We are offering $300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 3.05% Senior Notes due 2016, $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 4.625% Senior Notes due 2021 and $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 6.05% Senior Notes due 2041. We will pay interest on the 2016 series on March 1 and September 1 of each year, beginning on September 1, 2011. The 2016 notes will mature on March 1, 2016, the 2021 notes will mature on March 1, 2021 and the 2041 notes will mature on March 1, 2041. We use the term “notes” in this prospectus supplement to refer to all three series of notes.

We may redeem some or all of the notes of each series at any time or from time to time at the redemption prices calculated as set forth in the prospectus supplement under “Description of the Notes — Optional Redemption.” The notes do not have the benefit of any sinking fund payments. The notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Noble Corporation, a Cayman Islands exempted company with limited liability, and its indirect parent companies.

The notes will be our general unsecured and unsubordinated senior obligations. The notes will be issued only in denominations of $1,000 in multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. The notes will not be listed on any securities exchange.

See “Risk Factors” beginning on page S-11 and on page 2 of the accompanying prospectus to read the risk factors you should consider before investing in the notes.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any other regulatory body has approved or disapproved of these securities or the accuracy or adequacy of this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

Noble Holding International Limited, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares and the issuer of the notes, is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble Corporation, a Swiss corporation that is publicly traded and whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “NE” (“Noble-Swiss”). Noble Corporation, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares and the guarantor of the notes (“Noble-Cayman”), is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss. Noble-Swiss is not a guarantor of the notes.

This document consists of two parts. The first part is the prospectus supplement, which describes the specific terms of this offering and supplements and updates information contained in the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The second part, the accompanying prospectus, provides more general information about the notes and other securities that may be offered from time to time using the accompanying prospectus, some of which general information does not apply to this offering. Generally, when we refer to the prospectus, we mean to both parts of this document combined. You should read both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, as well as any free writing prospectus provided in connection with this offering and the additional information described in the accompanying prospectus under the heading “Where You Can Find More Information” and in this prospectus supplement under the heading “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.”

If the information in the prospectus supplement differs from the information in the accompanying prospectus, the information in the prospectus supplement supersedes the information in the accompanying prospectus.

Any information contained in this prospectus supplement or in a document incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement will be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this prospectus supplement to the extent that a statement contained in the prospectus supplement or in any other subsequently filed document that is also incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement modifies or supersedes that statement. Any statement so modified or superseded will not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this prospectus supplement. See “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference” in this prospectus supplement.

You should rely only on the information contained in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or any free writing prospectus provided in connection with this offering. Neither we nor the underwriters have authorized anyone else to provide you with different information. Neither we nor the underwriters intend to make any offer of these securities in any jurisdiction where the offer is not permitted. The information contained in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any free writing prospectus provided in connection with this offering is accurate only as of the respective dates thereof or, in the case of information incorporated by reference, as of the date of such information, regardless of the time of delivery of this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or any free writing prospectus. The business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of NHIL and Noble Corporation may have changed since such dates. It is important for you to read and consider all the information contained in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein, before making your investment decision.

INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN INFORMATION BY REFERENCE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) allows information to be “incorporated by reference” into this prospectus, which means that important information can be disclosed to you by referring you to another document filed separately with the SEC. Information incorporated by reference is deemed to be part of this prospectus, except for any information superseded by information in this prospectus supplement. This prospectus incorporates by reference the documents set forth below that were previously filed with the SEC. These documents contain important information about NHIL and Noble-Cayman.

- Noble-Cayman’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, filed on February 26, 2010.
- Noble-Cayman’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2010, filed on May 7, 2010;
- Noble-Cayman’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010, filed on August 9, 2010;
- Noble-Cayman’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, filed on November 9, 2010;
- Noble-Cayman’s Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on June 28, 2010 (excluding Item 7.01 and related Exhibit 99.1), July 2, 2010 (excluding Item 7.01 and related Exhibit 99.1), July 23, 2010, July 26, 2010, August 2, 2010 (excluding Item 7.01 and related Exhibit 99.1), January 18, 2011 (excluding Items 7.01 and 9.01) and January 31, 2011.

All additional documents that Noble-Cayman files with the SEC under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), other than, in each case, documents or information deemed to have been furnished and not filed in accordance with SEC rules, will be incorporated by reference until this offering is completed.

Documents incorporated by reference are available from Noble-Cayman without charge, excluding exhibits unless an exhibit has been specifically incorporated by reference in this prospectus. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus includes or incorporates by reference “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or in the documents incorporated by reference, including statements regarding the integration and benefits of acquisitions, contract backlog, fleet status, financial position, business strategy, contracts, delivery and acceptance of newbuild rigs, contract commitments and terms of future contracts, dayrates, contract commencement, extensions or renewals, contract tenders, the outcome of any dispute, litigation or investigation, plans and objectives of management, future operations, foreign currency requirements, results of joint ventures or indemnity claims, timing of upgrades and deliveries, conditions including the effect of disruptions of drilling in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, access to financing, taxes and tax rates, and our worldwide internal restructuring, indebtedness covenant compliance, possible amendments to, waivers under or restructuring of facilities, timing for compliance with any new regulations, entrance into and the terms of a new credit facility, results of operations, capital expenditures and commitments, transactions contemplated by any letter of intent or memorandum of understanding, status of newbuilds, impacts of any defaults, changes to credit ratings and use of the proceeds of this offering are forward-looking statements. When used in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or in the documents incorporated by reference, the words “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “project,” “should” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Although NHIL and Noble-Cayman believe that the expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, they cannot assure you that such expectations will prove to be correct. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of the document in which they appear and NHIL and Noble-Cayman undertake no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statement for any reason, except as required by law. NHIL and Noble-Cayman have identified factors that could cause actual plans or results to differ materially from those included in any forward-looking statements. These factors include those referenced or described under “Risk Factors” included in this prospectus and in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Noble-Cayman, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Noble-Cayman, as well as Noble-Cayman’s other filings with the SEC. Such risks and uncertainties are beyond the ability of NHIL and Noble-Cayman to control and, in many cases, NHIL and Noble-Cayman cannot predict the timing or the uncertainties that could cause their actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. You should consider these risks and uncertainties when you are evaluating NHIL and Noble-Cayman and deciding whether to invest in them.

ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES AGAINST FOREIGN PERSONS

NHIL and Noble-Cayman are Cayman Islands exempted companies with limited liability, and certain of their officers and directors may be residents of various jurisdictions outside the United States. All or a substantial portion of the assets of NHIL and Noble-Cayman and the assets of these persons may be located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon these persons or to enforce any U.S. court judgment obtained against these persons that is based upon the civil liability provisions of the Securities Act. NHIL and Noble-Cayman have agreed to be served with process with respect to actions based on offers and sales of the notes. To bring a claim against NHIL or Noble-Cayman, you may serve NHIL or Noble-Cayman as the case may be, at its registered office in the Cayman Islands, which is at the offices of Maples Corporate Services Limited, P.O. Box 309 Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands.

Maples and Calder, our Cayman Islands legal counsel, has advised us that there is doubt as to whether Cayman Islands courts will enforce (1) judgments of U.S. courts obtained in actions against us or other persons that are predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the Securities Act or (2) original actions brought against us or other persons predicated upon the Securities Act. There is no statutory recognition in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the United States nor any relevant treaty in place. However, the courts of the Cayman Islands will in certain circumstances recognize and enforce a non-penal judgment of a foreign court of competent jurisdiction without retrial on the merits. The courts of the Cayman Islands will recognize a foreign judgment as the basis for a claim at common law if the Cayman Islands provided such judgment:

- is given by a competent foreign court;
- imposes on the judgment debtor a liability to pay a liquidated sum for which the judgment has been given;
- is final;
- is not in respect of taxes, a fine or a penalty; and
- was not obtained in a manner and is not of a kind the enforcement of which is contrary to the public policy of the Cayman Islands.

Table of ContentsSUMMARY

This summary highlights information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. The information is qualified in its entirety by reference to detailed information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus and in the documents incorporated herein by reference and, therefore, should be read together with those documents. To understand fully the offering and the business of Noble Corporation, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares ("Noble-Cayman"), and its subsidiaries, including Noble Holding International Limited, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares ("NHIL"), we strongly encourage you to read carefully this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and the other documents incorporated herein by reference.

In the sections of this prospectus supplement that describe the business of Noble-Cayman, unless the context otherwise indicates, references to "Noble," "us," "we," "our" and like terms refer to Noble-Cayman together with its subsidiaries. NHIL is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Cayman. The notes are obligations of NHIL and, to the extent described in this prospectus supplement, are guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The terms "2016 notes," "2021 notes" and "2041 notes" refer to the 3.05% Senior Notes due 2016, the 4.625% Senior Notes due 2021 and the 6.05% Senior Notes due 2041, respectively. The term "notes" in this prospectus supplement refers collectively to the 2016 notes, the 2021 notes and the 2041 notes.

Noble Holding International Limited

NHIL is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Cayman. NHIL owns, through its subsidiaries, a fleet of 64 mobile offshore drilling units which are used in the performance of worldwide contract drilling services, principally in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, Brazil and West Africa. As of January 20, 2010, the fleet consisted of 13 semisubmersibles, seven dynamically positioned drillships and 44 jackups. This fleet count includes 1 unit currently under construction. NHIL is a Cayman Islands exempted company with limited liability. NHIL's principal office is located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 938-0293.

Noble-Cayman

Noble-Cayman is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble Corporation, a Swiss corporation ("Noble-Swiss"). Noble-Swiss, which is publicly traded and whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "NE", is a leading contract drilling contractor for the oil and gas industry. Noble-Cayman is a holding company, and, through its subsidiaries, it performs contract drilling services with a fleet of mobile offshore drilling units.

In March 2009, we completed a series of transactions that effectively changed the place of incorporation of our parent company from the Cayman Islands to Switzerland. As a result of these transactions, Noble-Cayman, the previous publicly traded Cayman Islands parent holding company, became a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, the current publicly traded parent holding company. The consolidated financial statements of Noble-Swiss include the accounts of Noble-Cayman, and Noble-Swiss conducts substantially all of its business through Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries.

Noble-Cayman performs, through its subsidiaries, including NHIL, contract drilling services with a fleet of 73 offshore units located worldwide, including in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Brazil, West Africa and Asian Pacific. This fleet consists of NHIL's 64 offshore drilling units, five additional drillships, two additional submersibles, one additional semisubmersible and one additional jackup. This fleet count includes eight rigs currently under construction. Noble-Cayman also owns and operates a dynamically positioned floating production, storage and offloading vessel.

Noble's long-standing business strategy is the active expansion of its worldwide offshore drilling and deepwater capabilities through acquisitions, upgrades and modifications, and the deployment of drilling assets in important oil and gas producing areas. Noble has also actively expanded its offshore drilling and deepwater capabilities over the past several years through the construction of new rigs.

Noble-Cayman and its predecessors have been engaged in the contract drilling of oil and gas wells for others in the United States since 1921 and internationally during various periods since 1939. Noble-Cayman's principal executive offices are located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 931-1000.

Recent Developments

Results for Quarter and Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2010

Results of Operations for Quarter and Year Ended December 31, 2010

Consolidated earnings of Noble-Cayman for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010 were $109 million and $816 million, respectively, compared with $468 million and $1.7 billion for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2009, respectively. The reduction in earnings between 2009 and 2010 resulted primarily from a decrease in contract drilling services revenues resulting primarily from the current drilling restrictions in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico and contractual re-pricing of drilling in Mexico, the North Sea and the Middle East.

Contract drilling services revenues for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010 were $614 million and $2.7 billion, respectively, compared with $894 million and $3.5 billion for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2009, respectively. As discussed above, the decline in revenues from 2009 to 2010 of $814 million resulted primarily from a 34% decline in revenues from our jackups due to contractual re-pricing in Mexico, the North Sea and the Middle East, combined with a decline in revenues from the current drilling restrictions in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico. The U.S. government-ordered drilling limitations negatively impacted drilling revenues in 2010 by approximately $450 million.

Noble-Cayman generated $798 million and $1.7 billion in net cash provided by operating activities in the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010, respectively. Noble-Cayman invested $537 million and $1.4 billion in capital projects during the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010, respectively. As of December 31, 2010, Noble-Cayman had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $333 million.

Backlog as of December 31, 2010

Our contract drilling services backlog consists of commitments we believe to be firm and reflects estimated future revenues attributable to both signed contracts and letters of intent. For a number of reasons, however, including the risk that some contracts with letters of intent may not sign definitive drilling contracts, our backlog as of any particular date may not be indicative of actual operating results for the subsequent periods for which the backlog is calculated. See "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements." For a description of additional qualifications relating to our backlog, please see our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 that are incorporated in this prospectus by reference. See "Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference."

As of December 31, 2010, our contract drilling services backlog aggregated $12.69 billion, of which $11.43 billion related to floaters (semisubmersibles, drillships and an FPSO) and $1.26 billion related to non-floaters (jackups and submersibles). The total amount of our backlog as of December 31, 2010, approximately 18.5% relates to 2011, 16.2% relates to 2012, 14.4% relates to 2013 and 50.9% relates to periods after 2013.

Our December 31, 2010 backlog —

- includes approximately $269 million for potential performance bonuses in Brazil;

Table of Contents

- includes approximately $147 million related to contracts in Mexico that can be canceled on 30 days or less notice;
- includes backlog related to our four current U.S. Gulf of Mexico rigs (which excludes the Noble Jim Day, whose contract was terminated by the customer effective December 31, 2010) totaling approximately $1.4 billion, approximately $451 million of which represents backlog for 2011.

Our December 31, 2010 backlog does not reflect the impact of events occurring subsequent to December 31, 2010, including the previously announced proposed substitution of the Noble Phoenix for the Noble Muravlenko and letter of intent for a new ultra-deepwater drillship with a subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell plc, which are expected to contribute, on a net basis, approximately $455 million to our backlog. See “— Letter of Intent for New Five and a Half Year Contract and Update on Brazil Operations.”

Shell and Petroleo Brasileiro S.A. (“Petrobras”) represent approximately 62% and approximately 26%, respectively, of our backlog as of December 31, 2010. For a brief description of the risk relating to our dependence on these key customers, please see Item 1A. Risk Factors — “We are substantially dependent on our customers Shell and Petrobras, and the loss of either customer could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations” in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 that is incorporated in this prospectus by reference. See “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.”

Estimated 2011 Capital Expenditure Budget

We currently estimate that our total capital expenditures budget for 2011 will be approximately $2.1 billion. Certain portions of this capital expenditures budget remain subject to approval of our board of directors. Our capital expenditures budget for 2011 includes both expenditures under commitments, including shipyard and purchase commitments, and additional expenditures that we may generally be spent at our discretion. We may accelerate, delay or cancel certain capital projects, as needed.

Construction of Two New Ultra-Deepwater Drillships

In January 2011, we signed a contract with Hyundai Heavy Industries Co. Ltd. (“HHI”) for the construction of two new ultra-deepwater drillships, increasing our floating drilling units to 26, 14 of which are dynamically positioned. The new ultra-deepwater drillships, to be named at a later date, will be constructed on a fixed price basis at HHI’s shipyard in Ulsan, Korea, with expected deliveries from the shipyard in the second and fourth quarters of 2013, respectively. Operations are expected to commence 90-120 days after delivery following mobilization and acceptance testing. One of these drillships will perform under the contract with Shell to which the Letter of Intent described below relates.

The delivered cost of the new drillships is expected to be $605 million each, and includes the turnkey construction cost of equipment furnished by us, project management and spares, but excludes capitalized interest. The contract further includes a price option for up to two additional drillships, which must be declared by early May 2011 for delivery in 2014.

The rigs are based on a Hyundai Gusto P10000 hull design and are designed for operations in waters of up to 12,000 feet, although either may be outfitted for less depending on specific contract requirements. The units are designed with DP-3 station-keeping abilities, the ability to handle two complete BOP systems, a heave compensated construction crane to facilitate deployment of subsea production equipment and accommodations for up to 200 personnel.

Letter of Intent for New Five and a Half Year Contract and Update on Brazil Operations

In January 2011, we signed a Letter of Intent (“LOI”) with a subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell plc for a new five and a half year drilling contract on a newbuild ultra-deepwater drillship that is expected to commence in the second half of 2013. We modeled the drilling contract terms and conditions on the recently announced Noble Globetrotter II contract whereby a unit of the Noble Globetrotter II’s capabilities would receive a base operating dayrate of $410,000 and be eligible for a 15 percent performance incentive.

bonus. In addition, the LOI provides for a lump sum mobilization fee of approximately $18 million and a separate performance-based lump sum amount of $10 million subject to the achievement of certain criteria. The LOI is subject to certain conditions including Shell board approval.

In December 2010, we signed a Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) with Petrobras regarding operations in Brazil. Under the terms of the MOU, we would substitute the dynamically positioned deepwater drillship Noble Phoenix, which was under contract with Shell in Southeast Asia, for the dynamically positioned drillship Noble Muravlenko. The Noble Muravlenko is currently operating under a six-year contract with Petrobras ending in 2015 at a base dayrate of $290,000, exclusive of a potential performance bonus of 15 percent. After the substitution, the Noble Phoenix would operate under the same terms. The swap of the Noble Phoenix for the Noble Muravlenko is expected to address certain reliability issues faced by the Noble Muravlenko. Following release by Shell, the Noble Phoenix is scheduled to undergo limited contract preparations, after which the unit would mobilize to Brazil. We expect that acceptance of the Noble Phoenix in Brazil by Petrobras would take place in the fourth quarter of 2011. The Noble Muravlenko is expected to continue operating in Brazil until the arrival and acceptance of the Noble Phoenix. Associated with the cancellation of the contract on the Noble Phoenix, we anticipate booking a first quarter 2011 non-cash gain of approximately $55 million. The gain is not taxable.

We decided, after analyzing available alternatives, that we will not proceed with the previously announced reliability upgrade to the Noble Muravlenko that was scheduled to take place in 2013. As a result of the cancellation of the upgrade, we expect that first quarter 2011 results will include an associated non-cash impairment charge currently estimated to be approximately $55 million. There is no tax effect to the charge. We have begun exploring alternatives and potential opportunities for the Noble Muravlenko upgrade projects on the Noble Leo Segerius and Noble Roger Eason are expected to go forward and we anticipate that the Noble Leo Segerius will enter the shipyard in Brazil in the first quarter of 2011 to commence its upgrade.

The transactions contemplated by the MOU are contingent on Petrobras board approval and execution of definitive agreements with Petrobras. Our ability to deliver the Noble Phoenix to Petrobras as scheduled is subject to the timely release of the unit and completion of the contract preparation work.

Construction of High Specification Jackups

In December 2010, we entered into an agreement for the construction of two high-specification heavy duty, harsh environment jackup drilling rigs with Sembcorp Marine’s subsidiary Jurong Shipyard in Singapore. The new units are scheduled for delivery in the fourth quarter 2012 and second quarter of 2013, respectively. Total delivered costs are estimated at approximately $22 million per rig, including project management, spares, and start-up costs, but excluding capitalized interest. Payment terms are twenty percent of the construction price due at contract signing, twenty percent due at steel cutting, and the remainder due at rig completion. The contract also contains options for up to four additional units which must be exercised by January 1, 2012. Each option is priced based on the original unit price, plus a potential escalation factor, with future deliveries scheduled in six month increments beginning in late 2013.

The Friede & Goldman JU3000N design is an enhanced evolution of the JU2000E design and represents the latest generation of high specification jackup drilling rigs with greater capacities and capabilities than most existing units. The rigs are designed to operate in water depths of up to 400 feet and drill to depths of 30,000 feet.

Proposed New Revolving Credit Facility

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks (including affiliates of certain of the underwriters in this offering) serving as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, the additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. The facility is expected to be in place by 2015 and provide Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. We expect the covenants of default under the proposed additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will remain in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by Noble Drilling Corporation.

Nigerian Customs Matter

In November 2010, Noble-Swiss reached a settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice and the SEC in connection with an investigation under the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of certain reimbursement payments made by its Nigerian affiliate to customs agents in Nigeria. In January 2011, the Nigerian Economic and Financial Crimes Commission and the Attorney General Office initiated an investigation into these same activities. A subsidiary of Noble-Swiss has resolved this matter through the execution of a non-prosecution agreement dated January 28, 2011. Pursuant to this agreement, the subsidiary has paid $2.5 million to resolve all charges and claims of the Nigerian government.

The due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, interest on, and all other amounts due under the notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The guarantee will (a) be a general unsecured and unsubordinated senior obligation of Noble-Cayman, (b) rank equally with all existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and to other guarantees of Noble-Cayman that are senior, unsecured obligations, and (c) be effectively subordinated to any future secured indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and to all existing and future indebtedness of Noble-Cayman's subsidiaries.

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, Noble-Cayman would have had $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of NHIL) on $201.7 million of indebtedness. Until a portion of the net proceeds from this offering are used as described in "Use of Proceeds," in connection with repayment of the indebtedness owed by the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships, the notes offered hereby will also be effectively subordinated to the obligations of the joint ventures on an aggregate of $693 million (as of January 26, 2011) of secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness).

In addition to the debt described above, Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility and NHIL and Noble Drilling Corporation ("Noble Drilling") have guaranteed any borrowings outstanding under that facility. As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under that facility.

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks, serving as joint arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. We expect the covenants and events of default under the proposed additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will remain in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by NHIL and Noble Drilling. See "Summary —

Certain Covenants	The indenture governing the notes will contain covenants that, among other things, will limit the ability of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL, to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• create certain liens;</li><li>• engage in certain sale and lease-back transactions; and</li><li>• amalgamate, merge, consolidate and sell assets, except under certain conditions.</li></ul> These covenants have various exceptions and qualifications, which are described under “Description of the Notes — Certain Covenants” in this prospectus supplement.
Future Issuances	Initially, the 2016 notes will be limited to $300 million in aggregate principal amount, the 2021 notes will be limited to $400 million in aggregate principal amount and the 2041 notes will be limited to $400 million in aggregate principal amount. NHIL may, however, “reopen” any series of notes and issue an unlimited amount of additional notes of that series in the future.
Use of Proceeds	We estimate that the net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $1.087 billion, after underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses. Noble-Cayman intends to transfer the net proceeds to Noble-Cayman as advances, distributions, repayments of outstanding intercompany indebtedness or a combination of these. Noble-Cayman intends to use the net proceeds to repay indebtedness outstanding under its existing revolving credit facility, to repay in full its portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility and for general corporate purposes, including its 2011 capital expenditure program. See “Use of Proceeds” in this prospectus supplement. Affiliates of all of the underwriters are lenders under our existing revolving credit facility and affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under the Bully I credit facility or the Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from the offering. ### Noble-Cayman Summary Historical Financial Data

The following table shows summary historical financial data for Noble-Cayman as of and for the periods indicated. The summary historical financial data as of and for the years ended December 31, 2007, 2008 and 2009 are derived from Noble-Cayman's audited financial statements and accompanying notes thereto incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Noble-Cayman's summary historical financial data as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 are derived from our unaudited financial statements incorporated by reference into this prospectus and management's opinion, have been prepared on the same basis as the audited financial statements and include all adjustments consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of this information.

Consolidating financial information regarding NHIL is included in Noble-Cayman's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Noble-Cayman's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

The summary historical financial data is qualified by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with Noble-Cayman's consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes thereto and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," included in Noble-Cayman's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Noble-Cayman's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, both of which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus. ### RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information contained in this prospectus, the accompanying prospectus and the periodic reports of Noble-Cayman that are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement, including the information set forth in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," of Noble-Cayman's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Part II, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," of Noble-Cayman's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, before purchasing any notes offered hereby.

Risks Relating to the Notes

There is no established trading market for the notes of any series, and therefore there are uncertainties regarding the price and terms on which a holder could dispose of the notes, if at all.

Each series of the notes will constitute a new issue of securities with no established trading market. We have not applied to list the notes on any national securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system. The underwriters have agreed to make a market in the notes, but they are not obligated to do so. The underwriters may discontinue any market-making activity in the notes at any time, in their sole discretion. As a result, we are unable to assure you as to the presence or the liquidity of any trading market for the notes of any series.

We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your notes at a particular time or that the prices that you receive if you sell will be favorable. We also cannot assure you as to the level of liquidity of the trading market for the notes. Future trading activity in the notes will depend on many factors, including:

- our operating performance and financial condition;
- the interest of securities dealers in making a market and the number of available buyers;
- the market for similar securities; and
- prevailing interest rates.

You should not purchase the notes unless you understand, and know you can bear, all of the investment risks involving

The notes are obligations exclusively of NHIL and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor, and not of our subsidiaries or Noble-Cayman's other subsidiaries, and payments to holders of the notes will be effectively subordinated to the claims of such other subsidiaries and creditors.

The notes are obligations exclusively of NHIL and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor of payment of the notes, and not of our subsidiaries or Noble-Cayman's other subsidiaries. We conduct our operations primarily through our subsidiaries, and our subsidiaries generate substantially all of our operating income and cash flow. As a result, distributions or advances from our subsidiaries are important to us to meet our debt-service obligations. Contractual provisions or laws, as well as our subsidiaries' financial condition and requirements, may limit our ability to obtain from our subsidiaries cash that we need to pay our debt-service obligations, including payments on the notes. Our subsidiaries will be permitted under the terms of the indenture governing the notes to incur additional indebtedness that may restrict or prohibit the making of distributions, the payment of dividends or the making of loans by such

to us. We cannot assure you that the agreements governing the current and future indebtedness of our subsidiaries will p subsidiaries to provide us with sufficient dividends, distributions or loans to fund payments on the notes when due.

Our right to receive any assets of any of our subsidiaries upon their liquidation or reorganization, and, therefore, the right holders of the notes to participate in those assets, will be structurally subordinated to all indebtedness and other liabilities of s subsidiaries. As a result, holders of the notes have a junior position to the claims of creditors of such subsidiaries on their ass earnings.

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, Noble-Cayman would $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman) on $201.7 million of indebtedness and to any secured debt (as described in the following risk factor).

Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.

The notes represent unsecured obligations of NHIL. Accordingly, any secured creditor of NHIL or any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman has claims that are superior to the claims of holders of the notes to the extent of the value of the assets securing that other indebtedness. Similarly, the guarantee of the notes will effectively rank junior to any secured debt of Noble-Cayman, as the guarantor, or any of its subsidiaries, to the extent of the value of the assets securing the debt. In the event of any distribution or payment of assets of Noble-Cayman or any of their respective subsidiaries in any foreclosure, dissolution, winding-up, liquidation, reorganization or bankruptcy proceeding, secured creditors of NHIL, Noble-Cayman and such subsidiaries, respectively, will have a superior claim to the collateral. If any of the foregoing events occur, we cannot assure you that there will be sufficient assets to pay amounts due on the notes. Holders of the notes will participate ratably with all holders of unsecured senior indebtedness of NHIL, and with all of our other senior creditors, based upon the respective amounts owed to each holder or creditor, in the remaining assets of NHIL. As a result, holders of notes may receive less, ratably, than secured creditors of NHIL. As of January 26, 2011, NHIL and its subsidiaries had no indebtedness outstanding, except that the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships were obligated on an aggregate of $693.0 million of secured indebtedness, of which our portion was $185.0 million and $161.6 million respectively.

As described under “Use of Proceeds,” we currently expect to repay in full indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility with a portion of the net proceeds of this offering. Such repayment is subject to certain conditions and approvals, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be provided. In December, 2010, we obtained a waiver under the Bully I credit facility relating to a delay in the delivery date for the Bully I drillship, which was originally scheduled for December 30, 2010 and is currently scheduled for August 2011. If we are unable to repay and terminate the facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain an extension of the waiver prior to its expiration on February 28, 2011, an event of default may occur under the Bully I credit facility. If the lenders declared an event of default under the Bully I credit facility, the aggregate principal amount of the notes could come due.

We could enter into various transactions that could increase the amount of our outstanding debt, adversely affect our capital structure or credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect holders of the notes.

The terms of the notes do not prevent us from entering into a variety of acquisition, change-of-control, refinancing, recapitalization or other highly leveraged transactions. As a result, we could enter into a variety of transactions that could increase the total amount of our outstanding indebtedness, adversely affect our capital structure or credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect the holders of the notes.

To service our indebtedness, we will use a significant amount of cash. Our ability to generate cash to service our indebtedness depends on many factors beyond our control.

Our ability to make payments on our indebtedness, including the notes, and to fund planned capital expenditures will depend on our ability to generate cash in the future. This ability, to a certain extent, is subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legal, regulatory and other factors that are beyond our control. We cannot assure you that cash flow generated from our business and other sources of cash, including future borrowings by Noble-Cayman under its existing revolving credit facility, will be sufficient to service our indebtedness.

pay our indebtedness, including the notes, and to fund our other liquidity needs.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that the net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $1.087 billion, after underwriting discounts and offering expenses. NHIL intends to transfer the net proceeds to Noble-Cayman as advances, distributions, repayment of outstanding intercompany indebtedness or a combination of these. Noble-Cayman intends to use approximately $240 million of the net proceeds to repay indebtedness outstanding under its existing revolving credit facility, approximately $347 million of the net proceeds to repay its portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility and the remaining net proceeds for general corporate purposes, including the 2011 capital expenditure program. Repayment of the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities is subject to certain conditions and approvals, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be obtained. Pending use of the portion of the net proceeds to be used to repay indebtedness under the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities for general corporate purposes, we intend to invest such net proceeds in U.S. government obligations, bank deposits or in other short-term investments.

As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under our revolving credit facility. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 was 0.50%. Our revolving credit facility matures on March 1, 2012. Borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred for working capital purposes and capital expenditures.

Affiliates of all of the underwriters are lenders under our revolving credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. See “Underwriting”.

As of January 26, 2011, there were $370 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and our portion of indebtedness was $185 million. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 under the Bully I credit facility was 2.8%. The Bully I credit facility matures in 2016. The Bully I joint venture’s borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred to fund the construction of the Bully I drillship.

As of January 26, 2011, there were $323 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bully II credit facility and our portion of indebtedness was $162 million. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 under the Bully II credit facility was 2.6%. The Bully II credit facility matures in 2018. The Bully II joint venture’s borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred to fund the construction of the Bully II drillship.

Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under the Bully I credit facility or Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. See “Underwriting.”

DESCRIPTION OF CERTAIN OTHER INDEBTEDNESS

Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and NHIL and Related Guarantees

At January 26, 2011, Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL and its subsidiaries, had approximately $2.0 billion of unsecured long-term senior notes (including current maturities) outstanding. At that date, Noble-Cayman had $240 million of outstanding under its $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility, described below.

The $2.0 billion of long-term senior notes of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries outstanding at January 26, 2011 was originally issued by Noble-Cayman ($300 million original principal amount), NHIL ($1.5 billion original principal amount) and Noble Drilling Services 6 LLC ($250 million original principal amount; $202 million aggregate principal amount outstanding as of January 26, 2011). At the time of the issuance of such senior notes or subsequent to such issuance, Noble-Cayman or one or more subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman was a co-issuer or guarantor or otherwise became obligated on such senior notes, such that at January 26, 2011 the issuers, co-issuers or guarantors of such senior notes were as follows:

Notes	Issuer (Co-Issuer(s))	Guarantor
$300 million 5.875% Senior Notes due 2013	Noble-Cayman	Noble Drilling;
$250 million 7.375% Senior Notes due 2014	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$350 million 3.45% Senior Notes due 2015	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$500 million 4.90% Senior Notes due 2020	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$400 million 6.20% Senior Notes due 2040	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$202 million 7.50% Senior Notes due 2019	Noble Drilling; (Noble Drilling Holding LLC); (Noble Drilling Services 6 LLC)	Noble-Cayman; Noble Holding (U.S.) Corporation

As a result, at January 26, 2011, each of Noble-Cayman and NHIL was an issuer or guarantor of $1.98 billion aggregate principal amount of senior notes. In addition, Noble-Cayman was a guarantor of an additional $202 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes issued by Noble Drilling and as to which several additional subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman (as shown in the table above) were guarantors or co-issuers (and effectively guarantors). All of the entities listed in the table above, other than Noble-Cayman, are subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman. None of the entities listed in the table above are subsidiaries of NHIL except for Noble Drilling Holding LLC and Noble Drilling Services 6 LLC, which are direct, wholly owned subsidiaries of NHIL.

At January 26, 2011, none of the outstanding indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL, was secured except for an aggregate of $693 million of secured indebtedness issued by the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II oil fields.

Noble-Cayman Unsecured Revolving Credit Facility

Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility, which is scheduled to mature on March 15, 2013. From March 15, 2012 through March 15, 2013, the total amount available under the credit facility will be $575 million, but we have agreed to seek an increase of the total amount available to $600 million. We may, subject to certain conditions, including lender consent, extend the term of the credit facility be extended for an additional one-year period. Noble Drilling and NHIL have guaranteed the obligations under the credit facility.

under the credit facility. Pursuant to the terms of the credit facility, we may, subject to certain conditions, including lender consent, elect to increase the amount available up to $800 million. The credit facility provides Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. While Noble-Cayman's issuance of letters of credit does not increase its borrowings outstanding, it may reduce the amount available. Borrowings may be made under the facility (a) at the sum of Adjusted LIBOR (as defined) plus a margin (currently 0.235 percent based on our current credit ratings), or (b) at the base rate (the greater of the prime rate for U.S. loans announced by Citibank, N.A. or the sum of the weighted average overnight federal funds rate published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York plus 0.50 percent).

Table of Contents

The margin applicable to the interest rate under the credit facility may increase if we are subject to a ratings downgrade.

As of January 26, 2011, we had $240 million of borrowings outstanding under this credit facility, leaving $360 million available under this credit facility.

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks (including affiliates of certain of the underwriters in this offering) as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader group of banks and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. The facility is expected to mature in 2015 and provide Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. We expect the covenants and events of default under the additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will continue to be in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by NHIL and Noble Drilling.

Certain Letters of Credit, Surety and Other Bonds and Guarantees

Noble-Cayman had letters of credit of approximately $128 million and performance and tax assessment bonds totaling $364 million supported by surety bonds outstanding at September 30, 2010. Additionally, certain of Noble's subsidiaries issue to time, guarantees of the temporary import status of rigs or equipment imported into certain countries in which they operate. guarantees are issued in lieu of payment of custom, value added or similar taxes in those countries.

Secured Credit Facilities and Unsecured Notes for Bully I and Bully II Joint Ventures

On July 28, 2010, Noble-Swiss and Noble AM Merger Co, a Cayman Islands company and indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, completed the acquisition of FDR Holdings Limited, a Cayman Islands company and the parent entity of the FDR companies. In connection with this transaction, we acquired a 50% interest in two joint ventures that are constructing and owning the Bully I and Bully II drillships. Each of these joint ventures is consolidated in our consolidated financial statements. Each of the Bully I and Bully II joint ventures has a secured credit facility in place to finance the construction of the drillship being constructed by each joint venture. The indebtedness under each of the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities is non-recourse to Noble-Cayman and NHIL. Noble-Cayman, NHIL and Noble-Swiss, and no other subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, has guaranteed the indebtedness under the Bully II credit facilities.

As described under “Use of Proceeds,” we currently expect to repay in full indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I and Bully II credit facility with a portion of the net proceeds of this offering. Such repayment is subject to certain conditions, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be provided. Until a portion of the net proceeds of this offering are used, as described in “Use of Proceeds,” in connection with repayment of the indebtedness owed by the joint venture, the Bully I and Bully II drillships, the notes offered hereby will also be effectively subordinated to the obligations of such joint venture. As of January 26, 2011, we had an aggregate of $693 million (as of January 26, 2011) of secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness).

The Bully I secured credit facility provides for a $465 million senior secured term loan and credit facility, including a $ senior secured term loan, a $40 million senior secured credit facility revolver and a $50 million junior secured credit facility. January 26, 2011, $370 million of senior secured loans were outstanding under this facility. The senior secured term loan requires 20 quarterly payments of $15.75 million, starting at the end of the first complete quarter after the earlier of delivery and acceptance of the Bully I drillship or December 30, 2010. In addition to the final quarterly payment of $15.75 million, a final balloon payment of $100 million is due on the maturity date of the facility, which is the earlier of the date of delivery and acceptance of the Bully I drillship or December 30, 2010.

$60 million is due on the earlier occurrence of five years after the delivery and acceptance of the Bully I or December 31, 2015. The senior secured credit facility revolver is also due in full on the final balloon payment date. The junior secured credit facility requires quarterly payments, based on an excess cash flow calculation defined in the facility agreement, commencing after the third quarter following delivery and acceptance of the Bully I drillship with final payment to be made on the final balloon payment date. The senior secured term loan provides for floating interest rates that are fixed for one-, three- or six-month periods at LIBOR plus 2.5% prior to delivery and acceptance of the drillship and 1.5% thereafter. The Bully I credit facility is secured by assignments of the major contracts for the construction of the drillship and its equipment, the drilling contract for the drillship, and various other rights. In addition, when the drillship is registered following completion of construction, the credit facility will be secured by a first-preferred ship mortgage. In December 2010, we received a waiver under the Bully I credit facility relating to a delay in the delivery date for the Bully I drillship, which was scheduled for December 30, 2010. If we are unable to repay and terminate the facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain an extension of the waiver prior to its expiration on February 28, 2011, an event of default may result under the Bully I credit facility. “Risk Factors — Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.”

The Bully II secured credit facility provides for a $495 million senior secured term loan and credit facility, including a $445 million senior secured term loan, a $10 million senior secured credit facility revolver and a $50 million secured cost overrun term loan. As of January 26, 2011, $323 million of senior secured loans were outstanding under this facility. The senior secured term loan requires quarterly payments beginning soon after commencement of operations by the Bully II drillship or July 15, 2011. The final quarterly payment will be paid together with a one-time balloon payment of up to $90 million plus any other amount outstanding under the secured revolving credit facility on the final 28th quarterly installment payment date. The senior secured term loan provides for floating interest rates that are fixed for three months or such other period selected by the borrower and agreed by the agent, at LIBOR plus 2.3% prior to the occurrence of the delivery date of the hull, thereafter LIBOR plus 2.3% until contract commencement, and thereafter LIBOR plus 2.25% until the first day of the sixth anniversary of the contract commencement, and thereafter 2.4%. Interest under this loan has been deferred and capitalized as principal. The secured cost overrun term loan has floating interest rates of LIBOR plus 3.5% prior to the occurrence of the contract commencement and 3.25% thereafter. The Bully II credit facility is secured by assignments of the major contracts for the construction of the drillship and its equipment, the drilling contract for the drillship, and various other rights. When the drillship is registered following completion of construction, the credit facility will be secured by a first-preferred ship mortgage. If we are unable to repay and terminate the Bully II credit facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain a waiver prior to its expiration on March 30, 2011, an event of default may result under the Bully II credit facility. See “Risk Factors — Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.”

In September 2010, the Bully I and Bully II joint venture partners advanced a total of $70 million to the Bully I and Bully II joint ventures. The advances are represented by unsecured notes, and the interest rate on these notes is 10%, payable semi-annually in cash and in kind on June 30 and December 31 commencing in December 2010. The purpose of these notes is to provide additional working capital for these joint ventures in connection with the shipyard construction of the Bully vessels. Our portion of the joint venture partner advances totaled $35 million, which was eliminated in our balance sheets. The non-eliminated portions of these notes totaled $18 million for the Bully I joint venture and $17 million for the Bully II joint venture and are due in 2016 and 2018, respectively.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The notes of each series offered by this prospectus supplement will constitute a separate series of senior debt securities described below and in the accompanying prospectus. The notes will be issued under an indenture between NHIL, as issuer, and Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, and a third supplemental indenture among NHIL, as issuer, the trustee and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor. In this section, references to the “indenture” refer to the indenture as supplemented and amended by the supplemental indenture. The summary of selected provisions of the notes and the indenture referred to below supplements, and to the extent inconsistent supersedes and replaces, the description of the general terms and provisions of the senior debt securities and indenture contained in the accompanying prospectus under the caption “Description of Debt Securities.” This summary is not intended to be qualified by reference to provisions of the notes and the indenture. Forms of the notes and the indenture, including the third supplemental indenture providing for the guarantee by Noble-Cayman, have been or will be filed by Noble-Cayman with the SEC, and you may obtain copies as described under “Where You Can Find More Information” in the accompanying prospectus. Capitalized terms used in this description have the meaning given them in the accompanying prospectus or the indenture.

In this section, references to “NHIL”, “we,” “our,” “us” and the “Company” mean NHIL, excluding, unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, its subsidiaries, and references to “Noble-Cayman” mean Noble-Cayman, excluding, unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, its subsidiaries.

General

The 2016 notes, the 2021 notes and the 2041 notes will each constitute a separate series of senior debt securities under the indenture, initially limited to $300 million aggregate principal amount of 2016 notes, $400 million aggregate principal amount of 2021 notes and $400 million aggregate principal amount of 2041 notes. We may, from time to time, without giving notice to or seeking the consent of the holders of the debt securities, issue additional notes having the same ranking, interest rate, maturity and other terms as the 2016 notes, 2021 notes or the 2041 notes issued in this offering. Any additional 2016 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 2016 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture, any additional 2021 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 2021 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture and any additional 2041 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 2041 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture.

The 2016 notes will mature on March 1, 2016 and will bear interest at the rate of 3.05% per annum, accruing from February 1, 2016. The 2021 notes will mature on March 1, 2021 and will bear interest at the rate of 4.625% per annum, accruing from February 1, 2021. The 2041 notes will mature on March 1, 2041 and will bear interest at the rate of 6.05% per annum, accruing from February 3, 2021. The notes of each series will be paid semi-annually, in arrears, on March 1 and September 1 to the holders of record at the close of business on the February 15 and August 15 immediately preceding the applicable interest payment date. Interest on the notes will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

If any interest payment date, redemption date or the maturity date of the notes is not a business day at any place of payment, payment of the principal, premium, if any, and interest may be made on the next business day at that place of payment. In that event, interest will accrue on the amount payable for the period from and after the applicable interest payment date, redemption date or maturity date, as the case may be.

The notes of each series initially will be issued in book-entry form and represented by one or more global notes deposited with the trustee.

behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, as Depositary, and registered in the name of Cede & Co., its nominee. This r will not be entitled to receive a certificate for the notes that you purchase except under the limited circumstances described b registered form without coupons, in denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

So long as the notes are in book-entry form, you will receive payments and may transfer notes only through the facilities of the Depositary and its direct and indirect participants. See “— Book-Entry, Delivery and Form” below. We will maintain an office in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York where notices and demands in respect of the notes and the indenture may be presented to us and where certificated notes may be surrendered for payment, registration of transfer or exchange. That office or agency shall be the office of the agent of the trustee in the City of New York, which is currently located at The Bank of New York Mellon, 60 Wall Street — 7 East, New York, New York 10286.

So long as the notes are in book-entry form, we will make payments on the notes to the Depositary or its nominee, as the owner of the notes, by wire transfer of immediately available funds. If notes are issued in definitive certificated form under the circumstances described below under the caption “— Book-Entry, Delivery and Form,” we will have the option of paying interest by mail to the addresses of the persons entitled to payment or by wire transfer to bank accounts in the United States designated by the trustee at least 15 days before the applicable payment date by the persons entitled to payment.

We will pay principal of and any premium on the notes of each series at their stated maturity, upon redemption or other presentation of the notes at the office of the trustee, as our paying agent. In our discretion, we may appoint one or more additional agents and security registrars and designate one or more additional places for payment and for registration of transfer, but we shall always maintain a place of payment of the notes and a place for registration of transfer of the notes in the Borough of Manhattan, New York.

We will be entitled to redeem the notes at our option as described below under the caption “— Optional Redemption.” We may also be permitted to require us to redeem or repurchase the notes. The notes will not be subject to a sinking fund.

Ranking of Notes; Guarantee

The notes will be our general unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and will rank on a parity in right of payment with all of our other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The notes are our obligations exclusively, and are not the obligations of our subsidiaries or other subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman. Because we conduct our operations primarily through our subsidiaries and substantially all of our consolidated assets are held by our subsidiaries, we depend on the cash flow of our subsidiaries to meet our obligations, including our obligations under the notes. As a result, the notes will be effectively subordinated to any and all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities and commitments (including trade payables and lease obligations) of our subsidiaries. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of these subsidiaries, the subsidiaries will pay the holders of their debt and their trade creditors before they will be able to distribute any of their assets to us.

The due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, interest on and all other amounts due under the notes will be guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The guarantee will be the general unsecured obligation as to payment of the notes and will rank equally with all existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Noble-Cayman, including other obligations of Noble-Cayman in favor of its subsidiaries other than NHIL. Because Noble-Cayman conducts its operations primarily through its subsidiaries and substantially all of its consolidated assets are held by the subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman, Noble-Cayman depends on the cash flow of its subsidiaries to meet its obligations, including its obligations under the guarantee relating to the notes. As a result, the guarantee will be effectively subordinated to any and all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities and commitments (including trade payables and lease obligations) of the subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of these subsidiaries, the subsidiaries will pay the holders of their debt and their trade creditors before they will be able to distribute any of their assets to Noble-Cayman.

Table of Contents

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, Noble-Cayman would have $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of NHIL) on $201.7 million of indebtedness.

In addition to the debt described above, Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility and NHIL and Noble Drilling Corporation have guaranteed any borrowings outstanding under that facility. As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under that facility. Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks, serving as joint lead arranger, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. See “Summary — Proposed New Revolving Credit Facility.”

Optional Redemption

The notes of each series will be redeemable, at our option, at any time or from time to time, in whole or in part, on any date on or after the maturity (the “Redemption Date”) in principal amounts of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof at a price (the “Redemption Price”) equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes of the series being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the Redemption Date), plus a Make-Whole Premium, if any is required to be paid. The Redemption Price will never be less than 100% of the principal amount of the notes of the series being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date.

The amount of the Make-Whole Premium with respect to any note (or portion of a note) to be redeemed will be equal to the greater of any, of:

(i) the sum of the present values, calculated as of the Redemption Date, of:

(A) each interest payment that, but for the redemption, would have been payable on the note (or its portion) being redeemed on each Interest Payment Date occurring after the Redemption Date (excluding any accrued interest for Interest Payment Dates before the Redemption Date); and

(B) the principal amount that, but for the redemption, would have been payable at the final maturity of the note (or its portion) being redeemed;

(ii) the principal amount of the note (or its portion) being redeemed.

The present values of interest and principal payments referred to in clause (i) above will be determined in accordance with generally accepted principles of financial analysis. Those present values will be calculated by discounting the amount of each payment of interest and principal from the date that each payment would have been payable, but for the redemption, to the Redemption Date at a discount rate equal to the Treasury Yield (as defined below) plus 20 basis points in the case of the 2016 notes, 20 basis points in the case of the 2021 notes and 25 basis points in the case of the 2041 notes.

The Make-Whole Premium will be calculated by an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by the Company, provided that if we fail to make such appointment at least 45 business days prior to the Redemption Date, or if the institution is unwilling or unable to make the calculation, such calculation will be made by Barclays Capital Inc. or, if that firm is unwilling or unable to make the calculation, by an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by the trustee (in any such case, “Independent Investment Banker”).

For purposes of determining the Make-Whole Premium, “Treasury Yield” means a rate of interest per annum equal to the average yield to maturity of United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity that corresponds to the remaining term of the applicable series of notes, calculated to the nearest  $\frac{1}{12}$  of a year (the “Remaining Term”). The Treasury Yield will be determined as of the third business day immediately before the applicable Redemption Date.

The weekly average yields of United States Treasury Notes will be determined by referring to the most recent statistical release published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and designated “H.15(519) Selected Interest Rates” or any successor release (“H.15 Statistical Release”). If the H.15 Statistical Release contains a weekly average yield for United States Treasury Notes of a constant maturity that is the same as the Remaining Term, then the Treasury Yield will be equal to that weekly average yield. In other cases, the Treasury Yield will be calculated by interpolation, on a straight-line basis, between the weekly average yields on United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity closest to and greater than the Remaining Term and the United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity closest to and less than the Remaining Term (in each case as set forth in the H.15 Statistical Release). The weekly average yields as calculated by interpolation will be rounded to the nearest  $\frac{1}{100}$ th of 1% with any figure of  $\frac{1}{200}$ % or greater being rounded upward. If weekly average yields for United States Treasury Notes are not available in the H.15 Statistical Release or if the H.15 Statistical Release is not published, then the Treasury Yield will be calculated by interpolation of comparable rates selected by the Independent Investment Banker.

We will mail a notice of redemption at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each holder of notes to be redeemed. If less than all of the notes are to be redeemed, the trustee will select the notes to be redeemed by such method as it shall deem fair and appropriate. The trustee may select for redemption notes and portions of notes in denominations of $2,000 and multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. Unless we default in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date interest will cease to accrue on the notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

Certain Covenants

Limitation on Liens. The indenture provides that Noble-Cayman will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, guarantee any Indebtedness for borrowed money secured by any Lien upon any Principal Property or any shares of stock of any Subsidiary that owns or leases a Principal Property (whether such Principal Property, shares of stock or indebtedness are now or hereafter acquired) without making effective provision whereby the notes (together with, if Noble-Cayman shall so determine, any other Indebtedness or other obligation) shall be secured equally and ratably with (or, at Noble-Cayman’s option, prior to) the Indebtedness secured for so long as such Indebtedness is so secured. The foregoing restrictions do not, however, apply to Indebtedness secured by Permitted Liens.

“Permitted Liens” means (i) Liens existing on the date of original issuance of notes; (ii) Liens on property or assets of, or shares of stock of, or other equity interests in, or indebtedness of, any Person existing at the time such Person becomes a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman or at the time such Person is merged into or consolidated with Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or at the time of the lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of a Person to Noble-Cayman or a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman; (iii) Liens in favor of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries; (iv) Liens in favor of governmental bodies to secure advance payments; (v) Liens securing industrial revenue or pollution control bonds, or similar indebtedness; (vi) Liens on property used or to be used in connection with such property or (b) Indebtedness incurred by Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman prior to or within one year after the later of the acquisition, the completion of construction, alteration, improvement or repair or the commencement of commercial operation thereof, which Indebtedness is incurred for the p financing all or any part of the purchase price thereof or construction or improvements thereon; (vii) statutory liens or landlo warehouseman's, mechanics', suppliers', materialmen's, repairmen's or other like Liens arising in the ordinary course of business and with respect to amounts not yet being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings; (viii) Liens on current assets of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries; (ix) Liens on the stock, partnership or other equity interest of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries in any Joint Venture or any Subsidiary that owns an equity interest in such Joint Venture to the extent of such Indebtedness, provided the amount of such Indebtedness is contributed and/or advanced solely to such Joint Venture; (x) Liens for workers compensation or similar legislation; (xi) Liens in connection with legal proceedings or securing tax assessments, where the case are being contested in good faith; (xii) good faith deposits in connection with bids, tenders, contracts or Liens; (xiii) deposits in connection with maintaining self-insurance, to obtain the benefits of laws, regulations or arrangements relating to unemployment insurance, old age pensions, social security or similar matters or to secure surety, appeal or customs bonds; and (xiv) any extensions, substitutions, replacements or renewals in whole or in part of a Lien enumerated in clauses (i) through (xiii) above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries may, without securing the notes, issue, assume or guarantee secured Indebtedness that would otherwise be subject to the foregoing restrictions in an aggregate principal amount that, together with any other such Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries that would otherwise be subject to the foregoing restrictions (including Indebtedness permitted to be secured under clause (i) under the definition of Permitted Liens but excluding Indebtedness permitted to be secured under clauses (ii) through (xiv) thereunder) and the aggregate amount of Attributable Indebtedness deemed outstanding in respect to Sale/Leaseback Transactions (other than those in connection with which we have voluntarily retired any of the notes), Pari Passu Indebtedness or any Funded Indebtedness pursuant to clause (c) below under the heading "Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions"), does not at any one time exceed 15% of Noble-Cayman's Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions. The indenture provides that Noble-Cayman will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, enter into any Sale/Leaseback Transaction with any person (other than Noble-Cayman or a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman) unless: (a) Noble-Cayman or such Subsidiary would be entitled to incur Indebtedness in a principal amount equal to the Attributable Indebtedness with respect to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction secured by a Lien on the property subject to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction pursuant to the covenant described under "Limitation on Liens" above without equally and ratably securing the notes to such covenant; (b) after the date of the first series of notes issued under the indenture and within a period commencing nine months prior to the consummation of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and ending nine months after the consummation thereof, Noble-Cayman or such Subsidiary shall have expended for property used or to be used in the ordinary course of Noble-Cayman's business and that of its Subsidiaries an amount equal to all or a portion of the net proceeds of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and Noble-Cayman shall have elected to designate such amount as a credit against such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (with any such amount not being so designated being applied as set forth in clause (c) below or as otherwise permitted); or (c) we or Noble-Cayman, during the nine-month period commencing on the effective date of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction, shall have applied to either (i) the voluntary defeasance or retirement of any Pari Passu Indebtedness or any Funded Indebtedness or (ii) the acquisition of one or more Principal Properties at fair value, an amount equal to the greater of the net proceeds of the sale or transfer of the property leased in such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and the net proceeds of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction as determined by the Board of Directors of Noble-Cayman, of such property as of the time of entering into such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (in either case adjusted to reflect the remaining term of the lease and any amount expended by Noble-Cayman as set forth in clause (b) above), less an amount equal to the sum of the principal amount of notes, Pari Passu Indebtedness and Funded Indebtedness voluntarily defeased or retired by us or Noble-Cayman plus any amount expended to acquire any Principal Properties at fair value during such nine-month period and not designated as a credit against any other Sale/Leaseback Transaction entered into by Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries during such period.

Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets. The indenture provides that (a) we will not consolidate or amalgamate with any person, or sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of our properties and assets to any person other than one of our direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries and (b) Noble-Cayman will not consolidate or amalgamate with or merge into any person, or sell, lease, or transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, other than one of its direct or wholly-owned subsidiaries, in each case, unless:

- either (i) we or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, shall be the continuing person or (ii) the person formed by such consolidation, amalgamation or into which we or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, are merged, or the person which acquires, by sale, conveyance, transfer or other disposition, all or substantially all of our or Noble-Cayman's assets, as applicable, shall assume, by a supplemental indenture, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and the performance of our or Noble-Cayman's, as applicable, covenants and obligations under the indenture and the terms of the case of Noble-Cayman, the guarantee, in which case such person would be substituted for us or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, in the indenture with the same effect as if it had been an original party to the indenture;
- immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no default or Event of Default shall have occurred or be continuing or would result therefrom; and
- we or Noble-Cayman deliver to the applicable trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel, each in the form required by the indenture and stating that the transaction and the supplemental indenture comply with the indenture.

Tax Additional Amounts

We will pay any amounts due with respect to payments on the notes without deduction or withholding for any and all present and future withholding taxes, levies, imposts and charges (a "withholding tax") imposed by or for the account of the Cayman Islands or any other jurisdiction in which we are resident for tax purposes or any political subdivision or taxing authority of such jurisdiction (the "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. If such deduction or withholding is at any time required (subject to compliance by you with any relevant administrative requirements) pay you additional amounts as will result in you receiving such amounts as you would have received had no such withholding or deduction been required.

If the Taxing Jurisdiction requires us to deduct or withhold any of these taxes, levies, imposts or charges, we will (subject to compliance by the holder of a note with any relevant administrative requirements) pay these additional amounts in respect of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any) in accordance with the terms of the notes and the indenture. However, we will not pay additional amounts in the following instances:

- if any withholding would not be payable or due but for the fact that (1) the holder of a note (or a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member or shareholder of, the holder, if the holder is an estate, trust, partnership or corporation) is a domiciliary, national or resident of, or engaging in business or maintaining a permanent establishment or being physically present in, the Taxing Jurisdiction or otherwise having some present or former connection with the Taxing Jurisdiction other than the holding of the ownership of the note or the collection of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any), in accordance with the terms of the note and the indenture, or the enforcement of the note or (2) where presentation is required, the note was presented to the holder more than 30 days after the date such payment became due or was provided for, whichever is later;
- if any withholding tax is attributable to any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise, personal property or similar tax, levy, impost or charge;
- if any withholding tax is attributable to any tax, levy, impost or charge that is payable otherwise than by withholding of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any);

e424b5

- if any withholding tax would not have been imposed but for the failure to comply with certification, identification, in documentation or other reporting requirements concerning the nationality, residence, identity or connections with the authority of the holder or beneficial owner of the note, if (A) this compliance is required by statute or by regulation as a precondition to relief or exemption from such withholding tax and (B) at least 30 days prior to the first scheduled payment date for which compliance will be required; Noble-Cayman has notified holders or beneficial owners of notes that they must comply with such certification, identification, information, documentation or other reporting requirements;

- to the extent a holder of a note is entitled to a refund or credit in such Taxing Jurisdiction of amounts required to be withheld in such Taxing Jurisdiction; or
- any combination of the instances described in the preceding bullet points.

With respect to the fifth bullet point listed above, in the absence of evidence satisfactory to us we may conclusively presume that a holder of a note is entitled to a refund or credit of all amounts required to be withheld. We also will not pay any additional amounts to a holder who is a fiduciary or partnership or other than the sole beneficial owner of the note to the extent that a beneficiary or settlor, in respect to such fiduciary, or a member or such partnership or a beneficial owner thereof, would not have been entitled to the payment of such additional amounts had such beneficiary, settlor, member or beneficial owner been the holder of the note.

Noble-Cayman will, with respect to its guarantee of the notes, pay additional amounts, subject to the above requirements and limitations, with respect to any withholding tax imposed by or for the account of any Taxing Jurisdiction with respect to any payments made under the guarantee.

Noble-Cayman will furnish to the trustee documentation reasonably satisfactory to the trustee evidencing the payment of such withholding taxes with respect to payments on the notes. Copies of such receipts will be made available to the holders of the notes and beneficial owners of the notes upon written request.

Events of Default

“Events of Default” means, with respect to the notes, any of the following events:

- failure to pay principal on any notes when due and payable at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise;
- failure to pay any interest on any notes when due and payable and such default continues for 30 days;
- default in the performance or breach of any covenant in the indenture, which default continues uncured for a period of 30 days after we receive written notice from the trustee or we and the trustee receive written notice from the holders of at least 10% of the principal amount of the outstanding notes as provided in the indenture;
- the guarantee of the notes by Noble-Cayman ceases to be in full force and effect or Noble-Cayman denies or disaffirms its obligations under such guarantee;
- certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, as the case may be, involving Noble-Cayman or us; and
- default under any bond, debenture, note or other evidence of Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) by Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or evidenced any Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries resulting in the acceleration of such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness), or any default of such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) (after expiration of any applicable grace periods and payment of any debt instruments, if required), if the aggregate amount of all such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) exceeds the aggregate amount of all such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries.

principal amount of all outstanding notes a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied, stating that such notice is a “Notice of Default” under the indenture.

For purposes of the foregoing, “Non-Recourse Indebtedness” means any of Noble-Cayman’s Indebtedness or any Indebtedness of its Subsidiaries in respect of which (a) the recourse of the holder of such Indebtedness, whether direct or indirect and whether or otherwise, is effectively limited to (i) Liens on specified assets and (ii) in respect of Indebtedness of a Subsidiary, Liens on the Subsidiary acquired after the date of original issuance of the notes, and with respect to such Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman’s Subsidiaries, neither Noble-Cayman nor any of its Subsidiaries (other than the issuer of such Indebtedness) provides any credit support, is otherwise liable or obligated and (b) the occurrence of any event, or the existence of any condition under any agreement or arrangement relating to such Indebtedness, shall not at any time have the effect of accelerating, or permitting the acceleration of, the maturity of, or other Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise permitting any such other Indebtedness to be declared payable, or to be required to be prepaid, purchased or redeemed, prior to the stated maturity thereof (it being understood, for purposes of doubt, that the Indebtedness of the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships and any of their respective Subsidiaries under the credit facilities existing on the date of original issuance of the notes shall constitute Non-Recourse Indebtedness).

The holders of a majority in principal amount of the notes may waive any past default with respect to the notes under the indenture and its consequences, and the holders of a majority in principal amount of all notes of any series outstanding under the indenture may waive on behalf of the holders of all notes of such series outstanding under the indenture any other past default under the indenture and its consequences, except:

- in the case of the payment of the principal of, premium (if any) or interest on any notes; or
- except as described below under the caption “— Amendment, Supplement and Waiver.”

Discharge and Defeasance

The terms of the notes provide that we will be permitted to terminate certain of our obligations and those of Noble-Cayman under the indenture, including the covenants described above under “— Certain Covenants,” pursuant to the indenture’s covenant defeasance provisions only if we deliver to the Trustee an opinion of counsel that covenant defeasance will not cause holders of the notes to recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes.

The terms of the notes also provide for legal defeasance. Legal defeasance is permitted only if we have received from, or have been published by, the United States Internal Revenue Service a ruling to the effect that legal defeasance will not cause holders of the notes to recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

We generally may amend the indenture or the notes and the guarantee with the written consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes affected by the amendment. The holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding securities of (i) any series may also waive our compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to such series of debt securities and (ii) all series may waive our compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to all series of debt securities issued thereunder. We must obtain the consent of each holder of the notes affected by a particular amendment or waiver, however, if such amendment or waiver:

- changes the stated maturity of the notes, or any installment of principal of or interest on any note;

e424b5

- reduces the principal amount of or the interest rate applicable to any note;
- changes any place of payment for any note;
- changes the currency in which the principal, premium, or interest of any note may be repaid;

Table of Contents

- impairs the right of the holder of any note to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment due in respect of any note due on or before the stated maturity;
- reduces the amount of notes whose holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;
- waives any default in the payment of principal of, or premium or interest on, any note due under the indenture; or
- releases Noble-Cayman from any of its obligations under the guarantee or the indenture, except in accordance with the terms of the indenture.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may amend the indenture or the notes without the consent of any holder:

- to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- to comply with the indenture's provisions with respect to successor corporations;
- to comply with any requirements of the SEC to effect or maintain qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939;
- to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any holder of notes in any material respect;
- to issue additional notes as permitted by the indenture; or
- to allow a guarantor to execute a supplemental indenture or a guarantee with respect to the notes.

Definitions

"Attributable Indebtedness," when used with respect to any Sale/Leaseback Transaction, means, as at the time of determination, the present value (discounted at the rate set forth or implicit in the terms of the lease included in such transaction) of the total obligations of the lessee for rental payments (other than amounts required to be paid on account of taxes, maintenance, repairs, insurance, assessments, utilities, operating and labor costs and other items that do not constitute payments for property rights) during the remaining term of the lease included in such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (including any period for which such lease has been extended). In the case of a lease that is terminable by the lessee upon the payment of a penalty, such net amount shall be the lesser of the net amount determined assuming termination upon the first day such lease may be terminated (in which case the net amount shall also include the amount of the penalty) or the net amount determined assuming no such termination. No rent shall be considered as required to be paid under such lease subsequent to the first date upon which it may be so terminated. The net amount determined assuming no such termination.

"Capitalized Lease Obligations" of any Person means the obligations of such Person to pay rent or other amounts under any lease (or other arrangement conveying the right to use) real or personal property, or a combination thereof, which obligations are recorded on the balance sheet of such Person and classified and accounted for as capital leases on a balance sheet of such Person under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, and the amount of such obligations shall be the capitalized amount thereof determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

"Consolidated Net Tangible Assets" means the total amount of assets (less applicable reserves and other properly deductible liabilities) after deducting (1) all current liabilities (excluding the amount of those that are by their terms extendable or renewable at the option of the obligor to a date more than 12 months after the date as of which the amount is being determined and current maturities of long-term debt) and (2) all goodwill, trade names, trademarks, patents, unamortized debt discount and expense and other like intangible assets, as set forth on the most recent quarterly balance sheet of Noble-Cayman and its consolidated Subsidiaries and determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

option of any obligor thereon to, a date more than one year after the date on which such Indebtedness is originally incurred.

“Indebtedness” of any Person means, without duplication, (i) all indebtedness of such Person for borrowed money (whether the recourse of the lender is to the whole of the assets of such Person or only to a portion thereof), (ii) all obligations of such Person by bonds, debentures, notes or other similar instruments, (iii) all obligations of such Person in respect of letters of credit or other instruments (or reimbursement obligations with respect thereto), other than standby letters of credit, performance bonds and other obligations issued by or for the account of such Person in the ordinary course of business, to the extent not drawn or, to the extent such drawing is reimbursed not later than the third business day following demand for reimbursement, (iv) all obligations of such Person to pay the deferred and unpaid purchase price of property or services, except trade payables and accrued expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business, (v) all Capitalized Lease Obligations of such Person, (vi) all Indebtedness of others secured by a Lien on the assets of such Person, whether or not such Indebtedness is assumed by such Person (provided that if the obligations so secured have not been assumed in full by such Person or are not otherwise such Person’s legal liability in full, then such obligations shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the greater of (a) the lesser of (1) the full amount of such obligations and (2) the fair market value of such assets as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of such Person, which determination shall be evidenced by a Board Resolution, and (b) the amount of obligations as have been assumed by such Person or that are otherwise such Person’s legal liability), and (vii) all Indebtedness of others (other than endorsements in the ordinary course of business) guaranteed by such Person to the extent of such guarantee.

“Joint Venture” means any partnership, corporation or other entity in which up to and including 50% of the partnership’s or corporation’s outstanding voting stock or other equity interests is owned, directly or indirectly, by Noble-Cayman and/or one or more Subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman.

“Lien” means any mortgage, pledge, lien, encumbrance, charge or security interest. For purposes of the indenture, Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman shall be deemed to own subject to a Lien any asset that it has acquired or holds subject to a lease from a vendor or lessor under any conditional sale agreement, Capitalized Lease Obligation or other title retention agreement relating to such asset.

“Pari Passu Indebtedness” means any Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman, whether outstanding on the issue date of the indenture or thereafter created, incurred or assumed, unless, in the case of any particular Indebtedness, the instrument creating or evidencing such Indebtedness pursuant to which the same is outstanding expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall be subordinated in right of payment to such Indebtedness or such Indebtedness is otherwise guaranteed.

“Principal Property” means any jackup, semisubmersible, drillship, submersible or other mobile offshore drilling unit, or any portion thereof, owned or leased by Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman and used for drilling offshore oil and gas, which, in the opinion of Noble-Cayman’s Board of Directors, is of material importance to the business of Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, but no such jackup, semisubmersible, drillship, submersible or other mobile offshore drilling unit or portion thereof, shall be deemed of material importance if its net book value (after deducting accumulated depreciation) is less than 2% of the Consolidated Net Tangible Assets of Noble-Cayman and its consolidated Subsidiaries.

“Sale/Leaseback Transaction” means any arrangement with any Person pursuant to which Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman leases any Principal Property that has been or is to be sold or transferred by Noble-Cayman or the Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman, other than (1) temporary leases for a term, including renewals at the option of the lessee, of not more than five years, (2) leases between Noble-Cayman and a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman or between its Subsidiaries, or (3) leases of Principal Property expiring within 12 months after the latest of, the acquisition, the completion of construction, alteration, improvement or repair, or the commencement of commercial operation of the Principal Property.

“Subsidiary” means, with respect to Noble-Cayman at any date, any corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other entity the accounts of which would be consolidated with those of Noble-Cayman in Noble-Cayman’s consolidated financial statements if such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States as of such date, as well as any other corporate liability company, partnership, association or other entity (a) of which securities or other ownership interests representing more than 50% of the equity or more than 50% of the ordinary voting power or, in the case of a partnership, more than 50% of the general partnership interests are, as of such date, owned, controlled or held, or (b) that is, as of such date, otherwise controlled, by Noble-Cayman or any of its more subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman.

Book-Entry, Delivery and Form

The notes of each series initially will be issued in book-entry form and represented by one or more global notes. The global notes will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, or DTC, New York, New York, as Depositary, and registered in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of DTC. Unless and until it is exchanged for individual certificates evidencing notes under the circumstances described below, a global note may not be transferred except as a whole by the Depositary to its nominee or by the Depositary to the Depositary, or by the Depositary or its nominee to a successor Depositary or to a nominee of the successor Depositary.

DTC has advised us that it is:

- a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law;
- a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law;
- a member of the Federal Reserve System;
- a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code; and
- a “clearing agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act.

DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the settlement among its participants of securities transactions, including transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in participants' accounts, which eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. “Direct participants” in DTC include securities brokers and dealers, including underwriters, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and other organizations. DTC is owned by a number of its direct participants and by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange, Inc. and the Financial Regulatory Authority Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others, which we sometimes refer to as “indirect participants.” Indirect participants clear transactions through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant either directly or indirectly. The rules and regulations of DTC and its participants are on file with the SEC.

Purchases of notes within the DTC system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a credit for their purchases on DTC's records. The ownership interest of the actual purchaser of a note, which we sometimes refer to as a “beneficial owner,” will be recorded on the direct and indirect participants' records. Beneficial owners of notes will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchases. However, beneficial owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of their transactions from the direct participants. Periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participants through which they purchased notes. Transfers of ownership interests in global notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the global notes except under the limited circumstances described below.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all global notes deposited with DTC will be registered in the name of DTC's nominee, Cede & Co. The deposit of notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. will not change the beneficial ownership of the notes.

has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the notes. DTC's records reflect only the identity of the direct participants whose accounts the notes are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The participants are responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Table of Contents

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to direct participants, by direct participants to indirect participants and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any requirements in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices will be sent to DTC or its nominee. If less than all of the notes are being redeemed, DTC will determine the amount of the interest of each direct participant in the notes to be redeemed in accordance with DTC's procedures.

In any case where a vote may be required with respect to the notes, neither DTC nor Cede & Co. will give consents for global notes. Under its usual procedures, DTC will mail an omnibus proxy to us as soon as possible after the record date. The proxy assigns the consenting or voting rights of Cede & Co. to those direct participants to whose accounts the notes are credited on the record date identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy.

Principal and interest payments on the notes will be made to Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts on the relevant payment date unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payment on the payment date. Payments by direct and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practice, in the case with securities held for the account of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name." Those payments will be the responsibility of participants and not of DTC or us, subject to any legal requirements in effect from time to time. Payment of interest to Cede & Co. is our responsibility, disbursement of payments to direct participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of payments to the beneficial owners is the responsibility of direct and indirect participants.

Except under the limited circumstances described below, purchasers of notes will not be entitled to have notes registered in their names and will not receive physical delivery of notes. Accordingly, each beneficial owner must rely on the procedures of DTC and direct participants to exercise any rights under the notes and the indenture.

The laws of some jurisdictions may require that some purchasers of securities take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Those laws may impair the ability to transfer or pledge beneficial interests in notes.

DTC is under no obligation to provide its services as Depositary for the notes and may discontinue providing its services at any time. Neither we nor the trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC or its direct participants or indirect participants of the rules and procedures governing DTC.

As noted above, beneficial owners of notes generally will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the notes. However, if:

- DTC notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a Depositary for the global notes or if DTC ceases to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act at a time when it is required to be registered and a successor Depositary is not identified within 90 days of the notification to us or of our becoming aware of DTC's ceasing to be so registered, as the case may be;
- we determine, in our sole discretion, not to have the notes represented by one or more global notes; or
- an Event of Default, as defined above under the caption "— Events of Default," under the indenture has occurred and we have not received a waiver with respect to the notes, we will prepare and deliver certificates for the notes in exchange for beneficial interests in the global notes. Any beneficial interest in a global note that is exchangeable under the circumstances described in the preceding sentence will be exchangeable for notes in certificated form registered in the names that the Depositary directs. It is expected that these directions will be based upon directions received by the Depositary from its participants with respect to ownership of beneficial interests in the global notes.

We obtained the information in this section and elsewhere in this prospectus supplement concerning DTC and DTC's b system from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy of this information.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes. This discussion is limited to holders of notes that purchase notes in the initial offering at their issue price (i.e., the first price at which a substantial number of notes are sold for cash to persons other than bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of placement agents or wholesalers) and that hold such notes as capital assets. The term “holder” means either a U.S. holder (as defined below) or a non-U.S. holder (as defined below) or both, as the context may require.

This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances. For example, this discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of notes that are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as:

- dealers or traders in securities or foreign currency;
- tax-exempt entities;
- banks, thrifts, insurance companies, and other financial institutions;
- regulated investment companies;
- mutual funds;
- real estate investment trusts;
- persons that hold the notes as part of a “straddle,” a “hedge,” a “conversion transaction” or other integrated transaction;
- U.S. holders that have a “functional currency” other than the U.S. dollar;
- holders subject to the alternative minimum tax;
- pass-through entities (e.g., S corporations, partnerships or grantor trusts) and simple trusts and investors who hold the notes through such entities;
- certain former citizens or residents of the United States;
- U.S. holders that, at any time, are treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as owning 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of Noble-Cayman or of any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- non-U.S. holders that, at any time, are treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as owning 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of Noble-Cayman or of any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes or 10% or more of the capital or profits interest in any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and
- non-U.S. holders that are controlled foreign corporations that are related to Noble-Cayman or any of its subsidiaries, as defined in the meaning of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”).

Moreover, this discussion does not address any aspect of non-income taxation, any state, local or foreign taxation or the tax treaty. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of an investment in the notes arising under income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, rulings and judicial decisions as of the date hereof. Those authorities may be changed, possibly with effect, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below. We have not sought and any rulings or opinions from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or counsel regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not take, or that a court will not sustain, positions concerning the tax consequences of a position in the notes that are different from those discussed below.

If you are an organization that is a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes or a partner in such organization, you should consult with your own tax advisor as to the U.S. federal tax considerations that are applicable to you.

THIS DISCUSSION IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR FOR AN ANALYSIS OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU IN LIGHT OF YOUR PARTICULAR FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES AND ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY.

Consequences to U.S. Holders

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to a U.S. holder of notes. “U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of a note that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:

- an individual citizen or resident alien of the United States;
- a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons exercise authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

Stated Interest

It is expected that the notes will be issued without original issue discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, interest paid or accrued on the notes will generally be taxable to a U.S. holder as ordinary income in accordance with the U.S. method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Source of Interest Income

Under the present ownership structure of the Noble-Cayman group, the source of interest income on the notes depends on the activities of a partnership within the Noble group that owns NHIL. Noble-Cayman presently intends to structure the activities of the partnership in such a manner that interest income on the notes will be foreign source income for foreign tax credit and other purposes. However, there can be no assurance that Noble-Cayman will be successful in doing so or that the circumstances will remain the same.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Notes

A U.S. holder will generally recognize capital gain or loss on the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note (including the redemption or retirement of a note) in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount realized on such disposition (including amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be taxed as described under “— Stated Interest” above), and (ii) the

e424b5

U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the note. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in a note will generally be equal to the amount of the note reduced by any payments (excluding stated interest) received with respect to the note through the date of disposition.

Any such capital gain or loss on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note as described in the foregoing paragraph generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period with respect to such note is more than one year. Long-term capital gain recognized by non-corporate U.S. holders is generally reduced rates of taxation. The ability to deduct capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

U.S. holders of notes may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on payments of interest and principal on the gross proceeds from dispositions of, notes. If you are a U.S. holder, backup withholding applies only if you:

- fail to furnish timely your social security or other taxpayer identification number;
- furnish an incorrect taxpayer identification number;
- have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding for failure to report properly interest or dividends;
- fail, under certain circumstances, to provide a certified statement, signed under penalties of perjury, that the taxpayer identification number provided is your correct number and that you are not subject to backup withholding;

and you fail to otherwise establish your entitlement to an exemption from backup withholding.

A U.S. holder may be eligible for an exemption from backup withholding by providing a properly completed IRS Form W-9 to our paying agent. Any amount withheld from a payment under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Certain persons are exempt from information reporting and backup withholding, including financial institutions. You should consult your tax advisor as to your qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining and establishing an exemption.

Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to a non-U.S. holder of notes. “non-U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of a note (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. holder.

Stated Interest

As discussed above, Noble-Cayman presently intends to structure the relevant activities of the Noble-Cayman group in such a way that interest income on the notes will be foreign source income. See “— Consequences to U.S. Holders — Source of Interest Income” for a discussion of the consequences to U.S. holders of interest income on the notes. As long as interest income on the notes is foreign source income, and subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, a non-U.S. holder will generally not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax or income tax in respect of interest income on the notes. However, if the non-U.S. holder has an office or other fixed place of business in the United States to which the interest is attributable and effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder’s conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may, in our discretion, request non-U.S. holders to establish that they are eligible for the “portfolio interest” exemption from withholding tax. A non-U.S. holder could generally establish eligibility for this exemption by certifying to us or certain intermediaries on IRS Form W-8BEN that the holder is not a U.S. person. If a non-U.S. holder is required to establish eligibility for an exemption from withholding tax, then payments of interest to that holder may be subject to withholding tax at the 30% statutory rate.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Notes

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, any gain realized by a non-U.S. holder upon the sale, exchange or taxable disposition of a note will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax or income tax unless:

- that gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment); or
- the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other conditions are met.

However, to the extent that the proceeds of the disposition represent accrued interest, a non-U.S. holder may be requested to pay an exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax. See “— Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders — Stated Interest.”

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Non-U.S. holders of notes should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of information reporting and backup withholding in their particular situations, the availability of an exemption, and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption. Any amount withheld from a payment to a non-U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowable as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Recently Enacted Legislation

Under recently enacted legislation, an individual that holds notes will be required in some cases to report such ownership information on their individual's U.S. federal income tax return. Investors should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of the recently enacted legislation on their investment in the notes.

CAYMAN ISLANDS TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the notes. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It is not intended as tax advice, does not take into account any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws, payments of interest and principal on the notes will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands, withholding will not be required on the payment of interest and principal to any holder of the notes and gains derived from the disposal of the notes will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no inheritance tax, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax. No stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue of the notes. The notes themselves and an instrument of transfer in respect of a note will be subject to stamp duty if executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands. There will be no Cayman Islands tax consequences with respect to holding notes or exchanging outstanding notes, except that, if the notes are taken into the Cayman Islands in original form, they will be subject to stamp duty in the amount of one quarter of one percent of the face value thereof, subject to a maximum of CI$250.00 per note.

UNDERWRITING

NHIL, Noble-Cayman and the underwriters for the offering named below, for whom Barclays Capital Inc., Wells Fargo LLC and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are acting as the representatives, have entered into an underwriting agreement with the notes. Subject to certain conditions, NHIL has agreed to sell and each underwriter has severally agreed to purchase the principal amounts of notes indicated in the following table.

Underwriters	Principal Amount of 2016 Notes	Principal Amount of 2021 Notes	Principal Amount of 2041 Notes
Barclays Capital Inc.	$ 90,000,000	$120,000,000	$120,000,000
Wells Fargo Securities, LLC	$ 60,000,000	$ 80,000,000	$ 80,000,000
SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc.	$ 45,000,000	$ 60,000,000	$ 60,000,000
HSBC Securities (USA) Inc.	$ 30,000,000	$ 40,000,000	$ 40,000,000
Goldman, Sachs & Co.	$ 18,000,000	$ 24,000,000	$ 24,000,000
Mitsubishi UFJ Securities (USA), Inc.	$ 18,000,000	$ 24,000,000	$ 24,000,000
BNP Paribas Securities Corp.	$ 18,000,000	$ 24,000,000	$ 24,000,000
DnB NOR Markets, Inc.	$ 15,000,000	$ 20,000,000	$ 20,000,000
Citigroup Global Markets Inc.	$ 6,000,000	$ 8,000,000	$ 8,000,000
Total	$300,000,000	$400,000,000	$400,000,000

The underwriters have agreed to purchase all of the notes sold under the underwriting agreement, if any of the notes are not sold. The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the several underwriters to purchase the notes offered by this prospectus supplement are subject to the approval of specified legal matters by their counsel and several other specified conditions. If any of the conditions defaults, the underwriting agreement provides that the purchase commitments of the non-defaulting underwriters may be increased. The underwriting agreement may be terminated.

The underwriters have advised us that they propose to offer the notes of each series offered by this prospectus supplement to the public at the initial public offering price set forth on the cover of this prospectus supplement and may offer the notes to certain dealers at such price less a concession not in excess of 0.35% of the principal amount in the case of the 2016 notes, 0.40% of the principal amount in the case of the 2021 notes and 0.50% of the principal amount in the case of the 2041 notes. The underwriters may also offer the notes to such dealers may reallow, a concession not in excess of 0.25% of the principal amount of the notes of each series on sales to other brokers and dealers. After the initial offering of the notes, the underwriters may change the offering price and the other selling terms of the offering of the notes by the underwriters is subject to receipt and acceptance and subject to the underwriters' right to reject any order in whole or in part.

The following table shows the underwriting discounts and commissions that we will pay to the underwriters in connection with the offering of notes (expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the notes):

Per 2016 Note
Per 2021 Note
Per 2041 Note

e424b5

We estimate that our share of the total expenses of this offering, excluding underwriting discounts and commissions, will be approximately $2.1 million.

Each series of the notes is a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The underwriters have informed us that they may make a market in the notes from time to time. The underwriters are not obligated to do this, and they may discontinue their making for the notes at any time without notice. Therefore, no assurance can be given concerning the liquidity of the trading market for the notes or that an active market for the notes will develop. We do not intend to apply for listing of the notes on any securities exchange or automated quotation system.

In connection with the offering of the notes, the underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise support the price of the notes. Specifically, the underwriters may sell a greater number of notes than they are required to purchase in connection with the offering of the notes, creating a syndicate short position. In addition, the underwriters may bid for, and purchase, notes in the market to cover syndicate short positions or to stabilize the price of the notes. Finally, the underwriting syndicate may reclaim certain concessions allowed for distributing the notes in the offering of the notes, if the syndicate repurchases previously distributed notes in connection with syndicate covering transactions, stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the price of the notes above independent market levels. Neither we nor any of the underwriters make any representations or predictions as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of the notes. The underwriters are not required to engage in any of these transactions and may end any of them at any time.

The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the representatives have repurchased notes sold by or for the account of such underwriter in connection with stabilizing or short-covering transactions.

NHIL and Noble-Cayman have agreed to indemnify the several underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or contribute to payments that each underwriter may be required to make in respect thereof.

In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, the underwriters and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in other investment banking or commercial banking transactions with Noble-Swiss, Noble-Cayman and their affiliates, for which they have received or will receive customary fees and commissions. Affiliates of all of the underwriters are lenders under Noble-Cayman's revolving credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. Affiliates of DnB NOR Bank ASA, Inc. and Mitsubishi UFJ Securities (USA), Inc. are lenders under the Bully I credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering upon repayment of such facility. An affiliate of HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. is a lender under the Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering upon repayment of such facility. Barclays Capital Inc., Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. are expected to serve as joint lead arrangers for Noble-Cayman's new revolving credit facility, for which they will receive customary fees.

No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction other than in the United States that would permit a public offering of the notes or the possession, circulation or distribution of any material relating to us in any jurisdiction where action for such purpose is prohibited. Accordingly, the notes may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, nor may any offering material or advertisement in connection with the notes (including this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and any amendment or supplement hereto) be distributed or published, in or from any country or jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with applicable rules and regulations of any such country or jurisdiction.

Selling Restrictions

European Economic Area

In relation to each member state of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each a "Relevant Member State"), from and including the date on which the European Union Prospectus Directive (the "EU Prospectus Directive") was implemented in that Relevant Member State (the "Relevant Implementation Date") an offer of notes may not be made to the public in the Relevant Member State prior to the publication of a prospectus in relation to the notes which has been approved by the competent

About This Prospectus

As used in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement:

- “Noble-Cayman,” “we,” “our,” and “us” generally mean Noble Corporation, a Cayman Islands exempted company with limited liability, together with its consolidated subsidiaries, unless the context otherwise requires, such as in the sections providing a description of the securities offered in this prospectus or describing the risk factors relating to the securities offered in this prospectus;
- “NHIL” means Noble Holding International Limited, a Cayman Islands exempted company and a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Noble-Cayman; and
- “issuer” means Noble-Cayman or NHIL, as the case may be, and “issuers” refers collectively to Noble-Cayman and NHIL.

Each of the issuers is a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss. Noble-Swiss will not be an issuer under the Securities Act in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement.

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that the issuers have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC in this prospectus) utilizing a “shelf” registration process. Under this shelf process, the issuers may offer and sell the securities as described in this prospectus in one or more offerings.

This prospectus provides you with a general description of the securities that may be offered. Each time securities are sold, a prospectus supplement will be provided and, if applicable, a free writing prospectus that will contain specific information about that offering and the securities offered in that offering. The prospectus supplement and, if applicable, any free writing prospectus may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. You should read this prospectus, the prospectus supplement and any free writing prospectus, together with the additional information contained in the documents referred to under the “Where You Can Find More Information” section of this prospectus.

You should rely only on the information contained in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement or free writing prospectus provided in connection with an offering. None of the issuers has authorized anyone else to provide you with different information. The issuers are not making any offer of securities in any jurisdiction where the offer is not permitted. The information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement and free writing prospectus provided in connection with an offering is accurate only as of the respective dates. The information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, or, in the case of information incorporated by reference, only as of the date of such information, regardless of the time of this prospectus, an accompanying prospectus supplement or any free writing prospectus. The business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the issuers may have changed since such dates.

Where You Can Find More Information

Noble-Cayman is subject to the informational requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the U.S. Exchange Act in this prospectus), and in accordance therewith files annual, quarterly and current reports with the SEC. You may read and copy any reports, statements or other information we file with the SEC at its public reference room at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the public reference room. The SEC's reports on Noble-Cayman are also available to the public from commercial document retrieval services and at the worldwide web site maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The issuers have filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-3 relating to the securities covered by this prospectus. This prospectus is a part of the registration statement and does not contain all the information in the registration statement. Whenever reference is made in this prospectus to a contract or other document of Noble-Cayman or one of its subsidiaries, the reference is to the summary and you should refer to the exhibits that are a part of the registration statement for a copy of the contract or other document. You may review a copy of the registration statement at the SEC's public reference room in Washington, D.C., as well as through the SEC's website.

Incorporation of Certain Information By Reference

The SEC allows information to be "incorporated by reference" into this prospectus, which means that important information is disclosed to you by referring you to another document filed separately with the SEC. The information incorporated by reference is to be part of this prospectus, except for any information superseded by information in this prospectus. This prospectus incorporates by reference the documents set forth below that Noble-Cayman previously filed with the SEC. These documents contain important information about Noble-Cayman and the other issuer.

- Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, filed on February 26, 2010;
- Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2010, filed on May 7, 2010;
- Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010, filed on August 9, 2010;
- Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, filed on November 9, 2010; and
- Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on June 28, 2010 (excluding Item 7.01 and related Exhibit 99.1), July 21, 2010, July 26, 2010, August 2, 2010 (excluding Item 7.01 and related Exhibit 99.1), January 18, 2011 (excluding Items 7.01 and 7.02) and January 31, 2011.

All additional documents that Noble-Cayman files with the SEC under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the U.S. Exchange Act (other than, in each case, documents or information deemed to have been furnished and not filed in accordance with SEC rules) specifically incorporated in any prospectus supplement) will be incorporated by reference until the offering or offerings to which the prospectus relates are completed.

Documents incorporated by reference are available from Noble-Cayman without charge, excluding exhibits unless an exhibit has been specifically incorporated by reference in this prospectus. You may obtain without charge a copy of documents that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus by requesting them in writing or by telephone at the following address:

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement include or incorporate by reference “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the U.S. Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements other than statements of historical facts included in this prospectus or an accompanying prospectus supplement or documents incorporated by reference regarding the benefits, effects, results, timing and integration of acquisitions, financial performance, business strategy, backlog, completion and acceptance of newbuild rigs, contract commitments, dayrates, contract commencement, extensions or renewals, contract tenders, the outcome of any dispute, litigation, investigation or indemnity claim, plans and operations management for future operations, foreign currency requirements, results of joint ventures, construction of rigs, industry conditions, including the effect of disruptions of drilling in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, future U.S. regulations relating to offshore drilling for natural gas and possible implications in other jurisdictions, access to financing, taxes and tax rates, advantages of our worldwide operations, restructuring, indebtedness covenant compliance, possible amendments to credit facilities or resolution of issues under such facilities, and timing for compliance with any new regulations are forward-looking statements.

When used in this prospectus or an accompanying prospectus supplement or in the documents incorporated by reference, “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “project,” “should” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Although the issuers believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they cannot assure you that such expectations will prove to be correct. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of the document in which they appear and the issuers undertake no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statement for any reason, except as required by law. The issuers have identified factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those included in any forward-looking statements. These factors include those referenced or discussed under “Risk Factors” in the Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Noble-Cayman, and in its other filings with the SEC, among others. Such risks and uncertainties are beyond the ability of the issuers to control, and in many cases, the issuers cannot predict the risks and uncertainties that could cause their actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. You should consider these risks and uncertainties when you are evaluating the issuers and deciding whether to purchase any issuer’s securities.

About Noble-Cayman

Noble-Cayman is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss. Noble-Swiss, which is publicly traded and whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “NE”, is a leading offshore drilling contractor for the oil and gas industry. Noble-Cayman is a holding company, and, through its subsidiaries, it performs contract drilling services with a fleet of offshore drilling units located worldwide, including in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, Brazil and West Africa and Asian Pacific.

In March 2009, we completed a series of transactions that effectively changed the place of incorporation of our parent holding company from the Cayman Islands to Switzerland. As a result of these transactions, Noble-Cayman, the previous publicly traded parent holding company, became a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, the current publicly traded parent holding company.

Noble Drilling Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Noble Drilling”) and a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Noble-Swiss and Noble-Cayman, and its predecessors have been engaged in the contract drilling of oil and gas for others in the United States and internationally during various periods since 1939. Noble-Cayman became the successor to Noble Drilling as part of the 2009 corporate restructuring of Noble Drilling and its subsidiaries. Noble-Cayman’s principal executive offices are located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Georgetown, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 938-0293.

About NHIL

NHIL is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Cayman. NHIL performs, through its subsidiaries, worldwide contract drilling services with a fleet of offshore drilling units located primarily in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, Brazil and West Africa. NHIL was organized in the Cayman Islands in 2004. NHIL’s principal executive offices are located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Georgetown, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 938-0293.

Risk Factors

Before you invest in the securities registered under this prospectus, you should carefully consider the “Risk Factors” in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K, subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and any applicable prospectus supplement. The risks described in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and cautionary statements regarding forward-looking statements included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, together with all of the other information included in this prospectus, the applicable prospectus supplement and the documents we incorporate by reference.

If any of these risks were to materialize, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected. In that case, the ability of any issuer to pay interest on, or principal of, any debt securities issued by it, may be affected and the trading prices of any publicly traded securities of the issuers could decline and you could lose all or part of your investment.

Use of Proceeds

We intend to use the net proceeds from the sales of securities as set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges

Our ratio of earnings to fixed charges for each of the periods indicated is as follows:

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2010	Twelve Months Ended December 31,
	2009	2008	2007	2006
13.6	30.9	34.8	22.7	16.7

For the purpose of calculating these ratios, “earnings” is determined by adding “total fixed charges” (excluding interest on noncontrolling interest in net income (or reduction for noncontrolling interest in loss) and amortization of interest capitalized from continuing operations after eliminating equity in undistributed earnings and adding back losses of companies in which a 20 percent but less than 50 percent equity is owned. For this purpose, “total fixed charges” consists of (1) interest on all indebtedness, (2) amortization of debt discount and expense, (2) interest capitalized and (3) an interest factor attributable to rentals.

Description of Debt Securities

The following description of debt securities, together with the particular terms of the debt securities offered that will be in the prospectus supplement relating to such debt securities, sets forth the material terms and provisions of debt securities to be issued by the issuer. The term “issuer,” as used in this section, means the issuer that is listed as the issuer of debt securities in the applicable prospectus supplement relating to the relevant debt securities.

Each issuer may issue debt securities in one or more distinct series. The debt securities may be senior obligations issued in one or more series under a senior indenture between an issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, or subordinated obligations issued in one or more series under a subordinated indenture between an issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee.

The debt securities of Noble-Cayman may be guaranteed by NHIL. The debt securities of NHIL will be guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The specific terms of these sales will be provided in supplements to this prospectus.

We have summarized material provisions of the indentures below. The forms of the indentures listed above have been filed as exhibits to the registration statement, and you should read the indentures for provisions that may be important to you. The following description is qualified in all respects by reference to the actual text of the indentures and the forms of the debt securities.

General

A prospectus supplement and a supplemental indenture relating to any series of debt securities being offered will include the terms relating to the offering. These terms will include some or all of the following:

- the issuer of the debt securities;
- the guarantor of the debt securities, if any;
- the title of the debt securities of the series and whether the series is senior secured or senior unsecured debt securities or junior subordinated debt securities;
- any limit on the aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of the series;
- the person to whom any interest on a debt security shall be payable, if other than the person in whose name that debt security is registered on the regular record date;
- the date or dates on which the principal and premium, if any, of the debt securities of the series are payable or the method of determining or the right to defer any interest payments;
- the rate or rates (which may be fixed or variable) at which the debt securities will bear interest, if any, or the method of determining the rate or rates;
- the date or dates from which interest will accrue and the interest payment dates on which any such interest will be payable, or the method by which the dates will be determined;
- the regular record date for any interest payable on any interest payment date and the basis upon which interest will be calculated, other than that of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months;

e424b5

- the place or places where the principal of and premium, if any, and any interest on the debt securities of the series will be paid, if other than the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York;
- the period or periods within which, the date or dates on which, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions upon which the debt securities of the series may be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the issuer's option or otherwise;
- the issuer's obligation, if any, to redeem, purchase or repay the debt securities of the series pursuant to any sinking fund payment, otherwise or at the option of the holders and the period or periods within which, the price or prices at which, the currencies including currency unit or units in which and the terms and conditions upon which, the debt securities will be purchased or repaid, in whole or in part;

e424b5

Table of Contents

- the denominations in which any debt securities will be issuable, if other than denominations of $1,000 and any integral multiple thereof;
- the currency in which payment of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on debt securities of the series shall be made, other than United States dollars;
- any index, formula or other method used to determine the amount of payments of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the debt securities;
- if the principal amount payable at the stated maturity of debt securities of the series will not be determinable as of any date prior to the stated maturity, the amount that will be deemed to be the principal amount as of any date for any purpose, including the principal amount that will be due and payable upon any maturity other than the stated maturity or that will be outstanding as of any date (or, in any such case, the manner in which the deemed principal amount is to be determined, if necessary, the manner of determining the equivalent thereof in United States currency);
- if the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on any debt securities is to be payable, at the issuer's election or the election of the holders, in one or more currencies or currency units other than that or those in which such debt securities are stated to be payable, the currency, currencies or currency units in which payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on debt securities shall be payable, and the periods within which and the terms and conditions upon which such election shall be exercisable;
- if other than the stated principal amount, the portion of the principal amount of the debt securities that will be payable in the event of a declaration of the acceleration of the maturity of the debt securities or provable in bankruptcy;
- the applicability of, and any addition to or change in, the covenants and definitions then set forth in the applicable indenture and the terms then set forth in such indenture relating to permitted consolidations, mergers or sales of assets;
- any changes or additions to the provisions of the applicable indenture dealing with defeasance, including the addition of any covenants that may be subject to the issuer's covenant defeasance option;
- whether any of the debt securities are to be issuable in permanent global form and, if so, the depositary or depositaries, the global security and the terms and conditions, if any, upon which interests in such debt securities in global form may be held in whole or in part, for the individual debt securities represented thereby in definitive registered form, and the form of the global security or legends to be borne by the global security in addition to or in lieu of the legend referred to in the applicable indenture;
- the appointment of any trustee, any authenticating or paying agents, transfer agent or registrars;
- the terms of any guarantee of the payment of principal, interest and premium, if any, with respect to debt securities of the series and any corresponding changes to the provisions of the applicable indenture;
- any addition to or change in the events of default with respect to the debt securities of the series and any change in the authority of the trustee or the holders to declare the principal, premium, if any, and interest with respect to the debt securities due and payable;
- any applicable subordination provisions for any subordinated debt securities in addition to or in lieu of those set forth in the prospectus;
- if the securities of the series are to be secured, the property covered by the security interest, the priority of the security interest, the method of perfecting the security interest and any escrow arrangements related to the security interest; and

- any other terms of the debt securities, including any restrictive covenants.

None of the indentures limits the amount of debt securities that may be issued. Each indenture allows debt securities to be issued up to the principal amount that may be authorized by the issuer and may be in any currency or currency unit designated by the issuer.

e424b5

Table of Contents

The debt securities may be issued as discounted debt securities bearing no interest (or interest at a rate that at the time of issue is below market rates) to be sold at a discount below their stated principal amount.

Federal income tax consequences and other special considerations applicable to any of these discounted debt securities are described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Debt securities of a series may be issued in registered, bearer, coupon or global form.

In the future we or one or more of our subsidiaries may also issue debt securities other than the debt securities described in this prospectus. There is no requirement that any other debt securities that we or our subsidiaries issue be issued under the indenture described in this prospectus. Any other debt securities that we or our subsidiaries issue may be issued under other indentures or instruments containing provisions that differ from those included in the indentures or that are applicable to one or more issues of debt securities described in this prospectus.

Guarantee

The debt securities of Noble-Cayman may be guaranteed by NHIL. The debt securities of NHIL will be guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The specific terms and provisions of each guarantee will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Subordination

Under each subordinated indenture, payment of the principal of and interest and any premium on the subordinated debt securities will generally be subordinated and junior in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all the issuer's senior indebtedness. Each subordinated indenture provides that no payment of principal, interest and any premium on subordinated debt securities may be made in the event:

- of any insolvency, bankruptcy or similar proceeding involving the issuer or its respective property, or
- of any event of default in the payment of any principal of, or premium or interest on, any senior indebtedness of the issuer due or payable, whether at maturity or at a date fixed for prepayment or by declaration or otherwise unless and until the default has been cured or waived or otherwise ceased to exist.

The subordinated indentures will not limit the amount of senior indebtedness that the issuers may incur.

"Senior indebtedness" is defined with respect to an issuer to include (i) all notes or other unsecured evidences of indebtedness including guarantees given by the issuer, for money borrowed by the issuer, not expressed to be subordinate or junior in right of payment to any other indebtedness of the issuer, and (ii) any modifications, refunding, deferrals, renewals or extensions of any such note or evidence of indebtedness issued in exchange for such indebtedness.

Amalgamation, Consolidation, Merger or Sale

Unless otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement with respect to any series of debt securities, each indenture provides that the issuer will not, in any transaction or series of transactions, consolidate or amalgamate with or merge into any other entity, sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its assets to any person, other than a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary, unless:

e424b5

- either (i) the issuer shall be the continuing corporation or (ii) the person formed by such consolidation or amalgamation which the issuer is merged, or to which such sale, lease, conveyance, transfer or other disposition shall be made, shall assume, by a supplemental indenture, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the debt securities and additional amounts with respect to all the debt securities and the performance of the issuer's covenants and obligations under the indenture and the debt securities;
- immediately after giving effect to the transaction or series of transactions, no default or event of default shall have occurred or be continuing or would result from the transaction; and

Table of Contents

- the issuer delivers to the applicable trustee an officer's certificate and an opinion of counsel, each stating that the transaction complies with the supplemental indenture and the supplemental indenture comply with the indenture.

Modification of Indentures

Under each indenture, the rights and obligations of the issuer and the rights of the holders may be modified with the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of each series affected by the modification. The modification may include the modification of the principal or interest payment terms, and no modification reducing the percentage required for modification shall be effective against any holder without its consent.

The issuer under an indenture generally may amend the indenture or the debt securities issued under the indenture with the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities affected by the amendment. The holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of (i) any series may also waive the issuer's compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to such series of debt securities and (ii) all series may waive the issuer's compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to all series of debt securities thereunder. The issuer under an indenture must obtain the consent of each holder of debt securities affected by a particular amendment or waiver, however, if such amendment or waiver:

- changes the stated maturity of such debt securities, or any installment of principal of or interest on, any such debt securities;
- reduces the principal amount of or the interest rate applicable to any such debt securities;
- changes any place of payment for any such debt securities;
- changes the currency in which the principal, premium, or interest of any such debt securities may be repaid;
- impairs the right of the holder of any such debt securities to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment due in respect of such debt securities on or after stated maturity;
- reduces the amount of such debt securities whose holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver; or
- waives any default in the payment of principal of, or premium or interest on, any such debt securities due under the indenture.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the issuer under an indenture may amend either the indenture or any series of debt securities issued under the indenture without the consent of any holder thereof:

- to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- to comply with the indenture's provisions with respect to successor corporations;
- to comply with any requirements of the SEC to effect or maintain qualification under the U.S. Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended;
- to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any holder of such debt securities in any material respect;
- to issue additional debt securities as permitted by the indenture.

Events of Default

e424b5

- “Event of Default” when used in an indenture will mean any of the following:
  - failure to pay the principal of or any premium on any debt security when due;
  - failure to deposit any sinking fund payment when due;
  - failure to pay interest on any debt security for 30 days;

Table of Contents

- failure to perform any other covenant in the indenture that continues for 90 days after being given written notice from the trustee or the issuer and the trustee receive notice from the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of such outstanding securities as provided in the indenture;
- certain events in bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, as the case may be;
- failure to keep any applicable full and unconditional guarantee in place; or
- any other Event of Default included in any indenture or supplemental indenture.

An Event of Default for a particular series of debt securities issued under an indenture does not necessarily constitute an Event of Default for any other series of debt securities issued under the indenture. The trustee may withhold notice to the holders of debt securities of any default (except in the payment of principal or interest) if it considers such withholding of notice to be in the best interests of the holders.

If an Event of Default for any series of debt securities issued under an indenture occurs and continues, the trustee or the issuer, if the trustee is not the issuer, may declare the entire principal amount of the debt securities of the series affected by such Event of Default, or of all series of debt securities if the Event of Default is a result of failure to perform any covenant in the indenture, may declare the entire principal amount of the debt securities of that series to be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default occurs that is a result of certain events in bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, as the case may be, the principal amount of the outstanding securities of all series issued under an indenture ipso facto shall become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the trustee or the issuer. If any of the above happens, subject to certain conditions, the holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of that series can void the declaration.

The holders of a majority in principal amount of the debt securities of any series issued under an indenture may waive a default with respect to such debt securities under the indenture and its consequences, except:

- in the case of the payment of the principal of, or premium (if any) or interest on, such debt securities; or
- except as described in this prospectus under the caption “— Amendment, Supplement and Waiver.”

Other than its duties in case of a default, a trustee is not obligated to exercise any of its rights or powers under any indenture at the request, order or direction of any holders, unless the holders offer the trustee reasonable indemnity. If they provide this reasonable indemnification, the holders of a majority in principal amount of any series of debt securities issued under an indenture may cause the trustee to take any method and place of conducting any proceeding or any remedy available to the trustee, or exercising any power conferred upon the trustee for such series of debt securities.

Covenants

Under each indenture, the issuer will:

- pay the principal of, and interest and any premium on, any debt securities issued under the indenture when due;
- maintain a place of payment;
- deliver a report to the trustee at the end of each fiscal year reviewing the issuer’s obligations under the indenture; and

e424b5

- deposit sufficient funds with any paying agent on or before the due date for any principal, interest or premium.

Payment and Transfer

Principal of and interest and any premium on fully registered securities will be paid at designated places. Payment will be made by check mailed to the persons in whose names the debt securities issued under an indenture are registered on days specified in the prospectus or any prospectus supplement. Debt securities payments in other forms will be paid at a place designated by the issuer and specified in the prospectus supplement.

Fully registered securities may be transferred or exchanged at the corporate trust office of the trustee or at any other office maintained by us for such purposes, without the payment of any service charge except for any tax or governmental charge.

Book-Entry Procedures

We will issue the debt securities in the form of one or more global securities in fully registered form initially in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of The Depository Trust Company (or DTC), or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The global securities will be deposited with the trustee as custodian for DTC and may not be transferred except as a whole to a nominee of DTC or by a nominee of DTC to DTC or another nominee of DTC or by DTC or any nominee to a successor nominee of such successor.

DTC has advised us as follows:

- DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a “clearing agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the U.S. Exchange Act.
- DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC and facilitates the settlement among direct participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry changes to participants’ accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates.
- Direct participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations.
- DTC is owned by a number of its direct participants and by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange, Inc., the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and the National Securities Clearing Corporation.
- Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant, either directly or indirectly.
- The rules applicable to DTC and its direct and indirect participants are on file with the Commission.

Purchases of debt securities under the DTC system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a confirmation of purchase of debt securities on DTC’s records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of debt securities is in turn to be recorded on the direct and indirect participants’ records. Beneficial owners of the debt securities will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase, but beneficial owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participants through which the beneficial owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the debt securities are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of direct and indirect participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership in the debt securities, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the debt securities is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all debt securities deposited by direct participants with DTC are registered in the name of the partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of securities with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the debt securities; DTC’s records reflect only the identity of the direct participants to whose accounts such debt securities are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The d indirect participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

e424b5

Table of Contents

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to direct participants, by, direct participants to indirect participants, by indirect participants to direct participants and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. (nor any other DTC nominee) will consent or vote with respect to the global securities. Under the procedures, DTC mails an omnibus proxy to the issuer as soon as possible after the record date. The omnibus proxy assigns the responsibility for consenting or voting rights to those direct participants to whose accounts the debt securities are credited on the record date (identified in the listing attached to the omnibus proxy).

All payments on the global securities will be made to Cede & Co., as holder of record, or such other nominee as may be designated by DTC as an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and to provide corresponding detail information from us or the trustee on payment dates in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. Payments by participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as may be in effect from time to time, with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name," and will be the responsibility of the participant and not of DTC, us or the trustee, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) shall be the responsibility of us or the trustee. Disbursement of such payments to direct participants shall be the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the beneficial owners shall be the responsibility of direct and indirect participants.

DTC may discontinue providing its service as securities depository with respect to the debt securities at any time by giving notice to the issuer or the trustee. In addition, we may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through DTC (in favor of a successor securities depository). Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor securities depository is not obtained, physical certificates in fully registered form are required to be printed and delivered to beneficial owners of the global securities representing their debt securities.

None of the issuers, the trustee nor any underwriter of any debt securities will have any responsibility or obligation to direct or indirect participants, or the persons for whom they act as nominees, with respect to the accuracy of the records of DTC, its nominees or participants with respect to any ownership interest in the debt securities, or payments to, or the providing of notice to participants or beneficial owners.

So long as the debt securities are in DTC's book-entry system, secondary market trading activity in the debt securities will be made from immediately available funds. All payments on the debt securities issued as global securities will be made by us in immediately available funds.

Defeasance

Each issuer under an indenture will be discharged from its obligations on the debt securities of any series issued under the indenture at any time if sufficient cash or government securities are deposited with the trustee under the indenture to pay the principal, premium and any other sums due to the stated maturity date or a redemption date of the debt securities of the series. If this happens, the holders of the debt securities of the series will not be entitled to the benefits of the indenture except for registration of transfers and exchange of debt securities and replacement of lost, stolen or mutilated debt securities.

The debt securities of any series may also provide for legal defeasance. Legal defeasance is permitted only if the issuer is released from, or there has been published by, the United States Internal Revenue Service a ruling to the effect that legal defeasance will holders of the debt securities to recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes.

Under U.S. federal income tax law as of the date of this prospectus, a discharge may be treated as an exchange of the securities. Each holder might be required to recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the holder's cost or other basis in the debt securities and the value of the holder's interest in the trust. Holders might be required to include as income a difference that would be includable without the discharge. Prospective investors are urged to consult their own tax advisers as to the consequences of a discharge, including the applicability and effect of tax laws other than the U.S. federal income tax law.

The Trustee

The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. acts as trustee or will act as the initial trustee, conversion agent, payment agent, transfer agent and registrar with respect to debt securities under each indenture. The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. is also the trustee under existing indentures governing (1) $1.5 billion aggregate principal amount of senior notes issued by Noble Drilling and guaranteed by Noble Cayman, (2) $202 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes issued by Noble Drilling and guaranteed by Noble Cayman and certain indirect subsidiaries of Noble Cayman, and (3) $300 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes issued by Noble Drilling and guaranteed by Noble Cayman and NHIL. The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. also performs certain other services for, and transacts other banking business with us in the normal course of business. The address of the trustee is 100 Travis Street, 16th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, Attention: Corporate Trust Administration.

Governing Law

Unless otherwise indicated in the prospectus supplement, each indenture and the debt securities of each series will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

Notices

Notices to holders of debt securities will be given by mail to the addresses of such holders as they appear in the security certificate.

Plan of Distribution

Noble-Cayman and NHIL may sell the securities offered in this prospectus in and outside the United States (a) through direct sales; (b) through underwriters or dealers; (c) directly to one or more purchasers; or (d) through a combination of any of these methods. The applicable prospectus supplement will include the following information:

- the terms of the offering;
- the names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, and the respective amounts of securities underwritten or purchased by them;
- the name or names of any managing underwriter or underwriters;
- the purchase price of the securities;
- the net proceeds to the respective issuers from the sale of the securities;
- any delayed delivery arrangements;
- any underwriting discounts, commissions and other items constituting underwriters' compensation;
- any initial public offering price;
- any discounts or concessions allowed or reallowed or paid to dealers; and
- any commissions paid to agents.

e424b5

By Agents

Offered securities may be sold through agents designated by an issuer. In the prospectus supplement, the issuer will name the agents involved in the offer or sale of the offered securities and will describe any commissions payable by an issuer to the agent. Unless the issuer informs you otherwise in the prospectus supplement, the agents will agree to use their reasonable best efforts to solicit purchases of the securities during the period of their appointment. An issuer may sell securities directly to institutional investors or others who may be deemed to be acting in a non-retail capacity within the meaning of the U.S. Securities Act with respect to those securities. The terms of any such sales will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

e424b5

By Underwriters or Dealers

If underwriters are used in the sale, the offered securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account. They may resell the securities in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at a price determined at the time of sale. The underwriter may offer securities to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more firms acting as an underwriter. Unless the issuer informs you otherwise in the applicable prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the securities will be subject to certain conditions. If the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the securities of the series offered if any of the securities are purchased. Any offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

During and after an offering through underwriters, the underwriters may purchase and sell the securities in the open market. These transactions may include over-allotment and stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover syndicate short positions created in connection with the offering. The underwriters may also impose a penalty bid, which means that selling concessions allowed to syndicate members or other broker-dealers for the offered securities sold for their account may be reclaimed by the syndicate if the offered securities are repurchased by the syndicate in stabilizing or covering transactions. These activities may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the offered securities, which may be higher than the price that might otherwise prevail in the open market. If commercial conditions warrant, the underwriters may discontinue these activities at any time.

If an issuer uses dealers in the sale of securities, it will sell the securities to them as principals. They may then resell those securities to the public at varying prices determined by the dealers at the time of resale. The dealers participating in any sale of the securities will be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the U.S. Securities Act, with respect to any sale of those securities. The issuer will include in the prospectus supplement the names of the dealers and the terms of the transaction.

Direct Sales

Offered securities may also be sold directly by an issuer. In this case, no underwriters or agents would be involved.

Delayed Delivery Contracts

If the prospectus supplement so indicates, an issuer may authorize agents, underwriters or dealers to solicit offers from institutions to purchase securities from us at the public offering price under delayed delivery contracts.

These contracts would provide for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. The contracts would be subject to the same conditions described in the prospectus supplement. The prospectus supplement will describe the commission payable for those contracts.

General Information

Underwriters, dealers and agents that participate in the distribution of the offered securities may be underwriters as defined in the U.S. Securities Act, and any discounts or commissions received by them from an issuer or guarantor and any profit on the resale of the offered securities by them may be treated as underwriting discounts and commissions under the U.S. Securities Act. Any underwriters, dealers or agents will be identified and their compensation described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Noble-Cayman or NHIL may have agreements with the underwriters, dealers and agents to indemnify them against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act, or to contribute with respect to payments which the underwriters agents may be required to make.

Underwriters, dealers and agents may engage in transactions with, or perform services for, Noble-Cayman, NHIL or other subsidiaries of Noble-Swiss in the ordinary course of their businesses.

e424b5

Table of Contents

Unless otherwise stated in a prospectus statement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase any securities will be on customary closing conditions and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all of such series of securities if any are purchased.

The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the place and time of delivery for the securities in respect of which the prospectus is delivered.

Legal Matters

Except as set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement, the validity of the debt securities under United States laws will be governed by the laws of the State of New York upon for Noble-Cayman or NHIL, as applicable, by Baker Botts L.L.P., Houston, Texas.

Experts

The consolidated financial statements and management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting (which is included in Management's Annual Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting) incorporated in this prospectus by reference to the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Noble Corporation (Cayman Islands) for the year ended December 31, 2009, are incorporated in reliance on the report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, given on the authority of said firm as experts in auditing and accounting.
