Interest Record Dates: With respect to each Interest Payment Date, the date that is one Business Day prior to such Interest Payment Date, whether or not that Interest Payment Date is a Business Day; provided that for an Interest Payment Date that is also the Maturity Date, the interest payable on that Interest Payment Date will be payable to the person to whom the principal is payable.

Statutory Write-Down or Conversion: By its acquisition of the Senior Non Preferred Notes, each Noteholder (which includes any current or future holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes) acknowledges, accepts, consents and agrees to be bound by the effect of the exercise of the Bail-In or Loss Absorption Power by a Relevant Resolution Authority. The issuer is licensed as a credit institution in France and as such subject to the resolution regime introduced by the EU Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive 2014/59/EU of May, 15, 2014 (as amended from time to time or such other directive as may come in effect in place thereof, including the EU Directive 2019/879/EU of May 20, 2019). This regulation, among others, gives resolution authorities, in case the Issuer is failing or likely to fail, the power to amend the key terms of the Notes (including but not limited to the maturity date or the payment of interest), to write-down the claims of unsecured creditors of a failing credit institution and to convert certain unsecured debt claims (including Notes) to equity. In case of resolution of the Issuer, the claims under Notes could be reduced (including to zero) or converted to equity.

Certain Joint Lead Managers and Co-Managers may not be U.S. registered broker-dealers and therefore may not make sales of any Notes in the United States or to U.S. persons except in compliance with applicable U.S. laws and regulations. To the extent that any such Joint Lead Managers and Co-Managers intends to effect sales of the Senior Non Preferred Notes in the United States, it will do so only through one or more U.S. registered broker-dealers or otherwise as permitted by applicable U.S. law.

The Issuer has not been registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the Senior Non Preferred Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or the state securities laws of any state of the United States or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and are being offered only to qualified institutional buyers ("QIBs"), within the meaning of Rule 144A, pursuant to the registration exemption under Rule 144A and outside the United States to non-"U.S. persons" in "offshore transactions" (as such terms are defined in Rule 902 under the Securities Act) pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the Senior Non Preferred Notes or determined that this Pricing Supplement is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense. Under no circumstances shall this Pricing Supplement constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of these Notes, in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

The Senior Non Preferred Notes constitute unconditional liabilities of the Issuer. The Senior Non Preferred Notes are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency or instrumentality.

It is expected that delivery of the Senior Non Preferred Notes will be delivered against payment therefor on or about January 20, 2022, which will be the fifth business day following the date of pricing of the Senior Non Preferred Notes (such settlement cycle being referred to herein as "T+5"). Under Rule 15c6-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in two business days unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Senior Non Preferred Notes more than two business days prior to their date of delivery will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Senior Non Preferred Notes initially will settle in T+5, to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement and should consult their own advisor.

The Senior Non Preferred Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the "EEA"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II"); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended and superseded, the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as amended, the "Prospectus Regulation"). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the "PRIIPs Regulation"), for offering or selling the Senior Non Preferred Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

The Senior Non Preferred Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom ("UK"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA"); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Senior Non Preferred Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Senior Non Preferred Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MIFID II product governance / Professional investors and ECPs only target market – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Senior Non Preferred Notes, taking into account the five categories referred to in item 18 of the Guidelines published by ESMA on February 5, 2018, has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Senior Non Preferred Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Senior Non Preferred Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Senior Non Preferred Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Senior Non Preferred Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.
