Selected Risk Considerations

An investment in the notes involves significant risks. These risks are explained in more detail in the "Risk Factors" section of the supplement no. 1-I dated November 14, 2011.

THE NOTES ARE SUBJECT TO EARLY REDEMPTION PRIOR TO MATURITY – The notes are subject to redemption a on the specified Redemption Dates indicated above. If the notes are redeemed prior to maturity, you will receive the princ accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding the applicable Redemption Date. This amount will be less than you would har called early and continued to pay interest over the full term of the notes. We may choose to redeem the notes early or cho on any Redemption Date, in our sole discretion. If we elect to redeem the notes early, your return may be less than the re on your investment had the notes been held to maturity, and you may not be able to reinvest your funds at the same rate a redeem the notes early, for example, if U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. interest rates decrease significantly or if the volatility of U.S. int

- THE NOTES ARE NOT ORDINARY DEBT SECURITIES; THE STEP-UP FEATURE PRESENTS DIFFERENT INVESTME FIXED RATE NOTES — The rate of interest paid by us on the notes will increase upward from the initial stated rate of interest callable by us, in whole but not in part, prior to maturity and, therefore, contain the call risk described above. If we do not step-up as described on the cover of this pricing supplement. Unless general interest rates rise significantly, you should not scheduled Interest Rate set forth on the front cover because the notes are likely to be called prior to maturity if interest rates is the term of your notes. When determining whether to invest in a stepped-up rate note, you should not focus on the highest is the final stepped-up rate of interest. You should instead focus on, among other things, the overall annual percentage rate compared to other equivalent investment alternatives.
- The INTEREST RATE OF THE NOTES DOES NOT STEP UP SIGNIFICANTLY UNTIL LATER IN THE TERM OF THE rates rise significantly, you should not expect to earn the highest scheduled Interest Rate set forth on the front cover beca prior to maturity if interest rates remain the same or fall during the term of your notes. Additionally, the interest rate on the significantly until later in the term of the notes. If interest rates rise faster than the incremental increases in the interest rate have an interest rate that is significantly lower than the interest rates at that time and the secondary market value of the notes if you are other instruments with a similar term but higher interest rates. In other words, you should only purchase the notes if you are interest rates set forth on the front cover of this pricing supplement for the entire term of the notes.
- CREDIT RISK OF JPMORGAN CHASE & CO. The notes are subject to the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase & Co., and spreads may adversely affect the market value of the notes. Investors are dependent on JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s ability notes, and therefore investors are subject to our credit risk and to changes in the market's view of our creditworthiness. A increase in the credit spreads charged by the market for taking our credit risk is likely to adversely affect the value of the payment obligations, you may not receive any amounts owed to you under the notes and you could lose your entire investor

Recent events affecting us have led to heightened regulatory scrutiny, may lead to additional regulatory or legal proceeding affect our credit ratings and credit spreads and, as a result, the market value of the notes. See "Executive Overview — C Update," "Liquidity Risk Management — Credit Ratings," and "Item 4. Controls and Procedures" in our Quarterly Report of September 30, 2012 and "Part II. Other Information — Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the section of th

- POTENTIAL CONFLICTS We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the notes, incl and hedging our obligations under the notes. In performing these duties, our economic interests and the economic interest affiliates of ours are potentially adverse to your interests as an investor in the notes. In addition, our business activities, ind activities for our own accounts or on behalf of customers, could cause our economic interests to be adverse to yours and payments on the notes and the value of the notes. It is possible that hedging or trading activities of ours or our affiliates co us or our affiliates while the value of the notes declines. Please refer to "Risk Factors — Risks Relating to the Notes Gene supplement for additional information about these risks.
- THESE NOTES MAY BE MORE RISKY THAN NOTES WITH A SHORTER TERM By purchasing a note with a longer fluctuations in interest rates than if you purchased a note with a shorter term. Specifically, you may be negatively affected occur. For example, if interest rates begin to rise, the market value of your notes will decline because the likelihood of us of the Interest Rate applicable to that specific Interest Period may be less than a note issued at such time. For example, if the notes at such time was 3.00% per annum, but a debt security issued in the then current market could yield an interest rate would be less valuable if you tried to sell it in the secondary market.

- CERTAIN BUILT-IN COSTS ARE LIKELY TO ADVERSELY AFFECT THE VALUE OF THE NOTES PRIOR TO MATURI maturity or upon early redemption, as applicable, described in this pricing supplement is based on the full principal amount price of the notes includes the estimated cost of hedging our obligations under the notes. As a result, the price, if any, at v purchase notes from you in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original issue price, and ar could result in a substantial loss to you. The notes are not designed to be short-term trading instruments. Accordingly, you your notes to maturity.
- LACK OF LIQUIDITY The notes will not be listed on any securities exchange. JPMS intends to offer to purchase the not not required to do so. Even if there is a secondary market, it may not provide enough liquidity to allow you to trade or sell dealers are not likely to make a secondary market for the notes, the price at which you may be able to trade your notes is any, at which JPMS is willing to buy the notes.
- MANY ECONOMIC AND MARKET FACTORS WILL IMPACT THE VALUE OF THE NOTES The notes will be affected market factors that may either offset or magnify each other, including but not limited to:
 - the time to maturity of the notes;
 - interest and yield rates in the market generally, as well as the volatility of those rates;
 - the likelihood, or expectation, that the notes will be redeemed by us, based on prevailing market interest rates or ot
 - our creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in our credit ratings.
