificate or similar funded beneficial interest, (x) the specified periodic distributions in respect of interest or other return on the Certificate Balance on or prior to the ultimate distribution of the Certificate Balance and (y) the ultimate distribution of the Certificate Balance on or prior to a specified date and (B) in the case of any other Insured Instrument, the scheduled payments of principal and interest, in the case of both (A) and (B) (1) determined without regard to limited recourse or reduction provisions of the type described in paragraph (iii) above and (2) excluding sums in respect of default interest, indemnities, tax gross-ups, make-whole amounts, early redemption premiums and other similar amounts (whether or not guaranteed or insured by the Qualifying Policy).

Certificate Balance means, in the case of an Insured Instrument that is in the form of a pass through certificate or similar funded beneficial interest, the unit principal balance, certificate balance or similar measure of unreimbursed principal investment.

14. Terms for Bond Linked Notes

These Terms apply if and as the applicable Final Terms specify.

(a) General

Provisions concerning Bond Linked Notes and Bond Events

- (i) The Final Terms shall specify:
- (I) the type of BLNs (Bond Linked Notes, abbreviated to: BLN), which may be (a) Single BLNs or (b) Basket BLNs;
 - (II) the Settlement Method and the Settlement Type;
 - (III) the Reference Bond or the Reference Bonds in respect of which a Bond Event may occur;
 - (IV) the relevant Reference Entity in respect of each Reference Bond;
 - (V) the Trade Date and the Scheduled Maturity Date;
 - (VI) the Interest Payment Date(s) if any, the Maturity Date and, where appropriate, the Partial Redemption Date;
 - (VII) the Final Redemption Amount and, where appropriate, the Partial Redemption Amount;
 - (VIII) the Bond Linked Interest Basis;
 - (IX) whether Early Redemption On First Event is Applicable or Not Applicable;
 - (X) whether ISDA Bond Event is Applicable or Not Applicable, and if Applicable, the Transaction Type applicable to each Reference Entity (if ISDA Bond Event is Not Applicable, Transaction Type shall be Not Applicable); and
 - (XI) the Reference Bond Notional Weight in respect of each Reference Bond.

(ii) Basket BLNs

If the BLNs are Basket BLNs, the provisions of this Condition 14 concerning the satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions, extension of the maturity of the BLNs in the event of Maturity Date Extension Notice, cessation or suspension of the accrual of interest, or the accrual and payment of interest following the Scheduled Maturity Date, shall apply separately in respect of each Reference Bond unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms and to the amount in principal of each Calculation Amount corresponding to the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount.

Notwithstanding as aforesaid, in the event of the occurrence of an Early Redemption on First Event (where specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms), the matters referred to above (satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions, extension of maturity of the BLNs in the event of Maturity Date Extension Notice, cessation or suspension of accrual of interest, or the accrual and payment of interest following the Scheduled Maturity Date) shall apply to the entirety of the Reference Bonds in the Basket and to the aggregate principal amount of the BLNs concerned. The remaining provisions of this Condition 14 shall be interpreted accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of Condition 14 shall apply separately in respect of each Reference Bond of a Basket BLN.

- (iii) Single BLNs and Basket BLNs where a single Reference Entity or Reference Bond represents 20 % or more of the basket

In the case of a Single BLN and in the case of a Basket BLN where a single Reference Entity or Reference Bond represents 20 % or more of the basket, in the case of Notes which are admitted to an EU regulated market or offered on a non-exempt basis pursuant to the EU Prospectus Regulation, then the Reference Entity (or issuer of the Reference Bond) shall have securities already admitted to trading on a regulated market, equivalent third country market or SME growth market for purposes of the EU Prospectus Regulation.

(b) Redemption

- (i) Redemption in the absence of satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions

The Issuer shall redeem each BLN on the relevant Maturity Date (as such date may be extended in accordance with the definition of Maturity Date) by paying the Final Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount for any Note, being 100% of the outstanding Calculation Amount or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion thereof relating to relevant Reference Bond(s) for which the Settlement Conditions have not been satisfied, such portion calculated on the basis of the Calculation Amount minus the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount(s) in respect of any Reference Bond(s) for which the Settlement Conditions have been satisfied) (plus, as the case may be, any interest payable thereon), unless the BLNs have been previously repaid or redeemed or cancelled in full (including in accordance with Condition 14(b)(ii) and/or (iv)).

- (ii) Redemption following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions

Following satisfaction of the Settlement Conditions in respect of any Reference Bond, each BLN (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion thereof) shall be redeemed by the payment, per Calculation Amount, of:

- (a) the Risk Settlement Amount calculated, subject to Condition 14(e) below where ISDA Bond Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, as:

- (I) if the applicable Settlement Method is Cash Settlement or if Cash Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method, the Cash Settlement Amount on the Maturity Date following the Cash Settlement Date;

- (II) if the applicable Settlement Method is Physical Settlement, or if Physical Settlement is applicable as the Fallback Settlement Method, unless prior to such settlement occurring a Physical Settlement Fallback Event arises (in which case the Issuer shall fulfil its settlement obligations in accordance with the Physical Settlement Fallback Method), the Physical Settlement Amount by Delivery to the Noteholders on or prior to the Physical Settlement Date, of the Deliverable Obligations specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement or any NOPS Amendment Notice, as applicable. Such Delivery shall be made on the basis of the pro rata share of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Deliverable Obligations. If the Issuer Delivers Deliverable Obligations in an amount greater than the Deliverable Obligations specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement or any NOPS Amendment Notice, as applicable, Noteholders shall not be required to pay the Issuer for any amount representing the excess Deliverable Obligations. For the purposes of the foregoing, Delivery by the Issuer shall be made in accordance with Condition 7(c) of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes or Condition 7(b) of the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes (as applicable) (including in each case, for the avoidance of doubt, the "Issuer's option to vary method of settlement" if so specified in the applicable Final Terms), subject to the market practice applicable to the Deliverable Obligation on the Delivery Date. For the purposes hereof, all references therein to "Deliverable Asset(s)" shall be to "Deliverable Obligation(s)" and all references therein to "Physical Delivery Amount" shall be to the relevant multiple per holder of the "Physical Settlement Amount" respectively;

- (III) in the case of Physical Settlement where Deliverable Obligations are
- (a) Borrowed Money, the Issuer shall Deliver Deliverable Obligations with an Outstanding Principal Balance and
 - (b) not Borrowed Money, the Issuer shall Deliver Deliverable Obligations with a Due and Payable Amount (or, in the case of either (a) or (b), the equivalent Currency Amount of any such amount), in each case in the aggregate amount as of the relevant Delivery Dates that is equal to the Physical Settlement Amount; provided that the Issuer may Deliver, per Calculation Amount, Deliverable Obligations with an Outstanding Principal Balance or a Due and Payable Amount, as applicable, (or the equivalent Currency Amount of any such amount), in the aggregate amount as of the relevant Delivery Dates that is either (i) greater than the Physical Settlement Amount, in which case the Noteholders shall not be required to pay the Issuer for any amount representing the excess Deliverable Obligations, or (ii) less than the Physical Settlement Amount, in which case the Issuer shall not be required to pay the Noteholders for any amount representing the excess Deliverable Obligations; and

- (b) if Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Underleverage Settlement Amount, paid on the relevant Maturity Date.

(iii) Suspension of obligations

If a DC Credit Event Question occurs, or if notification is delivered to the DC Secretary as provided for in the definition of DC Credit Event Question in relation to any Reference Entity, then (unless the Issuer (or the Calculation Agent on its behalf) otherwise decides by sending notification to the Noteholders), as from the effective date of such notification (and notwithstanding the fact that the competent Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee may not yet have determined whether Publicly Available Information is available or whether a "Credit Event", as contemplated by the DC Rules, has occurred) any obligation of the Issuer to redeem any BLN (even under Condition 14(b)(ii)) or to pay any amount of interest otherwise due on such BLN, shall be and shall remain suspended to the extent that it relates to either (i) a Reference Bond in respect of the relevant Reference Entity and/or (ii) the relevant Reference Entity to the extent that "Bankruptcy" is specified as applicable as a Bond Event in the applicable Final Terms, until the DC Secretary announces publicly that the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has Resolved in respect of such Reference Entity:

- (a) the relevant DC Credit Event Question; or
- (b) a DC Credit Event Question Dismissal.

During such period of suspension, the Issuer shall not be required to take any measure whatsoever in relation to the settlement of BLNs, in each case to the extent that it relates to either (i) a Reference Bond in respect of the relevant Reference Entity and/or (ii) the relevant Reference Entity to the extent that "Bankruptcy" is specified as applicable as a Bond Event in the applicable Final Terms. Once ISDA has publicly announced that the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has Resolved the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (a) above or not to determine such matters, such suspension shall end and all obligations thus suspended shall resume on the BLN Business Day following such public announcement by ISDA, the Issuer having the benefit of the whole day irrespective of the time of commencement of the suspension.

For the avoidance of doubt, where American Settlement is specified as the "Settlement Type" in the applicable Final Terms, no interest shall accrue on any payments of principal or interest deferred in accordance with this Condition 14(b)(iii). Where European Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall continue to accrue (if so provided in the applicable Final Terms) only on any payments of principal deferred in accordance with this Condition 14(b)(iii).

(iv) General provisions relating to redemption

For the purposes of Basket BLNs, upon satisfaction of Settlement Conditions in respect of a Reference Bond, the outstanding Calculation Amount shall be reduced by the relevant Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount for all purposes (including the accrual of interest thereon). Such reduction of interest accrual shall be effective in accordance with the provisions of Condition 14(c)(i) relating to reduction or cessation of interest accrual.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the sum of the Reference Bond Notional Weights in the Basket is less than 100%:

- (a) where Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, an Underleverage Settlement Amount will be paid upon satisfaction of Settlement Conditions pursuant to Condition 14(b)(ii), and the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount shall take into account such Underleverage Settlement Amount accordingly. For Basket BLNs with European Settlement, this means that interest shall cease to accrue on the entirety of the relevant portion (being the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount, including the Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount), and for Basket BLNs with American Settlement this means that the

Partial Redemption Amount paid on the Partial Redemption Date shall include the Risk Settlement Amount and the Underleverage Settlement Amount and interest shall cease to accrue on the entirety of the relevant portion (being the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount, including the Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount;

- (b) where Reference Underleverage Settlement is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, no Underleverage Settlement Amount will be paid upon satisfaction of Settlement Conditions and, as the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount shall not take into account any Underleverage Settlement Amount, an equivalent remaining part of the initial Calculation Amount shall remain outstanding for all purposes (including the accrual of interest thereon and the determination of the Final Redemption Amount), and for Basket BLNs with American Settlement this means that the Partial Redemption Amount paid on the Partial Redemption Date shall not include any Underleverage Settlement Amount and interest shall cease to accrue on the relevant portion (being the Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount not including Underleverage Settlement Amount) of the Calculation Amount.

For the purposes of Basket BLNs with American Settlement, in the event of partial redemption, the outstanding Calculation Amount of each BLN shall be reduced for all purposes (including the accrual of interest thereon) by the relevant Reference Bond Adjusted Notional Amount to reflect such partial redemption.

The redemption of any BLN in accordance with this Condition 14(b), and the payment of interest (where appropriate) due thereon, shall discharge all of or the relevant portion of the Issuer's obligations thereto.

Any amount payable pursuant to Condition 14(b)(ii) shall be rounded downwards to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant currency.

(c) Interest

- (i) Bond Linked Interest Basis - reduction or cessation of interest accrual

Upon the occurrence of a Bond Event Determination Date in respect of a Reference Bond, the interest on the relevant BLN (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion thereof, calculated in accordance with Condition 14(b)(iv) above) shall cease to accrue with effect from the Bond Event Determination Date (included) or from the Interest Payment Date (included) immediately prior to the Bond Event Determination Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no specification is made in the applicable Final Terms, such interest shall cease to accrue with effect from the Bond Event Determination Date (included). Where European Settlement is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms shall specify whether upon the occurrence of a Bond Event Determination Date in respect of a Reference Bond, the interest on the relevant BLN (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion thereof) shall (i) continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a Bond Event Determination Date, (ii) cease to accrue from the Bond Event Determination Date, (iii) cease to accrue from the Interest Payment Date immediately prior to the Bond Event Determination Date, or (iv) accrue from the Bond Event Determination Date at a rate of interest specified in the applicable Final Terms up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, each as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if none of (i) to (iv) above is specified in the applicable Final Terms then interest shall continue to accrue up to (but excluding) the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the occurrence of a Bond Event Determination Date.

Upon the occurrence of a Risk Event, interest shall accrue, cease or reduce as aforesaid, on the same terms, mutatis mutandis, as for a Bond Event and all references to a "Bond Event Determination Date" shall be deemed for such purposes to be to a "Risk Event Determination Date".

For the avoidance of doubt no further interest shall be due to the Noteholders.

(ii) Interest following the Scheduled Maturity Date

Subject, in any event, to the provisions of Condition 14(c)(i) in the event of a Bond Event and the provisions of Condition 14(c)(iii), if a Maturity Date Extension Notice has been given, no interest shall accrue on the BLN (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion of such BLN) as from the Scheduled Maturity Date (included) up to the corresponding Maturity Date (not included).

(iii) Interest Payment Date(s)

If the BLNs are redeemed under Condition 6 of the Terms and Conditions of the English Law Notes and the Terms and Conditions of the French Law Notes (Redemption, Purchase and Options) or this Condition 14 the Scheduled Maturity Date, the Maturity Date (if it is not the Scheduled Maturity Date), or the relevant Settlement Date, as appropriate, shall be an Interest Payment Date in respect of each BLN (or, in the case of Basket BLNs, the relevant portion thereof), and the Issuer shall pay the interest accrued on each BLN (or fraction applicable, where appropriate) on such Interest Payment Date.

(iv) Accrued interest
